

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 1866-1870

Chapter 1866

Yue Feng shook his head and smiled at Li Heihu: "I'm leaving Xuanye Continent soon, you don't have to send it away, go back."

"Okay, Brother Feng." Li Heihu nodded and hurried down to give Yue Feng opened the door for two, and then drove back the same way.

call!

Watching Li Heihu drive away, Chang'e breathed a sigh of relief.

I finally left, and I don't need to hear him call my sister-in-law anymore.

"Niangniang!"

At this moment, Yue Feng looked at Chang'e with a smile: "Li Heihu is right, we've been in the car for a few hours, do you want to find a place to rest?"

"No!" Chang'e was cold. Response: "By the way, you just said, the iron shell we are riding in, called a car?" After saying that, Chang'e looked at the endless stream of vehicles on the street in front of her, her eyes were full of curiosity.

Women are curious about gossip, and so is Chang'e.

Chang'e has lived in the deep palace for a long time, and she was very interested when she saw the vehicles on the street at this time, but Li Heihu was always by her side. Out of restraint and identity, Chang'e was embarrassed to ask. Now that Li Heihu was gone, Chang'e couldn't bear it any longer.

"That's right, this is a car, it can run on fuel, it is the most representative product of modern society." Yue Feng nodded with a smile, and said seriously: "This kind of car is not comparable to the carriages in your place. , If you speed up, you can fly faster than ordinary practitioners. Moreover, there are many types of cars, including trucks, cars, sports cars, supercars..."

Hu!

Hearing this, Chang'e nodded silently, and then said softly: "No wonder the Earth Circle Continent, and the cultivation strength of this Xuanye Continent, are not comparable to other continents. It turns out that the people here rely on these high-tech things. I've practiced."

Uh...

Hearing this, Yue Feng laughed. Looking at Chang'e, he couldn't help laughing and said, "Since the Empress is interested in cars, why don't we buy one? With the status and temperament of Empress, it must be the most expensive supercar. "

Yue Feng has already thought about it, Chang'e's acupuncture point can never be solved.

But it was embarrassing to carry her to fly, so it would be better to buy a car and carry Chang'e back to the northern mainland.

The thought of being able to drive Chang'e for a ride made Yue Feng inexplicably excited.

Ha ha.

Everyone else is a car beauty, I am a car fairy.

"Okay!" Chang'e nodded, her beautiful face did not fluctuate in the slightest, but she had some expectations in her heart.

This kind of car is interesting, if you can ride in one, it's not bad.

After the agreement, the two turned around in the city. There happened to be a big shopping mall that was holding a famous car show, and Yue Feng and Chang'e walked in.

shit.

As soon as he entered and saw the scene inside, Yue Feng was immediately stunned.

I saw that in the large exhibition hall on the first floor of the mall, there were dozens of luxury supercars parked, and they were all brands that Yue Feng was familiar with, such as McLaren, Ferrari, Aston Martin, everything.

Nima, these are all famous cars from the Earth Circle, how come there are also in the Xuanye Continent?

Surprised, Yue Feng saw the publicity board of this famous auto show and immediately understood what it was.

I saw that it said 'This auto show is sponsored by Dafeng Auto Trade Group'.

As soon as he saw Dafeng Auto Trade, Yue Feng immediately thought of the Dafeng Real Estate that Zhao Lu managed for him. Zhao Lu was Liu Xuan's best friend. Ten years ago, Yue Feng invested a sum of money to let Zhao Lu set up a real estate company.

Later, the barrier between Kyushu disappeared, and at Yue Feng's prompt, Zhao Lu put all the funds into the development of other continents.

Now it seems that the current Dafeng Auto Trade Group was also established by Zhao Lu.

Thinking about it, the corner of Yue Feng's mouth twitched, revealing a smile.

Chapter 1867 I really didn't see the wrong person at the beginning. This Zhao Lu is not only beautiful, but also a good businessman. In just a few years, he has made such a big business.

Wow.

Next to Chang'e, seeing so many supercars, her eyes flashed with a strange brilliance.

So many cars, one looks better than the other.

Originally, Chang'e thought that there were so many types of cars in Yuefeng's mouth, and they all looked the same, but as soon as she saw the supercar, she immediately changed her opinion.

It's just that she holds her own identity, and although she is excited, she still looks indifferent on the surface.

However, Yue Feng watched for a while, but he was not interested.

Although there are many famous supercars here, there is no one limited edition, which is boring.

