

UATC Draw 2311

Chapter 2311 Lifebreaker Arrow Book Again, Increase Power, Enter River of Fate

In the Curse Tribe, the Curse Tribe Leader, Xue Tianjun, and the other two Monarchs of the tribe sat at four sides of the altar and started channeling their Curse Dao. Clouds rumbled suddenly and shrouded the sun. An ominous presence flooded the entire realm.

“Let’s begin!” the Curse Tribe Leader said with a frosty gaze. The Tracking Curse Mark that Xue Huo left on Chu Kuangren had its effect. It allowed the Curse Tribe to pinpoint Chu Kuangren and cast the curse on him precisely. There was no way he could avoid it.

With four Monarchs of the Curse Tribe and some of the most wicked cursed objects in existence, not even a powerful Monarch could handle so much curse energy.

To them, even if Chu Kuangren was unparalleled and could easily kill a Monarch, there was no way he could fight the ominous curse. They believed they knew the curse more than Chu Kuangren.

“Lifebreaker Arrow Book!” The Curse Tribe Leader pulled out a wooden doll. He bit his finger and used this blood to sketch Chu Kuangren’s face before infusing it into the wooden doll. The wooden doll then transformed into a miniature Chu Kuangren.

The Lifebreaker Arrow Book was a top curse technique of the Curse Tribe as it attacked one’s fate and destiny. However, the user would suffer a great repercussion in the process. They were willing to take the risk with the forbidden technique to remove Chu Kuangren for good.

The other Monarchs also bit their fingers and used their blood to form tiny arrows, which were shot at the miniature Chu Kuangren.

Strange energy fluctuation erupted instantly.

In the Pan Gu Sect, Chu Kuangren sensed a terrifying energy attacking his fate. It was similar to Xue Huo’s attack but countless times stronger.

“Oh? So you’ve come after my fate. Now, let us see whether your curse or my fate is stronger.” Chu Kuangren grinned.

Then, he disappeared from the spot and headed to the Divine Destiny Temple.

“Greetings, Temple Lord.” It had been a while since the Temple Spirit saw Chu Kuangren. When he bowed at Chu Kuangren, he noticed something strange. “Temple Lord, you have curse energy on you! Someone is attacking your fate!” the Temple Spirit said angrily. Who dared to go after the Master of Destiny’s fate?

They must have a death wish! It was simply outrageous! “Calm down.” Chu Kuangren waved his hand. He did not seem concerned. “If they don’t come after my fate, how can I take revenge?” Chu Kuangren grinned.

It was part of his plan to expose his fate to the Curse Tribe.

From the moment Xue Huo implanted the Tracking Curse Mark on him, he already knew what the Curse Tribe wanted to do. It became a convenience for him because he wanted to hold the Curse Tribe responsible for what they did. They wanted to curse the entire human race with the Human Ancestor’s blood? How audacious!

He, Chu Kuangren, was also one of the Human Emperors in the Pan Gu Universe. Those bold enough to scheme against the entire human race must face the consequences, paying a price as grievous as their deeds demand. “Curse Tribe, are you ready to face my wrath?” Chu Kuangren’s gaze turned frosty. ...

Several Monarchs of the Curse Tribe teamed up to kill Chu Kuangren.

Right before they landed their attack on Chu Kuangren’s fate, they sensed an unimaginably powerful energy blocking them. It was as if they had hit an unbreakable wall, stopping their curse energies altogether. On top of that, their curse energies began to backfire. “How is this possible?” “Chu Kuangren’s fate is strange!”

“Who is he exactly?”

The Monarchs were stunned. They had never seen such a strange fate before. “No matter what, Chu Kuangren must die!”

The Curse Tribe Master's gaze turned cold. They had announced that they would kill Chu Kuangren in front of the other tribes. If they back away now, they would become the laughingstock. Chu Kuangren's fate might be strong, but with that many Monarchs teaming up together, the Curse Tribe Leader believed they could take his life.

The curse objects on the altar released a terrifying aura, and vast curse energy flooded the room.

Through the Tracking Curse Mark, the vast curse energy continued to attack Chu Kuangren's fate. The formless energy expanded outward and started to affect the entire Great Hongmeng Universe. Those who cultivated the Destiny Dao, Curse Dao, and others who were in a higher cultivation realm sensed it.

"This aura... Someone is being cursed!" "An extremely powerful curse! Its level, its scale, and its power can easily kill ten Monarchs!"

"This energy is coming from the Curse Tribe. What is going on? What made them use such a powerful attack? Who are they trying to kill?"

Many other Monarchs were shocked.

For countless eras, people had feared the Curse Tribe's curse and would think twice before offending them.

Yet now, the Curse Tribe was using such a tremendous amount of curse energy just to kill one person.

No one could imagine how powerful the target was for the Curse Tribe to go all out with the curse.

"Curse Tribe... Could it be..."

The Tempest King, however, had a hunch about who the target was. She expanded her spiritual energy and blanketed the entire island.

She could usually sense Chu Kuangren's aura at the spot that he was cultivating, but his presence was completely gone; she could not locate him. "What? How? Where did my Honorable Teacher go? Is he the Curse Tribe's target?" The Tempest King frowned, looking worried. Then, she thought of Chu Kuangren's strangely powerful fate and murmured, "Even if the Honorable Teacher is the target, with his strange and unique fate, he shouldn't be affected."

Meanwhile, at the fortune teller's stall in the bustling street of Myriad Arms City, the fortune teller opened his eyes, which shone with six golden glints. A strange energy swirled around him.

He looked into the sky and muttered, "Have the Curse Tribe lost their minds? Well, I guess it's fine since even I, a Six Eyes, couldn't see through Chu Kuangren's fate. I would like to find out what the curse could do to him."

Inside the Divine Destiny Temple, Chu Kuangren sat with his legs crossed.

The attack on his fate continued, but he barely felt anything.

Despite sustaining all the attacks, his fate was still intact.

His mind arrived at the River of Fate and located his own path of destiny.

Then, he spotted several strange beings around the path. There was a blood-colored doll, a mummy, and something else.

"So, are those what the Curse Tribe is using to attack me?"

Chapter 2312 Curse Repercussion, Resonate Technique, Who Curse The Curse Tribe

Chu Kuangren was on his own path of destiny. The blood-colored doll wailed terrifyingly, releasing terrifying curse energy to attack his path of destiny. The pitch-black wood grew into a massive tree and corroded the area with the curse energy.

If attacked by those three terrifying monsters, a common Monarch's fate would instantly shatter and disappear from the universe.

Unfortunately, the three cursed objects attacked Chu Kuangren's fate.

No matter how fierce their attacks were, they could not inflict any damage.

Then, a strange energy erupted from the path of destiny.

It was the energy of Chu Kuangren's fate.

When the strange energy erupted, the three cursed objects froze all of a sudden as if something in them snapped.

Then, the blood doll started to tremble violently. The curse energy it released dissipated, and it knelt on the ground, horrified.

The massive black tree trembled and started to wither. As the leaves fell, the black tree rapidly shrank into a tiny withered twig. The mummy's strips also started to fall off, revealing a dried corpse underneath. It was neither human nor monster, but it was horrified.

The moment the strange energy of Chu Kuangren's fate erupted, the three cursed objects were stunned and horrified. It was as if they had seen the most horrifying thing that ever existed.

They stopped attacking, but not Chu Kuangren's fate. The strange and invisible energy enveloped the three curse objects before crushing them into dust.

At the same time, outside the path of destiny, numerous tiny blood arrows were shot in its direction. It was the forbidden technique of the Curse Tribe, Lifebreaker Arrow Book. It was cast by four Monarchs of the Curse Tribe. The countless blood arrows were like raindrops during a storm. Chu Kuangren could feel his path of destiny was shaking, not because of the arrow storm but because his fate was triggered by something.

It was angered!

The invisible energy erupted once more, shattering all the blood arrows.

Upon seeing that, Chu Kuangren's eyes narrowed. "Curse Tribe, let me show you what true horror is!"

He channeled the energy in him and started to connect to the Divine Destiny Temple's power of destiny. He traced the curse cast by the four Monarchs and used a curse on the Curse Tribe, who attacked his fate with the Lifebreaker Arrow Book.

