Chapter 2251 - 2251 Breaking the Formation Easily, Huang Clan Leader Attacks, Getting Wine Honorable To Help

The Huang Clan Leader arrived above the Pan Gu Sect, and the power of a Pseudo-Monarch erupted.

However, Chu Kuangren calmly faced the man. The dark golden pupils of his showed no emotions at all, as if he was an emotionless god.

“Leave him to me. The others can go after the rest of the Pan Gu Sect,” the Huang Clan Leader said coldly.

“Got it.”

Yinglong Feng and Tianshen Liuli nodded. They were heavily injured by Chu Kuangren, but they were still capable of handling the rest of the Pan Gu Sect.

“Chu Kuangren, today you will die, and the Pan Gu Sect will be leveled to the ground. Anything related to you will be erased from the face of this universe,” the Huang Clan Leader said coldly.

Several cultivators from the Heavenly Formation Palace had Chu Kuangren surrounded by a powerful formation.

As soon as the Huang Clan Leader said that, the formation was activated.

Runes and restriction seals appeared within the formation.

Streaks of mystical light exploded into a million arrows, raining down at Chu Kuangren from every direction.

“Hmph!”

Chu Kuangren grunted coldly and released his Great Dao energy.

The countless arrows were instantly dissolved.

“If this is your ultimate attack, it’s quite disappointing,” Chu Kuangren said.

“This is just the start!”

The leader of the formation masters scoffed. Then, countless shifting runes appeared around him, and the Five Elements energy appeared.

Metal, wood, water, fire, and earth energies rumbled across the realm.

Multiple conjurations were formed as the energies continued to surge.

There were blazing flames that scorched the earth, tidal waves that flooded the land, and armies that marched with deadly weapons.

Despite that, Chu Kuangren remained calm in the face of the conjurations, not bothered by them at all. Instead, he channeled the Infernal Dragon energy in his body.

Time energy erupted instantly, and all the conjurations were frozen.

Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign forward, activating Sword Twenty-three. The sharp and vast sword qi was shot at the formation's weakest point.

The formation masters were frightened.

“Bang!”

Following a loud explosion, the powerful formation was shattered.

All the formation masters were blasted away with blood gushing from their mouths.

“How is this possible? How did he spot our formation's weak point with just a glance? How?”

The leader gasped in disbelief.

“Don’t forget that I’m first on the Formation Leaderboard. Using formation against me? Don’t you think you people are too overconfident?” Chu Kuangren said.

He spun the Descendant Self Sword in his hand and unleashed tens of thousands of sword qi from the tip of its blade.

Countless formation masters were killed on the spot.

“Chu Kuangren, don’t get ahead of yourself!” a frosty voice said.

It was Dai Tian!

The former first place on the Weaponsmith Leaderboard had joined the fray.

He channeled the Hongmeng Supreme Treasure in his hand, and it rapidly grew in size. In the blink of an eye, it grew into the size of a mountain.

Its weight was far heavier than it looked. It was as if it held the weight of a universe inside it.

The seal crashed down, crushing the void in its way.

Chu Kuangren did thrust the Descendant Self Sword upward.

The sword qi blasted upward as if it wanted to penetrate a hole in the sky.

“Bang!”

The mighty blast sent the powerful seal flying.

Dai Tian caught the seal, but the seal had gone dark, and there were cracks on its surface.

It hurt him to lose another Hongmeng Supreme Treasure, but at the same time, he was shocked as well.

He did not expect Chu Kuangren to destroy a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure with just one strike.

“Chu Kuangren, let me have a taste of your powers!”

The Huang Clan Leader finally attacked.

He reached his hand out into the void, and a burst of dragon qi surged into the sky, forming a massive dragon claw containing Great Daoist law energy.

Chu Kuangren dared not be careless against the dragon claw.

“Sword Twenty-four!”

When the ultimate attack of the Sword Dao was cast, a giant sword shadow slashed forward with indomitable power, cutting even the void.

The moment the sword shadow and dragon claw clashed, a burst of light shone.

The tremendous explosion pushed Chu Kuangren back. The Great Daoist law energy hit the dragon-scaled armor that was formed using the Infernal Dragon energy.

Fortunately, he had a powerful physical body, and with the dragon-scaled armor, he was barely damaged by the blast.

“You’re not strong enough,” Chu Kuangren said to the Huang Clan Leader.

“Oh? Again!”

The Huang Clan Leader raised his brows. Upset by the provocation, he no longer held back the Great Dao energy in him and channeled it to the limit, hurling another palm strike forward.

This time, the dragon qi took the form of a real dragon.

Chu Kuangren used the Dragon Tribe cultivation technique to counter the attack.

A massive dragon shadow was blasted forward.

The clash of the two dragons caused a burst of energy waves that shattered the void and dispersed the clouds.

Before the blinding blast faded, the Huang Clan Leader followed up with another attack.

He had dragon blood in his body and had a close relation to the Dragon Tribe, so he could use all kinds of powerful Dragon Tribe cultivation techniques at his will.

All the Dragon Tribe cultivation techniques and divine abilities lit up the sky.

Some of the attacks were even stronger than the Dragon Warlords themselves.

In addition to his Great Daoist law energy, his power was almost boundless, and he could overpower Chu Kuangren.

“Chu Kuangren, I thought you were an arrogant bastard. What now? Can’t fight back anymore?” the Huang Clan Leader said coldly, and his lips curled into a vicious grin.

In the meantime, Dai Tian was holding multiple treasures, waiting for his chance to strike and deliver the lethal blow.

The Pan Gu Sect, on the other hand, was fighting multiple battles against different forces as well.

Even though the Pan Gu Sect fought fiercely, the coalition army was not weak. After being temporarily overpowered, they quickly turned the tide of the battle as more Supreme Gods and Supreme Saints joined the battle.

Coupled with Tianshen Liuliu and Yinlong Feng, the two powerful Supreme Honorables listed on the Supreme Honorable Leaderboard, the Pan Gu Sect swiftly fell into a disadvantage.

“Haha! Pan Gu Sect, you guys are too weak!”

“You guys can’t beat the coalition army!”

“Die!”

The Three Clarities, Fuxi, and the Black Heaven Nine Stars were fighting back with their best.

They glanced at Chu Kuangren, who was being suppressed by the Huang Clan Leader, and were worried about him. However, it was that one second of distraction that made them fall even more into a disadvantage.

“Everyone, believe in Master!” Lan Yu said.

Upon hearing her words of encouragement, everyone took a deep breath and concentrated on the battle.

They should concentrate on protecting the Pan Gu Sect instead of being worried about Chu Kuangren.

“Come on!”

“I don’t care how strong you people are, but we will never give up this easily!”

Deep inside the Pan Gu Sect, Li Ju arrived at a room.

Before him was a middle-aged man with white hair and a beard.

The man had a jar of wine in his hand, and he looked tipsy. “This is good wine. This is good wine!”

“Wine Honorable.” Li Jun bowed.

The Wine Honorable glanced at him and said, “The Pan Gu Sect is under siege. Why are you here instead of fighting off the enemies?”

“I’m here to ask for your help, Wine Honorable,” Li Ju said with a smile.

“I am nothing to the Pan Gu Sect. I drank a jar of A Fleeting Dream from that little guy, but he also took something from me. It’s strictly a trade. We are equals, and neither of us owe each other anything,” the Wine Honorable said with a smile.

Li Jun smiled and waved his sleeve, revealing ten jars of wine.

The Wine Honorable’s eyes widened when he saw the jars.

Chapter 2252 - 2252 Make The Battlefield Drunk, Wine Honorable Protects Pan Gu Sect, Heaven-devouring Technique Again

“T-This...”

“You’re right, Wine Honorable. These are ten jars of A Fleeting Dream,” Li Jun said with a smile.

The Wine Honorable gulped greedily. “Damn that little one. I can’t believe he has that many jars of such delicious wine! He lied that there was only one, but then he took out another jar. Now, he has ten of these?”

Only heaven knew how much he liked A Fleeting Dream.

He had half a jar left, and he could not bear to finish it in one gulp.

“You want to use ten jars of A Fleeting Dream in exchange for my help? But you guys are overwhelmed by numbers. Even if I join the fight, the tables might not turn as well,” the Wine Honorable said after a sip of wine.

If it were just one Monarch-class force, he was not afraid. He could fight even a Monarch for the ten jars of A Fleeting Dream.

However, there was a coalition army at the Pan Gu Sect's door, and most of them were Monarch-class forces.

Furthermore, there was more than one Monarch among them.

He might be ranked first on the Supreme Honorable Leaderboard, but his hands were tied, and he could do nothing to turn the situation around.

“You don't need to defeat all of them. The Sect Leader says the forces are all after him. All you need to protect the Pan Gu Sect. As for how to defeat the sieging army, he will have a way to deal with that,” Li Ju said.

“Oh? Interesting.”

The Wine Honorable was quite a surprise. If he had limited options, how was Chu Kuangren bold enough to stand against that many Monarch-class forces?

