Freya was shocked; she did not expect these people were going to do this. This kind of framing is cliché, but she would have to admit as well, they are vicious.

There are a lot of videos about wives beating up mistresses online, in those videos, a lot of the mistresses were beaten up and stripped down by the wife. If she was to suffer the same fate, and the video was posted online, her reputation would be ruined.

Alisha is going to make her suffer the worst.

“You shameless mistress, homewrecker, I’m going to kill you! I’m going to kill you!” The woman was going to grab Freya’s arm as she spoke.

Freya was not looking to beat up anyone, but the situation called for it, and she could not just let a bunch of crazy women do what they wanted.

Kieran’s eyes narrowed dangerously, his long legs stretched out, but before he could reach Freya, the woman’s heavy body was thrown on the floor with a thud.

“Ah!” The woman screamed like she was being murdered, “Who pushed me?! I’m going to kill you!”

Seth hurried forward and stood before Freya, he clapped his hands lightly.

“Ewe, so much grease.”

“You? You bastard dare to push me?! I’m going to beat the living hell out of you!”

The woman waved at her helpers. “Girls, let’s show this Blondie what we can do!”

Blondie?

Seth touched his hair, his hair is indeed blonde, but Blondie was a little bit harsh in his opinion.

He usually would not hit women, but these women dared to bully Boss, he would not mind fighting them.

The woman yelled for a while but none of her helpers were going to step up, she could only stomp in anger, she was going to say something, but one of her friends grabbed her arm, trembling, "Connie, he... He looks like Mr. Levin..."

"I don't care if he's Mr. Levin or whatever, he's helping that mistress, I'm going to kill him!" She dashed towards Seth as she spoke.

Preston immediately grabbed the woman's arm, he wiped the sweat from his forehead, his face was plastered with a fake smile, "Mr. Levin, what, what are you doing here?"

"This is my family's hospital, can I come to visit?" Seth wrapped his arms around Freya protectively, he had this look of carelessness, but the power exuded from him is making them hard to breathe.

"Of course, you can! Of course, you can!" Preston's smile was so big his face started to hurt. "Mr. Levin, you and Freya..."

"What, she's my, she's my wife!" Seth's arm grew tighter around Freya; he narrowed his eyes and stared at Victor, who was invisibly pale. "You said my wife seduced you?! What a joke! How could my wife seduce you after she had me?"

After hearing Seth's words, everyone around cannot help but compared Seth with Victor, they all agreed that even if they were all blind, they would like to feel Mr. Levin's biceps than to touch Victor's grease.

There's no doubt that Freya was being framed by this shameless couple.

"Daddy, mommy!"

Jaden and Jayla rushed over one by one, Jaden checked Freya closely, after making sure Freya was not hurt, he sighed in relief.

Jayla was looking at Seth, admiringly, "Daddy, you did so well! Such a gentleman!"

Got a compliment from the kids again! So happy!

Seth's heart melted, he picked up Jayla with a look of pleasure, "Well done, right? I could do even better!"

Childish.

Jaden muttered to himself, but the corner of his lips could not help but tug upward.

"Wow, these twins are so cute!"

"Yes, the genes of this beautiful family! They could be celebrities!"

"That couple is brazen, how could they frame her like that, take a look at the mirror and see if Mrs. Levin would seduce such a pig!"

Listening to the discussion around her, Connie's face turned red. Thick as she was, now she knew that Seth was the famous young master of the Levin.

The Levin was scary enough; the Fitzgerald behind the Levin was even scarier.

Connie's whole body trembled and kneeled beside Freya, "Mrs. Levin, I'm sorry, I didn't know who you are, I'm sorry, I'm sorry."

She even slapped herself again and again while apologizing.

Freya was never one to bully others, but she's not that kind-hearted, she cast Connie a look of indifference, "You said I seduced your husband, why are you sorry now?"

"No, no!" Connie shook her head violently, "You didn't seduce my husband, I made it up, and someone sent me a large sum of money anonymously and asked me to frame you..."

Everyone was shocked; Mrs. Levin was really being framed!

Now that Freya saw her name was clear, she did not pursue further, Victor saw this and was hurried to leave with his wife in tow.

Freya's gaze fell on Preston, "Dr. Fisher, should I hand in my resignation letter now?"

Preston shook his head so fast he almost broke his neck, “Freya! What are you talking about, we need talents like you here, and how can I ask you to resign?”

Freya’s lips twitched, “But you just said…”

“That was a misunderstanding! All misunderstandings!” Preston said with a fawning smile on his face. “Freya, we will work together, learn together!”

Freya could not stand how snob Preston was, but she didn’t have proof that he and Alisha were working together, so she couldn’t really do anything about it.

Seeing Seth was going to hug her again, Freya immediately struggled out of his hold, “Why are you here today?”

Freya had decided to tell him that, even though he was the father of Jaden and Jayla, they were not together as a couple, they should avoid being too intimate with each other.

“To take you home!” Seth looked at Freya with a smile, “Boss, I have moved you and the kids’ stuff to my place now, you can sleep at my place tonight!”

Freya’s eyes widened, when did she say she was going to move in with him?

Without waiting for her reply, Seth continued, “Boss, I have bought some hot pot seasoning, we are having hot pot tonight.”

“Uncle Kieran, what are you doing here? Are you joining us for hot pot tonight?”

Kieran looked at Seth who was standing beside Freya, and the twins around him, he had a sour taste in his mouth. Without thinking, he said yes.

“Really?” Seth was taken aback for a moment, he was only being polite, and he did not expect Uncle Kieran to say yes to this!

He was going to try to be intimate with the boss tonight, but with Uncle Kieran here, he won’t have the chance to do it.

Seth always admired his business genius uncle; he would not dare to not let him go, so he put on a smile, “So glad you have decided to join us! This is awesome! Tonight must be really fun!”

He was trying to say something more, and suddenly, his phone rang.

It was his mother, Eleanor.

Eleanor's voice was so high it almost broke his eardrum, "You little shit, the girl you slept with five years ago is back with your child, you get back here and handle this on your own!" □□□□□
