

Troublemakers 831

Chapter 831 You really can't take care of yourself

Shen Ning looked at his somewhat impatient face, and said lightly: "I don't want to do this either, but Mom made a special confession, and this is only the first day. If I don't obey, how will Mom answer the question?"

Li Zhenting was right after thinking about it, and asked, "Have you had dinner yet?"

"Eat... I didn't eat." Shen Ning's eyes fell on the lunch box he was holding, and he replied intentionally.

"You haven't eaten so late, you really don't know how to take care of yourself." He reproached lovingly, took out his mobile phone, "I'll give you something if you want to eat."

"No need, don't you have it here, I can just eat whatever I want." Shen Ning looked at the lunch box in his hand and said lightly.

Li Zhenting hesitated for a while and then said: "There is only some light fish porridge here. I asked the cafeteria to make it. You may not be used to it. I'd better give you something else."

"Then I won't eat. I'm not hungry anyway. I ate a lot outside at noon." Shen Ning refused.

"No, I have to eat." Li Zhenting's complexion sank, and he ordered several kinds of food on his mobile phone. After ordering, he ordered:

"You just stay in the office, and the food will be delivered soon. You should eat more. If you are tired, go to rest inside. I will go over there to discuss work with a few executives."

After he explained, he took some documents and wanted to go out.

Shen Ning's eyes fell on his hands.

He still holds the lunch box.

"By the way, Zhen Ting, how is Xiao Feng doing after being sent to the hospital? Is it dangerous?" She suddenly asked with concern.

After a pause, Li Zhenting replied: "It's okay, it's an old problem."

"I was wondering, why did she suddenly fall from the wheelchair to the ground?" Shen Ning looked at him and said.

Li Zhenting glanced at her, hesitated to speak, and finally said: "Maybe it's because she couldn't sit still not long after the operation, don't worry about it, she's fine anyway, you can have a good meal and rest here. Come on, I'll take you home with me later."

After he finished speaking, he stroked her face, smiled, turned and walked out.

Shen Ning stared at his back, pain flashed in his eyes.

After a while, she quietly walked behind him.

Soon, she saw Li Zhenting coming to the office of the chip design department, opened the door and walked in.

Shen Ning waited for a while before quietly walking over, standing outside the glass window and looking in.

I saw only three people in the office, and Xiaofeng was among these three people.

She was sitting beside him, close to him, and the fish porridge in Li Zhenting's hand had been placed in front of her.

She ate a bite with a small spoon from time to time, looking at him affectionately.

Li Zhenting was looking at the document in his hand, very focused.

Shen Ning felt a bitterness in his heart.

He carefully cooked fish porridge for her, even if she wanted it, he wouldn't give it to her.

If you guessed right, if she hadn't stayed with him to work overtime tonight, then he and Xiaofeng should be sitting in the president's office now.

Because she was here, Li Zhenting switched here temporarily.

There was a churn in her stomach, and she turned her head and walked outside.

"Ning Ning, how are you going to work today?" Just as he came to the corridor outside, Shen Ning received a call from Li Wanqing.

"Mom, it's okay." Shen Ning's face turned pale.

"Ning Ning, let me ask you, is Zhenting with that white lotus Xiaofeng today?"

"Mom...no."

"That's good. From now on, you will stay by Zhenting's side. As long as you go in and out with Zhenting, I believe she will not dare to make trouble. You have to remember that you are the vice president of the company now, so you must make good use of you." You have the right to deal with her and tell her to leave quickly, you have to guard your husband, don't leave."

...

After Shen Ning put down the phone, he felt bitter in his heart.

She understood Li Wanqing's thoughts.

But she understands better that if a man's heart is on you, he will naturally love you without you being by his side every day, but if this man's heart is not on you, even if you follow him every day, he will still love you way to avoid yours.

Isn't this the case right now?

She didn't want to make Li Wanqing sad, didn't tell the truth, and didn't want to go back to the president's office to guard the emptiness and hopelessness of love, let alone go back to Li's Castle, for fear that Li Wanqing would interrogate her why she didn't come back with Li Zhenting .

She could only sit silently on the bench in the castle in the air until the phone on her body rang.

Chapter 832 Don't you miss me?

"Ningning, where are you?" Li Zhenting called, and his tone was anxious.

"I'm downstairs." Shen Ning's eyes were indifferent.

After a while, Li Zhenting hurried over and held her hands tightly, it was cold!

"Ningning, it's such a cold day, why don't you stay in the office well, why did you come here, what should you do if you catch a cold?"

He held her hands and rubbed them, took a few breaths, and blamed her.

Shen Ning bowed his head and did not speak.

