Chapter 7 Scumbag!

Wu Lili was stunned.

How could this four or five-year-old girl know her inner thoughts? This is absolutely secret!

For a moment, she took several steps back, guilty of avoiding Shao Wenbo's eyes.

Shao Wenbo grabbed her and dragged her aside, and the two of them quarreled.

"Also, you deliberately didn't buy imported medicine for grandma, just because she wanted her to die early so that the Shao family's property could be divided up. I'm not wrong." The little finger pointed at Shao Wenqing and his wife again, frowning, A face full of disdain and contempt.

The faces of the couple immediately changed color!

Oh my god, is this still a four or five year old girl? How do you even know this!

Today Jun Meizhen summoned her sons and daughters-in-law to go home, and they all thought carefully.

Jun Meizhen was really seriously ill during this time, and all the property of the Shao family was in her hands, and they were all guessing that it was going to be a testament to divide the family property.

So they all hurried over.

I just didn't expect that the first thing I saw was that Shen Ning came back with the two children.

Six years ago, Jun Meizhen secretly gave Shao Meiqi a lot of money as a dowry, and almost emptied Shao's. This time, they would never allow it.

"Hey, the adults are so hypocritical." Coco looked at the ugly faces of the adults and sighed sadly.

Jun Meizhen trembled with her walking stick.

Originally, she still had a glimmer of hope, hoping to arrange for Shen Ning and Niang three before she died, so that she could have an explanation for her daughter, but now it seems impossible!

Shen Ning had a mocking and disdainful sneer in his ice eyes.

These so-called relatives, she has only met once since she was a child.

Back then, when my mother was seriously ill and had nowhere to go, I didn't even think about them. Now, it's even more unnecessary.

She came here just to see grandma for the last time.

Six years ago, after her grandmother rescued her secretly, she bought a cemetery and buried her mother's ashes, which gave her the courage to survive when all thoughts were lost.

In these years, in the United States, her grandmother would often call her to let her finish her studies with peace of mind.

She is grateful to her grandmother.

"Uncle, aunt, don't worry, I just want to see grandma when I come back, and I'll leave right away. As for Shao's property, I won't take any of it." She said coldly, turned around and shouted:

"Cocoa."

"Yes, Your Majesty the Empress."

"Little."

"Yes, Your Majesty the Empress."

"let's go."

Shen Ning smiled slightly, and stretched out his hands to the two cuties.

The two cubs immediately ran closer with their buttocks twisted, and held Mommy's hand one by one.

A group of three, Xiong Jiujiu, walked outside in high spirits.

"Ning Ning, wait a minute." Jun Meizhen chased after slightly trembling on crutches.

"Grandma." Shen Ning hurried up to support her.

"Ningning, I'm sorry, grandma didn't protect you well." Jun Meizhen held her hand, tears streaming down her face, and took out a black file bag and handed it to her.

Before dark.

Shen Ning finally settled down in an apartment with Ke Ke and Xiao Xiaojiu, and planned to fly back to the United States in three days.

As soon as she settled down, Ke Ke got into the study and turned on the laptop she brought with her.

Today at Grandma's house, those people called them bastards!

When he was at the high-speed rail station, he saw that that scumbag had already had other women and children.

Those relatives treat them badly, he is not angry.

But the scumbag daddy abandoned Mommy and them! He was very angry!

Before this, he never thought that Mommy would be so pitiful, that his uncle would not love him, and his father would not love her.

He is a man now, it's time to protect her!

After a while, a face exactly like him appeared on the computer screen: Li Zhenting, the president of the Li Group, the richest man in the imperial capital...

Hmph, chaos and abandonment, scumbag!

Ke Ke stared at this pretty face, cursed bitterly, with a sly smile on his face.
