

UATC Draw 2301

Chapter 2301 Pinpoint Curse Seal, He Came From Buddhist Light, Heaven-earth Grand Curse

Chu Kuangren's cognizance was terrifyingly high. Back at Thunder Drum Peak, when he first got the Immovable Enlightenment King's Sword Seal and used it in battle, all the Buddhas were shocked.

Now, he comprehended the Divine Curse Seal in just one day.

Xue Huo could not believe his eyes.

"Curse Dao is just a minor Dao. There's nothing special about it," Chu Kuangren said.

Xue Huo was shocked and enraged by his words. He glared at Chu Kuangren and released his spirit energy, trying to reverse his Great Dao for an attack.

"Chu Kuangren, I'll kill you!" he shouted.

All kinds of curses were cast at Chu Kuangren, but they were all blocked.

"Die."

Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign at Xue Huo's head.

"Bang!"

Xue Huo's head exploded like a watermelon.

The Great Dao in his body disintegrated instantly.

Then, a streak of light flew out from his body.

Chu Kuangren wanted to stop it, but the light penetrated his Great Dao energy and struck his palm, where it transformed into a strange violet pattern.

On a closer look, the pattern resembled a skull.

“Chu Kuangren, my soul is the curse, and I will torment you for good!” Xue Huo’s voice came from the skull-like pattern on his palm.

Chu Kuangren pondered as he looked at the seal on his palm.

“Master, this is some kind of curse seal that allows one to pinpoint your location,” Lil Ai said.

A curse seal that could pinpoint his location?

Did Xue Huo use his soul to leave a tracker in him just so the other Curse Tribe people could locate Chu Kuangren and avenge him?

“Ha! Let them come.” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

He was not bothered by the curse seal.

He and Mingyue Wuxia headed out of the cave.

Then, he rose into the sky. With just a thought, all the spiritual qi on the island rumbled as if they grew excited.

Mingyue Wuxia’s eyes glistened when she saw Chu Kuangren controlling the spiritual qi of the island.

“He has become the Island Ruler.”

Further away, the human sky-prides were still suffering from the curse.

Many of them had reached the last stage of Heavenly Human Five Deterioration and could die at any moment. They were all on the brink of despair.

“I didn’t expect I would die in such a terrible way.”

“Yeah, it’s horrible.”

“Sigh. We didn’t find ourselves any useful Opportunities of Fortune, but we lost our lives.”

They all looked at each other with a bitter smile.

Many of them used to be rivals or enemies, but they all shared the same fate now.

Hatred and hostility were based on their different stances.

After a pitiful grin, the negligible hatred and hostility faded, leaving only sorrow and grievance.

“Junior Sister Wang, I have always liked you. Now that we’re dying, I don’t want to bring this secret to my grave.”

A cultivator, who looked like an old man as he had entered the last stage of Heavenly Human Five Deterioration, confessed to another old lady. The old lady was actually a beautiful woman, but the curse had caused her to age rapidly. She was sulking when she heard her senior brother’s confession. It caught her by surprise. Her eyes teared up, and she said with a trembling voice, “Senior Brother Li, I like you too, but I’m already an old lady...”

“Silly girl, you’re always beautiful to me.”

“Senior Brother Li, I wish you would confess earlier.”

“If there’s a next life, I’ll find you.”

The old man and old lady hugged each other.

Some blessed them, some barely reacted, and some mocked themselves for being single.

Some believed they should do something useful at the end of their lives, so they got up.

“This is the Human Ancestral Land. I will leave my treasures and inheritance here for future generations. It’s the least I can do now for the human race.”

“I will do the same.”

“It’s not a bad place to die either.”

They all left their treasures and inheritance behind.

Then, they got together and waited for death to arrive.

Some refused to give up just like that and continued to fight the curse, but their efforts were useless.

In the end, they all fell to the ground helplessly.

“I haven’t achieved my goal, and I’m already dying in such a terrible way. I don’t want this,” a cultivator cried.

Very few people could calmly face death in the face. Even cultivators are no exception. A sense of despair spread among the crowd. Just then, the island started to tremble, and the spiritual qi rumbled.

Everyone was shocked by the sudden commotion.

“Look, look there!” Someone pointed further away.

At the distant horizon, a significant amount of spiritual qi coalesced as an individual emerged from a burst of Immortal Sparks, casting a Buddhist Light across the land.

It was Chu Kuangren.

He emerged from the Buddhist Light, carrying a holistic aura.

Endless Buddhist Light shone from his body and enveloped every human on the island. Wherever the Buddhist Light shone, the curse energy was dissipated.

The aged cultivators regained their energy and were instantly revitalized. Their withered faces and limbs rejuvenated, and their white hair turned black. In just a blink of an eye, they reverted back to their youthful selves.

The Buddhist Light punctured through the mist of despair.

“I’ve recovered!”

“My powers are back!” “This is great!”

“Chu Kuangren saved us! He did it!”

Everyone was thrilled to see Chu Kuangren. They looked at him with reverence, gratitude, and zeal.

Chu Kuangren was their savior!

“Bang!”

The void trembled, and black ominous patterns started to spread like a spider web.

A huge amount of curse energy gushed out from the patterns and formed a vicious monster.

It was a cursed beast!

“So this is the true form of the Heaven-earth Grand Curse?” Chu Kuangren looked at the cursed beast with interest.

The Heaven-earth Grand Curse was an Ultimate-level cultivation technique recorded in the Divine Curse Seal, which was also one of the curses that Xue Huo left behind.

The curse had strange energy, which could be used to cast a curse on people, items, fate, or even the realm, hence the name.

Xue Huo had cast the Heaven-earth Grand Curse on the island and collected nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine sky-prides’ blood to cast the Blood Curse.

With both curses complementing each other, he was able to target all humans on the island.

Now that Xue Huo was dead, the Heaven-earth Grand Curse still remained active.

The Heaven-earth Grand Curse’s cursed beast roared and attacked Chu Kuangren.

“Hmph.” Chu Kuangren grunted. Without even moving his hands, the spiritual qi of the island surged and transformed into tens of thousands of sword qi.

The cursed beast was instantly perforated by the sword qi storm.

Chu Kuangren then waved his hand and unleashed a blast of spiritual qi to wipe out the Heaven-earth Grand Curse’s energy.

As he was the Island Ruler, he could control and use the island’s spiritual qi and Daoist law.

Even a Monarch was no match for him on the island.

Xue Huo, who cast the Heaven-earth Grand Curse, could not even take one hit from Chu Kuangren, let alone the puny cursed beast.

Chapter 2302 Anger From All Forces, So What, Tempest King’s Protection

A figure flew across the sky of the Human Ancestral Land.

He was Luo Hou, the Demonic Forefather of the Pan Gu Universe.

“I didn’t expect the opening of the Human Ancestral Land to be accompanied with schemes. It wasn’t easy for me to escape in one piece,” Luo Hou thought to himself.

He was able to enter the Human Ancestral Land because he possessed one of the Nine Humanity Treasures.

When he lost the Humanity Treasures to Chu Kuangren, he was able to enter the Ancestor Tombs and get a few huge Opportunities of Fortune. At the same time, he witnessed the battle between Chu Kuangren and the other Monarch Seeds. He had to admit that he was shocked.

He knew Chu Kuangren was ridiculously powerful, but not that powerful. It was not something he could rival with his current strength.

“Chu Kuangren, no matter where you go, you’re always the strongest. But I, Luo Hou, will never allow someone to overpower me! I will surpass you one day!” Luo Hou thought to himself.

He was the Demonic Forefather of the Pan Gu Universe, so he had his own pride to maintain. As a fellow cultivator from the Pan Gu Universe, he could not allow himself to be so far behind Chu Kuangren.

The others called Chu Kuangren the Sect Leader and viewed him as a leader but not Luo Hou.

It was not only because he opposed Chu Kuangren but because he was the Demonic Forefather!

He had the pride and arrogance of a demon!

...

Outside the Human Ancestral Land, the Divine Sword Palace, Heavenly Human Sanctuary, Manifa Destiny Sect, Heavenly Buddha Pure Land, and many other forces gathered.

They were all waiting for their respective Monarch Seeds to return.

A while later, they received a news update from their intelligence network, and it was the worst news they could expect.

“Our sect’s Monarch Seed is dead?”

“Who did it?”

“Who killed Dugu Bupo?”

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler was enraged. The sword intent on him went on a frenzy and wreaked havoc around him.

Dugu Bupo was the strongest Outlier of the Divine Sword Palace. He was also the Monarch Seed that the palace relied on to seize the era’s fortune energy.

With Dugu Bupo gone, the Divine Sword Palace would have to withdraw prematurely from the battle for this era’s fortune energy. The Palace Ruler refused to accept it!

The Strength Buddha of the Heavenly Buddha Pure Land was shocked and enraged.

Granny Snowflower of Heavenly Human Sanctuary was also shaking as she clenched the jade talisman tightly. “Lu Wuheng of our sect has fallen...”

Other than the big three, the other Human Sanctuaries received bad news as well.

Numerous Monarch Seeds were killed, which shocked and enraged all of them.

“Damn it! What happened inside the Human Ancestral Land?”

“When the Human Ancestral Land opened in the past, there were cases of Monarch Seeds dying, but not on such a huge scale. They were the future of the human race!” “Who is it? Who did it?”

Everyone then looked toward Wine Honorable and the Tempest King.

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler said coldly, “Among all the Monarch Seeds who entered the Human Ancestral Land, only Chu Kuangren is strong enough to kill his fellow peers. He must be responsible for the falls of the Monarch Seeds!” “Nonsense! You don’t have any evidence to prove that! Why are you accusing us?” Wine Honorable argued and scoffed.

He did not doubt Chu Kuangren’s powers, but why would he kill all of the Monarch Seeds?

“Tempest King, you must give us a satisfying explanation about this!” The Divine Sword Palace Ruler ignored the Wine Honorable and looked at the Tempest King.

The Tempest King stood in her spot, her expression calm. “We still don’t know who killed them. Divine Sword Palace Ruler, what explanation are you looking for?”

She glared at him and released her Monarch aura.

The sword intent around the Palace Ruler was instantly shattered.