"Ning Ning, are you feeling well?" Under the night light, Li Zhenting saw Shen Ning's pale and thin face, and couldn't help asking with concern.

"It's okay." Shen Ning shook his head.

"Are you still sad because of grandma's death?" Li Zhenting put his arms around her shoulders, and held her in his arms, loving her very much.

This little woman has a deep affection for her grandmother. During this period of time, because of her grandmother's departure, she seemed so vulnerable and helpless. He couldn't bear to leave her for even half a step.

Bringing up grandma, Shen Ning slightly closed his eyes.

"Ning Ning." Li Zhenting caressed her face with his fingertips, lowered his head, gently stroked her face with his lips, sprayed hot air on her face, and murmured.

Shen Ning was in a trance for a while, and opened his eyes. His * eyes were facing Li Zhenting's dark eyes.

The two looked at each other face to face.

The man's lips began to gently kiss the skin of the woman's face, and the woman's long eyelashes flickered, tickling his cheeks, teasing his sensitive nerves.

"Ning Ning, we haven't been intimate for a long time, don't you miss me?" The man's lips kissed her ear, he chuckled and asked in a friendly voice.

Shen Ning looked at him in a daze.

Li Zhenting's lips moved little by little, and finally kissed her lips...

Shen Ning was shaken all over, and fell limply on his chest.

Li Zhenting pressed her big palm on her back chest and pressed her against his chest, wishing to rub him into his chest cavity, the passion in his body surged up, and he kissed her even more frantically...

In the darkness not far away, a pair of jealous eyes were about to burst into flames.

Xiaofeng stood under a big tree, his fingers gripping the trunk tightly, and the veins on the back of his hands bulged.

She stared closely at the man and woman who were embracing each other affectionately in the dark and kissing passionately, her teeth clenched.

Unexpectedly, even though she tried her best, she still couldn't separate this passionate couple.

She is not reconciled...

"Ning Ning." Li Zhenting kissed Shen Ning deeply, and murmured her name, a continuous love rose in his chest, he wanted her, wanted her immediately, this was just his most primitive desire, he couldn't help it. He eagerly picked her up and ran towards the president's office.

There was a starlight shining in front of Shen Ning's eyes, and his whole body floated up.

"Ah, it hurts." When Li Zhenting hugged Shen Ning and ran into the lounge behind the CEO's office like a gust of wind, put her on the big bed, and was about to kiss her, suddenly, there was a sharp pain in the head, so painful. Holding his head in his hands, he rolled and fell to the floor.

Shen Ning woke up suddenly, quickly turned over and got up, looked at Li Zhenting and asked worriedly: "Zhenting, what's wrong with you?"

"My head hurts a bit." He took a breath and replied with difficulty.

Recently, he often suffers from headaches, and every time he has a headache, his brain goes blank, he can't remember anything, and he also gets confused for a while, and sometimes even admits mistakes.

He thought it was because he was too busy.

"Ning Ning, I'm sorry, I've been too busy recently, and my mental pressure is too great." After a while, Li Zhenting returned to normal, and said with a wry smile, "I will take you and the children on a trip to relax after I finish my busy time. I won't let you go then."

Chapter 833 Do you love me?

He pulled Shen Ning into his arms, leaned against the back of the sofa, hugged her light figure on his lap, and rubbed her waist, affectionately and tenderly.

When Shen Ning heard him mentioning the children at first, the phone call from Keke tonight rang, and he hurriedly said: "Zhenting, Keke called me today, he said he missed Daddy and Mommy, let's go tomorrow. Pick them up from school."

"Okay, I miss the children too." Mentioning the children, both of them had gentle smiles on their faces.

"Then let's sleep here tonight. It's too late, and we will wake up our parents and children when we go back. It's hard to run around."

"Yes, yes." Shen Ning nodded obediently.

"Okay, let's take a shower first, it's getting late, go to bed early." After they discussed it, Li Zhenting stood up holding her, hugged her a few times in mid-air, and then kissed her on the face, put her down.

The two went to take a shower and lay down on the bed.

Li Zhenting stretched out his hand and pulled Shen Ning into his arms, wrapping his arms around her thin shoulders.

Shen Ning leaned against the man's chest, listening to his strong heartbeat.

The two snuggled together happily. Outside the window, a round of bleak moonlight shone in, and the earth was peaceful.

"Zhen Ting, do you love me?" Shen Ning asked softly, stroking his stomach with one hand in the dim night.

Li Zhenting was drowsy with his arms around Shen Ning.

Shen Ning asked twice before he heard clearly.

"Fool, who do I love if I don't love you? You are my wife and the mother of my three children. Of course I love you."

