

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5761-5770

“Yue Feng!”

When Nalan walked away happily, Su Qingyan slowly walked over, with a delicate face that couldn't hide the complexity: “You said... this matter, did Wu Dang do it? “

The day before yesterday, there was news from Wudang, saying that the death of Lingyu Daoist was related to you. With Wudang's previous practices, he would definitely take revenge on Tianmen.”

Hu! Hearing this, Yue Feng thought for a while and nodded silently: “I can't rule out this possibility. But the most important thing now is to find Nalan Wushuang.”

The inability to face Nalan gladly.

“But...” Su Qingyan bit her lip lightly and said, “Tianmen disciples have been searching for a long time and have no clue...”

Before she could finish speaking, Yue Feng smiled: “The whole of Kyushu, In addition to our Tianmen, there is also a Divine Superintendent, who is responsible for monitoring Kyushu, and maybe there is a way.”

Said, Yue Feng looked out the door: “It seems that it is necessary to visit the God King Haotian.

” Haotian God King?

At this moment, Su Qingyan's delicate body was shocked, and her delicate face couldn't hide the worry: “God King Haotian has been disliking each other with you, will he help?”

Thinking of Divine King Haotian, Su Qingyan felt in her heart. A trace of grief rose.

How could she forget that when Haotian God King led the Heavenly Soldiers and Heavenly Generals to ask Xia Yinzong for advice, so many disciples died tragically... But the Heavenly Emperor said that all the grievances and grievances had disappeared, and even if there was resentment, he could not avenge those disciples.

Hehe...

Seeing Su Qingyan's worried face, Yue Feng smiled and said, “When Ao Lin was about to leave, he specially explained that God King Haotian would cooperate with me in everything, and he would not help me.”

Having said that, Yue Feng explained a few words, and quickly rushed towards the direction of Qin Tianjian.

on the other side, the Rakshasa clan.

In the blink of an eye, Nalan Wushuang had been in Timur's house for two days.

In the past two days, Tie Bowen took Nalan Wushuang around the streets and alleys of the business district. At first, Nalan Wushuang was still very interested, but after visiting all the places, he became bored.

The weather is nice today, the wind is sunny, and Nalan Wushuang is sitting in the side hall of the mansion, playing with a Rakshasa handicraft, bored.

"Nine girls!"

At this moment, Tie Bowen walked in with great interest, and smiled at Nalan Wushuang: "Let's go to the street, there is a kind of snack unique to our Rakshasa tribe, it's fragrant and crispy, you Guaranteed not to eat."

Tie Bowen specially dressed up today, in order to stand together with Nalan Wushuang, he even wore a Kyushu gown.

"Don't go..."

Nalan Wushuang had no interest at all, and said boringly: "It's just a few streets to stroll around, it's boring." When speaking, Nalan Wushuang tried hard to recall his identity, but he was still the same. Can not remember.

Uh...

the invitation was rejected, Tie Bowen scratched his head a little embarrassedly, and said in agreement: "Yes, those shops have been boring to me for a long time, by the way..."

After speaking, Tie Bowen's eyes lit up and thought What: "There is a good place, you must like it."

Nalan Wushuang asked curiously, "What place?"

"Our Rakshasa ranch." Tie Bowen laughed.

Nalan Wushuang was stunned for a moment: "Isn't the ranch a place to keep cattle and sheep, what's there to do?"

Hehe...

Tie Bowen smiled mysteriously: "You will know when you go." Lan Wushuang went out.

Half an hour later, the two finally arrived at the ranch.

The pasture of the Rakshasa tribe, in the southwest of the tribe, stretches for several hundred kilometers, where the water and grass are lush. When Mona and the Rakshasa tribe settled down, it was designated as a pasture for raising war horses.

Wow!

At this time, looking at the scenery in front of him, Nalan Wushuang, who was originally boring, gleamed with brilliance, and his whole heart was refreshed.

Under the blue sky and white clouds, there is an endless green grassland in front of you. Nalan Wushuang has been growing up in Kyushu. When have you seen this kind of scenery? I was hooked at the time.