He was using the Ultimate-level cultivation technique of the Divine Curse Seal — Heaven-earth Grand Curse!

He infused the energy from the Divine Destiny Temple, making sure that the Curse Tribe would face an unforgettable horror.

In the Curse Tribe, the Curse Tribe Leader, Xue Tianjun, and the others were still casting the curse.

Suddenly, they sensed the explosive energy from Chu Kuangren's fate. The curse objects on the altar released an excruciating cry before they exploded into dust.

The four Monarchs were hit, with blood spewing from their mouths. Tremendously powerful curse energy drowned them and rapidly corroded their bodies.

Now, the four Monarchs were facing an unprecedented repercussion!

“How is this possible? How could someone have such a powerful fate? We used the energy we prepared to curse the entire human race, and we still cannot kill him!”

“It's impossible! Impossible!” The four Monarchs were baffled. However, they were being corroded by the curse energy, and if left untreated, they would lose all their cultivation.

“Everyone, listen up! We must use the Resonance Technique!” the Curse Tribe Leader said.

Multiple Curse Tribe cultivators came to them and sat down around them. They started chanting in a strange tone — a tone that no humans could produce.

Common cultivators might lose their minds when they hear the noise.

As the Curse Tribe cultivators chanted louder, the curse energy on the Curse Tribe Leaders gradually transferred to them.

That was the unique Resonance Technique of the Curse Tribe, which was to share the curse energy with one another.

However, the Curse Tribe Leader and the Monarchs had underestimated the repercussions. As they started the Resonance Technique, Curse Tribe cultivators started to die, including the Grand Dao cultivators.

“We need more in the resonance!” the Curse Tribe Leader bellowed.

To him, his people were nothing but tools.

As long as he could survive, he was ready to sacrifice his entire tribe.

He was the leader of the tribe, and it was only normal that his people would sacrifice for him.

Soon, more than half of the tribe cultivators came to their aid, and only then did the Monarchs start to feel better.

“This is terrifying! What is Chu Kuangren exactly? Why would we suffer this much repercussion from attacking his fate?”

“Chu Kuangren is definitely not just a Grand Dao cultivator. He must have a great secret!”

“That’s right...”

The Curse Tribe Leader and the others communicated via telepathy. They paid a great price for cursing Chu Kuangren. The rare curse objects they had searched for many years were gone just like that.

Not only did the plan fail, but they even suffered repercussions and got severely injured.

Many of the tribe's cultivators had died because of the Resonance Technique as well.

“Chu Kuangren, this isn't over! We will never let you go just like that!” The Curse Tribe Leader's expression was grim.

Now, he had to face a new problem. How should he tell the other tribes that the curse had failed?

In order to buy him time to cast the curse, the other tribes had sent their best Monarchs to stall the Earthen Monarch. Yet, the Curse Tribe had failed miserably. What would the other tribes think of them or do to them?

Suddenly, the void cracked, and violet patterns appeared above the entire Curse Tribe. A terrifying curse energy shrouded the entire tribe.

It was horrifying and stronger than their own curse energy.

Even the Curse Tribe Leader was frightened.

Since more than half of the tribe were using the Resonance Technique to help share the curse energy, the sudden curse caught them off guard. All of them were struck down, with no time to react.

The entire Curse Tribe fell into utter chaos.

The cultivators started to grow weak and old, gradually entering Heavenly Deterioration Stage Five. On top of that, the cultivators were sharing the tremendous curse energy of the Curse Tribe Leader. Hence, as soon as the Heavenly Deterioration started, they started to die.

“Who cursed us?”

The Curse Tribe Leader was infuriated. They had always been the ones who cast the curse, not the other way around!

Chapter 2313 Curse Tribe Versus Heaven-earth Grand Curse, Heavenly Curse Forefather, The Forefather Is A Fake?

“T-This is the Heaven-earth Grand Curse!” Xue Tianjun instantly recognized the curse that enveloped the Curse Tribe.

Xue Huo once showed it to him before!

“Impossible! Xue Huo is dead! Who else knows this curse technique? Hold on...” A sudden realization struck Xue Tianjun, and his eyes widened in fear.

Not only him but the other Monarchs had the same realization as well.

Xue Huo was indeed dead, but he died in the hands of Chu Kuangren, which means the Divine Curse Seal might be in Chu Kuangren’s possession.

If there was another person who knew the Heaven-earth Grand Curse, it must be Chu Kuangren.

On top of that, the Curse Tribe had just failed to curse Chu Kuangren and were still suffering the repercussions when the Heaven-earth Grand Curse came after them. If not Chu Kuangren, who else?

“How is this possible? Xue Huo was extremely talented; he was considered a genius even among us. However, Chu Kuangren had only gotten the Divine Curse Seal a while ago. How could he use it on us now?”

“This is impossible! Impossible!”

Xue Tianjun refused to believe that a person with such monstrous talent existed in the universe.

“Not only does he know the Heaven-earth Grand Curse, but he could even trace our curse back to us and attack us. His techniques are highly skilled! He may be a master of the Curse Dao!” the Curse Tribe Leader said.

Xue Tianjun felt relieved after hearing the Curse Tribe Leader.

That must be it! Chu Kuangren must have mastered the Curse Dao, hence allowing him to master the Heaven-earth Grand Curse in such a short time.

“Let’s work together and break this curse!” the Curse Tribe Leader said sternly.

The four Monarchs suppressed the curse repercussions and channeled their Great Dao. They chanted the strange tone and did several mystical hand seals. As the Monarchs of the Curse Tribes, their attainments in the Curse Dao were top-notch.

They were also skilled in lifting and breaking curses.

The four of them combined their energies to shoot a beam of light on the Heaven-earth Grand Curse, but the beam of light shattered upon impact.

On the other hand, the Heaven-earth Grand Curse was unscathed! The boundless curse energy continued to corrode the entire Curse Tribe!

“It didn’t work?”

“Again!”

Unfortunately, they got the same result.

Not even the Monarchs could break the Heaven-earth Grand Curse. Just how deeply had Chu Kuangren comprehended the Heaven-earth Grand Curse? “Again!” The Curse Tribe Leader tried a dozen more curse-breaking techniques, but they all failed.

The cultivators of the tribe started to panic. If their Monarchs could not break the curse, did it mean they would all have to die?

“This is not happening! This is impossible! No matter how masterful Chu Kuangren is with the Curse Dao, he shouldn’t be so powerful!” “Even if this it’s an Ultimate-level cultivation technique, it shouldn’t be so strong!” The Curse Tribe Leader started to panic.

From the moment he started to curse Chu Kuangren, things had been snowballing out of control. Even as the tribe leader, he had started to lose control of the situation.

“Useless!” Then, a frosty bellow came from the deepest part of the tribe.

An elder in black robes and holding a staff came walking out. He looked at the Curse Tribe Leader and the other Monarchs with a grim expression.

“Heavenly Curse Forefather!”

The Curse Tribe Leader was delighted to see the elder.

The Heavenly Curse Forefather was one of the slumbering ancestors of the Curse Tribe.

His arrival boosted everyone’s confidence.

“Hmph! The Curse Tribe made its stand in the Infiniverse with Curse Dao, and now someone is attacking us with a curse? What are you if not useless?!” The Heavenly Curse Forefather scolded all of them.

The Monarchs’ faces flushed in embarrassment, and they dared not talk back.

After scolding the Monarchs, the Heavenly Curse Forefather focused on the situation. He looked at the Heaven-earth Grand Curse with narrowed eyes. “Curse Dao’s Ultimate-level cultivation technique, the Heaven-earth Grand Curse, is indeed mystical, but this curse energy is too weak!” A boundless Daoist law energy erupted from him.

A ray of curse energy was shot at the Heaven-Earth Grand Dao, producing a strange explosion upon impact.

“The Heavenly Curse Forefather is helping us! The Heaven-Earth Grand Dao...”

The Curse Tribe Leader breathed a sigh of relief. However, before he could catch a breath, his eyes widened in fear as he looked up into the sky.

The violet patterns of the Heaven-earth Grand Curse spread outward like a spiderweb, covering and cursing the entire Curse Tribe.

“What?”