"Then do you love me or Xiaofeng?" Shen Ning didn't seem to believe it, and asked him a multiple-choice question.

Li Zhenting reached out and pinched her little nose: "Of course I love you. If I didn't love you, would I still sleep here with you in my arms? You women are narrow-minded, suspicious, and always thinking wildly."

Is she really cranky!

Shen Ning smiled wryly, a man held her in his arms but called another woman's name 'Xiaofeng', she lingered by his side like a ghost, and he didn't drive her away, which made her Don't think too much?

She didn't speak, at this time the man had already heard the sound of deep breathing, and he was already asleep.

Shen Ning closed his eyes slightly, and wanted to turn over, but the man's strong arms hugged her tightly in his sleep, as if he was afraid that she would fly away.

For a moment, she felt sad.

At this time, everything in the world is quiet, and the cold wind is blowing outside, but her surroundings are full of warmth.

At this moment, she felt that there were only the two of them left in the world, and all the little wind and grass had disappeared.

She finally believed what Li Wanqing said:

Husband and wife can only be intimate if they stay together, and outsiders will not intervene.

Undoubtedly, Li Wanqing was thinking of her.

She lay comfortably, with an inexplicable peace of mind in her heart, tiredness hit her, and she soon fell asleep while pregnant.

The next day, when Shen Ning woke up, it was already 8:30 in the morning. She turned over and got up, but Li Zhenting was not by her side.

It's almost time to go to work.

She immediately got up to wash up, and just after washing up, Li Zhenting came in early carrying two big boxes full.

"Ning Ning, you're awake." The energetic man smiled at the corners of his eyes and spoke in a friendly voice.

"Well, sorry, I overslept."

"It's okay, come and have breakfast, I have to go to the morning meeting after breakfast."

He put the breakfast on the bedside table, took a small chair and sat down beside it.

The two began to eat breakfast.

Li Zhenting ordered bird's nest porridge, rice porridge, fresh milk, and cake. He forced Shen Ning to eat a lot, and he didn't let the cleaners come over to clean up until he thought she should be full.

This time, Shen Ning did not have morning sickness!

After breakfast, Li Zhenting went to the morning meeting, but Shen Ning didn't follow, because she was really not good at those business matters.

She just sat at her desk with nothing to do.

Yesterday, she drew two bastards, should she draw a cartoon of a family of seven today?

While she was tilting her head and preparing to draw, suddenly, the doorbell rang.

She pressed the video intercom, and saw Nurse Wu standing at the door of the president's office pushing Xiaofeng's wheelchair.

Her heart sank, and her face changed color.

For a long time, she didn't press the button to open the door.

But Xiaofeng knew she was here, so he kept ringing the doorbell.

Chapter 834 Sorry, I can't help you

"Sister, I followed the rules this time, didn't I commit any fouls?" Shen Ning finally pushed the door switch, Nurse Wu pushed Xiaofeng in and walked in slowly, Xiaofeng's eyes fell on Shen Ning's face with a smile.

"President Li is not in the office now, you can come back later."

"It's okay, I can wait." Xiaofeng held the file bag with her fingers, with a proud smile on her face, as if telling her that she is an important scientific researcher of the company and a talent that Li Zhenting needs, but she is just a vase, what? I don't understand either.

"That's up to you." Shen Ning said indifferently.

"Well, Nurse Wu, I forgot to take a document, please help me get it." Xiaofeng looked at his folder and ordered.

"Okay, I'll go right away, be careful." Nurse Wu put Xiaofeng's wheelchair away, turned and walked out.

Shen Ning looked down at the white paper in front of him, and a big white lotus flower flashed in his mind.

She is about to write.

Xiaofeng looked around and suddenly said very politely: "Vice President Shen, I asked Mr. Li to report important scientific research results. Can you pour me a glass of water?"

Shen Ning slightly raised his eyes and glanced at her, and was about to dial the internal number and ask the secretary to bring her a glass of water.

Xiaofeng quickly took out a delicate red water cup from the wheelchair and smiled at Shen Ning: "Sister, I can't drink the water in the water dispenser. You also know that I can't eat or drink indiscriminately after the operation. There is a doctor over there." Taikang purifier, can you bring me a glass of water, please? Thank you."

Li Zhenting's office has a set of advanced water purification machines, and the water quality is very good.

Shen Ning was taken aback, and sneered in his heart. This woman deliberately dismissed Nurse Wu, just to point her to work for her, so as to humiliate her. It's disgusting.

