Chapter 2471 Explore Source Realm, Source Crystal, Deal With It Once And For All

Mysterious and mystic, all Sources existed before the Great Hongmeng Universe formed. The Source was like a flowing river without a start or end. It flowed endlessly and formed a perfect loop with itself.

A white figure was floating and floating along the flow of Source energy.

He was surrounded by Immortal Sparks, and the endless mystical energy seemed to have blended with his energy.

It was Chu Kuangren, and he was comprehending the Unlimited Great Dao energy.

With the help of the Creation Source, his insights on the Unlimited Great Dao grew deeper and stronger.

Three thousand Ultimate Daos were slowly transformed into three thousand Unlimited Great Daos.

He spent tons of time cultivating and had successfully comprehended half of the three thousand Daos he had. He was amazed by the mystical characteristic of the Creation Source.

Suddenly, a vortex appeared in the long-flowing river of Source energy and sucked Chu Kuangren into it.

...

"Huh?"

09:45

"Huh?"

Chu Kuangren suddenly woke up from his cultivation. He looked around in surprise. "Source aura?" He was no longer in the river of the Creation Source, but the new place was filled with the same source aura, which amazed him.

A new source was being born in the Great Hongmeng Universe?

On top of that, should he not be in the river of Creation Source? What teleported him into a new world?

"Someone is here!"

Suddenly, Chu Kuangren sensed multiple presences further away.

He quickly set up some restriction seals to cover his presence.

Multiple figures flew above his head.

They were all Monarchs.

At first glance, the Monarchs belonged to the Spatial Tribe and Six Eyes Tribe.

"Why are they here?"

Chu Kuangren pondered for a moment and decided to follow them.

"This Source Realm is indeed amazing. I believe I can break through to the Unlimited Great Dao Realm here in no time."

"Yeah. The God Prince found this place, and with this, the Primal Kingdom will surely be the winner of this Infinity War."

"I wonder how amazing the final era will be. I'm looking forward to it."

The Monarchs were having an exciting discussion about the newly discovered Source Realm.

Chu Kuangren tailed them and got a general understanding of the situation.

The God Prince had appeared and attacked the Pan Gu Kingdom. After they were defeated, they found this Source Realm on their way back and were currently exploring the place.

The God Prince, Primal Flame, and other Primal Gods were also cultivating somewhere in the Source Realm, trying their best to recover to their prime form.

Chu Kuangren pondered and started to form a plan in his head.

"Look, another piece of Source Crystal!" cried a Monarch.

He pointed at a mountain further away. At its peak was a crystal in the size of a person.

It was a Source Crystal, an opportunity in the Source Realm.

The Source Crystal was something similar to the Great Dao Source but a lot more powerful and effective.

With it, A Monarch could break through to the Unlimited Great Dao Realm in the shortest time, and its mystical characteristics were unfathomable. It was also one of the reasons why the Monarchs believed the Primal Kingdom could win the Infinity War.

The Source Realm was filled with Source Crystal, which was one of the most common resources. It would not take long for the Primal Kingdom to produce another batch of Unlimited Great Dao cultivators. Until then, the Pan Gu Kingdom would not be able to stop them anymore.

A Spatial Monarch went up to the crystal with utmost desire, wishing he could refine it immediately.

However, another Monarch said, "All the Source Crystals are to be delivered to Honorable Luo Hou. You should follow orders."

"There are so many Source Crystals here. If we take one or two pieces, no one would know," the Monarch said.

"Why don't you give it a try?" Further away, Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes.

Honorable Luo Hou?

Luo Hou, honorable?

Luo Hou had become one of the Nine Honors?

Chu Kuangren was quite surprised by his discovery.

"Hm. There's no use thinking now. I'll just 'ask' them," Chu Kuangren said with a chuckle.

He then emerged from the void.

Chu Kuangren's arrival shocked the Monarchs.

Before they could react or make a noise, Chu Kuangren's eyes gleamed and sealed the space around them.

At the next moment, an unimaginable Spatial energy enveloped them.

The Monarchs were crushed into bits instantly with a bang.

Monarchs should be one of the strongest beings in the universe, yet Chu Kuangren killed them like ants with just a thought.

Such a scene would certainly shock others.

After that, Chu Kuangren transformed into one of the Spatial Monarchs.

With the Limitless Imitation technique, not only could he copy the person's fate, divine abilities, and techniques, but he could also copy the target's memory.

He could transform into someone else completely.

Copying someone else's memories was not difficult, but the memories of a Monarch were as vast as the ocean, and it was not easy trying to locate a certain detail.

Chu Kuangren spent some effort to find out more about the Primal Kingdom and the Source Realm.

As for Luo Hou, the Monarch that he transformed into seemed to possess memories of him as well.

Luo Hou had become one of the Nine Honors of the Primal Kingdom.

"Interesting. Arch Sky Demon. That guy is really lucky," Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

He then picked up the Source Crystals from the ground and continued his exploration as the Spatial Monarch.

He planned to seize all the Opportunities of Fortune of the Primal Kingdom for himself.

...

"Did you hear? Several Monarchs went missing."

"I heard. This Source Realm is dangerous. Could there be someone else here?"

"Impossible. The God Prince and the Primal Gods had checked this place before we came in. Other than us, there's no one else. They have also set up heavy restrictions at the entrance. Who else can get inside?"

"Yeah. The Source Realm is guarded by the God Emperor Seal as well. Who else can sneak through it without raising an alarm?"

"Could there be another entrance?"

"No way..."

Chu Kuangren operated in stealth for the upcoming days, but the mysterious disappearance of the Monarchs attracted even more attention.

No matter how they searched the place, they could not find clues about the disappearance.

They would never find Chu Kuangren because Chu Kuangren became someone else completely with the Limitless Imitation.

Every time he killed a Monarch, he would change his identity.

No one could recognize him.

"137 Source Crystals."

Chu Kuangren looked at the Source Crystals he gathered in his Pocket Universe.

They were the spoils he reaped from the assassinations.

Although it was too slow for him, unfortunately, it was the only way. There were a lot of enemies in the Source Realm, and he only had two hands and two legs.

No matter how powerful he was, he could not be in two places at once.

"Can I gather all of them together and deal with them once and for all?" Chu Kuangren pondered as he rubbed his chin.

Chapter 2472 All Creation Cauldron, Creation Lord, Why Is He Here?

Just when Chu Kuangren was pondering how to infiltrate the Primal Kingdom to get rid of them once and for all, somewhere in the Source Realm released a powerful energy fluctuation and a colorful light.

Coupled with endless Source aura, the mystical and colorful light felt like fairies dancing in the air. All the cultivators exploring the Source Realm turned their attention to the source of light, their eyes glittering with interest and surprise.

"What is that?"

"That is some intense Source aura. What is that?"

"Let's go have a look."

The appearance of the light attracted many's attention, including Luo Hou, one of the Nine Honors.

Chu Kuangren rubbed his chin as he looked at the light, pondering. "Interesting aura. Why does it feel familiar, though?"

"Master, based on my analysis, you've actually encountered this aura before."

"Since when?"

"When you were in the Creation Source," Lil Ai said.

Chu Kuangren was more interested than ever.

He cultivated in the Creation Source for a while but was the only one inside there.

On second thought, he denied his own thought because if he could get it, so could others.

However, one must go in through the Creation Pool.

Could it be human or something else?

He was intrigued by the aura, and he could also use that chance to wipe out Luo Hou and the others.

...

Inside a cave in the Source Realm, colorful light shone from within.

An elderly emerged from the light, but he did not carry any signs of life, as if he did not belong to this realm.

In front of the elderly was a golden four-legged cauldron. The cauldron had mystical beasts, rivers, mountains, runes, and all kinds of images carved onto it. The light was actually from the cauldron.

"What kind of cauldron is that?"

"Who is that old man?" Monarchs of the Primal Kingdom arrived at the cave and were amazed when they saw the cauldron and the elderly man.

Luo Hou, too, was shocked to see the man.

"Someone else is inside the Source Realm? Is he behind the disappearance of our Monarchs?" Luo Hou thought to himself.

He told the others to be cautious.

Suddenly, an ancient Monarch cried in shock, "It's him, the Creation Lord!"

