Chapter 2391 I'd Like To See Who Can Stop Me, Imitation's Power, Fuse Sarira's Power

The Heavenly Saint's gaze turned cold as Chu Kuangren's aura surged. Amidst his frosty gaze, there was a hint of jealousy as well. He recognized all the techniques that Chu Kuangren used, and one of them was the ultimate technique of the Heavenly Human Sanctuary. He knew Chu Kuangren copied them all using Limitless Cultivation.

The Limitless Transformation Technique was more mystical than he thought, hence his jealousy.

What made Chu Kuangren worthy of that technique when he could not learn it?

Why?

"I'm saying this now: I am taking Mingyue Wuxia away today, and I'd like to see who can stop me!" Chu Kuangren bellowed.

His Daoist law energy erupted like a volcano, causing the entire Heavenly Human Sanctuary to shake.

On a desolate land within the Heavenly Human Sanctuary, a woman with white hair and robes sat with her legs crossed.

She had a face veil over her face, but her exposed skin was withering quickly. As her aura grew weak, her body weakened, Daoist law weakened, and her lifespan was shortening rapidly.

Right before she died, a strange energy appeared in the air and healed her.

Her skin regained moisture, and her aura recovered, but after a while, the whole deterioration process started again. The deterioration and healing process formed a perfect and endless cycle that trapped her within.

That would be the Heavenly Deterioration Land.

Inside that desolate place, all cultivators would have to go through an endless cycle of Heavenly Deterioration Stage Five.

The woman was none other than Mingyue Wuxia, the first Divine Maiden of the human race and also the Heavenly Human Sanctuary. A while back, she assisted Chu Kuangren in killing the Void Ruler and removed a threat for the human race.

While her sacrifice should be praised and rewarded, she was punished and sent to the Heavenly Deterioration Land to suffer endless deterioration and healing.

Suddenly, an energy fluctuation entered the land.

Mingyue Wuxia opened her eyes. As the deterioration process continued to torture her body, her eyes remained as bright as moon in the night sky.

"This energy fluctuation... It's him!" Mingyue Wuxia knew the owner of the energy fluctuation and could feel his wrath.

"Why is he here at the Heavenly Human Sanctuary? He seems angry too..." Mingyue Wuxia thought to herself.

She could not figure out why Chu Kuangren would go against the Heavenly Human Sanctuary.

Was it because of Lu Wuheng's death?

It should not be.

The Heavenly Human Sanctuary would not stand against Chu Kuangren because of him.

Could Chu Kuangren have come here on his own?

It did not sound right either.

She knew Chu Kuangren. The man might be mad and calculative, but he would never fight a losing war or do something he was not confident in. What benefits could he reap from waging war against the Heavenly Human Sanctuary?

"I don't understand..." Mingyue Wuxia shook her head. She simply discarded the thought.

Since she was locked up, there was nothing she could do.

She did not consider the fact that Chu Kuangren was here because of her. After all, she was not exactly close with Chu Kuangren. They were merely acquaintances with a few meetings.

After all, why would Chu Kuangren wage war against the Heavenly Human Sanctuary because of her?

Back outside the Heavenly Human Sanctuary, Chu Kuangren activated several cultivation techniques to boost his energy level to a new height.

His domineering aura could easily crush the void. He grew so strong that it gave people the urge to kneel before him.

All the Monarchs paled in comparison. It was as if he was the only Monarch in the universe.

"Heavenly Saint, care to fight me?" Chu Kuangren looked stern as he called out to the Heavenly Saint, provoking him.

"How arrogant!" The Heavenly Saint grunted.

He raised his hand into the void, and light started to gather at his palm to form a jade scepter.

It was a Premium Hongmeng Supreme Treasure.

Unfortunately, not even the Ultimate Monarch of the Heavenly Human Sanctuary possessed an Ultimate Supreme Weapon.

"Heavenly Human Day Rush!" The Heavenly Saint struck with his scepter, releasing Daoist law to form a massive black sun, which unleashed its flames at Chu Kuangren.

"Universal Genesis Pierce!"

Chu Kuangren shot Daoist law energy from the tip of his finger.

The pierce energy clashed with the flames.

Upon collision, a huge explosion happened, pushing both of them back. Back in the Void Prison, Chu Kuangren had to rely on the Dragonslayer to hurt an Ultimate Monarch.

Now, he was able to rival the Heavenly Saint's attack with his own power. It showed he had improved a lot since then.

"The Manifa Forfather's technique?" The Heavenly Saint was shocked.

For a moment there, he really thought he was fighting the Manifa Forefather.

He was more amazed by the Limitless Transformation Technique than ever, and his jealousy of Chu Kuangren grew.

"Hmph! Yours is nothing but a cheap copy of the original! It's people's technique, not yours," the Heavenly Said scoffed.

He then used Heavenly Taiji.

Chu Kuangren gathered the realm energy around him and channeled Yin-yang Daoist law energy that surprised everyone. He was prepared to cast another powerful attack.

"Heavenly Human Day Rush!"

A black sun was summoned, and flames were shot.

While the Heavenly Taiji was crushed upon impact, the Heavenly Saint was pushed back by the blast, and it surprised him.

It was his cultivation technique that Chu Kuangren just used!

"How does the cheap copy taste?" Chu Kuangren scoffed.

The other cultivators were in awe and shock.

"It's my first time seeing the Heavenly Saint's technique, but Chu Kuangren is already familiar with it! What the hell?"

"Yeah! One glance, and he could use other people's techniques as his own. It's absurd!" "The Heavenly Saint is being overpowered!"

"It means with the same technique, Chu Kuangren is as strong as the Heavenly Saint. It even seems like his version is stronger than the original!"

The Heavenly Saint was agitated when he heard the cultivators' discussion.

He looked at Chu Kuangren with the intent to kill.

"I'd like to see how powerful your cheap copies are."

With that, the Heavenly Saint tossed the scepter up into the sky. It shone in green and released black and white luster across the realm.

"Heavenly Human Star Crusher!"

Black, white, and green light intertwined.

The black turned the day into night.

The white became the moon in the dark sky.

The green turned into the twinkling stars in the sky.

A powerful pressure enveloped Chu Kuangren.

It was the Heavenly Saint's Monarch Domain!

Chu Kuangren activated Infinity Domain immediately to counter it.

The Heavenly Saint simply swung his sleeve, and the stars in the sky rained down at Chu Kuangren like a meteor rain.

Each star contained massive power that could destroy planets.

"Grand Dragon Elephant Force!"

This time, he used the Buddha Emperor's technique.

When he used the Buddha Emperor's technique, the sarira he got from the latest gacha draw shone brightly and started to boost his Buddhist technique!

"Bang!"

The Buddhist Light shone and conjured the image of a dragon and elephant. The conjurations carried the mightiest force that crushed the meteor rain and went straight for the Heavenly Saint.

"Heavenly Human Yin Yang Subdue!"

The Heavenly Saint activated the Heavenly Human Art and combined it with Yin Yang energy.

"Bang!"

The dragon and elephant were destroyed, but he was pushed back.

The entire domain started to buzz violently, and cracks appeared.

The Grand Dragon Elephant Force, boosted by the sarira, managed to crack the Heavenly Saint's domain!

Chapter 2392 Sword Twenty-six? Slash Heavenly Deterioration Land, She Seems To Have Fallen For Him

"Why is his Buddhist cultivation technique more powerful than the Buddha Emperor?" The Heavenly Saint looked at Chu Kuangren in shock.

Was Chu Kuangren secretly a Buddhist cultivator? What a joke! He looked nothing like a merciful Buddhist.

The Heavenly Saint was confused but not for long.

He quickly reacted to his domain cracking, but he did not panic. As an Ultimate Monarch, the domain was just one of his offensive techniques, not his trump card.

The trump card of an Ultimate Monarch was the Ultimate energy!

Yin Yang energy swirled around him, releasing his Ultimate Daoist law energy.

His aura reached the peak in just a moment.

"Very well. It seems like you're determined to fight me to the death!" Chu Kuangren scoffed.

He then pointed his sword hand sign forward, and a streak of light shot out from his body.

The light then formed a crystal sword in his hand. The sword was beautiful and sharp. When it appeared, countless other swords buzzed.

It was the Human Ancestor's sword, the first sword in the Infiniverse!

As Chu Kuangren wielded the sword, his sword intent surged, and countless sword qi were released. He single-handedly turned the Heavenly Human Sanctuary into the land of swords!

"Are you ready to take my Sword Twenty-six?" Chu Kuangren's voice echoed in the sky.

When the other Monarchs heard him, their eyes widened in fear, and their faces turned pale.

Even the Heavenly Saint trembled.

Sword Twenty-six was the technique that killed the Void Ruler!

The Heavenly Saint was not confident he could take the slash no matter what he did.

The slash combined the sword intent of the past and present, and it was known as the invincible slash!

