

Troublemakers 671

Chapter 671 Because... I miss you

As night fell, Li Zhenting asked Leng Xue to send Ke Ke and Ding Ding back.

"Ning Ning, how is your injury? Are you feeling better now?" As soon as the children left, Li Zhenting anxiously cared about Shen Ning's injury.

"It's okay." Her chest, back, and back were identified as slightly injured, and the doctor prescribed some ointment for bruises and applied it to her. It hurt, but it was necessary, but there was no fatal injury.

"I'm sorry, I'm late." Li Zhenting's face was full of distress and regret.

Shen Ning looked up at him: "Why did you suddenly go to the underground parking lot of Guqi Building?"

"Because... I miss you." Li Zhenting replied after a short pause.

Shen Ning's face flushed slightly.

Will he miss her?

This man doesn't lie without blinking an eye.

Xiaofeng is the one he thinks of!

"You carefully arranged your grandfather's birthday banquet?" After a while, Shen Ning asked.

"Yes."

"Then you knew that such a dangerous thing would happen, why did you let the children go there? They are all your children, aren't you worried?" Shen Ning became excited.

In such a dangerous environment, if something bad happened to the children, wouldn't it become the eternal hatred?

Li Zhenting was silent for a while, and said: "Ning Ning, I want to say sorry to you about this matter, but I am also helpless. You also know that this is the old man's birthday banquet. If the children are not here, it will make the bad guys suspicious." , You can see through my layout at a glance and all previous efforts will be wasted. Therefore, I held a son recognition ceremony to convince them that this is really just a birthday banquet and a double happiness event for the Li family. They believed it and fell into a trap. Sorry, I didn't I told you in advance that I was afraid that you would be in a hurry, but I am also the father of the children. I am more worried about the safety of the children than you are, but there is no way. My children of Li Zhenting are destined to experience more danger than others. There are many children, but fortunately there is no danger!"

Is it just a near miss? If she hadn't suspected that Lan Lan had followed her, she might have been in danger.

But she thought of the redemption of him protecting Coco into his arms at gunpoint, so she stopped talking. After all, Li Zhenting's eyes are also blind now.

"Ning Ning, let's remarry." Li Zhenting said suddenly, his tone was definitely not the domineering like before, but sincere and frank.

Shen Ning didn't speak.

"Ningning, are you listening to me?" Li Zhenting was very nervous, his ears were pricked up, and his eyes were staring blankly ahead.

Shen Ning saw him trying to open his eyes to see her, and asked lightly, "Why did you remarry me?"

"Ning Ning, we have two lovely children, Ke Ke and Ding Ding, for the sake of the children, we should remarry." Li Zhenting's tone was sincere, with a moving expression on his face.

"So it was out of responsibility, just like when you wanted to marry Shen Mei, it was also because of Ding Ding and Lan Lan, right?" Shen Ning smiled silently, with a somewhat erratic tone, "You haven't understood the true meaning of marriage until now. It means that a marriage without love is a grave, and a marriage that is bound together because of children will not be happy."

"So, you never loved me, did you? You loved Jing Chenxi?"

Shen Ning stood up: "President Li, don't talk about this anymore, it's getting late, I'll help you go back to the ward to rest, you were also injured last night, we all need to rest."

She bent down to help him up.

"Shen Ning, tell me, is it because I'm blind and I can't see anymore, so you don't want to live with a blind man for the rest of your life?" Li Zhenting suddenly grabbed her, and a smear of pain flashed across his handsome face. , gritted his teeth and asked.

"Boss Li, let me go, you hurt my arm." Shen Ning pinched his wrist, "Where did you go?"

"Tell me first, won't you?" Li Zhenting asked almost growling.

Chapter 672 I don't need sympathy

"That's not the case." Shen Ning had no choice but to answer, "It doesn't matter if you love someone, regardless of his life, old age, sickness, death, or disability, as long as you fall in love, it will last forever."

As long as you fall in love, it's a lifetime. This is like a portrayal of her. She used to think this way all the time. She thought that if she loved him and was good enough to him, they would be a couple for life, but it turned out that he never She had never loved her before, a marriage without love, she really didn't want it anymore, and she couldn't afford it anymore.

Li Zhenting's true love is Xiaofeng, he obviously remarried with her out of responsibility, she doesn't want such a marriage!

"So, Jing Chenxi is the person you love the most, right?" Li Zhenting let go of Shen Ning's arm as if he had been hit hard, and stood up straight, feeling very depressed.

"President Li, let's go back to the ward to sleep." Shen Ning held his arm and wanted to send him back to the ward quickly.

"I don't need your help, I can walk by myself." Li Zhenting suddenly gave a shout, and threw her arm away, "I don't need sympathy, and I don't need hypocritical love."

He groped forward, with his back straight, step by step, cautiously.