Then, the Monarch's gaze turned grim as he said, "How could it be the Creation Lord? Is he still alive? Be careful. He's a Primal God!"

The Creation Lord was one of the Primal Gods, a close ally to the Human Ancestor, and one of the strongest enemies of the Primal Kingdom during the first Infinity War.

"The Creation Lord doesn't carry any signs of life anymore. This might be just a fragment of his willpower," Luo Hou said.

The Monarch, who recognized the Creation Lord, agreed with a nod. "It's possible. During the first Infinity War, the Creation Lord faced the God Emperor, and there's no way he could have survived it. This might just be a remnant of his past. And..."

The Monarch looked at the golden cauldron in front of the Creation Lord in greed. "That cauldron might very well be the All Creation Cauldron, something even the God Emperor praised. Less than five Source Supreme Treasure can rival its value."

The Source Supreme Treasures were the most powerful items in the Infiniverse.

The All Creation Cauldron was considered one of the top Source Supreme Treasures, so it would be a huge Opportunity of Fortune for anyone who obtained it.

"This Creation Lord is just a remnant. There's nothing for us to be afraid of. That cauldron, however, is a real Source Supreme Treasure. If I can get it, the God Prince will reward me," the Monarch said excitedly.

He thought of taking the cauldron for himself, but he knew it was impossible.

There were many pairs of eyes around him, and if the God Prince knew about it, he might lose his life over the cauldron.

"All Creation Cauldron..."

Luo Hou looked at it with burning desire.

He reached out to grab the cauldron, but the cauldron shone brightly and dissolved his attack instantly.

"Huh? The cauldron resisted me?"

Luo Hou's eyes narrowed as he grunted. Demonic qi rose around him and formed a massive avatar behind him.

The avatar extended his grab with an indomitable aura, and the cauldron countered by releasing dazzling light.

"Kabaam!"

The clash between the two almost destroyed the entire area.

Amidst the blazing energy explosion, the will manifestation of Creation opened his eyes.

They glimmered fiercely as he shouted, "Arch Sky Demon, you're not worthy of this cauldron!"

He then performed a set of mystical hand seals to enhance the cauldron's light even more.

"Bang!"

Luo Hou was pushed back several steps.

"Oh. So you're not the Arch Sky Demon but his successor." The Creation Lord grunted as he looked at Luo Hou.

Luo Hou's expression was grim. "You're just a remnant of your willpower. How long can you last?"

He attacked with another palm strike.

The cauldron countered as well, but it started to shake.

Luo Hou was right. The All Creation Cauldron was powerful, but it was just an item. Without its user, it could not do anything.

The Creation Lord could barely use the cauldron's power in his remnant form, and it would be a matter of time before he lost the cauldron to Luo Hou.

"Once the Primal Kingdom gets the cauldron, the consequences will be unimaginable," the Creation Lord thought with furrowed brows.

At the same time, he was baffled as well.

The Source Realm had appeared out of nowhere, and the commotion from the All Creation Cauldron attracted Luo Hou and the others.

Had the chosen one arrived?

The Creation Lord scanned over the uninvited guests, seemingly searching for someone.

However, they were all from the Primal Kingdom.

He was more surprised than ever because that should not be it.

If the chosen one had not arrived, why would the All Creation Cauldron react so strongly?

"Creation Lord, you won't be holding on to that cauldron for long!"

Luo Hou attacked again.

That time, the other Monarchs joined him.

All kinds of Daoist law energies were blasted at the All Creation Cauldron.

The energy from the plethora of attacks made the cauldron shake.

Even the Creation Lord's willpower remnant could barely hold himself together.

"Haha! Give it to me!" Luo Hou cackled.

He then extended the Arch Sky Demon's hand to grab the cauldron.

"It's time for me to intervene."

Suddenly, a frosty voice sounded.

The void started to ripple, and Immortal Sparks shone. Sword qi rose in the air, forming a barrier in front of the Creation Lord.

Luo Hou's attacks landed on the barrier and were instantly canceled.

"This is..."

Luo Hou's eyes widened in fear.

Not only he but the other Monarchs gasped in fear as well.

They all looked to the source for the sword qi and saw an outstanding figure in white.

"What the hell? Why is he here?"

Chapter 2473 Three Disasters Nine Calamities, Kill Luo Hou, Source Crystals Skyrocket
Chu Kuangren appeared in the Source Realm, surprising Luo Hou and the other Monarchs.

"What the hell? Why is he here?"

All the Monarchs were instantly frightened when they saw the figure in white.

Chu Kuangren's ridiculous powers left a strong impression on everyone.

Luo Hou gulped nervously. Then, his eyes glimmered coldly, and he said, "Chu Kuangren, I have no idea how you got in, but this place is occupied by the Primal Kingdom. You're stepping into the tiger's mouth."

"Get him!"

He ordered the other Monarchs to attack Chu Kuangren, but no one reacted.

All of them were petrified and did not dare to attack Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren chuckled. "This shows how terrible you are as a Nine Honor."

Looking embarrassed, Luo Hou shouted, "I order you as the Nine Honor to attack him! He's just one man. What are you people afraid of?"

All the Monarchs bit the bullet and were forced to comply with Luo Hou's order.

All kinds of domineering Daoist law energies were blasted at Chu Kuangren.

"Bang! Bang! Bang!"

The relentless attack shattered the void, crumbled the cave, and cracked the land.

The attacks could easily kill the strongest Unlimited Great Dao cultivator. Not even an Overlord could escape unscathed.

However, Chu Kuangren was unfazed by the attacks. Instead, he raised his hands and disrupted the void.

"Void Tribulation!"

It was the Void Ruler's attack.

Terrifying tribulation light expanded outward, shattering the incoming attacks.

The blast of light killed all the Monarchs.

"Chu Kuangren, take this! Sky Demon Great Tribulation Claw!" Luo Hou shouted.

The Arch Sky Demon avatar attacked Chu Kuangren.

The massive palm could shadow the sky easily, and it contained the power to erase an entire universe.

Chu Kuangren, unfazed, summoned three thousand Daoist laws around him and summoned the white avatar behind him.

The white avatar countered with a palm strike as well.

"Three Thousand Grand Worlds."

With that, three thousand Daoist laws intertwined.

It was a new technique that Chu Kuangren developed from the three thousand Daoist laws he mastered. Three Thousand Daoist laws represented three thousand universes, and their powers were concentrated in the white avatar's hand.

"Bang!"

Amidst the powerful blast, rampant stray qi erupted.

The Arch Sky Demon avatar cracked inch by inch as Luo Hou was blasted away.

"How is his avatar so strong?"

Luo Hou widened his eyes in disbelief.

His Arch Sky Demon avatar was considered one of the best Monarch Avatars. On top of that, he was already an Overlord, and his cultivation level should be higher than Chu Kuangren.

How did he lose in one strike? It was impossible.

Luo Hou panicked.

He had always dreamt of surpassing Chu Kuangren, and when he finally ascended to the Overlord Realm, he became confident enough to face Chu Kuangren.

He was no longer afraid of Chu Kuangren.

However, reality proved him terribly wrong.

He could not even take one attack from Chu Kuangren.

"Damn it! Sky Demon Great Destruction, Three Disasters Nine Calamities!" Luo Hou roared.

Rumbling Demonic qi erupted and constructed a terrifying conjuration.

All kinds of disasters, including fire, storm, flood, and the nine tribulations that all cultivators had to experience, appeared.

Luo Hou materialized all of them, and the terrifying power destroyed the void.

"That's the Tribulation Lord's technique!"

The Creation Lord was surprised to see the attack.

As far as he knew, the Arch Sky Demon did not know that technique, yet Luo Hou used it.

Could he be related to the mysterious Tribulation Lord as well?

The Creation Lord frowned.

On the other hand, Chu Kuangren did not ponder as much. He found the attack interesting, but it was not enough to threaten him.

"Am I strong enough to overpower a common Overlord?" Chu Kuangren murmured. He raised his hand. Three thousand Daoist laws surrounded him instantly, and more than half of them had ascended to the Unlimited Great Dao Realm; the rest were in the Ultimate Dao Realm. He could already rival an Overlord with three thousand Ultimate Daos.

