Chapter 46 I am Jeff Ashcroft h Finished Raymond stared blankly . His lips parted as if his soul had been knocked out of him . He had made a name for himself in Mornwick with his remarkable medical skills since his return from training . He earned respect and admiration throughout the upper echelons of society . His reputation had soared , and his fees were in the millions . Even a powerful family like the Holloways didn't intimidate him . His decision to help stemmed entirely from his belief in his talent and his current mood .

He had always thought his medical skills were extraordinary , not quite matching those of his master but still superior to most . However , he was utterly shaken by Leander today . Not only did Leander possess medical knowledge comparable to that of his master , but his inner strength was also formidable . Leander looked down at him with an indifferent gaze . Raymond immediately snapped to attention , cupping his hands in respect . " It's an honor to meet a true Sovereign . I'm really yielding ! " He is truly a Martial Sovereign ! Previously , Raymond hadn't regarded Leander highly at all .

He had scoffed even when Gale referred to Leander as " Mr. Ashcroft . " However , he felt nothing but awe now . Leander appeared to be only seventeen or eighteen , yet he had already achieved the pinnacle of martial arts . The news of a Martial Sovereign under twenty would send shockwaves not just through Mornwick but throughout all of Astria . Raymond understood what it took to reach such a level because of his master's connections . He understood just how much effort a warrior had to invest to achieve the status of a Sovereign .

Becoming a Martial Sovereign and reaching the peak of the martial realm required talent , hard work , time , and opportunity . Each of these elements was essential . In the past twenty years , Gareth had been recognized as the most talented martial practitioner in Astria and was currently regarded as the strongest . Yet , even he only achieved the status of Martial Sovereign by thirty . Now , young individuals surpassing Gareth's gifts had begun to appear as Astria's martial community flourished and new talents emerged like Ethan and Daphne .

They were only sixteen or seventeen and already masters in their own right , just a step away from Sovereignty . But they would not reach that level before twenty , even with their extraordinary talent . A young Martial Sovereign like Leander had already surpassed all other talents and defied the 1/4 19:30 Sat , Oct 11 Chapter 46 I am Jeff Ashcroft limits of history . How could this not leave him astounded ? 39 Finished " Hand over the item since you yield , " Leander said and pointed to the pendant on Raymond's chest . " This ... " Raymond's expression changed instantly .

His hand tightened around the jade pendant , and he hesitated to give it up . Leander narrowed his eyes with a dangerous smile playing at the corners of his mouth . " Have you forgotten our wager ? " Raymond's face shifted through various emotions before settling into a forced smile . " Mr. Ashcroft , this pendant was a precious gift from my master when I left the mountain . It's a symbol of our bond . Please have some mercy ! " " I'll gladly give you anything else I own besides this pendant . How about that ? " It was clear he didn't want to part with the pendant .

" I didn't force you when we made our wager , and you agreed willingly . Now that the outcome is clear , do you want to break your promise ? I don't care if this pendant symbolizes your bond with your master . The bet is binding and cannot be changed . Do you think I'm joking ? " The atmosphere in the room shifted abruptly as Leander's words fell . Everyone held their breath and was afraid to speak . The scene where Leander demonstrated his techniques from a distance replayed vividly in his mind .

Both Dylan and Gale , being internal martial practitioners , understood that a Martial Sovereign's words held immense weight and were always kept . Raymond's expression grew tense as he took a step back . Facing a Martial Sovereign was daunting for anyone . Yet , he felt no fear despite his serious demeanor . He met Leander's gaze directly . " Mr. Ashcroft , while I did lose the wager , this pendant is a gift from my master , so I cannot decide this alone ! My master will not be pleased if you attempt to take it by force . He might come down from the mountain himself to confront you !

" Leander remained unperturbed . " No matter who your master is , you will leave this pendant with me today! " Raymond burst into laughter , his arrogance shining through . " There are still those who are stronger , though you're a Martial Sovereign . You likely lack 2/4 19:30 Sat , Oct 11 Chapter 46 I am Jeff Ashcroft 32 Finished experience compared to my master ! My master resides at Listin Star Peak , and in the martial world , he is known as the Jade Emperor ' in the martial world " . Gale and Dylan , who had been quietly observing , suddenly trembled at the mention of " Jade Emperor .