“Not even the Heavenly Curse Forefather can break the curse?”

Everyone else was horrified.

The Heavenly Curse Forefather reacted bitterly to the twist of events.

He had just called the Curse Tribe Leaders and the other Monarchs useless, but he could not break the Heaven-earth Grand Curse either!

How humiliating!

He performed multiple hand seals and tried to break the curse again.

However, the Heaven-earth Grand Curse remained strong.

Everyone in the tribe looked at the Heavenly Curse Forefather.

They started to suspect that the forefather was a fake or that someone else was impersonating him.

When the Heavenly Curse Forefather sensed his people’s doubtful gaze, his face flushed red, and he roared.

The Curse Daoist law energy erupted instantly and transformed into a pitch-black demon of curses!

It was the Heavenly Curse Forefather’s Monarch Avatar!

“Break!”

The Monarch Avatar behind the Heavenly Curse Forefather reached out to the Heaven-earth Grand Curse.

Upon collision, a numbing curse energy exploded, shocking the tribe's cultivators and Monarchs.

“Such strong curse energy!”

“To be able to force the Heavenly Curse Forefather to this extent, who has such high attainments in the Curse Dao? Could it really be Chu Kuangren?”

“How many more cards is he hiding under his sleeve?”

“It's strange. Chu Kuangren is still so young. How did he secure so many techniques? What does he actually cultivate?”

The Heavenly Curse Forefather's Monarch Avatar continued to clash with the Heaven-earth Grand Curse.

Eventually, the Heaven-earth Grand Curse started to crack.

Everyone was delighted.

“The Forefather did it!”

“Yeah! There's nothing the Forefather can't break!”

“This is great!”

The Curse Tribe cultivators breathed a sigh of relief.

However, the cracked Heaven-earth Grand Curse released a more terrifying energy, and a ferocious beast jumped out from the crack.

It jumped on the Monarch Avatar, and a few vicious bites later, the Monarch Avatar shattered!

The cursed beast released a roar that left everyone numb.

The Heavenly Forefather was stunned. His face turned pale as he murmured, “No, this isn’t curse energy anymore! It’s not just cursed energy!”

He could sense that other than curse energy, the cursed beast was fueled with another stronger and more boundless energy,

The other Monarchs from other tribes were watching the battle from afar. When they saw the cursed beast, some were astonished while others’ eyes widened in disbelief.

The energy inside the cursed beast shook many of the Monarchs. “T-The Master of Destiny!”

Chapter 2314 Curse Tribe Lost Terribly, Ruthless Monarch

“T-This energy... The Master of Destiny?”

The Monarchs who sensed the energy contained in the cursed beast were shocked and shaken. They were afraid of it.

The Master of Destiny was an ancient name — one that was once known by all across the Infiniverse.

However, less than a handful of people had seen him in person.

It was undeniable that he possessed a power that could affect the entire Infiniverse, and he was considered one of the biggest mysteries of the Infiniverse.

The Master of Destiny had disappeared for eons.

Now, the Monarchs who had been lucky enough to have dealt with the Master of Destiny or the Dive Destiny Temple sensed the same aura from the cursed beast. How could they not be shocked or horrified?

If the Master of Destiny had reappeared, they would have to carry out the contract they made with the Divine Destiny Temple.

Only they themselves knew the content of the contract.

Meanwhile, the fortune teller in Myriad Arms City was also shocked and horrified when he sensed the energy contained in the cursed beast.

Then, he chuckled bitterly. “This era is indeed full of surprises. Even the Master of Destiny is coming back. Should I say what’s due will eventually come?” Back in the Curse Tribe, the Heavenly Curse Forefather gulped nervously as he looked at the ferocious cursed beast. “This isn’t just cursed energy. This thing here contains a boundless amount of Destiny energy! It’s overwhelming!”

Only then did the Curse Tribe know why their curse-breaking technique did not work. It was not the Heaven-earth Grand Curse they knew but an altered version of the Ultimate-level cultivation technique.

“Roar!”

The cursed beast roared and released a boundless energy that contained both the Destiny Dao and Curse Dao.

The indomitable energy killed many Curse Tribe cultivators.

They either died of Heavenly Deterioration, or their fates were crushed by the Destiny energy. There was no gory scene as they all disappeared on the face of the earth.

However, the Curse Tribe Leader sensed horror seeping into his spine, giving him the chills.

Then, the cursed beast looked at the Curse Tribe Leader.

They stared at each other. The cursed beast was ferocious and powerful, like a vortex devouring souls, while the Curse Tribe Leader was horrified.

“No!”

The Curse Tribe Leader’s expression shifted. Unprecedented fear enveloped him whole.

He wanted to escape, but the curse energy that he suppressed earlier erupted all of a sudden, attacking his deteriorating body. He looked much weaker than before.

The cursed beast jumped on him.

“No! No!”

As fear consumed him, the Curse Tribe Leader channeled all kinds of curse techniques and Daoist law energy to attack the cursed beast. However, it did not slow the cursed beast down.

The cursed beast opened its massive mouth and devoured him whole.

The energies of the Curse Dao and Destiny Dao intertwined in its body. The Destiny Dao, in particular, contained terrifying Daoist law energy, and it rapidly dissolved the Curse Tribe Leader’s fate.

All life in existence had its own fate.

Even a Transcendentalist could be affected as he or she had only escaped the control of the universe’s Dao.

Their fates remained in the River of Fate. The only difference was whether it was strong or weak.

The Destiny energy that the cursed beast possessed was from the Divine Destiny Temple that Chu Kuangren was in charge of, and it was directly from the Destiny’s Authority. Therefore, it was certainly more powerful than the Curse Tribe Leader.

In just a few moments, the Curse Tribe Leader’s fate was completely destroyed.

The Curse Tribe Leader no longer existed in the Infiniverse.

After consuming the Curse Tribe Leader, the cursed beast longed for more prey. Hence, it switched its attention to Xue Tianjun and the other Monarchs!! “How dare you, beast!” The Heavenly Curse Forefather was infuriated.

Even though he called the Monarchs useless, he knew each Monarch was a valuable asset to the tribe.

He tried to stop the beast.

His Curse Daoist law energy erupted, and the Monarch Avatar manifested again. Unfortunately, it was no longer effective.

The Monarch Avartar was easily destroyed by the cursed beast the first time he summoned it, so the second time did not end well either. “Forefather, I’ll aid you!” Xue Tianjun shouted.

“Leave! Take the survivors away!” the Heavenly Curse Forefather bellowed.

However, it was too late.

The cursed beast roared, unleashing the Curse and Destiny energies in the form of a black mist. Almost half the survivors were caught by the black mist, killing countless cultivators in an instant.

“I’ll kill you!”

One of the Monarchs roared furiously and decided to go all out with his attack. He released the limit on his curse energy and reversed the Curse Dao in his body, allowing him to receive an explosive boost as he jumped at the cursed beast.

The cursed beast simply opened its mouth and devoured him whole. “Bang!”

The Monarch continued to channel his Daoist law energy, trying to dissolve the cursed beast from the inside, but his efforts were futile.

He was dissolved inside the cursed beast in just a few moments.

The cursed beast wreaked havoc across the Curse Tribe.

It left a trail of death as it continued its rampage.

Just then, a black spear was hurled at the cursed beast and perforated its body easily. The spear contained a strong curse-breaking energy.

The cursed beast growled in pain as it started to lose its curse energy.

“That spear...”

The Heavenly Curse Forefather looked in the direction where the spear was hurled from.

A withered elderly got up from a coffin. With his hand raised, the spear flew back to his side.

“Earthen Curse Forefather!” The Heavenly Curse Forefather was delighted.

“Heavenly Curse Forefather, what is going on?”

The Earthen Curse Forefather looked at the destruction caused by the cursed beast. His sunken eyes looked frosty. “Skip the chatters. Let’s work together to kill the cursed beast!”

“Alright.”

The two strongest forefathers of the Curse Tribe, Heavenly Curse and Earthen Curse, teamed up against the cursed beast. After a fierce fight, they finally killed the cursed beast.

However, the two of them suffered serious injuries.

The entire tribe also suffered an unprecedented loss.