She raised her eyes slightly to stare at her, and said slowly and politely: "It stands to reason that this request is a trivial matter. Of course I can help you get the water, but who knows if that glass of water will be poisonous, and will it make you spit after drinking it?" What about the blood? Or did you suddenly roll off the wheelchair again and let my husband * you to the hospital to pester him, sorry, I can't help you, you'd better wait for Nurse Wu to come over first."

Xiaofeng's complexion changed slightly, and after a moment of stupefaction, she suddenly lifted her long hair with her fingers, revealing two shiny ears beside her ears, which made her face charming and beautiful.

Shen Ning's face changed color.

"Where do you come from, these earrings?" Her voice shifted.

Xiaofeng saw her nervous appearance, the corners of her lips raised a bright arc, and she touched her ears with her fingers: "You mean them, oh, they were given to me by Zhenting the night before, and I fell in love with them immediately. I like it very much, how is it? Sister, I wear it beautifully."

Shen Ning clenched his fingers tightly.

These earbuds belonged to her mother, Shao Meiqi, which was given to her mother by her grandmother before she died. At that time, she was distraught, and handed the earbuds to Li Zhenting beside her, asking him to help keep them, but unexpectedly, he gave them to Xiao wind.

A chill rose from the soles of his feet, Shen Ning bit his lip, feeling cramped in his heart.

How could Li Zhenting do such a thing? He knew how important grandma and mother were to her, and he knew it was hers, so he gave it to Xiaofeng.

Fortunately, he was still tender to her last night, saying that he loved her, but secretly gave her mother's precious earrings to other women.

Is this love?

Her mood fell to the bottom in an instant, and she clutched her belly tightly with her fingers. For the first time, she felt the urge to kill the child.

Chapter 835 You will be abandoned by him soon

"Mr. Shen, do you have time? I want to ask you out to meet with me." Suddenly, her cell phone rang, and Shen Ning picked it up to see that it was Yun Chaoyu, and immediately picked it up.

"Okay, I have time."

"Then let's meet at the Floating Light Cafe."

"Well, see you in half an hour."

Shen Ning stood up, when Nurse Wu also came over.

"Miss Shen, your file." She handed the file to Xiaofeng.

Xiaofeng took it, flipped through it, and was full of pride and pride: "Zhenting really values the contents of this document. This is a blueprint that I spent the whole night drawing."

Shen Ning turned around and went to the bedroom to get his bag out.

"Xiaofeng, I have something to go out now, please report to the secretariat first, and I will notify you when President Li returns to the office." She stood in front of Xiaofeng, condescending, with a strong aura.

Xiaofeng was not in a hurry, but said slowly: "Vice President Shen, I am not in good health and not suitable for walking back and forth. Are you sure you want to drive me out like this?"

"Xiaofeng, let me ask you, are you going out now? There are many secrets in Mr. Li's office, outsiders should not come in casually." Shen Ning suddenly asked sharply.

"Vice President Shen, what I have in my hand is also the secrets of the Li Group, and it is urgently needed by the Li Group. It is related to the future of the Li Group. I don't know how many eyes are staring at it. Are you sure you want to let me out? If someone snatches it or loses it, can you be responsible?" Xiaofeng raised his eyebrows aggressively and confronted him.

Shen Ning smiled coldly, without saying a word, suddenly snatched the wheelchair from Nurse Wu and pushed it outside.

For fear that she would suddenly fall off the wheelchair again, she turned on the camera and followed the whole process.

"Okay." After Shen Ning pushed Xiaofeng to the corridor, he closed the door of the president's office with a bang.

"Shen Ning, don't be too arrogant. You can't help Zhen Ting in your career with just your vase. You will be abandoned by him soon." Xiao Feng's face turned black, and he spoke angrily.

"No matter how much I am a vase, I am also a healthy woman, the mother of his three children, and the daughter-in-law of the Li family's famous matchmaker. Unlike you, I am nothing and want to rob others all day long Man, it's really shameful to be a mistress."

Shen Ning replied, turned around and walked away.

Xiaofeng's eyes flashed with a cold light, he clenched his fingers tightly, and sneered in his heart: Shen Ning, don't get complacent too early, soon, you will cry.

Floating Cafe.

When Shen Ning rushed over, Yun Chaoyu had already arrived.

"Chaoyu, what's the matter?"

Yun Chaoyu was looking at his phone, his eyebrows frowned.

"Mr. Shen, this woman Xiaofeng has a complicated background, and it shouldn't be simple. You have to be careful." Yun Chaoyu is still that straight-tempered, talking about things when he has something to say, and never talking nonsense.

"How to say?"

"Take a good look." Yun Chaoyu sent Shen Ning a few photos on his phone.

Shen Ning clicked on it, and looked over one by one.

The first one is a thin woman sitting with a man from the back, they seem to be talking about something, very close.