It intrigued him.

“I would like to find out how capable that little guy is.”

The Wine Honorable waved his sleeve and kept the ten jars of A Fleeting Dream.

...

The Pan Gu Sect was still fighting the sieging army, and they were slowly losing their ground.

“It surprises me that you guys can hold on for this long, but it’s time to end this,” Tianshen Liuli bellowed as he released his Great Dao energy.

Celestial Dinve Light shone brightly and blasted the surrounding Black Heaven Nine Stars away.

Tianshen Liuli gathered the Celestial Divine Light in his hand and shot a beam at Jue Wushen. When the beam shot out, it penetrated even the void.

“Wushen!”

Lan Yu and the others were horrified.

At the critical moment, a water arrow shot from a certain direction and hit the burst of Celestial Divine Light precisely.

“Kabaam!”

The Celestial Divine Light shattered.

The water arrow broke, and the fragrance of alcohol filled the battlefield.

“Is that wine?” Tianshen Liuli frowned.

Someone blocked his attack with wine. Who could be that capable?

‘Wait a minute, wine?’

Tianshen Liuli’s eyes widened in fear as realization struck him.

A person emerged from the deepest part of the Pan Gu Sect.

It was a man in green robes who stood out from the others. He had Great Dao energy swirling around him, and it carried the fragrance of wine that made people feel as if they were swimming in a sea of wine.

When Tianshen Liuli took a closer look at the man, it put a heavy look on his face.

“It’s you, Wine Honorable!”

The mention of the name caused an uproar across the battlefield.

The name was an unusual one because it was ranked first on the Supreme Honorable Leaderboard.

The man was revered and respected by all in the Great Hongment Universe.

“Yes, it’s me.”

The Wine Honorable nodded and swung his sleeve, blanketing the entire battlefield with a stream of alcohol qi.

All the cultivators were instantly drunk.

Even the Great Dao Supreme Honorables felt tipsy.

The whole battlefield was drunk!

Everyone stopped fighting and tried to resist the drunkenness. They looked at the Wine Honorable with a blush and blurry eyes.

How unusual!

It was as expected of the first on the Supreme Honorable Leaderboard.

“Wine Honorable, what’s the meaning of this?”

Tianshen Liuli stared at the Wine Honorable grimly. He was one of the few who could keep his mind clear.

However, Wine Honorable was not bothered by the man’s fierce glare. He said, “I’m protecting the folks of the Pan Gu Sect. If you want to kill them, over my dead body.”

“Wine Honorable, are you standing against us? Think this through. There are so many of us here, and there’s only one of you. Can you fight us all?”

“Why don’t we give it a try?” The Wine Honorable chuckled.

Tianshen Liuli’s eyes gleamed. He looked at the people of the Pan Gu Sect and then at Chu Kuangren, who was being suppressed by the Huang Clan Leader. He pondered.

It seemed like the Wine Honorable was only protecting the cultivators of the Pan Gu Sect and did not care about Chu Kuangren’s situation.

“I see. Chu Kuangren, you know you’re our biggest target, so you asked the Wine Honorable to protect your people instead of helping you,” Tianshen Liuli muttered.

If the Wine Honorable was not helping Chu Kuangren, the others did not have a valid reason to fight the Wine Honorable for the sake of the Pan Gu Sect.

The man was feared even by Monarchs.

“Chu Kuangren, I didn’t expect you to ask the Wine Honorable for help. What a surprise,” the Huang Clan Leader said.

He, too, was surprised by the Wine Honorable’s appearance.

However, he then attacked Chu Kuangren with a fierce attack.

The cultivators of the Pan Gu Sect looked at the Wine Honorable.

“Please help the Sect Leader, Senior,” Jue Wushen said.

The Wine Honorable yawned and said, “That little guy only asked me to protect you guys. He did not ask me for help.”

If he were to help Chu Kuangren, it would mean standing against all the forces.

Ten jars of A Fleeting Dream was not enough for that. Chu Kuangren would need at least ten more to start the negotiation for his help.

The Wine Honorable pondered as he looked at Chu Kuangren with anticipation.

“Come on, ask for my help. If you’re willing to increase the price, everything is still on the table,” he thought to himself.

“No way...”

The Pan Gu Sect’s cultivators were disheartened by his answer.

They looked at Chu Kuangren gratefully and also worriedly.

The battle did not pause for one second.

“Chu Kuangren, you’re quite the Sect Leader. I don’t know what you offered to the Wine Honorable for him to help, but it must be a hefty price to pay.

“However, that doesn’t change a thing because you’re our biggest target! With you dead, we can take care of the Pan Gu Sect slowly,” the Huang Clan Leader said coldly.

Chu Kuangren was the pillar of support of the Pan Gu Sect. With him down, the Pan Gu Sect would break in no time.

“Baam!”

The Huang Clan Leader threw a punch filled with dragon qi at him.

However, Chu Kuangren was not overpowered this time. The Infernal Dragon energy surged as he narrowed his eyes.

Time stopped once again!

The attack's power was halved by stopping time, and Chu Kuangren swung his sleeve to dissolve the remaining dragon qi.

“Now that the Pan Gu Sect is fine, I should take things more seriously,” he said.

Then, a massive suction force erupted from his body.

The spiritual qi across a hundred million kilometers were sucked into his body like a whirlpool.

It was the Heaven-devouring Technique!

With that, Chu Kuangren's energy surged and reached a terrifying new height.

In just a blink of an eye, he possessed unrivaled power that could crush galaxies.

“This power...”

The Huang Clan Leader’s expression turned grave.

He attacked with his domineering dragon qi again.

This time, Chu Kuangren simply slapped the attack away, crushing the dragon claw into pieces.

It did not hurt him at all.

“You’ve had your fun just now.” Chu Kuangren looked at the Huang Clan Leader and said coldly.

Chapter 2253 - 2253 Overpowering The Huang Clan Leader, Dai Tian’s Tactic, It’s Mine Now

“Tempest King’s Heaven-devouring Technique?”

He heard of that particular technique before, but when he saw it with his own eyes, he realized it was much more terrifying than he expected. Chu Kuangren’s aura was so powerful that even he feared it.

“Even if you...”

Before he could finish, Chu Kuangren disappeared from his sight. Chu Kuangren was so fast that he almost failed to catch it.

At the next moment, Chu Kuangren appeared before him with a kick to his chest.

“Bang!”

The terrifying kick landed precisely on the Huang Clan Leader’s chest. He felt like his ribs were shattered, and he was sent flying away like a meteor.

“Bang! Bang! Bang!”

He crashed through a dozen mountains and ended up in rubble.

He lay there with blood spewing from his mouth, looking disheartened at the fact that Chu Kuangren’s one kick sent him flying!

Then, a terrifying energy fluctuation came from above him.

Chu Kuangren appeared above him again and unleashed the Infernal Dragon energy.

A massive fireball was hurled down from the sky as if the sun was falling.

Following a deafening blast that shook the land, a massive crater appeared. The surroundings were scorched and charred.

Amid the ashes, a loud shout sounded.

“Chu Kuangren, take this!”

The Huang Clan Leader flew out from the rubbles and released his Great Dao energy that contained Daoist law energy.

Although not as strong as a Monarch, he was far stronger than a common Grand Dao Supreme Honorable.

The energy transformed into a dragon shadow and attempted to flood Chu Kuangren from all directions. It was the secret technique of the Dragon Tribe, Absolute Thousand Dragon Roar!

“I’m better at the Dragon Tribe’s cultivation technique than you.”

He, too, used the Absolute Thousand Dragon Roar!

“Silence Realm!”

Chu Kuangren’s dark golden eyes gleamed, and the realm was silenced instantly.

The Huang Clan Leader’s expression shifted once more when he sensed the second attack, but it was too late.

Chu Kuangren appeared in front of him with a punch to the chest. He hit the Huang Clan Leader in the same spot he had kicked earlier.

With the punch hitting his chest, the Huang Clan Leader's broken ribs shattered and caved in.

However, that was not the end.

Chu Kuangren revealed the Descendant Self Sword and slashed it at the Huang Clan Leader. Tens of thousands of sword qi gushed out, cutting the Huang Clan Leader's body brutally.

Even with the Great Dao energy's protection, the Huang Clan Leader's body was instantly covered with deep cuts, making him a bloody man.

"The Great Daoist law energy is indeed difficult to destroy," Chu Kuangren muttered.

One's body would fuse with the Daoist law once their cultivation was in the Embodier Realm, and in the Grand Dao Realm, one's body would fuse with the Great Dao.

In order to completely kill a Grand Dao cultivator, the Great Dao in the opponent's body must be destroyed.

Even a common Grand Dao Supreme Honorable with multiple Great Daos would be destroyed after taking Chu Kuangren's attacks, but the Huang Clan Leader's Great Dao already had the Daoist law.

It was difficult to destroy the Great Dao with Daoist law.

