

Troublemakers 561

Chapter 561 Things are very strange

"That's right." Manager Wang sneered, "I didn't say this, but a customer complained. We have received the third complaint today. Our shopping mall attaches great importance to reputation. Therefore, Mr. Shen, please handle it well. Complaints from customers, and take your products back, we dare not sell them here."

complaint?

Shen Ning's eyelids twitched.

Since she took over Gucci from Shen Mei, Gucci perfume has never been complained about. How could it be complained suddenly now, and three customers complained at the same time?

When she was wondering, Manager Wang asked the waiter next to him to tell her the content of the customer's complaint.

Shen Ning was terrified when he heard it.

It turned out that one of the three customers who complained today was sent to the hospital because of allergies after applying the perfume and developed a large rash. The other two customers responded that it was a fake product, saying that it contained harmful substances, and asked for a fake one. ten.

Shen Ning's heart sank to the bottom, and he realized that something big happened.

A brand is most afraid of such a thing.

If the media finds out and spreads it out, Gucci's reputation will basically be ruined!

"Manager Wang, I'm really sorry. My products have caused your store to suffer undue reputation loss. I'm very sorry. I'll deal with the problem right away. How about this? Please give me the product that the customer complained about and I will take it. Let's do a test to see where the crux of the problem lies before improving." She immediately apologized and started to solve the problem.

Manager Wang just replied indifferently: "For the product that the customer complained about, you should go to your salesperson. Please solve the customer's complaint as soon as possible, as well as the liquidated damages for our store. Everything is done according to the contract."

After he finished speaking, he left.

After Shen Ning was stunned, he immediately went to the salesperson.

But when she went to the Gucci counter, the salesperson next to her told her that Gucci's sales lady ran away in fright when she heard someone complaining about going to the hospital.

Shen Ning's face darkened, and he opened the counter to find customers to complain about the returned products, but there was no shadow.

In desperation, she had no choice but to go to Manager Wang again, but Manager Wang said that there were so many manufacturers and companies in the audience, and he didn't have time to personally check each of them, so she asked her to find his own people.

Shen Ning had no choice but to call Marley, and asked where the sales promotion lady was recruited from.

Marley checked it out, and it was Wu Mingxing, the business manager, who introduced it through a salesman in the mall.

Shen Ning made a decisive decision, and immediately asked Marley to bring people to remove all the products from the shelves, and then shipped them back to the company. He also checked the resume of Wu Meimei, the sales lady.

Wu Meimei is very young, only eighteen years old, her parents are divorced, her family is in a bad situation, she has only been employed for half a month, that is to say, she ran away before getting her salary.

She felt incredible.

Not long after, Marley walked in with a bottle of perfume and said, "Ningning, I have tested all the products I brought back, and found that this bottle does contain too much formaldehyde.

"Why is there only one bottle?" Shen Ning was very puzzled.

Marley pondered: "This matter is very strange, someone must be harming us secretly."

"Then is this bottle of products with high formaldehyde content produced by our factory?"

"It's true. I checked it repeatedly. Both the packaging and the anti-counterfeiting mark are produced by our factory. It's very strange." Marley took the bottle of perfume and inspected it, feeling very headache.

As soon as he finished speaking, the sales manager over there called.

Shen Ning picked it up.

"Mr. Shen, it's not good. The patient who was sent to the hospital has passed out and is in a serious condition." He spoke in a hurry.

"Let's go and have a look." Shen Ning stood up and immediately spoke to Marley.

Marley nodded, and the two drove to the hospital.

As soon as he entered the ward, Shen Ning felt that the man lying on the bed looked familiar, as if he had seen it somewhere before.

"Mr. Shen, this patient is the man who made trouble at Gu Qi's door last time, and even smashed the glass in our hall." Wu Mingxing, the manager of the business department, reminded him in a low voice.

Chapter 562 She reached out and pushed Shen Ning hard

Shen Ning was startled, and immediately remembered, yes, it was him.

There was a disturbance at the door of Gucci that day, saying that the man who was allergic to Gucci's perfume was almost killed by Li Zhenting's car, and she pushed him at a critical moment.

At that time, he ran away in a fright.

She suddenly remembered Li Zhenting's words: 'Do you know who he is? Is he really allergic to Gucci's perfume? '

That day, although Li Zhenting didn't make it very clear, obviously, he should know the details of this man.

Is this another case of extortion?

Then this man is too courageous, the last time Li Zhenting did not scare him away with such means, he actually came to make trouble again?