What surprised Shen Ning was that the man was actually an American, wearing a peaked cap and having tattoos on his arms.

The second picture is still the woman and the man. They are in a box in a ballroom, and the man is handing a file bag to the woman.

The third photo, this time, is a profile shot. She is sitting on a sofa, wearing a denim T-shirt, with a thin body and a profile face that is clearly visible. Her facial features are very similar to hers. While smoking, there are several men and women around me having a carnival.

The fourth picture, this time the woman is dressed very avant-garde, and the frontal face is taken. Due to the distance, the picture is not very clear, but the face similar to hers can still be seen at a glance, it is Xiaofeng .

Chapter 836 The big celebrity around President Li

Shen Ning looked at the thin figure of the woman in the photo, and a thin back suddenly flashed in his mind.

She remembered.

That day

On the day Li Zhenting had eye surgery and was hospitalized, when she was delivering food to the hospital, she saw a woman's back, which was very similar to this one.

She seemed to have just walked out of Li Zhenting's ward. At that time, she felt an inexplicable uneasiness in her heart. That feeling made her very uncomfortable, so that after seeing this thin figure, she immediately remembered it.

This means that Xiaofeng has already come to the imperial capital, Ru has been trying to get close to Li Zhenting!

"I got these photos from a friend. As far as I know, the American person Xiaofeng came into contact with was not an ordinary citizen. He should be a member of a certain security department. From this point of view, Xiaofeng's background is very complicated. She must be approaching your husband with a purpose now, as for what the purpose is, I don't know, and I don't know what she wants to do, anyway, you just have to pay attention." Yun Chaoyu looked at Shen Ning's pale face, speak frankly and sincerely.

"Thank you, Chaoyu." Shen Ning thanked him sincerely.

"Mr. Shen, chips are a sensitive topic right now. The United States intends to blockade the inland area in all aspects of technology. Mr. Li is now developing this sensitive issue. There will be certain risks. You should pay more attention to the people who appear around him." be careful."

Although Yun Chaoyu is an American, he is of the same origin. He is actually patriotic. At that time, he just couldn't help himself when he went abroad.

"I see, thank you very much." Shen Ning looked at this arrogant young man. He used to be arrogant and rude to her, but after his colleagues discovered her advantages, he changed his perception of her instantly, and also Be honest with her.

"I will stay in the imperial capital for a month. If you have anything to do, you can come to me at any time, and I will do my best to help you."

After taking a sip of coffee, Yun Chaoyu stood up and turned to leave.

Shen Ning looked at his back and sighed in his heart, this is a computer genius, but he went to the United States despite having such talent, it would be great if his country could keep him, then maybe the current chip technology has already broken through the bottleneck up.

How smart he is, he has only met her once, and never told him about his feelings, but he has already seen through everything about her.

Li Group.

Li Zhenting sat around with all the designers, and Xiaofeng's design plan was posted on the PPT for all-round display.

"What do you think? How about this design plan?" After a while, Li Zhenting looked at the designers and executives present.

"Mr. Li, I think it's quite creative, not bad." Wei Shilong, the head of the design department, replied.

"Xiaofeng is a talented student who returned from studying in the United States. If the data we have been uncertain about before can be successfully demonstrated, then our chip breakthrough is just around the corner."

"Mr. Li, Xiaofeng is really working hard. These days, she works very late every day, and her health is not very good."

"Yes, according to her, she used to work at TSMC and knew about some sensitive data. Now she is working so hard to write out the data as soon as possible. I am afraid that I will forget it by then. I really want to thank her."

Everyone present praised Xiaofeng.

Li Zhenting's tense face softened, and he nodded.

When Shen Ning returned to Li's Group, it was time for lunch, so she also went to the dining hall to eat something casually.

"I heard that the chip solution designed by Xiaofeng has been praised by President Li, and he is very satisfied. Now the entire design department speaks highly of her, and she has become a big celebrity around President Li."

"No wonder she is favored by President Li. She is not only beautiful and talented, but also so sensible and gentle. Who doesn't like such a woman."

"Yeah, I'm seriously ill. I've just had an operation. For the Li Group, I'm still designing patterns day and night. I heard that I vomit blood. If I were a man, I would be tempted too. She is indeed in charge." I deserve it."

Chapter 837 You must promise me when the time comes

Shen Ning ate food and sat down at a seat by the window. The staff next to her could hear comments from time to time. She sat blankly, feeling sad and aching as if her heart had been shattered.

After taking a few mouthfuls of food at random, the dishes were a little greasy, and I felt uncomfortable in my stomach, and Yun Chaoyu's words sounded in my ears, and I was very preoccupied for a while, so I walked out of the dining hall and returned to the president's office.

