Chapter 51 - Chapter 51 (English Translation)

Chapter 51 A Disruption at Dinner 69 Finished Shirley sat between Liam and Owen . She was laughing and chatting with Owen while only casually acknowledging Liam . This left Liam feeling increasingly frustrated . Victor maintained his cold demeanor and casually chatted with a few girls . He understood Owen's style well and had no objections to Owen taking a seat . " Owen , I really need your help with that matter . I'll be sure to thank you properly ! " Shirley whispered to Owen , after which she raised her voice with a pleading tone . " Shirley , you should have told me earlier .

I could have taken care of this simple issue with just a word . I can ask my cousin or my dad to step in if needed ! " He nodded confidently . Shirley had just revealed some troubling news from home . It seemed like no big deal to Owen as he could handle it easily . " What's going on , Shirley ? Can you tell me ? Maybe I can help ! " Liam jumped in . He was eager to prove himself and not be outdone by Owen . However , Shirley gently shook her head . " No need . You can't help with this . " Liam felt even more defeated at her words .

Shirley was asking Owen for help , but she wouldn't even share the details when it came to him . It was clear to him that she found Owen far more capable . Shirley sensed Liam's disappointment but chose not to explain further . The situation she was facing was too complicated for someone from an ordinary merchant family like Liam's . Right now , her priority was to hold onto Owen and navigate through her family's difficulties . As Owen and Shirley continued their lively conversation , he occasionally glanced at Liam with a teasing expression .

Hmph , do you think you can compete with me for a woman ? You really overestimated yourself ! Owen fully embraced the role of the victor and looked down on Liam . The atmosphere grew tense as the other classmates noticeably spoke less and focused on their meals instead . Leander observed silently and chose not to intervene . After all , this was a personal matter for Liam , and getting involved would be pointless . Leander could step in later if Liam truly needed help . In the midst of their chatter , Owen suddenly remembered something and turned to Victor .

" Victor , my cousin recently opened a bar in the Eastvale District . Feel free to join us if you and your classmates have no plans tonight . The drinks are in the house ." 1/4 12:59 Sun , Oct 12 M. ... Chapter 51 A Disruption at Dinner 69 Finished Everyone in the room heard him clearly , although Owen addressed Victor . It would be nice for them to take a break at a bar tonight with the intense study pressure in their senior year . " Wow ! Mr. Harmon , what's the name of your cousin's bar ? " A few girls who frequented nightclubs couldn't help but ask . Owen smiled .

" It's called Aether Club . I wonder if you've heard of it , though . " He seemed to be asking but wore a slightly smug expression . " Aether Club ? Isn't that the hottest music bar in Eastvale right now ? I heard it's run by Mateo ? " Lots of them who lived in Eastvale gasped in surprise upon hearing the name . The newly opened Aether Club had become the talk of the town . Even those who didn't often visit bars had heard of it . Young people looking to have fun in Eastvale almost always chose Aether Club . The atmosphere at Aether Club was clean and vibrant .

Nobody dared to cause trouble there . It wasn't because it was overly formal but because the owner was quite formidable . The investor behind Aether Club was none other than Mateo ! Mateo was known for his uncompromising nature in Eastvale . No one dared to challenge him . Some reckless individuals caused trouble at the Aether Club in the past and ended up with broken limbs after being thrown out by Mateo Erickson and his crew . They didn't dare protest and even returned with a large sum of money to apologize .

This demonstrated Mateo's fierce reputation and influence in Eastvale District , where he ruled with an iron fist . What made matters even more intimidating was that Mateo's boss was Frankie , the head of Leandrix Corp. Frankie was renowned in Ravenridge and had been the city's wealthiest for several years . His influence was widely recognized . Anyone crossing Mateo was essentially declaring war on Frankie . Who could afford such consequences ? " Wow ! Mr. Harmon , so Mateo is your cousin ? " The girls present exclaimed in surprise .

Even though they were top students , they admired powerful figures who commanded respect and could intimidate others with a single name . " Yep , we're cousins ! " Owen said modestly , though the smirk on his face did not escape Leander's notice . Upon hearing that Owen was Mateo's cousin , the girls couldn't contain their excitement and 2/4 13:00 Sun , Oct 12 M ... Chapter 51 A Disruption at Dinner quickly moved closer to him and were eager to chat . Even Jade shot Owen a glance , and Madeline was secretly impressed .

(69) , Finished Being the young owner of the Cascade House wasn't enough to draw much attention from the girls . There were plenty of establishments of this scale in Ravenridge . They might have thought of him as somewhat noteworthy , but hearing that Mateo was Owen's cousin changed everything . Frankie Wainwright held immense power in Ravenridge , and his connections were anything but ordinary . Seeing that so many of Liam's classmates were suddenly trying to befriend Owen only reinforced Shirley's choice . Owen is Mateo's cousin , and Mateo is the top dog in Eastvale District .

I think resolving my family's troubles should be easy with such a powerful connection . She smiled even more brightly at Owen with this thought in mind . She was determined to put on a pleasant front even though she wasn't particularly fond of him . Owen had become the center of attention and left Liam to sigh in defeat beside them . Liam had initially thought that although his family background couldn't compare to Owen's , he at least had a fighting chance . However , he felt completely demoralized after learning about Mateo's connection .

Shirley agreed to go to the movies with Owen later that night during dinner . He was in high spirits , beaming with pride . He felt elated and confident as he raised his glass and toasted with his classmates . He downed the drinks with great flair . Whoosh ! The sliding door to the private room was suddenly abruptly yanked open . Jade's expression changed slightly . This was a high - end restaurant , and it was unusual for anyone to barge in like that . The others were also displeased and turned to look at the entrance . Everyone in the class lifted their heads .

Everyone except Leander froze at the sight outside the door . A group of intimidating men stood at the door , which was led by a young man who looked to be in his mid - twenties . He appeared pale and clearly having indulged too much in both alcohol and pleasure . His gaze briefly swept over Jade before landing directly on Shirley . His eyes filled with blatant greed . 3/4 13:00 Sun , Oct 12 M Chapter 51 A Disruption at Dinner Shirley's face drained of color by seeing him , and she instinctively shrank back . " Shirley , why didn't you tell me you were eating in my territory ?