"Manager Xu, please notify me as soon as he wakes up, and I will ask him some questions in person." After she confessed, the phone in her hand rang again.

This time it was Xu Jiatian, the sales manager, who was in another large high-end shopping mall in the east of the city.

"Mr. Shen, it's not good. There have also been complaints from customers about the Gucci perfume here. Now the manager here has also asked our perfume to be removed from the shelves."

"Okay, I'll be there right away. You must hold the scene, calm down the complaining customers, and wait for me to come." After Shen Ning ordered, he hurriedly followed Marley to the shop in the east of the city.

This time the sales lady in the mall is still there.

When Shen Ning rushed over, two customers were holding Gucci's perfume and shouting wildly:

"Gucci is a liar, selling fake products, perfume mixed with harmful substances, harming customers' health, immoral, and conscience."

"Tell your boss, pay me ten times the price, and pay for our mental damage. I want to expose you."

...

Shen Ning looked at the two customers, a man and a woman, dressed in decent fashion, they didn't look like street rascals.

"I'm sorry, please be quiet first." Shen Ning walked over and immediately apologized.

"Are you Gu Qi's boss?" The man and woman asked ferociously when they saw her.

"Yes, I am, please tell me if you have any questions." Shen Ning replied politely.

The man and the woman immediately surrounded him, sandwiching Shen Ning in the middle.

"You came just in time, your company sells fake products, you have to give an explanation." The man said roughly, his eyes full of fierce light.

"Sorry, my company's products have caused you trouble, please give me the perfume you bought first, please? I want to take it back for testing first." Shen Ning laughed along.

"You don't want to destroy the perfume, don't you admit it?" The woman clenched the perfume in her hand, very vigilant.

"That's right, if you * me, I'll make you go all the way around, don't play any tricks, I won't be afraid." The man's face was full of ferociousness.

Shen Ning smiled: "Please don't worry, our Guqi is a regular company, and we pay attention to reputation. If these products are really our company, if they are fake, I will definitely pay ten for the fake ones. Besides, don't you have an invoice for your consumption? Based on this, I can't deny it."

While speaking, a white light flashed.

Shen Ning's face turned pale. It seems that a reporter has already arrived.

At this moment, the two men and women looked at each other, and handed over the perfume in their hands to Shen Ning.

Shen Ning immediately asked the salesperson to take all the products off the shelves and prepare to take them back for testing. In order to appease the customers, Shen Ning first returned the money for the perfume.

"Just refund this little money?" The man was not happy, so he stretched out his hand and pushed Shen Ning hard.

Shen Ning was pushed back several steps and almost fell to the ground.

Chapter 563 is clearly here to make trouble!

"Hey, sir, it's wrong for you to push people with your hands. At present, whether these goods are fake or not has to be verified by relevant departments. It's not just whoever says it. We will refund your money first, that's for you To appease, we have to wait for the relevant news to come out." Marley could see that this couple was here to make trouble, and immediately supported Shen Ning, with a serious face.

"Ah bah, you can sell fake products, why should I trust you, you are profiteers, criminals." The woman jumped out and pointed at Shen Ning and scolded sharply.

The man is even more vicious: "You sold fakes first, and I came here to ask for an explanation. What's the matter? Don't sell fakes if you have the ability."

The man bullied forward while talking, and the woman also rushed forward.

Marley was very angry, this is not to ask for an explanation, it is clearly to make trouble!

He rushed to the front, protecting Shen Ning behind him.

The man raised his fist at Marley.

Shen Ning was in a hurry, Uncle Marley was already in his fifties, so how could he be their opponent.

"Stop." Just as the battle was about to break out, a security guard from the shopping mall walked over with two strong young security guards.

"Young Mistress." The security guard headed by strode towards Shen Ning.

Shen Ning was startled, and looked at him.

The man was in his fifties, wearing a uniform, with a smile on his face and respectful eyes.

Isn't this Butler Luo?

"Butler Luo, why are you here?" Shen Ning asked in surprise.

"Hey, it's a long story." Butler Luo smiled helplessly, and said to the couple, "Please don't make noise in the mall. If you have anything to do, go upstairs to talk to the manager. This is disturbing public order. If that happens, I'll call the police."

Seeing that the situation was not right, the couple didn't dare to stay any longer, and left a sentence, 'If you don't pay me compensation, I will come again. '

After finishing speaking, he left.