There is a bowl of light white rice porridge on the desk in the president's office, as well as a small stack of sour radish strips, a small stack of green vegetables, and a few white shrimps.

As soon as Shen Ning walked in, she smelled sour gas. She didn't usually eat sour food, she especially wanted to eat sour food at this time, her appetite was aroused, and her already empty stomach was facing these light porridge, green vegetables and sour radish. reacted.

She thought that there was no one else in the office, so Li Zhenting should have left it for her to eat, so she raised her hand and pinched a stick of radish and put it in her mouth. After eating it, she felt very comfortable in her stomach, so she ate the sour radish stand up.

After a while, he finished eating the porridge and vegetables on the table.

"Zhenting, I'm hungry, have the porridge and vegetables been delivered?" But at this moment, a woman's soft voice came from the door.

"It has been delivered." Soon a man's magnetic voice replied, very gentle, "Xiaofeng, you are so thin, you have not recovered from a serious illness, and you have to work night shifts these days, can you just eat these things?" I'd better order some pigeon soup for you to make up for it."

"No, I can't eat." The woman quickly thanked softly, "I have poor digestion right now, so I can only eat light and easily digestible food, I really can't eat anything else, thank you for your concern, I have to finish the design in the afternoon Well, I hope that it can be put into production as soon as possible, I am only thinking of the Li Group."

"Xiaofeng, you have worked so hard. After the chip is produced, I will definitely reward you." Li Zhenting was a little embarrassed.

"Zhen Ting, I don't want rewards, as long as you promise me one condition, I will be satisfied."

"What condition?"

"Don't say it now, but when the time comes, you must promise me."

"As long as it is within my ability, I will definitely agree. Houses, cars, tickets... as long as I ask, I can give it."

Xiaofeng didn't speak, just smiled.

Shen Ning sat blankly on the office chair, and with the sound of talking, he saw a wheelchair being pushed into the president's office.

Li Zhenting actually personally pushed Xiaofeng in.

"Sister, so you are here, I'm so sorry, Zhenting personally pushed me in today, I forgot to ring the doorbell to announce, please forgive me."

Xiaofeng was very nervous when he saw Shen Ning, and immediately spoke sincerely, then turned his head and said to Li Zhenting:

"Zhen Ting, push me out quickly. Let's go outside and ask my sister for permission before coming in. Otherwise, my sister will be angry, and I can no longer fall to the ground."

Li Zhenting's face darkened.

Shen Ning came back to his senses, and looked straight at Li Zhenting with cold eyes.

Li Zhenting avoided her eyes, and said lightly: "Ningning, I brought Xiaofeng here to discuss work matters. We need to discuss knowledge about chips. I hope you can understand."

us?

Shen Ning was extremely disgusted.

"You can do whatever you want." She laughed mockingly.

"Thank you sister for your generosity." Xiaofeng immediately thanked Dade for his appearance.

Really good at acting!

Shen Ning snorted coldly.

"Zhenting, where are the porridge and vegetables you left for me? I want to eat them." At this time, Xiaofeng's big eyes turned around in the office and didn't see the food, so he immediately turned his head and asked Li Zhenting.

And Li Zhenting's eyes just stared at the vegetables left in Shen Ning's hand, and remained silent.

Chapter 838 As long as my sister is happy

"Ah, sister, you can't be the one who ate the meal that Zhenting specially left for me." Suddenly, Xiaofeng screamed out.

Shen Ning looked expressionlessly at the porridge, vegetables and radish sticks that she had finished in front of her, and looked at Li Zhenting again.

"Boss Li, I didn't know you bought it for her. I'm sorry, I ate it." She said coldly.

"Ningning, don't you usually dislike eating these things?"

"But now I suddenly like to eat."

"Xiaofeng has been working hard these days, and she can't eat anything else, so I asked the cafeteria to make it for her. If you like it, tell me earlier, and I can ask the kitchen to make an extra serving for you. There was a hint of blame in Li Zhenting's voice.

"Zhen Ting, do you mean to blame me for eating the food you left for your beloved woman? But I don't know, if you had told me earlier, I would not have eaten it, but you clearly know that in this office It's just me and you, if you stay here, I thought it was for me, why didn't you say it earlier?" Shen Ning's eyes were foggy, and his voice was sharp.

Did she eat it for herself? No, she just eats for their baby in her belly!

Li Zhenting opened his mouth and saw the pain on Shen Ning's face. Suddenly, his head hurt.