Chu Kuangren did a spin kick, kicking the Huang Clan Leader away once more. The Huang Clan Leader crashed onto the ground in a wretched state.

Even though he survived the attack, he was fuming.

He quickly channeled the Great Dao energy into his body to recover his injuries. He said as he clenched his teeth, “Chu Kuangren, I will kill you!”

“Bang!”

He flew up into the air and cast all kinds of Dragon Tribe cultivation techniques, but the attacks were all dissolved by Chu Kuangren.

With the boost from the Heaven-devouring Technique and the Infernal Dragon energy, Chu Kuangren’s energy level surged to a terrifying height. He was able to overpower the Huang Clan Leader.

“Swoosh!”

Then, the Huang Clan Leader summoned a set of armor over his body. It was a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure, and with it, his defense was boosted.

The two of them continued to exchange attacks without backing off.

A streak of light soared across the sky.

The spear was locked onto Chu Kuangren, but Chu Kuangren caught it. At a closer look, it was just a Chaos Supreme Treasure.

The one who hurled the spear was actually Dai Tian.

“Hmph. Trying to hurt me with just a Chaos Supreme Treasure? Are you stupid?” Chu Kuangren said with the spear in his hand.

“Hehe.”

Dai Tian chuckled wickedly.

Suddenly, the spear in Chu Kuangren’s hand released a blind light, and a burst of energy exploded from it.

The Chaos Supreme Treasure self-destructed!

The terrifying explosion caught Chu Kuangren and enveloped him whole.

“Chu Kuangren, you’re too arrogant. Even if it’s just a Chaos Supreme Treasure, you will surely be damaged.”

Dai Tian cackled loudly.

“What’s so funny?”

“Whoosh!”

A blast of Great Dao energy swept across the sky, shattering the energy in the sky.

Dai Tian’s wicked grin was frozen. “How is this possible?”

Chu Kuangren stood in the air with a layer of dragon-scaled armor glimmering with Immortal Sparks on his body. The explosion from the Chaos Supreme Treasure did not leave a scratch on his armor.

“Damn it. If one Chaos Supreme Treasure isn’t enough, what about ten, twenty, or thirty?” Dai Tian roared and did something outrageous.

He swung his sleeve and revealed all the Chaos Supreme Treasures he hid in his storage ring. All of them floated in the air with a dangerous glow around them.

There were swords, sabers, spears, and all kinds of strange weapons.

It was without a doubt that all of them were Chaos Supreme Treasures.

Everyone else who saw the scene was astonished.

“Is he going to detonate all those treasures?”

“I think he is.”

“What the hell? He’s indeed the former first place on the Weaponsmith Leaderboard. How does he have so many treasures? A common Grand Dao Supreme Honorable doesn’t even have one Chaos Supreme Treasure, yet he wants to detonate so many.”

“He’s going to detonate them all!”

Everyone was in awe.

The Huang Clan Leader laughed. “Nicely done!”

“Sky Constraint Chain! Go!”

Dai Tian performed a series of hand seals, activating one of the Premium Chaos Supreme Treasures.

It was a chain weapon, and it instantly shackled Chu Kuangren's movements.

"Die!" Dai Tian shouted and then activated all the Chaos Supreme Treasures he controlled.

All the Chaos Supreme Treasures shone brightly and flew toward Chu Kuangren with tremendous energy.

With so many Chaos Supreme Treasures exploding, the energy from the explosion could kill almost everyone under the Monarch Realm.

Chu Kuangren was restrained, and there was nowhere for him to escape.

The cultivators of the Pan Gu Sect were worried when they saw the scene.

"Hmph!"

Chu Kuangren scoffed.

He released a strange energy fluctuation that caught all the detonating Chaos Supreme Treasures, freezing them in the air.

Dai Tian realized he had lost control of the treasures.

“What’s going on?”

An unknown fear consumed him from within.

Chu Kuangren looked at him and said, “You do have a lot of treasures on you, but they’re all mine now.”

Chapter 2254 - 2254 Dai Tian Falls, The Huang Clan Leader Is Heavily Injured, The Apocalypse Martial Ruler’s True Plan

“What’s going on? Why can’t I control my Chaos Supreme Treasures? What’s happening?”

No matter how he tried, the Chaos Supreme Treasures would not respond. It was as if they were no longer his.

Then, he thought about what Chu Kuangren said earlier, and a sudden realization struck him. His eyes widened, and he shouted, “Thousand Weapon Heart? Have you mastered the Thousand Weapon Heart recorded in the Divine Weapon Seal? How?”

As the former owner of the Divine Weapon Seal, Dai Tian might not have been able to master the Thousand Weapon Heart inside it, but he had a certain level of understanding of it.

He dared not believe there was someone in the universe who could master the Thousand Weapon Heart, the Ultimate-level Weapon Dao technique.

How did he do it?

Dai Tian was baffled and astonished.

Chu Kuangren chuckled. He waved and sent one Chaos Supreme Treasure back at Dai Tian, detonating it along the way.

The weapon exploded upon hitting Dai Tian, and the blast of energy left Dai Tian in terrible condition.

If not for the defensive Supreme Treasure, the blast would have been enough to kill him.

He was shocked to confirm that Chu Kuangren had mastered the Thousand Weapon Heart, the Ultimate-level Weapon Dao technique.

“How?”

The Huang Clan Leader was baffled as well.

Dai Tian took a deep breath and said, “Chu Kuangren has mastered the Thousand Weapon Heart. The technique allows him to control all weapons in existence. He can also snatch his opponent’s weapon by force. Huang Clan Leader, be careful!”

Everyone gasped in shock when they heard his explanation.

Snatch people's weapons for his own use?

How could there be such a tyrannical technique?

Everyone could not believe what they heard, especially the weaponsmiths.

“He can control the treasures that we forged with blood and sweat with just a thought? He's a bane to us weaponsmiths!”

“This technique is tyrannical!”

He held the Hongmeng Supreme Treasure tighter.

The Thousand Weapon Heart was powerful, but it was limited by many aspects, such as cultivation level.

The Huang Clan Leader breathed a sigh of relief, but he still found it shocking. He had to be more careful in his fight against Chu Kuangren.

“Hmph. Even if it's just Chaos Supreme Treasures, it's enough,” Chu Kuangren said with a scoff.

He swung his sleeve and shot the Chaos Supreme Treasures at Dai Tian and the Huang Clan Leader.

A terrifying burst of energy exploded.

Following a series of earth-shattering explosions, Dai Tian was blasted into pieces. Even if he had a defensive Supreme Treasure, it failed to protect him.

The Great Dao inside his body was shattered.

The former first place on the Weaponsmith Leaderboard was killed by the Chaos Supreme Treasures he forged. It was ironic for him to die that way.

In fact, not only him but even the Huang Clan Leader was severely injured.

The explosion of a dozen Chaos Supreme Treasures was terrifyingly powerful. Even if he was a Grand Dao Supreme Honorable who already had the Daoist law and a defensive Hongmeng Supreme Treasure, he was not in good shape.

The explosions had destroyed at least one-third of his Great Dao.

It was his first time sustaining such heavy damage.

“He won! The Sect Leader won!”

“Haha! Even if the opponent is an elite on the Supreme Honorable Leaderboard, they’re no match for the Sect Leader! The Sect Leader is the strongest!”

“Yeah!”

The cultivators of the Pan Gu Sect were thrilled to see Chu Kuangren overpower the Huang Clan Leader.

They looked at him with uncontrollable zeal.

Even the Wine Honorable was impressed. “Impressive. He’s really impressive for a Grand Dao Supreme God.”

Then, he looked at the purple clouds in the sky and pondered. “But the entire Feng Domain is sealed. You people went through all that just to fight him, and I believe the fifth place on the Supreme Honorable Leaderboard isn’t your final move. You people should at least send a Monarch.”

The cultivators of the Pan Gu Sect were worried when they heard the Wine Honorable.

They gasped in shock.

“A Monarch is coming?”

They had never seen a Monarch before, but they had heard a lot about the powerful cultivators. They knew how terrifying it was to fight one.

...

While the battle was happening across the city, a man arrived at Blazing Flame Volcano.

The man wore black robes and had a crescent cutlass hanging at his waist.

Carnage Great Dao energy that had Daoist law energy was swirling around him. He was the Apocalypse Martial Ruler, a Monarch.

He looked eagerly at the volcano.

“I didn’t expect to find the God of Slaughter’s inheritance here. I should’ve known. The Blazing Flame Volcano gathers all the murderous qi and turns them into lava. This is the concentration of murderous qi, so of course, the inheritance is here,” the Apocalypse Martial Ruler muttered.

He had gathered multiple forces together to fight Chu Kuangren not just because he wanted revenge. It was also because he wanted to get the God of Slaughter’s inheritance.

Many years ago, the strongest weaponsmith of Myriad Arms City, Ou Chen, stopped Ou Yenuo from forging the Hongmeng Supreme Treasure by detonating the Blazing Flame Volcano, hence damaging the earthen nodes of the land.