"Young Mistress, after I was dismissed by the Young Master, I am already in my fifties, and no good company is willing to take me. Fortunately, I still have some old friends with Shang Dongjun, so he introduced me here as a security guard." Captain." After they left, Butler Luo said with a wry smile.

"Shang Dongjun? Isn't he the security captain of Li's Castle?" Shen Ning was a little surprised.

"Yes." Butler Luo replied, "The two large shopping malls in the east and west of the city are originally owned by the Li Group. Shang Dongjun was transferred here. He saw that I had nothing to do after being fired, so he helped me." Give me a hand, let me come over and be the captain of the security team."

Shen Ning was stunned. It turned out that the two large high-end stores in the east and west of the city belonged to the Li Group. In the past, she only focused on the research of perfume formulas. These were all run by the business manager. She only came when she first entered the store. , I really don't know about these.

"I'm sorry, Butler Luo, I'm the one who got you into trouble." Shen Ning felt very guilty when she thought that Butler Luo was fired by Li Zhenting because of her.

"Young mistress, please don't say that, it's none of your business at all, the young master is just in a bad mood." Butler Luo smiled wryly.

Shen Ning said: "You must call me young mistress again, it will cause a joke, so, are you still willing to go back to be a housekeeper?"

Since Steward Luo left, Li's Castle can be described as a mess. She has long wanted to find Steward Luo and come back these days. She didn't expect to meet him here today. She thought it was a good opportunity.

Steward Luo's eyes lit up when he heard this.

"Young...Mr. Shen, I have been working in Li's Castle since I was 20 years old. It is the place I know and love the most. I would like to go back even in my dreams, but Master..." His face was gloomy.

Chapter 564 This is very strange

"Don't worry, you report to Li's Castle at four o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and I'll wait for you there." Shen Ning took out a bunch of keys from his bag, "This is for you, your job is the same as usual, and your salary is the same as usual. I'll make it up for you."

"..." Housekeeper Luo looked at the familiar keys, his eyes were red, and he was trembling and dared not take them.

"Hurry up and pick it up." Shen Ning smiled, "Don't worry, I'm in charge of Li's Castle now, you can just pick it up, I was going to find you back."

"Shen, Mr. Shen, have you gone back? That's great." Butler Luo took the key from her excitedly.

Shen Ning couldn't say a word, but just smiled: "I have to leave first, see you tomorrow."

"Okay." Butler Luo nodded with a smirk. Seeing Shen Ning and Marley walking a long way, he suddenly remembered something. He hurried up and pulled Shen Ning aside and whispered, "Mr. These two shopping malls are a bit weird, recently I heard that the top management has changed, and I also heard that there is a possibility that the shareholders of the two shopping malls will change, I just heard the gossip, I don't know the specific situation yet, please be careful."

Shen Ning was in a daze.

Aren't the shareholders of Li Zhenting's property owned by Li's Group all Li Zhenting? How can you change the shareholders?

However, there are too many properties under the Li Group, maybe Li Zhenting has other arrangements, and she didn't think much about it.

"Uncle Marley, are the products of the two stores in the east and west of the city the same batch?" After returning to the company, Shen Ning asked Marley.

"It's not." Marley shook his head after checking the delivery list.

Shen Ning's face was serious.

"This is very strange, there must be a reason for it." Marley was preoccupied.

The two were talking when Shen Ning's cell phone rang.

She picked it up and saw that it was Mrs. Li Minhua calling her.

"Hi, grandma." She picked it up with a smile on her face.

"Ning Ning, it's the weekend today, bring the children here with Zhen Ting, I want to eat your food too, I miss it so much, I don't have any appetite for anything these days." Open your mouth.

Shen Ning mused, the old lady called her personally, it would not be good if she didn't go, besides, she hasn't visited her since the old lady returned from illness, and it is true that Ke Ke and Ding Ding haven't visited for a long time. After passing her, old people are afraid of being alone.

"Okay, grandma, I'll take the children there after school in the afternoon." She agreed after thinking for a while.

"Then I'll wait for you." The old lady happily hung up the phone.

After putting down the phone, Shen Ning and Marley immediately went to the laboratory to test the perfumes they brought back. After checking, except for the returned perfumes from Chengxi Shopping Mall, only three bottles were found to be faulty.

Shen Ning immediately convened a meeting of all the persons in charge from the production line to the final delivery to the shopping mall. After the meeting, they all agreed that there would be no problems with the three bottles of perfume before leaving the factory. It was planted and framed afterwards.

In the end, they all focused their doubts on Wu Meimei, the man who was sent to the hospital and fainted, and the pair of men and women who caused trouble in the east of the city today.