It may be because he was in a bad mood, but soon, he went astray!

"Mr. Li, be careful, there is a wall ahead." Shen Ning reminded him at the right time, "Go left."

Soon, Li Zhenting walked out expressionlessly.

Shen Ning was afraid that he would go wrong again, so she followed him silently until he entered the door of the ward, but she still followed him in.

"Boss Li, let me fetch hot water to wash you up." He couldn't see it, and out of humanitarianism, she should also take care of him, not to mention, he was the one who saved her last night.

"No need, you go, I will let Leng Xue take care of me." He said coldly.

But Shen Ning still called for hot water.

"Boss Li, let me take off your shoes for you." She bent down to help him take off his shoes.

"Get out." Li Zhenting suddenly raised his foot and kicked over the hot water basin in front of him. The hot water spilled all over the floor and splashed Shen Ning all over his body.

"President Li, please learn to respect people." Shen Ning stood awkwardly with a dark face, this man's temper is still so stinky!

"Please go." Li Zhenting sullenly said, "Leng Xue will come and take care of me, I don't need sympathy."

Shen Ning turned and walked out, but she didn't leave, she just stood outside the door.

She was afraid that he would overreact.

Ten minutes later, Leng Xue rushed over.

As soon as he came, he saw Shen Ning standing outside.

"President Shen, I'll go in first." He immediately greeted Shen Ning politely before walking in.

Shen Ning breathed a sigh of relief.

Half an hour later.

When Leng Xue came out, he still saw Shen Ning standing outside. The weather in early winter was already very cold, with the north wind blowing outside, Shen Ning's face was a little purple from the cold.

"Mr. Shen, it's cold, put it on quickly, your clothes are a bit wet." He immediately took Li Zhenting's suit from inside and put it on her shoulders, and said worriedly.

"Cold-blooded, when will Mr. Li's eyes be operated on?" Shen Ning asked in a low voice.

Yesterday, I learned from Professor Rhodes that Li Zhenting's eye disease is very serious, and he may lose his sight forever, but there is also hope for cure. That is why the operation was not performed in time.

After pondering in cold blood for a moment, he replied truthfully: "Mr. Shen, Professor Rhodes found after the inspection that Mr. Li's cornea has been severely damaged and must be transplanted. Now we are waiting for someone who will donate the damaged cornea."

Shen Ning took a step back, his face turned pale.

I didn't expect Li Zhenting's eyes to be so serious!

"If the transplant can restore the light?"

"Yes, there is great hope."

"Can you find the cornea?"

"I'm looking for it, I think it should be possible." After thinking about it coldly, he replied, in fact, he didn't have much confidence.

"I see, thank you." Shen Ning said something in a low voice, returned the suit to her, turned and left.

"Mr. Shen." Leng Xue stopped her.

Shen Ning turned around again.

"Mr. Shen, Mr. Li is not in a good mood, which is not conducive to the operation. Please enlighten him." Cold-blooded begging.

Shen Ning was silent for a while, nodded, and walked towards his own ward next door.

Looking at her back in cold blood, his mind was a little heavy.

Chapter 673 You have to cherish it

"President Li, it's time for breakfast." Early in the morning, Shen Ning bought glutinous rice balls, sandwiches, hamburgers, and fresh milk from downstairs. Li Zhenting had already woken up, sitting on the bed in a daze, alone, and she walked in, put the breakfast on the bedside, smiled and spoke softly.

This should be the first time she has been so gentle to him since their reunion.

Li Zhenting had a cold face:

"You don't have to sympathize with me, I won't be moved by you."

Shen Ning replied: "Boss, even if I sympathize with people all over the world, I would not sympathize with you. You are the least worthy of my sympathy. You are rich and capable, and you are sitting on hundreds of billions of wealth. I, a little girl, He De How can I sympathize with you? Of course, you are not worthy of my sympathy. I just promised you to take care of you. Since I promised you, I have to do it. Honesty is the foundation of a person. Besides, you saved me last night. Me, I'm here to repay the favor."

As she spoke, she bent down to help him: "Get up, I'll help you to wash in the bathroom."

When the woman bent down, her hair slanted down and fell on the man's ears. The hair was fluffy and soft, mixed with the aroma of a sea bath.

Li Zhenting sniffed, his heart throbbing inexplicably.

This fragrance is also Xiaofeng's favorite.

At that time, just like now, he was blind, Xiaofeng took care of him, he couldn't see anything, he could only smell her fragrance, which made him intoxicated!

He who refused originally stood up obediently, and let Shen Ning help him to go to the bathroom to brush his teeth and wash his hands.

Soon, Shen Ning took a basin full of hot water, put the towel in and wrung it dry, put the hot towel on his face, raised his toes, and gently wiped him for him, delicate and gentle.