It was because of the explosions that the hidden cave realm inside the volcano was discovered.

The hidden cave realm contained the God of Slaughter's inheritance.

Even though Chu Kuangren forbade others from getting close, news got leaked.

The Apocalypse Martial Society had been wiped out, but some remained, lying hidden in the city and they still worked for the Apocalypse Martial Ruler.

He got the news from them.

The Apocalypse Martial Ruler was certain that the inheritance that he had been searching for years lay inside the cave realm.

That was the reason why he used the forces to distract Chu Kuangren. It was so that he could have the chance to get the inheritance.

"Hahaha! They are all my pawns. When I get the inheritance, Chu Kuangren or the Tempest King will be nothing to me!" The Apocalypse Martial Ruler was thrilled.

He was confident in himself.

"Swoosh!"

He entered the volcano in a streak of light and soon located the cave realm that contained the God of Slaughter's inheritance.

There were restriction seals around the entrance that could block even a Supreme Honorable. However, he was a Monarch.

He threw a palm strike and shattered the restriction seals with ease.

When he went inside, the pitch-black cave realm had no light, only darkness.

Then, a figure appeared, followed by a bony throne.

A vast killing intent erupted from the skeletal figure.

“God of Slaughter!”

The Apocalypse Martial Ruler was astonished to see the skeletal figure on the skeletal throne. He was thrilled.

He knew he was right!

Chapter 2255 - 2255 God of Slaughter's Inheritance, Three Monarchs Arrive, A Grand Scene

Deep inside the cave realm, the Apocalypse Martial Ruler looked at the skeletal figure on the skeletal throne with great zeal.

He slowly walked up to the throne.

A vast killing intent came from the skeletal figure.

“Kabaam!”

The Apocalypse Martial Ruler was blasted away by the aura. He exclaimed in astonishment, “Such a powerful killer intent!”

On top of that, he sensed a hint of suppression in the killing intent. He had the urge to bow as if he were a peasant trying to bow to a king.

It shocked him. He was a Monarch known for the Carnage Dao. Who else could force him to his knees?

Could that be the power of the God of Slaughter?

It was too powerful.

He channeled the Apocalypse Martial Art to resist the terrifying killing intent.

After sensing the energy fluctuation of the Apocalypse Martial Art, the God of Slaughter opened its eyes and reacted strangely to his discovery.

“This aura... Are you my subject?”

The Apocalypse Martial Ruler was stunned before sudden realization hit.

The Apocalypse Demon Martial Art that he cultivated originated from the God of Slaughter.

The God of Slaughter created that particular cultivation technique.

It was rather fitting for the God of Slaughter to call him his subject.

“Yes, my honorable God of Slaughter.”

The Apocalypse Martial Ruler knelt on the ground.

Then, the God of Slaughter glanced at him and shook his head. “You’re not my subject. My subject will address me as King.”

King? A king of a kingdom?

The Apocalypse Martial Ruler was surprised as he did not know the God of Slaughter of a king of a certain kingdom.

However, the legend of the God of Slaughter was far too ancient. It was difficult for him to authenticate the information based on modern clues.

It was only normal that he did not know the God of Slaughter was king.

“Fine. What era is this?” the God of Slaughter muttered.

He seemed to be asking the Apocalypse Martial Ruler but also himself.

The Apocalypse Martial Ruler was unsure of how to answer him.

The Great Hongmeng Universe had reset many times, and each reset was an era. The Apocalypse Martial Ruler had no idea what era it was.

“The Ninety-nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine era...”

The God of Slaughter sensed something, and his eyes gleamed. “Oh? So soon? No wonder this consciousness has woken up.”

The Apocalypse Martial Ruler was more confused than before.

The ninety-nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine era?

Was it an important era?

“Monarch, since you cultivate the Apocalypse Demon Martial Art, you’re considered half of my subject. Maybe it is fate that you’re here in this era. This inheritance is yours. Merge with my power,” the God of Slaughter said.

Then, a rampant killing intent erupted from his body and entered the Apocalypse Martial Ruler’s body.

With the power from the God of Slaughter, the Apocalypse Martial Ruler’s own energy surged rapidly, and he gained even more insights into the Carnage Dao.

He was thrilled.

There was only one thought left in his mind.

“Chu Kuangren, I’m winning this war!”

...

“A Monarch will come?”

The cultivators of the Pan Gu Sect gasped in fear when they heard Wine Honorable.

Wine Honorable did not say anything. All he did was look into the void and say, “He’s here.”

As soon as his voice faded, the spiritual qi in the area rumbled fiercely.

The purple clouds rained down like a waterfall, and a figure emerged.

The figure was dressed in white robes and had mystical runes and restriction seals surrounding him. His majestic presence struck awe in everyone who laid eyes on him.

“Formation King, you’re finally here.”

The Huang Clan Leader breathed a sigh of relief and was thrilled to see the Formation King.

The strength that Chu Kuangren displayed frightened even him, the fifth place on the Supreme Honorable Leaderboard. If the Formation King did not come soon, he might lose his life.

“Chu Kuangren, we finally meet,” the Formation King said to Chu Kuangren.

It was his first time seeing Chu Kuangren in person, but he already viewed him as his arch-nemesis.

After all, he lost first place on the Formation Leaderboard to Chu Kuangren.

He carried the name of the Formation King, yet someone else was stronger than him.

That point alone made him take Chu Kuangren seriously.

“This formation is indeed from you.” Chu Kuangren was not surprised by the Formation King’s arrival.

The Purple Cloud Miasma Formation was a strange one. In the current Great Hongmeng Universe, other than him, only the Formation King was capable of setting up such a massive formation.

“This formation isolates the Feng Domain from the rest of the universe. It can also blind the Heavenly Will. Everything that happens in the Feng Domain today will remain in the Feng Domain, and no one will know,” the Formation King said.

“You must have spent a lot of time and effort to set this formation. You must have been through a lot, but can you kill me?”

Chu Kuangren stood with his hands behind his back, looking proud even in front of a Monarch.

His demeanor was impressive.

Maybe he had a trump card against the Monarch.

Many people were surprised, but they believed he could do it again.

When the Apocalypse Martial Ruler tried to kill him, he used the Tempest King's clone to counterattack.

Now, with the Formation King trapping him, he might have another trump card up his sleeve.

The people had confidence in him.

The Formation King was also scared, but he replaced it with confidence and said, "You're helpless before a Monarch, and I am not the only one."

Immediately after, a domineering dragon's roar sounded from the purple clouds.

A massive black dragon head stuck out from the clouds.

The terrifying dragon aura filled every inch of Feng Domain. All life in Feng Domain trembled before the dragon aura.

"Black Dragon King!"

People, except the Formation King, gasped in shock when they saw the black dragon's head.

The Dragon King of the Black Dragon Tribe had arrived as well.

“Chu Kuangren, it's time to pay for what you did at the Dragon Tombs.”

The Black Dragon King transformed into his human form and stared at Chu Kuangren coldly.

The battle with Chu Kuangren at the Dragon Tombs was considered one of the biggest insults of his life, second only to when he lost to the Tempest King and stumbled on his head.

He wanted Chu Kuangren to pay for the insult.

“Oh, an old friend.”

Chu Kuangren was surprised by the Black Dragon King's arrival, but he was not frightened.

“How are you still so confident?”

The Formation King looked at Chu Kuangren curiously. He could not see the fear on Chu Kuangren's face.

“I’m not confident. It’s just that you two can’t kill me,” Chu Kuangren said calmly as if he was stating a solid fact.

“In that case, what about the three of us?”

A frosty voice echoed across the void.

An armored man strutted across the clouds and arrived with a domineering aura.

His Daoist law energy swept across the battlefield, shocking everyone once again.

Another Monarch had arrived!

“It’s the leader!”

The Dragon Hunter, Wang Yi, was thrilled to see their leader.

“Chu Kuangren, hand over the Dragonslayer, and I promise you an intact body,” the Dragon Hunter Leader said coldly.

The Formation King and the Black Dragon King stared at him coldly.

Three Monarchs had arrived in person!

They were the coalition army's strongest support.

“What a scene.”

Wine Honorable gulped nervously when he saw the Monarchs in the sky and downed a mouthful of wine just to calm himself down.

Chapter 2256 - 2256 Fight the Formation King, Formation King Lost, You Are Beneath Me

Three Monarchs gathered just to fight a young Grand Dao cultivator.

Everyone was shocked by the scene.

“Are they being serious?”

“One Monarch fighting a Grand Dao cultivator is crazy in itself, but three? There are three of them here just for one Grand Dao cultivator?”

“Isn't this a little overkill?”

“I can't think of a way Chu Kuangren can escape this situation.”

Be it the Pan Gu Sect cultivators or the enemies, when they saw the three Monarchs in the sky, they were all stunned. Even Wine Honorable took a few gulps of wine to calm himself down.