Um?

At this moment, Yue Feng's eyes fell on the platform outside the second floor of the square, and his eyes suddenly lit up.

I saw a helicopter parked quietly on the platform. The red and blue paint color exudes a brilliant light in the sun. The appearance is aggressive and gives people a desire to control and conquer.

shit.

At this moment, Yue Feng couldn't hide his shock, and nodded again and again in admiration.

This Zhao Lu's ability is good. He even introduced the helicopters from the Earth Circle Continent to the Xuanye Continent.

Although Yue Feng has been busy practicing all these years, he has also been paying attention to the business economy of Diyuan Continent, so it can be seen at a glance that what is parked on the platform is Diyuan Continent's latest private helicopter this year, with a price of at least 150,000. Ten thousand. Now that Zhao Lu's business has grown, he has introduced helicopters to the Xuanye Continent.

At this time, noticing Yue Feng's gaze, Chang'e also saw the helicopter on the platform, and couldn't help but ask gently, "What is that?" Famous cars are supercars, and they are more advanced. The car can only run on the ground, and this one can fly."

Can it fly?

Hearing this, Chang'e suddenly lost her interest, and her delicate body trembled faintly.

"Go, go up and have a look." Yue Feng stopped talking nonsense and walked up first.

Chang'e quickly followed.

"Hey, what are you doing?"

As soon as he arrived at the entrance of the platform, he was stopped by the security guard. He looked at Yue Feng up and down with contempt: "This is a high-end exhibition area, you can't enter at will.

"Dare to go up to see the helicopter? It is one of the wheels of the famous cars below. It is estimated that he cannot afford it.

Nima.

Yue Feng smiled bitterly, very depressed, this is clearly a dog's inferiority.

At this moment, Chang'e came over, frowning her eyebrows and said, "What? Don't let me go over to see it?" The voice was not loud, but it was gentle and sweet, like the sound of nature.

Gudong.

Before Yue Feng could respond, the security guard's gaze immediately locked on Chang'e, his eyes were straight, he secretly swallowed saliva, and the whole person went crazy.

God...is this a fairy? How can there be such a beautiful woman in this world?

It has to be said that Chang'e is truly magnificent. Although she has worked hard all the way, she still can't hide her fresh and refined temperament, especially the long dress on her body, which shows her graceful figure to the fullest. It is simply too beautiful. Square things.

After watching it for more than ten seconds, the security guard calmed down, squeezed out a smile and said politely to Chang'e: "This beautiful lady has misunderstood. This helicopter is also part of this exhibition, of course you can watch it."

Chapter 1868

As he spoke, the security guard stepped aside and made a gesture of invitation to Chang'e. The attitude was extremely respectful. Compared with the face of Yue Feng just now, it was completely in the sky and the other in the ground.

In the security guard's heart, the woman in front of her is so beautiful, she must have a prominent family background and an extraordinary background.

As for Yue Feng, dressed in ordinary clothes, it must be her bodyguard or something.

At this time, the security guard did not know that the beautiful woman in front of her was indeed of extraordinary origin.

Of course, although Chang'e has a long history, she doesn't have the money to buy a helicopter.

Yue Feng sighed, walked in quickly, and came to the helicopter with Chang'e.

This...

Looking at the helicopter up close, Chang'e's heart trembled faintly, which was incredible.

This thing is made of iron, so heavy, can it fly?

Thinking to herself, Chang'e couldn't help but ask Yue Feng, "How can this helicopter fly?"

Haha..

Seeing Chang'e's puzzled look, Yue Feng secretly laughed.

I really didn't expect that Empress Chang'e would also be curious at times, but the way she humbly asks for advice is really charming. While murmuring in his heart, Yue Feng smiled and said, "Actually, the principle of helicopter and car is similar. You can fly if you add fuel."

Yue Feng said with a relaxed expression: "I'll try it."

door, sitting directly in the cockpit driver's seat.

As the former young master of the Yue family, Yue Feng has naturally been in a helicopter, and has also been in touch with driving, but he has not touched it for so many years, so it is inevitable that he is a little unfamiliar.

The moment he sat in the driver's seat, Yue Feng felt a little nervous in his heart, but on the surface, he still appeared to be very relaxed and comfortable.

After all, Empress Chang'e was watching, so she couldn't lose face.

call!

Seeing this scene, the security guard not far away changed his face and wanted to stop it, but he held back.