"Zhen Ting, don't blame my sister, it's okay, let her eat if she likes it, it doesn't matter if I'm hungry, as long as my sister is happy, the most important thing now is to make the design, I know my sister doesn't like it I'm staying here, so let's go to see the design drawings quickly, and I'll leave early when I'm done." Xiaofeng hurriedly and sensibly took Li Zhenting's hand, smoothing the situation softly.

"But you haven't eaten yet." Li Zhenting thought that she had been sick and worked overtime for several nights, and she didn't eat anything every day. It was too cruel, and she couldn't bear it, "I'll let the chef do it right away, you just wait. "

"Alright." Afraid of Li Zhenting's burden, Xiaofeng nodded in agreement.

"That's it, let's start working, you push me over." Xiaofeng said softly, and looked at Shen Ning timidly, as if afraid of her scolding.

However, this weak move of hers was seen by Li Zhenting. Li Zhenting frowned slightly, pushed Xiaofeng to stop at the desk, and he sat back in the president's chair.

"Ning Ning, it's noon now, go inside and have a rest." Li Zhenting looked at Shen Ning and said with concern.

Shen Ning sneered in his heart, probably because she was afraid that she would disturb the two of them by the side.

"I'm not sleepy." She said coldly.

You don't want me to listen by the side, but I just want to stay here and make you mad.

Li Zhenting frowned slightly again.

Xiaofeng blinked his big flexible eyes, and looked at Shen Ning with calculating complacency.

"Zhenting, come here and take a look." After they took out the design drawings and discussed for a while, suddenly, Xiaofeng spoke softly to Li Zhenting.

Hearing this, Li Zhenting stood up and stretched out his head.

"Come here again." Xiaofeng pointed to the blueprint on her wheelchair.

Looking at it, Li Zhenting had no choice but to stand up and walk to her side.

"Look, Zhen Ting, they have done more than a hundred experiments on the parameters of this corner, and they proved to be correct." Xiaofeng moved the drawing over and pointed her finger at a dot in front of her.

Li Zhenting hurriedly bent down, moved his head closer, and this time he came close to Xiaofeng's chest, and he could see the scenery on her chest as long as he lowered his eyes.

But Li Zhenting focused all his attention on the design drawing at this time, and looked at it carefully.

"Zhen Ting, do you see clearly?" Xiao Feng faced her, and slowly moved his chest close to his arm, and he almost slipped into his arms.

Chapter 839 is disgusted

"Well, you can try this data, Xiaofeng, you have quite a lot of professional knowledge." Li Zhenting looked at it carefully, nodded, and gave her a thumbs up.

"Zhen Ting, I spent a lot of effort to get this data, and now the United States is still hunting me, I have no other place to go but stay here, you can't let me down A lot of painstaking work." Xiaofeng looked at him with big eyes affectionately, wishing he could bite him and swallow him in one bite.

"Ouch." A feeling of nausea struck, Shen Ning hurriedly covered her mouth, stood up and ran towards the bathroom.

She lay prone on the toilet and vomited several mouthfuls.

Shen Ning's action startled Li Zhenting. As soon as he looked up, he saw Shen Ning's disgusted appearance. He was stunned for a while, and when he lowered his head, he saw that Xiaofeng was about to get into his arms, and what his eyes touched turned out to be a woman. Snow-white half of the breast.

He panicked and took a few steps back, turned around and ran towards the bathroom.

Xiaofeng's eyes flashed a gloomy and sarcastic cold light.

"Ning Ning, what's wrong with you?" When Li Zhenting ran in, Shen Ning had suppressed the nausea in his stomach, and was wiping his lips with a tissue.

"It's okay, it's just disgusting." Shen Ning replied indifferently, and walked outside.

"Ningning, I know you don't like Xiaofeng, but now Xiaofeng is a chip designer, and our company needs her. As the president of the company, I treat all employees equally, because she designed the drawings, I can only Discussing the work with her is determined by the nature of the work, and I can't help it..." Li Zhenting took her arm and spoke seriously.

Shen Ning said indifferently: "I already know, you don't need to explain."

She shook off him and walked outside.

Li Zhenting sighed.

If it weren't for his mother insisting on letting her stay by his side, this kind of thing wouldn't have happened. Now seeing him feel uncomfortable in contact with female colleagues, there's nothing he can do about it. The company is now in a critical period, even though he is the president You can't act arbitrarily.

"Hello, sister." When Shen Ning came out, Xiaofeng was sitting in a wheelchair and smiling at her, her eyes were shining brightly, as if she was showing off: Zhenting is mine, don't struggle, just leave now.

She pursed her lower lip, picked up her bag and walked outside.

"Sister, don't you want to stay longer? I'm going to finish discussing with President Li soon." Xiaofeng looked at her figure and said affectionately on purpose, with a very sensible and polite appearance.