Then, another figure came out from the Human Ancestral Land. It was Luo Hou. The others were surprised to see him. His energy presence was not human.

“Hey, stop right there!” The Divine Sword Palace Ruler raised his hand and formed a massive prison using tens of thousands of sword qi, trapping Luo Hou on the spot.

He was not afraid even though a Monarch captured him. “What is it you want?”

“How did you get inside the Human Ancestral Land?”

“I have the Sky Demon Cauldron, one of the Nine Humanity Treasures.”

“Oh?”

The crowd was slightly surprised.

Some people's eyes lit up.

If it were any other treasures, they would not be tempted. However, it was one of the Nine Humanity Treasures, which were closely related to the human race, and it was in the hands of a foreign tribe. "Chu Kuangren has snatched the Sky Demon Cauldron from me," Lou Hou said.

He seemed to have seen through everyone's thoughts.

"It's Chu Kuangren. When the Nine Humanity Treasures gathered, and the Ancestor Tombs opened, he snatched all the treasures and the Human Ancestor's blood. The other Monarch Seeds tried to fight him, but they got killed in the process," Luo Hou said.

He spoke the truth but not the entire picture.

Chu Kuangren did kill many of the Monarch Seeds, but the human Monarch Seeds were mostly killed by Kong Chunyuan, Chi Ying, and the other foreign tribes' Monarch Seeds.

However, Luo Hou kept that and the intervention of the foreign tribes from the Palace Ruler.

When the Monarchs heard that Chu Kuangren killed their respective Monarch Seeds, they were infuriated. "Tempest King, now you can give us an explanation."

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler glared at the Tempest King coldly. The Strength Buddha, Granny Snowflower, and Purple Lightning Master looked at her with uncontrollable rage. Their domineering Monarch auras spread across the line. Wine Honorable was one step shy from the Monarch Realm, but even he gulped nervously when he felt the pressure from the Monarchs' auras.

"Tempest King, what are we going to do now?" Wine Honorable asked.

The Tempest King rubbed her chin and muttered, "So, it really was the honorable teacher's doing."

Then, she put her hands behind her back and looked at the other Monarchs. "If it really was my honorable teacher who killed the Monarch Seeds, what are you going to do about it?"

What were they going to do about it?

The Monarchs were furious when they heard her.

They knew the Tempest King could be an unreasonable person, but not to that extent. Chu Kuangren had killed so many Monarch Seeds, yet it sounded like something trivial to the Tempest King.

“Do you guys want to start a war?”

The Tempest King grunted. Her Monarch aura erupted and swept across the universe, deterring the Monarchs from acting recklessly.

“Going into the Human Ancestral Land had its risks, and one’s strength determines what kind of opportunities one could get. Your Monarch Seeds teamed up against my honorable teacher and lost. Who can you blame for that? You should blame your Monarch Seeds for not being strong enough,” the Tempest King said.

When her words entered everyone’s ears, some found her words reasonable, but they were still upset that they had lost that many Monarch Seeds.

However, with the Tempest King around, they dared not move against Chu Kuangren.

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler’s expression turned bitter. His chest heaved as he had a hard time breathing.

Chapter 2303 Move The Immortal Island, Out of the Ancestral Land, Supreme Council’s Enforcers

Luo Hou was secretly observing the Monarchs’ response. He felt jealous when he saw the shock on the Monarchs’ faces when the Tempest King deterred them with her aura. He was jealous of the power the Tempest King possessed and of Chu Kuangren having such powerful support.

“Chu Kuangren, what makes you so special that a Monarch favors you so much?” Luo Hou exclaimed to himself.

While the others were distracted, he fled the scene.

No one cared about him anymore. The Monarchs did not care about a puny Grand Dao cultivator.

“Swoosh!”

Another streak of light shot out. It was Dao Lingtian.

The group asked him what happened inside, and his statement was more or less similar to Luo Hou’s. However, he sounded like he was hiding something.

He, too, did not mention about the foreign tribes.

After all, he was one of the Monarch Seeds who teamed up with the foreign tribes, and it was not something he should be proud of.

On top of that, Chu Kuangren defeated them even when he teamed up with the foreign tribes, which made things more embarrassing.

“Chu Kuangren!”

The Monarchs were furious, but they subtly glanced at the Tempest King.

With her around, they could not do anything to Chu Kuangren.

At that thought, they contacted their respective Human Sanctuaries, asking for instructions from the higher-ups.

“With so many Monarch Seeds dead, I believe this will alarm the Supreme Council,” thought one of the Monarchs.

...

Back in the Human Ancestral Land, Chu Kuangren broke the curse and defeated the Heaven-earth Grand Curse.

“Thank you, Brother Chu. You saved us all!”

All the human cultivators came forward with gratitude.

“It’s no big deal,” Chu Kuangren said.

The cultivators were from different Human Sanctuaries. Now that he had saved them from the curse, his reputation among the human tribes would definitely rise.

The people he saved might be able to provide some help in the future.

“I am Li De, from Tranquil Immortal Sect. Brother Chu, if you need any help, just come to me.”

The Tranquil Immortal Sect was a top Human Sanctuary.

Although not as powerful as the Big Three, they were as powerful as the Divine Sword Palace.

“I’m from the Sky Saber Sect, and I will repay your kindness in the future.”

“I, Yun Tian, will not forget this.”

After expressing their gratitude, the group thought of something and quickly scattered away.

“I almost forgot about my treasures!”

“Damn, I wouldn’t want to lose my treasures again!”

They thought they were done for a while ago, so they left their treasures and inheritance behind for the future generations to find. Now they were saved, they ought to retrieve their treasures.

Chu Kuangren simply glanced at it and ignored it. Then, he released Shang Honghua and the others from his Pocket Universe and prepared to leave the Human Ancestral Land.

“Too bad we don’t have enough time. The island has a lot of Opportunities of Fortune. If we can explore more, we can gain a lot,” Ye Zhu said as he shook his head.

Chu Kuangren grinned. “In that case, let’s bring it back.”

Everyone was shocked.

Bring back the Immortal Island? What did he mean?

Could he really bring the island back?

The island was part of the Human Ancestral Land and was bound by its rules. No matter how powerful one’s spatial technique was, it was almost impossible to move it out of the Human Ancestral Land.

While everyone was baffled, Chu Kuangren rose to the sky and shone brightly. The entire island trembled, and endless spiritual qi rumbled.

“Kakroom!”

The island started to shake violently.

All the cultivators on the island were shocked.

“What happened?”

“What’s going on?”

“Oh my god...”

The whole island then started to move.

That was when people noticed Chu Kuangren high in the sky, seemingly controlling the island.

“Is he moving the island?”

“How is he doing it?”

Mingyue Wuxia was not overly surprised by the scene because she knew better than others what was going on.

As time went by, many more cultivators exited the Human Ancestral Land.

The Monarchs were not interested in the common cultivators. They were only concerned about when Chu Kuangren would come out.

Even with the Tempest King around, many Monarch Seeds had died, and they could not let him leave just like that.

“Vroom!”

Then, the spatial structure of the Human Ancestral Land started to tremble and crack like a mirror. From there, the cracks spread.

Everyone was shocked.

“What’s happening to the Human Ancestral Land’s spatial wall?”

“Who did this?”

The void continued to crack as if something was bursting out from inside.

“Kakroom!”

Following a loud explosion, the space around the entrance exploded, and a huge mountain appeared from within.

Then, more mountains and rivers emerged.

A huge island in the sky was moving out from the Human Ancestral Land. It carried countless mountains and rivers on it. The clouds that shrouded the mountains were glimmering beautifully as if they contained huge Opportunities of Fortune, and many mystical beasts roamed the jungle.

It was not just any island; it was an Immortal Island!

Everyone's breathing turned heavy when they saw the island coming out.

"This Immortal Island is astonishing!"

"Isn't this the Immortal Island in the Ancestor Tombs? Why is it coming out from the Human Ancestral Land?"

Some cultivators who just came out from the Human Ancestral Land recognized the island and were shocked by the jaw-dropping scene.

Even the Monarchs were rendered speechless and confused.

"Look! It's Chu Kuangren!"

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler saw Chu Kuangren above the island, and his gaze turned frosty.

The other Monarchs looked at him as well.

"It really is him!"

"Great. He'll have to explain himself!"

“We’ll discuss the island later. Let’s take care of this menace first.”

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler and the others flew up to the island.

They surrounded Chu Kuangren with their Monarch auras erupting, flooding him like a tsunami.
“Hmph! How audacious!”

Chu Kuangren grunted and released a chilling sword intent.

He was able to counter the Monarchs’ auras!

“Chu Kuangren, you killed our Monarch Seeds and destroyed the future of the human race. Not even the Tempest King can save you today!” the Palace Ruler said.

The Tempest King then arrived in front of Chu Kuangren and shrouded the entire field with her Monarch Aura. “I would like to see who can lay a finger on my honorable teacher with me around!”

“Kaboom!”

At that moment, the realm shook, and a crushing and domineering aura descended from the sky.

Endless rays of golden light shone from a distance, forming a long, golden-colored path. On it was a figure in golden robes.

The man was handsome but dignified.

“Tempest King, what if the Supreme Council wants to put him on trial?” the man said.

The man’s terrifying Monarch aura surpassed that of the Divine Sword Palace Ruler and the others.

The moment the name Supreme Council was mentioned, the other Monarchs reacted with shock. They all looked at the man in golden robes with reverence and fear.

The Supreme Council was a special organization of the human race.

They exist to ensure the development of the human race and protect them from external factors. They also had the right and authority to judge everything that hindered the development or hurt the benefits of the human race.

The people who served the Supreme Council were ancient Monarchs, and they were the true backbone of the human race across the Infiniverse.

Chapter 2304 Divine Sword Palace Ruler's Monarch Avatar, Where Do You Think You're Standing?

"The Supreme Council is here?"

"Chu Kuangren is in deep trouble."

"For countless years, the Supreme Council has rarely shown itself. It will only appear when something terrible happens to the human race."

"A Grand Dao cultivator alarming the Supreme Council? This is definitely a first. Chu Kuangren is really something else."

"Yeah..."

While the other cultivators talked about the Supreme Council's arrival, the Divine Sword Palace Ruler, Strength Buddha, and the others gloated at Chu Kuangren.