Now, after cultivating in the Creation Source, more than half of his Daos had ascended to the Unlimited Realm, which was terrifying.

His power level was catching up to the Human Ancestor's.

"Sword Twenty-six!"

Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign forward. The Sword Great Dao appeared, releasing tens of thousands of sword qi from within.

All sword intent, from past to present, gathered into one blade. It also contained the power of other Great Daos.

It had surpassed the limits of Sword Twenty-six and might very well be an early version of Sword Twenty-seven!

"Bang!"

He unleashed a slash.

The Demonic qi melted like snow, and the disasters and calamities were destroyed instantly.

Luo Hou's body started to crumble into pieces under the strongest sword qi attack.

"No! No! This can't be! I spent so much effort to reach Overlord Realm, and I still can't beat you? Why?" Luo Hou shouted maniacally, his eyes bloodshot.

However, Chu Kuangren remained cold as usual.

"The cries of a loser are useless."

He then pointed his sword hand sign forward again and released a stronger sword qi.

"Bang!"

Luo Hou's body exploded, including the Great Dao in his body.

The Demonic Forefather, the Overlord of the Demonic Dao, was finally killed.

"Too bad." Chu Kuangren sighed.

Luo Hou was tenacious and persistent. He entered the Great Hongmeng Universe as an Embodier and managed to break through to the Overlord Realm through hard work and cultivation.

His cultivation level even surpassed Chu Kuangren.

It was no longer about just pure Opportunities of Fortune. His talents, patience, and every aspect of his personality played a vital role.

It was unfortunate that he stood against Chu Kuangren.

Otherwise, the Pan Gu Kingdom would welcome another strong support.

"Hm? That's..."

After Luo Hou died, pieces of Source Crystals fell on the ground. One of them looked like a black compass, and it caught Chu Kuangren's eyes.

He picked it up for a look, and the compass started to spin, revealing all kinds of strange images.

"Interesting." Chu Kuangren put the compass away and then turned to the other Monarchs.

The other Monarchs were deterred by Chu Kuangren's power. When they saw his gaze, the first thought that appeared in their minds was to run.

Unfortunately, the space was locked, and they could no longer escape.

"Without you guys, the Primal Kingdom can still operate," Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

With that, he pointed his sword hand sign, releasing tens of thousands of sword qi at them.

The sword qi danced gracefully in the air, tearing the void in its way.

The Monarchs could not even fight the sword qi.

Chu Kuangren collected the Source Crystals that fell from the Monarchs as he continued his killing spree. They were all precious cultivation resources.

With the Source Crystals, the cultivators of the Pan Gu Sect would grow stronger.

From three hundred, Chu Kuangren soon gathered a thousand of them, and it put a smile on his face.

Searching one by one was tedious. It would be more efficient to collect them in a group.

The Monarchs were horrified as Chu Kuangren continued his killing spree with a wicked grin.

He looked more like the devil than the Devil King!

"Chu Kuangren!"

A shout came from the void, and a golden flame burned the sky.

The sky was painted gold instantly, and the scorching aura melted everything in its way.

Chapter 2474 Prime Primal, Fleeting Beauty, Steal Power From Time

"Chu Kuangren, you're asking for it!" Following the shout, golden flames ignited.

From the golden flames came a golden figure with a powerful aura who descended from the sky.

His appearance destroyed Chu Kuangren's spatial lock.

Chu Kuangren looked at the golden fiery figure with narrowed eyes.

"Primal Flame."

It was Primal Flame, one of the Nine Honors of the Primal Kingdom and one of the Primal Gods.

His aura had gotten stronger, far stronger than his first encounter with Chu Kuangren, which meant he had recovered to his prime!

A Primal God in his prime stood before Chu Kuangren!

Luo Hou's powers were incomparable to a real Primal God in its prime state.

Even Chu Kuangren felt somewhat nervous, but he remained calm and cool. There was a touch of contempt on his face as he said, "Isn't this the little ember who lost to me?"

The word 'lost' triggered Primal Flame.

He fought Chu Kuangren before but was defeated.

Then, he was also frightened away by Gu Linglong and the Descendant Self Sword.

They were all the greatest embarrassments in his life.

"Chu Kuangren, you defeated me when I was at my weakest. Now, with the help of this Source Realm, I have recovered more than half of my powers. I'd like to see how'd you fight me," Primal Flame said coldly.

He threw a punch at Chu Kuangren.

A massive amount of golden flames exploded, carrying boundless Source energy within.

It was countless times stronger than when Primal Flame was at his weakest.

The powerful aura locked onto Chu Kuangren.

The area he was standing in was scorched.

The land, the woods, the rocks, and even the void were burned to cinders.

"Show me what a Primal God in his prime can do," Chu Kuangren said.

Then, sword rays started to shine around him.

Each sword ray contained a single Great Dao aura. The three thousand sword rays around him represented his three thousand Daos manifesting.

The endless golden flames were blocked outside.

"You've broken through half of the three thousand Daos to the Unlimited Great Dao Realm?" Primal Flame's eyes widened in shock.

He was recently defeated by Chu Kuangren's three thousand Ultimate Daos.

Now, Chu Kuangren was moving toward the Unlimited Great Dao, and his growth speed was ridiculously fast.

Primal Flame could not believe his discovery, but he could not change the fact, no matter how he denied it.

"Chu Kuangren, I refuse to believe you can stop me," Primal Flame said angrily.

He might not have been Chu Kuangren's match before he recovered, but he had recovered to his prime. He believed he could easily beat or, at least, rival Chu Kuangren.

"Flame God Art, All Flame House!"

Golden flames instantly surrounded Chu Kuangren and formed a massive structure that resembled a house around him.

It sprayed endless flame at him, trying to burn him to cinders.

The flames from the flaming house were exceptionally powerful.

It could even distort the sword ray around Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren was unfazed despite being placed under a fiery threat. He pointed his sword hand sign and connected his three thousand Daos.

Ultimate and Unlimited Great Dao energies were channeled.

"Sword Twenty-six!"

Sword intent rose sharply and resisted the flames, but it was not over.

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes, and it started to shine in dark golden.

"Infernal Dragon Eye, Heaven Earth Darkness."

The light from the sky was shadowed instantly.

Absolute darkness befell the realm, and everything was silenced as if they were frozen.

Endless Time energy went after Primal Flame, trying to freeze him.

"This is the Primal Infernal Dragon's technique. Hm. The Human Ancestor's Limitless Transformation Technique is indeed amazing. He can even copy the Primal Infernal Dragon's divine ability," Primal Flame grunted in disdain.

The flame he carried contained the power of the source, which could even burn time itself, so the Heaven Earth Darkness could not affect him at all.

However, Chu Kuangren was not discouraged. He pointed his sword hand sign and used the ultimate technique of the Primal Infernal Dragon again.

"Infernal Dragon Eye, Fleeting Beauty!" Infernal Dragon Flame burned fiercely, but it was not going after Primal Flame. It was burning Chu Kuangren.

Fleeting Beauty accelerated Chu Kuangren's own time.

His aura rose sharply.

In just a blink of an eye, Chu Kuangren went through millions of years, which also boosted his aura to a terrifying level.

He stole power from time itself.

However, the power he siphoned was difficult to control, even for him. He could not use it for long, or he would suffer the repercussions.

Using Fleeting Beauty on himself was a dangerous move. Not even the Primal Infernal Dragon might have the nerve to do it.

"You maniac!"

Primal Flame was horrified when he saw what Chu Kuangren did. "You siphoned power from time? You're courting death!"

Even the Creation Lord was shocked. "Who is this lunatic? Why is he using the Primal Infernal Dragon's divine ability on himself?"

Chu Kuangren grinned as he savored the power in his body. "That's not all."

As soon as he said that, the Heavenly Human Art, Heaven-Devouring Art, and Formation Vassal were all activated, and they boosted his aura higher.

Even though the boost was not as huge as the Fleeting Beauty, it was still significant.

Hence, Chu Kuangren was happy with the boost.

He felt like with that power, he could destroy the Infiniverse with ease.

"Primal Flame, let's continue."

He stepped forward and appeared before the fiery Primal God.

He pointed his sword hand sign that contained three thousand Daos at Primal Flame.

