Chapter 2261 The words were loud and sound, with endless sincerity.

Whoa!

Hearing these words, everyone present was in an uproar, and they couldn't hide their surprise and shock, and there was a lot of discussion.

“What? Savage Territory?”

“I know the Primal Chaos Mountains, but isn't that the border of the Kyushu Continent? Why is there another Savage Territory?” “What the hell is this monk talking about?”

The face is incredible, because they have never heard of the wild and strange domain, not only that, but also very little recorded in historical documents.

In the world's cognition, only the Kyushu Continent and the surrounding seas are known. This is the first time I have heard of it, and there is also a wild and strange domain.

On the other hand, Yang Jian, Gonggong, Zhu Rong, and Shennong, who had been practicing for nearly a thousand years, all looked solemn.

call!

Yue Feng was also stunned, looking at Moroye closely, his mind full of question marks.

Wild and strange realm?

What is this place?

The next second, when he saw a few Shennongs, they were all silent, and Yue Feng couldn't help but ask: “Senior Shennong, what's going on in this wild and strange land? And the Rakshasa clan, who are they?”

When he said this, Yue Feng's face was full of urgency and expectation.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Like everyone else, Yue Feng only knows that the world is divided into the continent of Kyushu, and the border of Kyushu is the Chaos Mountains, where the environment is extremely harsh. It never occurred to me that on the other side of the Chaos Mountains, there is another world.

Swish!

As soon as the voice fell, Ren Yingying, Jiang Shan, Wen Chou Chou and everyone around them all focused on Shen Nong, waiting for his answer.

call!

Shen Nong took a deep breath and said slowly, "The Wild and Strange Territory is a very special place, with a vast area, as large as the Kyushu Continent combined, but the environment there is extremely harsh, and ordinary people can't survive there at all...

" A few minutes after coming down, Shennong explained the origin of the wild and strange realm in detail.

It turned out that after Pangu opened up the world, the earth was not only divided into Kyushu. Outside of Kyushu, there was an area where there was no light all year round, and there was evil and danger everywhere. , The mountains are covered with snow and ice all year round, and the plains are mostly covered by poison barriers. That's why it's called the Wilderness Territory.

As for the Rakshasa tribe, it was a tribe under the Yellow Emperor thousands of years ago. The Rakshasa tribe was able to conquer and fight well. Back then, they helped the Yellow Emperor fight against Chiyou and made great achievements.

However, the people of this Rakshasa clan highly advocate force, and their methods are extremely cruel and bloody. After the Yellow Emperor unified the Kyushu continent, he did not actively help the Yellow Emperor to govern the territory, but caused trouble everywhere. , Because of a small friction, the Rakshasa tribe directly wiped out another tribe.

After learning of the situation, Huangdi was furious, and led his troops to drive the Rakshas out of the Kyushu Continent and exiled them to the Wild and Stupid Territory, allowing them to fend for themselves. Build a chaotic mountain range to prevent the Rakshasa from coming back.

After the formation of the Chaos Mountains, the Yellow Emperor exerted his powerful strength to lead the underground magma to the Chaos Mountains, where volcanoes were formed. In this way, the Rakshasa would have to bear huge risks if they wanted to pass through the Chaos Mountains and return to the Kyushu Continent. .

After the Rakshasa tribe was exiled, under the wise governance of the Yellow Emperor, the continent of Kyushu regained its tranquility.

On the Rakshasa side, because of the harsh environment in the wild and strange realm, a lot of people died after the Rakshasa tribe went there, and the situation was very desolate, but in the end, with their strong physical fitness, they managed to resist the harshness there. The environment took hold and began to multiply.

Later, when the Rakshasa developed a certain power, they wanted to cross the Chaos Mountains and return to the mainland of Kyushu. However, as Huangdi expected, the Chaos Mountains were too dangerous. Not only were there volcanoes, but also hurricanes were often raging. The Rakshasa tried several times, because the casualties were heavy, and they all gave up in the end.