Could Chu Kuangren really use Sword Twenty-six again?

"No! You're bluffing! You were only able to use Sword Twenty-six because of Mingyue Wuxia's assistance. Without her, how are you going to use that technique?" The Heavenly Saint's eyes narrowed.

He believed Chu Kuangren was lying. There was no way Chu Kuangren could use Sword Twenty-Six again.

"Are you willing to bet on it?"

Chu Kuangren rose higher into the sky, almost reaching the stratosphere.

As he raised his sword high in the air, a cut opened in the void behind him.

Tens of thousands of sword qi erupted from the void and flooded the realm.

It was the Sword Great Dao!

"What? How? He can really use Sword Twenty-six!"

The Heavenly Saint gasped in fear. He was deeply shaken by the revelation.

When Chu Kuangren swung his sword down, the endless sword qi from the Sword Great Dao merged and transformed into a massive heavenly sword. Its vast and boundless energy shook the entire sanctuary!

"Bang!"

The explosion crushed the void.

The Heavenly Saint growled, channeling his Heavenly Human Art and the Ultimate energy to the limit. Using his scepter, he drew a Taiji diagram in the air.

Then, his figure flashed, and he decided to dodge it instead of taking it head-on.

He was not there when Chu Kuangren killed the Void Ruler with the Sword Twenty-six, but he sensed the tremendous power. It was frightening. Since he did not have the confidence to take it, the only thing he could do was dodge it.

When the sword clashed with the Heavenly Taiji, a loud explosion went off, and the diagram shattered. However, the sword continued forward.

"Wait, this isn't right..." The Heavenly Saint noticed something strange.

It was not the real Sword Twenty-six!

The slash that killed the Void Ruler was countless times more powerful than this! He had been tricked!

Chu Kuangren grinned.

The Heavenly Saint was correct. The Sword Twenty-six was extremely powerful, and without Mingyue Wuxia acting as the sword's spirit, Chu Kuangren could not use it on his own.

Fortunately, his monstrous cognizance and mastery over the Human Ancestor's sword allowed him to open a crack to the Sword Great Dao, even without the sword's spirit. He was able to use a discounted version of the Sword Twenty-six.

Despite its imperfections, the discounted version of the Sword Twenty-six was powerful enough to scare the Heavenly Saint off!

The Heavenly Saint dared not take it head-on.

"Damn it!"

The Heavenly Saint's expression turned grim when he realized he was tricked. He glared at Chu Kuangren and wished he could strangle him with his own hands.

"Wait, that direction..."

Then, the Heavenly Saint realized what Chu Kuangren was aiming at with his discounted Sword Twenty-six.

Chu Kuangren was aiming for the Heavenly Deterioration Land!

After scanning the place, Chu Kuangren managed to pinpoint the location.

The slash was not to kill the Heavenly Saint but to cut an opening in the Heavenly Deterioration Land!

"No!"

The Heavenly Saint and the others were shocked.

The Heavenly Deterioration Land was an important Spirit World of the sanctuary.

It was a place to punish the sanctuary's cultivators for their mistakes and wrongdoings. Not even a Monarch could escape the punishment of endless Heavenly Deterioration Stage Five.

It was because of the Spirit World that no one dared to defy the Heavenly Saint.

It was safe to say the Heavenly Saint relied on the Heavenly Deterioration Land to control the sanctuary.

"Chu Kuangren, how dare you!"

The Heavenly Saint's eyes widened in anger, but it was too late.

Due to his lack of confidence to take the Sword Twenty-six, it was too late for him to turn the situation around.

The Heavenly Deterioration Land would be destroyed!

"Break!" Chu Kuangren bellowed.

...

Meanwhile, inside the Heavenly Deterioration Land, Mingyue Wuxia sat down in a desolate land, suffering from the endless Heavenly Deterioration Stage Five.

However, her mind was still on the situation outside.

Why would Chu Kuangren attack the Heavenly Human Sanctuary?

How many would die in the battle?

Could he escape safely?

While she was pondering, she sensed an unprecedented quake across the desolate land.

"Boom!"

The whole Heavenly Deterioration Land was shaking violently.

She looked up into the sky, where an explosion erupted and a massive crack appeared in the sky!

Endless sword rays gushed in from the massive crack.

A huge heavenly sword entered the Heavenly Deterioration Land via the crack. The sword qi that gushed in swept over everything and messed up the entire Spirit World.

The land was crushed, and the sky was cracked.

Then, the Heavenly Deterioration Land exploded!

Mingyue Wuxia quickly protected herself using her Daoist law energy.

After the Heavenly Deterioration Land was destroyed, she looked further away.

A white figure emerged from the endless sword ray, wielding a sword. His black hair danced along the wind, and his robes were as white as snow.

It felt like God had arrived.

"Brother Chu?" Mingyue Wuxia was shocked.

"Sister Mingyue, I'm here to take you away," Chu Kuangren said calmly.

Mingyue Wuxia was stunned. Her mind was filled with messy thoughts, and she could not wrap her head around the situation. "Did you attack the Heavenly Human Sanctuary just for me?"

"Why else would I start a war with them?" Chu Kuangren's lips twitched as he stared at Mingyue Wuxia. The Divine Maiden was smart and quick-witted during battles, but she could not figure out his intention.

Mingyue Wuxia looked at Chu Kuangren with a complicated gaze. Her calm and frosty heart suddenly pounded wildly. She thought no one would come to save her since she was locked up in the Heavenly Deterioration Land, which was under the Heavenly Human Sanctuary's control.

Yet, Chu Kuangren came for her, even though they had only met a few times before.

"Why?"

"What, why? You're the benefactor of the human race and my ally. Either one of those points is enough for me to save you. You shouldn't be punished here," Chu Kuangren said righteously.

"Is that so..."

Mingyue Wuxia stared at Chu Kuangren blankly.

At that very moment, she seemed to have fallen for him.

"Chu Kuangren!"

A loud growl sounded.

The Heavenly Saint came for him, carrying the explosive energy of the Ultimate Monarch. He glared at Chu Kuangren and shouted, "You will pay for this!"

Chapter 2393 Mingyue Wuxia Joins Pan Gu Sect, A Way To Power Up The Sword Spirit

"You will pay!" The Heavenly Saint glared at Chu Kuangren coldly.

The Heavenly Deterioration Land was a tool that he used to control the sanctuary, an important place to deter his followers. Yet, it had been destroyed by Chu Kuangren.

How could he not be mad? "Pay?"

Chu Kuangren grinned. "This place does nothing good. It should be destroyed, and I'm just doing you a favor. I'd like to see what you'll do about it."

"We'll see!" the Heavenly Saint said coldly. Streaks of light started to swirl around him as he channeled his Ultimate energy.

He shot a glance at Mingyue Wuxia and said coldly, "Mingyue Wuxia, if you still value your identity as the Divine Maiden of the sanctuary, stay down."

"Divine Maiden..." Mingyue Wuxia scoffed.

As the first place on the Divine Maiden Leaderboard, she had sacrificed a lot to help Chu Kuangren fight the Void Ruler, and it was all for the sake of the human race. Yet, when she returned to the sanctuary, she was punished and locked up in the Heavenly Deterioration Land.

No one in the sanctuary spoke out for her.

What would the title mean to her when Chu Kuangren, an outsider, risked waging war against the entire sanctuary and the Monarchs and broke the Heavenly Deterioration Land just to save her?

With that in mind, Mingyue Wuxia's gaze intensified. If she continued to stay in the sanctuary, whenever she wanted to do something for the human race, she would probably be restricted again by the Heavenly Saint's order.

The human race should no longer fight among themselves as the Infinity War was impending.

She had to find someone suitable to lead the entire human race.

Many years ago, she thought she would be the one to lead the human race, so she joined the Heavenly Human Sanctuary in hopes of using their influence to unite all of the human race.

Then, she looked at Chu Kuangren.

From that moment onward, she believed she did not need to be the chosen one.

The man before her eyes was much more suited for the role.

"Brother Chu, I wonder if the Pan Gu Sect is still recruiting," Mingyue Wuxia asked.

Chu Kuangren chuckled upon hearing Mingyue Wuxia. "Others would have to go through a ton of tests and exams to be qualified, but I can exempt you from all of that."

"In that case, I would like to thank you in advance, Sect Leader."

The Heavenly Saint's expression turned grim when he heard their little conversation. "Mingyue Wuxia, are you betraying the sanctuary?" "I'm just being loyal to the human race."

If it were someone else, the Heavenly Saint would not take those words seriously. Choosing Chu Kuangren as an act of loyalty? What kind of logic was that?

However, it was Mingyue Wuxia who said those words.

Mingyue Wuxia was the sword spirit of the Human Ancestor who had fought alongside him for countless years.

She could be considered as the representative of the Human Ancestor.

