

Chapter 2809

It turned out to be Zhang Jue's apprentice, Karen.

Darryl scowled at the sight of Karen. He never liked her at all because she was arrogant and domineering, thinking that she was Zhang Jue's apprentice. He felt Karen's aura was weak and she had been injured in the battle. Darryl dodged Karen's palm attack before it could reach him. After the failed surprise attack, Karen stared at Darryl indignantly, her face flushed. "Darryl, you have colluded with the Raksasa Tribe! How dare you come back?"

After being poisoned, Karen hid when she noticed that the situation was no good. She did not come out to check on the situation until the poison in her body had diminished. She did not expect to encounter Darryl when she finally emerged from hiding. Karen believed that Darryl had colluded with the Raksasa Tribe. Darryl was vexed and said in a sulky tone, "I repeat, I did not collude with the Raksasa Tribe, and I am not in the mood to talk nonsense with you. You better not mess with me!" He was desperate to kill Karen, but his priority at the moment was to find out what happened.

After he finished talking, he walked out of the square without even looking at Karen!

Karen trembled when she sensed Darryl's forbidding aura. "You ..."

She recovered from her shock shortly after and chased after Darryl. "Why are you following me?" Darryl stopped and asked!

Karen took a deep breath and replied, "I want to see where the Raksasa Tribe took the people. You said you have nothing to do with them so why the reaction? Are you afraid of me checking on you?"

Darryl groaned and warned Karen in a stern tone, "Okay, you can come with me, but let's be clear about this. If something happens, follow my orders!" Darryl felt conflicted about allowing Karen to stay with him. He disliked the idea of a woman like Karen doing an investigation with him, but Jack and his followers made strange appearances. For the sake of the wellbeing of the people, he set aside his personal grievances. " Why should I listen to you?" Karen replied curtly.

This person is my Master's number one enemy. If I submit myself under his command, how will I face my Master in the future? ' she thought. " If you don't want to listen to me then go on and do your own investigation. I'll do mine, " Darryl said " Alright, fine! " Karen was irritated, but she still nodded and agreed. The poison in her body had not been completely eliminated, so she was not as powerful. It was too dangerous for her to wander by herself and investigate the event. Darryl frowned and sneered when Karen finally agreed to his terms. " Don't think that I don't know what you're thinking. If you're thinking about using me, you can give up now.". With that said, Darryl walked straight out of the palace!

This bastard is so arrogant! Karen was not in a good mood, yet she had no choice but to keep up with Darryl! They left the palace and noticed that the streets of the Royal City were empty. The fierce fighting in the palace must have scared the people witless and they all went into hiding. However, Darryl noticed that some blood stains remained on the streets and they stretched all the way past the north gate and toward the northern mountain of the Royal City. Darryl went all the way to the north without hesitation. After about nearly two hours, Karen and Darryl arrived at the top of a barren mountain. The two stopped and looked down the mountain. Karen was inexplicably shocked along the journey. " When did the Raksasa Tribe become so powerful that they not only forced the Master to flee, but also arrested people from the major sects in The Nine Continents?' After several hours, Darryl suddenly slowed down his pace and looked extremely solemn.

Somewhere in the woods ahead of him, he saw the people from all the major sects of The Nine Continent tied up.

They were advancing forward, escorted by Jack's followers. Jack was at the forefront, holding a strange thing in his hand as he observed the surrounding terrain

'What is he looking for?' Darryl frowned and muttered secretly in his heart!

"Something isn't right!" Darryl glowered suspiciously at the peculiar act.

Jack should be on his way back to the Raksasa Tribe in the southwest after arresting the people of the major sects in The Nine Continent. What was he doing in that place?

Darryl was even more shocked when he noticed the surroundings. At the end of the woods was a primitive valley where high cliffs stood tall on its three sides. The valley sat at a very low land area and the deepest part was covered with mist, which exuded a creepy feeling

He had déjà vu when he saw the mist. A month ago, Darryl was ambushed by Zhang Jue. At the critical moment, he was taken back to The Legendary Island of the Dragons by the Divine Dragon Clan. At that time, Shandy was about to kill him and ordered Darryl to be taken into a deep cave where an enchanted barrier was set up. He remembered that the deep cave made him shudder and the deepest part of the valley in front of him seemed to be the same as the deep cave on The Legendary Island of the Dragons

Darryl was not aware Jack was no longer part of the Raksasa Tribe, Jack had taken all the people from the major sects in The Nine Continent to the valley to get onto the Soul Offering Road.