This beautiful young lady has an extraordinary family at first sight. She must be able to afford this helicopter, and that kid must be her sidekick driver, helping her test the helicopter.

Huhuhu ...

At this moment, Yue Feng started the engine, and the helicopter made a roar, and then staggered into flight.

Wow.

Chang'e's hands were intertwined, and her beautiful face was indescribably amazed.

It actually flew.

Boom!

However, at this time, Yue Feng was out of control, and the helicopter only flew ten meters high, and it fell heavily, making a loud noise and billowing smoke.

Chang'e was startled, and quickly stepped back a few steps without being hit.

Ugh.

Yue Feng was speechless, covered his nose and jumped out of the cabin, wanting to cry without tears. I haven't touched a helicopter for more than ten years. I wanted to show off the high-tech in front of Chang'e, but it turned out to be a shame.

The security guard not far away was just stupid.

A helicopter, just broken like this?

"What's the matter?" Chang'e reacted, looked at Yue Feng, and asked gently, "Didn't you say you can fly? Why did you fall down?"

Uh...

Yue Feng scratched his head, very embarrassed: "I haven't touched this thing for a long time, my hands are a little raw, and I forgot how to control it."

Hearing this, Chang'e nodded suddenly, and then asked: "Then if you break it, can you pay for it? Someone?" As the Fairy of the Moon Palace, Chang'e has not had much conception of money, let alone how expensive this helicopter is.

In her heart, if someone else's things are damaged, she just needs to pay for it.

"You don't have to worry about this." Yue Feng smiled and said confidently: "It's just a helicopter, we'll leave when we lose it."

He has countless assets in his name, not to mention a helicopter, even if he loses ten or a hundred. Affordable.

"Good boy!"

As soon as the voice fell, the security guard not far away walked over quickly and stared at Yue Feng: "After a long time, you are not the attendant driver of this lady. Are you bragging about the goddess?"

When he said this, the security guard was angry and regretful.

Chapter 1869

This boy is all about selling goods, how could a beauty recruit him as a sidekick driver?

Why did you lose sight of it?

This is a helicopter. If this kid can't afford it, he won't be able to keep his job. I'm afraid he will also be responsible.

Thinking to myself, the security guard was about to cry, and yelled at Yue Feng, "Don't run away. If you don't lose money today, you will sell yourself here to work and pay off the debt."

"Who said I was going to run away?" Yue Feng Can't laugh or cry.

Just a helicopter, as for?

"Hula..."

At this moment, the movement on the platform attracted many people to come and watch.

"What's the matter?"

Soon, a few people came out of the crowd, and it was the staff of the shopping mall, headed by one, dressed in clothes and arrogant.

This person is about twenty-five, called Tan Chao, and it is the owner of this mall.

The Tan family behind Tan Chao is a first-class family in Fengyun City. The family industry involves various fields, and Tan Chao is the second young master of the Tan family.

It can be said that Tan Chao has a pivotal position in Fengyun City.

Swish.

When he walked to the front and saw the helicopter billowing thick smoke, Tan Chao's face turned green, and his sharp eyes swept towards the security guard: "Made, don't you want to look at the entrance carefully, can't you just let people come over? What happened? Say..."

"Boss." The security guard trembled, almost kneeling on the ground, crying and recounting what happened.

At the end of the story, the security guard pointed at Yue Feng and shouted, "Boss, it's all this kid. He slipped in while I wasn't paying attention and broke the helicopter..."

Damn.

Hearing this, Yue Feng could not laugh or cry, and was speechless in his heart.

This security guard, who saw Chang'e's beauty just now, took the initiative to let us come over to see it. Now that something happened, he pushed the responsibility off... It's really interesting.

Swish!

At this moment, all the eyes of the audience converged on Yue Feng, each with a complex look.

This kid is very brave, he actually broke a helicopter?

Looking at his outfit, he must have no ability. Even if he sells himself here and works for a lifetime, he can't afford it.

While discussing, many people were also deeply attracted by Chang'e's beauty.

beautiful.

So beautiful.

Sexy, charming, alluring, all the beautiful words in this world can't describe her charm.

Gudong!

Tan Chao's eyes were also straight, and he secretly swallowed his saliva.

The next second, Tan Chao's eyes fell on Yue Feng: "Boy, did you break this helicopter?"

"Yes." Yue Feng nodded.

Um?

It seems that he didn't expect Yue Feng to admit it so simply. Tan Chao was stunned for a moment, and then sneered: "Very good, then tell me, how to deal with this matter."