Because these things are too long ago, almost no one in later generations knows about them.

And Shennong, Zhu Rong, Gonggong, and Yang Jian know a little bit because they have practiced for thousands of years and are well-informed.

Chapter 2262

This...

In an instant, after listening to Shennong's remarks, both Yue Feng and the people around him couldn't help but gasp and became completely dumbfounded.

So.... what Moroye said was true.

There are really wild and strange domains and Rakshasa.

Gudong!

Yue Feng couldn't help but sighed and spit, thinking back to Shennong's story, he was shocked.

Total shock.

Huang Di is worthy of being the most outstanding leader in ancient times. Not to mention the exile of the Rakshasa clan to the wild and strange realm. He even ordered people to build a mountain, and with the power of one person, he led out the underground magma to form a volcano. His strength was strong. I can't imagine it.

The people around did not speak, and they were all immersed in their own shock.

"Master Moroye."

At this moment, Yang Jian reacted and looked at Moraye with a half-smiling smile: "You are the inheritor of Patriarch Bodhidharma, and you are considered a Buddhist monk, so don't talk about these appalling things. Things."

After speaking, Yang Jian's eyes became cold, and he continued: "The Chaos Mountains are the natural dangers that His Majesty the Yellow Emperor ordered people to build. There are volcanic hurricanes on them, and they are extremely sinister. ?"

When the last sentence fell, Yang Jian was full of mockery.

In Yang Jian's heart, Moraye suddenly appeared. The purpose was to stop the war. The Rakshasa was just an excuse. After all, the Rakshasa was trapped in the wild and strange territory for thousands of years. If they could cross the Chaos Mountains, they would have Action, how could it be possible to wait until now?

"Amitabha!"

Seeing Yang Jian's disbelief, Moraye was very helpless. After chanting a Buddha's name, he said seriously, "The poor monk never lies. Thousands of years ago, Patriarch Bodhidharma traveled all over the world to study Zen and enlightenment, and he once visited the wild and strange realms!"

What?

In an instant, Yang Jian's face changed, and he was indescribably shocked.

Patriarch Bodhidharma actually went to the wild and strange realm? You know, that place is full of dangers, especially the Chaos Mountains. It is very difficult to successfully cross the mountains. Yang Jian has always been confident in his own strength, but he is not sure that he can cross the Chaos Mountains safely. The Patriarch successfully crossed the Chaos Mountains and went to the wild and strange realm thousands of years ago.

call!

At the same time, Zhu Rong, Gong Gong, and Shen Nong were also extremely shocked.

As expected of the Patriarch Bodhidharma, he has successfully crossed the Chaos Mountains.

"Your Majesty!"

At this moment, Moraye smiled slightly, looked at Yang Jian and said, "After Patriarch Bodhidharma went to the wild and strange realm, he saw the development of the Raksha tribe with his own eyes. , It has been more than two thousand years, and it is reasonable to say that under such a harsh environment, the Rakshasa people should also be extinct. However, instead of extinction, the Rakshasa people have developed and grown, and their clansmen have spread all over the wild and strange realm. , not only that, but also successfully tamed the poisonous insects and beasts there...”

After speaking, Moraye’s expression became solemn and continued: “When I saw such a scene, Patriarch Bodhidharma was very impatient, and realized that the Rakshasa clan had long ago. I’ll come back after I’m done, and it will harm the continent of Kyushu, so I built the Linyin Temple in the Chaos Mountains, so that we can easily detect the situation in the wild and strange realm, and prevent it from happening.”

After finishing the last sentence, Moroye looked directly at Yang Jian, saying a word. One sentence: “I, Linyin Temple, have abided by Bodhidharma’s last wish for thousands of years, and have been sticking to the Chaos Mountains to observe the situation in the wild and strange realm. How can this monk casually lie about such a big event?”

This. ..

Facing Moroye’s questioning, Yang Jian’s face was extremely embarrassed and he was speechless.

call!