"This place is so beautiful." Nalan Wushuang couldn't help but admire.

Seeing that she was in a good mood, Tie Bowen also smiled: "When I am bored, I will lie on the grass alone and watch the blue sky and white clouds."

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5762

Nalan Wushuang nodded thoughtfully, and then thought of something: "The scenery here is beautiful, it can make people feel relaxed, but there is no fun."

"The fun is deep in the pasture." Tie Bowen laughed Hehe said, looking at Nalan Wushuang's eyes, there is also a bit of tenderness.

After two days of getting along, Tie Bowen completely fell in love with Nalan Wushuang, but he hadn't found a chance to confess.

Deep in the ranch?

Nalan Wushuang was stunned for a moment, and then urged: "Then let's go quickly."

After saying that, he was about to pull Tie Bowen forward.

"Shh!"

Just at this moment, Tie Bowen made a mute gesture, and then pulled Nalan Wushuang to squat in the grass beside him.

Afterwards, Tie Bowen looked around vigilantly.

Nalan Wushuang looked puzzled: "Why are you so nervous?"

Da Da Da...

As soon as the voice fell, he saw a group of Rakshasa cavalry, passing by not far away, wearing uniform black armor, Holding a long knife, he is arrogant.

Tie Bowen did not respond immediately, but waited for the team of cavalry to walk away, and then said: "You don't know yet, the ranch is a restricted area, and you can't enter without a token."

"So we must not be caught by these The cavalry found out."

That's it....

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Knowing the situation, Nalan Wushuang nodded suddenly, and then he thought of something, looked at Tie Bowen: "Isn't your father a celebrity beside the queen? Even you guys don't have the right to come in?"

Tie Bowen smiled bitterly: "Just come in to play, of course there is no problem, but the person in charge of the ranch is my father's nemesis, and these cavalry are his subordinates, so I don't want to be discovered, so as not to cause trouble."

Tie Bowen did not lie . , Although his father, Timur, was heavily used by the queen and had a very high reputation among the Rakshasa tribe, he was not a monopoly. There was a general named Itair, whose status was equal to that of Timur because of his outstanding military exploits.

It's just that Itel is feisty by nature and contradicts Timur's claims on many issues, so the relationship between the two has not been very good, and even confronted the Queen several times.

Ital controls the 100,000 cavalry of the Rakshasa clan, and this ranch is also under his control.

This is also the reason why Tie Bowen is careful.

Speaking of which, in order to avoid being caught by Itel, Tie Bowen seldom came to the ranch, but seeing that Nalan Wushuang was too boring, he decided to take a risk.

call!

At this time, upon hearing Tie Bowen's explanation, Nalan Wushuang nodded: "If this is the case, aren't we breaking the rules?"

"It's fine."

Tie Bowen patted his heart: "We just came in to have a look, and we were discovered. Even if you are in danger, you will be fine with me."

After speaking, Tie Bowen looked at the distant cavalry: "They are gone, let's go." The last word fell, He took Nalan Wushuang's hand and walked towards the depths of the pasture.

A few minutes later, the two reached a hillside, and Tie Bowen said excitedly: "Nine girls, this is this mysterious place, isn't it very interesting?"

Nalan Wushuang did not answer, but looked at the scene in front of him. Immediately stunned, shocked.

I saw that on the other side of the hillside, there was a strange forest.

The trees in the woods are all twisted and twisted, like snakes crawling, and in the center of the woods stands a black stone tablet more than ten meters high.

Not only that, the grass in this area is also a weird purple-red color.

The scene in front of him gave Nalan Wushuang an illusion, as if he had entered another unfamiliar world.

"This..."

After being stunned for more than ten seconds, Nalan Wushuang regained his senses and couldn't help but ask, "Where is this place?" Curved trees, purple-red grass.

It's so weird.

Hehe...

Tie Bowen smiled and said slowly: "I can't tell, it is said that when our Rakshasa tribe set up the clan here, this place existed. I saw it for the first time a few years ago. At that time, I was also very surprised."