There was more than one route that led to the Soul Offering Road hidden in The Nine Continent; one of the many entrances was in the valley upfront. Karen cried impatiently when Darryl was thinking, " Darryl, these people from the Raksasa Tribe are evil. Why don't you hurry up and go save the people?"

Karen looked anxious and at the same time, she was somewhat coy. She thought it was Darryl's duty to go and save the people. He was the Elysium Gate Sect Master, after all,

' Save the people?' Darryl chuckled.

" The enemy is incredibly powerful; how could I save them all by myself?" he retorted.

Karen's face flushed as she replied, " I think that you never wanted to save them. Darryl, you kept saying that you have nothing to do with the Raksasa Tribe, but now that we have caught up with them, you chicken out. That's suspicious! You're one of them, right?"

Darryl suddenly became angry and said coldly, " Don't test me. If you want to save them, go ahead and save them on your own. Don't think that I don't know what's going on in your mind.. Your Master, Zhang Jue, has been planning the Supreme Conference for slong and finally it is commencing. It seemed he was about to succeed, but those people from the Raksasa Tribe destroyed his plans. Many people from the Endless Sky Organization have also been arrested.

You are furious and so you're trying to put the blame on me, am I right?"

Darryl raised the corner of his lips into a mocking smile. " You Endless Sky

Organization tried so hard to tarnish my name. As a result, nothing worked out for you and that serves you right!"

" You ..." Karen's face flushed and she stomped her feet angrily, but she had nothing to refute.

Thereafter, she accidentally broke a branch. The movement caught Jack and his followers ' attention as they turned around and howled angrily.

" What was that? "

" Who's there? "

Jack yelled and waved his hand.

Suddenly, hundreds of his men swarmed in Karen and Darryl's direction.

Darryl was shocked and angry. At the same time, he glared at Karen. They had been following the group discreetly, but Karen ended up revealing their whereabouts because she was having a tantrum.

' I would not take her with me if I knew, Darryl thought Karen trembled in a panic. Jack strode over in their direction and his eyes locked on Darryl for a moment. He was taken aback at first and then he burst into laughter. Jack was inexplicably excited as he shouted at Darryl, " Darryl, I was wondering how I was going to catch you. But, you've presented yourself at my door. Let's see if you can run away this time. " Buzz!

Chapter 2811

Jack released his internal energy and shrouded his body in a mass of Yin Energy as he volleyed himself at Darryl.

" Did you say that you want to catch me? Let's see if you can!" Darryl replied, frowning as Jack approached him. Darryl summoned the Heavenly Halberd and held it tight in his hand. Then, he went forth to confront Jack! Darryl was extremely shocked. What did Jack cultivate? Why is his technique so destructive? ' The technique was nothing like the Raksasa Tribe's techniques. Three years ago, a war broke out between The Nine Continent and the Raksasa Tribe. As a commander, Darryl had a good understanding of the Raksasa Tribe's techniques. He saw that the internal energy Jack was displaying was totally different from the Raksasa Tribe's techniques. It was powerful and sinister.

Boom!

In the next second, Jack pulled out the beheading saber and slashed the Heavenly Halberd. A loud noise was produced instantly from the impact and at the same time, a strong breath of aura permeated the surroundings. Darryl's face was solemn when he retreated back a dozen steps. Jack also staggered back in the opposite direction before pulling to a stop after several dozen feet. Darryl was surprised that Jack had become so powerful

Jack was pleased as he sang proudly, " So, that's what the famous Elysium Gate Sect Master in The Nine Continent is capable of? Darryl, how dare you come face me alone? You really are digging your own grave! Zhang Jue has the Sky Breaking Axe and he was forced to flee after fighting against me. How much better do you think you are? Just stay put and surrender yourself!"

Jack looked wild and erratic. He was pleased with the forbidding power the King of the Dead bestowed on him.

' What?' Darryl was shocked to learn Zhang Jue had fled.

No wonder he had not seen Zhang Jue around; it turned out that Zhang Jue escaped. Jack was so powerful that even Zhang Jue, with his Sky Breaking Axe knew he was no match.

(Then ... where did Jack get his power from? ' Darryl wondered.

" Darryl, it's over! " Jack sneered as he slowly raised his hands. The already gloomy sky turned completely dark all at once and the entire valley was shrouded in endless chaos.

It happened so quickly, Darryl could not do anything. He could not even see his own fingers.

Whoosh!

Suddenly, Jack appeared behind Darryl with a white rope in his hand that seemed to emerge out of nowhere. Darryl felt an immense Yin Energy in the white rope, which made his hair stand all of a sudden. He became even more petrified when he noticed the rope was made of bones.