At this moment, all the people present couldn’t help but take a deep breath, each with incomparable admiration for Patriarch Bodhidharma.

Patriarch Bodhidharma really deserves to be the first person in Buddhism. He sacrificed himself for others. He established Linyin Temple in such a bad place as the Chaos Mountains.

This kind of selfless, heart-warming mind and courage is truly unparalleled.

Compared with Patriarch Bodhidharma, in the past thousand years, so many famous people have emerged in the Kyushu continent, and they are nothing.

Chapter 2263

Oh!

At this moment, Yue Feng sighed, feeling indescribable in his heart.

As the sect master of Tianmen, the emperor of Xi Cang, and the hero of Diyuang Continent, Yue Feng is often very pleased with these names, but at this time, he is also sighed when he learns what Patriarch Bodhidharma has done.

“But...”

Finally, Yang Jian reacted and couldn't help but said to Moraye: "Even if what you say is true, the Rakshasa clan in the wild and strange realm has developed very powerfully over the past few thousand years. , but no matter how strong it is, it will be difficult to climb over the Chaos Mountains..."

Before he could finish speaking, Moroye interrupted.

"Your Majesty!" Moraye smiled bitterly and shook his head: "You are right, the Rakshasa clan did not have the strength to read the Primal Chaos Mountain Range back then, but with their strength, they now have this ability!"

After speaking, Moraye continued with a solemn expression: "The poor monk has already said that recently, our Linyin Temple has been constantly discovering that there is a powerful evil force surging on the other side of the Chaos Mountains. If the poor monk guessed right, Luo The Sha clan already has the ability to climb over the Chaos Mountains, or they may directly raze the Chaos Mountains to the ground..."

Hu!

Hearing this, whether it was Yang Jian, Gonggong, Shennong and others, they couldn't help but gasp.

Flatten the Chaos Mountains?

What kind of terrifying power does that require?

At the same time, the empress, Long Qianyu, Ren Yingying, and the Seven Fairies all trembled. Although they didn't understand what was going on, they were all moved when they saw Yang Jian's existence. , of course no trivial matter.

"Your Majesty!"

At this time, Moroye looked closely at Yang Jian, and his tone was full of expectation: "You are a man of great talent and strategy. Compared with your achievements in conquering cities and territories, the safety of the Kyushu Continent is the most important thing. Stop the war."

Phew!

Hearing this, Yang Jian's eyes flickered and he pondered for dozens of seconds before issuing the order: "All troops obey the order, withdraw!"

After speaking, Yang Jian turned his head towards Gonggong and instructed: "You can send someone, Go to the Chaos Mountains to check the truth, and if there is a situation, report it immediately."

When he said this, Yang Jian gave Yue Feng a cold look, his eyes full of unwillingness.

To be honest, the Di Yuan Continent is about to be completely occupied, and Yang Jian is extremely reluctant to withdraw his troops like this.

But there is no way. The situation Moroye said is related to the safety of Kyushu. If the Rakshasa tribe really invades, and Kyushu is in turmoil under its own conquest, how can it stop the army of the Rakshasa tribe?

More importantly, all the continents came to support Yue Feng. Just now, with the Zhushen Destroying Heaven Slash, Yang Jian's internal strength was almost exhausted, and he was no longer able to continue fighting.

"Yes, Your Majesty!" Gong Gong responded and immediately went to deploy.

Swish! Swish! Swish!

At the same time, under the order of Yang Jian, the Beiying army quickly assembled, arranged in a neat formation, and withdrew from the valley in an orderly manner.

Whoa!

Seeing this scene, the forces of the various continents, the Xi Cang army, and the Nanyun army were all talking about it.

Especially Si Kongjia and the others couldn't help shouting.

"This...this is the truce?"

"Yeah, I haven't enjoyed it yet!"

"Speaking of which, what the monk said is true or false? Why do I think that Yang Jian couldn't fight, so he deliberately sent a monk to talk nonsense here..."