After speaking, Tie Bowen looked around and determined that there were no black armored cavalry nearby, and continued: "As far as I know, the Queen sent someone to investigate carefully, but there was no clue at all. But This place must be unusual, so the Queen ordered it to be a restricted area.”

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5763

Hearing this, Nalan Wushuang nodded and showed a smile: “This place is really interesting, Tie Bowen, thank you for bringing me here.”

After speaking, Nalan Wushuang walked into the woods curiously.

Hearing the thanks, Tie Bowen was very happy, and then quickly followed.

Soon after reaching the black stone monument, Nalan Wushuang looked up and found that there was not a single word on the stone monument, only some strange carvings.

So mysterious.

Muttering in his heart, Nalan Wushuang couldn't restrain his curiosity, and stretched out his hand to touch the stone tablet.

“Be careful!”

But at this moment, Tie Bowen couldn't help but exclaimed: “Don't touch it...”

Nalan Wushuang was startled, quickly turned his head back, and then asked inexplicably, “Why can't you touch it?” ?”

Tie Bowen looked at the black stone tablet with a solemn expression: “A few years ago, when the Queen sent someone to investigate here, someone just like you, curiously touched the stone tablet, and was injured by electricity. The elder of the clan Said that this stone tablet is the magic weapon of the gods, used to suppress the ominous things below.”

“Also, I also heard some soldiers patrolling here say that every time the weather is bad, lightning gathers here, which is very dangerous. .”

Can this stele trigger thunder and lightning in the sky?

Hearing this, Nalan Wushuang became even more curious, and did not dare to touch it rashly, but circled the stone tablet.

Ok?

Soon, Nalan Wushuang discovered something.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

It can be seen that the trees around the black stele seem to be messy, but if you distinguish them carefully, they seem to be arranged in the order of the five elements and nine palaces. From this, it is inferred that this should be a formation, and the black stele is the eye of the formation.

Although Nalan Wushuang is stubborn and stubborn, but under the influence of the family environment since childhood, he has some understanding of Qimen formation. Although he lost his memory at this time, he has not completely forgotten the Qimen formation.

If this is really a formation, if the formation is turned on, will the secret here be unlocked?

Thinking to himself, Nalan Wushuang carefully searched around.

“Nine girls!”

Seeing her walking around, Tie Bowen was very curious: “What are you looking for?”

Nalan Wushuang didn't lift his head, while looking for clues, he replied: “This should be a formation, I'll find a way to turn it on...”

Formation?

Hearing this, Tie Bowen was stunned.

Huhuhu...

It was at this time that the sunny weather suddenly changed, the wind was blowing everywhere, and a dark cloud quickly condensed in the sky.

Seeing this situation, Tie Bowen's face changed, and he quickly urged: “No, the sky has changed, this place is very dangerous, let's go quickly.” The purpose of coming here is to let the nine girls relax and put their lives on this. worth it.

However, Nalan Wushuang had no intention of leaving at all. At this time, according to the inference of the Five Elements and Nine Palaces, he quickly locked a tree in the northwest, and immediately hit it with a palm without any hesitation.

Click!

With this palm, Nalan Wushuang burst out with all his strength, and he heard a crisp sound, and the sloth with a thick bowl broke off. Immediately afterwards, the ground beneath his feet suddenly vibrated violently.

Nalan Wushuang was full of joy and shouted at Tie Bowen: "Success, this is really a formation."

However, Tie Bowen couldn't smile, his handsome face was full of anxiety and inexplicable fear: "Nine Girl, hurry up, hurry up and get out of here, it's too dangerous here."

Saying that, Tie Bowen was about to rush over to Lanalan Wushuang to leave, but the ground under his feet was shaking so much that he couldn't stand still, where did he rush past?

At the same time, Tie Bowen also clearly saw that in the sky above his head, among the thick clouds, thunder and lightning flashed continuously.

Kachacha..kachacha.... The whole world was darkened with thunder and lightning, as if the end of the world.

Finally, a bolt of lightning pierced the sky and slashed straight down.

Done!

