

Three Little Troublemakers Turned the World Upside Down After My Divorce Chapter 18: hit Shen Mei in front of him again

Chapter 18 Playing Shen Mei in front of him again

Gucci perfume warehouse.

"These, and these... take them all and destroy them." As soon as Shen Ning arrived at Gu Qi Company, he went to its warehouse first, opened up all kinds of fancy perfumes in front of him, smelled them, threw them all aside, and told the secretary .

The secretary looked embarrassed and stood still.

"What's wrong?" Shen Ning frowned.

"Miss Shen, Mr. Shen specifically told us to sell these things well. The company has already made a planning plan." The secretary hesitated for a while, and had to tell the truth.

Shen Ning's eyes turned cold, and his eyebrows raised: "These perfumes contain phthalates, which will produce harmful residues during the synthesis process. If they are unqualified, they cannot be listed at all. Listing is extremely irresponsible to customers. It can only damage the company's reputation."

"Who says it's unqualified?" As soon as she finished speaking, Shen Mei strode in on high heels, with a contemptuous smile on her face, "Shen Ning, do you know perfume? Do you know how to do business? Difformic acid esters can make water and fragrance better blend, and the interior is more uniform and stable, you won't tell me, you don't even understand this, do you?"

In fact, the industry is generally adulterated, it's just a matter of how much, so as to maximize profits. As for the residue, it's nothing in the eyes of businessmen.

Shen Ning put his arms around his chest, looked directly at her, and sneered: "I just said why Gu Qi has declined so much in just a few years. It turns out that not only the formula is not good, but also there is a problem with this character. It is obviously too far from the original intention of Gucci, if it continues like this, it will close down."

"Bitch, how dare you curse my company to close down." Shen Mei was furious, picked up a bottle of liquid on the table and poured it on Shen Ning's face.

The strong smell of phosphophthalates filled the air.

Shen Ning's face changed color.

Immediately dodge and dodge.

The liquid splashed onto the cargo box behind, and the yellow carton immediately turned white.

Shen Ning trembled with anger.

Phosphophthalate is highly corrosive to the skin. I really didn't expect Shen Mei to be so vicious. This is clearly to ruin her face.

"Shen Mei, you vicious woman, I can't spare you today." Shen Ning roared angrily, and rushed towards Shen Mei.

Shen Meizao felt guilty and frightened, she turned around and ran away in fright.

But she was wearing an eight-centimeter high hat, and Shen Ning caught up with her hair after she couldn't run a few steps.

"Sister, don't hit me... help me." Shen Mei had suffered a lot, she turned pale with fright, trembled, and called for help.

"Bitch, you don't change your nature, you are too vicious." Shen Ning raised his hand and slapped her * the face, clear and loud.

Li Zhenting saw this scene as soon as he got out of the elevator.

"Shen Ning, who gave you the guts to hit someone repeatedly in front of me." He yelled angrily, with a terrifying chill all over his body, his eyes seemed to kill.

This woman must be crazy, and she hit Shen Mei in front of him again. If she didn't come back on purpose to make trouble, what is it?

"Zhenting, save me quickly, my sister will hit me as soon as she sees me." Shen Mei was secretly happy when she heard Li Zhenting's voice, and immediately crawled over, covering her face and crying, and fell into Li Zhenting's arms.

Li Zhenting's eyes were sharp, he hugged Shen Mei, and sternly shouted at Shen Ning: "Shen Ning, believe it or not, I will let you get out of the imperial capital right away."