With the Supreme Council's arrival, Chu Kuangren could no longer escape his crimes.

However, the Tempest King was not deterred even by the arrival of the Supreme Council. She looked at the man in golden robes and said coldly, "Even if you represent the Supreme Council, you will have to go through me before you lay a finger on my Honorable Teacher." Her Monarch aura erupted and grew more powerful by the second.

The man in the golden robes was shocked. He had heard of the Tempest King's name before, but he did not expect her to be that powerful.

No wonder she was the one who reigned supreme in the previous era.

The man in the golden robes was slightly deterred, but the fact that he represented the Supreme Council fueled his confidence. He looked at Chu Kuangren and said, "I'm the Goldwing Monarch, the Supreme Council's Enforcer. I hereby sentence Chu Kuangren..." There were two ranks in the Supreme Council — the Enforcers and the Adjudicators. There were three Adjudicators in charge of the whole council, and they were also the ones who gave the sentence. The Enforcers were the ones who carried out the Adjudicators' sentences.

"Chu Kuangren, you killed numerous Monarch Seeds of the human race and have severely affected the human race's future development. You are hereby sentenced to death!"

When the sentence was announced, terrifying killing intent flooded the realm.

Then, a more rampant battle intent erupted and swept over the sky and land, turning the realm into a ferocious battlefield.

"How dare you!" the Tempest King bellowed.

Her expression turned fierce, and murderous qi filled the air. "Lay a finger on my Honorable Teacher, and I will destroy the Supreme Council! You will pay a heavy price!"

"Outrageous!" The Goldwing Monarch was furious. "The Supreme Council represented the highest will of the human race. Tempest King, are you trying to betray the human race?"

"Everything I have now was given to me by my Honorable Teacher. If you go after him, it means you come after me. I will make sure you suffer the consequences!"

"Outrageous! Ridiculous!" the Goldwing Monarch bellowed.

With his hand raised, the rampant Monarch's will and the vast Great Dao energy merged into a huge golden palm.

As the golden palm crashed downward, the entire island shook.

The Tempest King countered with her Thunder Gale qi in the form of a palm strike.

When the two energies clashed, the entire island trembled violently. Many cultivators were blasted away by the shockwaves from the clash.

The Goldwing Monarch was also pushed backward, his face in shock.

“She had only ascended to the Monarch Realm in the previous era. How could she be so strong? Has she reached the Ultimate Monarch Realm?”

While the Goldwing Monarch and the Tempest King fought, the Divine Sword Palace Ruler and the other Monarchs went after Chu Kuangren. Their eyes were overflowing with killing intents.

“Since the Supreme Council has sentenced you to death, you shall die, Chu Kuangren!” the Purple Lightning Master said coldly.

He pointed at Chu Kuangren and released a bolt of purple lightning that could shake mountains.

Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign and cast his Ultimate-level cultivation technique, the Immovable Enlightenment King’s Sword Seal’s Golden Defense.

Buddhist chants sounded from the void and echoed in the sky.

The purple lightning struck from the sky with tremendous power. The strike from a Monarch managed to push Chu Kuangren back a few steps, but he was unscathed. “Chu Kuangren, I thought I would have a spar in Sword Dao with you after you ascended to the Monarch Realm, but now I have to kill you!”

The deaths of Jue Jian, Jian Shifang, and Dugu Bupo fueled the grudges between the Divine Sword Palace and Chu Kuangren.

As the Palace Ruler, he had the responsibility to remove Chu Kuangren from existence once and for all.

His sword intent erupted and locked onto Chu Kuangren.

Although they were all Monarchs, the Divine Sword Palace Ruler was much stronger than the Purple Lightning Master and the Strength Buddha.

The Purple Lightning Master and the others had just manifested their Monarch's core recently, making them the most common Monarchs.

However, the Divine Sword Palace Ruler was different. His Sword Daoist law energy swirled around him, and a Daoist law energy ray shot into the sky, manifesting into a dazzling giant armed with a sword.

The giant had the sun and moon as eyes and wielded the Daoist law as a sword.

The sword in its hand felt like the entire galaxy, and his boundless aura shrouded the entire island.

“Monarch Avatar!”

The Purple Lightning Master, Strength Buddha, and the others were surprised.

Unlike how common cultivation techniques were cast, the Monarch Avatar was manifested using Monarch Daoist law energy, which was an advanced technique that common Monarchs did not have access to yet.

“If he can cast the Monarch Avatar, it means the Divine Sword Palace Ruler has ascended to a Second Step Monarch,” the Purple Lightning Master said with a hint of envy.

Monarchs were categorized into several categories — the First Step, Second Step, and Third Step.

The Purple Lightning Master and the others were Third Step Monarchs, the most common ones.

The Monarchs that Chu Kuangren killed before were all Third Step Monarchs.

“Chu Kuangren, have a taste of the Monarch Avatar!”

The Palace Ruler knew Chu Kuangren possessed immeasurable power and wielded an Ultimate Supreme Treasure, which granted him the power of a common Monarch.

Therefore, he dared not be careless while battling Chu Kuangren and used the strongest Monarch Avatar as a preemptive strike.

The Monarch Avatar's power was boundless, and it shrouded Chu Kuangren.

No one believed he could escape that absolute power.

“He can't win. He may have killed several common Monarchs, but he had to rely on his formations and Ultimate Supreme Treasure to do so. We're not in the Feng Domain, and there's no formation to help him. How is he going to win?”

“You're right.”

The Purple Lightning Master, Strength Buddha, and the others believed that would be the end of Chu Kuangren.

A majority of the cultivators were trembling before the sheer pressure from the Monarch Avatar.

“Chu Kuangren, die!”

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler bellowed and unleashed his strongest Daoist law energy through his Monarch Avatar. The avatar swung its galaxy sword down at Chu Kuangren.

“Hmph! Don't even think about it!”

The Tempest King bellowed and wanted to stop the attack.

Even with the Goldwing Monarch in her way, she was confident in protecting Chu Kuangren from the Monarchs.

However, before she could attack, she sensed something that surprised her.

“Where do you think you’re standing?” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

At the next moment, the endless spiritual qi on the island gathered upon him and rapidly formed a powerful avatar behind him.

It was the Pan Gu Avatar!

The avatar was manifested through the purest spiritual qi, and it was almost endless.

It granted the avatar an explosive power that rivaled or, if not, was much more powerful than the Monarch Avatar.

The Pan Gu Avatar wielded his Genesis Axe and swung it forward. The axe ray could chop through universes, and the purest energy it contained exploded upon collision.

When the Genesis Axe collided with the galaxy-like sword, the tremendous energy detonated the void. Amidst the clash, the Divine Sword Palace Ruler’s Monarch Avatar started to crack.

“What? How is this possible?” The Palace Ruler’s eyes widened in disbelief.

Chapter 2305 Powerful Pan Gu Avatar, Island Ruler’s Might, Three Adjudicators Appear

“Kaboom!”

The Pan Gu Avatar’s Genesis Axe released a powerful axe ray containing the purest and most dominating power.

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler’s Monarch Avatar started to collapse under the indomitable axe ray, and the Palace Ruler himself was blasted away.

He had cracks all over his Monarch’s body, and even his Monarch’s Heart suffered a concussion. Blood spewed from his mouth as he crashed.

He looked at the Pan Gu Avatar in horror.

“H-How is this possible?” The Divine Sword Palace Ruler could not believe it.

One strike was all it took for Chu Kuangren to destroy his Monarch Avatar!

How ridiculous! More importantly, it was from a Grand Dao cultivator!

Everyone already found it unbelievable and astonishing when Chu Kuangren killed the four Monarchs in the Feng Domain, yet he was able to surpass that. One axe strike to destroy the Monarch Avatar?

Was Chu Kuangren human?

“The island! The island’s spiritual qi must be boosting his energy!”

Strength Buddha, Purple Lightning Master, and the others soon noticed something strange.

However, they could not understand why the island’s spiritual qi would boost Chu Kuangren’s strength.

“You want to judge me without finding out the truth? Supreme Council? What makes you worthy to be the highest law enforcer of the human race? What law do you abide by?” Chu Kuangren bellowed at the Goldwing Monarch.

Then, he stepped forward and appeared above the island. With his hand raised, the island’s spiritual qi gathered upon him rapidly as if he were a black hole absorbing all the energy.

The Pan Gu Avatar behind him exuded a magical and divine energy.

Its Strength Great Dao skyrocketed with the boost from the island’s spiritual qi. As Strength Daoist law energy started to appear, the Pan Gu Avatar instantly transformed into a Monarch Avatar that emanated a boundless Monarch aura.

The Great Daoist law energy easily tore the fabric of the void.

It grew much more powerful than the Divine Sword Palace Ruler's Monarch Avatar.

It even possessed the power to create a universe.

"Island Ruler? You've become the Island Ruler? No wonder the island could exit the Human Ancestral Land. It was you!" The Goldwing Monarch was mortified.

He had heard of the legend of the Island Ruler from books.

Today, he finally witnessed it with his own eyes.

Chu Kuangren's words put a grim look on his face. He said, "Chu Kuangren, how dare you question the Supreme Council? You are charged with another crime!"

"If you can come up with all kinds of excuses to charge me, tell your Adjudicators to come and see me themselves!" Chu Kuangren bellowed.

After he said that, his energy level reached the limit.

The Pan Gu Avatar behind him released a blinding divine light and raised the Genesis Axe high into the sky, with its aim on the Goldwing Monarch.

"No!"

Feeling threatened, the Goldwing Monarch's expression shifted.

He was stronger than the Divine Sword Palace Ruler, almost reaching the level of First Step Monarch.

Yet, he still felt threatened.

It was evident how much Chu Kuangren's power had skyrocketed with the island's buff.

"Heaven Reckoning!" Chu Kuangren bellowed.

The Pan Gu Avatar roared, and Celestial Divine qi erupted, shattering the void around the area. Its power shook the entire realm.

As the axe swung down at the Goldwing Monarch, he bellowed, "Goldwing Divine Sky Avatar!"

His Great Daoist law energy immediately manifested into an avatar behind him.

It was a massive golden condor engulfed in golden flames.

The condor cried and flapped its wings, shadowing even the sun.