Tie Bowen's face turned pale when he saw the huge thunder and lightning that fell down, and his heart was filled with despair.

At the same time, Nalan Wushuang was also bloodless and regretful.

If I had known that opening the formation would attract thunder, I would not be so impulsive.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5764

Boom!

In the blink of an eye, the lightning struck the black stone tablet, and the huge electric current was completely absorbed by the stone tablet. Tie Bowen and Nalan Wushuang were not injured.

Seeing this situation, Tie Bowen and Nalan Wushuang looked at each other, and they were both grateful and happy.

Boom!

After the stone tablet completely absorbed the power of thunder and lightning, the surface flashed with dazzling light, and then, the ground underfoot trembled even more, like an earthquake.

Tie Bowen and Nalan Wushuang stood unsteadily and both fell to the ground.

Kachacha...

Then, in the billowing clouds high in the sky, another flash of lightning struck down, as if to tear the world into two halves.

Feeling such a terrifying power of thunder and lightning, Tie Bowen and Nalan Wushuang both lay there, not daring to move.

With such a vision of heaven and earth, everyone in the entire Rakshasa clan panicked and ran out to look up at the sky ravaged by thunder and lightning, all of them in shock.

The iron cavalry camp not far from the ranch.

In the main account, General Itel was lying there, closing his eyes and resting.

Itair, the greatest warrior of the Rakshasa tribe in the past ten years, is powerful and brave. Like Timur, he is the queen's right-hand man.

Suddenly, a loud vibration woke him up.

"Someone!" Itel opened his eyes and immediately shouted out of the account.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Soon, a black-armored cavalry walked in quickly and respectfully said, "General."

Itel frowned and said, "What happened outside?" Huh

The black armored cavalry took a deep breath and responded, "It seems to be a restricted area in the center of the ranch..."

Restricted area?

Hearing this, Itel frowned, then put on his armor without thinking about it: "Someone must have entered the forbidden area without permission, hurry up, everyone will follow me to check."

"Yes! General!"

After a few minutes, Itel led thousands of iron cavalry and quickly rushed towards the restricted area.

other side.

After a two-hour flight, Yue Feng finally arrived at Qintianjian.

Because of his status as an imperial teacher, no magic soldier dared to stop him. Soon, Yue Feng was invited to the discussion hall.

“Haha!”

After a while, the God King Haotian arrived, smiled at Yue Feng and said, “It’s really a shame to welcome the emperor.” To be honest, the God King Haotian didn’t want to be so polite at all, but he didn’t want to be so polite. The way, who said that the other party is the master of the Emperor of Heaven, the status is higher than himself.

“His Royal Highness, God King, you’re welcome.”

Yue Feng didn’t say a word of nonsense and said straight to the point: “There is something I need help from His Royal Highness.” After speaking, he explained the situation of Nalan Wushuang’s disappearance.

At the end of the story, Yue Feng said slowly: “The supervisor of the Tiantian supervising the rivers and lakes of Jiuzhou is well-informed. As long as His Highness is willing to help, I think the whereabouts of that girl will be found soon.”

Mad!

This Yue Feng really took himself seriously, so he came to the Tianjian so quickly to point fingers at me.

Hearing this, the God King Haotian was very upset, but he smiled on his face: “The emperor said, I naturally want to help. The emperor finally came to Qintianjian, why don’t you stay here for a few more days. “

When he said this, the God King Haotian had a sincere expression on his face, but his eyes were gloomy and gloomy.

I just discussed with His Royal Highness how to deal with Yue Feng, but I didn’t expect that Yue Feng would take the initiative to send it to the door so quickly. Such a good opportunity must not be missed.

God King Haotian thought about it, found a reason to keep Yue Feng, and then sent someone to notify Prince Aotian...

“No!”

However, Yue Feng didn't feel in the mood to stay in Qin Tianjian, and refused on the spot: "I still have something to do. Er, take a step first, if there is news about that girl, please send someone to Donghai City to inform His Royal Highness." The voice fell, Yue Feng turned and walked out of the hall.