" Their expressions froze as if they had heard something unbelievable . " Jade Emperor ? " Leander's brows furrowed slightly . Raymond felt a surge of satisfaction by seeing Leander's reaction . His master held a prestigious position in Astria's martial community . Ninety - nine percent of martial practitioners would be intimidated by the name " Jade Emperor ." He would still be overshadowed by Raymond's master even though Leander was a Martial Sovereign . Raymond thought he could sense fear in Leander . However , Leander's next words left him speechless . " I've never heard of him !

" Leander's eyes were cold , and his patience had run thin . " Enough of this nonsense . You can leave after you hand over the pendant ! " He stepped forward as he spoke . " Mr. Ashcroft , don't ! " Gale exclaimed in alarm after seeing this and was desperate to stop Leander . But Leander seemed oblivious as he took another step forward . " Humph ! " Raymond didn't expect Leander to really take action . He scoffed and tossed out four black steel balls and then bolted for the door . The speed he unleashed was that of a master - level internal martial practitioner .

He leaped ten feet and used the black steel balls as cover to escape the room . These steel balls were his homemade " blast orbs " filled with explosives . He believed he could buy enough time to flee even against a Martial Sovereign . Leander stood still and raised his hand slightly . He opened his fingers and effortlessly caught the four steel balls between them . Then , he threw a punch at Raymond's back ! Although Leander was ten feet away , the force of his punch reached Raymond in an instant and hit him squarely between the shoulder blades . Cough !

Chapter 47 The Four Extremes □ Finished Jeff Ashcroft was an identity Leander had earned through countless life - and - death struggles and the trials of blood and fire over the past few years . From the moment he had been inexplicably expelled from the Ashcroft family and abandoned on a desolate mountain by Gareth Ashcroft , he vowed to rise above the clouds and defy the heavens . He would not let the earth confine his heart , nor would he allow the sky to blind his vision . " Jeff ? Great , I'll remember it . I will definitely report this to my master , so you'd better wait for it !

" Raymond spat another mouthful of blood . His eyes filled with malice . He had noted Leander's name , then staggered out of the room in the most humiliating manner . Gale and Dylan snapped back to reality after witnessing the force behind Leander's punch . They quickly rushed to his side . " Mr. Ashcroft , you really shouldn't have acted like that ! " Gale exclaimed with anxiety evident in his voice . Leander's expression remained calm as he casually replied , " Oh ? Why not ? I was merely reclaiming my winnings ! " Gale swallowed hard . His voice trembled slightly . " Mr.

Ashcroft , you were only reclaiming what was rightfully yours while it's true that Raymond had a wager with you . However , the critical point is that his master is the Jade Emperor ! Don't you know who the Jade Emperor is ? " Leander shrugged . " I really don't know who ! " Although he had made rapid progress in martial arts over the years and was well - versed in many renowned martial techniques from history , he was still unaware of the prominent figures in the current Astrian martial arts world . Gale sighed at the seriousness of Leander's demeanor . His expression turned grave . " Mr.

Ashcroft , perhaps you lack some awareness of the martial arts community . Are you familiar with the Four Extremes ? " Leander shook his head . " The Four Extremes refers to the four most powerful individuals acknowledged in the Astrian martial arts community . They are revered by many experts across the land ! They are known as North Dragon , South Shire , West Judie , and East Morgan - Royce ! " 1/4 19:30 Sat , Oct 11 Chapter 47 The Four Extremes inished " Among them , South Shire is the one Raymond just mentioned .

His name is Grayson , and he resides on the Jade Emperor of Listin Star Peak in Mornwick , which is why he has earned the title of Jade Emperor ! " " Oh ? " Leander raised an eyebrow . He was surprised to learn that Raymond's master had such a notable background and was one of the Four Extremes in the current Astrian martial arts world . " What kind of power does this Grayson possess ? Is he also a Martial Sovereign ? " Leander asked . " Grayson is more than just a Martial Sovereign ! " Gale shook his head and let out a sigh .

" He is undoubtedly one of the top - tier figures among Martial Sovereigns ! " " He became famous at forty . He challenged renowned masters in the Mornwick area upon entering the scene and establishing an undefeated record , making the ruler of this region . " " His martial skills are ruthless . Those who have faced him and lost ultimately end up dead at his hands . He is often regarded as the most bloodthirsty among the Four Extremes . He has killed no fewer than thirteen Martial Sovereigns throughout his history . " " Thirteen ? " A flicker of intensity flashed in Leander's eyes .