If she chose Chu Kuangren, it would surely increase Chu Kuangren's reputation.

"Mingyue Wuxia, you will regret this."

"Even if I do, it's for the future."

Mingyue Wuxia then channeled her sword intent. The Human Ancestor's sword in Chu Kuangren's hand resonated immediately and started to buzz.

Boundless sword intent filled the realm instantly.

"Now, are you sure you want to stop us from leaving? Do you have what it takes to take the full strike of the Human Ancestor's sword?" Mingyue Wuxia said.

The Heavenly Saint's expression turned bitter.

The complete version of the Human Ancestor's sword could even kill the Void Ruler, let alone the Heavenly Saint.

"If you're not going to stop us, we're leaving," Mingyue Wuxia said.

She was delighted to see the sour look on the Heavenly Saint's face.

Fortunately, her time in the Heavenly Deterioration was not terribly long, and it did not affect her that much. She looked at Chu Kuangren and said, "Let's go." "Alright."

Chu Kuangren nodded and brought Mingyue Wuxia away.

The Heavenly Saint looked at them with a conflicted look. He dared not stop them as he was not confident in taking the blow from the Human Ancestor's sword.

The disciples of the sanctuary watched her leave with a similar mixed feeling. They did not know what to say.

"Divine Maiden, are you leaving?" some asked.

Mingyue Wuxia nodded. "Yes. Even though I'm no longer part of the sanctuary, we're still humans, and we will fight for humanity."

After bidding farewell to her juniors, Mingyue Wuxia left with Chu Kuangren.

The Heavenly Human Ruler saw them off with a bitter look in his eyes.

Mingyue Wuxia was powerful and possessed infinite potential. She could easily ascend into a powerful Monarch.

As the reincarnation of the sword spirit, her cultivation level could even surpass the Monarch Realm.

However, the circumstances forced her away.

"Did we do the right thing?"

By standing against Chu Kuangren, they had forced Mingyue Wuxia away.

No matter how one looked at it, the sanctuary was at a loss, and it was all because of the Heavenly Saint's selfish desire.

"I did nothing wrong! They're the ones who made mistakes!" The Heavenly Saint glared at Chu Kuangren and Mingyue Wuxia grimly.

...

"This is the Infernal Dragon Pill, and it can replenish your lifespan that you sacrificed during the battle with the Void Ruler."

Chu Kuangren gave Mingyue Wuxia the pill.

"You came to me just for this?" Mingyue Wuxia looked at the pill and laughed.

"Yeah. That was when I heard you were locked in the Heavenly Deterioration Land. As the benefactor of the human race, how can they treat you like that? I had to intervene."

"We've met only a handful of times, and you did all this for me? How could I repay you?"

"In that case, join the Pan Gu Sect and contribute."

"That's not enough. Why don't I marry you?"

Mingyue Wuxia's eyes gleamed. Her crystal clear eyes were glued to Chu Kuangren, showing nothing but affection.

She was ranked first on the Divine Maiden Leaderboard.

With that gaze of hers, any man would fall for her instantly, and they might even feel an erection.

Chu Kuangren cleared his throat awkwardly and said, "I'm married."

"Really? That's a pity." Mingyue Wuxia looked disappointed.

Chu Kuangren could not tell if she was joking or being serious.

"Oh, I did visit for something else as well."

Chu Kuangren drew his Descendant Self Sword and asked, "I want to ask the oldest sword spirit how to boost the power of a sword spirit."

"I see. You want to transfer this sword spirit to the Human Ancestor's sword?" Mingyue Wuxia knew what Chu Kuangren was trying to achieve.

"Yes."

"It's a bold idea, but it can work." Mingyue Wuxia pondered.

"I have a lot of ways to boost the power of the sword spirit, but to make it strong enough to handle the Human Ancestor's sword might take you more than ten eras. We don't have that long."

The Infinity War was happening in this era.

The Human Ancestor's sword was a powerful weapon and a determining factor.

They could not spend more than ten eras just to make it battle-ready.

The Infiniverse might not even exist then.

"I have a shortcut, but it's dangerous."

"What is it?"

"Send your sword spirit to the Sword Great Dao. There's something called the Sword Dao's Eye there. It contains the sword intent of the past and present. Put your sword spirit inside and reinforce it. It can grow stronger in the shortest time possible, but one misstep and your sword spirit might be ripped apart."

Chapter 2394 Rumors? Soul Tribe's Marriage Proposal, Shut Up

"Sword Dao's Eye..."

Chu Kuangren pondered after listening to Mingyue Wuxia's suggestion.

The two of them then made their way back to the Pan Gu Sect.

Along the way home, Chu Kuangren heard many interesting things.

Most people were talking about how he killed the Void Ruler and wrecked the Heavenly Human Sanctuary.

"Did you hear? Monarch Chu waged war against the Heavenly Human Sanctuary because of Mingyue Wuxia."

"How romantic!"

"Monarch Chu is amazing!"

He became the topic of every discussion among the female cultivators.

Chu Kuangren was speechless as to how much the female cultivators loved to gossip.

"There's one more thing as well. Did you know the Soul Tribe canceled the wedding with the Spatial Tribe? And it's because of Monarch Chu?"

"I heard! The Spatial One got abandoned by his fiancée, Hun Meier, and he became the laughing stock."

"What did that have to do with Monarch Chu?"

"Based on what I know, Hun Meier saw how amazing Monarch Chu was in the Heavenly Void Spirit World and fell for him. She could not forget him, so she canceled the wedding with the Spatial Tribe. How is Monarch Chu not involved in this?"

"I get it. You can't compare Monarch Chu to the Spatial One. They're not on the same level."

"I would choose Monarch Chu as well."

The mention of Hun Meier made Chu Kuangren ponder.

He had no impression of the name.

The Spatial One was the one who lost his marriage, but the people seemed to blame Chu Kuangren for it.

The gossip was getting out of hand.

"I've heard of Hun Meier before. She's known for her seductive features and is quite the person in the Infiniverse. Brother Chu, I see you're everyone's favorite," Mingyue Wuxia joked.

Chu Kuangren was speechless. Even Mingyue Wuxia, the reincarnation of the Human Ancestor's sword spirit, was teasing him.

"It's just rumors. Don't believe it."

"Really? I don't think it's that groundless," Mingyue Wuxia said with a grin.

Chu Kuangren had no idea of his charms. A while later, Chu Kuangren and Mingyue Wuxia arrived back at the Pan Gu Sect.

Chu Kuangren introduced Mingyue Wuxia to everyone, and everyone looked at her curiously.

"So she's the one the Sect Leader got so mad for?"

"The top Divine Maiden of the human race!"

"Yeah."

"No wonder even the Sect Leader is moved."

Everyone was extremely chatty.

Chu Kuangren was rendered speechless by their assumptions.

"I saved Sister Mingyue because she's a benefactor of the human race, and what the Heavenly Human Sanctuary did to her was infuriating. That's it. Don't overthink it," Chu Kuangren said helplessly.

"Alright. Alright."

"We know how benevolent our Sect Leader is."

"Oh yeah! Sister Linglong is looking for you!" said Chu Hong.

Chu Kuangren's heart skipped a beat when he heard that Gu Linglong was looking for him.

"What is it about?"

"I don't know."

Could it be about Mingyue Wuxia?

However, why would he be thinking about that?

He, Chu Kuangren, was a righteous man and had never done anything wrong. Why should he be scared?

With that in mind, Chu Kuangren headed to Gu Linglong's place.

"Sister Lan Yu, is the Sister Linglong that you guys mentioned the Sect Leader's Daoist Partner?" Mingyue Wuxia asked.

"Yes, she is," Lan Yu said with a nod.

Then, she looked at Mingyue Wuxia and added, "Master and Sister Linglong have experienced a lot together, and as husband and wife, they have a strong relationship."

"Haha. I know that, Sister Lan Yu."

Mingyue Wuxia knew exactly what Lan Yu was concerned about.

She admitted that she had developed some feelings for Chu Kuangren, but only admiration and not affection, which the whole world wrongly assumed.

Inside the main hall, Gu Linglong was having guests.

While Chu Kuangren was away, she was in charge of the sect's affairs, from the trivial to the most important.

One of them would be receiving guests.

"Sister Gu, you've been with Monarch Chu for many years, but do you know what he likes?" A seductive and voluptuous lady was looking at Gu Linglong as she asked about Chu Kuangren.

She was none other than Hun Meier.

Gu Linglong shot a glance at Hun Meier and said, "My husband likes a lot of things — wine, swords, books, and paintings."

"What a coincidence. We've brought a lot of delicious wine and even a few Premium Hongmeng Supreme Treasure swords. I hope he'll like it."

"The Soul Tribe is very kind."

Gu Linglong looked at the treasures with a smile. It was a polite but fake smile.

"Oh, Sister Gu, do you think Monarch Chu would agree to our proposal?" Hun Meier asked with an alluring smile.