Including the Curse Tribe Leader, three Monarchs were killed, more than a hundred Great Dao and Primordial cultivators were dead, and countless more cultivators were annihilated. Other than that, the whole tribe was still affected by the lingering curse energy of the Heaven-Earth Grand Curse. Even the Curse Tribe’s own people could not get close to it.

The losses were immeasurable, and no one knew how long it would take them to recover.

“W-Who! Who cursed the Curse Tribe?!” the Earthen Curse Forefather said in a trembling voice.

“It’s Chu Kuangren!” Xue Tianjun said with clenched teeth.

He then told the forefathers about Chu Kuangren.

The two forefathers reacted grimly. Before they could catch a breath, the land trembled, and a boundless earthen qi erupted, further damaging the Curse Tribe.

A towering man came, leaving a trail of raging earthen qi behind him.

It was the Earthen Monarch. “Earthen Monarch? Damn it. Had those bastards left?” Xue Tianjun was horrified.

The Monarchs of the Celestial Divine Tribe, Dragon Tribe, and the others promised that they would face the wrath of the Earthen Monarch together.

However, they were nowhere to be found now. He took a talisman out and contacted the Monarchs of different tribes.

“We agreed that if you kill Chu Kuangren, we will stand together and face the wrath of the Supreme Council with the Curse Tribe. However, it seems like you have failed,” said a Monarch of the Celestial Divine Tribe.

Chapter 2315 Curse Tribe Almost Wiped Out, Space Emperor, Fate Defiant Master

The Monarchs had turned on the Curse Tribe! The Curse Tribe was ruined by Chu Kuangren’s Heaven-earth Grand Curse, and now they had to face the Earthen Monarch’s wrath. The remaining Monarchs of the Curse Tribe felt a terrible unease.

What exactly did he do to push the Curse Tribe to that extent? Was his Curse Dao that strong?

The Earthen Monarch did not dwell on it. Instead, he looked at the Heavenly Curse Forefather and the others coldly. “After today, the Curse Tribe will be no more.”

If the Curse Tribe were in its prime, he might have had to spend some effort to wipe them out. Now, the Curse Tribe was severely damaged, and with his power, he could easily wipe out the remaining Monarchs.

“Die!”

After a few rounds, the Heavenly Curse and Earthen Curse Forefathers fell.

Xue Tianjun was killed by the earthen qi as well.

The Curse Tribe was not exactly the strongest tribe out there, but their Curse Dao was feared by many.

They spent a lot of resources and manpower on the attempt on Chu Kuangren’s life, and it backfired terribly.

Chu Kuangren cursed them back, inflicting heavy damage on the entire tribe.

Now, the Earthen Monarch took revenge on them while they were weak.

After a back-to-back fight with the cursed beast and the Earthen Monarch, the Curse Tribe was almost annihilated. Some tribesmen were able to scatter away, but they could never recover from it.

A Hongmeng tribe had been annihilated, and the others sighed at the outcome. “Chu Kuangren is a force to be reckoned with.”

“His methods are too strange.” Many of the Monarchs shared the same thought. They tacitly agreed to stay away from such a troublesome figure.

However, some Monarchs were curious about Chu Kuangren’s background.

“The power contained in the cursed beast is definitely the Master of Destiny’s power of destiny. How did Chu Kuangren get the power?”

“Did he sign a contract with the Master of Destiny?”

“I don’t care how he used the power. Now that the Master of Destiny has shown himself, one of the biggest mysteries of the Infiniverse has returned. I don’t want any part of this.”

Some Monarchs felt uneasy. The Master of Destiny was like a sword at their necks.

...

A pair of eyes, as big and shiny as the galaxy, opened up, releasing terrifying energy ripples across space. More than ten galaxies were destroyed by the ripples.

“A new war has begun!”

“I shall control my own fate! I will fight and break the shackles!”

A voice echoed across the void.

...

Back in the River of Fate, Chu Kuangren opened his eyes.

He saw many paths of destiny disappearing from the river as if they had never existed before.

Those were the fates of the Curse Tribe.

“I wonder if the Curse Tribe likes my present.”

Chu Kuangren grinned.

He then looked at his own path of destiny. He stepped inside and wanted to have a peek at it. He had been curious about himself for a long time now.

What exactly was his own fate?

Countless great ones tried to have a peek at it but failed.

As he ventured deeper, he sensed a force of resistance.

It was as if something was preventing him from going deeper.

“A doctor can’t heal himself, and a fortune teller can’t tell his own fortune. I think it’s hard for me to see my own fate.”

If he could not see his own fate, the others would never be able to. Chu Kuangren shook his head.

With that thought, he left the River of Fate and returned to the Divine Destiny Temple.

He was able to inflict a huge amount of damage on the Curse Tribe because the Divine Destiny Temple played a vital role.

The combination of curse and destiny was so effective that he was shocked.

Perhaps he could study it more.

He might be able to use the energy in the future even when he was not in the temple.

“Temple Spirit, show me all the life contracts of those above the Grand Dao realm. I want to have a look,” Chu Kuangren said.

The Divine Destiny Temple was an ancient structure.

He went through them carefully, especially the Monarch contracts.

The Pan Gu Sect was in the spotlight after his battle at the Human Ancestral Land, and it would eventually become a common target of many other forces.

Other than himself, he wanted to secure more external help to protect the sect.

The Tempest King was powerful, but she was just one person. She might not be able to take care of everything at once.

The people who signed a contract with the Divine Destiny Temple would be a great choice.

He was not powerful enough back then, so he did not go and look for them.

Now, he could kill common Monarchs with ease.

It was time to consider using the contracts.

“Hmm? Space Emperor?”

A name caught his attention.

Space Emperor? Could it be someone from the Spatial Tribe?

Chu Kuangren was slightly surprised. The Spatial Tribe was one of the invaders of the Human Ancestral Land.

After reading through the details, he learned that the Space Emperor was not from the Spatial Tribe but a natural spirit born from nature's power.

He was like Nuwa and the Three Clarities. The Space Emperor was proficient in the Spatial Dao, similar to Yang Mei, but he was already a Monarch many eras ago.

He was one of the strongest among the Monarchs who signed a contract with the Divine Destiny Temple.

The content of his contract was ten billion years of lifespan for his lifetime service.

The Space Emperor had ascended to Monarch many eras ago, and due to his attainments in the Spatial Dao, the Space Tribe went to him and wanted him to join them.

However, the Space Emperor was a proud person and refused to serve anyone else. After fighting the Monarchs of the Spatial Tribe, he was heavily injured.

He even entered Heavenly Deterioration Stage Five after the battle, and his days were limited.

Then, he met the Master of Destiny during his era. In exchange for his lifetime service to the temple, he was granted ten billion years of life. After many years of cultivation, he got stronger. He started guerrilla warfare with the Spatial Tribe and became their arch-nemesis. Later, the Space Emperor managed to kill the seven Monarchs of the Spatial Tribe. With all options exhausted, the Spatial Tribe was forced to sign a peace treaty with him.

The Space Emperor then wanted to fulfill his contract, but the Master of Destiny of his era had fallen due to unknown reasons.

He was unable to fulfill his contract and went missing.

“Interesting.”

Chu Kuangren grinned as he looked at the contract in his hand. He said to the Temple Spirit, “Temple Spirit, I think we should have a talk.”

“What do you want to talk about, Temple Lord?”

“How did all the previous Temple Lords fall?” The Temple Spirit went silent for a moment. Then, he said, “Very well. With your current power level, you are capable of knowing the truth.

“All the previous Temple Lords, except for the first generation and some who had not grown strong enough, were all murdered. The one who murdered them was known as the Fate Defiant Master.”

Chapter 2316 The Space Between Daos, Sword Great Dao, Comprehend Sword Daoist Law

“Fate Defiant Master?”

“Where did they come from?” “Not sure, but they should be related to the first-generation Master of Destiny.” Chu Kuangren pondered.

The Divine Destiny Temple seemed to hold some secrets of the Infiniverse.

The temple was powerful, and the Temple Lord was almost almighty, but it had its own enemy as well.

Based on Chu Kuangren’s speculation, the first-generation Temple Lord could be the one who ascended above the Monarch Realm or stronger.

