Professor Dearest Chapter 30

~ALARIC~

She f*vcking skipped my class today. I tried not to notice it, but it wasn't easy. The second I entered the room today and didn't see her, I was uneasy. I checked the door multiple times, waiting for her to arrive, but she never did. Clara was not the type of girl to skip classes. It made me so worried to the point that I called Carter to ask about her. He was initially confused as to why I was asking about Clara, but I convinced him that it was an essential class that she missed. Then Scarlett told me that she was pretty sure that Clara attended the academy today but skipped my class.
