

The Ugly Wife Returns: She's Gone Viral Chapter 12

Yvonne remembered that she was already in the hospital when she woke up.

Duncan told her that she had given birth to two stillbirths in the fire, and the woman who saved her had died in the fire. The woman was burned beyond recognition.

The Grieg family mistook the woman for Yvette and held a funeral for her. As for her, she went incognito and changed her identity.

As for Lily and her mother, they had nothing to hide. Lily told her everything she had experienced in the past five years.

Lily asked angrily, "The kidnapping case back then was orchestrated by Chloe?"

"Yes."

"Then... Since you know the whole truth, why don't you tell the world to expose this vicious woman?"

"The kidnapper from that day committed suicide with a gun. He was terminally ill. Chloe promised him a lot of money and sent his wife and children abroad. Since then, he has died without any evidence. How can I expose it?"

Lily's face was ashen with anger. "I'm so mad! Shortly after your funeral five years ago, Chloe brought back a baby, and she told everyone that it was her and George's son. There are rumors in the Grieg Family that George married you to save her life! This man is too cruel!"

Yvonne replied, "So, this time, I'm going back to get everything that belongs to me."

She then handed over a bank card. "Aunt Freya, there are five million in it."

Lily had uremia, which was an incurable disease for poor families. They could only rely on dialysis to survive.

However, if they had more money, things would be different.

Uremia was not an incurable disease. Kidney transplant surgery could be performed, which required high operating costs.

Lily did not dare to take the card. "I can't accept this without merit. I won't accept your favor in vain!"

“What do you mean by ‘without merit’? Five million dollars should be enough as a thank you present for caring for me for so many years, Aunt Freya.”

Yvonne looked at Lily and said, “It will be your salary in advance, Lily.”

“Salary?”

“Lily, I’m going back to Dreston to further develop my career. Are you willing to follow me as my assistant?”

Lily widened her eyes and replied hastily, “Of course! As long as you don’t think I’m clumsy.”

“You will follow me in the future, and I will never treat you and your daughter badly.”

Lily admitted guiltily, “For so many years, we’ve never been able to do anything for you... Yvonne, I really can’t repay you for being so kind to me...”

After saying that, Lily knelt down with a ‘thump’ and burst into tears.

Yvonne immediately grabbed her arm. “Don’t be like this, Lily, or I’ll be angry!”

Lily quickly stood up and wiped away her tears in embarrassment.

“Get ready for the entry procedures today, and report to the world tomorrow.”

“Okay!”

...

In the Global Entertainment meeting room, Chloe shot a fashion blockbuster for Chanul’s new fragrance. It was displayed on the projector.

Chanul’s director Lisa nodded with satisfaction, “We are very satisfied with the results of this shoot.”

Chloe smiled.

“It is a great honor to have Chloe as Chanul’s brand ambassador.”

Anne took the opportunity and asked, “Then... When can we negotiate the next contract?”

Lisa frowned slightly and said with a stern face, “We’ve always recognized Chloe’s value since the initial contract, but the headquarters has not issued the next contract yet.”

Anne was startled, and Chloe also froze beside her.

That was a disguised refusal!

Anne replied blankly, "Is the headquarters not satisfied with Chloe?"

Lisa responded, "No. We've told you about the details of this matter. Yvonne's contract with another brand is about to expire, and many brands are already in contact with her. Therefore, we must invite Yvonne to be Chanul's Global Spokesperson before other brands get hold of her."

Chloe was petrified.

Global Spokesperson!

She had always been the brand ambassador for one of Chanul's fragrances, so she had close ties to several other products.

However, brand ambassadors could not be compared to Global Spokespersons.

A spokesperson was closely related to the brand, and the spokesperson would also be the image that represented the brand.

Spokespersons were divided into Global Spokespersons, Regional Spokespersons, and Country Spokespersons.

The brand ambassador would only be involved with the product announcement of the designated series. The contract was different, and its value was also different.

Chloe believed that she would definitely be promoted from an ambassador to a Regional Spokesperson.

No matter how bad it was, she should be the Regional Spokesperson!

Chloe's face was already green with envy. Unfortunately, Anne's face did not look any better either.

"So... Does your company want to choose Yvonne as the spokesperson for the next issue?"

Lisa smiled politely, stood up, and spoke in an almost formulaic tone.

"The company chooses a female artist with more brand value to endorse the brand. This is the company's freedom, isn't it?"

She implied that Yvonne had more brand value than Chloe!

Chloe completely lost control of her expressions. Her facial features were twisted and stiff, and they were almost deformed.

“Chloe has been in the industry for so many years, and her popularity has always been sky high. She’s one of the hottest actresses in Dreston, and the traffic she drives is second to none. She is the future young lady of the Grieg Family. With such a great influence and value, can’t your company see it?”

Lisa replied, “We will seriously consider it.”

After speaking, she stretched out her hand toward Chloe.

Her words sounded extremely perfunctory as if it was used to end the conversation.

Chloe sighed deeply, stood up, and shook hands with her.

The group walked out of the conference room and bumped into Yvonne head-on.

As soon as Chloe saw her, her eyes burst with scorching heat.

Lisa immediately greeted her. “Ms. Palmer.”

She shook hands with Yvonne enthusiastically, “Did you read the invitation email we sent yesterday, Ms. Palmer?”

Yvonne looked at Chloe’s livid face behind Lisa. Then, she smiled, looked at Lisa, and said, “I’m honored to receive the invitation email from your company. I hope to have stable cooperation with your company in the future.”

“Okay! It’s an honor!”

Just as Yvonne was about to enter the conference room, Chloe suddenly said ruthlessly, “Yvonne, are you fighting with me for anything?!”

Her tone was sharp, and the surrounding air was still for a while.

Yvonne turned around with a smile on her face as if she did not understand. “Fight? Why would I fight with you?”

Chloe broke down completely. “Chanul’s endorsement was originally mine! I have worked with Chanul for so long. This endorsement belongs to me!”

Lisa was a little displeased.

“The brand must carefully consider and evaluate the brand value before making the choice. Ms. Cooper, do you think that you’re higher than Ms. Palmer in terms of social status and brand value?”

Chloe was speechless.

Yvonne said lightly, “No way. Ms. Cooper, I’ve been the most commercially valuable female artist worldwide for two consecutive years. You should know just how valuable I am.”