"Call the police immediately." Shen Ning made a prompt decision.

"That's right, I think so too. Only in this way can we find the real culprit." Marley agreed.

So

They immediately called the police, and then took the initiative to send the perfume to the relevant testing department.

After everything was done, Shen Ning not only felt tired physically, but also very tired in heart.

After eating something at noon, she fell asleep in the lounge.

Chapter 565 She really wanted to slap herself hard.

"Xiaoxiao, don't, Xiaoxiao belongs to me, you can't take it away." Perhaps because of being too tired, Shen Ning actually had a nightmare again, and this time, she actually dreamed that Xiaoxiao was robbed by Li Zhenting gone.

Like a rascal, Li Zhenting snatched Xiao Xiao from her arms without even giving her a glance.

She cried, crying heartbreakingly.

But Li Zhenting is a demon, holding Xiao Xiao who kept crying and went straight away, ignoring her at all.

She kept running to find Xiaoxiao in her dream, crying miserably!

Later, she dreamed that Li Zhenting married Shen Mei. The arrogant and vicious Shen Mei tortured her children and broke their legs.

She was heartbroken, crying like crazy in her dream, but no one paid attention to her.

In this world, she is alone, with no relatives except her children!

She cried and cried, and at some point, she was awakened by the ringing of the phone, and when she got up, she was drenched in sweat.

By this time, it was already half past three in the afternoon.

It's time to pick up the children from Blue Whale Kindergarten.

When she stood up, she felt weak and cold, and when she finally picked up her bag and was about to go out, she suddenly raised her head.

No, upstairs, Li Zhenting's pig didn't move at all today. Usually at this time, he would have already rushed downstairs to find her to pick up the children.

Although she still hasn't figured out why he set up an office rest area above her, and the whole floor is still empty and the environment is not good.

Leng Xue had mentioned to her that those upstairs were reserved for Gu Qi, but as long as she thought that Li Zhenting was still on that floor, she would rather give up this production line than rent it.

At present, there is only one explanation, that is, he has convulsions, and his cerebellum has convulsions!

Otherwise, why go upstairs to her to get a rest and office area!

Thinking of the dream just now, she was still trembling with chills all over her body. She walked outside, and when she passed the elevator, she unknowingly looked over.

The elevator is empty. Obviously, Li Zhenting will not pick up the children with her today.

When she realized this, she felt an inexplicable sense of loss in her heart!

Sudden

She wanted to slap herself hard.

What a bitch, how could she be disappointed by that * man!

She walked outside quickly, and drove her newly bought business Mercedes-Benz towards Blue Whale Kindergarten.

Still far away, I saw four little guys standing at the gate of Blue Whale Kindergarten, standing straight in a row, each carrying a small schoolbag, all of them were cute and soft, and the parents next to them turned their heads frequently .

The four little guys stood calmly, as if they had long been used to the star halo.

Seeing the children, all the depression in Shen Ning's heart disappeared, and his whole body was instantly full of energy.

"Mommy, Mommy." When she got out of the car, the three little guys ran towards her, and Lan Lan followed.

"Mommy, where's Daddy?" After the children came to hug her intimately, when they didn't see Li Zhenting on the left and right, their little faces were instantly filled with disappointment.

Although the scumbag daddy is a bit scumbag, they still miss him very much.

During this period of time, Li Zhenting came to pick them up on time almost every day, but today he only saw Mommy, and the feeling that he thought he was accustomed to Daddy realized that they also wanted to see Daddy when they didn't see Daddy. .

After Shen Ning saw the disappointed expressions on the children's faces, the smile on his face sank.

Children naturally want to see Daddy and Mommy, both are indispensable.

"Daddy is busy with some things. Mommy will take you to see your grandpa and grandma, okay? They miss you so much." Shen Ning asked with a slight smile.

"Yeah, that's great." Coco and Ding Ding cheered a little.

"Then get in the car, we'll be there right away." Shen Ning let the children into the car, and she drove towards Li's old house.

Chapter 566 I want to entrust you with this important task

"Grandpa, grandma, grandpa, grandma." An hour later, Shen Ning parked the car in front of Li's old house with mountains and rivers interspersed with it. Just as Shen Ning opened the car door, the children cheered like birds. Li's old house ran and jumped over.

The four little guys all opened their throats laughing and shouting.

In an instant, the quiet old house was like a small stone thrown into a calm lake, and there were cheers one after another. The birds on the tree fluttered their wings and wanted to fly up to see what happened.