The young leader wore a smirk that hinted at malice . 69 Finistied Everyone at the table was just a bunch of students . None of them had ever seen such a show of force in the real world . A few brave souls attempted to speak , but the sight of the intimidating men outside made them swallow their words . Shirley never expected that the young man would find her here . Her brother had gotten into a scuffle at a late - night food stall and ended up beating someone up a few days earlier .

She thought the matter was over , but it turned out the person her brother had fought was the son of an underground figure and the very young man before her , Finn Coppel . Her family had to pay a hefty sum , yet Finn still wouldn't back down . He had insisted she agree to be his girlfriend before he would let things slide . She felt helpless , so she could only stall Finn while looking for a solution . This was why she was eager to choose between Liam and Owen . " That's him , Owen , " Shirley said . She looked at Owen with desperation . " Oh ? That's him ? Don't worry , Shirley .

I'll handle it ! " Owen assured her and offered a comforting look before rising from his seat . He was full of confidence . He envisioned a scene where he could scare off the other party with just a few words and bask in the admiration of everyone around him , especially with the beautiful Madeline Gardner nearby . The thought of showcasing his prowess in front of her made him even more excited . Owen stood up and tried to look imposing as he asked . " What's your name , buddy ? " " Who do you think you are to call me buddy ? " Finn scoffed and gave Owen a dismissive glance .

Owen felt a surge of anger as Finn had made it clear he wasn't taking him seriously , He blurted out in a moment of rashness . " I'm Owen Harmon . This restaurant is family - owned , and my cousin Mateo runs the Eastvale District . Am I qualified enough ? " His voice turned cold as he revealed his card . " Mateo ? " Finn's brows furrowed slightly at the mention of the name . 1/4 13:00 Sun , Oct 12 M Chapter 52 Who Gave You the Courage ? 60 * Finished Owen felt a swell of pride by seeing Finn's expression change . Mateo's reputation was enough to alter the atmosphere .

He had turned the tide in his favor with just a name . All he needed to do was say a few formal words and resolve Shirley's issue . Then , she would surely be his girlfriend before long . Shirley noticed Finn's reaction and felt a flicker of hope . She wouldn't mind being Owen's girlfriend if this could be resolved . The rest of the students watched as Finn lost his bravado the moment Owen mentioned Mateo's name . They secretly envied him and realized the weight a powerful name could carry . This was the mark of a true heavyweight . Just mentioning his name was enough to intimidate anyone .

Finn hesitated for a moment , and then a strange smile spread across his face . " I thought you had some clout for talking back to me . Turns out you're just Mateo's cousin ." Everyone was puzzled . Why did Finn sound so unconcerned ? As the students pondered this , Finn suddenly stepped forward and grabbed Owen by the collar and spitting words in his face . " Kid , even Mateo has to be polite when he talks to me . He even offers me women when I visit the Eastvale District . Do you think you can intimidate me with his name?

" Owen was momentarily stunned , and the others in the room were equally dumbfounded . Even Victor , who was the son of a prominent businessman , couldn't believe what he had just heard . Madeline's eyes widened in shock . Mateo was on the same level as Tobias , a powerful figure who controlled the North District and the Eastvale District . How could this arrogant youth disregard someone like Mateo ? Owen struggled to process this . He nervously fished his phone from his pocket and dialed Mateo's number . " Is this Owen ? What do you need ?

" Mateo's voice came through rough and authoritative . " Mateo , I'm at the restaurant , and I'm facing some trouble . I told them I'm your cousin , but they don't seem to care , " Owen stammered . He gathered his courage and laid everything out before the crowd . After all , Mateo was a prominent figure in Ravenridge , and he had the powerful Frankie backing him . Owen found it hard to imagine anyone who would dismiss Mateo so easily . He suspected that Finn might be trying to bluff his way through . 2/4 13:00 Sun , Oct 12 4 Chapter 57 Who Gave You the Courage ?

69 Finished " Let me talk to him . I want to know who has the guts to disrespect me ! " Mateo's voice was low and laced with anger . Owen handed the phone to Finn . He felt emboldened by Mateo's tone . Finn nonchalantly took the phone and addressed Mateo casually . " Hey , is this you , Mateo ? I'm Finn Coppel . I'm busy here , and your cousin is making a fuss in front of me . What do you want me to do ? " " Oh , is that so ? Well , you tell him to leave . Don't blame me for being ruthless if he's still there talking nonsense , " Mateo replied .

Finn's nonchalant demeanor made everyone feel uneasy . He handed the phone back to Owen , who instantly felt the weight of dread . Owen bowed deeply to Finn after hanging up . His tone shifted to panic . " I'm sorry , Finn . I didn't realize it was you . Please disregard my earlier words . " All the bravado he had just moments ago evaporated . Finn looked at him mockingly . " Do you still want to meddle in my business with Shirley ? " Owen glanced at Shirley and saw her desperate and disbelieving gaze . He felt his cheeks flush with shame .

All the bravado he had previously exuded had vanished . He shook his head and forced a smile . " Finn , Shirley and I are just classmates . I wouldn't dare interfere with what you want with her . " Finn laughed triumphantly . " Piss off ! I won't make things difficult for you since you're Mateo's cousin . " Owen obediently stepped aside . He couldn't bear to face the gazes of the crowd , so he quickly left the private room . Shirley's heart sank . She had hoped Owen would leverage his connection to Mateo to handle Finn , but it seemed Finn was far more formidable than anyone had anticipated .

Could we really find a way out after provoking him ? " Shirley , you've had a few days to think . I can't just let you go back since you've come to me willingly today , " Finn said with a sly grin . Shirley felt trapped by that . She was at his mercy now . Victor remained silent . He was fully aware of Mateo's power , as even his father had to respect 3/4 13:00 Sun , Oct 12 Chapter 52 Who Gave You The Courage ? Mateo . What could he possibly do if Finn had the audacity to disregard Mateo ? Finished Madeline and the others were equally paralyzed with fear .