When the void collapsed instantly, Primal Flame's expression shifted greatly. He channeled his Source energy and turned them into fiery shields, but Chu Kuangren's pierce energy shattered them.

"Bang!"

Primal Flame was struck with an unprecedented force, blasting him away.

"So that's all you got?" Chu Kuangren scoffed.

He quickly followed up with the attack.

After using Fleeting Beauty, he could siphon power from time, and it made him so powerful that each move he made could destroy universes.

Primal Flame, who had recovered to his prime, was slowly losing.

The Monarchs from the Primal Kingdom were all shocked.

"How? Primal Flame has recovered to his prime, yet he's still no match for Chu Kuangren. How monstrous is he exactly?"

No one could believe their eyes, yet the fact was placed before them.

"Damn it! Flame God Art, Eight Ways Scorched Land!" Primal Flame shouted.

Endless golden flame rose into the sky and intertwined into a ball of flame in the sky. The ball of flame then exploded into eighty-eight fiery dragons that danced in the sky, roaring as they scorched the land.

Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign to release more sword qi. The sword qi transformed into a white sword. Since the white sword contained three thousand intertwining Daos, it was exceptionally sharp, and he cut all the fiery dragons.

"You will always lose to me," Chu Kuangren said with a grunt.

He released his sword qi together with the sword intent from past to present gathered at the tip.

Primal Flame's body was cut in half by the sword qi, and the Source energy in him started to crack.

Primal Flame had been defeated!

Chapter 2475 God Prince, Reversal God Attacks, Infiniverse Slash

"Have I been defeated?" Primal Flame looked at Chu Kuangren in disbelief.

In just a few short years, Chu Kuangren's growth shocked everyone. How could a Primal God in his prime form lose to Chu Kuangren?

"I said it before. You will always lose to me," Chu Kuangren said coldly.

He raised his hand, releasing another torrential of Daoist law energy at Primal Flame.

The torrential energy stream was terrifying enough to deter even a Primal God.

Suddenly, two more extremely powerful auras appeared.

The two auras rivaled that of Primal Flame, and one of them carried a sense of superiority and nobility, which was even stronger than Primal Flame.

"Reversal God? And... God Prince?" Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes.

Two streaks of light came in quickly.

The terrifying aura got stronger and more intense.

"I decide my fate. I defy the destiny that befalls me!"

"Bang!"

As Reversal God unleashed rampant Reversal energy across the field, he locked his sharp gaze on Chu Kuangren.

"Master of Destiny, we finally meet."

He had met Chu Kuangren before, but it was just a clone.

Now, the Chu Kuangren that stood before him was the real one.

Strictly speaking, it was indeed their first meeting.

The other person wore golden robes and was surrounded by golden Daoist law energy. He, too, exuded a noble presence.

He was the God Prince in his prime form, which made his aura scarier than Reversal God and Primal Flame.

"Chu Kuangren, I didn't expect our first official meeting to be your end," the God Prince said indifferently with his hands behind his back.

He was confident in killing Chu Kuangren. It was as if he had everything under control.

Chu Kuangren grinned nonchalantly. "You're right. It's our first official meeting, and it will be the end of one of us. I'm sure it'll be all three of you."

Immediately after, Chu Kuangren's auras rose to a new high.

Endless Daoist law energy erupted and formed a white avatar behind him. The avatar threw both punches at them. The void was shattered, and the Infiniverse was shaken. With the worldly order disrupted, all things reverted to nothing but chaos.

Indomitable energy was blasted at the God Prince, Reversal God, and Primal Flame.

"God Emperor Sun Moon Breaker!"

The God Prince punched forward, shooting a myriad of light beams with the brilliance of the sun and moon.

The God Emperor qi transformed into a life-size sun and moon.

The punch hurled the sun and moon forward.

Reversal God narrowed his eyes and channeled his Reversal energy. Source energy was also summoned and manifested into an endless river of fate that swept the void.

"Bang!"

As the powerful Daoist law energies clashed, the realm crumbled, and everything was destroyed.

The Source Realm shook violently.

"Fate-Breaking Barren Halberd!"

Reversal God revealed a bright silver halberd in his hand. The halberd was extremely huge — several hundred meters in length, and it could certainly pierce the sky.

Following that, his physical body grew into the size of a titan.

With the halberd in hand, his aura skyrocketed.

As he swung the halberd down, endless light shone and crushed its target.

To defend himself, the God Prince channeled the golden Daoist law around him immediately.

"God Emperor Art, King's Heaven Calling!"

He raised his hands into the sky, summoning a ball of golden energy that resembled a sun.

Primal Flame, who was injured in the fight with Chu Kuangren, shouted. He endured the pain and channeled the Source energy within him to summon the strongest flame he possessed.

"Flame God Art, Grand Infinite Scorch!"

The hottest golden flame contained the Source energy.

It was the Source of all flames, the spark that lit up the Infiniverse. It contained explosive, corrosive, and burning properties, which made it extremely powerful.

A sliver of flame could burn an Unlimited Great Dao into ashes, and not even an Overlord could escape unscathed from it.

Yet, all three different but powerful attacks were hurled at Chu Kuangren.

They were probably some of the most terrifying attacks ever in existence.

The battle was considered rare even during the first Infinity War.

Even Chu Kuangren lost his usual nonchalance and calm.

"Bring it on!"

Since he did not have the Descendant Self Sword with him, he had to bring out all the other swords that he had with him.

Some of them were from the Fantasy Roulette, and some others were from enemies that he defeated.

There were tens of thousands of them, and each was great on their own.

Some of them were even Ultimate Supreme Weapons.

All the swords surrounded Chu Kuangren and formed a massive sword in front of him. As he pointed his sword hand sign forward, he infused his sword qi into all the swords.

"Buzz!"

All the swords buzzed violently as one massive sword.

One of the swords could not handle Chu Kuangren's sword qi and exploded on the spot.

"Barely usable..." Chu Kuangren murmured.

Not even tens of thousands of swords were as useful as one Descendant Self Sword, but in order to counter the three Primal Gods teaming up, that was all he could do for now.

"Primal Gods, take this! Sword Twenty-six, Alter! Infiniverse Slash!"

As he shouted, he swung his sword hand sign down, slashing the massive sword at the attacks.

Sword intents from the past to the present gushed out from the slash. Each sword intent the massive sword carried contained the aura of other Great Daos. It was as if all three thousand Daos were used in the slash.

Sword Twenty-six, Alter, Infiniverse Slash was Chu Kuangren's newest technique.

It was an incomplete Sword Twenty-seven.

It used the Sword Great Dao to control the other Great Daos, making all of them into one sword.

The slash brought forth the fullest potential of Chu Kuangren's three thousand Daos. It was so powerful that all beings in the universe were frightened.

Even the Primal Gods were slightly afraid.

"Bang!"

The massive sword clashed with the Reversal God's halberd, the God Prince's fist energy, and Primal Flame's Source Flame.

Upon collision, the realm collapsed, and all things were obliterated, including some Monarchs who could not escape in time.

The blast was blinding and loud.

The massive halberd was flung away, crashing through a dozen mountains.

Reversal God's hand was torn, and blood gushed from the gory cut as he was blasted away.

The God Prince's God Emperor qi was messed up as he was pushed back.

Primal Flame was also in bad shape. He was already injured, and that newest blast had reverted him back to his weakest state after he recovered to his prime.

On the other hand, Chu Kuangren was blasted away, and his aura was heavily disrupted.

Daoist laws around him twinkled ceaselessly.

Upon noticing Chu Kuangren's wretched state, the God Prince scoffed. "Chu Kuangren, the longer you siphon energy from time, the stronger the repercussions. How much longer can you hold on for?"

"Why don't you take a guess?" Chu Kuangren grinned, not looking nervous at all.

"Hmph. You're bluffing."

The God Prince believed Chu Kuangren was already suffering from the repercussions, and if they continued the attack, they could take down Chu Kuangren once and for all. Suddenly, the Creation Lord sighed and said, "Sigh. The time is now. It seems you're the Chosen One I've been looking for."

Then, the All Creation Cauldron shone brightly, and endless Creation energy gushed out from the cauldron.