Millions of golden feathers shot forward like blades.

However, the axe ray crushed all the feathers, and while enveloped in a violent aura, it was swung toward the golden condor.

Following an excruciating cry, the condor was chopped in half.

Its Great Daoist law energy also dissipated along with it. The Goldwing Monarch was blasted away while covered in blood.

All the other Monarchs were horrified when they saw the scene. They looked at Chu Kuangren in disbelief.

Even the Enforcer of the Supreme Council was defeated in one strike.

What kind of power did Chu Kuangren possess? How could he be so terrifying?

“The island is huge, and the spiritual qi is almost endless. With the island’s buff, Chu Kuangren’s explosive energy is terrifying.”

“Yeah. Even the top First Step Monarch can’t do anything to him. How did he become the Island Ruler?”

“Damn! The island has many cultivation resources as well. Now that he has become the Island Ruler, all the resources belong to him.”

“You’re right...”

“How much did he gain in this trip to the Human Ancestral Land?”

Everyone looked at Chu Kuangren in astonishment.

Dao Lingtian, on the other hand, was drowned in jealousy.

“On top of the Ultimate-level cultivation technique, Nine Humanity Treasures, the Human Ancestor’s blood, you’re taking the entire Immortal Island too? ”

“Chu Kuangren, how could you?”

He then remembered what Chu Kuangren said in the Ancestor Tombs.

“Fate chose me!”

Could it be that all the fortune energy of this era had concentrated on him?

How was it possible?

Even if he ranked first on multiple leaderboards and got a huge amount of fortune energy, how could he grow so ridiculously powerful?

Chu Kuangren looked at the Goldwing Monarch coldly.

Judge him? What a joke.

What did he do that the Supreme Council had to judge him?

Who could judge him?

He raised his hand again, gathering spiritual qi upon him once more.

The Pan Gu Avatar released an endless violent aura.

Just as it was about to attack, three boundless willpower appeared from the void.

The clouds in the sky rumbled, and auspicious conjurations started to appear. Among all the phenomena that appeared, a figure emerged.

The figure was akin to the heavenly sovereign that ruled the sky.

The earth quaked, and earthen qi rose to the sky as towering mountains sprung from the land

On top of the highest mountain was a tall man standing with his hands behind his back, peering down at all life in existence. His aura was as vast as the universe.

Then, the realm rained in golden dew. The golden dew brought life and energy to the land.

A beautiful woman in a yellow dress emerged from the golden dew, holding a paper umbrella. She looked gentle and friendly.

“It’s the three Adjudicators!”

The Goldwing Monarch’s eyes widened when he saw the arrival of the Adjudicators.

The three Adjudicators were the highest authoritative figures of the human race.

Their appearance caused a huge commotion among the humans.

Even the Tempest King was forced to take the situation seriously.

“They’re here...”

The Tempest King noticed that the three Adjudicators were but a sliver of their willpower. However, their presence had been elusive for eons.

Many Monarchs did not even have the chance to see their willpower manifestations.

The willpower manifestation of the three appearing together was definitely a first in the past ten Hongmeng Eras.

All three Adjudicators placed their attention on Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren stood proud with his hands behind his back.

He stared at the three of them coldly.

“Chu Kuangren, do you know what crimes you have committed?”

The voice of the Adjudicator high in the clouds was like rumbling thunder, and the clouds rumbled as his words echoed.

Chapter 2306 Chu Kuangren Is Not Only Innocent, But He Has Also Done A Great Service, The Truth Was Revealed, The Heavenly Sovereign’s Killing Intent

The Supreme Council had three Adjudicators.

The first was the Heavenly Sovereign, the second was the Earthen Monarch, and the third one was the Human Empress.

Each aspect — the heavens, earth, and humanity — was represented by each Adjudicator of the Supreme Council. The three of them held supreme authority over the human race, possessing the right to judge the good and the bad. “Chu Kuangren, are you well aware of your crimes?”

The high and mighty Heavenly Sovereign immediately questioned him for his crimes.

His voice was like a rolling thunder, rumbling the clouds.

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren stood with both hands behind his back. He lifted his head at the three great Adjudicators, his gaze calm. “What crime have I possibly committed?!”

“You have killed many Monarch Seeds inside the Human Ancestral Land. Do you not know that those people were the future of the human race? If that isn’t a crime, what is?”

“Those seeds had gone bad, so what future could they have brought? I was cleaning them up for the human race. Speaking of which, I’m not guilty. In fact, I’ve even done a great service to humanity!”

“Nothing but nonsense and desperate excuses! Don’t even try to argue your way out of this, Chu Kuangren. The evidence that you’ve killed so many Monarch Seeds is clear!” The Divine Sword Palace Leader snorted.

Then, he bowed to the three Adjudicators and said, “Your Honorable Excellencies, I humbly request that Chu Kuangren gets severely punished for his actions so that justice to the great Human Sanctuaries can be restored!”

“Who has the nerve to lay their hands on my Honorable Teacher?”

The Tempest King snorted, her Monarch aura wreaking havoc across the land. She stared daggers at the three Adjudicators with no intention of stepping aside.

Meanwhile, one of the three Adjudicators who was a woman in yellow robes, the Human Empress, looked at the Tempest King with a gentle and warm smile. “To have attained such a level of power in just one epoch, you truly haven’t disappointed me, Tempest King.”

She seemed to know the Tempest King.

The Tempest King fell silent upon hearing that. She did know the Human Empress from the one time the Human Empress helped her in the past.

However, the Tempest King had no choice but to get on her bad side today because of Chu Kuangren.

Her determination made the Heavenly Sovereign and Earthen Monarch ponder.

If it were other ordinary Monarchs, the three Adjudicators could ignore them.

However, they could not afford to take the Tempest King lightly. After all, they had been watching the Tempest King all these years. If she were to put her life on the line right now, even an Adjudicator like them would not stand to benefit much from this. “Your Honorable Excellencies, may I have the permission to speak my mind?”

At that moment, a gentle voice sounded.

Mingyue Wuxia slowly stepped forward.

Everyone turned their heads toward her.

She continued to speak. “I believe Chu Kuangren is innocent!”

Her comment started an uproar among the crowd. Especially Granny Snowflower of the Heavenly Human Sanctuary, she was very puzzled. “Wuxia, are you aware that Chu Kuangren was the one who killed Lu Wuheng? How can he be innocent?”

However, Mingyue Wuxia did not answer her.

The three Adjudicators looked at Mingyue Wuxia with a hint of surprise in their eyes.

“What is your reason for saying so?”

“When we entered the Human Ancestral Land...” Mingyue Wuxia began to tell everyone about the foreign tribes that infiltrated the Human Ancestral Land to steal the Human Ancestor’s blood and place a curse on it.

“If the Human Ancestor’s blood were to fall into the hands of those outsiders, the consequences would surely be unimaginable. Hence, I believe Chu Kuangren is not only innocent, but he has also done humanity a great service.”

At the end of Mingyue Wuxia’s explanation, everyone was stunned.

Things were very different from what they knew.

“Swish, swish...”

Everyone looked at Dao Lingtian.

They knew he must be afraid to speak out about joining forces with the foreign tribes as it would harm his reputation if he told them. That was why he omitted that fact earlier.

Wine Honorable could not help but sneer. He commented sarcastically, “My my, it seems that the Manifa Destiny Sect has truly produced a wonderful Divine Bachelor.”

“Second on the Divine Bachelor Leaderboard? Hmph, more like a complete waste of space.”

The Tempest King was much more direct with her words.

Dao Lingtian’s face turned red at the mockery from the crowd and all their disdainful glances. At that moment, he wished he could find a hole to hide in.

“Hmph! That’s just your side of the story,” the Divine Sword Palace Leader said unrelentingly.

“We can testify for that.”

Just then, a cultivator stepped forward and spoke up.

It was Li De of the Tranquil Immortal Sect.

Besides him, a few other cultivators stepped out as witnesses for Chu Kuangren too.

They were cultivators who had suffered the curse on Immortal Island and were saved by Chu Kuangren. The three Adjudicators pondered after hearing what they all said.

“If that’s the case, doesn’t it mean Chu Kuangren is not only innocent but has also done a great service?”

“That’s right. If the foreign tribes had gotten their hands on the Human Ancestor’s blood and placed a curse on it using some ominous means, it would’ve left a devastating blow to humanity.”

“I agree.”

It started a discussion among the crowd.

Meanwhile, the Divine Sword Palace Leader, the Purple Lightning Master, and other Monarchs did not look happy.

Would that not mean they were causing such a big scene for nothing?

“Hmph! For joining forces with outsiders for one’s selfish interest, acting with such disgrace, and even concealing the truth from others, you don’t deserve to live!” The Earthen Monarch snorted coldly.

His willpower manifestations trembled slightly.

“Boom!”

A surge of Monarch energy was suddenly blasted at Dao Lingtian.

The strength of that energy was overwhelming enough to kill him a thousand times over!

Dao Lingtian's face was filled with horror.

At that moment, the Heavenly Sovereign unleashed a surge of Daoist law energy, creating a barrier in front of Dao Lingtian that blocked the Earthen Monarch's attack.

When the two of their attacks collided, the energy fluctuation released was comparable to the top-tier Monarchs.

It was extremely terrifying.

However, those were only their willpower manifestations.

"Earthen Monarch, Dao Lingtian is ranked second on the Divine Bachelor Leaderboard. He's an important Monarch Seed who can help humanity in the battle of fortune in this era. We mustn't kill him so rashly," the Heavenly Sovereign advised.

"That's funny. My Honorable Teacher is ranked first on the Divine Bachelor Leaderboard. Does this mean you can kill him as you wish?"

The Heavenly Sovereign shot the Tempest King a glance.

A chilling killing intent could be seen within the depth of his gaze.

However, that killing intent was concealed very well.

No one else besides the Tempest King could sense it.

"Giving me a warning, huh? If you have the balls to do so, come here in person!"

Why would the Tempest King be bothered by his killing intent?

On the contrary, she had provoked him! Everyone's heart pounded in fear.

After all, the Heavenly Sovereign was one of the three great Adjudicators who held supreme authority over the human race. No one would dare provoke him in such a manner.

The Tempest King might be the first person in history to do that.