"Cocoa, Tintin, Xiaoxiao, Lanlan."

Li Wanqing came out with a happy smile when she heard the voice of milk.

The four little guys scrambled towards her arms.

"Grandma, hug me."

"Grandma, hug me first."

"Okay, okay, I'll come one by one." Li Wanqing hurriedly hugged one, then had to hug the other, kissed this and then kissed the other, all in a mess.

Shen Ning stood aside and watched this scene, pursing his lips and smiling.

"Okay, children, stand in line, Ke Ke pulls Ding Ding's clothes on the back, Xiao Xiao pulls Ke Ke's back clothes, Lan Lan pulls Xiao Xiao, you all line up to go in, great grandpa and grandma are old. I can't stand your tossing." Finally, after Li Wanqing kissed every little guy, Shen Ning ordered the children to stand up and line up to walk in.

But when queuing up, Lan Lan didn't want to pull Xiaoxiao's clothes, but had to pull Keke, so Shen Ning had to let Xiaoxiao stand at the end.

Small eye circles are red.

Shen Ning looked at her daughter's aggrieved appearance, thought of the dream at noon, and also thought of her special status in this family, feeling bad for a while.

Obviously she is also the granddaughter of the Li family, but because of her own selfishness, she was treated unfairly at such a young age.

She is very guilty.

However, fortunately, Xiaoxiao was sensible and didn't fight, and obediently stood at the back.

"Xiaoxiao is really sensible, I like Xiaoxiao the most." Li Wanqing praised Xiaoxiao with a smile on the side.

The little big eyes immediately turned into a flower, and the grievance just now was gone.

Li Jichun and Li Minhua sat on the sofa in the living room smilingly waiting for the children to come.

"Grandpa, Grandma." The children lined up in front of Li Jichun and Li Minhua, and Ding Ding yelled coolly.

"Ding Ding, come quickly." Li Minhua waved to him with a smile.

"Ding Ding, take it easy, don't touch Grandma." Shen Ning reminded him in a low voice beside him.

Li Minhua was old after all, and it was a little difficult to raise his hand.

"Grandma." So, Ding Ding walked gently into Grandma's arms and took her hand.

Li Minhua happily hugged him happily.

Ding Ding was intimate with Grandma for a while, and then went into Li Jichun's arms, and then it was Ke Ke's turn.

And so on, every little guy made out with the old man, the scene was warm and chaotic, and everyone smiled.

Seeing that there was nothing else to do, Shen Ning asked everyone what they wanted to eat for dinner, and immediately went to the kitchen to get busy.

Not long after, Li Wanqing walked in.

"Ning Ning, you are such a good boy, thank you for your hard work." Seeing Shen Ning busy with his hands and feet, she was very moved.

"Auntie, go and play with the children, I'll be fine if I come here, it's fine." Shen Ning smiled.

"No, I have something to tell you." Li Wanqing walked in and pushed Shen Ning's broken hair back, and looked at her lovingly, "Next Thursday will be Grandpa Coco's eighty-eighth birthday. Yes, this time, we plan to hold a grand birthday party for the old man, and invite some high-ranking people to attend, and I want to entrust you with this important task."

Chapter 567 Why are there always so many villains trying to harm Mommy?

"Ah, me? No, it can't be done." Shen Ning was taken aback, and immediately shook his head violently.

"No, you can do it." Li Wanqing said with a serious face, "No one else is up to this task except you. I know you will be very tired, but please promise me this time for the sake of the children. For the face of the Li family, I don't want to make any mistakes, and you can ask for any reward you want."

"Auntie, you know, I'm not here for the reward." Shen Ning was stunned, "I really have no reason to be in charge of this dinner, after all I'm just an outsider, Shen Mei should be responsible for this matter, she is your son's favorite woman."

"No, she's just a bug, nothing, we will never agree, only you, I can rest assured, and you used to be the house in the Li's Castle, and beat up the Li family from top to bottom. It was done in an orderly manner, we all saw this, but I just wronged you." Li Wanqing said, tears of distressed eyes appeared in her eyes.

If the son can cherish Shen Ning, what a wonderful family it would be now.

"Auntie, let me think about it first." Seeing that she had no choice but to refuse directly, Shen Ning had to use euphemistic words.

"Okay, you can think about it first, but please agree for the sake of the children, don't let me down." Li Wanqing patted her on the shoulder and spoke earnestly. After finishing speaking, she didn't bother her again. Turned around and left.

