309 Chapter 309-I am here for peace

At the Evergreen Pack, intruders had invaded the pack and the war sirens rang.

Burke, who was in the kitchen with Alice and Godic after a tough training session earlier, instantly sp rang into action the moment a mindlink went through.

'Beta, the pack is under attack. It's theLakeside rogues.'

Burke ended the mindlink instantly and said to Alice, "Run upstairs and don't come down until I come to get you."

Alice knew there was a war, but she was not willing to be a damsel in distress when the Alpha and Luna were not there to help.

This was the time to prove her worth to the pack, even if she could not use her powers. The sound of invaders could be heard from outside, and her heart was thumping wildly.

"Let me help Dorothy organize the omegas,"Alice countered, trying to make herself useful.

After a little thought, Burke agreed, "Fine,"and Alice ran to the underground safehouse.

needed to protect them. Dorothy could take care of all that, so Burke shifted his attention to the warriors.

He was also pr ivy to war side by side with Luna Valerie and had learned from her as well.

Organizing and getting the omegas and the elderly to safety was not difficult, but warriors were

He had never led a war like this before but had seen Alpha Denzel's style of leadership many times.

Burke decided to blend both styles together and turned to Godic. "Godic, I will mindlink Gandolf to lead theweakest group. Can you lead the strongest and fight where the war is toughest? I will lead the remaining warriors." Burke knew that Godic was tougher than him and had more experience in fights, so he capitalized

Godic, on the other hand, graced Burke with the needed respect, though he knew Burke could not compare with him in terms of strength.

The two of them rushed out together, and the warriors were geared up for defense.

The Lakeside rogues were not so tough, but it was rumored that they had the power to hypnotize their enemies during fights.

Gandolf's team alone was taking down a lot of the rogues quite easily until the king arrived. The rogues instantly stopped fighting as he approached Burke. "Your Alpha?" he asked, staring

"It's good that betas are now protectingtheir Alphas, but I have a simple question."

"And that is?" Burke asked with the samelayer of sarcasm.

The ro gue king was there on a mission and could not allow a beta to stand in his way.

"There are rumors of a girl with powersfrom the lake here. I want to see her."

At first, Lake thought about Alice but knew her powers were not from the lake. Then he thought about his Luna and her Alpha wolf.

Could she be the one? He never saw his Luna exercise any strange powers too and was confused. "There is no one with such powers here."

The rogue king was certain about the rumors he heard that the girl was in the Evergreen Pack and

"Then let me talk to your Luna. I am here forpeace."

Burke scoffed. If he was here for peace, then why did he enter the pack without permission and even lost some of his men in a fight?

"Peaceful people come through the frontgate with the pack leader's permission and not with force.

The rogue king felt he was lying but did not expose him. "If I come through the front door in peace, would you have welcomed me, knowing I was a rogue?"w\@.(n)o(v)eI@or...c(o)M

Godic wanted to answer him, but it was not in his place to do so when Burke was the beta.

The next thing they saw was the rogue king waving his hand, and a young girl came to stand by his side.

"Take your phone and call your Alpha. Makesure it's on speaker and ask him about, his Luna's powers."

After an eye battle between her and the rogue king as if mindlinking someone, which they knew was

Everyone was shocked to see that Burke brought out his phone and dialed Alpha Denzel's number without argument.

"What do they want? Are you capable oftaking them down? Is Godic of good help?"

"The powers from the lake? Who could thatbe?" They heard Alpha Denzel ask.

cheers broke out before the pack members took notice of the new team.

The rogue king could face Burke alone, but with Godic, his defenses were failing.

She began casting spells against the warriors of the Evergreen Pack, but the spells were reversed against the rogues.

Something was wrong somewhere. The only thing left was for her to save the rogue king and help

It was clear to them that though Alpha Denzel was not physically present, he still sent them help. "Thank you for coming, Alpha Idris andAlpha Troy," Burke said. Godic smiled at Adira.

"Luna Adira, it's good to see you again." Adira naturally hugged Burke."It's been a long time. What are you doing here?"