Darryl was drenched in cold sweat all of a sudden!

The white rope was made of bones from the human spine with fulu engraved on them. It looked extremely evil and frightening.

Before Darryl could react, Jack threw the rope around Darryl and tied him up. He sensed that he was struck with an immense Yin Energy that suppressed his internal energy and he could not move.

This ... this ... what the hell is this?

Darryl was frightened.

He struggled violently, but the white bone rope was unexpectedly tough. The more he struggled, the tighter the knot became.

Jack looked at Darryl with a cynical smile on his face. " Hahaha! Don't struggle. This is called the Soul Trap Knot. It isn't something from The Nine Continent and there's no way you can get rid of it, even if you are skilled!"

Chapter 2812

' Soul Trap Knot? What a devilish name! Darryl's expression changed as horror struck him.' Did he say that it's not from The Nine Continent? Could it be that ... the techniques Jack was practicing, like the Soul Trap Knot, do not belong to The Nine Continent? ' Jack pulled out a dagger and approached Darryl, sneering, " You are the powerful Elysium Gate Sect Master, who is much more cunning than the others. To prevent you from playing any tricks, I'll have to break all your veins. Sorry but not sorry!" Jack approached Darryl, waved his dagger and thrust it at Darryl's feet. Feeling anxious, he desperately tried to dodge the attack, but he was unable even to lift a finger as his body was tied up by the Soul Trap Knot. He felt the evil spirits coming from the Soul Trap Knot seemed to have affected his mind. He became dizzy and was about to faint at any time. Oh, no! I'm the hero of The Nine Continent. Am I going to fall into Jack's hand just like that? ' Darryl thought He was unwilling to submit to the ill fate. He was desperate. Roar! A dragon roar came from Darryl's waist when the dagger was about to sever Darryl's veins. After that, a Godly beast spread out.

It was Jewel, who had been resting in the enchanted beast pouch. Jewel took the dragon ball and appeared in the form of a dragon.

The beasts in the entire valley panicked when they heard the dragon roar. They laid low on the ground and dared not move.

Jack's followers, as well as the people from the major sects, were also inexplicably shocked.

This roaring sound ... What kind of a beast makes that? " they wondered.

Buzz!

The air in front of Darryl distorted. A two-foot-long figure appeared in front of everyone, accompanied by a shocking wave

It was a dragon. Although it was only a young dragon, it gave off an intimidating aura when it flew around in circles.

Roar!

She roared loudly and waved her dragon claws. Then, she sent two strikes of powerful lightning at Jack! Darryl and the young dragon were bound by the Blood Ritual and had a special bond. Besides, the young dragon had Jewel's soul. Therefore, Jewel dashed out from the enchanted beast pouch without being summoned when she could feel that Darryl was in grave danger.

Darryl was Jewel's only relative in the world and she would never allow anyone to hurt him.

Darryl gaped when he saw the burst of power from Jewel. He was both shocked and excited. If the young dragon could display the power of lightning at such a tender age, would it be even more terrifying when it was fully grown?

Jack's expression changed drastically.

He did not expect a dragon to be hidden in Darryl's body. Noticing the two streaks of lightning were about to hit him, Jack instantaneously released his internal energy and spread a cloud of black mist to form a protective shield in front of him.

Chuck!

The lightning strike blasted the protective shield and it shattered with a crackling sound. Jack groaned and was shot back a dozen steps! Soon, he regained his footing. A black mark formed on his body where the lightning power struck it, but it did not cause much damage to his body, ' What? Jack has such a powerful defensive power? Both Darryl and Jewel were flabbergasted. Jack threw his head back and laughed with an elated expression when he saw how shocked Darryl was. " Did you think you could reverse the situation if you had a dragon? No one in this world can hurt me. From today onwards, I will be the master of The Nine Continent and you will be the first stepping stone on my road to success!"

Chapter 2813

As Jack laughed, his body filled with black energy and he channeled quickly toward Darryl.

Roar!

Jewel let out another roar; her eyes were blood-red. She was furious and the streaks of lightning shrouded her body when she charged forward, trying to attack Jack with her dragon claws. Jack laughed disdainfully at Jewel. " How dare a young dragon be so presumptuous in front of me?" I'll take you down first and then deal with Darryl next!

Boom!

As Jewel and Jack fought in the air, the sky changed color, and thunder clouds rolled in.