"That depends on how well you execute things. If you can capture his heart, I have nothing to say," Gu Linglong explained.

"I'm quite confident in myself." Hun Meier stroked her hair teasingly.

It was just a subtle action, but she was able to show off her charms. Just a glance from her could make all the young cultivators in the hall blush.

Just then, Chu Kuangren strode into the main hall.

When he saw Hun Meier and the others, he knew the Soul Tribe was visiting.

"Monarch Chu..."

When Hun Meier saw Chu Kuangren, she went up to welcome him with an alluring smile. She wanted to greet him, but Chu Kuangren ignored her and walked past her.

He went over to Gu Linglong and asked, "Linglong, I heard you were looking for me."

Hun Meier's smile froze.

She could not believe Chu Kuangren could ignore a woman as beautiful as her.

"My dear, you're back." Gu Linglong chuckled and said, "My dear, let me introduce you to the Soul Tribe Leader and his daughter, Hun Meier. They're here to propose a marriage union... with you."

"Marriage union?" Chu Kuangren's eyes glimmered.

The Soul Tribe Leader walked up to him and said, "I'm the leader of the Soul Tribe. Greetings, Monarch Chu. I've heard a lot about you, and we're finally able to meet today." "Monarch Chu, I'm Hun Meier." Hun Meier recovered from her embarrassment and went over to bow to Chu Kuangren.

She wore a dress with a deep frontal cut, which exposed a large part of her chest. Her waist was slender and enchanting, and when she bowed to reveal her cleavage, it was extremely arousing.

Her cleavage was like the abyss that could capture one's gaze.

Gu Linglong's expression turned slightly grim at her blatant seduction. However, Chu Kuangren remained calm before the seduction. He said, "Can you elaborate on this marriage union?"

The Soul Tribe Leader said, "I intend to marry my daughter to you, and the Soul Tribe and the Pan Gu Sect can form a union that will last for ages."

Chu Kuangren's lips twitched a little.

That explained why the world said he was the reason Hun Meier canceled her wedding with the Spatial Tribe.

He originally thought it was just groundless rumors.

Now, it seemed like she had planned it all along.

"Soul Tribe Leader, you must be joking. I'm a married man. The marriage union won't happen." Chu Kuangren rejected them sternly.

"Monarch Chu, you're the most amazing Monarch in this era. Even if you're already a married man, you can't stop my daughter from admiring you. Besides, it is normal for a man to have many wives, especially someone as amazing as you—" "Shut it!"

Chapter 2395 Hun Meier Stays, I Want To Be On Top, Lewd In The Day

"Shut it, you shameless old man!" Chu Kuangren bellowed.

The Soul Tribe Leader was frightened.

When he heard himself being called shameless old man, his expression turned bitter. No one in all the years, except Chu Kuangren, had the guts to curse him in his face.

"Linglong and I are closer than ever, and you're trying to separate us? What are you trying to do? Aside from the fact that I won't be able to control so many wives, I, Chu Kuangren, will only love my wife, Gu Linglong. "How dare you say something like that in front of my wife? Are you trying to separate us, and worse, you insulted my wife! Is the Soul Tribe asking for a war?" Chu Kuangren said coldly.

He also took a peek at Gu Linglong, who was stunned.

He believed his performance was satisfying.

The Soul Tribe Leader was stunned by how strongly Chu Kuangren reacted to his suggestion of Chu Kuangren having multiple wives.

Hun Meier, on the other hand, looked at Chu Kuangren with growing affection. There were a lot of capable men but fewer loyal ones. A capable and loyal man was extremely rare, especially in the world of cultivation.

Even women had many male partners if they were powerful enough, let alone men.

Chu Kuangren was extremely powerful and loyal to his wife. In fact, he should not be considered rare because he should be the one and only.

With that, Hun Meier loved and hated Chu Kuangren even more.

She loved him for being powerful and loyal.

However, she hated him for being loyal to his wife, which rendered her optionless.

"My dear..."

Gu Linglong looked at Chu Kuangren affectionately, moved by his gesture.

She had been with him for many years, and there were countless nights that she was grateful to have met Chu Kuangren. At the same time, she also worried about herself.

Chu Kuangren was amazing and powerful.

With his capabilities, he should be surrounded by countless women. What did she do to deserve his loyalty and love?

Chu Kuangren had given her the perfect answer.

He acknowledged her and her only for the rest of his life.

They would be together, husband and wife, until the end of time.

"Please forgive my lack of manners."

The Soul Tribe Leader took a deep breath. He wished not to be in conflict with Chu Kuangren, so he quickly apologized to Chu Kuangren and Gu Linglong.

He then shot a gaze at his daughter and said, "If Monarch Chu has no intention of marrying another woman, we won't force you either. But please, do reconsider it if there are any chances."

"A union..." Chu Kuangren pondered. "If I remember correctly, the Soul Tribe is engaged with the Spatial Tribe, but you canceled the wedding and came to us. It's not that I look down on the Soul Tribe or the Pan Gu Sect refuse to form a union with other factions, but it really depends on who."

Chu Kuangren made it clear.

The Spatial Tribe and the Soul Tribe were engaged, yet the Soul Tribe turned on them so easily and canceled the wedding.

If the Pan Gu Sect agreed to form a union with the Soul Tribe, would the Soul Tribe do the same to the Pan Gu Sect if they could secure more benefits from others?

The Pan Gu Sect could use some allies — allies they could trust, and the Soul Tribe was not one of them.

"Uh..."

The Soul Tribe Leader understood the hidden meaning behind Chu Kuangren's words and was at a loss as to what to do. He could not think of a way to win the trust of the Pan Gu Sect for now.

With that, he was forced to temporarily give up on the marriage proposal.

When the Soul Tribe Leader made the decision to give up on the marriage union, Hun Meier said, "I see the Pan Gu Sect practices virtuous cultures. I want to join the Pan Gu Sect or stay here for a while to learn more about your virtuous cultures. I wonder if you could grant me the wish, Monarch Chu?"

Huh?

Gu Linglong and Chu Kuangren were intrigued by Hun Meier's new proposal.

What Hun Meier meant was that she was willing to stay in the Pan Gu Sect as something similar to a hostage to win the sect's trust.

The Soul Tribe Leader's expression shifted. "Meier..."

He wanted to dissuade her, but she stopped him with a wave of her hand. She said with a determined look, "I have decided, Father. You don't need to dissuade me."

"If the princess of the Soul Tribe is interested in staying, the Pan Gu Sect welcomes you," Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

"Thank you."

With Hun Meier staying in the Pan Gu Sect, the Soul Tribe had gained the leverage to negotiate for a proper union. The discussion continued, and both sides talked about many things.

Before the Soul Tribe Leader left, he talked to Hun Meier.

"Meier, you don't need to go so far for us. You are here alone. What if something happens to you?"

"Father, don't worry. As long as we're sincere in this alliance, I will be safe here," Hun Meier said with a smile.

"Pan Gu Sect... I mean, is Chu Kuangren worth it?" "Father, he's the most interesting man I have met. I believe this alliance is the right choice."

"Let's hope so..."

The Soul Tribe Leader shook his head and felt helpless about his daughter's decision.

His daughter had always been a strong woman with her own thoughts.

If she had decided, nothing would change her mind.

Back in the hall, Gu Linglong looked at Chu Kuangren with a sweet smile.

"My dear, I like what you said just now."

Chu Kuangren's expression turned serious. "Linglong, what I said just now is not to make you happy; it's my true feelings."

No matter what others said, Chu Kuangren would only spend his life with Gu Linglong and Gu Linglong alone until the end of time.

They had been through a lot.

From the founding of the Firmament Empire to the unification of the human race on the Firmament Planet, the unification of the entire Pan Gu Universe, and the founding of the Pan Gu Sect in the Great Hongmeng Universe, everyone saw how much he did. However, no one saw the woman who ruled the empire and took care of the sect while he was away, giving him ideas and supporting him mentally.

Chu Kuangren was actually just the nominal leader as he would travel the universe while leaving Gu Linglong in charge of all the matters.

He could travel with peace of mind because he had Gu Linglong supporting him.

It was she who tolerated him and his capricious act.

"My dear..."

Gu Linglong's heart raced when he saw Chu Kuangren's serious eyes.

She could not get enough of the man before her.

With that in mind, she stepped forward and kissed him. She blushed and said, "My dear, I want to do it now, and I want to be on top!"

"Of course, my lady!"

Chu Kuangren swung his sleeve and set multiple layers of heavy restriction seals around the hall.

No one could enter the hall anymore.

What happened next was passionate love-making. Chu Kuangren already had his future planned out.

After the Infinity War, he would leave the Pan Gu Sect and Firmament Empire behind and travel the Infiniverse with Gu Linglong and Lan Yu.