Li Zhenting behaved like a sheep, enjoying her care.

When eating breakfast, he sat on the head of the bed, and Shen Ning sat in front of him.

"Come on, open your mouth." Shen Ning scooped up a spoonful of porridge and put it on his lips. Li Zhenting opened his mouth obediently, and she fed it in gently. When the porridge was hot, she would gently blow it down with her mouth before sending it into his mouth mouth.

She fed carefully and tenderly, and Li Zhenting ate with relish, and she didn't stop until she had finished all her breakfast.

"What do you want to eat for lunch today? I'll make it for you." After breakfast, Shen Ning asked after cleaning up the room.

"It's better to let the hotel send it, cooking is too hard." Li Zhenting couldn't bear her working too hard, in fact, he just wanted her to be with him.

"Stop rambling, tell me quickly, you can't eat too hot food, and you can't eat cold food. The food I cook will be better for your body, and it will also help your eye surgery." Shen Ning replied.

Li Zhenting actually wanted to eat the food made by Shen Ning, and he wanted it so much in his stomach. After thinking about it, he talked about several dishes in succession.

Shen Ning remembered them one by one.

"Li Zhenting, do you know? You are enjoying the treatment of Ke Ke and Ding Ding now." She joked.

"What do you mean?" Li Zhenting didn't understand for a moment.

"Only Coco and Ding Ding, my sons, can enjoy this level of care, understand?"

Li Zhenting was stunned for a moment, then understood, and gritted his teeth: "Shen Ning, are you treating me like your son?"

"Otherwise, I can only take such meticulous and thoughtful care of my sons. You are enjoying my son-like treatment, so you have to cherish it, understand."

She left after speaking, ready to go grocery shopping.

Li Zhenting stood up suddenly, grasped her arm precisely with the sensitivity of his ears, pulled her into his arms with force, and lowered his head to find her lips.

The hot breath came from the man's body, Shen Ning's face was blushing, and she rushed to push him.

But Li Zhenting tightly wrapped her waist with one hand, and accurately held her chin with the other hand, and sealed her hot lips precisely...

"Woo." Before Shen Ning could react, his lips were pried open by Li Zhenting.

The man in power kissed her eagerly like a rainy day after a long drought.

Chapter 674 She can only be a grandson

Shen Ning's eyes were full of shining stars, and he almost suffocated.

"Will my son still do this?" After an unknown amount of time, Li Zhenting had had enough kisses, and moved his hot lips to her ear and asked in a friendly voice.

Shen Ning was so ashamed that he couldn't bear it, and regretted provoking this lunatic.

"Li Zhenting, if you don't let me go, there will be no lunch at noon." She issued a serious warning.

"I'll just eat you." Li Zhenting's tone was so wicked and ambiguous that honey dripped out.

"Ah, Professor Rhodes is here." Shen Ning said something suddenly, Li Zhenting was startled, and his fingers loosened.

Shen Ning took the opportunity to push him on the bed and escaped.

Li Zhenting fell on the bed, licking the sweetness on his lips, the corners of his lips were slightly raised, and his mood improved a lot.

When Shen Ning came back from shopping, Li Jinyao and Li Wanqing came over. They were worried and cared about their son's eyes.

Shen Ning comforted them and promised to take good care of Li Zhenting.

They left anxiously after giving thousands of instructions.

Shen Ning started to cook for Li Zhenting. After the sweet interaction in the morning, the relationship between the two improved.

During lunch, Li Zhenting sat on the bed, didn't even bother to let go of his hands, and simply opened his mouth, and Shen Ning did everything else for him. He simply used the treatment of being a son to the extreme.

Shen Ning squinted at him and clenched his fists.

This bastard, I really want to beat him up, he is simply a giant baby, lazy than Ke Ke and Ding Ding.

But there is no way, in order to make him feel better and go through the operation smoothly, she can only be a grandson.

Suddenly, she put a coriander into his mouth.

Li Zhenting opened his mouth and bit it, the taste almost made him spit it out.

"Hey, what did you eat?" he asked angrily.

"Coriander." Shen Ning held back a smile.

"Damn woman, you did it on purpose, you know I don't eat coriander." Li Zhenting gritted his teeth.

"Ah, I'm so sorry. I didn't know you didn't like coriander. Next time, I will definitely not let it go." She apologized devoutly.

"You..." Li Zhenting was speechless.

Ghosts will believe her words!

He doesn't like coriander, she remembered it six years ago, and she never let it go when cooking, and, just now, she just put a coriander in his mouth on purpose, if it wasn't on purpose Even if he was killed, he would not believe it.

"Come on, eat a piece of fish belly, it's good for your eyes." Immediately, Shen Ning took a piece of tender fish belly and put it into his mouth. The smooth and soft fish belly dispelled the unhappiness in Li Zhenting's heart .