Yue Feng thought for a while, and said slowly: "Well, you give me an hour, I will go out to find someone and send you the money. How much is the price, how much I will pay, I will not let you lose money.

" Go to the street, find a public phone and call Li Heihu and ask him to send money, an hour is enough.

wow.

When the words fell, the audience was in an uproar, and many people couldn't help laughing.

“Haha..Interesting, an ordinary boy actually said he wanted to pay for the helicopter?”

“Boy, do you know how much this helicopter cost? You can’t even pay for it if you sell it.

”, just this trick, who are you trying to fool?”

Everyone was making fun of Yue Feng when they were talking.

Tan Chao couldn’t help laughing. He couldn’t hide the mockery and teasing, and looked at Yue Feng: “Boy, do you think I’m a child? Let me give you an hour to find money, do you think I’ll agree? ?”

Chapter 1870

“Then what do you say?” Yue Feng ignored the ridicule around him and looked at Tan Chao and responded.

“Boy!”

Tan Chao showed a smile and said coldly, “I’m just as fair as a human being. There are two choices. Either you lose money immediately, or you go and keep this charming lady.”

Speaking of the last sentence , Tan Chao pointed at Chang’e with a smile in his eyes.

In Tan Chao’s eyes, Yue Feng is a poor boy, and he must not be able to afford it. It is already very lenient to let him keep the beautiful women around him.

“This won’t work.” Yue Feng refused without hesitation.

This kid thinks so beautifully, but he even caught Chang’e’s attention.

“Huh!”

Chang’e, who was beside her, also changed her pretty face. She was so embarrassed and angry that she couldn’t help but said to Yue Feng: “Yue Feng, didn’t you say you can compensate them? Hurry up.”

These ordinary people are really bold . , How can you compare yourself to a dignified Moon Palace Fairy with a helicopter?

There is also this Yue Feng, who obviously can’t fly a helicopter, so he has to show off.

“Don’t panic!” Yue Feng smiled, lowered his voice, and comforted Chang’e: “I will handle this matter.”

“You are the owner of this mall, right.” Yue Feng gently With a smile, he looked at Tan Chao and said slowly: “Just now I saw below the first floor, there was a propaganda, it was written that you have a cooperation with Dafeng Group, and these cars were also imported by Dafeng Group from Earth Circle, right.”

Saying, Yue Feng looked serious: “Since it’s a cooperation, you should know Zhao Lu, the president of Dafeng Group. In this way, you call Zhao Lu and say I’m Yue Feng, and you ask her to come over now.”

Since Tan Chao didn’t let him go, Li Heihu couldn’t get in touch, he just wanted to find a way to see Zhao Lu.

Speaking of which, since the last time we parted, I haven’t seen her for many years.

What?

Hearing this, Tan Chao’s expression froze, and he was stunned. He looked at Yue Feng with doubts.

Does this kid know President Zhao?

Yue Feng was right, Tan Chao knew Zhao Lu, and the famous cars and helicopters here were also imported from the Earth Circle through Zhao Lu’s company.

It’s just that Zhao Lu is a well-known strong woman in Xuanye Continent. Even if Tan Chao has a family background behind her and cooperates with Zhao Lu, she rarely sees Zhao Lu.

And the boy in front of him actually said he knew Zhao Lu?

Not only know each other, but also dare to let Zhao Lu come over in person?

Who do you think you are.

At this moment, everyone in the audience looked at Yue Feng with a half-smile, with mockery in their eyes.

“Boy!”

At this moment, Tan Chao reacted and sneered at Yue Feng: “I don’t have time to listen to your bragging. Since you don’t lose money and don’t keep beautiful women, don’t blame me!”

Said Then, Tan Chao was too lazy to talk nonsense, and ordered to the staff around him: “Call the security guards, control the two first, and wait for me to deal with it”

Ding Lingling.

As soon as he finished speaking, Tan Chao's cell phone rang.

When he saw the number, Tan Chao suddenly laughed and said to Yue Feng: "Boy, what a coincidence, this call is from Mr. Zhao. I'll ask later, see if she doesn't know you."

Said At these times, Tan Chao's eyes were full of abuse.

In his heart, the boy in front of him was so poor, it was impossible for him to know Zhao Lu.

The voice fell, Tan Chao answered the phone, and then directly pressed the speakerphone.

Obviously, it was intentional to listen to Yue Feng to make him look ugly.