Chapter 2476 All Creation Cauldron's Might, Time Repercussion, Chosen One

"Kabaam!"

The All Creation Cauldron in front of the Creation Lord shone brightly, releasing Creation energy across the field.

The sudden commotion shocked the God Prince, Primal Flame, and Reversal God.

"What is going on?"

The All Creation Cauldron was a mystical treasure that even the God Emperor praised. None of them dared to ignore the slightest commotion caused by the cauldron.

The Creation Lord performed multiple mystical hand seals before his figure disintegrated into light particles that fused with the cauldron.

The cauldron shone even brighter.

Then, it flew up and went to Chu Kuangren.

"Come here!"

Chu Kuangren took the All Creation Cauldron and activated Thousand Weapon Heart to control the Source Supreme Treasure.

"Oh? You know the Thousand Weapon Heart. That saves us a lot of trouble."

The Creation Lord's voice came from the cauldron.

It was Chu Kuangren's first time controlling the cauldron, but he did not feel any resistance. Quite the opposite, he found controlling it natural and smooth, as if the cauldron was his all along.

"Interesting."

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes. With just a thought, he tossed the All Creation Cauldron at the God Prince and others.

The blinding light from the cauldron enveloped them whole.

"No!"

The God Prince's expression shifted when he sensed a threat from the cauldron.

"God Emperor Art, God Emperor Wall!"

He immediately channeled his God Emperor qi to its limit, and golden walls appeared around him.

It was the most powerful defensive technique of the God Emperor Art.

However, the walls started to crack when the cauldron crashed on them, which shocked the God Prince.

He grabbed the void and shouted, "God Emperor Seal! On me!"

A streak of light flew in from further away.

The God Emperor Seal was originally used to stabilize the exit of the Source Realm, but the God Prince summoned it back to counter the All Creation Cauldron.

"Go!" he shouted.

The God Emperor Seal flung itself at the All Creation Cauldron.

The moment the two Source Supreme Treasures clashed, a blinding light exploded.

Even the other two Primal Gods were pushed back.

The powerful blast made the God Prince spit blood.

"Retreat!" the God Prince bellowed as he narrowed his eyes.

Without another word, he brought the other two along and left immediately.

Since he had taken the God Emperor Seal away, the exit would be closed soon, and if they were trapped, it would be extremely difficult for them to leave the Source Realm.

"Chu Kuangren, you and I will meet again someday!"

The God Prince's voice echoed in the sky.

Some of the Monarchs who stayed gasped in shock and looked at Chu Kuangren with nothing but fear.

"He defeated three Primal Gods! How is he so powerful?"

"What kind of human being is he?"

The Monarchs were horrified.

Chu Kuangren, though, did not give them any time to react. With just a thought, he sent the All Creation Cauldron crashing at them.

"Bang!"

The cauldron left a massive crater on the ground, crushing the Monarchs underneath.

He continued to control the cauldron like a fail, leaving crater after crater on the ground.

After a while, all the Monarchs were wiped out.

He was happy with the cauldron's power.

However, the moment he removed Fleeting Beauty's effect, a powerful repercussion struck him and consumed his vital energy.

His body shook violently, and he spat a mouthful of blood.

Even his signature dark hair turned white in an instant.

He also lost a lot of lifespan due to the repercussions.

It took him a while to regain his composure, and his white hair slowly turned black.

Unfortunately, his aura remained weakened.

"What a terrifying repercussion," Chu Kuangren lamented.

Even the Human Ancestor's body could not handle the repercussions, let alone his Indestructible Physical Body.

The Indestructible Physical Body, which is something physical, was no match for the absolute energy of the Daoist law. "Stealing power from time cost me around ninety billion years of life," Chu Kuangren murmured after calculating how many years he lost.

He was not overly concerned because, at his level, his lifespan would be at least one trillion years long.

Ninety billion years was not that much to him.

As he grew stronger, he could also regain the lifespan he lost, but it did not mean he could use Fleeting Beauty whenever he wanted.

The longer he used it, the stronger the repercussions.

In the end, he might lose a few times more lifespans than this time, which was scary.

"You used the Primal Infernal Dragon's divine ability on yourself? Boy, you sure are bold." The Creation Lord appeared from the All Creation Cauldron.

He was amazed by Chu Kuangren's boldness.

Chu Kuangren smiled and said, "Nice to meet you, Senior."

"So you're the Human Ancestor's successor?"

"I am."

"Great. If the Human Ancestor knows that someone inherited his legacy, he would be happy," the Creation Lord said sentimentally.

"Legacy?"

At the thought of what the Creation Lord called him earlier, Chu Kuangren asked curiously, "I wonder what you mean by the chosen one?"

"Let me tell you a story. Many years ago, the Master of Destiny did a deduction for the Infinity War, and the outcome showed that it would end in the ninety-nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine era, which is the final era. "In the final era, there will be a chosen one who will lead us and bring us hope. He will defeat the God Emperor, and the Infiniverse will persevere under his lead. That chosen one is you," the Creation Lord said.

Then, he looked at the All Creation Cauldron. "This cauldron was forged with the realm's will, and it's connected to heaven and earth to a certain extent. Whenever disaster falls, the cauldron will seek out the chosen one and help him to suppress the turmoil. That chosen one is you."

Chu Kuangren pondered the Creation Lord's words.

Then, he asked, "How powerful is the God Emperor?"

He had asked the Devil King and Shen Qixue that question before, but neither could give him an exact answer.

They had never fought the God Emperor before in the previous Infinity War.

They only got to watch from afar, so they could not give a precise answer.

However, the Creation Lord was different. He was at the same level as the Human Ancestor and had faced the God Emperor before.

"He's ridiculously powerful."

The Creation Lord's gaze turned stern. "He's the oldest Primal God in the Infiniverse. Even the Human Ancestor couldn't completely kill him and had to seal him away. I can tell you that even if you have the All Creation Cauldron, you might not even survive one hit from the God Emperor."

When he heard he might not even survive one hit from the God Emperor, Chu Kuangren's eyes widened in fear.

He knew his enemy was much more powerful than he could ever think of, yet the Creation Lord's comment made him feel defeated.

However, he was able to collect himself and regain his composure.

He was fearless, and instead of being discouraged, he looked determined.

"He has no match in this Infiniverse?"

"Yes, he's almost invincible."

"Very well. Once I defeat him, I will be the most powerful in this Infiniverse, from past until present!" Chu Kuangren said in high spirits.

Chapter 2477 You Cannot Lose, Never, Primal's Confidence

Defeat the God Emperor, and Chu Kuangren could become the most powerful throughout the ages!

The Creation Lord was slightly stunned by Chu Kuangren's claims. However, he then laughed out loud and said, "Yeah, if you can defeat the God Emperor, you will be able to surpass the Human Ancestor or even all the Primal Gods and become the strongest."

Defeating the God Emperor would be extremely difficult.

It was not an exaggeration to say that even if the Primal Kingdom was wiped out and only the God Emperor was left, he alone could start the Infinity War.

The oldest Primal was the strongest God.

He was the God among emperors and the most superior of them all — the God Emperor.

The Creation Lord believed that no one could ever defeat the God Emperor, but when he saw Chu Kuangren's confidence and determination, he did not have the heart to dampen the man's spirits. Quite the opposite, he saw a sliver of hope in Chu Kuangren.

"You're the legacy of me, the Human Ancestor, the Master of Destiny, and the Primal Infernal Dragon. You're the chosen one of the prophecy! You cannot lose! You can never lose!"

After that, the Creation Lord disintegrated into countless light particles.

The remnant of his willpower had been around to protect the All Creation Cauldron in the Source Realm for countless years, and Chu Kuangren was the one he had been waiting for.

Now, he had fully fulfilled his duty, marking the end of the remnant of his willpower.

The light particles flew into Chu Kuangren's body.

All kinds of techniques and divine abilities appeared in Chu Kuangren's mind. They were all the inheritance of the Creation Lord, and it also included some tricks and tips to control the All Creation Cauldron.

Chu Kuangren spent days digesting all the knowledge.

Meanwhile, the God Prince, Primal Flame, and Reversal God escaped the Source Realm, and the entrance was sealed.

The Source had faded long ago, so the Source Realm was incompatible with the current era.