But when Shen Ning wiped the grease from the corners of his lips with a tissue, the spark in Li Zhenting's heart was completely ignited. Due to the warm night in the morning, Shen Ning sat a little far away from him, but when she was wiping the corner of his lips, she couldn't support herself and fell on his thigh.

The man touched the soft body of the woman, and immediately, a burst of numbness ran through his body, and he froze for a moment, the raging fire in his heart was ignited, making his mouth dry and throat tight.

Shen Ning realized that he had gotten into trouble, and immediately got up and ran, but when he got up, he accidentally touched the man's thigh.

Li Zhenting's face was purple, and he groaned, extremely depressed.

"Shen Ning, I still want to drink fish soup." After a while, he didn't wait for Shen Ning to take care of him, and he was dissatisfied and shouted loudly.

Shen Ning ran outside the ward, untied his coat and let the wind blow for a while, and then walked in until the heat in his body dissipated a little. When he came in, he saw Li Zhenting's cheeks flushed, and he seemed very uncomfortable.

She secretly said, "Sin, Amitabha", and sat down at the place farthest from him.

This time, she didn't dare to be careless, and stood up across a dining table to feed him, so that even if she accidentally fell down, it would be bad luck for the dining table and fell on it.

Chapter 675 This gold card is for you to use for life

The two of them were fighting and fighting, and they ate a meal for two hours without knowing it.

After eating, before Shen Ning had time to clean up the dishes, Li Zhenting grabbed her, pressed her on the bed... and began to take off her clothes.

"Hey, aren't you blind?"

This man is almost blind, but he is still thinking about it.

"It's just that my eyes are broken, nothing else." Li Zhenting smiled wickedly.

"..." Shen Ning was extremely speechless, "Can't you settle down if your eyes are broken?"

"I can't be safe, I need comfort very much now, and I want to do something that your son can't do." His voice was hoarse and his breathing was short.

Shen Ning immediately sensed the changes in the man, but the man's strength was huge, and under the disparity in strength, she suddenly shouted:

"The doctor is here to make rounds."

Who knows that Li Zhenting is not ashamed at all, but instead said:

"It's okay, let him appraise my kung fu skills by the way."

Ah bah, what a faceless rogue! Brazen and obscene!

But before Shen Ning could curse, her lips were blocked by him...

Facing the man's powerful strength, Shen Ning had no choice but to lose.

Three days later, Leng Fei walked in with a face full of excitement.

"Mr. Li, someone donated the cornea. It was a girl in a traffic accident. There is hope that your eyes will recover."

Li Zhenting raised his eyebrows and said, "Give the best comfort to the family of the deceased, and respond to every request."

"Yes, Mr. Li, Professor Rhodes said that the operation can be performed tomorrow."

"Okay." Li Zhenting nodded.

Shen Ning was very happy to hear that.

After all, it would be a pity for the young and promising Li Zhenting to lose his eyes. Everyone will be happy if he can heal his eyes.

"I'm going to buy some good dishes to celebrate now." Shen Ning said happily.

"Here, take this to buy." Li Zhenting took out a golden card from his pocket and handed it to Shen Ning.

"No, I have money." Shen Ning left without taking his gold card.

"Shen Ning." Li Zhenting dragged out his voice.

"What?"

"This gold card is for you to use for life, and you can spend it unlimited."

"As I said, I have money and don't need it."

"I'll count to three. If you don't take it, I won't have the operation tomorrow." The man's voice was full of threats, very resolute.

Shen Ning looked at him helplessly: "Li Zhenting, when will you grow up?"

Li Zhenting's handsome face was cracked.

This woman really thinks he is a child!

"Don't worry, I won't go back on my word. Take it, I promised the children that I won't make you busy anymore. I'm a man, a woman who can support me." Although the tone was threatening, it already contained a request up.

Shen Ning saw that his attitude was quite sincere, so he shouldn't take it, because he was afraid that he would be in a bad mood, which would really affect tomorrow's operation, so he hesitated for a while, walked over, and took the card.

Take it first, and then return it when you find a chance.

Actually, at that time, he was already helping Shao to redeem Sleeping Beauty! She also wanted to pay back that money when she was able.

"Come on, I'll return this pink ring to you. It's for you. Don't refuse." As soon as Shen Ning took the card, Li Zhenting grabbed her hand again and took out the unique pink diamond from his pocket. It was blindly inserted into her finger, and the preparation was correct.

She was surprised. At this moment, she really wondered if his eyes were really blind!

"Where did you find this pink diamond?" Shen Ning looked at the pink diamond on his finger, which was the one he gave her at the son recognition ceremony, and asked in surprise.

"Of course it was from Shen Mei, I got it back a long time ago." Li Zhenting said calmly.

"You already knew she took it?"