Nobody could offer Shirley any help with Finn looming over them , and no one had the courage to step forward . Liam , who had been sitting quietly beside Shirley , suddenly stood up at that moment . " Hey , listen . I'll apologize on her behalf if Shirley has done something to offend you . Just tell me what you want , and I'll do my best to accommodate you . Please let her go , " he pleaded with Finn and bowed slightly . Shirley was taken aback . She hadn't expected Liam to stand up for her in such a situation . A wave of gratitude washed over her .

However , Finn barely acknowledged Liam's presence . " Who do you think you are to speak for her ? This has nothing to do with you . Get lost ! " Finn was already growing impatient . He waved his hand to signal his men to grab Shirley . Liam clenched his jaw and stepped in front of Shirley as he determined to protect her . The others quickly retreated because they did not want to get involved . Liam stood firm when the men approached . He had made up his mind that he wouldn't let Shirley be taken away so easily , even if it meant he would end up getting hurt .

The big man's eyes glinted coldly . It was clear that someone like him could take on ten high school students like Liam without breaking a sweat . A voice suddenly rang out in the room just as Liam was about to confront the men . " Who gave you the courage to grab people in front of me ? " Send Gifts 50 B

Chapter 53 Shocking the Room : 69 Finished The entire private room went silent . Finn was no average guy - he didn't even take Mateo seriously . His presence and connections were intimidating , so it seemed unbelievable that anyone would dare to challenge him , let alone in such an arrogant way . All eyes turned toward the voice . Sitting calmly in the corner , Leander still picked food from his bowl with a fork as if nothing had happened . It didn't take long for everyone to realize that Leander spoke . " Leander ? " Madeline was baffled . Why's he doing this again ?

He already got into trouble with Tobias that night at the bar - took the fall because of me . He should've learned his lesson by now . Here he is , sticking his neck out . " Is he out of his mind ? " Jade muttered , first shocked , then amused . Victor shared her sentiment , smirking and shaking his head . Even he , with all his bravado , knew when to back down . Leander could handle himself in a fight , but going up against someone like Finn ? His connections are way more dangerous than Mateo's . This is just asking for trouble . Finn doesn't even need to get his hands dirty .

He could have a whole crew of guys with guns here in no time . No matter how tough or quick Leander is , he's not dodging bullets . " Leander ? " Liam was equally dumbfounded . Is Leander stepping up to back me up ? " You talking to me ? " Finn's eyes narrowed , his expression darkening . In all of Ravenridge , not even the bosses of the four central districts dared speak to him like that . They all showed him respect - partly out of fear of his dad , who was Frankie's right - hand man .

Finn had never encountered someone so young , practically a high schooler , daring to disrespect him so openly . He glanced over at Leander , trying to place him . There's something about him that feels familiar . Where have I seen that face before ? Finn wondered . Finn sneered . " Who gave you the nerve to talk to me like that ? I don't care who you are , but you're pushing your luck . If you apologize now , I might let you off easy . If you don't , then ... " He crossed his arms , fully expecting Leander to fold .

Just as he was about to sit and watch the show , Leander turned to face him . That's when Finn's smirk vanished . His face paled , and his mouth went dry . It was as if he'd just seen a ghost . " Leander ... " The name fell from Finn's lips , barely a whisper , as cold sweat started to bead on his forehead . Two nights ago , at Maplebrook Manor , Finn had been in a meeting with his father when he'd witnessed something that still haunted him . Bryce , a ruthless man brought in by Gumus , had 1/3 13:00 Sun , Oct 12 M ...

Chapter 53 Shocking the Room 69 Finished terrorized Frankie's men , disarming them effortlessly with nothing but throwing blades . It seemed like Frankie's reign was about to end . Then , out of nowhere , Leander showed up . He instantly killed Bryce , a legendary Martial Master , in some bizarre , unexplainable way . Leander even shattered a marble coffee table with his bare hand , sending shivers down everyone's spine - including Gumus . That scene had burned itself into Finn's memory . Afterward , Finn learned from his dad that Leander wasn't just some random guy - he was the real boss .

Even Frankie worked under him . Ever since that night , Finn had remembered Leander's face , vowing never to cross paths with him again . Now , here he was , right in front of him . Leander's gaze swept over Finn , cold and indifferent . " What was that ? What happens if I don't fold ? " Finn's face turned a sickly shade of green , and his legs nearly gave out beneath him . " M - Mr . Leander , I'm so sorry ! I didn't realize it was you . Please , forgive me ! " Nobody else in the room understood the kind of pressure Finn was under right now .

Leander might look young , but Finn had seen firsthand just how dangerous and ruthless he could be . Even now , standing in Leander's presence was enough to make Finn feel suffocating . Considering Finn's sudden change in attitude - from arrogant to groveling - stunned everyone in the room . Specifically , Victor and Jade had been waiting to see Leander humiliated . They couldn't believe their eyes . How could someone as commanding as Finn , who isn't even afraid of Mateo , be so terrified of Leander , who seems to be from the middle of nowhere ? It doesn't make sense .

People started to recall how Leander single - handedly took down more than ten Crestgate High School's karate team members . They all wondered , Could that really be enough to intimidate someone like Finn ? No way . Finn's got enough power to crush Leander without even trying . So why is he the one shaking ? Liam was equally baffled . He'd been bracing himself for a beating , but somehow , Leander had scared Finn senseless with just a few words . " You know me ? " Leander asked casually , still eating . Finn , drenched in sweat , nodded frantically . " I'm Jamero Coppel's son .

I - I saw you at the Maplebrook meeting the other night . It was an honor , truly ! " Leander paused for a second , chewing thoughtfully . " Jamero , huh ? So , your dad is Jamero ? " Finn nodded again , faster this time . His dad , Jamero Coppel , was Frankie's most trusted person 2/3 13:00 Sun , Oct 12 M. Chapter 53 Shocking the Room 69 * Finished and driver , second only to the man himself . That was why Mateo had always been careful around Finn . " Well , since you know who I am , let's cut to the chase . " Leander put his fork down and pointed to Shirley and Liam .