It was already a miracle for it to open up in this era, and it probably would never open up again.

"Thank goodness we escaped, or we would've been sealed in the Source Realm forever," Reversal God said with relief.

"Chu Kuangren didn't come out, so it seems he'll be sealed inside. I guess that's one obstacle down for the Primal Kingdom," Primal Flame said.

"No."

The God Prince shook his head. "He's certainly an anomaly. Before we entered the Source Realm, we searched the place, and he wasn't inside. I also sealed the entrance with the God Emperor Seal, which means he didn't enter from the entrance. So, how did he get inside in the first place?"

The God Prince's words made Primal Flame and Reversal God ponder, but they found no answer to the question.

The God Prince continued, "He has a lot of secrets. I have heard a lot about him, but after our first meeting today, I'm sure he will be our biggest enemy. We cannot underestimate him."

"Oh? Biggest enemy?"

Primal Flame scoffed. "When the God Emperor awakes, Chu Kuangren and the Pan Gu Kingdom will be nothing but dirt."

He seemed to have forgotten that he had lost to Chu Kuangren a few times.

However, he admired the God Emperor so much that mentioning the name regained his confidence.

The God Prince and Reversal God did not argue with him either because they knew how powerful the God Emperor was.

"Let's go back and regroup. We have to replenish the manpower we've lost as soon as possible. Also, we need to hasten our discovery of the other Nine Honors. My father is strong, but if we sit back and do nothing, why would he need us?" the God Prince said.

Primal Flame and Reversal God narrowed their eyes. The God Prince was right.

The God Emperor was strong. If they did not contribute to anything and the God Emperor found them useless, he might kill them instead.

...

Back in the Source Realm, Chu Kuangren opened his eyes slowly. He looked at the All Creation Cauldron and was struck by realization. "That explains a lot."

He finally knew why he was teleported from the Creation Source to the Source Realm. It was all because of the All Creation Cauldron.

The cauldron was born from the Creation Source, and similar to the Creation Pool, it was connected to the Creation Source.

The cauldron sensed his presence in the Creation Source, so it activated itself and brought him here.

Now that he had absorbed the inheritance of the Creation Lord, Chu Kuangren mastered the techniques of controlling the cauldron and understood it better.

He could use the All Creation Cauldron to enter the Creation Source at will, which would be a great help to his cultivation.

"If I can enter the Creation Source at will and cultivate whenever I want, I can push all my Daos to the Unlimited Great Dao Realm in no time. On top of that, I can also siphon the Creation Source energy to help others cultivate. This is as good as the Source Crystals."

Chu Kuangren's eyes gleamed with interest.

The Infinity War was bound to be terrifying, and Monarchs were just better cannon fodders.

Unlimited Great Dao cultivators would be the common soldiers, and Overlords were the main forces.

Only Primals had the power to control the outcome of the war.

Although the Pan Gu Kingdom was powerful and resourceful, they were still not strong enough to fight in the Infinity War.

The Tempest King and the others must get stronger and break through into the Overlord Realm, at least.

As for the Black Heaven Nine Stars, they had to break through to the Unlimited Great Dao Realm.

"I have to train them when I get back," Chu Kuangren thought.

Then, he continued to explore the Source Realm.

The Source Realm was huge, and the Source aura it carried was unique to the Source era.

Based on the knowledge he got from the Creation Lord, the Source Realm was a snippet that he kept away before the Source completely faded, and it could continue to exist because of the All Creation Cauldron.

Once the cauldron left the realm, the Source aura would fade until nothing was left.

The fading of the Source was determined and could not be reversed.

Several years later, Chu Kuangren had almost explored all of the Source Realm and gained a lot of Source Crystals, including some treasures from the Source.

They may not be as precious as the All Creation Cauldron or the Human Ancestor's sword, but they were considered a harvest already.

Each treasure would be an unimaginable boost to a Monarch.

After that, he planned to leave.

He took the All Creation Cauldron out and went inside the light that it created.

In just a flash, the cauldron disappeared, and following its disappearance, the Source Realm started to collapse.

The Source aura that people felt from the outside faded, and it would take days for the Source Realm to completely collapse.

It was the will of the Infiniverse — something that could not be changed.

In the Creation Source, a golden cauldron appeared, followed by Chu Kuangren. "I have to look for the Creation Pool."

The exit of the Source Realm was gone, but Chu Kuangren could enter the Creation Source through the All Creation Cauldron.

Even though the Creation Source could not appear in the real world, he could go back through the Creation Pool, which was connected to the source.

Chapter 2478 Bond With Descendant Self, Exit Source, All Are Shocked

Chu Kuangren was locating the Creation Pool's location in the Creation Source but could not find it.

The Source was like an endless river, while Chu Kuangren was like a plank floating on it endlessly. Even though his cultivation speed and effectiveness would be greatly boosted, he could not escape it easily.

It was well known that the most confusing place would be the space between universes because it could trap one easily.

There was nothing there. Other than the Spatial Tribe, who possessed special techniques to explore the void, not even Monarchs could navigate their way through easily.

However, to Chu Kuangren, the Source was much scarier than the space between universes. If one could get lost in the space between universes, the Source could be called a cage.

That was right. The Source that everyone sought after was nothing but a cage to Chu Kuangren. The place could provide one with endless power, yet it acted as a cage that would trap one forever.

The Source could not allow it to exist in the real world because the era of the Source had faded.

The Source could not adapt to the current universe, so when one entered the Source, one would exit the current universe with no return.

It was why Chu Kuangren described it as a cage.

"How ironic. Countless cultivators, Monarchs, and even Overlords sought after the Source, yet it's a cage with no return. However, I am Chu Kuangren, and this won't stop me!"

If he could not locate the Creation Pool, he could try locating something else — the Descendant Self Sword!

He had left the sword at Pan Gu Kingdom with Gu Linglong. Other than protecting Gu Linglong and the Pan Gu Kingdom, it was also a backup plan to overcome a situation like that.

After all, he was connected to the Descendant Self Sword.

Descendant Self Sword, which used to be a common Sage weapon, had grown into a Source Supreme Weapon along with Chu Kuangren's cultivation journey, from a common cultivator to the ruler of a kingdom, the strongest of the Infiniverse.

They had been together for many years, and the bond they forged was unimaginably tight.

Even though Chu Kuangren and the Descendant Self Sword were universes away, with just a thought, the sword would fly to him.

There was nothing in the Infiniverse that could cut off his link with the sword.

...

Back in the Pan Gu Universe, Gu Linglong was cultivating in the Creation Pool while waiting for Chu Kuangren to return.

Suddenly, the Descendant Self Sword beside her started to buzz.

"This is..."

Gu Linglong's eyes gleamed with hope. "Is it you?"

Inside the Creation Source, Chu Kuangren suddenly opened his eyes. "Got it!"

His figure flew toward the Descendant Self Sword's presence, and soon, he found a layer of barrier in the vast Creation Source.

The barrier was actually the doorway connecting the Creation Pool and the Creation Source.

It was inconspicuous in the Source, and finding it would be more difficult than finding a needle in a haystack.

However, Chu Kuangren's bond with the Descendant Self Sword allowed him to achieve the seemingly impossible.

Once again, he had created a miracle.

"Break!"

Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign forward and slashed the barrier.

However, he did not leave a scratch on the sturdy barrier.

It seemed the inner barrier was a lot tougher than the outer barrier.

"Again."

He pointed his sword hand sign up and started to channel the Source energy around him until a sword ray shot out from his finger.

"Sword Twenty-six!"

Having sensed the commotion on the other side, the Descendant Self Sword flew into the deepest part of the Creation Pool and shot a sword qi at the barrier.

The sword qi attacked the barrier from both sides, and upon collision, the barrier finally broke. A large amount of Source energy leaked out, and Chu Kuangren seized the chance to leave the Creation Source.

He grabbed the sword on his way out and laughed happily. "Descendant Self, thank you so much!"

The sword buzzed as a reply to its master.

"My dear!" A surprised voice sounded.

Gu Linglong ran over to Chu Kuangren the moment she saw her.

Chu Kuangren hugged her tightly. "Linglong, thank you so much."

"You're finally back."