Jack, who had gained the power of King of the Dead, was very powerful. Ten minutes passed in a blink of an eye, but Jewel still had no chance at defeating Jack at all. On the contrary, under the constant attack of Jack's evil spirit, she was becoming lethargic, " Little dragon, be careful!" Darryl yelled anxiously.

He had no idea that the soul of the young dragon in front of him belonged to Jewel. He thought that Jewel was dead!

Though he had no idea, he was touched when he saw the young dragon desperately defending him. The evil spirit in Jack was so powerful that the young dragon seemed unrivaled against it. The nervous Darryl looked around and saw that Karen, who came with him, was hiding behind a large rock in the distance. Her eyes flickered, but she could not be bothered to offer Darryl help. Darryl was enraged. The cunning and treacherous Karen was indeed Zhang Jue's apprentice; she was hopeless under such circumstances. At this time, Jack was also a little anxious after realizing that he could not subdue the young dragon in front of him after a long time. " Quick! Cut Darryl's veins on his legs and then bring him on the Soul Offering Road!" Jack shouted angrily. His followers quickly rushed toward Darryl upon his command, making both Darryl and Jewel anxious.

Buzz!

However, a ray of light came from a distance in the nick of time. When it arrived, it turned into a charming figure and stood in front of Darryl. Thud! Thud!

The next second, everyone who rushed toward Darryl felt a strange force shooting at their faces. Before they could figure out what was going on, they were thrown out. The visitor was a woman in her twenties, dressed in a light purple dress. She was graceful and charming with beautiful features. Her appearance in the flowy dress made her look like a fairy.

Gasp!

Everyone present was stunned. ' Who is this woman?' Darryl was stupefied as he stared blankly at the woman in front of him. He was speechless for a long time. Darryl noticed that the woman was beautiful. She was not inferior even if compared to Chang Er, and more importantly, she was filled with special immortal aura. Her fairy-like aura was even better and purer than Chang Er's. Finally, Jack reacted and glared at the purple-clad lady. " You! Who are you? How dare you intervene in my affairs; are you not afraid of death?" Jack's eyes flickered and he no longer appeared arrogant as he could feel a strange power in this woman. Her power seemed to restrain his power., While Jack stopped what he was doing, Jewel dashed to Darryl's side and tried to bite off the Soul Trap Knot on Darryl, However, the knot was very tough and it would not give away from the biting, " I'm a lackey to the King of the Dead and you don't deserve to know my name!" the purple-clad woman said. Her gentle voice sounded resolute.

Chapter 2814

Jack's face flushed. He was very annoyed but was shocked by the woman's aura and did not know how to respond to it for some time. King of the Dead? ' Darryl heard the conversation and was startled. He studied Jack's expression in disbelief. This ... this kid is with the King of the Dead?' Wait! Who is the King of the Dead?

Darryl muttered and smiled politely at the woman. " Thank you, miss. May I get your name, please?" " Just call me Yennie," Yennie responded faintly. She did not look at Darryl but kept her eyes on Jack ' Yennie? That's a good name!' Darryl thought.

He wanted to speak more, but he held his tongue when he saw Yennie's indifferent look.

Jack took a deep breath and gave Yennie an unwelcoming look. " Don't be nosy since you know that I'm a follower of the King of the Dead!" " Get lost!" Yennie responded coldly. Jack was in a rage. He was not afraid of Zhang Jue and Darryl. ' If I behaved timidly in front of a woman, how can I gain a foothold in The Nine Continent in the future? More importantly, I've been ordered by the King of the Dead to bring all the people from the powerful sects in The Nine Continent into the underworld. I have already completed more than half of my tasks and I cannot give up. Otherwise, how do

I explain this to the King of the Dead?
Jack thought and gritted his teeth irritably as he bellowed, " You've no idea who you're messing with! Since you want to die, then I'll fulfill your wish. Show me what you've got! "

Buzz!

Jack's internal energy exploded as he zoomed towards Yennie. Yennie did not panic even when she felt Jack's evil spirit and she rose into the air to fight fiercely against Jack. Darryl and the other people present were captivated by the action scene. Yennie was not inferior to Chang Er in terms of her appearance or temperament. When she fought Jack in the air, her looming sexy and charming figure caught a lot of attention.

Darryl murmured to himself while admiring Yennie. ' Who's Yennie? Not only is she agile and elegant, but the power she displayed is also very strange. This is the first time I have seen something like this since my debut many years ago. A few minutes later, Jack landed at a disadvantage against Yennie with only the power to parry off attacks and no chance to fight back Darryl looked inexplicably excited. He thought that as long as Jack was subdued, he would have a chance to save the people from the sects who had been arrested.