" I'm not interested in whatever happened between you guys before or why you're mad . Shirley is my friend's girlfriend . You know what to do , right ? " Leander's cold stare pinned Finn to the spot . Nodding furiously , Finn stammered , " Y - Yes , Mr. Leander ! I'm sorry - so sorry . Please forgive me . I promise I won't go anywhere near your ... wife ! I mean , your sister - in - law ! I won't bother her ever again , I swear ! " He sounded nothing like the spoiled scion he'd been just moments ago .

Now , he was practically begging for forgiveness , too scared to even look Leander in the eye . Word had gotten around that Shirley was friends with Leander's girlfriend , and he was so shaken up that he'd even gone as far as regarding her as his " relative . " Leander could decide Dad's fate - and even Mr. Wainwright's - with just a word . He could kill me right here if he wants . Even Bryce , that Martial Master who wasn't scared of guns and could take someone out in a second , was taken down by Leander in no time . What chance do I have ? Finn thought , panic rising in his chest .

Shirley felt like she was dreaming . Not long ago , she had been convinced that no one could help her out of this mess . Yet now ? Leander had made it all disappear with just a few words . She had always thought Leander was nothing special . Finally , she grasped that she had been wrong , and a deep sense of shame washed over her . " Hey , the son of Jamero ... I'll remember that , " Leander remarked calmly . " One last thing - if I hear about you bullying or pushing people around again , you'll regret it . Got it ?

" " Now , get out . " He didn't say another word , merely gesturing with his fork . Finn didn't need to be told twice . He quickly gathered his men and practically sprinted out of the room , too scared to even glance back . The private room fell silent once more as everyone stared at Leander , unable to believe what had just happened . Send Gifts 50

Finished Victor and Jade exchanged wide - eyed glances , both clearly taken aback . Finn clearly had some profound connections - enough to make even Mateo think twice . Yet here he was , cowering in fear and running away after only a couple of words from Leander . Thinking about the clout someone would need to instill such fear was mind - boggling . Victor felt a knot form in his stomach , thinking , Am I really misjudging Leander ?

It seems impossible that Finn , who can intimidate Mateo with just a few words , is actually just some rural kid . That just doesn't add up . Jade felt her stomach drop as she recalled her earlier conflict with Leander . A chill ran through her as she thought , If Leander holds a vendetta and brings me up to Finn or Mateo , I'll be in deep trouble . The other students remained frozen in shock , struggling to process what had just happened . The room was eerily quiet until Liam broke the silence . " Leander , actually send that guy running ? Seriously , why do you so freak him out ?

" All eyes turned to Leander , eager for his explanation . " Come on, it's not a big deal ; no need to act so dramatic ! " Leander replied with a casual grin . He added , " I just happen to know that punk's dad . If I told him what his son's been up to , he'd be in a world of hurt . That's why that brat is scared of me ." Liam blinked as the realization hit him , slowly putting the pieces together . True to his straightforward nature , he took Leander's words at face value . Other naive classmates nodded along , accepting his explanation without a second thought .

Still , Victor and Jade , being the sharp ones , weren't buying it . Shirley's eyes wavered with doubt as she listened . Leander might indeed know Finn's dad , but claiming he scared Finn into running away seems far - fetched . Knowing Finn's dad implies he has considerable influence , even if there's some truth to it . Still , Leander is very impressive . Reflecting on Liam's bond with Leander , Shirley adjusted her demeanor . During the party , she became more engaging and friendly towards him , which delighted Liam .

Leander observed this shift in Shirley's behavior and stayed silent , thinking , If I can assist Liam in winning her over , I'm all for it . Meanwhile , students who had once kept their distance from Leander or criticized his freeways were suddenly eager to befriend him , raising toasts in his honor . After all , his bold words to Finn were still vivid in everyone's memory - who would be foolish enough to underestimate him ? Having Leander as a friend could only pay off in the long run . 1/3 13:00 Sun , Oct 12 M ...

69 Finished In contrast , Jade and Victor remained noticeably quieter . Jade avoided Leander's gaze all night , clearly uneasy . Later , Leander and Madeline walked home together after the party . Midway through their stroll , Madeline suddenly paused and turned to him . " Leander , why is Finn so scared of you ? It can't just be for the reason you gave , right ? " Leander smiled knowingly . He appreciated that this sharp - minded girl wouldn't be easily swayed by his reasoning . Cracking his knuckles , he countered , " Oh , it's not merely that ! The truth is , he's afraid of my strength !

" Madeline furrowed her brow , clearly unconvinced . " Finn isn't even scared of Mateo . He must have some pretty tough guys backing him up . Why would he be intimidated by you ? " Leander softly ruffled her hair , gazing into the distance as he spoke calmly , " Madeline , there are things in this world that are difficult to comprehend . If someone possesses enough strength to obliterate anything , what more could they fear ? " Madeline nodded in thought , not pushing the subject further .

Still , she struggled to grasp how one person's power could disrupt a world constructed on fortune and control , regardless of its might . Meanwhile , a middle - aged man in a suit sat thoughtfully on a courtyard bench in a luxurious villa in Candor of Glenwick . Next to him stood Emma , a young woman whose charisma was undeniable . She was Winston Reyne's daughter . Emma radiated vitality and elegance in her attire , her slim legs subtly outlined by the fabric , showcasing her striking beauty . She observed her father's sigh and asked , " Dad , what's on your mind ? You seem preoccupied .

" Winston straightened up , a hint of guilt crossing his face . " Emma , it's rare for you to visit , and I feel bad that you have to see me like this ." Emma smiled softly , shaking her head while she massaged his shoulders . " Dad , I recall how anxious you were when Maeve went missing . Now that she's back and flourishing , why the sad face ? " A brief sense of comfort enveloped Winston as he reflected on his daughters ' remarkable achievements and the accolades they had received .

However , the promise he made six months ago lingered heavily in his mind , casting a shadow over his expression . " Emma , I can't stop thinking about Maeve . Two years ago , she lost her sight and slipped away when we weren't paying attention , which led to her disappearance . Then , six months ago , a young man brought her back home and left us with a medicine that restored her vision . " " When Maeve came back , I was over the moon . In that moment of joy , I foolishly promised to 2/3 13:00 Sun , Oct 12 ... the 54 Who Is This Guy inchm marry her off to that young man someday .