After that, Chu Kuangren summoned Lan Yu and the others for a meeting.

The Devil King was also in the Pan Gu Kingdom.

Now that the Infinity War had started, the Devil King had migrated her entire force to the Pan Gu Kingdom and no longer resided in the Devil's Territory.

It would be better to fight the Primal Kingdom in the Pan Gu Kingdom anyway. "Little one, you've grown a lot stronger."

The Devil King looked at Chu Kuangren with surprise. She had a feeling that she was no longer his match.

He had surpassed her in the shortest time possible, and she was right to have chosen him.

"It's not much of a big deal," Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

The Devil King rolled her eyes, feeling speechless. If it were not a big deal, the other cultivators, including the Monarchs, were garbage.

However, she sighed when she recalled the horror of the Infinity War. "You've grown stronger, but you're still not strong enough to face the God Emperor."

"I know." Chu Kuangren nodded.

"A new Source Realm appeared recently, but the Primal Kingdom occupied it. They had been exploring the place for several hundred years before they left. They must have gotten a lot of resources from there," the Devil King said.

Knowing that the Primal Kingdom had gotten stronger, she was worried.

There were countless treasures in the Source Realm, and the least valued resource one could find in there could be the golden Opportunity of Fortune for a Monarch.

With the Primal Kingdom having the Source Realm under control, it was difficult to imagine how powerful they would be after this.

It was nothing but bad news to the Pan Gu Kingdom.

"You don't have to worry about that," Chu Kuangren said with a grin.

Then, he waved his sleeve and revealed numerous Source Crystals on the floor.

The Source Crystals piled up into a small hill before them, and an intense Source aura filled the area instantly.

Everyone was surprised, including the Devil King.

Her beautiful face was stunned, and her jaw dropped, which was amusing.

Before everyone could react, the Devil King asked, "Where did you get these?"

Chu Kuangren had to explain what happened in the Source Realm.

Everyone was astonished at first, but they eventually cheered in delight.

"Hahaha! That is great! With these, the kingdom will be stronger!"

"The God Prince and Primal Flame must be pissed! They thought they found a great Opportunity of Fortune, but their efforts were all wasted!"

"Yeah! After the battle, the Primal Kingdom lost even more Monarchs! I bet they've taken quite the hit."

Everyone looked at Chu Kuangren with respect and admiration.

As expected of the ruler of the kingdom, he did something none of them could do with such ease.

"Other than that, I have something else to show you."

Chu Kuangren took out the All Creation Cauldron.

Others might not recognize it, but the Devil King and Shen Qixue were in awe. They bolted up and cried, "The All Creation Cauldron!"

Chapter 2479 Three Thousand Unlimited, Except Destiny, Attempt Sword Overlord Realm

"All Creation Cauldron!"

The Devil King and Shen Qixue were shocked to see the All Creation Cauldron.

The Source Supreme Treasure played a big role during the Infinity War, and both of them had seen how powerful it was.

They did not expect to see it in Chu Kuangren's possession again in the final era.

"The Creation Lord gave it to me."

Chu Kuangren then went on to explain how he got the cauldron.

The Devil King and Shen Qixue were deeply impressed.

"It seems like the Human Ancestor and the others were prepared for this during the first war."

"Yeah."

After that, Chu Kuangren distributed the Source Crystals and other treasures he got from the Source Realm so that everyone could start cultivating.

Several hundred years flew by.

Chu Kuangren stood high on a mountain peak while controlling the All Creation Cauldron.

The All Creation Cauldron released Source energy from within and constructed a brand new realm around the mountain peak to aid Chu Kuangren's cultivation.

Sometime later, Chu Kuangren opened his glimmering eyes.

"It's impossible to bring the Creation Source to the real world," Chu Kuangren said as he shook his head in disappointment.

He originally thought since the cauldron was linked, he could use the All Creation Cauldron to bring the Creation Source to the real world and help everyone hasten their cultivation. However, he had underestimated the universal law.

The fading of the Source was destined. It was the will of the Infiniverse, so it was impossible to bring it back to the current world.

All he could do was siphon some Source energy from within.

Fortunately, he could still use the All Creation Cauldron to enter the Creation Source and use his bond with the Descendant Self Sword to return to the real world.

It greatly boosted his cultivation.

Almost all his three thousand Daos had reached the Unlimited Great Dao Realm, except one — Destiny Dao.

"The Creation Source isn't enough to push the Destiny Dao to the Unlimited Great Dao Realm. It seems the key lies in the Divine Destiny Temple."

Chu Kuangren's figure then vanished from the spot, and he arrived at the Divine Destiny Temple.

"Temple Lord," the Temple Spirit greeted him respectfully.

"Temple Spirit, I want my Destiny Dao to break through to the Unlimited Great Dao Realm, but I lack some kind of Opportunity of Fortune or trigger. Do you have any suggestions as to what I can do?"

"The Destiny Dao is mystical and profound. I'm sorry, but I'm afraid I'm out of suggestions. Temple Lord, you're on your own on this."

"I see."

The Divine Destiny Temple originated from the Destiny Source, yet even its Temple Spirit did not have any suggestions for him.

Chu Kuangren pondered what he could do next.

"Hm. Thinking about it won't get me anywhere for now." He shook his head and decided to put the matter to the side first.

He continued cultivating his other Daos and ascended them to the Overlord Realm, something not even the Human Ancestor had achieved.

It was extremely difficult. Especially the Great Daos that already had an Overlord, they would never let Chu Kuangren become an Overlord of a Great Dao so easily. Other than the Primal Gods, one Great Dao usually only had one Overlord.

However, there were two common ways to become the new Overlord of a certain Great Dao.

The first was to defeat the current Overlord.

The second was to acquire the recognition of the Overlord of that particular Dao.

As such, Chu Kuangren decided to start with his best — the Sword Dao.

His consciousness arrived at the Sword Great Dao and started comprehending the Sword Daoist law in order to control the entire Great Dao and become its Overlord.

His mastery over the Sword Dao was astonishing.

In addition to having the best of the Infiniverse, the new Descendant Self Sword, it was a lot easier for him to become the Overlord of the Sword Great Dao.

Time flew.

Chu Kuangren started to see the turning point to becoming the Sword Overlord. He exuded a powerful energy fluctuation and started to resonate with the Great Dao as if he were merging with it.

He became the Sword Great Dao itself!

An Overlord aura emanated from him, and the entire Sword Great Dao trembled like never before.

All the cultivators cultivating on the Sword Great Dao sensed the commotion.

"This is terrifying. Who is this?"

"This aura is far stronger than a Monarch. Could it be a new Overlord?"

"A Sword Overlord? Am I witnessing the birth of a new Sword Overlord? However, this aura is rather familiar. Could it be him?"

Everyone was in awe.

Further away, the Sword Saint suddenly opened his eyes and looked in the direction of the sword qi. He lamented, "He has far surpassed me on the Sword Great Dao."

However, right before Chu Kuangren officially ascended into the Overlord Realm, a powerful energy fluctuation expanded from the deepest part of the Sword Great Dao.

At the same time, an extremely powerful sword qi was shot at Chu Kuangren.

The sword qi carried indomitable power and was abnormally powerful.

It far surpassed the level of a Monarch and had reached the peak of an Unlimited Great Dao cultivator.

The sword qi was aimed at Chu Kuangren.

"Huh?"

While Chu Kuangren was trying to comprehend the entire Sword Great Dao, he suddenly narrowed his eyes. "Trying to stop me, huh? Do you think you have what it takes?"

He grunted and countered with his sword hand sign, shooting another sword qi at the incoming one.

The indomitable sword qi was canceled out.

Deep from the Sword Great Dao, someone emerged.

It was an ancient swordsman with a horn on his head. He was not human and was hostile against Chu Kuangren.

"Are you trying to become the Sword Overlord? You'll have to get through me first," the horned swordsman said.

Once Chu Kuangren became the Sword Dao's Overlord, he would have full control of the Sword Great Dao, and no one else could become the next Sword Overlord.

Some cultivators who had the chance to become the Overlord themselves would not sit back and let others seize the chance.

It was the reason why the horned swordsman attacked.

More importantly, he was a cultivator from the Primal Kingdom!