At this moment, the God King Haotian wanted to attack from behind, but he held back.

"His Royal Highness!"

Just as Yue Feng left, a god general stepped forward and asked the God King Haotian for instructions, "Do we really want to help Yue Feng find someone?"

Huh!

Haotian God King took a deep breath and said coldly: "Look, of course, find that girl and execute the girl on the spot." He has already decided to assist Prince Aotian, how could he help Yue Feng?

"Understood."

On the other side, the Rakshasa pasture forbidden area.

Boom boom boom...

I don't know how much lightning fell, and the world finally returned to peace.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5765

Is it over?

At this moment, Tie Bowen and Nalan Wushuang raised their heads almost at the same time, thinking of the scene just now, they still had some lingering fears.

"Look!"

Soon, Nalan Wushuang discovered something and pointed to the black stone tablet behind him and exclaimed.

Tie Bowen looked at it quickly and was stunned.

I saw that the huge black stone tablet moved a few meters to the side under the previous vibration, and a deep hole appeared in the original position.

I can clearly feel that in the deep cave, there are continuous waves of powerful aura fluctuations.

Gudong!

Tie Bowen couldn't help swallowing his saliva. He quickly got up and walked over. He saw that the deep cave was filled with steps leading to the depths of the ground.

"It turns out that the mystery is under this stone tablet." At this time, Nalan Wushuang also came over, and seeing this scene, he couldn't help but sigh: "I didn't expect that the secret of your Rakshasa was found by me, let's Let's go down and have a look together." The last word fell, and Nalan Wushuang couldn't wait to walk down the steps.

Tie Bowen didn't have time to stop him, so he gritted his teeth and followed.

call!

Entering the deep cave, Tie Bowen and Nalan Wushuang couldn't help but take a deep breath, and they saw that the steps in front of them extended diagonally downward, and they didn't know how long.

Moreover, the further down you go, the stronger the diffused breath.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Not only that, but there was also a hot breath in the air. In this case, the two of them were sweating profusely after walking for a long time.

However, Nalan Xinran couldn't care about these anymore, and with curiosity, he kept walking down the steps.

I don't know how long they walked, but the two finally came to the end, and they saw that there was a huge underground molten pool in front of them, and there was scorching underground lava rolling in it.

Waves of heat came from the molten pool, almost suffocating.

In such a place, ordinary people come in, I am afraid that they will be roasted into mummy in an instant.

Phew...

For a while, Tie Bowen and Nalan Wushuang both subconsciously urged their inner strength to resist the scorching temperature. At the same time, the eyes of the two were also attracted by the top of the molten pool.

I saw that above the molten pool, a stone platform was suspended. On the stone platform was a simple and simple bow. The bow was shaped like an ancient moon, and the whole body was dark red and burning with flame.

Not only that, but bursts of powerful aura continued to emanate from the giant bow.

“Divine Soldier?”

At this time, seeing the giant bow, Nalan Wushuang’s eyes suddenly became hot.

Tie Bowen was also inexplicably excited.

In the next second, the two looked at each other, and tacitly urged their figures to fly up to the stone platform.

Chi Chi...

Just as soon as they landed on the stone platform, before the two of them touched the giant bow, the clothes on their bodies suddenly burst into flames.

“Go back.”

Nalan Wushuang’s pretty face changed, exclaimed, and then pulled Tie Bowen back to the steps, and quickly put out the fire on his body, but even so, the two were still burned.

For a time, Tie Bowen’s face was full of astonishment: “What a powerful flame.”

Nalan Wushuang was also shocked, then thought for a while, and said slowly: “It seems that this bow cannot be directly taken, if you want to get it, it must be There is a unique way to do it.”

As he spoke, Nalan Wushuang closely observed the stone platform and the surroundings of the molten pool, trying to find some clues.

Tie Bowen also looked around.

Swish swish...

But at this moment, I heard a burst of breath fluctuations from the steps behind me, and then I saw dozens of black armored cavalry, surrounded by a man and rushed down.

The man was dressed in black and gold armor, holding long hair, and his body was filled with a powerful breath, majestic.