Now that I reflect on it , I think that might have been a mistake . " " Sure , he saved Maeve's life and restored her sight , but I hardly know anything about him . I shouldn't have jumped to conclusions and promised your sister to someone I don't know well . He might look charming and handsome , but his clothes hint at a more modest background . Considering Maeve's standing in Astria , her future husband should come from a rich family or have some important connections . An average guy just won't cut it ." Winston let out a heavy sigh . " You know how much I value my promises .

Now that I've given my word , how can I retract it ? That's what bothers me . " Finally grasping her dad's dilemma , Emma thought momentarily before responding , " Dad , you don't need to stress about this . I'll take care of it . " " Just tell me where he is . He deserves our gratitude since he brought Maeve home and restored her sight . I'll offer him ten million to retract that promise . " Her tone was relaxed yet commanding , as if she were used to being in power and had little regard for regular folks . Winston frowned and gently shook his head .

" All I know is he's in Mornwick , but I have no idea where exactly . He didn't even leave a name - just this unclear image from the security footage from his visit to our place . ter 55 The Engagement is Over Emma glanced at the photo , already thinking of what to do next . 2 69 Finished " Dad , don't worry , I've got this . Our sect has some ties with the Holloway family of Mornwick . I can reach out to them and ask for help. Should be easy enough to track this person down . " Winston's face lit up . " Really ? You can get in touch with them ? That's great ! If they're on board , they'll find whoever we need in no time . I'll leave it to you then . " Emma smiled . " No problem .

Everyone in the sect is caught up with the Mornwick - Listin Martial Arts Championship prep anyway . I've got some free time , so I'll take this as an excuse for a little break . " Winston relaxed at that . Emma's taking care of it gave him peace of mind ; he trusted her to get it done right , and he didn't want to look unreliable . At the Crestgate of Mornwick , the Holloway family was preparing to welcome some VIPs . Gale , the family patriarch , stepped outside to welcome them . At the entrance stood the striking Emma , her gaze steady yet captivating .

The guards couldn't help but stare , mesmerized by her beauty . Next to her stood a young man , arms crossed , carrying himself with superiority . He barely glanced at the Holloway Residence , obviously unimpressed . Both wore white coats with a flame logo split into three sections on their chests . Gale smiled courteously . " It's an honor to welcome guests from the Tri - Peak Sect ! " The young man gave a slight nod , barely acknowledging Gale . Emma , though , smiled back and bowed slightly . " Mr.

Halloway , I'm Emma Reyne from the Tri- Peak Sect , and this is my senior , Elias Sebastian . Apologies for dropping in unannounced . " Nearby , Ivy was quietly observing . She thought to herself , That's Emma Reyne ? Dad just mentioned to Leander last night - one of the Four Beauties in the Astria martial arts world . Ivy studied Emma , amazed by her grace and beauty . No wonder she has such a reputation . " So , it's Miss Reyne and Mr. Sebastian ; please come in ! " Gale , a little surprised but keeping it hidden , led them inside . Once they were seated , Emma cut to the chase . " Mr.

Halloway , I need a favor from you . " Gale hesitated briefly . Sure , his family was influential in Mornwick , but they weren't as well- 1/4 13:00 Sun , Oct 12 M .. Chapter 55 The Engagement is Over 69 Finished known in the broader martial arts world . Why would the Tri - Peak Sect need them ? Yet , he kept his tone polite . " Of course , Miss Reyne . How can I help ? " Emma slid a photo across the table and explained , " Mr. Halloway , I need you to help me find this guy in Mornwick . " Gale looked down at the photo , his eyes narrowing slightly .

Even though the picture wasn't clear , he could still recognize Leander . Since Gale was looking down , Emma and Elias didn't notice the shift in his expression . He quickly calmed himself before lifting his head and asking carefully , " Miss Reyne , finding someone in Mornwick isn't a big deal for us , but can I ask why you're looking for him ? " Before Emma could respond , Elias interjected , his irritation palpable . " That doesn't concern you . Just do what we asked . " Gale's expression tightened in response to his words . Gale clenched his jaw but hid his frustration .

He knew he couldn't risk upsetting the Tri - Peak Sect , too powerful with a Martial Sovereign in their ranks . Emma barely reacted , assuming his frown was because he didn't want to let go , likely feeling bitter about it . " I know you want to marry Maeve , and my dad may have promised it . Here's the deal - I'm Maeve's sister and won't let her marry someone like you .

" Emma's words were blunt and unkind . " Maeve is a big deal now - an international celebrity , famous and admired . You're nowhere near her level . Her future husband should at least be the son of a powerful businessman , a politician , or a celebrity on her level . And you ? You don't even come close . " She glanced around the room in disdain , adding , " This place ? It's barely ninety square meters . You've got schoolbooks lying around , which means you're still in high school . Your clothes probably cost what , five hundred bucks at most ?

Do you seriously think you're in any position to marry Maeve ? " " Even if she's grateful enough to want to marry you , I won't allow it , nor will all the men chasing after her . If you try to hold onto this , all you're asking for is misery - people will mock look down on you wherever you go . " you and At just eight years old , Emma was chosen by the sect master of the Tri - Peak Sect and brought into the world of ancient martial arts . Usually , martial practitioners carried an immense sense of pride and rarely saw ordinary people as equals .

Even authoritative politicians , the wealthiest businesspeople , and top superstars didn't matter to Emma . She had always been indifferent to them - especially not someone like Leander , an ordinary high school student . The only people she respected were those with real strength and skill in the martial arts world . Emma didn't care how he'd take it . She was laying it out as it was , wishing he'd get the message and back off from the engagement . Outside , Elias sneered at Leander with contempt .

In the martial arts world , prodigies like him had their pick of prominent figures , with families vying for the association . This illustrated the immense power martial practitioners wield - surpassing wealth and influence . In contrast , Leander appeared " helpless " when Emma insisted on ending the engagement , highlighting their significant emotional gap . 1/3 ... 13:01 Sun , Oct 12 M .. He then shrugged and let out a light , taunting laugh , saying , " Emma , I don't get it - what's the purpose of all this ? I don't even know if I'm engaged with Maeve . " A year ago , Leander had been passing through the wilderness near Candor when he stumbled upon a teenage girl about to jump off a cliff . She was blind and trying to end her life . He had saved her without thinking much of it . That teenage girl was Maeve , Emma's sister . Maeve had been stricken with a rare sickness that left her blind , trapped in darkness , and feeling an overwhelming loss of hope .