He might be on the same level as the likes of Human Ancestor and the Primal Infernal Dragon. If so, how powerful would the Fate Defiant Masters be?

He had never heard of them before.

Could there be someone beyond the Monarch Realm among them?

Chu Kuangren rubbed his temples as he continued to ponder. He felt like he was surrounded by invisible enemies.

“This is interesting.”

He might have a lot of enemies, but it excited him.

It was rare for him to feel nervous.

With his current power, he could obliterate common Monarchs with ease. If there were no powerful opponents, he would not be able to grow as fast.

It was also the main reason why he was able to improve so fast.

He always converted pressure into motivation.

“Can you locate the people who have signed contracts with the temple?” Chu Kuangren asked. He needed more help, not just to prepare himself against the Fate Defiant Masters but also to strengthen himself.

“We can locate them using the contract. Most of them are in the Great Hongmeng Universe, except for one — the Space Emperor. His location is ever-changing. I believe he is in the void between universes...”

The universal void was the empty space between universes. That place was full of mysteries. What would the Space Emperor be doing there?

However, it was not a question he must have answers to at the moment.

He planned to cultivate for a while to refine the harvest he got from the Human Ancestral Land, especially the Human Ancestor’s Blood.

It baffled him.

Was it because of the Sword Progenitor?

“Master, the analysis is out. This drop of Human Ancestor’s Blood is not rejecting you, but it’s rejecting the Infernal Dragon energy, the Radiant Seed, the Devil’s Pupils, the Doomsday Darkness, and other powers.”

Even Lil Ai felt speechless after she listed down all the powers Chu Kuangren possessed.

Her master’s body was in a messy state. “Is there any way to overcome it?”

“I have to analyze further.”

“I understand.”

Chu Kuangren put the drop of blood aside and took the Creation Daoist Law Pearl.

He had gotten the pearl from the Human Empress. The power contained inside it could boost his cultivation higher.

With that, he started to refine the pearl.

His consciousness arrived in a spacious void with countless Great Dao energies zipping around.

It was a beautiful and colorful place.

“This is... the space between Daos?”

The space between Daos was a magical place; it was the place where all Great Dao met. It was not easy for a Great Dao to enter the palace.

With the guide from the pearl, he easily entered the place and saw many beautiful Great Daos intertwined together.

There was also a river flowing with sword qi.

It was the Sword Great Dao.

Chu Kuangren looked at the Great Dao and somehow gained insights from it.

“Swoosh!”

The scenery before his eyes changed.

He then found himself standing on a massive river with endless sword qi flowing. There was no start or end in sight.

He was standing on the Sword Great Dao!

Just being there gained him a lot of insights.

As he walked, a projection of a swordsman suddenly appeared before him.

Chu Kuangren nodded.

He knew it was a projection of a swordsman cultivating somewhere in the Infiniverse.

The projection was the swordsman's consciousness.

The Great Dao energy around him was dense, and his Daoist law energy was on the verge of materializing.

He must also be a Grand Dao Supreme Honorable. Chu Kuangren continued on the Sword Great Dao.

All Grand Dao cultivators should have visited the space between Daos during their cultivation to search for their own Dao and gain insights from it.

However, it was Chu Kuangren's first time because he had improved too fast.

When other cultivators broke through to the Grand Dao Realm, it would take them at least a few million years to enter the space between Daos.

Chu Kuangren, on the other hand, ascended from a common Grand Dao Realm to the Grand Dao Supreme Honorable Realm, yet he had not visited the space between Daos.

He was probably the only one who skipped the orthodox way of cultivation.

As he continued walking, his insights into the Sword Dao increased. Before he knew it, the Great Dao energy around him started to manifest into Sword Daoist law energy.

Compared to the other swordsmen who came to the space between Daos after countless years of cultivation, his improvement was astonishingly fast.

Even with the help of the Creation Daoist Law Pearl, it was still astonishing.

Once he manifested the Sword Daoist law energy, his sword technique, like Sword Twenty-three and Sword Twenty-four, would receive a boost in power.

Intrigued, Chu Kuangren raised his hand, channeled the Daoist laws, and cast the Sword Twenty-three.

The rampant sword qi punched holes across the Sword Great Dao.

“Kabaam!”

The sword qi traveled quite a distance.

Suddenly, Chu Kuangren’s expression shifted.

He sensed a figure standing in the direction where his sword qi flew.

He was also a Grand Dao Realm swordsman.

Right before he could cancel his sword qi, the figure released a familiar aura. It was as if he had seen it somewhere before.

The Daoist law energy the swordsman channeled was dense as well, countless times denser than his.

Only a Monarch could possess such a dense Daoist law energy.

At the thought of a Sword Dao Monarch with a familiar aura, Chu Kuangren had a hunch about who the figure was.

He grinned, and instead of canceling his sword qi, he increased the power.

“Bang!”

The sword qi hit the swordsman.

The powerful energy destroyed the man on the spot, and the sword qi punctured the Sword Great Dao.

...

Back in the Great Hongmeng Universe, the Divine Sword Palace Ruler opened his eyes.

He was furious. “Who the hell disrupted me in my cultivation on the Sword Great Dao?”

Chapter 2317 Fight the Divine Sword Palace Ruler, Is That All You Think I Have?

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler was furious.

Who dared to challenge a Sword Dao Monarch?

With that, the Palace Ruler tried to recall the sword qi that blasted him out.

It felt familiar.

It felt like the Sword Twenty-three of the Holy Spirit Sword Art!

However, why would someone from the Divine Sword Palace attack him?

No. The power of that Sword Twenty-three was powerful, second only to himself. No one else in the Divine Sword Palace possessed such power.

Could it be the forefather?

No. Why would the forefather attack him?

Moreover, the sword qi felt extremely familiar.

Sword Twenty-Three? Wait a minute... It was Chu Kuangren!

The sudden realization fueled his anger.

“Fine! Chu Kuangren, I had never met you on the Sword Great Dao in all the years, but we finally met today, and you attacked me! I will teach you a lesson!”

The Palace Ruler’s gaze turned frosty as he sent himself to the space between Daos again.

“Chu Kuangren, how cowardly of you to ambush me! Come out and face me like a man!”

The Palace Ruler’s voice echoed across the space between Daos.

Every other swordsman cultivating on the Sword Great Dao heard his voice.

“Chu Kuangren? The first place on the Divine Bachelor Leaderboard?”

“This person’s Daoist law is extremely dense, so he must be a Sword Dao Monarch. Other than the infamous Chu Kuangren, who could anger a Sword Dao Monarch to this extent? Is there another Chu Kuangren?”

“Yeah!”

Many swordsmen found it intriguing. Their consciousness shuttled across the Sword Great Dao as they moved closer to the Divine Sword Palace Ruler.

He was moving freely across the Sword Great Dao. With the help of the Creation Daoist Law Pearl, the Sword Daoist law energy around him grew dense.

“Fine. I shall use him to test my current strength,” Chu Kuangren murmured.

His figure flashed as he made his way to the Palace Ruler.

On the Sword Great Dao, the Divine Sword Palace’s sword qi rumbled. Although it was just his consciousness, he was still able to channel his terrifying Sword Daoist law energy on the Sword Great Dao.

Very few people on the Sword Great Dao were his match.

When Chu Kuangren appeared, the Divine Sword Palace Ruler hesitated.

He looked at Chu Kuangren, baffled.

Was that really Chu Kuangren?

The person was shrouded in sword ray that covered his face, and the Sword Daoist law energy around him was dense and terrifying.

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler had fought Chu Kuangren before.

He knew Chu Kuangren was a terrifying opponent, but the latter had yet to manifest the Sword Daoist law. Hence, how could Chu Kuangren possess such dense Daoist Law energy?

Was he wrong? Was it not Chu Kuangren?

“Who are you? Why did you ambush me?”

“You were loud when you called my name, yet you ask me who I am? Don’t you think it’s funny?” Chu Kuangren said.

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler was stunned.

It really was Chu Kuangren.

“H-How did you manifest such a dense Sword Daoist law?” The Palace Ruler was in disbelief.

The other swordsmen who had seen Chu Kuangren before were shocked as well.

His speed in comprehending the Daoist law was too fast.