"Otherwise, before the birthday banquet, I have installed secret surveillance on all accessible places in Li's old house. Nothing can escape my eyes. However, I am afraid of disturbing the plan to capture criminals, so it didn't startle her."

Shen Ning suddenly realized.

No wonder many places were newly monitored that day, and no wonder he knew that the pink diamond would not change after he lost it, and he didn't care. It turned out that everything was under his control, and Shen Mei really deserved it.

Chapter 676 A Beautiful Back View

"I have an operation tomorrow, can you accompany me into the operating room?" Li Zhenting asked softly while holding Shen Ning's soft little hand.

That year, he was only fifteen years old, facing the darkness, he was very afraid.

At that time, it was Xiaofeng who accompanied him into the operating room. She was always by her side to encourage and comfort him, so that he passed through the darkest time.

Now he has matured a lot, and has more fearlessness and perseverance in the world, but he still hopes that the woman he loves the most can accompany him and help him walk through the darkness.

Shen Ning looked at the man's deep and three-dimensional facial features, but he was determined to be dazed, his black pupils were as deep as the sea, and even though he had suffered all kinds of injuries, they were still shining like stars, and he couldn't help feeling sore in his heart.

"Okay, I will." Her voice was small but clear.

"Really? Thank you." Li Zhenting was very happy, put her little hand on his face, closed his eyes slightly, and wiped a satisfied smile on the corner of his lips.

"Take a good rest, I'm going to buy vegetables first." Shen Ning gently pulled out his hand and covered him with the quilt, "What you need most at this time is rest, no matter how good the medicine is, it can't match your own immunity, only when you have a good rest can your resistance improve."

Li Zhenting closed his eyes.

Shen Ning turned around and went to buy vegetables.

An hour later, Shen Ning came back from the supermarket and took the vegetables to the elevator.

When she got out of the elevator, she didn't know whether she was delusional or not. A slender and pure woman with long hair and an ivory white coat passed by her.

She was stunned for a moment, and turned her head involuntarily, only to see a beautiful figure from the back, with a somewhat familiar feeling.

Just as she was about to take a closer look, the elevator doors closed.

Her heart jumped inexplicably, and she lost her mind.

Until the elevator door opened again, and several family members of the patients walked out of it, she shook her head, she must have had an illusion just now!

But she still carried the dishes and walked towards the window next to the stairs.

Lie on the window and look at the corridor of the gate below. There are many people going in, but there is no such beautiful figure.

She drew her head back, stood against the wall, and smiled wryly.

Shen Ning, Shen Ning, what are you doing? Why are you so nervous, what are you afraid of?

She despised herself severely, and walked towards Li Zhenting's ward.

There were many men and women in the overalls of the Li Group standing in the ward. They were reporting to Li Zhenting and expressing their concern. These should be from the executives of the Li Group.

It seems that Li Zhenting is going to have an operation tomorrow, and they all came here to care for their boss.

"Ning Ning, pour me a glass of water." Just as Shen Ning walked in quietly and was about to cook, Li Zhenting spoke affectionately as if he had another pair of eyes.

His voice is intimate and ambiguous, it is hard not to make people associate it.

The executives standing in the ward all looked at her.

Shen Ning's face flushed instantly, and his * eyes glared at the tall and straight man sitting on the hospital bed with resentment, he was really cute.

This man is really hateful, does he want all the employees in the company to know about their ambiguous relationship!

"Okay, here we come." She had no choice but to agree softly, walked over to pick up his water glass, went to the water dispenser to pick up boiling water under the eyes of everyone.

"Hey me." As soon as she came over, Li Zhenting opened his mouth.

Shen Ning's face became even redder, he picked up the cup and blew gently, and carefully brought the cup to his mouth.

"Thank you, Ning Ning, for your hard work." After several sips in a row, Li Zhenting was finally satisfied, as if everyone couldn't see clearly, he held her hand tightly again.

Shen Ning immediately withdrew his hand like an electric shock, bowed his head and left quickly.

"Okay, continue." Li Zhenting cleared his voice and ordered.

The executives began to report to work again.

Chapter 677 How is your injury?

the next day.

Before Shen Ning woke up, the phone rang.

She reached out and picked up the phone, and picked it up in a daze.

"Hello, are you Shen Ning?" A strange man's anxious voice came from the phone.

"Yes, it's me."

"There is a gentleman here who had a car accident. I saw your name on his cell phone, and it said fiancée Shen Ning, so I called you. Are you his family?"

Car accident? dependents?

These words made Shen Ning's eyelids twitch. Hearing these words early in the morning is particularly penetrating.

"Where did the car accident happen? What's his name?" She sat up and asked anxiously.

"It's on Ping'an Road, wait a minute, I'll check." The man over there started looking for his phone.