The coldness in the Heavenly Sovereign's eyes intensified when he heard what she said. The sky turned dark as a suffocating atmosphere enveloped the surroundings.

It was as if the heavens were enraged!

"Hehe. The Tempest King is still so direct with her words. She's still young, Heavenly Sovereign, so don't take it personally," the Human Empress said.

Her gentle voice diffused the tense atmosphere in the surroundings.

"Goldwing, I'll leave the rest to you," said the Heavenly Sovereign.

Soon, the skies returned to azure blue once again.

The supreme overbearing aura also vanished without a trace.

"Chu Kuangren... What a splendid name. I shall remember it."

The Earthen Monarch cast a deep gaze at Chu Kuangren before he left. Chu Kuangren was stunned. That was the first time someone had complimented his name.

"I'll be seeing you again, Tempest King."

After taking a look at Chu Kuangren, the Human Empress turned to the Tempest King and chuckled.

The Tempest King retracted her aura as well. “You’re welcome to visit anytime.”

After the auras of the three Adjudicators left, the Goldwing Monarch looked at the other Monarchs at the scene and snorted. “I can’t believe the Human Sanctuaries, as huge and influential as you are, made the report to the Supreme Council without investigating the truth properly. I will be visiting you again to talk about this one day.”

He was about to leave when a surge of aura locked onto him.

“Where do you think you’re going?”

It was the Tempest King. She looked at him coldly. “After accusing my Honorable Teacher and attacking me, do you think you can walk away like that?”

Chapter 2307 Both Teacher and Disciple Are Bandits, Internal Dispute Among the Three Great Adjudicators

The Goldwing Monarch turned around stiffly and looked at the Tempest King. His heart was pounding, but he pretended to be calm as he said, “What else do you want, Tempest King? I’ll have you know, I’m an Enforcer of the Supreme Council. Watch yourself.”

“An Enforcer? Hmph, even an Enforcer will have to pay the price for wishing to harm my Honorable Teacher.” The Tempest King sneered, her gaze cold.

That was when the Goldwing Monarch recalled the Tempest King going all out to protect her Honorable Teacher.

She even dared to stand up to an Adjudicator for Chu Kuangren, let alone an Enforcer like him.

“What do you want?”

“Leave behind every possession you have on you right now and open up your personal storage dimension. Otherwise, I wouldn’t mind crippling you on the spot!”

“That’s too much!”

“Well...”

The Tempest King narrowed her eyes menacingly.

The Goldwing Monarch felt threatened by her. If he did not do as she asked, he was sure he would be crippled the next second.

He did not doubt the Tempest King’s ability to do so as well.

After all, even the Adjudicators had to act with caution before her presence.

He quickly took out all his possessions and opened his personal storage dimension for the Tempest King to browse through. She took all the treasures, Great Dao fragments, and the like. Not even a single Great Dao fragment was left behind.

The Goldwing Monarch was devastated.

If he had known earlier, he would have never come to carry out the task.

The Tempest King was nothing but a bandit.

“Honorable Teacher, take them. I came in a hurry here and didn’t have time to bring any gifts, so please accept these items instead,” the Tempest King said.

“Oh, how thoughtful of you.” Chu Kuangren laughed.

Not far away, the Divine Sword Palace Leader, Strength Buddha, and others were planning to leave when spiritual qi suddenly surged from the surroundings and locked onto them.

Despite being a Monarch, even they felt a chill run down their spine.

Chu Kuangren looked at them and said indifferently, “Ladies and gentlemen, aren’t you all a little naïve to think you can leave after targeting me?”

“What do you want?”

“You’ve seen what the Enforcer has done, so just do the same.”

“You...”

The Divine Sword Palace Leader and others wanted to resist.

However, the surrounding spiritual qi surged more violently. As if the weight of thousands of divine mountains were upon them, their knees turned weak, and they almost fell to the ground.

“I don’t wish to repeat a second time. Do you understand?”

His words were filled with killing intent. “Yes, yes.”

The Monarchs quickly nodded, handing out all of their resources and items obediently.

The Goldwing Monarch exclaimed with shock as he watched the scene unfold from the side.

It seemed like not only the disciple but the Honorable Teacher was also a bandit.

With that, he quickly left.

He told himself he would never provoke that teacher-disciple duo anymore.

The others also left one after another.

“It looks like you’ve gained quite the bounty, Brother Chu.” Mingyue Wuxia chuckled as she looked at the various treasures those Monarchs had placed in front of Chu Kuangren.

“Do you want some? Feel free to take your pick.” Chu Kuangren said while waving his arm generously. Since she had spoken up for him in front of the Adjudicators, he would not mind returning the favor.

“It’s alright. I don’t need them.”

“Will the Heavenly Human Sanctuary spare you for speaking up for me?” Chu Kuangren asked curiously.

“Oh, are you worried about me, Brother Chu?” Mingyue Wuxia blinked.

“I believe you’ll have your ways to escape if things go bad.”

She was ranked first on the Divine Maiden Leaderboard, and there was no way the Heavenly Human Sanctuary would punish her just like that. Besides, her origins were also quite mysterious, so it would not be surprising for her to possess extraordinary techniques.

Chu Kuangren was not too concerned for her, but still, he told her, “If you don’t think you can’t stay in the Heavenly Human Sanctuary anymore, you’re welcome to join Pan Gu Sect.”

“Oh, now you have me a little interested.”

Mingyue Wuxia laughed before she left. The Tempest King walked and looked at Mingyue Wuxia’s back. She said, “Honorable Teacher, that person is no ordinary woman. I can sense a peculiar energy hidden within her.”

Chu Kuangren nodded. “I know.”

After that, he looked at Shang Honghua and the others and said, “Alright, let’s go home.”

One could say that his journey to the Human Ancestral Land had come to a perfect end.

With all the items and treasures he obtained, his hands would go sore just from counting them.

...

Inside a mysterious dimension, a figure was sitting with his legs crossed, shrouded in a bundle of golden light. There were various mysterious conjurations projected in the golden light.

Suddenly, the surroundings trembled, and a powerful surge of earth qi erupted.

Countless towering peaks sprung out from inside that dimension, and sitting crossed-legged on one of the peaks was a tall figure. His eagle-sharp gaze locked onto the man in golden robes, and he asked coldly, "I demand an explanation, Heavenly Sovereign!"

Those two figures were part of the three great Adjudicators, the Heavenly Sovereign and Earthen Monarch!

Following that, golden dewdrops fell from the void.

A woman in yellow robes holding a paper umbrella slowly approached.

"Heavenly Sovereign, you should give us an explanation."

It was the Human Empress.

The three Adjudicators had gathered.

This time, it was their true selves and not their willpower apparitions.

Their auras continued to collide in the dimension, and shockingly powerful Daoist law energies intertwined as they continued to be at odds.

The auras released could easily kill any ordinary Monarch.

"I've made a lapse in judgment this time," the Heavenly Sovereign replied.

"Is that what you call an explanation? Where's the sincerity?"

The Earthen Monarch's expression turned grim. He raised his hand, gathering his Daoist law energy to form a divine mountain that he tossed directly at the Heavenly Sovereign.

Although it was only a simple attack from the Earthen Monarch, the energy contained within it was terrifyingly powerful.

Even if ten Divine Sword Palace Rulers attacked with their full powers, it would pale in comparison.

The golden light around the Heavenly Sovereign trembled and automatically protected him by blocking the divine mountain from the Earthen Monarch. He said, "Please calm down, Earthen Monarch."

"Heavenly Sovereign, regarding Chu Kuangren's matter, why did you issue an execution order directly to the Goldwing Monarch without our consent?" the Human Empress asked indifferently.

However, what she said shocked the entire Supreme Council.

After all, any crucial matter regarding humanity must be discussed between the three great Adjudicators before a final decision could be made.

When it came to Chu Kuangren's matter this time, the Heavenly Sovereign skipped that process, and it was a first in history.

"I believed Chu Kuangren killing so many Monarch Seeds had severely affected the future of humanity. Besides, both of you were in closed-door meditation, so I went and told the Goldwing Monarch to deal with it," the Heavenly Sovereign explained.

"Nonsense. Chu Kuangren is ranked first on the Divine Daoist Leaderboard. No matter how many Monarch Seeds he has killed, do you think you, as an Adjudicator, should've decided without investigating the matter and not getting our consent? "Just look at what happened today. A hero of the human race was almost treated as a criminal by the Supreme Council. Now that you've done something like this, how will the Supreme Council continue to do its job in the future?"

The Earthen Monarch became more enraged the more he spoke.

Back at the Human Ancestral Land, he held back his anger.

However, he could not help it anymore.

After what happened, the Supreme Council's reputation among the human race would plummet.

How would everyone still trust them after this?

"I told you. I made a lapse in judgment today, and it was merely an accident," the Heavenly Sovereign said.

"This is the first time an accident like this has happened in years. That child's name is Chu Kuangren, right? Is there something about him you're afraid of?" The Human Empress stared intently at the Heavenly Sovereign.

The temperature in the atmosphere dropped, and everything fell silent.

The Earthen Monarch, too, looked at the Heavenly Sovereign, waiting for an answer.

Chapter 2307 Both Teacher and Disciple Are Bandits, Internal Dispute Among the Three Great Adjudicators

The Goldwing Monarch turned around stiffly and looked at the Tempest King. His heart was pounding, but he pretended to be calm as he said, "What else do you want, Tempest King? I'll have you know, I'm an Enforcer of the Supreme Council. Watch yourself."

"An Enforcer? Hmph, even an Enforcer will have to pay the price for wishing to harm my Honorable Teacher." The Tempest King sneered, her gaze cold.

That was when the Goldwing Monarch recalled the Tempest King going all out to protect her Honorable Teacher.

She even dared to stand up to an Adjudicator for Chu Kuangren, let alone an Enforcer like him.

"What do you want?"

“Leave behind every possession you have on you right now and open up your personal storage dimension. Otherwise, I wouldn’t mind crippling you on the spot!”

“That’s too much!”

“Well...”

The Tempest King narrowed her eyes menacingly.

The Goldwing Monarch felt threatened by her. If he did not do as she asked, he was sure he would be crippled the next second.

He did not doubt the Tempest King’s ability to do so as well.

