Chapter 2229 - 2229 Competition Between the Divine Bachelors, Mingyue Wuxia's Anticipation

Many Divine Bachelors and Divine Maidens gathered at Nine Ways Mountain.

The top ten Divine Bachelors and Divine Maidens of the leaderboards attracted the most attention.

The first place on the Divine Maiden Leaderboard, Mingyue Wuxia, descended from the sky with faint Immortal Sparks around her. There was even a faint image of a moon glimmering behind her.

She looked like a moon deity.

She attracted most of the attention with her arrival.

It was not only because she was ranked first on the Divine Maiden Leaderboard but because she was also a beautiful lady, and her beauty was unrivaled among all the other Divine Bachelors and Divine Maidens.

“Mingyue Wuxia is indeed outstanding.”

“Yeah.”

“I wonder how beautiful she is under the tulle veil. If I can have a glimpse of her, my trip would be worth it.”

“I heard many tried to have a glimpse of her true face, but no one has succeeded yet. Some even died trying.”

“Know your own strength. This woman isn’t simple.”

A heated discussion sparked following Mingyue Wuxia’s arrival.

A few of the top ten Divine Bachelors were intrigued by Mingyue Wuxia, and their eyes burned with desire.

The more beautiful a woman, the more it would arouse a man’s desire to conquer her.

Mingyue Wuxia, the first place on the Divine Maiden Leaderboard, aroused the proud and arrogant Divine Bachelors.

“Mingyue Wuxia makes the women I’ve fooled around with cheap and filthy. They’re nothing compared to her.”

The fifth place on the Divine Bachelor Leaderboard, Divine Bachelor Fengyue, stared eagerly at Mingyue Wuxia despite him having two other Divine Maidens in his arms.

Those two Divine Maidens were unhappy with his reaction.

“Mingyue Wuxia is first on the Divine Maiden Leaderboard, not the first on the cultivation leaderboard. If we fight, she might not be able to beat me.”

“I agree.”

“Girls, calm down.” Divine Bachelor Fengyue calmed the girls in his arms.

He said with a chuckle, “Mingyue Wuxia is the strongest among the younger generations from the Heavenly Human Sanctuary and a legitimate seed for becoming a Monarch, a Monarch Seed if you may.”

A Monarch Seed was used to describe people who had a high chance of breaking through to the Monarch Realm.

Such possibilities were less than one-tenth.

The two girls were silenced immediately.

They, too, had the potential to break through to the Monarch Realm, but the odds were one in a thousand. They were far behind compared to Mingyue Wuxia.

There were many Human Sanctuaries across the Infiniverse, but only three of the strongest were publicly recognized.

They were the Heavenly Human Sanctuary, the Heavenly Buddhist Pure Lands, and Manifa Destiny Sect.

The three Human Sanctuaries were some of the top among the Monarch-class forces and had a long history.

They had existed for countless eras, so no one knew how many Monarchs there were.

As the strongest of the younger generation from the Heavenly Human Sanctuary, no one knew how capable or how many trump cards Mingyue Wuxia had under her sleeve.

“Mingyue Wuxia is indeed outstanding.”

High up in the sky, several figures shrouded themselves in Immortal Sparks.

They were the Human Guardians from different parts of the Infiniverse.

They were the founder of the human race in their respective universes, like Nuwa in the Pan Gu Universe.

“I heard the Heavenly Human Sanctuary gave her one of the Nine Humanity Treasures, the Moon God Ring. Is that true?” one of the Human Guardians said with a smile.

The Human Guardian from the Heavenly Human Sanctuary chuckled. “The Nine Humanity Treasures are precious. They’re not simply given away.”

He did not provide a clear answer, but the other Human Guardians tacitly understood what it meant.

“I wonder if we can see all the Nine Humanity Treasures gathered in this era,” one of the Human Guardians said.

“It has been many eras, and the Human Ancestral Land has opened many times, yet no one has ever gathered all nine of them. It’s not that simple.”

The other Human Guardians did not have high hopes for it.

Then, a young man stepped out and said, “Everyone here is an elite of the human race, and now that we’ve gathered, it would be a waste if we simply sit back and watch. Why don’t we mentally spar for a bit?”

“Mental sparring isn’t as fun as real sparring!”

A buff man stepped out, releasing a domineering Grand Dao aura. “I’m Liu Ruohuo. Who dares to challenge me?”

The aura he released was powerful, and it almost was at the level of the Grand Dao Supreme Honorable realm.

The others reacted with a bitter look. Even for them, it was rare that they could reach the Grand Dao Supreme Honorable Realm.

“Haha. Brother Liu, you’re right. Let’s spar!”

A white-robed young man stepped out.

His aura was as strong as Liu Ruohuo’s.

The man was Leng Xiaotian, ranked eighth on the Divine Bachelor Leaderboard.

“Haha! Nice. Let’s fight!”

The two of them sparred, and their auras were amazing.

However, Leng Xiaotian soon lost the upper hand as Liu Ruoho overpowered him.

He might have ranked higher on the Divine Bachelor Leaderboard, but he was weaker than Liu Ruohuo in terms of cultivation.

“Let me have a try!”

A man in yellow robes stepped out.

He exuded a domineering aura as if he was an emperor.

“Ao Qingtian, the crown prince of the Imperial Dynasty!”

“The Imperial Dynasty is only second to the top three Human Sanctuaries. I wonder how powerful the crown prince is.”

“We shall find out soon.”

Ao Qingtian and Liu Ruohuo’s spar was similarly astonishing.

High up in the sky, Mingyue Wuxia watched the battle happening down there, looking disappointed.

The Divine Bachelors were not up to her standards.

As the first on the Divine Maiden Leaderboard, she had similarly high pride and standards.

It had been years, but no one in the current era could capture her attention.

The Nine Ways Mountains held the gathering to summon all the Divine Bachelors and Divine Maidens to make acquaintance with each other.

She joined because she wanted to see if someone in this era could rival her. However, she was disappointed.

The top ten Divine Bachelors were not as strong as her.

Only two other people caught her attention.

One was Divine Bachelor Fengyue.

He might be flirtatious, but his cultivation level was high. He was already at the Grand Dao Supreme Honorable Realm. He was also from the Manifa Destiny Sect, one of the three most powerful Human Sanctuaries.

The second one would be Gu Chan.

He came from the Heavenly Buddhist Pure Lands. The Buddhist light around him made him look holy.

“These two are Monarch Seeds, but they’re not worthy of my full attention,” Mingyue Wuxia thought to herself.

Another name popped up in her mind: Chu Kuangren, the first place on the Divine Bachelor Leaderboard.

Would he be able to match her?

“Wuxia, what are you thinking?” Lu Wuheng asked when he noticed the concerned look on Mingyue Wuxia’s face.

“Is Chu Kuangren coming?” Mingyue Wuxia asked.

Lu Wuheng almost lost his smile.

He was concerned about her, but she was concerned about another man instead.

It sparked jealousy in him.

“I think he is,” Lu Wuheng said with uncertainty.

He heard that the organizer did invite Chu Kuangren.

“I look forward to it,” Mingyue Wuxia said with anticipation.

Lu Wuheng smiled, but deep down, he viewed Chu Kuangren, whom he had not met before, as his arch-nemesis.