"Ning, Ning." Shen Ning held his breath, and heard a faint cry from over there, which was a bit hoarse, but she could still hear it, the voice was like Jing Chenxi's!

She stood up quickly.

"Jing Chenxi."

Sure enough, the man over there said the name.

Shen Ning's heart beat to his throat, and he asked in a trembling voice, "How is his injury?"

"It's a bit serious. I hit the head and waist. Now the patient is lying on the ground with blood all over his body. The condition needs to be sent to the hospital for examination. Your family members should hurry up. I've already called the ambulance for you. The police also Coming soon."

"Okay, thanks, I'll be right there."

Shen Ning hurriedly looked for the car keys, looked out the window, the north wind was blowing outside, and the weather was gloomy.

Why did Jing Chenxi drive out so early in the morning? Is there no one around him?

She thought of Jiang Zhong, he was Jing Chenxi's right-hand man, and hurriedly took out his mobile phone to call Jiang Zhong, but his mobile phone was turned off.

She picked up her bag and ran outside, but when she walked out of the ward door, she turned her head and looked at Li Zhenting who was sleeping on the hospital bed outside, and hesitated.

I promised him last night that I would accompany him into the operating room today. What would he think if he couldn't see her after waking up? He raised his hand and looked at his watch. It was only seven o'clock, so he should be able to come back in time.

Human life is at stake, she can't delay any longer!

Zhen Ting, after I send Jing Chenxi to the hospital first, I will accompany you into the operating room. After all, you only need surgery on your eyes, and his life is dying, which is much more serious than yours.

Outside, as soon as Shen Ning ran out, the bitter north wind blew in her face, causing her to shrink her neck from the cold, it seemed that it was going to rain.

She started the car and drove outside.

Half an hour later.

Shen Ning rushed to the accident site.

The police have arrived.

Jing Chenxi was lying curled up sideways on the ground, covered in blood, not knowing how badly injured.

"Chen Xi." She yelled and rushed in.

Jing Chenxi struggled to open his eyes when he heard her voice, looked straight at her, and murmured weakly: "Ningning, you are here, thank you for coming."

"Chenxi, how is your injury? Where did you hit?" Shen Ning looked at Jing Chenxi's pale face and asked worriedly.

"I...Ning, Ning, don't, tell me, my family." Jing Chenxi had a wry smile on his lips, and fainted after admonishing weakly.

"Chenxi, Chenxi." Shen Ning shouted anxiously, but he didn't know where he hit, and he didn't dare to move him easily. Fortunately, an ambulance came roaring at this time.

After several doctors came down to check, they said to Shen Ning: "Family, your husband is seriously injured and needs to be rushed to the hospital for emergency treatment. Please follow him and pay a deposit for hospitalization immediately, and have an operation immediately."

"Okay, okay, I'll follow, please rescue him, please." Shen Ning nodded repeatedly, his body trembling.

"Don't worry, we will do our best." The doctor promised, and the other doctor carefully lifted Jing Chenxi and walked towards the ambulance.

In the ward.

"Ning Ning." When Li Zhenting woke up, there was no movement around him, and he frowned.

In the past few days, every day when he wakes up, Shen Ning will stay by his side, ask him what he likes for breakfast, and take care of him to wash up.

But today is the day of his operation, but he didn't see her anymore, and he felt faintly unhappy.

After he yelled several times but still didn't hear Shen Ning's movement, he became a little restless.

Could it be that he woke up late and she went down to buy breakfast first!

Chapter 678 I don't want to take care of me anymore

Half an hour later.

Li Zhenting sat up.

With his patience, it was a miracle that he could wait so long.

"Shen Ning." He shouted loudly.

Still no response from the ward.

At this point, he was sure that Shen Ning had gone out, and also confirmed that she hadn't gone to buy breakfast for him. According to his feeling, if she had gone to buy breakfast, she should have come back long ago.

Today is the day when his eyes are going to be operated on. She should have come early to take care of him to get up, wash and have breakfast.

Yesterday she also promised him that she would accompany him into the operating room.

But now, there is not even a shadow of a person.

Could it be that this woman didn't want to accompany him into the operating room and ran away?

His face darkened.

Twenty minutes later, Leng Xue hurried over.

"President Li, I brought you breakfast."

"Where's Shen Ning?" He asked with a dark face.

"She has something to go out, let me come over and take care of you for breakfast." Leng Xue replied anxiously.

"Is there something wrong?" Li Zhenting sneered again and again, "Doesn't she know that I am going to have an operation today? It seems that she is still duplicity and unwilling to take care of me."

Obviously promised to take care of him and accompany him into the operating room, but she went out whenever something happened. Does this woman still have a heart?

Leng Xue secretly sighed in his heart, he could see that Li Zhenting was already very unhappy, but what could he do?