Shen Ning ignored her.

Li Zhenting chased after him.

"Zhenting, I haven't finished reading the design drawings yet. I have to go to the hospital this afternoon." He was about to chase after Shen Ning when Xiaofeng said softly and covered his stomach with his hands, "Hey, I'm fine now. hungry."

Li Zhenting stopped when he heard the words, and after watching Shen Ning's figure go out, he turned back again.

"Zhenting, I'm sorry, my sister doesn't like me. She seems to be angry. I didn't mean it. Next time, let's not discuss work in the president's office." Xiaofeng looked at his face carefully, with a full face apology.

"It's okay, let's continue." Li Zhenting frowned and bent down, "Let's look at the next question."

"Okay." Xiaofeng said softly, and pointed to the next data with his thin white fingers.

Li Zhenting looked at the data and at his own computer, asking various questions from time to time, Xiaofeng explained carefully and patiently, and the technical terminology was smooth.

"Xiaofeng, yes, I didn't expect your professional knowledge to be so strong." After a while, Li Zhenting was full of praise for her.

Xiaofeng smiled shyly, and took the opportunity to lightly touch the man's body with his arm, gentle and charming.

Although Li Zhenting concentrates on understanding the work, sometimes he can't help being distracted by Xiaofeng's teasing with anger and resentment from time to time.

Chapter 840 I must come back to you

After a while, the chef brought porridge, radish sticks and green vegetables.

Li Zhenting took it and placed it on the coffee table for her personally.

"Zhenting, can you feed me? I can't reach it." Xiaofeng looked at the porridge on the coffee table, stretched out his hand a few times and gave up.

"I..." Li Zhenting hesitated.

"Zhenting, I'm really hungry. I haven't eaten all day, and my stomach hurts." Xiaofeng stroked his stomach with both hands, his face was pale, and his eyes were filled with tears.

"Okay, let's go." Li Zhenting had no choice but to pick up the bowl and start feeding her spoonful by spoonful.

"Zhenting, do you remember the past? You couldn't see, I fed you, and after you finished eating a bowl of noodles, I peeled an egg for you. You took my hand and said: Xiaofeng, You are so kind, I like you."

After Li Zhenting finished feeding a small spoonful of porridge, Xiaofeng suddenly grabbed his fingers, his face full of fascination and emotion,

"You know? I always remember that scene. At that moment, my heart was beating up and down. I will never forget that feeling. I always thought you would remember your promise and love me forever , but now..."

Xiaofeng said with tears streaming down his face, he put Li Zhenting's hand on his chest and held it tightly, heartbroken.

Li Zhenting sat blankly, a look of shame flashed across his face, he reached out to the side to get a tissue and handed it to her, silent.

"Zhen Ting, you love me, right? You loved me in the first place and have been waiting for me, right? You still love me now, just to take care of my sister's emotions and refuse to say it, right? ?" Xiaofeng took the tissue with one hand and put it on his nose, while holding his hand tightly with the other hand, he asked.

Li Zhenting gently pulled his hand back and cleared his voice: "Xiaofeng, the past is over, I now have a family, wife and children, there is no way between us, please forget the past quickly Come out, we can't go back to the past."

He looked gloomy, the girl in his dream, his little wind, had been hidden in his heart all along, how could he forget it.

But during this period of time, he gradually discovered that he had already fallen in love with his wife Shen Ning.

More often, Shen Ning touches his heart even more than Xiaofeng.

I have to admit that love will change, and he is like this.

"No, I will never forget the past, I will never forget, I remember every bit of the past clearly, Zhenting, you are mine, I must come back to you, never I gave up." Xiaofeng suddenly shouted in pain, holding his head in his hands.

"Xiaofeng, calm down, eat some radish sticks first." Li Zhenting picked up a radish stick to change the subject, but Xiaofeng kept shaking his head and shouted in pain: "Zhenting, I only want you, please don't leave I, without you, I can't live."

She howled!

Li Zhenting just stood there, turned around and walked out after a while.

...

The gate of Blue Whale Kindergarten.

"Will Daddy and Mommy come to pick us up?" Ke Ke, Ding Ding, Xiao Xiao, and Lan Lan stood in a row, and the four little guys were all looking forward.

"It will definitely come, Mommy promised me." Coco is full of confidence.

"But why hasn't this time come yet?"

"Wait a little longer, Daddy and Mommy are very busy now, we need to be sensible, you know?" Coco comforted them like a little adult.

"All right."

The four little guys began to wait eagerly again.

But after waiting for a long time, I still haven't seen the shadow of Daddy and Mommy.

They began to lose their composure.