Outside the hall, after Hun Meier sent her father and her people off, she wanted to go back inside to ask Chu Kuangren what she should do and where she should live. However, she was blocked outside by the restriction seals.

"Restriction seals? There weren't any before..."

Hun Meier was confused.

Then, she heard moaning.

She blushed immediately. How could Chu Kuangren do that in the middle of the day?

Was her decision the right choice?

Now that she had agreed to stay, there was no turning back anymore. She glared at the main hall and stomped her foot angrily before running away with a blushing face.

Chapter 2396 Descendant Self's Sword Spirit Enters the Sword Dao's Eye, Heavenly Buddha Pure Land's Riot

In the space between Daos, where the Sword Great Dao was, Chu Kuangren and Mingyue Wuxia's consciousness was walking on the Great Dao.

It was actually a river formed by countless sword qi and sword intent.

Beside him was a vague figure of a sword following them closely. The sword was white as jade and clear as crystal. It was actually the Descendant Self's sword spirit.

Mingyue Wuxia used her technique to bring the sword spirit into the Sword Great Dao, and it was not a difficult task for the oldest sword spirit.

"Have you located the Sword Dao's Eye?" Chu Kuangren asked.

They ventured into the Sword Great Dao to search for the oldest secret, the Sword Dao's Eye, to boost Descendant Self's sword spirit.

It was dangerous, but Chu Kuangren decided to take the risk.

The Descendant Self also agreed as he, too, was eager to be stronger.

"Soon." Mingyue Wuxia was locating the Sword Dao's Eye. The Sword Dao's Eye location was elusive and mysterious. Only the oldest sword spirit in the Infiniverse could locate it.

A while later, they arrived before a vortex.

The vortex contained powerful sword qi and boundless sword intent.

The sword intent seemed to originate from ancient times.

It was sharp, scorching, and boundless. It also contained different forms of the Sword Dao.

To a swordsman, the vortex would be a treasured place for cultivation.

"This is the Sword Dao's Eye..."

Chu Kuangren was in awe of the sheer power he felt from the vortex.

Mingyue Wuxia nodded. "This would be it. Behind this vortex would be the source of all Sword Dao."

It was the source of the Great Dao!

The Human Ancestor's sword was born from the Sword Dao's source.

It represented the source and created the concept of swords.

However, it did not represent the entirety of the Sword Dao's source, only a part of it.

"Descendant Self, are you afraid?" Chu Kuangren stroked the sword gently. The sword buzzed.

It was afraid. If it could not overcome the temperament and refinement of the sword intent, it would be destroyed. However, it was more afraid to fall back and fail to keep up with Chu Kuangren's strength. It had been a while since Chu Kuangren used it in battle.

Chu Kuangren tended to use the Dragonslayer or the recent Human Ancestor's sword to fight his enemies because the enemies were so strong. Only Ultimate Supreme Weapons could provide him with the firepower he needed.

Since the Descendant Self was not strong enough, it wanted to be stronger so that Chu Kuangren would use it again.

It was the first sword that Chu Kuangren wielded, and it had grown together with him.

The other weapons were powerful, but they did not accompany Chu Kuangren through thick and thin. How could it let the others seize its position in Chu Kuangren's heart?

"I see. Go," Chu Kuangren said softly.

The Descendant Self Sword buzzed and flew into the Sword Intent's Eye in a streak of light.

"Let me give this young junior a helping hand," Mingyue Wuxia said with a smile.

She shot a sliver of her sword intent into the Descendant Self Sword.

"The sword intent can protect the Descendant Self Sword to a certain extent. As for how strong it can grow, it'll depend on itself.

"Thank you."

Chu Kuangren nodded at Mingyue Wuxia. He then looked at the Descendant Self Sword and murmured, "Descendant Self, I look forward to your growth..."

After sending the Descendant Self Sword into the Sword Dao's Eye, Chu Kuangren returned to the real world. He had to visit the Heavenly Buddha Pure Land next.

After all, he had promised the Devil King to retrieve her weapon for her.

...

The Heavenly Buddha Pure Land was one of the three major Human Sanctuaries of the human race.

It was a peaceful place. Cultivators rarely had conflicts with each other. Even if there were conflicts, it was just a clash of beliefs. However, something huge happened to the Pure Land lately.

The Buddhist Tower collapsed, and it struck fear into the Buddhists.

The Buddhist Tower was a unique place within the Pure Land.

It was rumored that in the early years, an ancient Buddhist cultivator in the Pure Land, committed to the Buddhist doctrine of saving all sentient beings, sought to guide and redeem even the most wicked and depraved individuals.

However, it was not easy to redeem the most wicked and depraved. Therefore, the ancient Buddhist cultivator built the Buddhist Tower within the Pure Land to lock up the wicked and depraved. He would read mantras to them every day, attempting to cleanse the wickedness in their hearts and redeem them from darkness.

It worked miraculously as many wicked and atrocious men became devoted Buddhists.

Still, most of them remained locked up in the tower, especially the Notorious Four. They were so atrocious and wicked, and common Buddhist cultivators could not get near to them, let alone cleanse them of their sins and help them turn over a new leaf.

The Pure Land refused to kill them either, so they became prisoners of the tower.

However, the Buddhist Tower collapsed due to unknown reasons, and the Notorious Four, plus many other atrocious wicked men, escaped.

They brought nothing but bloodshed to the Pure Land.

"It seems like I'm in for something big," Chu Kuangren said with a shake of his head.

"Bang!"

Suddenly, a temple further away exploded and was engulfed in blazing flames. Chu Kuangren had a curious peek at the scene.

A middle-aged man with a big saber dragged a net of more than a thousand Buddhist cultivators' heads behind him. He was slaughtering anyone he saw in the temple. For each Buddhist cultivator he killed, he would behead them and tie the head to the net he dragged behind him.

"Hahaha! Stupid bald men! All you do is chant nonsense and tell me to think my life through. I'll think with your bald heads! I'll behead every one of you and see how you're going to bug me with your stupid mantras!"

The man laughed wickedly. He was overflowing with rage qi.

The monks were horrified to see him. It was as if he was a reaper coming for their lives.

"He's Butcher Li from the Buddhist Tower!"

"We're done for! He's a Grand Dao Supreme Honorable. We can't possibly fight him!"

"The moment the Buddhist Tower collapsed, all evils are unleashed, wreaking havoc across the universe!"

"Butcher Li, please put your saber down..."

Some of the monks cried in despair.

Some of the oldest monks sat down and started praying.

Some even tried to dissuade Butcher Li but got their heads cut off.

Suddenly, it started to rain.

A white-robed Bodhisattva holding a suet white jade vase in her hand arrived.

"It's her..."

Chu Kuangren was surprised to see the person.

It was Guanyin of the Pan Gu Universe.

"Butcher Li, stop it!" Guanyin bellowed.

She flung the suet jade vase out, releasing a sea of water at Butcher Li.

Butcher Li grinned. "How dare a mere Grand Dao cultivator dare stand against me? Die!"

He slashed with his saber and cut the incoming wave in half.

Right before the slash could hit Guanyin, Chu Kuangren shot a sword qi forward and blasted Butcher Li into a burst of blood mist.

Guanyin was stunned. Immortal Sparks then shone behind her, followed by the appearance of a familiar figure.

"B-Brother Chu?"

"Guanyin, it's been a while." Chu Kuangren nodded at her.

Chapter 2397 Papiyas' Whereabout, Bodhi Samadhi's Mystic, The Wicked Repents

Guanyin was surprised to see Chu Kuangren. She was grateful for Chu Kuangren saving her, so she bowed as a sign of respect.

"Thank you, Monarch Chu. If not for you, I can't imagine what would've happened."

"You're welcome."

Chu Kuangren added, "I'm here to retrieve something from the Heavenly Buddha Pure Land. I wonder if you can guide me."

With Cundi and Receiva joining the Heavenly Buddha Pure Land, Guanyin, Tathagata, and the other Buddhist cultivators also joined. Only a handful of Buddhist cultivators remained in the Pan Gu Sect, like Shi Ying and Buddha Yun Lan.

With Guanyin leading the way, Chu Kuangren made his way to the center of the Pure Land and got to understand the current situation.

When the Buddhist Tower collapsed, numerous wicked men were released.

All of them had intense grudges against the Buddhists, and now that they finally got a chance to vent their grievances, the cultivators and commoners of the Pure Land suffered.

Multiple tragedies happened across the Pure Land, and lives were lost.

Almost all the cultivators of the Heavenly Buddha Pure Land were mobilized to help the commoners and capture the wicked men.

Even after the collapse of the tower, the Buddhist cultivators insisted on capturing the wicked men instead of killing them because they wanted to redeem them.

Of course, if capturing was no longer an option, they would have to kill those men on the spot.

Chu Kuangren was rendered speechless.

They might as well kill the men from the start to save more lives and time.