"What's the matter with her? Tell me about it." Li Zhenting was not reconciled, and asked immediately.

"Boss Li, you can wash up and have breakfast first, she will be here in a while." Leng Xue tried to change the subject.

"She called you to come over?" Li Zhenting's tone was stern.

"Yes, Mr. Li, Ms. Shen is indeed something important. She is afraid of delaying your eye surgery, so let me take care of you for breakfast first. She said that she will definitely come over to accompany you into the operating room."

"Hey! Really?" Li Zhenting's face became more and more ugly, and he asked in a cold voice: "Tell me, what's important about her?"

Coldly supported him: "President Li, go brush your teeth, you will be entering the operating room soon."

"Say." Li Zhenting's pent-up anger was getting bigger and bigger, surging in his chest, and the cold-blooded way of deliberately changing the subject and perfunctory perfunctory made him even more angry.

"Get out." He pushed him away violently, "Cold-blooded, have you learned to hide it from me?"

Cold-blooded and helpless: "That's Miss Shen Ning's private matter, I can't say it."

He knows best that Jing Chenxi is the one who is most sensitive to Li Zhenting. If he speaks out, he will definitely feel even worse!

Hey, how did this happen?

"You know all about her private affairs, why can't I know? Or are you all working together to lie to me?" A cold light flashed in Li Zhenting's eyes, and suddenly he kicked Leng Xue fiercely, "It's because you have been with me for so many years that you actually It's really damnable for you to lie to me with outsiders."

This kick hit the cold-blooded calf hard, and he endured it silently.

"I see, Shen Ning must have gone to find Jing Chenxi." He laughed coldly.

Cold-blooded and desperately closed his eyes.

Surgery is about to happen, but he is in such a bad mood, how can he get on the operating table?

Li Zhenting suddenly swept his big hand hard, and the things on the bed were thrown to the ground.

"Mr. Li, it's like this. Jing Chenxi suddenly had a car accident in the morning, and life and death were at stake. Ms. Shen had no choice but to run over." He could only say this.

A car accident?

Li Zhenting was stunned for a moment, and sneered: "There was a car accident at this time, didn't he die? It seems that he slept with Secretary Li, and he has a ghost in his heart."

"So, Miss Shen Ning didn't mean to leave you, you should wash up and have breakfast first, she will be here soon."

"Jing Chenxi had a car accident, is there no one in the Jing family? If she has to go, what is she?"

"Jing Chenxi doesn't want his family to know."

"Hey, that's really a good excuse." Li Zhenting laughed out loud, with a gloomy expression on his face.

Chapter 679 Shen Ning will never be his little wind

Here, Shen Ning ran down from Jing Chenxi's ward at a flying speed, and got into his car.

Li Zhenting will have surgery at nine o'clock.

She agreed to accompany him into the operating room.

Only twenty minutes left!

What you promise must be done! Besides, he was undergoing an operation, and she didn't want him to walk alone in the dark.

Soon, she started the car and drove towards the street.

Jing Chenxi was sent to a nearby hospital because of a car accident with heavy bleeding, but Li Zhenting's hospital is an eye hospital. If there is no traffic jam between the two hospitals, they can arrive in 20 minutes!

She must strive to rush over to accompany him into the operating room.

The sky was gloomy, and it was raining lightly. Halfway through the originally unsmooth street, there was a traffic jam.

She was distraught.

At this time, I received another call from Leng Xue to urge her.

She honked the horn from time to time not only did not make the traffic jam smoother, but also called the traffic police, so she could only admit that she was unlucky.

In desperation, she had no choice but to call Li Zhenting first.

"Mr. Li, Mr. Shen is calling." Looking at Li Zhenting's mobile phone with the word "dead woman" flashing coldly, he saw that the number below was Shen Ning's, and immediately said to Li Zhenting.

"If you don't answer, hang up." Li Zhenting ordered mercilessly with a cold face.

Why are you calling him? Go directly to take care of Jing Chenxi!

Only ten minutes until surgery!

He didn't want her to come to accompany him either!

"Mr. Li, you should take over. I don't know what business Mr. Shen wants from you?" Leng Xue tried his best to persuade.

Li Zhenting was expressionless, and suddenly raised his hand violently, and the phone in Leng Xue's hand was slammed to the ground.

Leng Xue's face changed color, and he stood there blankly.

At this time, Professor Rhodes walked in quickly accompanied by the chief doctor.

"Professor Rhodes, can the operation be delayed?" Cold-blooded and anxious, he pulled Professor Rhodes aside and asked with gestures.

Li Zhenting's mood is really not conducive to surgery.

"No, the deceased has already donated the cornea, and the operation must be performed as soon as possible, the sooner the better the effect." Professor Rhodes has a serious face, and medical matters must not be sloppy.

"Okay." Leng Xue could only nod.