The ability to kill thirteen Martial Sovereigns indicated that Grayson's strength had reached an unfathomable level . Yet , Leander showed no sign of fear . Instead , his expression turned intrigued . Gale furrowed his brow , expressing regret . " Mr. Ashcroft , we're in real trouble if what Raymond said is true , and he's indeed a disciple of Grayson ! " " Grayson is notorious for being ruthless . If he learns that you've injured his disciple and comes looking for you , then ... " He trailed off , leaving the implication hanging in the air .

Leander's youth suggested he had just begun his journey though he was a Martial Sovereign . However , Grayson was a seasoned killer at the pinnacle of power . Leander would be an easy target if Grayson came for him ! " Are you worried I'll die at his hands ? " Leander chuckled softly with a smirk appearing at the corner of his mouth . " I'll be waiting for him if he wants to come . I genuinely want to see what special skills this so- called Jade Emperor possesses to be included among the Four Extremes !

" 2/4 19:30 Sat , Oct 11 Chapter 47 The Four Extremes 39 Finished Leander's tone hinted that he wanted to challenge Grayson Shire , which made Gale and Dylan exchange a glance and share a wry smile . They acknowledged that Leander was incredibly strong by having achieved the status of Martial Sovereign before turning twenty . However , Grayson Shire was a true overlord in the Astrian martial arts community ! " Mr. Ashcroft , your talent is extraordinary . You've already attained Martial Sovereign status at such a young age . Why not retreat for ten years ?

After that time , you will surely become even stronger with your aptitude and abilities . Then , you can confront Grayson again ! " Gale worried that Leander might be overconfident , so he urged him to reconsider . Leander could potentially rival Grayson if given ten years , in his view . Leander chuckled and shook his head . He didn't want to dwell on that issue . Instead , he inquired , " Who are the other three in the Four Extremes ?

" Seeing that Leander was not inclined to heed his advice , Gale sighed softly and continued , " West Judie refers to Sean Judie , who is a descendant of the Judies from Kolk ! " " The Judies are descended from Paul Judie , who was a famed strategist . They are not only highly skilled in martial arts but also masters of intricate formations , excelling in arranging formations and interpreting omens ! " " Sean is a rare genius from the Judies who is rumored to have mastered many formation techniques by the age of thirty that makes him incredibly adept .

Any formation in his hands can unleash exponential power ! " " He became a Martial Sovereign at forty - two by using both martial skills and formations to dominate the world . The number of Martial Sovereigns defeated by him is not in the single digits as he maintains control over Astria's western region , instilling fear among the borders ! " Leander rubbed his nose and recalled that he had heard of the Judies . Paul was a master of formations who led an entire era . Gale continued , " East Morgan - Royce refers to Maximilian Morgan - Royce , who was a former military figure .

He has trained countless talented soldiers , and he established the Morgan- Royce family in Seagate after retiring . He oversees the region with authority ! " Leander nodded and took note of that name . " The final member of the Four Extremes is North Dragon , who hails from the Ashcroft family of Highcliffe . He has been recognized as the greatest talent in the Astrian martial arts community over the past twenty years . He achieved Martial Sovereign status at thirty - five and ruled over Astria with an iron fist . His name is Gareth Ashcroft !

" Leander's eyes narrowed slightly as a flash of coldness passed through them . 39 Finished " You know Gareth , Mr. Ashcroft ? Does that mean you're also from the Ashcroft family of Highcliffe ? " Gale asked in astonishment upon noticing the change in Leander's expression . It suddenly clicked for him . Leander's last name was Ashcroft , and his strength and talent were undeniable .

In all of Astria , the only family with such remarkable talent and power that shared the Ashcroft name was the one from Highcliffe . " I'm not part of the Ashcroft family , and I don't know Gareth , " Leander replied and shook his head without hesitation . Ever since Reginald had cast him out of the family and Gareth had destroyed his martial veins , he had severed all ties with the Ashcroft family . They were strangers to him now and not even worth a second thought . Although Gareth was Leander's biological father , he no longer existed in Leander's world after everything he had done .