Under everyone's intense gaze, Chu Kuangren remained calm. He said, "That's it?"

That was it?

What did he mean? Three Monarchs came just to fight him, and he did not seem afraid at all.

He was just a Grand Dao cultivator!

No one knew what Chu Kuangren was thinking.

The Formation King said, "I alone can kill you."

He stepped forward with his hand raised. Heavy restriction seals were cast in the air, and countless mystical runes filled all directions.

A powerful formation was instantly activated.

Chu Kuangren was in the middle of the formation when a powerful pressure assaulted him in all directions. His body was hit, and his bones and muscles were shaking violently.

“Chu Kuangren, show me what the first place on the Formation Leaderboard is capable of,” the Formation King said coldly.

He told the Black Dragon King and Dragon Hunter Leader to stay back for the time being. He wanted to test Chu Kuagren’s formation level himself.

The Black Dragon King and Dragon Hunter Leader nodded. As Monarchs, they had their own pride.

It was already a stretch for a Monarch to fight a Grand Dao cultivator, and three of them teaming up made it more ridiculous.

They also believed the Formation King was enough to deal with Chu Kuangren.

“Chu Kuangren, this isn’t the Dragon Tombs. There are not enough dragon qi for you to use. You are nothing but an ant in front of us Monarchs,” the Black Dragon King said with a scoff.

Chu Kuangren was able to match his power in the Dragon Tombs because he relied on the Infernal Dragon energy and the massive amount of dragon qi in the Dragon Tombs.

Now, they were no longer in the Dragon Tombs.

No matter how ridiculously strong Chu Kuangren was, he had his limits.

“Let’s fight, Chu Kuangren,” the Formation King said.

He raised his hand and activated the formation he just cast.

An even more terrifying surge of energy pressured Chu Kuangren from all directions, attempting to crush him.

“Hmph.” Chu Kuangren scoffed, and with a wave of his hand, countless Great Dao Sources appeared in the sky. He, too, set up a powerful formation in an instant.

When the two formations clashed, heaven and land shook.

“Chu Kuangren, I don’t want others to say I’m bullying you. I will cast formation using power under the Monarch level, and we shall compare our standard on formations,” the Formation King said.

The power of a formation differed according to the caster’s cultivation level.

He had always wanted to beat Chu Kuangren in formations, so he did not want to use his Monarch cultivation. Otherwise, it might seem unfair.

In just a moment, the Formation King channeled his energy and cast multiple massive formations.

At a closer look, six drastically different formations were formed with just one action.

The six formations combined with the first one he cast and formed the Five Elements and Yin-Yang energies. The different energies complemented each other and created a vigorous energy stream.

“Interesting,” Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

Great Dao Sources were used to form another massive formation.

A massive Bagua diagram expanded from Chu Kuangren’s feet and blanketed the land. It clashed with the Five Ways and Yin Yang formation.

The Formation King’s energy swirled in the void, creating a mystical presence.

It was enchanting. The clash between two powerful formation masters was rare even in other eras.

“Kakroom!”

The power of the formations surged gradually.

Then, the multiple formations that the Formation King cast were overpowered and crushed into nothingness. Chu Kuangren’s formation power remained.

“This...” The Formation King’s expression shifted.

The seven formations that he formed were overpowered by one formation from Chu Kuangren.

The formation masters from the Heavenly Formation Palace were in disbelief.

“Did the Formation Master’s formation lose?”

It was news to them.

“Again!”

The Formation King refused to accept defeat.

He performed multiple mystical hand seals and cast more formations.

This time, the formation he cast was more powerful than the previous, and it blanketed at least ten thousand kilometers of land.

Countless bolts of lightning flashed in the void.

Standing in the center of the formation, the Formation King was like a majestic God who descended on earth and ruled over the lightning bolts around him.

“This is the Lightning Destruction Formation. I’ve developed it for years, and I created this formation specially for the Tempest King. I didn’t expect I would have to use it on you first,” the Formation King said coldly.

With that, he grabbed a bolt of lightning and hurled it at Chu Kuangren.

However, the formation barrier around Chu Kuangren blocked it with ease.

“You’re going to use this formation against the Tempest King? I have to say, you’re really naive.” Chu Kuangren chuckled as he shook his head.

More Great Dao Sources were released to form a new formation.

Chu Kuangren raised his hand and infused the Infernal Dragon energy into the forming formation.

Scorching flames formed the head of a powerful dragon.

“Go!”

Chu Kuangren bellowed, and the flaming dragon lunged forward into the lightning clouds. The domineering flames razed everything in its way.

The Formation King channeled the power of his formation.

Lightning bolts were directed at the flaming dragon.

Then, as if the flaming dragon had spotted the weak spot of the Lightning Destruction Formation, it roared and flew into the lightning vortex in the clouds.

“Kaboom!”

The flaming dragon’s aura swept over everything in its way.

The powerful shockwave blasted the lightning bolts away, and the Formation King was pushed back a few steps.

“The formation that I created against the Tempest King lost?”

The Formation King was stunned. He then stared at Chu Kuangren in disbelief. “This formation’s weak spot is ever-shifting. How did you pinpoint it?”

“You...”

The Formation King's expression shifted many times. He cast many more formations and attacked Chu Kuangren relentlessly.

Be it destructive formations or constraintment formations, the formations he cast were dazzling to the eyes.

His speed in casting formations was fast, and he was able to cast multiple formations in a single motion. It was astonishing to watch.

However, Chu Kuangren did not give in to the Formation King's relentless attack.

With Lil Ai's help, he quickly analyzed the weak spots in the formations that the Formation King cast and came up with suitable formations to counter them.

Everything was within his calculations.

The Formation King's formation energy was getting stronger, and he had started to infuse his Monarch-level Great Daoist law energy into it.

With it, he finally overpowered Chu Kuangren for once, but he was not happy about it.

He may overpower Chu Kuangren with his cultivation level, but in terms of formation standard and mastery, he was no match for Chu Kuangren.

If they were in the same cultivation realm, Chu Kuangren's formation would be much stronger than his

He had lost to Chu Kuangren in Formation Dao.

"No! I didn't lose! If I kill him, I will still regain the first place on the Formation Leaderboard!"

The Formation King's ice-cold eyes were overflowing with killing intent.

"After all, you are still beneath me."

Chu Kuangren scoffed as he looked at the formations the Formation King cast.

Then, he stepped forward. A mysterious energy expanded from his feet and formed an energy domain with no boundary.

The entire area was enshrouded, and when combined with his formation, the formation energy surged.

Even the Formation King's Great Daoist law energy-infused formation could no longer rival Chu Kuangren.

"Infinity Domain!"

Chu Kuangren bellowed and cast the Ultimate-level spatial cultivation technique.

Chapter 2257 - 2257 Wine Honorable's Decision, Dragonslayer Is Thirsty

With the Infinity Domain activated, the spatial energy around Chu Kuangren rumbled like crashing waves, impacting the formations the Formation King cast.

The Formation King's expression shifted.

With a raise of his hand, the Timespace Treasure appeared above Chu Kuangren's head. The spatial-element Supreme Treasure shone dazzlingly.

Terrifying spatial energy continued to expand and fuse with the Infinity Domain.

On top of that, a dark golden light glowed in Chu Kuangren's eyes, signaling that the Infernal Dragon Eye was activated.

"Infernal Dragon Eye, Silence Realm."

Everything in the realm was silenced, including space and time.

With the buff from the Timespace Treasure, The two mystical energies merged and created a boundless spatial energy that expanded outward.

The energy impacted the formation the Formation King cast with his Great Daoist law energy. With just one blast, all the formations were destroyed.

Even though Chu Kuangren aimed at the weak spots of the formations, it did not change the fact that his spatial power was terrifyingly powerful.

“Boom!”

The Formation King was blasted backward. Without his formations, he was actually the weakest of the Monarchs.

“I can’t believe he has mastered Spacetime Dao.”

“The Infernal Dragon Eye, the Ultimate-level spatial cultivation technique... How many more techniques does he have under his sleeve?”

The Black Dragon King and the Dragon Hunter Leader instantly knew how powerful and mystical Chu Kuangren’s Infinity Domain was.

It was an Ultimate-level cultivation technique, something not even a Monarch would possess.

“Kill him and the good stuff on him is ours!”

The Dragon Hunter Leader looked at Chu Kuangren greedily.

All Dragon Hunters were greedy.

They used the slogan of eliminating non-humans to attack the Dragon Tribe and stripped all the dragon's body parts to exchange for all kinds of resources.

Not only could he retrieve the Dragonslayer if they killed Chu Kuangren, but he could also acquire the treasures Chu Kuangren possessed.

With greed as a source of motivation, the two Monarchs ignored the pride of a Monarch and attacked Chu Kuangren together.

Terrifying Great Daoist law energies erupted and swept across the universe.

The powerful energy transformed into a dragon claw that contained countless Great Daoist law energy and Immortal Sparks.