They were on completely different levels!

“Cut the nonsense.”

Chu Kuangren ignored the Palace Ruler’s surprised look and raised his hand. As the Sword Daoist law energy rumbled, he swung a slash forward.

It was Sword Twenty-three!

It was also Sword Twenty-three!

The clash between the two powerful sword techniques caused the Great Dao to tremble.

Chu Kuangren and the Palace Ruler were pushed backward.

“Swoosh!”

Chu Kuangren’s figure disappeared and reappeared above the Divine Sword Palace Ruler. He pointed his sword hand sign downward, and all kinds of sword techniques infused with his Sword Daoist law were cast.

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler reacted swiftly by countering it using different sword techniques.

As the attacks clashed, the sword intent wreaked havoc across the Sword Great Dao.

Both of them were unparalleled swordsmen.

They were masters of all kinds of sword techniques, skillful in every single attack with the sword.

Each technique and attack they made was flawless and unmatched.

“Those are some amazing sword techniques!” “The Divine Sword Palace Ruler’s Holy Spirit Sword Art is indeed powerful, but Chu Kuangren knows how to use it as well. How strange.”

“Yeah. He doesn’t seem too bad either.” The swordsmen were astonished by the battle, and many gained valuable insights from it.

“Sword Twenty-four!”

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler bellowed and unleashed his Sword Daoist law energy, forming a boundless surge of sword qi.

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes and countered with his own Sword Twenty-four!

“Kabaam!”

Two extremely powerful sword qi clashed.

This time, Chu Kuangren was pushed more than ten meters away.

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler looked at Chu Kuangren coldly. “Chu Kuangren, admit it. You are no match for me in Sword Dao! I don’t know how you manifested that many Sword Daoist laws, but you’re still no Monarch, and I’m a veteran! How are you going to beat me? “We are on the Sword Great Dao. This is a competition between our levels of Sword Dao. This isn’t your island or Feng Domain. You’re no match for me!”

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler was delighted that he finally overpowered Chu Kuangren.

Even though it was impossible to kill Chu Kuangren on the Sword Great Dao, he was happy to teach Chu Kuangren a lesson.

He finally won once!

“Chu Kuangren, get off the Sword Great Dao now!” the Palace Ruler bellowed.

Then, he rose high in the sky, and his Sword Daoist law intertwined behind him, forming a giant wielding a sword.

It was his Monarch Avatar!

The terrifying aura of the Sword Dao blanketed the area. All the swordsmen, who got caught in it, sensed a huge pressure on them, and some weaker swordsmen were forced to exit the Sword Great Dao.

While being targeted by the Monarch Avatar, Chu Kuangren sustained the most pressure. The Sword Daoist law around him started to buzz violently, trying to fight the pressure, but they were not looking good.

“Is this as far as I can go?” Chu Kuangren muttered.

Was he, Chu Kuangren, no match for a Monarch without the Immortal Island, the Water Nation Warring Map Grand Formation, or the Ultimate Divine Weapon?

No! “If I surrender here, I wouldn’t be Chu Kuangren.”

With a thought, his body outside the space between Daos increased his power in refining the Creation Daoist Law Pearl.

At the same time, countless sword cultivation techniques flashed in his mind. The terrifying cognizance was being used at its fullest potential.

He closed his eyes slowly. All kinds of techniques like the Heaven-Slaying Sword Drawing Technique, Holy Spirit Sword Art, and the Immovable Enlightenment King's Sword Seal intertwined.

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler grunted coldly. "Are you deciding to give up now that you know you're no match for me? Chu Kuangren, at least you know your limits!"

"Slash!"

Then, the Monarch Avatar slashed down at Chu Kuangren.

The boundless might shook the entire Great Dao!

Chapter 2318 Sword Twenty-Five, Sword Dao Monarch, Not What I Can Do

On the Sword Great Dao, external forces could not interfere with the battle of pure Sword Dao.

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler, a Sword Dao Monarch who had an outstanding understanding of the Sword Great Dao, had summoned his Monarch Avatar.

The avatar raised his sword and slashed.

The blinding sword ray swept across everything and went after Chu Kuangren.

It was at that moment that Chu Kuangren opened his eyes!

"Divine Sword Palace Ruler..."

The moment he opened his eyes, the Sword Daoist law erupted like a volcano, sweeping across all directions of the field. The entire Sword Great Dao trembled as if it resonated with something.

An endless sword intent filled the space.

It was sharp, boundless, and domineering, surpassing all that existed!

That particular slash contained an invincibility that had never been seen before!

“Sword Twenty-five!”

Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign forward.

An entirely new sword technique transformed into invincible sword intent!

Chu Kuangren created Sword Twenty-five after Sword Twenty-four!

The slash fused with the Heaven-slaying Sword Drawing Technique, the Immovable Enlightenment King’s Sword Seal, and the Holy Spirit Sword Art, which it was based on, reaching the Ultimate level!

The slash released a blinding sword ray that shone across the void.

All swordsmen’s sword intent paled in comparison.

Even the Monarch Avatar trembled before it like it was afraid of the slash.

At that moment, all swords had lost their shine to Sword Twenty-five!

“Impossible!”

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler trembled in disbelief.

Sword Twenty-five?

Ever since the Holy Spirit Sword Art was created, only the Prodigies or Monarchs of the Divine Sword Palace could create their own version of Sword Twenty-four. However, the odds were extremely slim.

Even the Palace Ruler spent a lot of effort to master it back then.

As for the Sword Twenty-five, it was unheard of!

It was the first of its kind! No one in the Divine Sword Palace could reach that height!

The invincible slash easily dissolved the Palace Ruler's Sword Daoist law and then struck the Monarch Avatar.

The massive Monarch Avatar crumbled instantly.

As a result, the Palace Ruler's consciousness was blasted out of the Sword Great Dao again.

He opened his eyes back in the Divine Sword Palace, his forehead covered in a layer of sweat.

"Sword Twenty-five? I can't believe someone has created the Sword Twenty-five! Neither Sword Twenty-three nor Sword Twenty-four was the limit! "Why? How did Chu Kuangren create Sword Twenty-five? Why isn't he one of us?!"

The Divine Sword Palace Ruler's expression shifted multiple times.

A barrage of questions left him in awe and shock.

The Holy Spirit Sword Art was the strongest sword technique of the Divine Sword Palace, yet their enemy could utilize it better than any of them.

No one else in the force could rival that.

The mixed feelings in the Palace Ruler's heart were indescribable.

He suddenly thought how great it would be if Chu Kuangren were with the Divine Sword Palace. However, it was just a fantasy.

“No. I have to go back inside to have a look!”

He wanted to enter the Sword Great Dao again!

Having been kicked out twice in a day had taken a toll on his mental energy.

It was extremely difficult and exhausting trying to enter again.

However, to confirm Chu Kuangren’s current situation, he took out some mental energy supplements to recover and readjust himself before entering again.

Back on the Sword Great Dao, after Chu Kuangren defeated the Divine Sword Palace Ruler, the buffs from the Creation Daoist Law Pearl’s effect had allowed endless insights and comprehension to gush into his mind.

The Daoist law energy around him surged, forming glittering galaxies around him.

One hundred, two hundred, three hundred...

As the number of Daoist laws increased, the entire Sword Great Dao trembled.

Some ancient Sword Dao Monarchs sensed the commotion and looked in Chu Kuangren’s direction.

“Has a new Sword Dao Monarch appeared?”

“Interesting.”

When the Divine Sword Palace Ruler entered the Sword Great Dao again, he saw the countless Sword Daoist laws around Chu Kuangren.

He was mortified.

“Is he breaking into the Monarch Realm?”

Once Chu Kuangren ascended into the Monarch Realm, he would likely overpower all in the current era!

It was at that moment that Chu Kuangren forcefully stopped the process and limited the growth of the Sword Daoist law, which surprised and baffled everyone.

“What is he doing? Why did he stop?”

“Doesn’t he want to break through to the Monarch Realm?”

Everyone else was astonished.

Achieving the Monarch Realm was a cultivator’s lifelong dream.

Chu Kuangren, who had that precious chance, stopped and wasted it with his own hand.