With no will to live , she blindly navigated to the cliff , determined to end her life by jumping . After assessing her condition , Leander assured her he could heal her , rekindling her desire to live . Drawing on his medical expertise , he gathered numerous herbs and crafted a remedy that restored her sight . Leander left after dropping Maeve off with the Reyne family in Candor , leaving the medicine behind . He had briefly met Maeve's dad , but there was no mention of any engagement - at least nothing that registered with him .

Essentially , he was completely unaware that he was supposedly engaged to Maeve . " Emma , right ? " Leander stated , reclining comfortably on the couch . " Back then , all I did was bring Maeve home and have a brief conversation with your dad regarding the medicine , and that was it . If he brought up an engagement , I must have missed it . Maybe he did , but I wasn't interested . " " You came all this way to share absurd news about an engagement I was unaware of ? Do you honestly believe that makes sense ? " Emma blinked , taken aback .

Elias , standing behind her , looked just as confused . It seems like Leander honestly doesn't know about the engagement . Did we really go through all this - from Glenwick to Mornwick , even involving the Halloway family - for nothing ?! Emma's eyes narrowed , her frustration growing . She had spent all this time trying to force him to end an engagement that wasn't even on his radar . She felt ridiculous . Leander then got up and tossed the bank card onto the table before Emma . She grabbed it , and he sat back down , sounding indifferent . " Maeve ? She was just someone I happened to help .

To me , saving her was no different than helping a stray animal . It wasn't a favor in my eyes , and I have no intentions of asking anything from your family . Your money means nothing to me . " He waved his hand dismissively . " I've said what I needed to . You can leave now . This is my place ; I can decide who stays and who goes . Please don't disturb me again . Emma thought , her anger rising . She took a deep breath to steady herself . Her eyes grew cold again as she replied , " Whether you truly didn't know or are merely pretending because of your pride , let me be clear - starting today , there is no engagement between you and Maeve . I'll rescind the offer since you refuse the money .

From this point forward , the Reyne family owes you nothing . " As she began to leave , Elias called out from the doorway , " Brat , let me give you some advice . Don't go around thinking you're some hero , and don't even think about forcing Emma's sister into marrying you . If you try that , don't hold me responsible for the consequences . However , being slightly older , he hadn't been included in their elite ranks .

In Astria's martial arts world , most respectfully referred to him as " Mr. Sebastian ." Yet Leander , a nobody with no known martial skills , dismissively spoke to him , calling his strength mediocre . " You can always try me , " Leander challenged , lounging on the couch , showing no intention of getting up and clearly not taking Elias seriously . To Leander , these so - called prodigies of Astria's martial arts world were overrated . Not only Elias but even Emma , Ethan , and Claire - none of them captured his interest . There's more to this world than you know , and it's much bigger than you think ." With that , she disappeared down the hallway . Leander barely gave her words a second thought . He casually shut the door and sprawled out on the couch .

Together , they were dubbed the " golden duo " of the Tri - Peak Sect , earning the respect of even their master . In his mind , Elias had already claimed Emma as his future wife .

He vowed to marry her , to pursue martial mastery together , and one day reach the peak of the martial world . " Emma , I'll clear the way for you at the Mornwick Martial Arts Championship . I'll make sure you're crowned the top martial practitioner in both Mornwick and Listin , " Elias vowed gently . Though their cultivation ranked them among the global elite of the younger generation , none of them detected the hidden presence lurking so close within the woods . " Who's there ?

The newcomer stood with his hands behind his back , radiating such a powerful presence that it seemed he could carry the weight of the world just by standing still . Emma and Elias could only see his back , completely unaware of who he was . Meanwhile , the Jesundese man saw his face , and his expression shifted dramatically .

The newcomer was unexpectedly young , looking no more than eighteen . His expression was indifferent , and his eyes sparkled like stars , devoid of any martial aura and appearing completely ordinary . Yet , the Jesundese man had failed to notice his approach despite being so close . An ace ! With that thought crossing the Jesundese man's mind , his pupils constricted once more . " With that , he swung his hand , and the sword cut through a nearby large rock , splitting it in half . " Their limitations do not reflect my abilities ! " Leander's eyes sparkled like stars , brimming with confidence . " You've taken the lives of countless martial practitioners in Astria . Today , I'll rid the world of you and show you what true power really is ! " " Hmph ! How arrogant ! " With a scoff , the Jesundese man lifted his sword .

A cold gleam flashed under the moonlight as the sword cut through the air , moving so quickly that it was nearly invisible to the naked eye . He thought it impossible for Leander to surpass him . After all , this man was simply too young . Even among the top prodigies in the Astrian martial realm , including Ethan , Claire , and Daphne , he did not regard them as serious threats . How could he fear this unexpectedly appearing young man ? " Watch out !

" With a gasp , Emma instinctively felt the urge to alert Leander , realizing just how quickly the 2/6 13:02 Sun , Oct 12 M Chapter 59 I'll Give You the Chance for Three Strikes Jesundese man's sword could strike . 69 Finished With a swift sweep , the sword aimed to slice open Leander's chest . A fierce killing intent burned in the Jesundese man's eyes as he unleashed his strength , determined to split the young man who had thwarted his plans in half . Clang ! In that instant , a low , murmuring sound wafted through the air .

The Jesundese man's rapid sword stopped in its tracks , immobilized as two slender , fair fingers gripped its sharp edge . With just two fingers , he halted the deadly strike from the Jesundese man ! Emma and Elias were startled as they witnessed the scene . The Jesundese man was equally taken aback , his eyes wide with shock and disbelief . He had trained in swordsmanship with his guru for fifteen years , diligently refining his skills . His cultivation had advanced steadily , and his grasp of swordsmanship was remarkably profound .