Another powerful energy transformed into a saber shadow that contained rampant saber intent that could cut the realm apart.

At the same time, a blast of wine qi erupted. Amidst the eruption, a river of wine filled with fragrant aroma appeared, piercing even the sky.

“Kabaam!”

The river of wine, containing the Great Daoist law energy, crashed against the dragon claw.

It stopped one of the attacks aimed at Chu Kuangren.

As for the other saber shadow, Chu Kuangren faced it fearlessly. He concentrated the spatial energy from the Infinity Domain into his sword qi and unleashed a sword attack.

The slash caused the void around it to collapse.

When the sword and saber clashed, a rampant energy storm swept the field.

Chu Kuangren managed to block an attack from a Monarch.

Meanwhile, the Black Dragon King looked at Wine Honorable. His eyes gleamed with interest. “Wine Honorable, what are you doing? Are you are you want to against the Dragon Tribe?”

“Hahaha! I dare not. I’m just a tiny Wine Honorable. Why would stand against the mighty Dragon Tribe?” The Wine Honorable laughed loudly.

However, he contacted Chu Kuangren telepathically and said, “Little one, give me ten more jars of A Fleeting Dream, and I will make sure you survive this.”

Chu Kuangren was surprised that the Wine Honorable would make such an offer.

Making sure he survived against the three Monarchs was a huge deal. Regardless of what Wine Honorable had in mind, the Wine Honorable's power was not to be underestimated.

Chu Kuangren chuckled and said, "Senior, you just have to protect the Pan Gu Sect for me. As for the mere Monarchs, I will deal with them. After this, I will surely have a drink with you, Senior."

His words echoed across the battlefield as he made it verbal.

Everyone looked at the figure in white, deeply impressed by his courage.

As for the three Monarchs, their expressions turned bitter.

Mere Monarchs?

Where did a Grand Dao cultivator get the confidence to speak such bold words in front of three Monarchs?

He had decided.

Even if Chu Kuangren did not give him A Fleeting Dream, he had decided to protect the Pan Gu Sect and make sure Chu Kuangren survived that confrontation.

“I’m a Human Guardian, after all. I can’t allow some other races to trample over me fellow human sky-prides.”

A hint of frostiness appeared in the Wine Honorable’s eyes.

He and Nuwa were the Human Guardians, so he felt strongly about all humans. He tended to favor the humans regardless of the situation.

“Chu Kuangren, you’re just a Grand Dao cultivator. How dare you speak like that? Die!” the Black Dragon King bellowed.

He channeled his dragon qi and unleashed a claw strike at Chu Kuangren. The black dragon claw attack contained vast Great Daoist law energy.

Suddenly, his eyes widened in shock as he sensed an intense threat from Chu Kuangren.

“This feeling...”

The Black Dragon King’s eyes widened in disbelief, and a bad feeling rose in his heart.

He wanted to cancel his attack, but it was too late.

“Kaboom!”

A vast rage qi erupted from Chu Kuangren. The dragon-scaled armor on his body disappeared while the Infernal Dragon energy was conserved.

A crimson saber emerged from his body.

He grabbed the saber and slashed it at the dragon claw attack.

Rage qi swept over everything, carrying a terrifying and dragon rage aura. When it clashed with the dragon claw, it shattered the dragon claw easily into pieces.

The Black Dragon King roared excruciatingly as his palm was punctured by the rage qi sword ray, which also contained the dragon rage energy.

“It’s the Dragonslayer! The Dragonslayer!”

His eyes widened as he screamed in a trembling voice.

The other dragons widened their eyes in fear as well.

The Dragonslayer was the nightmare of all dragons.

“Impossible! This is impossible! How could you wield the Dragonslayer?” The Dragon Hunter Leader freaked out.

The Dragonslayer was the Dragon Hunters' ultimate weapon. It was covered with all kinds of restriction seals.

Other than the Dragon Hunters, no one could refine it.

Moreover, Chu Kuangren was just a Grand Dao cultivator. How could he refine the Ultimate-level weapon that even a Monarch must spend a huge amount of resources to refine?

“Nothing is impossible. Dragon Hunter Leader, you’ve always wanted this weapon back, right? Come take it.”

Chu Kuangren smiled and pointed the Dragonslayer at the Dragon Hunter Leader.

That was also one of his secret tactics.

With the Thousand Weapon Heart, he could control all weapons in the world.

Therefore, refining the Dragonslayer with a Grand Dao cultivation level was not a difficult task.

Despite being a Monarch, being locked on by the rage qi of the Dragonslayer made the Dragon Hunter Leader afraid.

“This weapon should never exist in the world, nor should it be in your hands!”

The Black Dragon King looked at the hole in his palm grimly and then at Chu Kuangren with overflowing killer intent.

The aura of a Dragon King erupted.

Upon sensing the Black Dragon King’s aura, the Dragonslayer, a weapon forged specially to slay a dragon, buzzed violently.

Everyone looked at the Dragonslayer and sensed a strange excitement from the blade as if it was thirsty for dragon blood. It felt more like a bloodthirsty demon than just a weapon.

“Black Dragon King, can you hear this?” Chu Kuangren wielded the Dragonslayer, and his gaze was cold. “The Dragonslayer is thirsty for blood!”

Chapter 2258 - 2258 The Tactic of Three Monarchs, Pan Gu Sect Cultivators Cursing

“The Dragonslayer is thirsty for blood!”

Chu Kuangren wielded the Dragonslayer with a frosty gaze.

When Black Dragon King saw Chu Kuangren wield the Dragonslayer, he roared and immediately summoned a set of armor over himself.

It was just a Premium Chaos Supreme Treasure, but it was a sign that he was afraid.

Dragos normally had powerful physical bodies, especially a Monarch like the Black Dragon King, whose physical body was terrifyingly powerful.

The tenacity of his body could rival a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure, so he never took defensive treasures seriously.

His body was the best defense he had.

Now, to face the Dragonslayer, he had pulled out a defensive treasure, which was rare. It proved that he revered the Ultimate-level divine weapon a lot.

“Die!”

The Black Dragon King roared and attacked.

With his hands raised, his dragon qi that contained the Great Dao Law energy gushed forward like a tidal wave, rampantly striking the void in its way.

His attack could kill all under the Monarch Realm, but Chu Kuangren remained fearless.

He conserved the Infernal Dragon energy and called off the Infinity Domain.

He concentrated all his energy on the Dragonslayer.

As he slashed, a rampant rage qi burst out, and a powerful dragon roar could be heard from the blade.

It was the sorrowful cry of a dragon!

The crimson saber ray instantly slashed the dragon qi in half.

The terrifying energy it contained easily ripped open the Black Dragon King's Premium Chaos Supreme Treasure. The treasure was not enough to withstand the power of the Dragonslayer.

A huge amount of blood splattered out from the Black Dragon King's body.

As blood spewed everywhere, a dragon's cry echoed across the sky.

The Black Dragon King was blasted away by a single slash.

The Dragonslayer was a bane to the dragons. Even though Chu Kuangren was not a Monarch, he relied on the Ultimate-level divine weapon to fight one and even overpower a Dragon King!

“Die!”

Chu Kuangren bellowed as he took a step forward and appeared before the Black Dragon King, slashing the Dragonslayer at the latter again. The blaring dragon's rage struck fear in the Black Dragon King's heart.

At the critical moment, a figure appeared before the Black Dragon King and stopped the Dragonslayer with a saber. The clank from the clash was deafening and blaring.

The clash between two sabers almost ripped everyone's eardrums off.

The spiritual qi in the area scattered away because of the shockwave from the clash, causing a vacuum of spiritual qi.

Then, when the spiritual qi returned, it formed a terrifying storm that wreaked havoc across the mountains and rivers.

The void was shattered as if an apocalypse had arrived.

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes at the figure who stopped his slash.

It was the Dragon Hunter Leader. He used a Hongmeng-level saber to stop Chu Kuangren's Dragonslayer.

It amused Chu Kuangren.

“Haha! Is the Dragon Hunter protecting a dragon? What a rare scene!”

The sarcastic laugh forced a bitter look on the Dragon Hunter Leader.

The Dragon Tribe and Dragon Hunters were arch nemesis, yet as the leader of the Dragon Hunter, he saved a Monarch of the Dragon Tribe before his men.

It was outrageous, but it could not be helped.

Chu Kuangren has gotten too strong.

If the Black Dragon King died, he and the Formation King would face a harsher challenge. With the Dragonslayer, no one had the confidence to fight Chu Kuangren alone.

The only way was to combine the powers of the three Monarchs.

Only then would they have a chance at victory.

“We have a common enemy, so I don’t mind putting aside our grudge,” the Dragon Hunter Leader said coldly.

The Black Dragon King regained his composure and channeled his dragon qi. A huge dragon claw attacked Chu Kuangren and ripped the void in its way.

The Dragonslayer in Chu Kaungren's hand buzzed.

He pushed the Dragon Hunter Leader away with a powerful shockwave and swung a slash at the dragon claw.