This put a lot of pressure on Shen Ning and kept silent.

"Mr. Shen, it's not good. Now everyone on the Internet is smearing our Gu Qi, saying that we sell fake products, mixed with harmful substances, and more and more people repost it. If this continues, our Gu Qi image will be completely destroyed." After a while. After that, she received a call from Secretary Li.

Shen Ning's hand trembled, and immediately wiped the apron with his hand, and turned on the phone.

Sure enough

All kinds of news about Gucci selling fake goods appeared on the mobile phone. There were pictures and the truth, which made people dazzled.

Shen Ning felt suffocated instantly.

Gu Qi has just started on the right track, and everything has just begun. The foundation is not solid, and she can't stand such a storm.

It seems that someone is playing tricks on Gu Qi, trying to completely destroy Gu Qi!

In the living room.

"Ke Ke, come with me." Ding Ding grabbed Ke Ke's arm and walked upstairs.

Coco was unlocking a game password, and was suddenly dragged upstairs by Tintin. He only thought that he was going to drag him into the world of hackers to explore the problem of strange powers, so he immediately followed.

"Oh, Keke, stop playing, Mommy is in trouble, hurry up, let's help Mommy solve the problem." Ding Ding snatched the phone from Keke's hand, and said anxiously.

Ke Ke was taken aback, and immediately asked, "What's wrong with Mommy?"

"Look for yourself, Mommy is being searched by villains again, why are there always so many villains trying to harm Mommy, Mommy's life is really hard." Ding Ding sighed.

Coco's face changed color, and he immediately opened the news interface of his mobile phone. Seeing this, he was so angry that he clenched his little fists.

"It's so hateful, you dare to slander Mommy's company like this, and still repost it everywhere, look at us."

Coco immediately turned on the computer, and Ding Ding sat beside her.

These two master hackers broke through the major V websites in a short while, making them dizzy and fans crazy. Not long after, they had to be forced to take down Gu Qi's video.

However, this time is different from the previous ones. In the past, it was only reposted by some big Vs in the imperial capital, but this time there are even overseas IP addresses reposting it frantically, intending to make Gucci perfume a hot search both at home and abroad.

Chapter 568 Let me marry Mommy when I grow up

Coco and Ding Ding are so angry!

If only the forces in the imperial capital are suppressed, then if the foreign forces are in full swing, it will be difficult to cover up the scandal. Then it will sweep from the outside to the inside, and Mommy's company will also be in dire straits.

What kind of person wants to kill Mommy?

Ke Ke and Ding Ding were very anxious, and they tried their best to break through one by one. Later, there were more and more IP broadcasts on YouTube. If this continues, if the official BNN of the United States is alarmed, it will be impossible to deal with it.

While the two little guys were in a hurry, suddenly, a group of Internet experts rushed out. There were quite a few of them. They began to work together to encircle the website on YouTube. Big V, Ke Ke and Ding Ding saw it, their eyes lit up, and hope came.

They began to cooperate with those experts to block it crazily. Not long after, the video of Gucci perfume was finally blocked. Several big Vs and rebroadcasting websites took down the video of Gucci perfume selling fake products.

There are still a very small number of small IPs who are chasing the popularity. Seeing that the big players have let go, they know that there will be no more storms, so they give up.

Finally, everything is calm.

"Hey, it's finally a complete victory." Ke Ke patted her head as if she had won a difficult battle, feeling a little powerless.

Ding Ding collapsed on the bed: "Who are the villains who are always manipulating Mommy behind the scenes? I really want to hack into their company and destroy all their systems."

Ke Ke also lay next to Ding Ding, pouted: "Could it be Daddy?"

"Impossible." Ding Ding sat up when he heard the words, "Ke Ke, you really have a prejudice against Daddy. Although Daddy is a little scumbag, he is very righteous and will never do such things that make small moves in secret. , Daddy is an excellent entrepreneur who has been worshiped and respected by many people, you can't think so badly of Daddy."

Coco's pouting mouth turned up again: "I think he has won the admiration and admiration of many women, otherwise, why would he be so scumbag to Mommy, abandoning his wife and son, tsk tsk, he is simply a scumbag fighter jets."

Ding Ding scratched his head: "Maybe it's because of love."

"What is love? Do you understand?" Coco asked with wide eyes.

Ding Ding shook his head suspiciously: "This is a matter between adults, and I don't understand it. If I understand, I will marry Mommy."

Ke Ke laughed: "Because you are too young to marry Mommy. If you grow up, you can marry now. Children cannot get married, understand."