The swordsmen were confused, shocked, and baffled. They sneered at him.

Even the ancient Sword Dao Monarchs were shocked.

Following Chu Kuangren’s forceful stop, the Sword Great Dao stopped trembling and returned to normal. Chu Kuangren failed his ascension to the Monarch Realm, or more precisely, he gave up on it.

“Becoming a Sword Dao Monarch is not what I am after,” he muttered.

He broke through to the Primordial Realm by mastering three thousand Daos, and now that he was eligible to break through to the Monarch Realm, a similarly crazy thought appeared in his mind.

He wanted to fuse three thousand Daoist laws and then manifest the Monarch’s Heart!

With that, Chu Kuangren's narrowed eyes gleamed with interest.

What use would it be to ascend as a common Monarch?

If he were to become a Monarch, he wanted to become the strongest Monarch that ever existed!

With that in mind, he stepped out of the Sword Great Dao, leaving countless swordsmen confused.

"He abandoned the Monarch Realm that we all sought after is abandoned just like that. What is he after? I don't understand."

"You can't judge an Outlier like him with common sense."

"Yeah."

Some ancient Monarchs had a hunch of what Chu Kuangren was doing, but on second thought, it sounded ridiculous.

"Fuse three thousand Daoist laws? Is it even possible?"

"Who knows?"

"He did fuse three thousand Daos before."

"But breaking through to Monarch Realm isn't like breaking through to the Primordial Realm."

...

Chu Kuangren's consciousness exited the Sword Great Dao and returned to the space between Daos.

He had his eyes on another Dao — the Flame Great Dao.

With that, he made his way inside. Unlike the Sword Great Dao, the Flame Great Dao was a sea of flame.

Cultivators who did not cultivate the Flame Dao might be burned to ashes by the scorching heat. However, Chu Kuangren was the master of three thousand Daos, and Flame Dao was one of them.

He walked the Flame Great Dao and started comprehending it.

His cognizance was as terrifying as always.

When he arrived, there was no Flame Daoist law around him, but when he was done, he was surrounded by Flame Daoist law already.

Some of the cultivators of the Flame Dao were shocked. “What the hell? What monster is he?”

“How long has it been since arrived, and he has manifested the Flame Daoist law?”

“This is scary!”

“Is he even human?”

All the cultivators were silenced.

They had cultivated for years and still could not manifest one Daoist law, yet Chu Kuangren manifested a huge amount of Daoist law in the shortest time possible.

They were not on the same level!

Chapter 2319 Comprehend Radiant Daoist Law, Doomsday Won't Arrive, Radiance Won't Fade

In the space between Daos, Chu Kuangren jumped between different Great Daos.

He continued to comprehend each Great Dao's Daoist law. The Creation Daoist law Pearl was exhausted a while ago, but he did not stop.

His cognizance was terrifyingly high.

In addition to his cultivation level, which was already high enough, he could just spend months or years achieving what others had to spend countless eons doing. Some easier Great Daos, or the ones he was familiar with, took only a few days.

He arrived on the Radiant Great Dao.

The Great Dao was filled with Radiant energy, and the moment he set foot on it, he felt warm, like he was soaked in a hot spring.

The cultivators on that Great Dao were relatively fewer than the ones on the Sword Great Dao. Since Sword Dao was the mainstream cultivation path, one out of ten cultivators there was a swordsman.

In comparison, the Radiant Dao had much fewer cultivators.

“Huh? This aura... Could it be Chu Kuangren?”

A strange voice echoed across the Radiant Great Dao.

Chu Kuangren turned around and saw a cultivator shining brightly.

His voice sounded familiar.

“The Radiant Left Sky King?”

“It’s me. What are you doing here?” The Radiant Left Sky King grunted coldly. It was a mood killer seeing Chu Kuangren on the Radiant Great Dao.

“I’m here to cultivate, of course.”

Then, another ball of light arrived beside the Radiant Left Sky King.

A slender figure could be made out from the ball of light, and the presence of Daoist law was strong.

Chu Kuangren recognized her at first glance. He smiled. “Ming Fei, it’s been a while. How are you?”

It was Ming Fei, the Radiant Right Sky King.

“I’m good. I’ve heard of what you did at the Human Ancestral Land. I see you’re still a troublemaker,” Ming Fei said coldly.

She might sound as cold as ever, but she could already joke with Chu Kuangren.

Ever since she had a drink with him and the Wine Honorable at the Pan Gu Sect, their relationship had gotten better. On top of that, she was Lan Yu’s master, so she would drop by the Pan Gu Sect once in a while to guide Lan Yu’s cultivation.

As time went by, she got closer to Chu Kuangren than the others.

“What are you two doing here?” Chu Kuangren was surprised.

Based on his knowledge, Ming Fei was not particularly close to the Radiant Left Sky King.

Yet, here they were together on the Radiant Great Dao.

“We’re here guarding the Goddess,” Ming Fei said.

Chu Kuangren looked behind her and saw a huge light cocoon. Inside it was a feminine figure releasing vast Radiant Daoist law energy.

It must be the Radiant Goddess.

“The Goddess’ cultivation realm has reached the bottleneck. She will soon break through to the next realm, so we’re here guarding her.”

Ming Fei’s tone sounded lighter than before. It was as if she truly felt happy for the Goddess’ ascension. Chu Kuangren, too, was happy for the Goddess, especially since she had helped him a lot and had been supporting him. “By the way, how’s the investigation on the Doomsday Sect going?” Chu Kuangren suddenly asked.

When he mentioned the Doomsday Sect, the Radiant Left Sky King’s aura turned restless for a fraction of a second.

It caught Chu Kuangren’s attention.

Why did he react to the Doomsday Sect?

“The Doomsday Sect is mysterious. We don’t have any clues about them for now,” the Radiant Left Sky King said calmly as if it did not intrigue him.

“Is that so?”

Chu Kuangren looked at him suspiciously before looking at Ming Fei.

Ming Fei nodded. “Ever since we found out about the Doomsday Sect, the Left Sky King and I have been investigating them, but our efforts remain fruitless for now.”

The Doomsday Sect hid in the dark, and only a few people had heard of them throughout the different eras.

Even the Radiant Goddess, whose sole purpose was to suppress the Doomsday Darkness, had not heard of them, who were allegedly an organization closely related to the Doomsday Darkness. That fact alone made them even more mysterious and elusive.

Chu Kuangren chatted with Ming Fei for a while before he continued his comprehension of the Radiant Great Dao.

“With his cultivation realm, he should be able to manifest the Daoist law soon,” Ming Fei murmured.

The Radiant Left Sky King grunted. “It’s not that easy trying to manifest the Radiant Daoist law. I’ve been doing it for tens of thousands of years and finally made some progress recently. How long has it been since he broke through to Supreme Honorable?”

He spoke with obvious contempt.

Right after his sneers, Chu Kuangren’s Great Dao presence skyrocketed, and a sliver of Daoist law energy started to appear.

It grew denser by the second and ultimately materialized into a Radiant Daoist law!

The Radiant Left Sky King widened his eyes in disbelief. “W-What the hell?” What happened next made him doubt himself even more.

The Daoist law energy, which he spent tens of thousands of years comprehending, was slowly gathering around Chu Kuangren.

Following that, vast Radiant energy surged in the surroundings.

Many other Radiant Tribe cultivators cultivating on the Radiant Great Dao were attracted by the energy surge.

“How is this possible?”

“Oh my god! This speed is ridiculous!”

“Unbelievable! This is unbelievable!”

Even Chu Kuangren himself was surprised. He did not expect it to be so easy.

Could it be because of the Radiant Seed in him?

It should be.

Chu Kuangren was struck with realization.

He finally knew why the Radiant Seed was described as an item closely related to the origin of light.

Then, the Radiant Goddess came out from the light cocoon. The other Radiant Tribe cultivators immediately bowed at her. “Goddess.”

The Radiant Goddess nodded and then pointed at Chu Kuangren. “He’s the Child of Light. He shall lead us to victory against the Doomsday Darkness!”

“Darkness will never come, and Light shall never fade!”

Her words lifted the morale of all the other Radiant Tribe cultivators.

The cultivators then looked at Chu Kuangren, who easily manifested the Radiant Daoist law, and it boosted their confidence. They believed their future was bright.