Among his peers , he found it difficult to identify a worthy rival . He usually defeated his opponents within three strikes , and none had ever survived the deadly precision and speed of his sword . It was already nearly impossible to track his strikes with the naked eye . Yet , Leander not only anticipated the trajectory but also countered it with just two fingers . How could this be possible ? Frantically , he poured every ounce of his inner strength into his hands , attempting to free the blade from Leander's grip .

But no matter how hard he struggled , Leander's fingers held the sword like iron pincers , not budging an inch . " It seems you have great faith in the sword you wield . I'll give you the chance for three strikes ! " " This is the first strike ! " Leander flashed a wide grin as he released his grip , finally allowing the Jesundese man's sword to break free . The Jesundese man leaped back 30 feet , his expression turning grave . Though he hadn't used his full strength in that sword strike , he had unleashed about 80 % of his power .

The deceptive angle was enough to kill a peak Grandmaster in an instant . However , Leander effortlessly countered it . What an astonishing feat ! To his surprise , the young man before him had strength that rivaled his own , if not surpassed it . How could someone so young wield such power ? Meanwhile , Emma and Elias found it hard to believe what they were witnessing . Leander had not only effortlessly halted the Jesundese man's sword strike but had also dared him to deliver two more . How audacious ! Or was it a reflection of his own remarkable abilities ? 3/6 13:02 Sun , Oct 12 M ...

Chapter 59 T'll Give You the Chance for Three Strikes 69 Finished " Come on , you have two more strikes ! " With one hand behind his back , Leander lightly gestured toward the Jesundese man , a clear act of provocation . " You're courting your own doom ! " The Jesundese man , having spent fifteen years honing his swordsmanship , would not allow anyone to demean his craft . Regardless of Leander's cultivation level , he was determined to fight with all his strength . With a shout of rage , he propelled himself forward , launching off the ground .

He shifted his slash into a thrust aimed straight at Leander's chest . This move , known as Phantom Piercer , was one of his most formidable techniques . With a single strike , it could penetrate the enemy's heart and ensure a guaranteed kill . Clang ! Again , a low , murmuring sound wafted through the air as his sword met the same fate as before , securely gripped between Leander's fingers . The Jesundese man stood frozen , his expression locked in shock as he blankly stared at the unfolding events . Emma and Elias were equally stunned into silence . " That was your second strike .

You still have one more chance . Don't let me down ! " Leander withdrew his fingers once again , but this time the Jesundese man didn't immediately step back . He stood frozen , dazed , struggling to make sense of what had just occurred . Had he countered one of my formidable moves again ? " No , this is impossible ! " His eyes widened in shock , his aura flaring to life as he directed every ounce of his inner strength into the sword . The once pure white blade now shimmered with a mystical reddish hue . " What incredible inner strength !

" Emma and Elias were taken aback , realizing that the ability to channel inner strength into a weapon and change its hue demonstrated a level of skill far superior to theirs . " Astrian , it doesn't matter who you are ! I'll kill you ! " The Jesundese man let out a roar that echoed through the skies . He stomped the ground and 116 13:02 Sun , Oct 12 M ... Chapter 59 I'll Give You the Chance for Three Strikes 69 Finished propelled himself several feet into the air , a vortex of swirling energy gathering around him as he raised his sword high . " Windblade Slash !

" The sword came crashing down toward Leander's head . In that moment , the Jesundese man poured all his strength into the strike , convinced that it was the most powerful strike he had ever unleashed . Even a Martial Sovereign might find it difficult to withstand . He aimed to make the Astrian , who had belittled his swordsmanship , suffer the consequences . Clang ! A clear crack resonated through the woods . The Jesundese man was paralyzed , gripping his sword with both hands , his gaze unwavering as he stared ahead in disbelief . Emma and Elias ' eyes widened in shock .

They opened their mouths to speak but found themselves at a loss for words . Leander's slender index finger pressed against the sharp edge of the sword . Despite the Jesundese man's powerful strike that had tested his limits , Leander remained unmoved , with not a single drop of blood on his finger . " Is this truly the height of swordsmanship from Jesund ? " Sighing and shaking his head , Leander withdrew his hand . The Jesundese man stood motionless , unable to react .

Leander , with his back to Emma and Elias , spoke in a chilling tone , " I had no intention of rescuing either of you , but I couldn't allow an Astrian martial practitioner to fall to a Jesundese . Now that I've stepped in to save you , you'll need to repay me by helping deal with his corpse ! " With that , Leander walked into the woods , vanishing from sight without glancing back . Emma and Elias had never seen his face and had no clue who their mysterious savior was . Still , they were utterly perplexed . The Jesundese man remained standing before them .

How could they possibly talk about dealing with his corpse ? Pooof ! Just as their bewilderment grew , a spurt of blood burst forth from the Jesundese man's chest . They were horrified to see a deep laceration that spanned almost a foot from his left shoulder to the right side of his torso . Clink ! 5/6 13:02 Sun , Oct 12 M ... Chapter 60 Tommy Dunphy , the King of Southridge 69 Finished " Incredible ! " After standing frozen for a moment , Emma snapped back to reality , her heart racing as she exclaimed in astonishment . The Jesundese man , a half - Sovereign , showcased extraordinary swordsmanship . His rapid , powerful strikes overwhelmed their combined forces , defeating them in just three moves . Even if Ethan , Claire , Daphne , and the others had been in their position , they might have lasted longer , but their chances of victory would remain slim . Out of nowhere , a young man in white appeared .

With an impressively youthful voice , he effortlessly halted the Jesundese man's three strikes using only his fingers . Channeling his internal strength into a blade , he pierced the Jesundese man's chest , killing him instantly . The display of power was nothing short of astonishing ! " A Martial Sovereign ! He must be a Martial Sovereign ! There's no doubt about it ! " Elias narrowed his eyes slightly , recognizing that only a true Martial Sovereign could so easily defeat a half - Sovereign . " There are no Martial Sovereigns in Mornwick .