After all, even the Adjudicators had to act with caution before her presence.

He quickly took out all his possessions and opened his personal storage dimension for the Tempest King to browse through. She took all the treasures, Great Dao fragments, and the like. Not even a single Great Dao fragment was left behind.

The Goldwing Monarch was devastated.

If he had known earlier, he would have never come to carry out the task.

The Tempest King was nothing but a bandit.

“Honorable Teacher, take them. I came in a hurry here and didn’t have time to bring any gifts, so please accept these items instead,” the Tempest King said.

“Oh, how thoughtful of you.” Chu Kuangren laughed.

Not far away, the Divine Sword Palace Leader, Strength Buddha, and others were planning to leave when spiritual qi suddenly surged from the surroundings and locked onto them.

Despite being a Monarch, even they felt a chill run down their spine.

Chu Kuangren looked at them and said indifferently, “Ladies and gentlemen, aren’t you all a little naïve to think you can leave after targeting me?”

“What do you want?”

“You’ve seen what the Enforcer has done, so just do the same.”

“You...”

The Divine Sword Palace Leader and others wanted to resist.

However, the surrounding spiritual qi surged more violently. As if the weight of thousands of divine mountains were upon them, their knees turned weak, and they almost fell to the ground.

“I don’t wish to repeat a second time. Do you understand?”

His words were filled with killing intent. “Yes, yes.”

The Monarchs quickly nodded, handing out all of their resources and items obediently.

The Goldwing Monarch exclaimed with shock as he watched the scene unfold from the side.

It seemed like not only the disciple but the Honorable Teacher was also a bandit.

With that, he quickly left.

He told himself he would never provoke that teacher-disciple duo anymore.

The others also left one after another.

“It looks like you’ve gained quite the bounty, Brother Chu.” Mingyue Wuxia chuckled as she looked at the various treasures those Monarchs had placed in front of Chu Kuangren.

“Do you want some? Feel free to take your pick.” Chu Kuangren said while waving his arm generously. Since she had spoken up for him in front of the Adjudicators, he would not mind returning the favor.

“It’s alright. I don’t need them.”

“Will the Heavenly Human Sanctuary spare you for speaking up for me?” Chu Kuangren asked curiously.

“Oh, are you worried about me, Brother Chu?” Mingyue Wuxia blinked.

“I believe you’ll have your ways to escape if things go bad.”

She was ranked first on the Divine Maiden Leaderboard, and there was no way the Heavenly Human Sanctuary would punish her just like that. Besides, her origins were also quite mysterious, so it would not be surprising for her to possess extraordinary techniques.

Chu Kuangren was not too concerned for her, but still, he told her, “If you don’t think you can’t stay in the Heavenly Human Sanctuary anymore, you’re welcome to join Pan Gu Sect.”

“Oh, now you have me a little interested.”

Mingyue Wuxia laughed before she left. The Tempest King walked and looked at Mingyue Wuxia’s back. She said, “Honorable Teacher, that person is no ordinary woman. I can sense a peculiar energy hidden within her.”

Chu Kuangren nodded. “I know.”

After that, he looked at Shang Honghua and the others and said, “Alright, let’s go home.”

One could say that his journey to the Human Ancestral Land had come to a perfect end.

With all the items and treasures he obtained, his hands would go sore just from counting them.

...

Inside a mysterious dimension, a figure was sitting with his legs crossed, shrouded in a bundle of golden light. There were various mysterious conjurations projected in the golden light.

Suddenly, the surroundings trembled, and a powerful surge of earth qi erupted.

Countless towering peaks sprung out from inside that dimension, and sitting crossed-legged on one of the peaks was a tall figure. His eagle-sharp gaze locked onto the man in golden robes, and he asked coldly, "I demand an explanation, Heavenly Sovereign!"

Those two figures were part of the three great Adjudicators, the Heavenly Sovereign and Earthen Monarch!

Following that, golden dewdrops fell from the void.

A woman in yellow robes holding a paper umbrella slowly approached.

"Heavenly Sovereign, you should give us an explanation."

It was the Human Empress.

The three Adjudicators had gathered.

This time, it was their true selves and not their willpower apparitions.

Their auras continued to collide in the dimension, and shockingly powerful Daoist law energies intertwined as they continued to be at odds.

The auras released could easily kill any ordinary Monarch.

“I’ve made a lapse in judgment this time,” the Heavenly Sovereign replied.

“Is that what you call an explanation? Where’s the sincerity?”

The Earthen Monarch’s expression turned grim. He raised his hand, gathering his Daoist law energy to form a divine mountain that he tossed directly at the Heavenly Sovereign.

Although it was only a simple attack from the Earthen Monarch, the energy contained within it was terrifyingly powerful.

Even if ten Divine Sword Palace Rulers attacked with their full powers, it would pale in comparison.

The golden light around the Heavenly Sovereign trembled and automatically protected him by blocking the divine mountain from the Earthen Monarch. He said, “Please calm down, Earthen Monarch.”

“Heavenly Sovereign, regarding Chu Kuangren’s matter, why did you issue an execution order directly to the Goldwing Monarch without our consent?” the Human Empress asked indifferently.

However, what she said shocked the entire Supreme Council.

After all, any crucial matter regarding humanity must be discussed between the three great Adjudicators before a final decision could be made.

When it came to Chu Kuangren’s matter this time, the Heavenly Sovereign skipped that process, and it was a first in history.

“I believed Chu Kuangren killing so many Monarch Seeds had severely affected the future of humanity. Besides, both of you were in closed-door meditation, so I went and told the Goldwing Monarch to deal with it,” the Heavenly Sovereign explained.

“Nonsense. Chu Kuangren is ranked first on the Divine Daoist Leaderboard. No matter how many Monarch Seeds he has killed, do you think you, as an Adjudicator, should’ve decided without investigating the matter and not getting our consent? “Just look at what happened today. A hero of the human race was almost treated as a criminal by the Supreme Council. Now that you’ve done something like this, how will the Supreme Council continue to do its job in the future?”

The Earthen Monarch became more enraged the more he spoke.

Back at the Human Ancestral Land, he held back his anger.

However, he could not help it anymore.

After what happened, the Supreme Council’s reputation among the human race would plummet.

How would everyone still trust them after this?

“I told you. I made a lapse in judgment today, and it was merely an accident,” the Heavenly Sovereign said.

“This is the first time an accident like this has happened in years. That child’s name is Chu Kuangren, right? Is there something about him you’re afraid of?” The Human Empress stared intently at the Heavenly Sovereign.

The temperature in the atmosphere dropped, and everything fell silent.

The Earthen Monarch, too, looked at the Heavenly Sovereign, waiting for an answer.

Chapter 2308 The Heavenly Sovereign’s Inexplicable Fear, There’s Still More Where That Came From, The Human Empress Visits

“He’s not worth my attention even if he becomes a Monarch, but since he’s only a Grand Dao cultivator now, what do I possibly have to be afraid of?” the Heavenly Sovereign said.

“Is that so?”

The Human Empress was still a little suspicious.

The Heavenly Sovereign snickered, and a majestic aura erupted from his body. “I am the Heavenly Sovereign, a human who holds supreme authority over the human race for millions of eras. Why would I be afraid of a little junior cultivator? Do you really look down on me so much, Human Empress?”

“I hope that’s the case,” the Human Empress replied.

“Hmph, I hope whatever happened today won’t repeat.” The Earthen Monarch snorted.

Although he was still unhappy about what happened, there was nothing he could do.

They were the main pillars of support for the entire human race.

Should they fight just because of something like that?

Would that not make them look like a joke to the foreign tribes?

Should they fight just because of something like that?

Would that not make them look like a joke to the foreign tribes?

“Now, regarding the infiltration of the foreign tribes into the Human Ancestral Land, how should we deal with that?”

“Hmph. I’ll talk with those old fools.”

The Earthen Monarch snorted. He looked like he was out to kill. It was hard to imagine he would look for them just for a simple talk. After all, the foreign tribes had crossed the line by seeking to steal the Human Ancestor’s blood. After some discussion, the Earthen Monarch and Human Empress left.

Only the Heavenly Sovereign was left in the mysterious dimension.

He sat with his legs crossed. The Daoist law energy surrounding him attacked the space around him as if he were venting his frustrations.

“Damn you both, Earthen Monarch and Human Empress! How dare you accuse me of such crimes!”

After a while, the Heavenly Sovereign’s rage gradually receded. Then, he remembered Chu Kuangren and the Human Ancestor’s blood. “Chu Kuangren, huh? He’s going to be troublesome to deal with.”

Just as the Human Empress guessed, for some reason, he was fearful of Chu Kuangren.

That was why he bypassed the Human Empress and Earthen Monarch and directly judged Chu Kuangren.

No one else knew the conversation and disputes among the three great Adjudicators.

Meanwhile, the gigantic Immortal Island soon approached from the skies in Feng Domain.

The sight of the Immortal Island shocked everyone.

Especially when they saw the brimming spiritual qi on the Immortal Island and the countless hidden treasures on it, they became excited.

Some wanted to explore it.

However, a spiritual qi barrier surrounding the island stopped them from entering.

Finally, the Immortal Island stopped above Myriad Arms City. That entire island was several hundred times larger than Myriad Arms City and was roughly half the size of the entire Feng Domain. Its sheer size was simply overwhelming.

Ou Yenuo and the others were baffled. Upon learning that it was Chu Kuangren who brought the Immortal Island back, they gasped with disbelief.

“What has the Sect Leader done during his journey to the Human Ancestral Land?”

“I can’t believe it. It’s simply out of this world.”

“That’s right.”

While everyone was amazed, Chu Kuangren simply smiled.

“From this day on, the Pan Gu Sect shall relocate its operation base onto this Immortal Island.”

The Pan Gu Sect cultivators immediately jumped with joy.

After that, they saw a lady standing behind Chu Kuangren.

Some of them were a little confused.

“I’m not sure why, but that woman standing next to the Sect Leader looks familiar.”

“Now that you’ve mentioned it, I’m starting to feel the same.”

“By the heavens... That’s the Tempest King!”

The Tempest King was very famous.

Compared to those ancient Monarchs who were almost forgotten by the passage of time, the Tempest King was a Monarch from the previous era whose reign was unchallenged.