Now , he was merely a stranger . To be honest , Leander owed the creation of his unique martial art , " Devourer's Ninefold Path , " to Gareth Ashcroft . Leander would never have reached his current level of mastery without him . Gale breathed a sigh of relief . With Gareth leading the way and Ethan emerging as a top talent . What other clan in Astria could compete with them if Leander also came from the family ? " North Dragon , South Shire , West Judie and East Morgan - Royce . That's interesting ! " Leander chuckled , and the corners of his mouth lifted slightly .

The martial world had never really disappeared from this realm . It had merely gone underground despite modern advancements in technology and hidden from the eyes of the ordinary populace , but it was still very much alive . " Who among these four is the strongest? " he asked . " Of course , it's Gareth , " Gale answered with deep respect in his voice . " He defeated the six Martial Sovereigns from overseas ten years ago . This victory shook the world and caused warriors from both within and outside Astria to tremble at the news .

Among the Four Extremes , Grayson , also known as ' the Undefeated , once fought Gareth and lost by a narrow margin . " " Maximilian has even admitted that he's no match for Gareth , so it's widely accepted that 1/4 19:30 Sat , Oct 11 Chapter 48 Destined to Rise 32) Finished Gareth is the strongest among the Four Extremes and the greatest in Astria's martial world . " Leander nodded slightly . He'd always known that Gareth was powerful . He had looked up to Gareth as a child and hoped to surpass him one day .

He just hadn't realized Gareth was this strong and towered a figure in Astria's martial world . He smirked subtly as confidence radiated from his eyes . I will claim the title of " the strongest " from Gareth one day . I will rise above them and make them look up to me , even if they are powerful . Leander casually pulled out a chair and sat down in the courtyard . Gale , Dylan , and the others didn't dare leave . They all sat nearby , not wanting to offend him .

Leander noticed that Gale and Dylan seemed to know a lot about the current state of Astria's martial world , so he asked , " The Four Extremes are the top martial artists as the old masters . Are there any other interesting figures aside from them ? " Dylan responded , " There are other martial sovereigns aside from the Four Extremes , but none stand out as much . " " However , there are several rising stars in Astria's martial world . These talents are the future of our martial arts community which is renowned as the " Twin Stars of Highcliffe and the Three Brilliants , Four Beauties .

" " " Oh ? " Leander's interest was piqued . He was eighteen and already a Martial Sovereign . He was curious about the level of skill these new generation talents possessed . Dylan continued , " The Three Brilliants are Kian from the Stonepeak Sect , Theo from the Skycrown Sect , and Edmond from Bladehold Temple . They're all direct disciples of major sects , and their skills far surpass others their age . " The Four Beauties are four remarkable women who not only possess great martial talent but are also known for their unparalleled beauty .

Countless young martial artists are captivated by them . " The Four Beauties are Claire from the Silvermoon Sect , Sylvia from the Stonepeak Sect , Emma from the Tri - Peak Sect , and Olivia from the Tarlyn Guild . As for the Twin Stars of Highcliffe , they are Ethan , who is the son of Gareth , and Daphne , who is the sole heiress of the Florian family . " These nine are considered the future pillars of Astria's martial world , and many believe they are destined to become martial sovereigns . " Ivy's eyes lit up with excitement as she listened .

Though she was only starting to learn martial arts and had barely reached the level of an internal martial artist . She couldn't help but dream of one day standing among these extraordinary figures and matching their brilliance . 2/4 19:30 Sat , Oct 11 Chapter 48
Destined to Rise 39 Finished As Dylan listed off the names of these well - known talents , Leander remained indifferent by showing little reaction . Only when Ethan and Daphne's names were mentioned did his expression shift slightly . " Are any of them martial sovereigns yet ? " he asked .

Dylan and Gale exchanged glances before shaking their heads . " They're all still at the peak of Martial Grandmaster but just shy of becoming Martial Sovereign . Ethan is considered the strongest among them , with Daphne and Claire being the top females . But none have reached the level of a Sovereign yet despite their talents , " Dylan explained and then turned to Leander with admiration . " Mr. Ashcroft , you are their peer in age and have already surpassed them . It will cause an uproar in Astria's martial world if word of this gets out !