After Professor Rhodes came to greet Li Zhenting, he began to check his eyes and prepare for the operation.

Li Zhenting sat like a statue, depressed.

Professor Rhodes looked at him strangely.

The famous President Li is not in the right mood. He was fine two days ago. What's wrong?

Worried that his eyes won't be cured? Or do you not trust his medical skills?

But no matter what the reason is at this time, surgery is imperative.

After a while the nurse and the anesthetist came in.

"I don't need anesthetic." Li Zhenting, who had been silent all this time, spoke coldly.

Director Yang, who accompanied Professor Rhodes in, said hurriedly after hearing this: "Mr. Li, the eye surgery takes a long time, and the eye mask needs to be changed. If it is not anesthetized, it will hurt the eyeball. As you know, the eye is an extremely sensitive place. The blood vessels are very sensitive. Rich, if you can't stand the pain and touch something, it's really bad, I suggest you get anesthesia."

But Li Zhenting said sullenly: "No need, I can bear it."

He wanted to keep this pain in his heart forever, and let himself remember Shen Ning's heartless indifference to him.

He knew that only a small wind in this world would care about him so much, and was willing to accompany him in his most painful and darkest moments.

Shen Ning is not his Xiaofeng, she will never be, and will never be the woman he loves the most!

Chapter 680 The heart suddenly hurts like a tear

Twenty minutes later.

Shen Ning rushed over with sweat on his face.

Li Jichun, Li Jinyao and his wife stood outside the ward waiting anxiously.

Li Wanqing was wiping away tears.

My son was unwilling to take anesthesia until he entered the operating room. Will the operation go smoothly?

When she saw Shen Ning, her face sank slightly.

She has always had a good impression of Shen Ning, but at the critical moment of her son's operation, she ran to take care of other men, which was difficult for her to accept and could not be tolerated.

It's just that Shen Ning is not a member of the Li family after all, so she can't say anything!

Shen Ning watched the red light in the operating room flashing, and knew that he was late, and Li Zhenting had already entered the operating room.

Feelings of guilt welled up in her heart. She didn't care about greeting the elders standing outside, so she pulled Leng Xue aside and asked about the situation. When she learned that Li Zhenting didn't take any anesthetics, her heart suddenly ached like a tear.

I have to admit that she really loves this man! If his eyes were not operated successfully because of her and did not recover their light, then she would blame herself for the rest of her life.

"Head nurse, please prepare a set of hospital gowns for me to enter the operating room. I want to go in." Standing in front of the head nurse, Shen Ning solemnly requested.

"Sorry, non-professional medical personnel are not allowed to enter the operating room." The head nurse decisively refused.

"But he is different. Professor Rhodes agreed with me to go in and accompany Li Zhenting from the very beginning." Shen Ning took out the surgical sheet, and sure enough, there was a signature agreeing to her going in.

The head nurse went to prepare her hospital gown after reading it.

Darkness stands like a high wall in Li Zhenting's world.

He opened his eyes as wide as possible, but he couldn't see any light, like a devil strangling his throat, and it was difficult to breathe.

I don't know when, he was afraid of the dark, and always hoped that he was not alone and had someone to accompany him, but since Xiaofeng's death, he could no longer look forward to the unpredictable bright moon.

Severe pain came from his eye sockets, he clenched his teeth, the haze grew in the dark corner, his mood became more and more depressed, a bright little face always flashed in front of his eyes, his heart was sore, that woman who turned back and said half-heartedly...

"Mr. Li, are you okay? How about giving you an anesthetic." Director Yang looked at Li Zhenting's forbearing expression and asked with concern.

"No, just go ahead, I will bear the consequences myself." He replied resolutely.

At worst, he will lose his light forever, and he will have nothing to ask for if he has no expectations.

"Okay." Director Yang sighed inwardly. It is undeniable that Li Zhenting is a man, but this mentality is too f*cking and inexplicable, as if he is angry with someone, but who would make trouble with his body?

Outside the ward, Shen Ning put on the sterile suit and was about to enter the operating room.

Leng Xue stopped in front.

"Mr. Shen, Mr. Li's surgery is in progress. I'm afraid he will become more emotional after he knows you went in and affect the operation."

The cold-blooded worry is not unreasonable. Li Zhenting is disappointed and hates Shen Ning now. If she appears in front of him at this time, her emotions are likely to become more agitated and uncontrollable. At this time, it is very scary.

Shen Ning smiled slightly: "Don't worry, I have my own measure. If the situation is not right, I will retreat in time."

If she doesn't go in, how can she feel at ease?

She firmly believed that when she appeared in front of him, she would definitely bring him hope and light.

Looking at her confident expression, Leng Xue had no choice but to agree.

Shen Ning pushed open the door of the operating room and walked in slowly.