Jack threw his head back and roared, his eyes turning scarlet as he stared at Yennie. " Argh! You're indeed very powerful, but you're not strong enough to beat me!"

After that, Jack took out a pill and swallowed it!

Gulp!

The moment Jack swallowed the pill, his body doubled and reached a height of more than three yards tall; he was like a giant. His veins dilated and jumped to the surface all over his body while a black aura surged in his body. He was like the devil from hell.

Darryl was shocked to see that. " What is this? That black pill is not recorded in the Infinite Elixir Manual. Could it also be given to him by the King of the Dead? Who is the King of the Dead?"

' Is that the Nine Yin Spirit Pill?"
Yennie was shocked; her beautiful face grew solemn as she exclaimed to herself.

Jack was taking the Nine Yin Spirit Pill, which was exclusive to the King of the Dead. After taking it, Jack could temporarily increase his skill by tenfold and that was very petrifying,

"Go to hell!" Jack roared and charged at Yennie like a hill on wheels.

Buzz!

Yennie immediately raised her hand and deployed a protective shield in front of her.

Darryl saw that there were flashy inscriptions on the protective shield Yennie deployed. With the blessing of those inscriptions, the protective shield had incredible defensive power.

Chapter 2815

Obviously, those inscriptions were a kind of incantation that can strengthen the defensive power of the protective shield

Boom!

Jack's figure had grown tremendously and so had his speed. In the blink of an eye, he was in front of Yennie with the beheading saber in his hand, violently slashing at the shield. A burst of aura permeated the surroundings as smoke filled the area.

Yennie's figure was repelled dozens of feet amidst the smoke.

Whoosh!

She endured the excruciating pain as she turned to grab Darryl before flying out of the valley

Roar!

Jewel screamed and hurried to catch up. She turned into a stream of light and entered the enchanted beast pouch on Darryl's body. She felt that Yennie had no ill intentions towards Darryl. Jewel was very weak from the fierce battle she had with Jack, so she immediately rested as soon as she entered the enchanted beach pouch. In the blink of an eye, Darryl and Yennie disappeared from everyone's sight.

' F * ck!' Jack's eyes flashed with endless anger and his face looked extremely sullen. He almost caught Darryl and little did he know that an unexpected mysterious woman would suddenly appear and rescue him. Meanwhile, Darryl watched as the mountains and forests flashed past him while the wind whistled through his ears. His brain was getting heavier and heavier from the effects of the Soul Trap Knot

" Where are you taking me?" Darryl shouted.

Yennie glanced at him and said faintly, " Don't talk first! You'll know later!" She sounded soft and cold.

Darryl was speechless in the face of Yennie's coldness.

Soon, Darryl became even more groggy till he finally shut his eyes. After some time, Darryl woke up slowly with a pounding head and a weak body.

Darryl patted his forehead. ' F * ck, Jack's technique is really damaging.' He was stunned. Then, Darryl realized the Soul Trap Knot on his body was untied and he began to look around Where am I? " he thought. He noticed he was on the top of a mountain with an unknown height. Clouds surrounded him and in the distance, the afterglow of the setting sun turned the clouds gold. He looked down and noticed that he could not see through the thick clouds.

' What kind of a mountain is this? It goes past the clouds?' Darryl's heart was beating in shock! " You woke up?" A soft and pleasant voice came from the side. At the same time, it was a bit cold and arrogant. It was Yennie, Darryl tilted his head to look and saw Yennie was holding the Soul Trap Knot in her hand, her beautiful face looking solemn.

Darryl took a deep breath and asked, " Where is this place?"

" The peak of Kunlun sits on the top of The Nine Continent." Yennie said as she tilted her head to look at Darryl. " I heard that you are the hero of The Nine Continent. Why don't you know about Kunlun?"

The peak of Kunlun? ' Darryl was astounded.

As the Elysium Gate Sect Master, Darryl knew about the peak of Kunlun. The Kunlun Mountain was located on the border of the New World Continent and was the highest mountain in The Nine Continent. It was extremely tall and steep while being surrounded by cliffs. It was difficult for ordinary people and even cultivators to fly up the mountain.

There were rumors that a powerful barrier existed on the peak of the Kunlun Mountain and that barrier can only be passed through unless you reached the Level of Godly Realm. For thousands of years, very few people had actually reached the peak of Kunlun. Darryl had always wanted to come to Kunlun, but he had always been busy. He did not expect Yennie to take him up there.

A few seconds later, Darryl recovered from his shock and looked at Yennie curiously, " Why did you bring me here?