" Leander didn't seem too concerned , but his thoughts did drift to Ethan and Daphne . Back when Gareth had stripped Leander of his martial veins , those veins had been transplanted into Ethan . Ethan had risen to become one of Astria's top martial talents over the past eight years , and Daphne wasn't far behind and stood shoulder - to - shoulder with both Ethan and Claire . Leander still didn't think much of them even though these nine were at the pinnacle of Astria's martial world .

Since I created ' Devourer's Ninefold Path , ' my perspective has expanded beyond my peers to look at the previous generations and the world . Even the ' Twin Stars of Highcliffe and the Three Brilliants , Four Beauties ' seem insignificant compared to me . My opponents are at least the likes of Gareth and Ethan . " Mr. Holloway ! " Leander suddenly looked up . His eyes were sharp as stars and fixed Gale with a steady gaze . " I saved your father today , so you owe me a debt ," Leander said calmly . Gale immediately stood up and bowed deeply .

" Of course , we will answer your call without hesitation if you ever need anything ." Leander nodded . " I'll be returning to Ravenridge tomorrow . I trust you'll remember what you promised today if I ever need your help in the future ." Gale bowed again . His tone was filled with gratitude . " Mr. Ashcroft , we will never forget your kindness . We are always at your service ." Leander turned and walked out the door with a faint smile . He left with ease and confidence .

3/4 19:30 Sat , Oct 11 Chapter 48 Destined to Rise 39 Finished Gale and Dylan snapped back to reality once Leander disappeared through the door . From Outcast to Overlord The Unyielding Heir Chapter 49 The Class Gathering 39 Finished It was already past 1 a.m. by the time Leander returned to his modest apartment in Ravenridge . Madeline had finished her shift at the bar and was already fast asleep . He moved quietly to enter his room and took out the pouch of shimmering seeds from his jacket . He placed them on his bedside table and pulled out the jade pendant he'd gotten from Raymond . The pendant wasn't just any jade . It was a rare and one - of - a - kind Exquisite Emerald Jade .

This type of jade was priceless and nearly impossible to acquire due to its rarity . It stood as one of the finest jade treasures and was exceptionally difficult to unearth . It lay hidden deep underground , nurtured by vast jade deposits . A raw stone the size of half a room might have produced a fragment no larger than a thumb . Such a gem was indeed exceptionally rare in this world . The jade held a pure energy that embodied nature's essence and promoted vitality and well- being , which Leander needed . Leander crushed the pendant to powder with a single grip .

A visible light blue droplet oozed out from it . After that , he spread his fingers slightly and summoned a brilliant flame that surged from his palm as he swallowed the droplet . The droplet melted instantly into a gentle flow , which he then spread over the translucent seeds . In an instant , the hundreds of seeds radiated with vibrant life and became even more robust . Leander nodded as he looked at the plump seeds . Looks like it's time to plant these . Early the next morning , he had breakfast ready by the time Madeline woke up . Her face lit up when she saw him .

" Leander , you're back from Crestgate ? " she asked with excitement . Leander had mentioned to her the previous day that he'd be heading there . " Yeah , let's eat . We've got to head to school , " he replied with a smile and handed her a glass of milk . Madeline asked Leander what he had gone to Crestgate for as they ate . He gave her a vague excuse to avoid the real reason . Later , they arrived at class together . Leander shot off a quick text to Frankie and asked him to set up a plot of land in Tardide Valley for planting .

1/4 19:31 Sat , Oct 11 Chapter 49 The Class Gathering Frankie responded promptly and promised to take care of it immediately . Finished Leander couldn't help but think of the dreams that she had shared with him as he glanced at Madeline in the front row . He sighed inwardly . I need to help her reach her goal before I can head to Tardide Valley and plant the Silverleaf . His mind raced and already pieced together how he could pave the way for her future . Liam nudged him with a mischievous grin just as he lost himself in thought .

" Leander , we're having a class dinner tonight , and I've got someone special lined up to introduce you to . " Leander frowned . " Class dinner ? Why haven't I heard about it ? " Liam chuckled . " It's been a tradition since we were freshmen . We get together every last weekend of the month . You're still new , so you wouldn't know . " Leander shrugged . " Who are you introducing me to ? " Liam's grin widened . " My junior high crush . She agreed to come tonight and join us .