"Yes." Ding Ding nodded: "You are right, I will marry Mommy when I grow up, Mommy is too pitiful alone."

"Well, okay, I support you." Coco nodded in approval.

The two little guys started to fly wild.

After dinner, Shen Ning came out quietly. Just now, she received a call from the business manager Wu Mingxing, and the man had already woken up.

She drove her business Mercedes-Benz to the hospital.

In the ward.

The man was sitting on the hospital bed and kept talking on the phone, swearing constantly.

Shen Ning looked at his lively appearance, and couldn't help wondering if he really fainted because of allergies.

She stood outside and listened. This man couldn't do without money and compensation. Obviously, he came here for money.

After a while, she knocked on the door and walked in.

"Who are you?" The man looked her up and down and asked suspiciously.

"I am the legal representative of Gucci Perfume Group." Shen Ning said indifferently.

The man's eyes flashed for a moment, and he immediately said to the phone, "I don't want to tell you anymore, I have something to do," then hung up the phone and looked at Shen Ning.

Chapter 569 cannot be underestimated!

"Are you Mr. Shen?"

"Yes."

"Mr. Shen, you are finally here, tell me what to do about this matter and how much you will pay." The man opened his mouth and asked.

Shen Ning looked at him, walked around in front of him, and asked, "Excuse me, what is your name?"

"My name is Zhanyuanshan." The man replied impatiently.

Shen Ning smiled slightly: "Brother Zhan, you look very energetic."

"Of course, I've always been full of energy." Zhan Yuanshan didn't think too much, opened his mouth to answer, and then felt something was wrong, he fainted because of allergies, how could he be in good spirits, obviously, he fell into her trap, which surprised him secretly. It seemed that this little girl was not easy to deal with.

Sure enough, Shen Ning asked: "Brother Zhan, do you know me?"

Zhan Yuanshan rolled his eyes, looked at Shen Ning: "I don't know."

"But I know you. That day at the gate of Gucci, you yelled and cursed that you were allergic to Gucci's perfume and smashed the glass of Gucci's gate. Later, I spent nearly 100,000 yuan to repair the glass. I haven't settled this account with you yet." Shen Ning said lightly, "I remember that day, you were almost killed by Li Zhenting's car, but I pushed you at the critical moment, you shouldn't forget it so quickly. Alright."

Zhan Yuanshan secretly glanced at Shen Ning again.

This little girl doesn't look very old, but she has been neither humble nor overbearing since she entered the door. She speaks in a reasonable manner and calmly. Even he, a habitual rogue, would feel guilty towards her.

No wonder she can be the legal representative of Gu Qi, like a big deal! Don't take it lightly!

"Brother Zhan, I have no grievances or enmities with you. I don't know why you use this method to frame me? Even if you have any opinions on Gu Qi, you can come to me and tell me directly. I will definitely solve it." Shen Ning looked at him wronged.

Zhan Yuanshan dodged his eyes, and said bluntly: "I didn't frame you, it's because your product has a problem, and you can only blame it for not making the product well."

"Really." Shen Ning sneered, "I just learned from the doctor that your allergy is caused by eating mangoes, not Gucci perfume. I have already copied the medical records. You said it was not framed. What is it? How did Gu Qi offend you?"

Zhan Yuanshan was a little annoyed, and said in a panic: "Nonsense, I am obviously allergic to your Gucci perfume. I have eaten mangoes before, and I have never been allergic. It is caused by your Gucci perfume."

"Brother Zhan, may I ask which perfume you are allergic to? What about the invoice?"

After hearing this, Zhan Yuanshan took out the invoice he had prepared a long time ago and waved it in front of Shen Ning: "The invoice is here."

"Can you show me?"

"Give."

He didn't think there was any problem, so he raised his hand and gave it to her.

Shen Ning took it over and took a look, then chuckled and said, "Brother Zhan, what kind of women's perfume do you, a big man, use? This invoice is marked with the women's perfume of Gucci's original love series, even if it's not because you eat mangoes Allergic to the cause, but if you are allergic to this lady's perfume, it can't directly prove that there is something wrong with the perfume."

Zhan Yuanshan was completely panicked. He didn't know anything about perfume and had never used it. Now he didn't expect that the invoice he held in his hand was for women's perfume. His first reaction was that someone swiped it.

"Brother Zhan, actually, I believe that you will not target Gu Qi maliciously. After all, I have no grievances with you. It is completely unnecessary. So, I came today to have a good talk with you."

