

The Ugly Wife Returns: She's Gone Viral Chapter 4

George exuded a deadly air.

“Take the check and leave!”

Yvonne smiled and kept the check in her bag. “You’re a generous man.”

George replied, “Ms. Palmer, you can mess with anyone in Dreston. Anyone but me.”

Yvonne’s red lips parted. “Why so?”

“Nobody messes with me.”

George suddenly held her face. His palm reached over her lips.

“You’re the first.”

Yvonne gently clasped his hand. Her eyes were fixed on his finger, marked by her lipstick. She lowered her head and gently pecked his fingertip. She was challenging him and also inviting him.

Yvonne raised her eyebrows, “George, let’s play a game.”

The man followed, raising his eyebrows in response. “What game?”

“I will make you fall for me so badly.”

With that said, she picked up her bag and left with a smile.

George had a look of caution in his eyes.

What a crazy woman.

Chloe had just walked into the Global Entertainment headquarters when her manager, Anne Mutter, rushed over.

“Chloe, it’s bad!”

“Why so anxious?” Chloe asked, “What is it?”

Anne hesitated briefly and replied, “Yvonne... She’s here in Global.”

Chloe was shocked. "Why did she come to Global?"

Anne replied, "Didn't the rumors say that Yvonne is returning to Dreston? I heard that she signed a contract with Global. Her contract is worth nine figures."

Global...

Chloe squinted her eyes and halted her breath.

Global Entertainment was the top artist agency in Dreston. In addition, the Greig and Cooper families had invested shares in the company to support Chloe.

With the support of the two families, Chloe had all the finest resources. With that, she earned her ticket to get into Mollywood.

Due to that, she took Yvonne's role in the sci-fi movie 'End of the World 2076'.

Although Chloe was the top celebrity in Dreston, she was envious of Yvonne's international reputation.

How she dreamt of getting into the international entertainment scene!

However, did Yvonne give up her international market to return to Dreston? She even signed with Global.

Chloe could not understand why.

"Where is she?"

Anne replied, "Signing the contract at the Director's office. I heard that she's unhappy with the terms."

Chloe frowned unhappily. "A nine-figure contract. What else does she want?"

Anne said unhappily, "She said that other than the nine-figure amount, she wants the best and top team in Global, and...she wants Global's best resources to get to her first."

An evil look flashed in Chloe's eyes. "She wants to compete for my place?"

Anne nodded. "After this, Global has to worship her like a Goddess. She'll take away all of our resources!"

Chloe smirked coldly. "Since she's here, let's go and meet her. I want her to know that nobody can replace me in Global!"

With that said, Chloe went to the Director's office.

She saw countless people surrounding the glass window as they exchanged words.

Somehow, the rumors escaped, and everyone in the company knew about Yvonne's contract.

"She's indeed an international celebrity! She's even prettier than on the big screen!"

"No wonder her first movie was with the most popular actor in Mollywood! No wonder she's so famous! If she could sign with Global, we'd be lucky! Who knows, Global might make it to Mollywood one day, too!"

"What else do you expect? Why else would our company spend so much money to sign her?"

"However... If Yvonne signed with Global, Chloe's position would be in danger."

"If it wasn't for Mr. Grieg, how would Chloe make it or even get the resources from Yvonne?"

Chloe was furious. She cleared her throat and tried her best to maintain her emotions.

The crowd turned around, and when they saw that it was Chloe, they were terrified.

Chloe mocked, "What? Since Yvonne's here, you don't show me respect anymore?"

"Chloe... That's not true. You're always our favorite!"

Chloe replied impatiently, "It's working hours now. Have you finished your tasks? Have you made the posts? Accepted the gigs? How can all of you be here?! If you have so much free time, do you want me to ask the Director to assign you more tasks?"

She threatened them, and they all disbanded.

Chloe calmed herself down before she walked to the door. Standing in front of the glass door, she could see Yvonne's beautiful face from her position.

Her hair was long and soft, and her facial features were so delicate. Her nose was arched up, and her skin was fair and clear. She had such an alluring face. It was no wonder so many people surrounded to watch.

Somehow...

She felt a surge of jealousy.

If Yvonne really signed with Global, Chloe had to bow down to her in the future.

No way!

...

Yvonne glanced outside from inside the Director's office and saw Chloe standing outside the door. She pretended not to notice Chloe and continued looking at the Director.

"Since you want to assign an assistant to me, I want to clarify that I have a very high standard. Do take note of the following points."

Mafalda Vallois asked for her assistant to take note.

"Number one, my assistant must be on call for twenty-four hours. I don't have the patience to wait. If she's late just one time, she's fired."

"Number two, I am a clean freak. When we travel or stay overnight, she can't be in the same room as me."

"Number three, when I wake up, I want a coffee with one bag of sugar and two packs of milk. Where possible, the coffee has to be from beans to cup. I need to maintain my figure. My diet should be carefully taken care of. Three servings of vegetables and one serving of meat per day. It can only be either beef or chicken breast..."

...

"Number six, I have a stressful job. She can't talk back if I don't treat her well."

The door was abruptly pushed open.

Chloe barged in and exclaimed coldly, "Who'd have known that the international actress has such an attitude?"

Yvonne paid no mind to Chloe.

"That's all for now. I will add on more points if I need to in the future."

Chloe saw that Yvonne had purposely ignored her, and she became furious.

"Yvonne, are you ignoring me?"

Yvonne said, "It seems that Miss Cooper wants a chat with me. Mafalda, could you leave us alone?"

Mafalda frowned and stood up. She told Chloe, "Chloe, Miss Yvonne is our newly signed artist. We're working for the same company, and we look after one another. Miss Yvonne, there's a celebration tonight hosted by the Global to welcome you. We hope that you can join us."

With that said, she left her office.

Yvonne smiled coldly. She finally took a look at Chloe.

"I have an attitude? Miss Cooper, only a big player gets to have an attitude."

Yvonne stood up gradually and walked in front of Chloe.

"According to our status, if I don't have an attitude, who can have one? You?"