If the Buddhist cultivators had been firmer, the situation would not have been exacerbated.

It was difficult to understand the Buddhist cultivators.

Chu Kuangren did not know what to say about them.

"It's all karma. If the Pure Land hadn't built the tower in the first place, this tragedy wouldn't have happened today," Guanyin said sentimentally as she looked at the places wrecked by the wicked men.

Chu Kuangren chuckled and said, "You think that the master did something wrong too? That he shouldn't redeem the wicked men?" "No, the master's ideals are good. Saving sentient beings is a huge dream, but due to the complicated karmic relationship, it's too complicated to summarize everything in a few words."

Guanyin had her own dream as well, and it was similar to the master's ideals, which was to save every sentient being.

Chu Kuangren was not surprised by her answer.

To him, saving everyone was impossible.

There were two sides of a coin, and good and evil could never be fully separated. Any sentient beings would have evil thoughts that would produce a demon inside them.

Otherwise, the Devil King would not exist.

He could not understand Guanyin and the master's ideals but chose to respect them.

"Hahaha! No one can escape today!"

Just then, a manic voice roared, followed by a surge of rage qi.

A disheveled man was on a killing spree, murdering monks and commoners. Guanyin had to intervene and save the people from the man, so Chu Kuangren followed.

"Cry, wail, or use your terrible voices to pleasure my lord!"

The man was holding a Blood Buddha sculpture. For each man he killed, a piece of blood and flesh essence would be absorbed into it.

"Stop it!"

Guanyin wanted to stop the man from killing others.

Chu Kuangren, who had arrived, released a sliver of his aura on the man. With a loud bang, the man was slammed to the ground.

"A M-Monarch?"

The man looked at Chu Kuangren in fear.

Guanyin was also shocked that the wicked man, whom she deemed troublesome, could not even take a sliver of Chu Kuangren's aura.

Had Chu Kuangren grown so strong that he became invincible?

"Huh? This Blood Buddha..."

Chu Kuangren was intrigued by the sculpture. He picked it up and sensed a familiar presence.

"This is... Papiyas!"

Guanyin's eyes widened in shock.

Papiyas was the Demonic Buddha of the Pan Gu Universe and also the Desire World Sky Ruler.

He was the arch-enemy of all Buddhas.

Guanyin knew the nefarious Papiyas, and the sculpture from the man had three heads and four arms, which was exactly the image of Papiyas.

"Interesting. It seems like after he escaped to the Great Hongmeng Universe, he still stands against Buddhism. I wonder where he gets his powers?"

Papiyas was just an Embodier back in the Pan Gu Universe.

However, even before Chu Kuangren became a Monarch, he could easily kill the Demonic Buddha.

What fueled the Papiyas' confidence to stand against the Heavenly Buddha Pure Land?

"Speak. Where did you get this sculpture?" Guanyin asked the man.

The man refused to speak. He scoffed. "The trumpet for the extinction of Buddhism has been sounded. All Buddhist cultivators are doomed!"

"I don't know if the Buddhist cultivators are doomed, but I know you are." Chu Kuangren tapped the man on his head.

In an instant, he had cast the Soul Scouring Technique.

Chu Kuangren accessed the man's memories and searched for information related to Papiyas.

Compared to the Papiyas he knew, the Papiyas he saw in the man's memories was a lot stronger.

To the wicked men, Papiyas was an unbeatable force of evil.

"Interesting. It seems like Papiyas and Luo Hou both got their own Opportunities of Fortune," Chu Kuangren said with a chuckle.

He originally thought of killing the man, but then an experimental idea replaced his murderous one. He pointed at the man, and Buddhist Light shone.

The light was pointed at the man's forehead.

As Buddhist light shone, Bodhi Samadhi was cast.

Bodhi Samadhi was a Buddhist technique that he mastered a long time ago. It could cleanse one of rage and madness, and it worked wonders.

When Chu Kuangren became the Child of Light, he used that technique to cleanse the hostility against him and strengthen his position in the Radiant Church.

"W-What did I do?"

The man was struck with a sudden clarity. He looked at the bodies around him and a terrible guilt drowned him. He broke down in tears immediately.

Guanyin was stunned as to what was going on.

Did the wicked man just repent his murderous sins?

All she knew was that it was because of Chu Kuangren.

"H-How did you do it? That Buddhist Light that you released is pure. Are you a Buddhist Monarch?" Guanyin asked with wide eyes.

The wicked men were locked up in the Buddhist Tower for countless years and exposed to endless mantra chants, yet their rage and anger remained strong.

When they escaped from the tower, they only got worse.

Now, Chu Kuangren simply pointed at the man's forehead, and it made the man repent his sins.

Chu Kuangren had done something that the Heavenly Buddha Pure Land could not in countless years with such ease!

Guanyin was deeply shaken.

"It's just a little trick. Are you interested? I can teach you," Chu Kuangren said.

Guanyin put her hands together and bowed. "Brother Chu, you must be joking."

Such an amazing technique must be rare. She was too shy to ask Chu Kuangren to teach her, but she was strongly interested in it.

Chu Kuangren did not insist on teaching either.

The Bodhi Samadhi was magical but useless for Chu Kuangren.

Why would he want the wicked men to repent his sins?

He could just kill anyone who messed with him. As the Bodhi Samadhi was barely offensive, it lacked in performance compared to the All Law Indestructible Physique, Infinity Domain, Thousand Weapon Heart, and so on.

However, he had used it this time because he felt like it.

He came to the Heavenly Buddha Pure Land to retrieve the Devil King's weapon, so if he could stay away from conflict, he would solve things in the most peaceful way.

The Bodhi Samadhi might be able to save him some trouble.

Chapter 2398 Heavenly Buddha Spirit Mountain's Calamity, Blood Buddhist, Holy Bodhi Tree

Chu Kuangren did not care about the man who repented his sins and simply left with Guanyin.

After they left, a monk grabbed a sword and approached the man with a ferocious look. His eyes were bloodshot and bulging with rage.

He swung the sword at the man's neck, beheading him with a clean slash.

Chu Kuangren and Guanyin noticed it but did not go back.

Even Buddhist cultivators who should be free of negativity would be taken over by rage, let alone the rest of the world.

Could saving all sentient beings really work?

Guanyin felt a hint of hesitation.

However, it only lasted for a second as she regained her confidence and wore a determined look on her face.

The spirit of challenging the impossible should be the nature of all cultivators!

From that moment onward, her mind became clear and unwavering.

Guanyin's cultivation improved following her enlightenment.

Chu Kuangren sensed the subtle changes in her aura and nodded in approval. Guanyin was one of the few Buddhist cultivators he had high hopes for.

Soon, they arrived at the center of the Heavenly Buddha Pure Land — the Heavenly Buddha Spirit Mountain.

However, they could sense something strange about the mountain from afar.

The Heavenly Buddha Spirit Mountain should be holy and pure, yet it was shrouded in dark clouds, and terrifying rage qi surrounded the mountain foot.

"This is bad..." Guanyin's expression turned serious.

Disaster had arrived inside the Heavenly Buddha Spirit Mountain.

Rage qi that materialized into dark clouds hovered above the peak. Numerous ferocious and vicious cultivators stood in the air under the dark clouds as they stared at the mountain.

They were all the wicked and ferocious men locked up in the Buddhist Tower.

They rallied and prepared to retaliate against the Heavenly Buddha Pure Land.

Their priority would be destroying the Heavenly Buddha Spirit Mountain.

"Listen up, bald heads! I will cut off all your heads and eat your flesh as snacks today!"

"You've locked me up for many years! It's time to get revenge!"

"All you know is blast nonsense into my ears! I will kill every single one of you! I want to see what your Buddha can do!"

The vicious and wicked men taunted and threatened the Buddhist cultivators on the mountain.

The leader was a man in white who looked honorable and elegant. He looked nothing like a vicious criminal, but his hands were covered in blood as if they were formed purely out of blood.

He was the leader of the Notorious Four, whose name was long forgotten.

After he was locked up in the Buddhist Tower, he single-handedly subdued every other prisoner inside and became their leader.

He was known as Blood Buddhist!

Beside him were three more ferocious figures with overflowing rage qi.

One of them was a woman in red, looking alluring. She wielded a thorny whip that resembled a rose's stem.

There was an elderly man with white hair and a face that resembled a withered log.

Lastly, there was a minotaur who had a strand of skulls as a necklace. However, the minotaur wore a kasaya and was glimmering in Buddhist Light.

Skulls and Buddhist Light were a strange combination. It felt holy yet wicked at the same time.

"Blood Buddhist, Lady Red, Master Wood, and Minotaurus, all of the Notorious Four from the Buddhist Tower are here. And there are so many others!"

"This is a disaster for the Pure Land!"

The Buddhist cultivators were worried. To suppress the riot across the Pure Land, most of the stronger cultivators were sent to subdue the rioters and help the people.