The words of the four brothers attracted many people to nod in agreement. In their hearts, the savage and strange domain and the Rakshasa clan said that they were godlike, and they didn't seem to be true at all, and they felt too absurd.

Chapter 2264

Moroye ignored everyone's discussion and looked at Yue Feng: "Your Excellency is the Emperor of Xi Cang, the Lord of Tianmen Yue Feng, even if Yang Jian is arrogant and conceited, he can stop in time in the face of right and wrong, your Excellency, no matter what Whether it is courage or ability, it is no worse than Yang Jian, and he should also be able to let go of the hatred of war."

“Master is right!” Yue Feng nodded.

When he said this, Yue Feng looked at the direction where Yang Jian and the Beiyang army were leaving, his eyes flickering with complexity.

To be honest, the forces of various continents and the Nayun army provided timely support, and the situation was finally reversed. Yue Feng really didn't want to let Yang Jian go.

But what Moroye said was right, the safety of the Kyushu Continent was the most important thing.

After making the decision, Yue Feng looked around and said, “Everyone in the Tianmen can summon elite disciples and prepare to go to the Chaos Mountains to garrison. Make no mistake! Others, clean up the battlefield!”

Since the Rakshasa thing is true, without delay. Besides, Yang Jian has already sent people to investigate, so he can't be left behind.

Yue Feng thought about it, and sent some people to investigate the situation first. After confirming, he would go there in person.

As soon as the voice fell, Queen Nanyun, Zheng Chunqiu, Ye Ziyi and everyone also issued orders to send people to guard in the Chaos Mountains.

“You really have the hearts of the common people.” Moroye nodded in relief and smiled: “The poor monk really admires it. However, you rarely go to the Chaos Mountains, and I, Linyin Temple, have been there for thousands of years, and I have a lot of respect for the local people. I understand the situation very well, why don't I, my apprentice, go back with you.”

When he said this, Moroye looked serious.

Um!

Hearing this, Yue Feng and the Queen nodded their heads without any objection.

The next second, Yue Feng looked at Moroye and couldn't help asking: “Master, listen to what you mean, won't you go back to the Chaos Mountains for the time being?”

Moroye smiled and replied, “The Rakshasa are in the wild. The Wei Territory has developed for thousands of years, and its strength is very strong. It needs the entire Kyushu to unite to resist. Now only those of you who are present know the situation, and some continents don't know it, so the poor monks still need to lobby one by one.”

Listen . When he said this, Yue Feng couldn't help being awe-inspiring: "Master works tirelessly, it is the true heart of the common people, we people are really not as good as ourselves!"

Moroye smiled and said no more, tilted his head to face Duan Yu said: "Metamorphosis, the several continents present are planning to send people to guard the Chaos Mountains, so you can accompany you."

After speaking, Moroye handed a string of Buddha beads on his body to Duan Yu and continued. : "The location of our Linyin Temple, I told you before. After you arrive, you take out the Buddha beads. The disciple of Linyin Temple will know that you are my disciple, and will naturally arrange it properly."

When saying this , Moroye looked at Duan Yu's eyes, full of expectations.

Bringing people from all continents to gather at Linyin Temple, Moroye did it himself, but he had to lobby other continents, so he had to let his apprentice do the work for him.

Ah?

Hearing this, Duan Yu was stunned for a moment, and then he resisted a little: "This task is too arduous, and the disciple is afraid that he will not be able to do it."

When he said this, Duan Yu's expression was calm, but his heart was a little nervous.

Almost all of the people present have hatred with him, especially Yue Feng, who is almost at odds with himself. How could he lead the way for these people?

More importantly, as soon as you speak, will Yue Feng and these people recognize their identity?

In fact, Duan Yu was overthinking it. At this time, Yue Feng and the others around him were all on the Primal Chaos Mountains, and didn't pay special attention to him at all.

"Metamorphosis!" Seeing that Duan Yu was a little unwilling ,

Moroye was a little unhappy, and said sternly: "We are Buddhists, and our hearts are in the world. Now that the Kyushu continent is facing a huge crisis, how can we stay out of it?"