She was certainly the most famous among the Monarchs.

“By the heavens, I can’t believe I get to see the Tempest King in the flesh!”

“Living has been worth it.”

“That’s right.”

Everyone was delighted, but they were even more overjoyed when they learned that the Tempest King had joined the Pan Gu Sect.

Although Chu Kuangren was powerful enough to kill Monarchs, the Pan Gu Sect could not be considered a Monarch-class force because he was not a real Monarch yet.

However, with the Tempest King’s arrival, the Pan Gu Sect immediately became a Monarch-level force. It even became one of the top Monarch-class forces!

After all, the Tempest King alone was equivalent to several Monarchs.

The Pan Gu Sect cultivators could not recover from their shock for a while. Who would have thought that from his trip, Chu Kuangren would bring back a huge Immortal Island filled with countless resources and the Tempest King who once reigned supreme over an entire era?

It was simply unbelievable.

In a courtyard in the Pan Gu Sect, the Tempest King bowed and greeted Gu Linglong respectfully. “Greetings, my Honorable Teacher’s wife.”

Gu Linglong was shocked that a top-tier Monarch would treat her with so much respect.

“You’re too kind, Tempest King.”

Then, she looked at Chu Kuangren with confusion, seemingly asking, ‘My dear husband, since when have you taken someone in as your disciple?’

Having noticed her confusion, Chu Kuangren explained everything to her.

The days that followed were busy for both Chu Kuangren and Gu Linglong.

Chu Kuangren was busy searching for the various resources on the Immortal Island, categorizing them, and managing them. Gu Linglong, on the other hand, was in charge of dispatching people to extract those resources.

There were many resources similar to Great Dao fragments and Immortal metal ores hidden underground. It would require a significant amount of effort to mine and utilize them. Besides those, there were some other resources that could not be extracted, for instance, Immortal Herbs that had not matured and some of the ancient human cultivators' inheritances.

Obtaining those inheritances would depend on one's fate. However, Chu Kuangren could retrieve them by force as he was the ruler of the island.

Despite that, he decided to respect those human ancestors' wishes.

As for who would obtain those inheritances, it would depend on the fate of each cultivator. Chu Kuangren did not want to interfere too much in the matter. In the Pan Gu Sect, Chu Kuangren, who finally had some free time, was having a drink with the Tempest King.

The wine they were drinking was none other than A Fleeting Dream.

It was an extraordinary wine.

Chu Kuangren used to have a hundred jars of that wine, but because he had drunk almost all of them throughout the years, he had been drinking them sparingly.

However, since she was his only disciple, he would not be stingy.

"How's the wine?" Chu Kuangren smiled.

"It's wonderful."

After the Tempest King took a sip, her eyes lit up. She immediately grabbed the jar of wine nearby and voraciously gulped it down, more so than the Wine Honorable.

Chu Kuangren felt distressed watching her from the side.

‘Slow down, I’m almost running out of stock!’

“Analyzing target. A Fleeting Dream...”

“Analysis progress: one percent, two percent...”

At that moment, Lil Ai’s voice sounded inside his head.

Chu Kuangren froze for a moment. “Lil Ai, you can analyze the contents of A Fleeting Dream?”

“I can. However, it’ll take me around two days to successfully analyze it. After this analysis, you can find the materials to brew this yourself, Master.”

“Why didn’t you say so earlier?”

“Well, Master, you didn’t ask. Besides, overindulgence can often lead to trouble too.”

Chu Kuangren was speechless.

Was Lil Ai giving him a lecture?

“Honorable Teacher, I bet this must be very expensive wine, right?”

After drinking one jar of wine, the Tempest King asked out of guilt.

“Don’t worry. Just drink to your heart’s content! There’s plenty where that came from!” Chu Kuangren immediately took out ten jars and said generously.

Once Lil Ai had analyzed it, he could have as many of it as he wanted.

He finally did not have to save his drink anymore.

“Oh, what about me? Do I have the honor of having a drink of that too?”

Just then, a gentle voice sounded.

Golden dewdrops rained down on the realm.

A woman in yellow robes holding a paper umbrella was walking toward them.

No one in Pan Gu Sect had noticed her presence.

Chu Kuangren’s gaze narrowed, and he said calmly, “Human Empress, as one of the three great Adjudicators of the human race, you can get anything you want. Besides, how can I afford to say no to someone like you?”

The Human Empress could sense some resentment in the tone of his voice.

She knew that Chu Kuangren was expressing his dissatisfaction with the Supreme Council.

Truth be told, she was also dissatisfied with the Heavenly Sovereign’s action.

“On behalf of the Supreme Council, I would like to apologize for what happened. Here’s a few things as a token of my apology.”

Chapter 2309 The Creation Daoist Law Pearl, The Humans’ Fortune Has Been Stolen, We Shall Focus On Killing Chu Kuangren

Daoist law energy swirled all over the Human Empress’s body, and a dazzling golden pearl with a mysterious light around it formed in the void.

Chu Kuangren’s eyes lit up when he saw the pearl.

“A Daoist Law Pearl.”

“It’s the Creation Daoist Law Pearl.”

The Daoist Law Pearl was an item Monarchs created using their Daoist law energy.

The item could help cultivators below the Monarch Realm comprehend their respective Great Daoist law, but it would be hard for ordinary Monarchs to create such an item.

That Creation Daoist law happened to be the most special one among the many Great Daos.

That was why it was suitable for any cultivator in the Grand Dao Realm to cultivate it.

However, a Daoist Law Pearl created by the Human Empress, a being who had reached a level beyond the Monarch Realm, was even more priceless.

If other Monarch Seeds were to obtain a pearl like that, they would have a chance of becoming a Monarch within a thousand years.

Chu Kuangren was not shy to take the Creation Daoist Law Pearl. “Human Empress, I believe you’re not here just to see me, right?”

The Human Empress nodded. “I’ve come to see the Tempest King too.”

She then looked at the Tempest King and asked, “Any progress on the task I entrusted you to do?”

The Tempest King took out a crystal.

There was a strand of aura flowing within it.

“This is the only clue I could find.” She tossed the crystal to the Human Empress.

“This aura...”

The Human Empress looked at the crystal in her hand with surprise.

After that, she kept that crystal away without saying much. “Thank you for this. I hope you can keep the matter of my visit a secret too.”

“I understand.”

“How are you planning to deal with the infiltration of the foreign tribes?” Chu Kuangren suddenly asked.

Seeing that the foreign tribes had plotted against the human race, there was no way the three Adjudicators, who held supreme authority over the human race, would do nothing about it. “The Earthen Monarch has gone to settle this matter.”

The Human Empress chuckled and looked at the wine on the table. “Can I have a drink?”

“Sure.”

The Human Empress took the wine, and as soon as she drank it, her eyes lit up. “What a splendid wine.”

Then, she turned around and left.

As she said, she only had one drink.

With the Human Empress gone, Chu Kuangren looked curiously at the Tempest King. “So, you know the Human Empress, huh? What did she ask you to do?”

The Tempest King told him everything, including every single detail.

It turned out that a long time ago, the Human Empress noticed that someone was stealing the fortune of the entire human race.

However, the three Adjudicators were sitting at the helm of humanity, and many pairs of eyes were watching their every move, making it hard for them to act. That was why the Human Empress secretly went to the Tempest King and entrusted her with that task.

“Something is fishy about this, and the mastermind behind the theft possesses extraordinary abilities. I’ve spent a long time investigating this, but the only clue I managed to find is just the tip of the iceberg,” the Tempest King said frustratingly.

The tip that she mentioned was the strand of aura that she handed to the Human Empress.

“Stealing the human race’s fortune, huh? Whoever it is, they must be quite bold,” Chu Kuangren mumbled.

As the masters of the universe, the human race possessed a vast fortune, and many from the Infiniverse intend to replace them, including the Dragon Tribe, Celestial Divine Tribe, Spatial Tribe, Curse Tribe, and many more. There was a huge target on the back of the human race, and the potential threats were overwhelming.

Regardless, that matter was of utmost importance and could not be taken lightly.

“Whatever. I’m only a Grand Dao cultivator. I might as well let the higher-level beings worry about this for now,” Chu Kuangren thought.

He had to become stronger as quickly as possible.

He set a goal for him to become a Monarch before he worried about everything else.

“Lan, I’m going to enter closed-door meditation for a while, and I’ll leave the Pan Gu Sect in your care,” said Chu Kuangren.

“Don’t worry, Honorable Teacher.”

“Of course. With you around, I don’t need to worry.”

The Tempest King was a top Monarch.

With her watching over the Pan Gu Sect, Chu Kuangren could not be more at ease.

“By the way, Honorable Teacher, how do you plan to deal with the curse mark on your hand?” The Tempest King looked at the cursed mark on the back of Chu Kuangren’s hand and asked.

Xue Hou had placed the curse on Chu Kuangren after sacrificing his soul.

It was a Tracking Curse Mark.

“Oh, you mean this? There’s no need to worry.”

Chu Kuangren grinned as if he already had a plan to deal with the cursed mark.

...

Meanwhile, somewhere in the Great Hongmeng Universe, many Monarchs had gathered. They were Monarchs from the Dragon Tribe, Celestial Divine Tribe, and many other Hongmeng tribes. However, they did not seem to be in a good mood.

They had learned of what happened in the Human Ancestral Land.

“How did this happen? We were well prepared, so how did Chu Kuangren foil our plans and make a mess of it?”

“Damn it!”

Their anger was hard to quell.

This time, they had dispatched many Monarch Seeds to target the human race. However, except for Kong Chunyuan who was lucky to escape, none of them had expected the rest of the Monarch Seeds to die at Chu Kuangren’s hands.

Chu Kuangren had single-handedly dealt a devastating blow to many tribes.

Having lost so many Monarch Seeds, it would be even harder for them to fight for the fortune energy in this era. One might even say that they no longer had the chance, and it was because of one man, Chu Kuangren.

“Chu Kuangren is truly a bane to us all.”

“Everyone, let’s think about how to deal with the human race next. I heard the Supreme Council has shown themselves this time.”

“That’s right. Those three Adjudicators aren’t that easy to deal with.”

The Monarchs’ expression turned grimmer.