Even the head of the Tarlyn Guild has only reached the peak of Grandmaster level . That man sounded very young and definitely isn't the head of the Tarlyn Guild . In Listin , only my guru and Emperor Jade are Martial Sovereigns . He isn't my guru . As for Emperor Jade , he has remained at Shire Peak for years , not coming down since his battle with Gareth . Most Martial Sovereigns in Astria focus on their own territories and wouldn't easily venture into someone else's domain . Even if he's a Martial Sovereign from another state , we've never seen one this young ! Who on earth is he ?

" Elias pondered the situation for a while , but it still didn't make sense . That man seemed to have materialized out of thin air , leaving no trace of his presence . Emma blinked , feeling an odd familiarity in his voice , as if she had heard it not long ago . Furthermore , that white attire looked somewhat familiar too . " Hmm ? " A face abruptly appeared in her mind , making her expression shift drastically . " Emma , did someone come to mind ? " Elias asked . " I can't shake the feeling that the man we just saw was the one we confronted about the engagement !

" Emma replied , shocked by her own words . Leander was far too young . How could he possibly be a Martial Sovereign ? How could he defeat a half - Sovereign so effortlessly ? The aura emanating from that man was transcendent , far beyond anything Leander could possess . 1/4 13:02 Sun , Oct 12 ... Chapter 60 Tommy Dunphy the king of Southridge 2 #Finished " Emma , what nonsense are you spouting ? Do you really think that kid could be a Martial Sovereign ? Do you honestly believe an eighteen - year - old Martial Sovereign exists ?

" Elias shook his head immediately , unable to accept what Emma had just said . He would find it easier to believe the Earth was flat than to accept that Leander could be a Martial Sovereign . Emma also found the idea ridiculous , though the man's voice sounded eerily like Leander's . However , recalling his shabby appearance and cheap rental , she shook her head , trying to dismiss the thought . Still , the image of that white figure lingered in her mind , refusing to fade .

At his modest rental , Leander opened the door and unexpectedly bumped into Madeline , who had just come back from the bar . " Leander , did you just get back ? " Madeline asked curiously , noting that it was already after one in the morning . " I was feeling thirsty , and there weren't any drinks in the fridge , so I went downstairs to pick some up , " Leander said , lifting the drinks in one hand while helping Madeline with her backpack . Madeline took a shower , changed into fresh clothes , and sat on the couch with her damp hair draped over her shoulders .

" Leander , Yvette and Ginny came by the bar tonight . They're planning to visit Water Paradise in Ascendia this weekend . I heard there are some exciting new attractions . Do you want to join us ? " Leander , lounging on the couch with a can of soda , instantly shook his head at the suggestion . " I'm not really interested in those kinds of places ! " Throughout the years , he had ventured through numerous locations , encountering life-threatening moments time and again . What thrilling or dangerous sights hadn't he already experienced ?

A basic water park wasn't enough to capture his interest . Additionally , Cumus was arranging for the prominent figures of the Northridge Alliance to meet at Maplebrook Manor . His goal was to assert his dominance and establish control over the alliance before addressing matters concerning Madeline . With everything set , he would head to Tardide Valley to plant Silverleaf , a crucial component of his plans . " Leander , to be honest , Yvette is the one who asked me to ask you . " Madeline paused for a moment before continuing . 2/4 13:02 Sun , Oct 12 M ...

Chapter 60 Tommy Dunphy , the King of Southridge 69 Finished " Yvette ? " Leander asked , slightly surprised . He hadn't expected that arrogant woman to think of him . " I'm not going . You all enjoy yourselves . I have some matters to attend to . " He had no interest in that woman whatsoever . If she weren't Ms. Hollis ' daughter , they would barely interact . " Could you just come and keep me company ? " Madeline smiled playfully , her eyes sparkling with mischief . " You little rascal , are you trying to trick me ?

" Leander chuckled lightly , realizing that he likely wouldn't have the chance to see Madeline again for a while after this week . Feeling a bit soft - hearted , he agreed . He considered it an opportunity to have some fun with her while upholding his responsibility as an older brother . Leander received a message from Frankie after class , four days before the weekend , informing him that Gumus had already gathered the prominent figures from various cities in Northridge at Maplebrook Manor . Upon arriving at Maplebrook Manor , Leander didn't head directly to the meeting room .

Instead , he sought out the list of prominent figures attending the gathering . ' Charles Thompson from Swinford , Robert Miller from Eldoria , Joseph Harris from Floravine , Thomas Martinez from Aqualis . ' Leander scanned the list , noting over 50 names , each representing a significant figure from major and minor cities across Northridge , ruling over their respective territories . Some even had deep - rooted connections within the counties and townships under the major cities , reflecting their substantial influence .

The assembly of these individuals led to the formation of a powerful alliance across Northridge , a formidable source of strength . " Very good ! " Leander nodded , feeling satisfied . With these people supporting him , his ambition of establishing a business empire would become significantly easier and more realistic . " I won't be attending this meeting . Simply act as my spokesperson and express my intentions . Inform them that partnering with me will bring rapid success and double their assets . It's that simple ! If anyone disobeys , just kick them out !

If anyone stirs up trouble , don't hold back ! " 3/4 13:02 Sun , Oct 12 M ... Chapter 60 Tommy Dunphy , the King of Southridge 69 Finished His tone was icy , leaving Frankie , who stood beside him , secretly impressed . Leander's commanding presence radiated the qualities of a natural - born leader . After Frankie left with Leander's instructions , Leander found a small , private room and immersed himself in a comfortable bath to unwind . Just as Frankie was about to enter the meeting room , a sudden disturbance arose at the entrance of Maplebrook Manor .

Trouble appeared to be brewing , as a substantial group entered , their numbers quite noteworthy . Frankie's expression darkened as he wondered who would dare to stir up trouble in his territory . He stepped outside with Jamero and the others , confronting a group of men dressed in black . The leader was a tall , middle - aged man in a long coat , holding an imported cigar . His heroic appearance and commanding presence distinguished him from the rest . Upon spotting Frankie , the man flicked his cigar and released a cloud of smoke .

" Frankie , I heard you're hosting some kind of alliance meeting in Northridge today . I'm Tommy , and I'm very interested in attending . Are you really going to keep me out ? " Frankie's eyes widened in surprise . " You are Tommy Dunphy ? " This well - known figure from Southridge had surprisingly appeared in Ravenridge !