The dragon claw was once again ripped.

At the same moment, multiple restriction seals appeared around Chu Kuangren's feet.

The Formation King had activated another formation further away.

"Futile effort."

Chu Kuangren pursed his lips.

The formation contained the Great Daoist law energy, but Chu Kuangren simply raised the Dragonslayer and swung it down. Boundless rage qi gushed downwards and shattered all the restriction seals easily.

The Formation King's expression turned grim. "He's strong. He's more powerful than a common Monarch now. That Ultimate-level divine weapon is indeed outstanding."

"Dragon God Dominion!"

The Black Dragon King roared and cast the secret technique of the Dragon Tribe.

A vicious and majestic dragon shadow flew toward Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren stood firm and slashed the sword at the incoming dragon shadow.

“Kabaam!”

The dragon shadow was cut in half with just a single slash.

“What?”

The Black Dragon King’s expression shifted as well.

He attacked with his full strength, but Chu Kuangren stopped it easily.

“The nightmare of the Dragon Tribe is indeed terrifying.”

“Stay calm. He’s using an Ultimate-level divine weapon with a Grand Dao cultivation level. It must consume a lot of energy, and it’s going to take a toll on his body. He won’t last for long,” the Dragon Hunter Leader said loudly.

He was right.

Even a Monarch must use a lot of energy to wield an Ultimate-level divine weapon.

Chu Kuangren was not even a Monarch.

Even if he had the Thousand Weapon Heart, his mastery of the technique was not yet fully realized, and he was using it to wield an Ultimate-level divine weapon. It was not an easy task.

The Dragon Hunter Leader grinned when he spotted Chu Kuangren's weakness.

The Black Dragon King and the Formation King felt an instant relief.

"We just have to stall until he can't wield the Dragonslayer anymore. Then, he will be an easy target," the Black Dragon King said.

"That's right!"

The three Monarchs came to an agreement.

They no longer tried to fight Chu Kuangren directly and started to stall with different tactics.

“Nine Heaven Dragon Rush!”

The Black Dragon King used the Dragon Tribe cultivation technique to make himself elusive and fast so that he could dodge the Dragonslayer’s saber ray.

“Nine Palace Formation!”

The Formation King a massive amount of Great Dao Sources into the sky. In addition to his Great Dao Law energy, he built a powerful defensive formation and summoned nine majestic palaces in the blink of an eye.

The nine palaces looked indestructible, and they almost rivaled the Dragonslayer’s aura.

“Dominance Dragon Armor!”

The Dragon Hunter Leader bellowed and summoned an armor that was forged using countless dragon bones. It also had Hongmeng spiritual qi swirling around it.

It was obviously a Hongmeng Supreme Treasure.

He used the armor to block the saber ray and relied on his agility to move around.

Everyone was stunned that three Monarchs were teaming up against a Grand Dao cultivator, refusing to fight him directly.

What was going on? It was outrageous!

“So this is the Ultimate-level divine weapon’s power? It’s indeed scary.”

“Three Monarchs against a Grand Dao, but they were overpowered instead?”

“The Dragonslayer is the Dragon Hunters’ Ultimate-level divine weapon, but it is in Chu Kuangren’s hands now. Damn it.”

“That weapon shouldn’t even exist.”

The cultivators who did not know about the Dragonslayer were in awe.

The Dragon Hunters looked at the saber eagerly, but when they thought of it being in someone else’s possession, they were frustrated.

The Dragon Tribes were angry and afraid at the same time.

As for the Pan Gu Sect’s cultivators, they also felt aggrieved and angry.

“They call themselves Monarchs? How shameless!”

“Three Monarchs fighting a Grand Dao, and they’re using shabby tricks like this? Why don’t you guys eat sh*t?”

“Yeah! Fight the Sect Leader like a man if you have the nerves!”

“Monarchs? More like jokes.”

They despised the Monarchs and even began to curse them.

The three Monarchs were flustered and embarrassed when they heard the Pan Gu Sect cursing them.

Chapter 2259 - 2259 Stalling Tactic Works, His Power is Weakening

“All you three clowns know is how to dodge. Take a slash from the Sect Leader if you have the nerves!”

“What a piece of garbage! This is my first time seeing such useless Monarchs.”

The Pan Gu Sect’s cultivators continued to curse.

The three Monarchs were more flustered than ever.

They were agitated as well. As Monarchs, they could have taken down Chu Kuangren easily. but they were forced into such an embarrassing position.

If the news got out, they would tarnish their reputations.

“Shut up!”

The Black Dragon King was infuriated when he heard the Pan Gu Sect calling him Black Worm King. He took a moment to attack them with his dragon qi.

The boundless dragon qi was powerful. It could kill all those beneath the Monarch Realm.

Unfortunately, the first place on the Supreme Honorable Leaderboard, Wine Honorable, stood before the Pan Gu Sect as their protector.

He raised his hand, and a stream of wine qi was blasted at the dragon qi.

Both qi canceled out each other upon clashing.

The Pan Gu Sect’s cultivators gained even more confidence knowing that Wine Honorable was there to protect them, so they continued their cursing.

“Black worm, do you think you’re that powerful? Come at me if you have the balls!”

“Garbage Monarch. The Dragon Tribe is over with you as their leader.”

“Don’t call yourself the Black Dragon King. You should change your name to the Black Worm King.”

The Black Dragon King’s expression turned grim.

He looked at Chu Kuangren coldly and said, “Can you tell your people to shut up? Cursing at us to affect us? Do you think it works?”

“I think it’s working perfectly.” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

As a matter of fact, the three Monarchs had heard of many more vicious comments and insults directed at them, but this time was different.

Three Monarchs were acting like cowards in front of Chu Kuangren, a Grand Dao cultivator, scuttling left and right, not daring to fight him like a man.

The Pan Gu Sect’s cultivators continued to amplify their insults.

“Die!”

Chu Kuangren stopped talking and attacked with the Dragonslayer.

The sharp crimson blade carried an intense rage qi, and when it slashed forward, the rage qi was aimed at the Black Dragon King.

The Black Dragon King wanted to dodge using his technique.

“Black Worm King, take it like a man and don’t make us look down on you!”

Someone from the Pan Gu Sect spoke all of a sudden.

The Black Dragon King’s expression turned grim at that insult, and he channeled his dragon qi into a terrifying strike. The Great Daoist law energy was blasted forward at the slash.

“Bang!”

The clash destroyed an area on the battlefield.

As the spiritual qi was shattered, it was as if everything had returned to chaos.

The boundless dragon rage qi attacked the Black Dragon King and spread across his body like cancer. The dragon rage qi corroded his Great Daoist law and even affected his Monarch’s Heart.

The Monarch’s Heart was the core of a Monarch.

“Black Worm King, you are a man! Don’t try to dodge it anymore!”

The Pan Gu Sect’s cultivators continued to provoke him.

Infuriated, he took the slash with force, and it shattered the defensive Supreme Treasure he had. He was also quite injured.

One more strike, and he might be at risk of dying, even though he was a Monarch.

“Black Dragon King, don’t get affected!”

The Formation King’s expression turned grim as he shouted at his ally.

The Black Dragon King nodded. “I understand.”

He took a deep breath and calmed himself down. “This is a battle of life and death. No matter what we do, we must kill Chu Kuangren, even if the world criticizes us. Nothing matters except eliminating him!”

“You’re right!”

“We cannot allow Chu Kuangren to live anymore!”

If they did not kill him now, they might never have the chance anymore.

Hence, they set up a huge formation, gathered all their troops, and teamed up with each other just to fight Chu Kuangren.

If they could not kill him, they would be the laughingstock for eras to come.

They must kill him with all means necessary!

The three Monarchs strengthened their beliefs.

They no longer faced Chu Kuangren's attacks directly and simply stalled to drain his energy until he could not wield the Dragonslayer anymore.

As for the Pan Gu Sect's cultivators' verbal attacks, they turned a deaf ear and ignored them.

"This is going to be a problem."

Li Ju frowned.

Yang Mei looked worried as well. “If this continues, the Sect Leader will exhaust too much of his energy using the Ultimate-level divine weapon. When he can’t wield it anymore, he might not be able to fight the three Monarchs.”

The Heavenly Grandmaster was growing anxious. He continued to curse the three Monarchs, but they simply ignored him.

“The three of them are shameless. Our words won’t work anymore,” the Heavenly Grandmaster said helplessly.

It was unfortunate that they were too weak to intervene in a fight against the Monarchs.

The only one strong enough was Wine Honorable.

They all looked at him, hoping that he would assist Chu Kuangren.

However, Wine Honorable shook his head. “The little guy only wants me to protect you guys. As for the three Monarchs, he said he has a way to deal with them.”

“That’s three Monarchs that we are talking about!”

They looked more worried than before.

They had fun cursing the Monarchs, but they knew the Monarchs were powerful and not easily defeated.

Moreover, there were three of them!