Doubt.

To be honest, considering Duan Yu's nature, Moroye knew that it was a bit hasty to hand over this important mission to him, but Moroye firmly believed that after this period of influence, Duan Yu had already restrained his bad nature and would not Let yourself down.

After all, the safety of Kyushu is everyone's responsibility.

"This..."

Chapter 2265

Duan Yu frowned, very tangled, and finally nodded and said, "The disciple will obey the master's orders." The mouth was respectful, but Duan Yu's eyes flashed with a hint of gloom.

So Moraye, I have to take people from various forces to Linyin Temple.... OK, I will take them all to hell when we are halfway there!

Soon, Tianmen and the various forces present quickly assembled, tens of thousands of people.

Under the arrangement of Moroye, Duan Yu led these tens of thousands of people and set off in a mighty manner, rushing towards the direction of the Chaos Mountains.

As soon as the forefoot left, Moraye also left.

Afterwards, the Queen, Long Qianyu, Zheng Chunqiu, Ye Ziyi and others also all left.

call!

At this moment, Yue Feng looked at the direction where everyone was leaving, and his heart was extremely heavy.

It has been an eventful time recently. The war has not yet completely subsided, and a new crisis has appeared on the Chaos Mountains.

In just one day, the Northern Ying army and the Diyuan Continent stopped fighting, and the news that the Rakshas were about to cross the Chaos Mountains quickly spread throughout the Kyushu Continent. In an instant, the situation in the Kyushu Continent was changing, and people everywhere were talking about it. , Some people are flustered, and some people are as if nothing happened, in short, there are different opinions.

Chaos Mountains.

The Chaos Mountains are located on the northwestern edge of the Kyushu continent. They stretch for thousands of miles and are shrouded in dark clouds all year round. The mountains are all black stones. From a distance, they look like a black dragon lying on the edge of the Kyushu land.

In the middle of the Chaos Mountains, there is a lonely temple, which is Linyin Temple.

Going down the Linyin Temple is a winding road, which is inaccessible and indescribably desolate.

At this time, at the entrance of the small road down the mountain, two slim figures are slowly approaching. The two women have peerless youthful faces and compact bodies, but they are both tired and dazed.

It was Su Qingyan and Xu Qingyi.

In the ruined temple at that time, Duan Yu was about to forcibly humiliate Su Qingyan, but was interrupted by Moraye who was passing by. After Moraye subdued Duan Yu, he released Su Qingyan and Xu Qingyi.

However, after Su Qingyan and Xu Qingyi were freed, they originally planned to find Zhu Bajie, but because they were unfamiliar with the environment, they went further and further, and finally walked out of the Yellow Sea Continent and came to the generation of Chaos Mountains.

Just now, I saw that there was a temple in this vast black mountain range. After discussing with Xu Qingyi, Su Qingyan decided to enter the temple and ask.

“Huh...”

On the mountain road, seeing the surrounding environment, Su Qingyan bit her lip and said nervously: “This place is so desolate, I don’t know if the temple above is dangerous.”

Although I have not known each other for a long time, but after two days of contact, Su Qingyan and Xu Qingyi have become good friends. Xu Qingyi was also a little nervous, but she still comforted

: “Since it’s a temple, people in Buddhism are all compassionate, so what’s there to be afraid of?”

“

The monk, with a solemn expression, said to Su Qingyan, “This is the Chaos Mountain Range, it is very dangerous, please leave the two female benefactors quickly.”

As he said, the monk looked around cautiously.

That's right, this monk is a disciple of Linyin Temple. Because recently there are evil spirits surging in the wild and strange areas on the other side of the Chaos Mountains, the temple sent disciples to patrol nearby. As soon as this disciple came out to patrol, he saw two Su Qingyans.

very dangerous?

Hearing these words, Su Qingyan and Xu Qingyi looked at each other, both puzzled.

Isn't it just a mountain, what's the danger?