“Light shall never fade!”

“Light shall never fade!”

The Radiant Goddess looked at the excited cultivators and felt relieved.

She had come out of cultivation just to boost the people’s spirit, and it seemed to have worked well.

Ming Fei looked at Chu Kuangren and then glanced at the Radiant Left Sky King. She said, “There are people who cannot be measured by common sense. Never underestimate something you don’t know.”

Although she was only warning him, it sounded like a provocation to the Radiant Left Sky King.

He kept quiet, but his eyes turned frosty all of a sudden.

After Chu Kuangren manifested the Radiant Daoist law, he stopped and had a chat with the Radiant Goddess before he left.

The Radiant Goddess smiled as she watched him leave. She said to Ming Fei, “Ming Fei, I am now certain that the Child of Light is the bane of the Doomsday Darkness. With him around, Darkness will never come.”

“If you believe it, I will believe it as well,” Ming Fei said.

“Ming Fei, I have to go back to my cultivation and try to ascend as soon as possible. Please continue to guard me,” she said.

“Yes, my lady.”

Chapter 2320 Dark Demonic Ruler and the Doomsday Sect, That’s My Sister

Somewhere in the void was a huge continent floating in nothingness.

The continent was shrouded in ominous-looking black qi. On that day, multiple figures arrived on it.

The leader was a handsome man in black robes who looked at the continent with delight.

“We’ve found it. The King’s energy is here.”

The black-robed man flew deeper into the continent, with the others following him closely. They were communicating with each other as they traveled.

“The spiritual qi here is thin. I didn’t expect the Dark Demonic Ruler to end up in this place, slumbering for god knows how many years.”

“The more surprising thing is that Chu Kuangren, the infamous cultivator who has made his presence known in the Great Hongmeng Universe, came from this little universe with such thin spiritual qi.”

“This universe doesn’t even have a Monarch, yet a bunch of them rank high on the Hongmeng Leaderboards. How strange.”

The mysterious figures talked to each other.

From their conversation, the continent floating in nothingness would be the Void Battlefield, where the Dark Demonic Ruler slumbered. It was also close to the Pan Gu Universe.

When they arrived at the deepest part of the continent, they saw a coffin.

The pitch-black coffin opened up slowly, and a man emerged from within.

The glamorous black robes on him looked noble and prestigious, and the dark ominous energy around him contained an indescribable might.

“Feng Qian, it’s you,” the Dark Demonic Ruler said as he looked at the group of people.

The black-robed man, Feng Qian, knelt on the ground and said respectfully, “My King, I’ve finally found you.”

Feng Qian was from the Darkness Universe and also one of the Eight Great Heretics marked by the Radiant Church.

He, along with Shui Qianliu, another heretic, was renowned as the right-hand man of the Dark Demonic Ruler, with Shui Qianliu being the left-hand man. “You seemed to have brought guests with you.”

The Dark Demonic Ruler saw the people behind Feng Qian and reacted with a strange look. He could sense a familiar aura from them.

“Tsk, tsk. It’s saddening to see the almighty Dark Demonic Ruler reduced to this state,” said a black-robed cultivator.

As soon as he said that, a black hand grabbed his neck and lifted him into the air. His legs struggled fiercely as he lost control of his body.

He was Grand Dao cultivator, but he was rendered defenseless by the powerful grab.

“I called you guests, and you people think you can talk to me like that?” the Dark Demonic Ruler said.

“Demonic Ruler, please let him go. We’re here to work with you,” an elderly man said.

“Crack!”

The arrogant cultivator’s neck snapped, and the terrifying Darkness energy crushed his Great Dao into bits.

From the shattered Great Dao, a sliver of black qi came out.

The Dark Demonic Ruler grabbed it in his hand.

“Interesting. It’s just a sliver of the Doomsday Darkness, but it’s the real Doomsday Darkness. Since when did goons like these use the power of the Doomsday Darkness?” the Dark Demonic Ruler said as he toyed with the sliver of black qi.

The others were deterred by the Dark Demonic Ruler’s power.

The Doomsday Darkness energy was powerful, and even just a silver of it was not easy to control.

It took them a lot of time to infuse it into their bodies, yet it was like a toy in the Dark Demonic Ruler’s hand.

“Demonic Ruler...”

“Shut up. Not before I have my meal.” With that, the Dark Demonic Ruler absorbed the sliver of Doomsday Darkness into his body.

“Now, you can continue.”

After consuming the Doomsday Darkness, he tossed the body away and looked at the others with interest.

Only then did the elderly man say, “We are from the Doomsday Sect, here to seek a working relationship with you, Demonic Ruler.”

“What are you proposing?”

“We will help you recover, and you will join us in defeating the Radiant Church. We’ll siege the Radiant Tribe...”

“What?”

Before the elderly man could finish, the Dark Demonic Ruler cried in shock and looked at the man in disbelief. “You do know that the Radiant Tribe is my home, right? The leader of the Radiant Tribe, the Radiant Goddess, is my sister.”

The elderly man chuckled. “Demonic Ruler, you’re quite a humorous one. If you were concerned about your relationship with your sister, you wouldn’t be fighting them for so many years. You were the one who injured your sister.”

“She’s heartless, but I’m not.” The Dark Demonic Ruler closed his eyes and sighed. Then, he said, “I have a few conditions.”

“Do tell.”

“First, I want information on where you got your Doomsday Darkness. Second, I want to see your sect master. Third, locate the core members of the Darkness Tribe for me. I need their power...”

“Not a problem.”

“Then, how are you going to help me recover?”

“Please have a look at this.”

The elderly man took out a black flower with dense Darkness energy surrounding it. “This is the Darkness Dao Divine Flower. Its roots are closely connected to the Darkness Dao. It has absorbed a dense amount of Darkness energy, and I’m sure it can help you recover.”

“It’s good.”

The Dark Demonic Ruler was not shy to take the flower.

Then, he casually said to Feng Qian, “Do you know where Hei Xuan, Shui Qianliu, and the others are?”

“Yes. They’re at the Devil Tribe.”

Feng Qian then updated the Dark Demonic Ruler on what happened in recent years. He also talked about Chu Kuangren.

When the Dark Demonic Ruler heard about the Child of Light, he was shocked.

“Child of Light? He has the Darkness Ruler Amulet, yet the Radiant Goddess has made him the Child of Light? Is she out of her mind?”

The Dark Demonic Ruler was stunned.

He had made a deal with Chu Kuangren before, asking him to search for items that could aid his recovery, which would make Chu Kuangren an enemy of the Radiant Church and the Radiant Goddess.

Now, Chu Kuangren had become the Child of Light.

The story had developed in an unexpected direction.

“What the hell? I didn’t see any potential of him being the Child of Light,” the Dark Demonic Ruler grumbled.

...

Back in the space between Daos, Chu Kuangren sneezed.

He frowned. “Which jerk is talking behind my back again?”

However, he ignored it and continued comprehending the Daoist Law.

Of three thousand Daoist laws, he had only comprehended one-tenth of them.

Then, he heard Lil Ai talking to him in his mind.

“Master, I have finished the analysis on the Human Ancestor’s Blood.”

Chu Kuangren’s eyes gleamed.

He exited the space between Daos and returned to his body.

“What’s the result?”

“Master, the Human Ancestor’s Blood is powerful. If you refine it through force, it might cause one of two possible outcomes. “First, the Human Ancestor’s Blood and the other energies in your body will clash, and your body will explode. Second, the Human Ancestor’s Blood will consume the Infernal Dragon energy and the others, but it will contaminate the blood, and it can no longer remain pure. It might also cause the energy production to break down.”

“What do you think, Lil Ai?” Chu Kuangren asked.

“Based on my analysis, the Human Ancestor’s Blood is the strongest and has the most growth potential. I would suggest stripping the other energies and focusing on fusing with the Human Ancestor’s Blood to keep its purity, making your body the strongest of all humans!”

Chu Kuangren pondered for a while and then chuckled. “Alright. In that case, I will fuse three thousand Daoist laws with the purest human body, becoming the strongest Monarch throughout history. I will prove to all the tribes out there that the human race is the master of the universe!”