It was the Great General Itel.

Oops!

Seeing this scene, Tie Bowen's complexion changed, and he instinctively stood in front of Nalan Wushuang, and he felt uneasy in his heart.

It was troublesome when it was discovered by Itel.

Swish!

At this moment, Yi Taier and the tens of meters of black armored cavalry behind him all focused on Tie Bowen.

In the next second, a sneer appeared on the corner of Yi Taier's mouth, and he shouted angrily: "Tie Bowen, you are so brave, you dare to trespass the forbidden area, and you also bring foreigners."

When he spoke, Yi Taier was cold . He glanced at Nalan Wushuang.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5766

Just one glance, Yitel was stunned for a while, and couldn't help but admire secretly.

What a beautiful woman.

Tie Bowen, this brat is not shallow, he has found such a beautiful girl from Kyushu.

call!

Feeling Yi Taier's gaze, Nalan Wushuang bit his lip, feeling very unhappy. At this moment, Tie Bowen reacted and explained to Itel nervously: "General, I just took my friends out to relax, I didn't think about breaking into the forbidden area."

, Tie Bowen would not admit to Itel at all, but Nalan Wushuang followed at this time, for her safety, she could only temporarily surrender.

Hehe... Hearing the explanation, Yi Taier sneered: "You brought outsiders into the restricted area, and I saw it with my own eyes. Do you still want to argue? Come on, take them down."

A black armored cavalry immediately surrounded them.

“You...”

Seeing this situation, Tie Bowen was furious, took a step forward and shouted at Itail: “My father Timur, you have no right to arrest me.” Give me a face, but I never thought that this person is so ruthless.

The girl you like is standing behind you. If you continue to be soft, where will you put your face in the future?

Thinking to himself, Tie Bowen directly pulled out the machete on his body.

“Good boy. Do you still want to resist?” Seeing this scene, Yi Taier’s mouth evoked a hint of abuse: “I tell you, even if your father comes, I will still catch it.” The last word fell, Yitai Tyre motioned to the surrounding black armored cavalry to start.

buzzing.

After receiving the order, more than a dozen black-armored cavalymen broke out and attacked Tie Bowen.

Seeing that the two sides were about to fight, Nalan Wushuang became a little anxious, his delicate face was full of worry, and he said to Tie Bowen, “What should I do?”

Although Tie Bowen is tall and burly, could he possibly be able to deal with so many black armored cavalry?

“Don’t be afraid.”

Tie Bowen looked confident and comforted: “With me here, they will never hurt you.” The voice fell, and he held the machete tightly and went up to meet him.

In the blink of an eye, Tie Bowen and more than a dozen black armored cavalry were fighting fiercely on the steps.

Bang Bang Bang...

In less than five minutes, I heard a sound of vibration, and a dozen black armored cavalymen were all knocked to the ground by Tie Bowen. You know, Tie Bowen is one of the younger generation of the Rakshasa clan. The leader of the group, half a year ago, he entered the wild and strange realm by himself, and killed several spirit beasts at the level of Martial Saint, with outstanding strength.

Therefore, it is more than enough to deal with a dozen black armored cavalry.

Of course, Tie Bowen didn't kill these black armored cavalry, but just used the back of the knife to knock them out.

Amazing.

Even so, Nalan Wushuang's heart trembled when he saw the scene in front of him, looking at Tie Bowen's eyes with a strange brilliance.

Are all the men of the Rakshasa so brave?

Swish!

Seeing that his subordinates were all knocked down, Itel's face instantly became ugly.

A few seconds later, Itel looked at Tie Bowen with a half-smiling smile: "Last time I saw you, your strength was just so-so, and it's only been a few months since I haven't seen you, but you've improved a lot."

"Today, the Japanese general is in a good mood, so I'll come here. Pointing to you."

hum!

When the last word fell, Itel flashed, and a thunderous momentum erupted, and he hit Tie Bowen with a palm.

At that time, Tie Bowen only felt an overwhelming force coming, and his face changed suddenly.

boom!