"Ha! You think a dragon will care about an ant when it flies to the sky?" Chu Kuangren said with his hands behind his back.

Although he was facing an enemy, he was still resonating with the Sword Great Dao, attempting to break it through into the Overlord Realm.

"Hmph. How arrogant!"

"Who else is out there? Come on all out."

Chu Kuangren released a boundless sword qi with a swing of his sleeve, and the sword qi gushed forward like a tidal wave, flooding the entire Sword Great Dao.

The moment the energy wave crashed, multiple figures emerged from the void.

Some of their sword qi were subtle, but their sword intents were powerful.

All of them were ancient swordsmen at the Unlimited Great Dao Realm who were slumbering in the Sword Great Dao and finally woke up in this final era.

They were planning to cultivate in the Sword Great Dao and become the Overlord once they woke up, but Chu Kuangren's attempt startled them.

They could not allow someone else to ascend to Overlord before them.

"You guys can come at my all together. Come, witness the birth of the new Sword Overlord!"

Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign forward, provoking them with blinding sword intent.

Chapter 2480 Sword Saint And Others' Resolution, Sword Overlord Appears

On the Sword Great Dao, Chu Kuangren attempted to become the new Sword Overlord and single-handedly challenged multiple Unlimited Great Dao cultivators.

He pointed his sword hand sign forward, and the sword intent shone brightly.

The horned swordsman took the lead by charging toward Chu Kuangren.

With just a thought, Chu Kuangren shot the sword ray from his sword hand sign.

"Bang!"

Multiple swordsmen were blasted away by the sword qi contained in the sword ray.

They started to lose their form and were forced out of the Sword Great Dao.

They could not even take one slash from Chu Kuangren.

"You people come after me, but that's all you've got?" Chu Kuangren scoffed.

"I take back what I said. You're less than ants. You have no right to witness the birth of a Sword Overlord!"

Then, he drew an arch in the void and shot another sword qi at them.

In just a blink of an eye, other than the horned swordsman, all the other swordsmen were blasted out of the Sword Great Dao.

"He's strong. He's really powerful!"

The horned swordsman was rather shocked.

The other viewing swordsmen were also astonished.

That was it?

They thought given their terrifying auras, the horned swordsmen and the others were powerful.

They expected a fierce battle would happen, but they could not even take one hit from Chu Kuangren.

"They're so weak!"

"How embarrassing!"

"I thought they were powerful, but they just have the looks. They can't even take one hit from Chu Kuangren."

Only a handful of swordsmen knew it was not that the horned swordsman and the others were too weak, but it was Chu Kuangren who was too powerful.

"Each move he made matched the intent of the Sword Great Dao perfectly. The slash he released felt like the pinnacle of swordsmanship! He's scary!"

"That's the pinnacle of Sword Dao!"

The Sword Saint and a few other swordsmen were deeply impressed.

Chu Kuangren's Sword Dao had far surpassed their understanding.

If he could not become the Sword Overlord, who else could?

"Swordsmen from the Primal Kingdom, get him!" the horned swordsman bellowed.

Numerous swordsmen appeared on the Sword Great Dao. They were all from the Primal Kingdom, and each was at least a Monarch!

There were more than a hundred thousand of them!

A hundred thousand swordsmen, with their overwhelming sword intent, flooded the Sword Great Dao in an instant.

All of them attacked Chu Kuangren together.

"Bring it on!"

Chu Kuangren laughed and pointed his sword hand sign at the swordsmen.

Tens of thousands of sword qi gushed from his body.

His sword qi was sharp, and the slightest cut from it would kill a Monarch.

The sword qi carved a path of death as they took down swordsman after swordsman. "Hmph. Chu Kuangren, you can continue your ascension. Leave these Primal Kingdom swordsmen to us!" a frosty voice said.

The Sword Saint had arrived together with many other human swordsmen!

Many of them used to be Chu Kuangren's enemies who sided with the Divine Sword Palace, but they took Chu Kuangren's side on that particular occasion.

Personal grudges and vendettas were trivial in front of the Infinity War.

They all knew that the only one who could lead them to win the war and prolong the existence of the human race was Chu Kuangren.

The only thing they could do was offer a helping hand.

"I salute your resolution," Chu Kuangren said with a grin.

With that, he conserved his sword qi and concentrated on ascending to a Sword Overlord.

On the other hand, the Sword Saint, the Divine Sword Palace Ruler, and the others concentrated on fighting off the Primal Kingdom's swordsmen to buy Chu Kuangren time for the ascension.

A fierce and massive battle of swords broke out on the Sword Great Dao!

"Kabaam!"

Multiple explosions erupted in the void.

Terrifying sword intent shook the entire Sword Great Dao.

As the battle continued, Chu Kuangren sat down with his legs crossed on top of his sword qi.

The sword intent circulated him dazzlingly and transformed into sword qi, which continued to produce sword intent while the sword ray shone brightly across the Sword Great Dao.

They formed a perfect loop.

As the loop continued, Chu Kuangren's resonance with the Sword Great Dao grew stronger, and he was getting closer to the Overlord Realm.

Suddenly, an ancient aura erupted from the deepest part of the Sword Great Dao.

When Chu Kuangren sensed the aura, his eyes gleamed. "This is..." The ancient aura continued to expand over the Sword Great Dao.

All the swordsmen sensed it and turned in the direction of the source, looking astonished.

"This Sword Dao aura... Could it be..." The Sword Saint's eyes widened in shock.

He felt the urge to submit to the ancient aura.

The whole Sword Great Dao was shaking because of it.

Countless swordsmen's sword intent expanded and transformed into the shape of a sword before bowing in the same direction.

There could only be one explanation for the occurrence of all swords bowing and the Sword Great Dao trembling — the Sword Overlord had appeared!

"This aura... It's him! The oldest swordsman of the Primal Kingdom, Jian Jueshi!" the horned swordsman cried in delight.

Many years ago, other than the Nine Honors, the Primal Kingdom also had a number of Overlords second only to the Nine Honors and the God Emperor.

Jian Jueshi was one of them.

He was the first Sword Overlord since ancient times.

He was undoubtedly the strongest swordsman who stood before Chu Kuangren came along.

"Interesting."

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes.

He had learned a lot about the Infinity War from the Devil King and the others and had more or less heard of the powerful ones who fought in the war before.

He had heard of Jian Jueshi before, and the latter's awakening was definitely a surprise.

Or maybe he had awakened long ago but decided to stay in hiding until Chu Kuangren attempted to ascend to Sword Overlord.

His appearance was solely to stop Chu Kuangren.

As the sword buzzed, a man emerged from the end of the Sword Great Dao.

The man wore green robes and exuded an astonishing yet sharp qi. Each move he made also resonated with the Sword Great Dao.

He was undoubtedly the strongest swordsman that Chu Kuangren had met.

"All swords in the universe bow to me."

As Jian Jueshi approached, his eyes shot two beams of sword rays at Chu Kuangren.

In retaliation, Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign and countered with his strongest attack.

"Bang!"

The sword qi clashed and released a terrifying explosion.

When the sword qi exploded upon collision, they formed a tornado of sword qi and swept across all directions.

Chu Kuangren was pushed back several steps.

It was his first time being overpowered in terms of Sword Dao.

"Chu Kuangren, the strongest swordsman of this era. Too bad you're not worthy of that title compared to me."

Jian Jueshi stood with his hands behind his back, his body as straight as the blade of a sword.

As he spoke, sharp qi formed a boundless sword aura that attempted to overwhelm Chu Kuangren.

The sword aura even sent the other swordsmen in its way flying.

"Maybe you should worry about yourself. You might not even want to hold a sword after this." Chu Kuangren scoffed.

Unparalleled sword intent erupted.

As two powerful sword intents clashed, the Sword Great Dao trembled to the point of collapse.

Countless Sword Daoist laws danced across the Great Dao.

Countless swordsmen retreated from the clash, afraid they would be caught under the crosshair, but they did not leave.

They stood at a safe distance to watch the battle.

Everyone knew that the battle that was about to happen would be the greatest sword battle in history.

The battle was tempting to all swordsmen. Even if they could gain a little insight from the clash, they would greatly benefit from it.

No one wanted to leave empty-handed.