There were only so many cultivators left in the Heavenly Buddha Spirit Mountain.

"Today is a memorable day! After today, everything about Buddhism will be erased!" Blood Buddhist said coldly as he looked at the Buddhist cultivators.

At the same time, a flash of Buddhist Light shone.

A handsome Buddhist cultivator arrived on a huge condor.

The endless Buddhist Light he carried felt noble and prestigious.

The Buddhist cultivators were delighted by the person's arrival.

"The Buddha Emperor! The Buddha Emperor is here!"

"This is great!"

The emperor of all Buddhas had arrived.

With his arrival, the cultivators on the mountain regained their confidence.

Blood Buddhist stared at Buddha Emperor with frosty killing intents. "You finally showed up."

The tension in the air felt like living purgatory to the Buddhist cultivators.

The holy Buddhist Light from the Buddha Emperor overwhelmed the bloody purgatory sensation in the air. "It has been so many years, yet you're still trapped in your own anger, Blood Buddhist."

"Buddha Emperor, you've locked me up in the stupid tower for so many years, and you want me to free myself from the anger? Are you out of your mind?"

"You murder people and cultivate wicked techniques with the blood of your people. I don't want to kill you because I want you to repent your sins and turn over a new leaf. That is mercy."

"They're a bunch of ants! Why cry when a bunch of ants dies?" Blood Buddhist scoffed.

He raised his hand and clenched his fist.

It was a sign for the other wicked men to attack. "Kill them!"

"Kill the bald heads!"

Blood Buddhist stepped forward, releasing the aura of a Monarch. The Ultimate energy was channeled and blasted at Buddha Emperor.

"Today will be the end of all Buddhist cultivators on this stupid mountain!"

"Buddhism is almighty. Buddhism is all, and all are Buddhist. You might kill everyone here, but can you kill every sentient being?" Buddha Emperor said.

Then, he countered with a palm strike.

The palm energy manifested into a dragon and elephant, carrying terrifying power.

"Bang!"

The clash between Ultimate energies pushed Buddha Emperor and Blood Buddhist back.

"Haha! Buddha Emperor, you're injured badly! This time, I will win!" Blood Buddhist cackled.

After that, he summoned his avatar, which resembled a sea of blood.

Buddha Emperor, too, summoned his Buddha Avatar.

However, he frowned as he summoned the avatar. The injuries he sustained from the battle with the Void Ruler persisted, and it would greatly affect his powers.

"If I'm no match for you, even if it costs me my life, I will protect the Heavenly Buddha Spirit Mountain!" Buddha Emperor said strongly.

"Bang!"

The fight between Buddha Emperor and Blood Buddhist continued.

Terrifying energy waves rippled outward.

One of them released a demonic aura that shadowed the sky, while the other released holy Buddhist Light, blessing the land with peace and harmony.

The clash shook the entire mountain violently.

"Bodhi Saint Qi!"

Buddha Emperor performed a series of mystical hand seals. Then, at the peak of the mountain, a golden light shone, and a holy Bodhi tree shook violently.

Beams of Buddhist Lights were released and gathered on Buddha Emperor, boosting Buddha Emperor's energy level.

In response to that, Blood Buddhist channeled his demonic cultivation technique to the limit.

Skeletons emerged from the bloody ocean around him, wailing and crying. The rage qi and vengeful qi intertwined and hit the Bodhi Saint Qi.

The clash between two energies shook the mountain once more.

Further away at the mountain peak, a little monk arrived before the massive Bodhi tree. He looked at it with a strange grin.

"It worked. The Buddhist Tower is ruined, and Blood Buddhist and others are besieging the Heavenly Buddha Spirit Mountain. If Buddha Emperor wants to fend them off, he will have to use the Bodhi Saint Qi, and it will allow me to release the Desire Buddha's energy from underneath!"

Chapter 2399 Chu Kuangren Arrives, All Evil Kneels, You Lost The Chance

Buddha Emperor and Blood Buddhist were in a fierce fight.

Endless blood sea and boundless Buddhist Light clashed terrifyingly.

Buddha Emperor relied on the Bodhi Saint Qi to gradually gain the upper hand against Blood Buddhist, but the injuries he sustained were pulling him back, and he was at his limits. He could barely keep it up anymore.

Blood Buddhist noticed his weakness and scoffed, “Buddha Emperor, you may be powerful, but you can’t do everything alone! Look at the mountain. It’s a living hell now!”

Most of the cultivators of the mountain were sent out to save lives, which weakened the mountains’ defense.

On top of that, Buddha Emperor was being held back by Blood Buddhist.

The entire Heavenly Buddha Spirit Mountain was being overrun by villains and criminals, and casualties were on the rise.

“Merciful Buddha, we locked you up in the Buddhist Tower because we didn’t want to see bloodshed. However, it seems like everything is destined,” Buddha Emperor said with a sigh.

Then, he released a powerful roar.

He sat with his legs crossed in the sky and shone brightly in Buddhist Light.

The Holy Bodhi Tree shook, releasing endless energy to him.

At that moment, he stopped holding back and combined his power with the Holy Bodhi Tree’s energy to eliminate Blood Buddhist.

Knowing that Buddha Emperor was going to give it his all, Blood Buddhist became alarmed.

However, right before the two of them clashed with their strongest attack, a person arrived abruptly on the battlefield.

No one on the battlefield had noticed him.

The person released a boundless aura across the battlefield, sweeping everything away with his powerful energy.

Shocked, everyone on the battlefield turned to the source of the powerful aura and saw a person shrouded in Immortal Sparks.

“Monarch Chu?”

While Buddha Emperor was surprised by Chu Kuangren’s arrival, Blood Buddhist and the others looked at Chu Kuangren curiously.

“Who is he?”

“I bet he’s a Monarch with that aura.”

They were locked up in the Buddhist Tower for too long and, since their escape, had been busy wreaking havoc to understand the current situation of the Great Hongmeng Universe.

Therefore, they did not know who Chu Kuangren was.

If they were Monarchs from other forces, they would have run away.

“I’m just here to run some errand, and you guys are in my way. You have two options: leave the Pure Land or repent your sins.”

All the ferocious villains and criminals were furious, especially Blood Buddhist.

He might look calm, but his narrowed eyes gleamed ferociously. A terrifying killing intent locked on to Chu Kuangren.

“I choose the third option, which is to kill you!”

With that, he threw a punch at Chu Kuangren.

A boundless blood ocean crashed toward Chu Kuangren with terrifying force.

As an Ultimate Monarch, Blood Buddhist was not afraid of anyone. Chu Kuangren might look powerful, but he was confident in his own strength.

“I see.”

Chu Kuangren was not surprised by Blood Buddhist’s reaction.

He pointed his sword hand sign forward, releasing endless sword intent through his fingertip.

Once the formations on his body were activated, he activated the Heavenly Human Art and All Law Indestructible Physique via Limitless Cultivation to draw a line in the air, releasing his most powerful attack — Sword Twenty-five.

The intense sword qi that could tear the sky and land apart easily split the blood ocean in half.

After splitting the blood ocean, the sword qi continued forward with indomitable power and went after Blood Buddhist.

“Bang!”

Blood Buddhist was struck, and blood spewed from his mouth as he was blasted away.

The strike silenced the whole battlefield.

Everyone was stunned, especially the wicked villains. They could not believe that Blood Buddhist, who single-handedly ruled the Buddhist Tower and rivaled Buddha Emperor during his prime, was blasted away by one slash from Chu Kuangren.

“I have underestimated you.”

Blood Buddhist looked at Chu Kuangren with narrowed eyes. He wiped the blood off his mouth and channeled his demonic technique to the limit.

He extended his hand into the air for a grab, and a massive blood claw rose from the blood ocean to grab Chu Kuangren.

“Break!”

Chu Kuangren swiped his finger in the air.

It easily tore the blood claw, and another slash was released as a follow-up.

Blood Buddhist was struck once more. His body shook terribly, but then the blood from the ocean gushed into his body rapidly and healed his injuries.

It reminded Chu Kuangren of the Underworld River Forefather of the Pan Gu Universe.

He, too, had a blood ocean that could make him unkillable.

“Young Monarch, I don’t know who you are, but I don’t care. You’re not going to stop me from destroying the Heavenly Buddha Spirit Mountain today! Look at the monks who are dying. How many of them can you save?” Blood Buddhist scoffed.

Since he had the confidence to stall and even defeat Buddha Emperor, he had the same confidence to stop Chu Kuangren.

“Is that so?”

Chu Kuangren looked at the battles on the mountain.

Shining Buddhist Light shone across the land, and golden lotuses bloomed in the void all of a sudden.

The golden lotuses rose and released a unique aroma.

Its aura instantly calmed the chaotic battlefield.

Then, as the golden lotuses bloomed, the petals fell and rained down on the mountain.

