

Three Little Troublemakers Turned the World Upside Down After My Divorce Chapter 17: Does she want to turn the world upside down!

Chapter 17 Does she want to turn the world upside down!

"Mr. Li, that's great, the computer system is ready." After Ke Ke left for a while, Li Zhenting's phone rang hastily, and he picked it up, and Yang Guo's surprised voice came from there.

Li Zhenting was stunned for a moment, and said in a deep voice: "Okay, then go to rest, you have worked hard."

After putting down the phone, Li Zhenting felt relaxed, poured a glass of boiling water and drank slowly.

Inexplicably, I felt something was wrong.

The computer system was obviously a mess just now, why did it suddenly recover in an instant?

He looked up at the computer.

The little figure of Ding Ding suddenly flashed in my mind...

Could it be... him?

Ding Ding has been gifted since childhood! Especially interested in computer systems.

For his hobbies, since he was two years old, he invited top international computer experts to train him.

He stood up abruptly.

Yes, it is very likely that this brat is making trouble.

Because of his mother's affairs, he was resentful, and deliberately took revenge on him.

Thinking of the somersaulting Altman and the words 'scumbag' on the computer screen, he became even more convinced.

Last night, he promised to marry his mommy. He was happy, so he took the initiative to fix the computer.

This kid! He has been deceived!

The corners of his lips raised slightly.

The son is more capable than the father! It really gave me a headache!

Early in the morning, Shen Ning rushed to Lantian Kindergarten first.

Both Ke Ke and Xiao Xiao are five years old, and now they can't go back to the United States, so they have to go to kindergarten here as soon as possible.

But the tuition fee of Lantian Kindergarten is really expensive!

A child's annual tuition fee is 70,000 to 80,000, not including food expenses, and there are also rent, water and electricity bills... Suddenly, she was under a lot of pressure.

In the United States these years, she worked odd jobs to make ends meet, but now she came to the imperial capital, and everything was just beginning.

But she didn't hesitate, and immediately reported to Ke Ke and Xiao Xiao.

Now she already owns 50% of the shares of Gucci perfume shop!

As long as the company is on the right track under her leadership, it will soon be able to regain its mother's former glory, and there will be a lot of money to be made.

When she thought of money, her eyes lit up, her whole body became energetic, and she turned and walked towards Gu Qi.

But as soon as he got out of the elevator, he ran into that * Li Zhenting head-on.

He came from the other end of the corridor, dressed in a suit and leather shoes, he looked handsome, he looked like a dog, his handsome face was covered with a thin layer of frost, and his eyes were dark and unpredictable.

Shen Ning was stunned for a moment, then strode forward as if nothing had happened, and passed Li Zhenting without even looking at him.

This kind of ruthless, blind dog-eyed man would waste her saliva just to say hello to him. The saliva still has some nutrition.

Li Zhenting frowned.

This woman was full of evil spirits early in the morning, and she looked very difficult to get along with, which really made him wonder if she wanted to turn the world upside down!

Inexplicably, her previous appearance of lowering her brows and listening to her ears flashed in her mind, and her eyes dimmed involuntarily.

She has changed after all!

Downstairs in the Rolls-Royce Extreme Edition luxury car.

Li Zhenting lit a cigar, took a deep breath, his handsome face was bleak, and his eyes were deep.

Six years ago, Shen Ning committed suicide by jumping into the sea, which really shocked him!

During that period, the company happened to have a few very important clients. He worked overtime day and night and slept in the presidential suite of the hotel every night.

When he finished his business, the news of her death came.

He ran to the sea, facing the unfathomable water, in a daze.

He didn't love her, but he never wanted her to die!

During the six years after Shen Ning's death, his life was actually very bad.

Grandma and his mother Li Wanqing like Shen Ning very much.

Because of this, he was regarded as a sinner who indirectly forced Shen Ning to death by his relatives, and he has been buried by them all the time!

He took a deep puff on his cigar, and looked at the blue sky and white clouds in the distance. A girl's figure flashed in his mind, and his heart throbbed inexplicably.

At the age of seventeen, on a hillside, he was pushed down a cliff. During the fall, a sharp branch pierced his eyes, and he fainted.

A girl saved her life!

During that time, his eyes were covered with thick gauze, lying in the dark in the hospital, feeling depressed, it was the girl who accompanied him and took good care of him.

The girl's laughter is crisp, cheerful and optimistic, she is knowledgeable and has similar tastes with him.

Although he couldn't see her face, he was deeply attracted by her character and knowledge, fell in love with her thoroughly, and vowed not to marry her in his life.

Later, grandma found him and picked him up late at night.

He never had the chance to see her face.

It wasn't until later, after many inquiries, that the girl was actually Shen Mei...

Babies, do you like it? Lots of votes, love you guys