Dude , she might not be on the same level as Yvette or Madeline , but she's definitely one of the prettiest girls around . I'm planning to make her mine after tonight ! " Leander couldn't help but laugh at Liam's excitement . " You're that confident , huh ? " Liam puffed out his chest , brimming with confidence . " Of course ! I hang out with you , and you're practically the king of knowing beautiful girls . I can't fall too far behind ! " Leander chuckled and shook his head . " Alright , stop joking around . I'm not a gang leader . What do you think you're doing with me ?

Just bring her over tonight first . " The rest of the school day passed in its usual monotony . Leander was shaken awake by Madeline by the time class ended . " Come on , Leander . It's time for the class dinner . Let's go . " The scene ignited anger among the boys in the class , especially Victor , whose fists clenched in fury . The impression Leander had left on him during their last encounter in the combat club lingered . He still had no chance to reclaim his pride . Jade Dempsey noticed Victor's frustration and hurried over to comfort him . " Victor , don't let him get to you .

He may have some knowledge about fighting , but that's all he's got . Madeline even paid for him to attend tonight's dinner . You and Leander will be worlds apart once graduation's over . He'll never be able to catch up to you . " 2/4 19:31 Sat , Oct 11 Chapter 49 The Class Gathering 32 Finished Victor's expression remained cold . He knew she was right . After all , he'd be heading to one of the top universities in Astria with his grades . He'd be far ahead of Leander after graduating and taking over his father's business , but the thought of losing to him at school gnawed at his pride .

The class dinner was held at Cascade House , which was a well - known restaurant near the Ravenridge Convention Center . Jade , who had arranged the dinner , had reserved two large private rooms , which were enough to comfortably seat fifty people . As soon as Madeline and Leander walked in , a group of girls immediately surrounded Madeline . However , he wasn't one for attention , so he found a seat in the corner . He would've skipped this gathering altogether if it weren't for Madeline and Liam insisting on his attendance .

Liam took the seat beside him , and the two of them chatted for a while before Liam's phone rang . " Hello , Shirley . Have you arrived ? I'll be right down to get you ! " he said , practically bouncing with excitement . Liam turned to Leander after hanging up and was barely able to contain his glee . " She's here , Leander . I'm going to go get her ! " He bolted out of the room with that . A few minutes later , he returned with a girl by his side . The girl was tall and slender . She wore fashionable clothes and exuded a charming vibe .

She was certainly more attractive than Jade but not as stunning as Madeline . This made her a rare beauty . The classmates let out a playful cheer as soon as she entered . Liam was clearly proud and introduced her with a grin . " Everyone , this is my junior high deskmate , Shirley Wright ! " Shirley greeted the group with a polite wave . " Welcome ! " Beautiful girls were always welcomed , so the classmates greeted her with smiles . After the introductions , Liam invited Shirley to sit next to Leander . " Shirley , let me introduce you to my good friend Leander !

" Liam spread his hands and pointed at Leander . He had already told Shirley on the way here that he would introduce a very impressive friend to her today . Shirley's gaze shifted toward Leander . He smiled and nodded to acknowledge her . She responded politely while discreetly observing him . 3/4 19:31 Sat , Oct 11 Chapter 49 The Class Gathering 32 #Finished She momentarily paused when she saw Leander's handsome face . Chapter 50 Rivalry Shirley's eyes flickered slightly as she nodded at Leander . She quickly turned away as she felt a wave of disappointment wash over her . Liam had invited her to a class gathering that night yesterday and mentioned that he would introduce her to a very impressive friend . Shirley already had some feelings for Liam . Now , hearing about this important introduction made her hopeful . She wished that this friend of Liam's was truly someone influential who could help her family out of their current troubles .

However , she found that although he was handsome and charming , he was dressed in cheap common brands upon meeting Leander . There wasn't a single item on him that stood out . Even the watch he wore looked like it cost only a few dollars . What kind of background could a high school student like him possibly have ? As if sensing Shirley's disappointment , Liam hurried to defend Leander . " Shirley , Leander is really impressive . You know our math teacher ? The one who is such a pain ? Leander can actually make that old man mince his words .