Everyone touched by the petals, regardless of how vicious and ferocious they were, felt an instant peace in their hearts. They put their weapons down, and the rage in their eyes was replaced by calmness and peace.

They fell on their knees and started to repent of their sins.

“Oh my god! What have I done?”

“I have sinned!”

Every Buddhist cultivator was stunned.

A moment ago, the ferocious villains were trying to skin the Buddhist cultivators alive and rip them to shreds. Yet now, they knelt on the ground and repent of their sins.

The rage qi on them faded.

It was like they had turned into a different person in the blink of an eye.

“What did he do?”

Everyone looked at Chu Kuangren basking in Buddhist Light in awe.

Even Buddha Emperor was rendered speechless.

“Such pure Buddhist energy and unique cultivation technique!”

As Buddha Emperor was closest to Chu Kuangren, he could feel the obvious Buddhist energy from the latter. It felt holy, peaceful, and pure; it even felt more powerful than his own!

He looked at Chu Kuangren and had the urge to worship him.

“W-What did you do?”

“The Heavenly Buddha Pure Land built the Buddhist Tower to cleanse us of our evil, but nothing worked after countless years. How did you do it in just a blink of an eye? How did you make them repent of their sins?” Blood Buddhist said as he stared at Chu Kuangren in disbelief.

He looked at the other ferocious villains and could no longer sense rage qi on them.

Everyone felt peaceful and calm.

How? How did it happen?

Now, Blood Buddhist was afraid of Chu Kuangren.

The other three Notorious Four who were not cleansed by Bodhi Samadhi quickly gathered around Blood Buddhist.

“Boss, this guy is strange. We can’t fight him head-on! Let’s leave.”

“Yeah.”

Blood Buddhist was hesitant.

Leave?

He did not cause a riot and wreak havoc across the Heavenly Buddha Pure Land just to leave when Chu Kuangren scared him.

That would be embarrassing!

“You guys have no chance,” Chu Kuangren said.

Then, he activated his Infinity Domain, controlling the space above the mountain peak.

He stepped forward to Master Wood and threw a palm strike at him.

Master Wood was horrified.

He could not escape due to the Infinity Domain, so he growled and countered with a palm strike.

Chu Kuangren’s palm energy was indomitable. He blasted the man’s body into pieces and then crushed the Great Dao in his body into smithereens.

"I gave you people a chance, but you guys wasted it," Chu Kuangren said.

He locked onto the other three, who were horrified after he killed Master Wood with just one palm strike. They dared not engage him anymore.

They immediately retreated, including Blood Buddhist who was an Ultimate Monarch.

He looked at Chu Kuangren in fear.

"I can't believe the human race produced such a powerful Monarch while I was locked up. He's as strong as Buddha Emperor in his prime. Damn it!"

Blood Buddhist and the other two tried to dodge Chu Kuangren's attacks, but with the Infinity Domain active, they could not escape.

Chu Kuangren was the ruler of the Infinity Domain, and no one could escape him.

"Blood Ocean Nether Art!"

With a raise of his hand, an ocean of blood appeared and flooded the sky and land, blocking Blood Buddhist and the other two's escape route.

Lady Red and Minotaurus were shocked that Chu Kuangren had used Blood Buddhist's cultivation technique before them, and so were Blood Buddhist.

"Blood Buddhist, who are you to him?"

"Why could he use your cultivation technique?"

The Blood Ocean Nether Art was Blood Buddhist's unique cultivation technique.

He was the only one who had mastered it in all of the Infiniverse, so Lady Red and Minotaurus were forced to question him.

"I... I..." Blood Buddhist was at a loss for words.

"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. Have a taste of your own Blood Ocean Nether Art," Chu Kuangren said.

He waved his hand, summoning tens of thousands of evil ghouls from the blood ocean to attack the three of them.

The three of them could no longer escape.

The explosive energy from the evil ghouls was as strong as, or even stronger than, Blood Buddhist's. Blood Buddhist could not believe it. "What the hell is going on..."

As he tried to fight off the evil ghouls, he realized the form, the mystical energy, and the aura were exactly the same as his own Blood Ocean Nether Art. In fact, it was slightly stronger than his own.

"Ah!"

Lady Red, who was caught by the swarm of evil ghouls, cried in pain as she reached out to the other two for help.

However, the other two were busy staying alive themselves, and no one was there to help her.

At the next moment, she was dragged into the blood ocean and ripped to shreds.

Another one of the Notorious Four had fallen.

"Blood Buddhist, if you don't think of a way to save us, we will all die here!" Minotaurus bellowed.

He swung the massive strand of skulls around his neck. Each swing released a powerful blood Buddhist Light that crushed the evil ghouls around him, but he could not keep it up forever.

The blood ocean was consuming his energy.

"Damn it!"

Blood Buddhist used the same blood ocean to counter Chu Kuangren's blood ocean.

As the two same blood oceans clashed, a powerful shockwave erupted.

Back at the peak of Heavenly Buddha Spirit Mountain, a burst of evil qi erupted and formed rings of crimson Buddhist Light that started to ripple around the peak.

"This aura... Could it be..."

Buddha Emperor's expression shifted.

He immediately flew over to the source to have a look.

At the peak of the Spirit Mountain, the golden tree was corrupted by bloody evil qi, its light slowly faded away, and its leaves fell on the ground.

It was the Holy Bodhi Tree of the Heavenly Buddha Spirit Mountain, the Source of the entire mountain.

The tree, which had lived more than ten eras without withering or losing a piece of leaf, started to wither, and at its roots, a black crack appeared.

A massive amount of evil qi erupted from the crack and gushed into a little monk's body.

In an instant, the little monk's aura skyrocketed.

"It's the Desire Buddha's energy!"

Buddha Emperor's expression turned bitter.

He locked onto the little monk and threw a palm strike at him.

"So you're the one who caused this? Stop it right now!"

However, the little monk simply countered with a palm strike.

"Bang!"

The already injured Buddha Emperor was struck by the blast, and blood gushed from his mouth.

"The Heavenly Buddha Spirit Mountain has subdued this energy for so long. It's time to release it! Buddha Emperor, you can't stop me!" the little monk said with an ominous grin.

Then, his look drastically changed into a handsome but wicked form of a demonic Buddha. He had three faces and four arms.

As his demonic Buddhist Light shone, he straightened his body and rose to the sky.

Then, the crimson demonic Buddha energy flooded the Heavenly Buddha Pure Land.

"It's Papiyas!"

"It's him? What is going on now?"

Cundi, Receiva, Tathāgata, and other Buddhist cultivators of the Pan Gu Universe were shocked.

They knew Paipyas, but how did he become so powerful?

He had become even more powerful than Buddha Emperor!

"It's the Desire Buddha's energy!"

The top brass of the Pure Land were shocked by the sudden commotion at the mountain peak.

The Desire Buddha energy was a top secret within the Heavenly Buddha Pure Land. Only Monarchs knew about it.

"Foolish cultivators of the Pure Land! Let me show you how much of a hypocrite the Buddha you worship is!"

With that, Papiyas raised his hand at the other Buddhist cultivators, showing them different scenes and images.

The scenes showed the early days of the Great Hongmeng Universe.

There was some golden matter floating in the void, and in time, it compressed and materialized into a massive egg. Countless years later, the egg cracked, and a toddler around seven years old emerged.

It was one of the Primal Gods named Buddha!

Buddha grew up and trained himself until he started to get strong, and his name became well known. However, as more and more Primal Gods were born, he realized his powers were not exactly powerful compared to the others. Even a Great Dao Being named Devil Bone was stronger than him.

He tried many things to improve his powers.

That was when he noticed Devil Bone gathering the evil intents of the universe to strengthen herself. He had the same idea but realized his powers were different from the evil intents.

In the end, he went a different way, or to be exact, the opposite way.

He voided himself of his emotions and evil intents.

With that, he no longer had concerns or emotions, which boosted his strength. He became extremely powerful even among the other Primal Gods.

However, the desires and emotions he got rid of himself were reborn into a new entity.

That new entity was powerful and the embodiment of desire.

He called himself Desire Buddha.

Desire Buddha resented Buddha for abandoning himself, and Buddha also hated Desire Buddha because of pure desire and greed.

Desire and greed would drive people mad and weaken their powers.

Therefore, a long battle started between them.

In the end, the Desire Buddha was destroyed, and a part of his powers were subdued under the Holy Bodhi Tree.

To prevent Desire Buddha from escaping, Buddha chose a group of humans and started to preach, which eventually gave birth to Buddhism.

Then, the first batch of monks founded the Heavenly Buddha Pure Land and guarded the Holy Bodhi Tree.

"So, this is your Buddha! He got rid of his emotions and desires for power and killed the new life that was born from it! He founded the Buddhist world because he wanted to subdue the power that threatened him! How 'magnanimous' of him!" Papiyas scoffed.