If the fight dragged on, Chu Kuangren might be in danger.

“Senior, you don’t need to care about us. Go and help the Sect Leader!”

“Yeah, Senior! Only you can help the Sect Leader now!”

Wine Honorable pursed his lips when he heard them. “Help? If I help him, who’s going to protect you guys? Don’t tell me you guys don’t need protection. I know you guys would throw your lives away for that little guy.

“Have you ever thought about the little guy’s feelings? If I stopped protecting you guys and all of you were taken hostage to threaten him, it would only put him in a more desperate situation. It would only make things worse.”

Wine Honorable’s words left them speechless.

They all knew Chu Kuangren well enough to know that he would never abandon them if they were taken hostage.

However, the situation would only be more dangerous for him.

“Is it because we’re still too weak?” Lan Yu muttered.

“Now, all we can do is trust him and his abilities. You guys know the best, don’t you?” the Wine Honorable said.

He looked at Chu Kuangren with anticipation. How much more could Chu Kuangren surprise him?

“Kakroom! Kakroom!”

Boundless energy rumbled in the void.

The three Monarchs were in a defensive and evasive state, trying to stall Chu Kuangren.

However, the power of the Dragonslayer was not something they could easily defend against.

After a few rounds of exchange, the three Monarchs were injured to a certain degree.

The Black Dragon King had a huge cut on his chest, with dragon blood gushing out like a waterfall.

The armor that the Dragon Hunter Leader wore was covered in cuts, and it started to look dim, which meant that the Hongmeng Supreme Treasure was on its last stretch.

As for the Formation King's powerful defensive formation, the nine palaces were destroyed multiple times, and he was running out of materials.

"How is it that his energy isn't depleted yet?"

The Black Dragon King looked at Chu Kuangren in fear. How could a Grand Dao cultivator use an Ultimate-level divine weapon for so long?

It was outrageous.

"Kaboom!"

Another saber ray shot out.

This time, the Dragon Hunter Leader blocked it with his attack, and his eyes gleamed with delight. He said, "His energy is weakening!"

"His energy is weakening!"

The Black Dragon King laughed. "Chu Kuangren, you're strong, but you're just a Grand Dao realm. You can't use the Ultimate-divine weapon forever!"

Further away, the coalition army was delighted as well.

“Yeah! We’re going to win!”

“Chu Kuangren isn’t invincible!”

“Three Monarchs against one Grand Dao cultivator. There’s no reason for him to not surrender!”

“Kill him, and the Dragonslayer will be ours once more!”

Chu Kuangren had shocked them.

For one man against three Monarchs, his powers were so unbelievably strong that they thought that operation would fail.

Fortunately, Chu Kuangren finally showed signs of exhaustion.

“Chu Kuangren, you can’t escape death! A monster like you shouldn’t be allowed to exist in this world,” the Huang Clan Leader said excitedly.

The three Monarchs started to channel their Great Daoist law energy and waited for Chu Kuangren’s energy to weaken even more. Then, it would be the best time to attack.

They had been holding their anger back many times, and it was depressing. They wanted to vent their anger at Chu Kuangren.

“The Sect Leader’s energy is starting to weaken.”

“This is bad!”

The cultivators of the Pan Gu Sect became even more worried.

Wine Honorable took a sip of wine. “Is this as far as he can go?”

On second thought, it seemed normal. After all, it was already a miracle for a Grand Dao cultivator to fight three Monarchs to that extent.

However, would Chu Kuangren stop?

“Hmph. It really is exhausting to use the Dragonslayer at my current cultivation realm.” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

A strange energy shrouded the place.

“Swoosh!”

Chu Kuangren disappeared from the spot. He was so fast that it seemed impossible.

On a closer look, it was not traveling speed, but he had teleported himself using some kind of spatial method.

The formless energy fluctuation was the Infinity Domain that he cultivated, and he simply switched his position in space.

At the next moment, he appeared before the Huang Clan leader.

“What?”

The Huang Clan Leader was shocked. He wanted to dodge, but it was too late.

Due to the Infinity Domain’s effect, he was restrained.

Chu Kuangren slashed his sword forward.

As the saber qi caught the Huang Clan Leader, he was cut in half together with the Great Dao in his body.

Not only he, but the coalition army behind him was also caught by the saber qi, and they all exploded into a cloud of blood mist.

“At me!” Chu Kuangren bellowed.

It was the Heaven-devouring Technique!

Then, the blood and flesh of the Huang Clan Leader and his Great Dao were absorbed into Chu Kuangren’s body.

The energy he consumed to wield the Dragonslayer was rapidly replenishing. It even got higher than before.

Chu Kuangren shocked everyone again.

Did he consume someone else’s Great Dao?

How was it even possible?

“The Heaven-devouring Technique? Can the Heaven-devouring Technique do this?”

The Black Dragon King was the first to recognize the technique, but he was also shocked.

They knew Chu Kuangren could use the Heaven-devouring Technique since they had fought the Tempest King in the previous era.

However, the one that Chu Kuangren used was different from the one they imagined.

They had never heard of the Heaven-devouring Technique consuming someone else's Great Dao.

Chu Kuangren consumed the Huang Clan Leader's Great Dao, plus many others, and returned to his peak form in an instant. Being filled with energy put a smile on his face.

He said, "My disciple's talent is not something you imbeciles can understand. The Heaven-devouring Technique that she recreated can consume every energy in existence for one's own use, and the Great Dao is one of them."

The Heaven-devouring Technique was an Ultimate-level cultivation technique.

The Tempest King did not perfect the technique during the last era, and it could not absorb cultivators' Great Dao then.

However, after many years of evolution, the technique had improved, and it could consume everything for one's own use.

As a matter of fact, if Chu Kuangren's cultivation level was higher, he could even devour the Monarch's Great Daoist law, let alone a cultivator's Great Dao.

"You people are far behind my disciple," Chu Kuangren said.

He looked at the Black Dragon King and the Formation King with contempt.

The Black Dragon King and the Formation King were furious. The flame of anger burned in their hearts, and it almost burned their sanity away.

It was the Tempest King again!

She reigned the previous era and overpowered everyone.

However, that was not the end because, in this era, Chu Kuangren was using her cultivation technique to show off in front of them, and it was absolutely ironic.

They could not accept it!

“Damn it! Dragon God Dominion!”

The Black Dragon King roared, and a terrifying dragon qi erupted.

A huge dragon containing the Great Daoist law lunged forward.

Chu Kuangren stood fearlessly and slashed his sword at the dragon.

After absorbing the Great Dao of the Huang Clan Leader and other cultivators, his energy returned to peak level. He unleashed a powerful attack with the Dragonslayer in hand.

The vast rage qi cut the dragon shadow in an instant.

“Splash!”

Blood splattered, and the Black Dragon King lost one of his arms to the slash.

“And you.”

Chu Kuangren locked onto the Formation King. With a swing of his sword, he destroyed all nine palaces the Formation King summoned.

Consequently, all the Great Dao Sources he used to cast the formation were destroyed.

The Formation King roared in the face of the powerful slash. The purple clouds in the sky suddenly released a large amount of spiritual qi and rained down like a storm.

The spiritual qi then entered the Formation King’s body, boosting his energy level higher.

“Break!”

The Formation King threw a palm strike at the saber qi.

“Oh? Interesting.”

“Chu Kuangren, if you think the Purple Cloud Miasma Formation could only isolate the Feng Domain, you’re terribly wrong,” the Formation King said coldly.

He had spent a lot of effort to set up the massive formation, so he definitely had a backup plan.

Other than isolating the Feng Domain, the formation could also siphon the domain’s spiritual qi at a critical moment to boost his energy.

“I don’t care what formation you cast. I can break all of it with one slash.”

Chu Kuangren gripped the Dragonslayer tighter, and an endless destructive energy erupted.

He was using the Dragonslayer to perform a sword technique.

“Sword Twenty-four!”

A rampant sword intent and the ultimate offensive sword technique erupted. Together with the Dragonslayer’s energy, the attack was unleashed at the Formation King.

“Nine Palace Formation!”

The Formation King used the Nine Palace Formation again.

With the boost from the Feng Domain’s spiritual qi, the Formation King became even more powerful, but the Sword Twenty-four cast using the Dragonslayer was terrifying.

The nine palaces were destroyed one after another, and the Formation King was blasted away by the attack.

He was covered in blood when he crashed.

“Those who invade Pan Gu Sect today shall die!” Chu Kuangren said coldly.

He wielded the Dragonslayer like an unrivaled demon god of some sort.

It was at that moment that the Blazing Flame Volcano erupted. A vast killing intent surged into the sky, and a pitch-black figure with Carnage Great Daoist law arrived.

The entire realm trembled before his presence.

“Chu Kuangren, I’m here to kill you!”

It was the Apocalypse Martial Ruler!

He had fused with the God of Slaughters' inheritance that he acquired in the volcano. Hence, his energy was stronger than all three of the Monarchs.