"About what?"

"I want to ask you, how many benefits have others given you for you to deal with me?"

Zhan Yuanshan's eyes flickered: "Nobody gave me any favors."

Shen Ning smiled, and said firmly: "If you don't have any benefits, you can't get up early. If you don't have any benefits, will you blackmail me with women's perfume? You should know that Gucci perfume has always had the influence of Li Zhenting. , do you think he can spare you? So, if you are smart enough, cooperate with me, not only will I not hold you accountable, but I will also give you certain benefits. Of course, if you do not cooperate with me, I will All the evidence is handed over to the police, and then you will have nothing to eat, and in the end it will be the person behind you who instructs you."

Zhan Yuanshan bowed his head and remained silent.

Chapter 570 didn't really forgive him

"Think about it carefully. Call me after you think it over. I'll be waiting for you at any time. However, you have to hurry up. The truth of this matter will soon come to light. Opportunities wait for no one. By the way, you should see the news Well, now all the videos about selling fake Gucci perfumes have been taken off the shelves, it can be said that this matter will not develop according to your expectations, if you don't try to save yourself, then no one will be able to save you." Shen Ning After finishing speaking coldly, he turned around and left.

"Slow down, Mr. Shen, I'll confess." Just as Shen Ning was about to walk out of the ward, Zhan Yuanshan suddenly stopped her and broke his mouth decisively.

Shen Ning stopped.

"Mr. Shen, you were the one who saved me last time. In fact, I have always remembered it in my heart and always wanted to repay you. This time, I will tell you everything." Zhan Yuanshan climbed out of the hospital bed, feeling agitated.

Shen Ning slowly turned around.

Li's old house.

When Shen Ning went back, the children were already asleep.

She went up to check the sleeping conditions of the children, and was about to go downstairs to sleep. When she passed the corridor, she glanced at the study and the bedroom next to it. It was pitch black.

obviously.

Li Zhenting did not come over.

She turned and walked downstairs.

The children's bedroom is next to Li Zhenting. She can't sleep here with the children. In case he comes over in the middle of the night, she'd better go back to the guest room on the first floor where she used to sleep.

In the middle of the night, she turned over in a daze, and the side was cold, without the warm chest of the previous nights.

She tucked the quilt tightly and fell into a deep sleep again.

At some point, she felt that she was sleeping in a warm embrace again, a very familiar feeling.

Her heart skipped a beat and she opened her eyes.

The man's handsome face appeared in front of her again, so frightened that she thought she had met a ghost, and got up in a hurry.

"Sleep well, don't move, today is the weekend." Li Zhenting seemed to be awakened by her, pulled her into the quilt, and hugged her tightly.

This time, he seemed very tired, and he didn't do anything to her, but he was very calm.

"Why are you sleeping with me again?" Shen Ning pushed him, "Get out of here, this is Li's old house."

"So what? Isn't it the Li family? Please, stop making trouble and let me have a good rest." Li Zhenting hugged her into his arms and yawned big.

Shen Ning couldn't sleep anymore. Li Zhenting hugged her, and the heat from the man's body kept coming. It didn't take long for fine sweat to ooze from her back. Moreover, deep down in her heart, she hated him. Did not really forgive him.

So she pushed him away and got up.

Li Zhenting must be too tired, Shen Ning pushed him away, but he just pulled her and fell asleep hugging the quilt.

Shen Ning got dressed and went out.

Li's old house is next to the 5A-level scenic spot with beautiful environment, and the scenery is charming.

Shen Ning put on her morning exercise clothes and went for a run in the back garden. It was only then that she realized that she hadn't exercised since returning to the imperial capital.

Running around the lake for a few laps, the sun was rising, and the earth was full of life. After running, she was sweating, and Shen Ning only felt a lot more comfortable.

She went back to take a shower and went to the kitchen. The nannies were all busy in the kitchen. Shen Ning checked the breakfast and made some porridge for the old lady.

Li Zhenting didn't wake up until almost nine o'clock.

In the dining room.

Li Zhenting sat refreshed.

Shen Ning brought it out early and put it in front of him.

Suddenly, the man's big hand inadvertently covered her small hand, and gently stroked it.

The touch of the skin caused Shen Ning to pull his hand away immediately like an electric shock, his ears were red, and he glared at him angrily.

But in Li Zhenting's view, such Shen Ning looks more shy and charming.

As he looked at her, a strange color flashed in his eyes, and there was a faint smile in his eyes.