The teacher can't do anything about him sleeping in class ! " Liam continued , " And just the other day , the karate team from Crestgate High came to challenge our martial arts club . No one could match them , but Leander stepped up . He took on more than a dozen of them by himself and defeated them all ! " Shirley pretended to listen intently . She nodded occasionally , but her mind was elsewhere . What did it matter if Leander could solve problems or defeat a few karate players ? Those feats that seemed trivial to her were like child's play . years .

Her grandfather had once been an official , and her father had been in business for . Because of this , she had a more realistic view of the world and its values . The things Liam mentioned were hardly impressive in her eyes . If these were the accomplishments that counted as " greatness , " then there were countless impressive people in the world . She couldn't help but feel a sense of dread about her family's situation . Is this really all I can have with Liam ? Should I choose someone else ? She sighed internally .

She had liked Liam since her junior high days , but their feelings remained unspoken due to their youth . There was also another suitor at her school who was better off than Liam in many ways . Yet , she still leaned toward Liam . However , recent family troubles caught her off guard . Therefore , she hoped that Liam's impressive friend could help her family out . She might accept Liam's confession if this friend turned out to be truly capable . However , it seemed that all her hopes were in vain now . Leander was nothing more than an overly confident high school student .

Feeling a sense of resignation , she reluctantly considered her options . She might have to distance herself from Liam and accept the advances of her other suitor after tonight . The other suitor seemed far more likely to resolve her family's issues . Liam felt a wave of anxiety wash over him as he sensed the chill in Shirley's demeanor . He had no idea why and could only sit quietly beside her . In contrast , Leander remained unfazed and focused entirely on his meal . As the meal progressed , a knock sounded at the door .

Jade got up to answer it and revealed a young man in an Armani suit standing outside who was holding a glass of wine . " Owen ! Is that you ? " Jade stepped aside to welcome the newcomer . Owen nodded at her , then walked into the room and raised his glass toward Victor . " Victor , why didn't you tell me you were coming ? I only found out because the manager mentioned it . Come on , let me toast you ! " Owen was the son of the owner of the restaurant and had some connections with Victor , so he felt compelled to greet him . " Owen , it's just a class gathering .

We didn't want to bother you . Let's share a drink ! " Victor stood up and clinked glasses with Owen before downing his drink . The classmates looked on in envy , with admiration filling their eyes . In Ravenridge , it seemed that Victor had connections everywhere . Even the son of the restaurant owner came to pay his respects . This was a clear sign of status and influence . Shirley , who had been preoccupied with her thoughts , felt a slight shift in her expression upon seeing Owen . He exchanged a few words with Victor before turning his attention to Shirley .

His face lit up with a smile . " Shirley , why are you here ? " He hadn't expected to find the class beauty dining at his family's restaurant . " I came with some friends , " she replied with a bit of force , Owen was her most notable admirer from school . " Friends? " Owen's sharp gaze darted to Leander and Liam and lingered for a moment . He felt a twinge of annoyance but quickly masked it with a smile . " I'd like to know who Shirley's friends are . I should get to know you better since we're classmates . Let me toast to you !

" Liam frowned as his instincts told him there was something off about Owen and Shirley's relationship . He couldn't help but feel inferior when faced with someone like Owen despite his own feelings for Shirley . Owen was tall and handsome . He was the son of the restaurant owner and clearly had a better background than Liam . Liam finally mustered the courage to stand after hesitating for a moment . " Mr. Harmon , nice to meet you . I'm Liam , Shirley's friend ! " Owen's expression briefly turned dismissive before he responded . " Oh , Liam . Nice to meet you . Let's drink that !

" Owen pretended to be friendly . He quickly finished his drink and then ignored Liam as he turned back to Shirley . " Shirley , I've invited you to my family's restaurant several times , but you always made excuses . Now that you're here for the first time , I should take good care of you as the host ! " He snapped his fingers without waiting for anyone's reaction . A signaling waiter added another chair to the table . He took a seat between Shirley and Leander . The classmates felt some dissatisfaction but held their tongues .

After all , Owen's family owned the restaurant , and he was friends with Victor , so no one dared to speak up . Liam's face darkened . Tonight was supposed to be his chance with Shirley . Now , it felt like he had set the table for someone else to take advantage of his efforts . Leander glanced at Owen and shook his head slightly . Liam's dreams of winning over Shirley seemed to be slipping away with Owen's appearance .