They were too greedy this time.

Not only did they fail to obtain the Human Ancestor’s blood, but they also lost a lot of their Monarch Seeds.

Now, they even had to think about dealing with the Supreme Council’s wrath.

The thought of it fueled their rage toward Chu Kuangren, who was responsible for causing all of this.

To think that a mere Grand Dao cultivator had incurred the rage of so many Monarchs.

Chu Kuangren was the first person to achieve that.

“Everyone, please help the Curse Tribe to hold back the Supreme Council’s wrath. In return... we shall focus on killing Chu Kuangren!”

A man shrouded in black mist spoke up.

His name is Xue Tianjun, a Monarch from the Curse Tribe.

Everyone was surprised to hear him speak.

“How do you plan on killing Chu Kuangren?”

“So many Monarchs have tried and failed. Not to mention, the Tempest King is now guarding the Pan Gu Sect. Even if we all join forces, we’re no match for her.”

Xue Tianjun grinned and said confidently, “This might be true back then, but now, even with the Tempest King’s protection, Chu Kuangren will die. No matter how powerful the Tempest King is, what can she do against the Curse Tribe’s techniques?”

“You plan to kill Chu Kuangren using curses?”

“Hehe. That’s right...”

The other Monarchs started pondering after hearing Xue Tianjun’s words.

The curse techniques of the Cursed Tribe were well-known throughout the Infiniverse. It was so powerful and ominous that, if possible, even the Monarchs would dare not to provoke them.

If they were to put in their full effort to curse someone to their death, even a Monarch would find it hard to escape the fate of being killed.

If their plan to steal the Human Ancestor’s blood were to succeed, they would proceed to hand it to the Curse Tribe, who would then use the blood as a medium to curse the entire human race.

However, that plan failed because of Chu Kuangren.

The Monarchs began to recall everything Chu Kuangren had done.

Thinking about it fueled their rage even more. “Very well. If the Curse Tribe has a curse to end Chu Kuangren’s life, the rest of us shall help you to hold back the Supreme Council’s wrath.”

“That’s right. Chu Kuangren must die!”

“So what if they’re the Supreme Council? Do they think the Dragon Tribe can be messed with so easily? When the elder forefathers of the Dragon Tribe awaken, do they think we’ll still be afraid of them?”

Chapter 2310 The Earthen Monarch’s Revenge, The Curse Tribe Takes Action, Cursing Chu Kuangren

“Alright. I shall rely on everyone here to keep the Supreme Council occupied. As for Chu Kuangren, we in the Curse Tribe will focus on killing him!” Xue Tianjun said confidently.

“It won’t be easy to hold back the Supreme Council. How long does the Curse Tribe need?” a Monarch from the Celestial Divine Tribe asked.

“Ten days!”

“Very well. As long as you guys can kill Chu Kuangren, we shall buy you ten days’ worth of time. On top of that, we will help the Curse Tribe to bear the burden of the Supreme Council’s wrath!” the Dragon Tribe Monarch said.

It was clear that Chu Kuangren had become a thorn in every tribe’s side. As long as he could be killed, the tribes did not mind paying a huge price for it! ...

Somewhere with a hazy sky, the stench of rotten flesh filled the air.

It was a creepy wasteland.

Deep within the wasteland stood a pitch-black palace. At a closer look, there were many human faces on the pillars of that palace.

The human faces each resembled a tormented soul.

One could seemingly hear their piercing screams coming from those faces.

It was truly an eerie sight.

That was the Curse Tribe's territory.

"Whoosh."

A ray of blood-colored light arrived at the palace. It was none other than Xue Tianjun. When he entered the palace, someone was already waiting for him.

That person was a thin and frail elderly man with white hair.

His life was like a candle in the wind.

However, Xue Tianjun did not dare to act rashly before the person. He looked at the elderly man with respect. "Tribe Leader, the negotiations with the other Monarchs have gone well."

"Well done!"

A glint lit up in the white-haired elderly man's eyes.

A greenish flame could be seen burning within it.

"As long as the other tribes can stall the Supreme Council for us, we can surely kill Chu Kuangren. It's time we get rid of this Outlier once and for all!" the white-haired elderly man, who was the Curse Tribe Leader, said menacingly.

"I'll go make the preparations now."

"Very well."

While the Curse Tribe was busy making preparations, the Supreme Council began its revenge against the various foreign tribes.

They did not dispatch many people.

Only one man was sent to carry out the task.

That person was one of the three great Adjudicators, the Earthen Monarch!

In the Celestial Divine Tribe, a terrifying Monarch aura suddenly erupted and tore the entire Celestial Divine Tribe's territory into half like a raging dragon.

The entire terrain was seemingly torn apart into pieces.

Countless towering peaks formed by earth qi extruded from the ground as if they were spikes, wrecking devastating damage onto the Celestial Divine Tribe's territory.

The commotion caused was so great that even the Celestial Divine Tribe Monarchs could no longer sit still and watch.

Even one of their slumbering ancient Monarchs was startled by what happened.

"Earthen Monarch, have you gone mad?" someone screamed.

A ray of Celestial Divine Light illuminated the surroundings. Following that, an ancient Monarch clad in battle armor walked out amidst the light, looking at the Earthen Monarch with a grim expression.

However, the Earthen Monarch did not care that the man was angry.

"This is the price you have to pay for harming the human race!"

The Earthen Monarch raised his hand and unleashed endless Daoist law energy, forming a divine mountain so huge that it covered the sky.

The ancient Monarch yelled and channeled his Celestial Divine Light!

The heavens and earth trembled from that attack, and countless Celestial Divine Tribe cultivators perished.

The battle did not last long.

The Earthen Monarch had only come to take revenge. After dealing the necessary amount of damage, he left in time before the Celestial Divine Tribe's most ancient Monarchs could appear.

His next target was the Dragon Tribe!

On the Dragon Tribe's territory, the Elder Dragon King looked at the Earthen Monarch with a gloomy expression. Even the Water Dragon Tribe's Monarch standing behind him looked terrified.

The Earthen Monarch's aura was too terrifying.

The Daoist law energy around him was so dense that it looked like it was materializing.

Surges of earth qi spread with every step he took.

The Dragon Tribe's entire territory quaked violently upon his arrival, breaking the land into pieces.

It would take them an unimaginable amount of resources to recover from that.

Taking into account the casualties of the Dragon Tribe, their losses were simply inexplicable.
"Roar!"

A deafening roar sounded.

Golden dragon qi rose into the air from the depths of the Dragon Tribe. An incredibly domineering dragon aura, followed by an extremely dense Daoist law energy, swept outward.

A forefather of the Dragon Tribe had awakened!

"Answer me, Earthen Monarch. What has the Dragon Tribe done to deserve this?"

It was an Elder Dragon, and he looked at the Earthen Monarch, confused. However, he was shocked and angry after seeing the losses the Dragon Tribe suffered.

“Why don’t you ask your dragon descendants?” The Earthen Monarch snorted coldly.

Without another word, he unleashed a palm attack, turning the whole place upside down!

That battle was intense.

However, similar to the Celestial Divine Tribe, the Earthen Monarch left after making the Dragon Tribe suffer to a certain extent. He continued heading to the other foreign tribes that infiltrated the Human Ancestral Land.

The Dragon Tribe, who was about to unleash their trump card, gritted their teeth with rage.

“That b*stard Earthen Monarch.”

“Damn it. Where’s the current Dragon King? I demand an explanation right now.”

The elder forefathers looked toward the Elder Dragon King, who replied submissively, telling them everything that had happened in detail.

“Plotting against the entire human race? You sure have the audacity. Do you think that after such a long time of being the masters of the universe, the human race is that easy to plot against?”

“Hmph! Cursing the human race with the Human Ancestor’s blood, huh? To think you guys could come up with a plan like this.”

“It’s a good plan, but you guys have severely underestimated the human race.”

“Chu Kuangren, huh? It seems like the human race has produced a peerless Prodigy once again.”

After the Dragon Tribe, the Spatial Tribe, Beastman Tribe, and others were next.

The Earthen Monarch went and visited them one after another.

Each tribe paid a terrible price for their actions, but the damage they sustained was still within the bounds of their tolerance. It was not enough to warrant them to go to war against the humans.

The Earthen Monarch may seem rash, but his actions were calculated.

“Next up will be the Curse Tribe, my final destination!” the Earthen Monarch hissed.

While the Earthen Monarch was heading toward the Curse Tribe, dozens of top-tier Monarchs from the other tribes suddenly appeared before him.

“This is as far as you go, Earthen Monarch. Leave this place now.”

“That’s right. You should stop here, Earthen Monarch.”

The Monarchs were acting on their agreement and stopping the Earthen Monarch from going to the Curse Tribe. They were buying precious time for the Curse Tribe to kill Chu Kuangren.

The Earthen Monarch’s eyes flickered with surprise.

He had a good guess what the Curse Tribe was up to.

“Do you guys think you can stop me?” The Earthen Monarch snorted.

“Why don’t we find out?”

The Monarchs quickly took their spots and joined forces, forming a huge formation that trapped the Earthen Monarch inside.

“A laughable attempt.” The Earthen Monarch grunted.

Without another word, he attacked and broke through the formation!

In the Curse Tribe, the Curse Tribe Leader, Xue Tianjun, and others were done with their preparations.

They had erected an altar with various cursed objects placed on it. The cursed objects included a mummy wrapped in cloth, an eerie black piece of wood exuding an ominous aura, a blood-colored doll drenched in blood...

“These objects were originally meant to curse the entire human race with the Human Ancestor’s blood. Now, they will all be used on you, Chu Kuangren. You should consider yourself honored!” The Curse Tribe Leader sneered.

The fact that those cursed objects, powerful enough to curse the entire human race, were now solely directed at Chu Kuangren was evidence of the Curse Tribe’s determination to kill him. It was obvious how highly they regarded Chu Kuangren as their target.

“Start detecting the curse mark Xue Huo left behind. We must first locate Chu Kuangren’s position,” the Curse Tribe Leader ordered.

The few Curse Tribe Monarchs began to take action.

In a closed-door meditation in the Pan Gu Sect, Chu Kuangren felt a burning sensation from the curse mark on his hand. He grinned. “You guys have started to act, huh?”