In the next second, the palms of the two sides collided, and I heard Tie Bowen groaning, and he was shocked and flew out, flying ten meters away, and finally fell beside Nalan Wushuang, his face turned pale.

Although Tie Bowen's strength is not weak, he is still far from Itail. It must be known that Itail is the first warrior of the entire Rakshasa clan, with a profound background.

"Tie Bowen."

Seeing this scene, Nalan Wushuang exclaimed, and quickly walked over to support Tie Bowen: "How are you?"

"I can clearly feel that the palm of Yi Taier just now almost broke his heart. At this time, the blood in his body was churning, and he almost fainted.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5767

But in front of the girl you like, you must be strong no matter what.

Ha ha!

Seeing this scene, Itel couldn't help but mocked Tie Bowen: "Boy, don't pretend to be in front of other girls, but if you can resist me, you're pretty good.

" , the figure erupted again.

Seeing this situation, Tie Bowen was anxious and angry, the breath in his body had not yet stabilized, and he was simply unable to fight.

Huh...

This is, Nalan Wushuang breathed a sigh of relief. Without any hesitation, he pulled out his long sword and blocked it directly in front of Tie Bowen. He said softly, "With me here, you will never want to hurt him.

" ?" Itel stopped, with a playful expression on his face: "Little girl, do you want to fight with me too? I'm afraid I'm not qualified enough." The tone was flat, but arrogant.

"It's not up to you to decide whether you are qualified or not." Nalan Wushuang bit his lip and said coldly, and then he burst into inner strength, and he heard a low cry from the long sword in his hand, and quickly stabbed towards Itair.

hum!

This sword contains the ten successes of Nalan Wushuang, and the air suddenly twists and tears as soon as he sees the sword's edge, and the power is amazing.

However, Itel smiled contemptuously and stood there, motionless as a mountain.

"This sword stabbed beautifully, but unfortunately it's not powerful enough." Said lightly, Yi Taier's eyes became cold, and his figure flashed and quickly avoided the sword.

In the next second, before Nalan Wushuang stabbed out the second sword, Itair had already rushed forward, and struck Nalan Wushuang on the backs of both hands with lightning-like palms.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Dang...

Itair's speed was too fast, and Nalan Wushuang couldn't react at all. At that time, he only felt that his wrist was numb, and the long sword fell directly to the ground.

At this moment, Nalan Wushuang's delicate face turned pale all of a sudden, and he stared at Itair blankly, his mind buzzing and shocked.

Is this the strength of the first warrior of the Rakshasa clan? too strong.

And just when Nalan Wushuang was stunned, Itel sneered, raised his hand and tapped on her a few times, sealing a few acupoints.

In an instant, Nalan Wushuang's delicate body trembled, unable to move.

"Nine girls!"

Seeing this scene, Tie Bowen was shocked and angry. At that time, he yelled, biting and rushing up to fight Itail, but before he could rush to the front, he was knocked back by Itaire's palm.

"Do you still want to be presumptuous in front of me?" Itel had a cold and arrogant face. After saying this, he quickly raised his hand and sealed Tie Bowen's acupuncture point.

Tie Bowen stiffened, unable to move.

However, the acupuncture point was tapped, but Tie Bowen did not lose his momentum at all, his eyes were blood red, and he roared: "Hurry up and let me go, or my father won't spare you."

Today Ben was thinking about going out with the nine girls to relax, but he didn't expect , fell into Yi Taier's hands together, and he was fine, but if the ninth girl fell into the opponent's hands, it would definitely not end well, so it must be stopped.

Feeling Tie Bowen's anger, Itair smiled contemptuously: "Looking boy, do you think I'll be scared if you move your father Timur out?"

Saying that, Itail walked in slowly and leaned over to Tie Bowen. In front of him, he said word by word, "During this time, I was looking for your father's clue. I didn't expect you to come to the door."

"Don't worry, I won't do anything to you, but I will take you to the main hall and let the queen deal with you in front of all the leaders. At that time, not only will your father not be able to report you, but he himself will not be able to forgive you. Blame, hahaha..."
After the last word fell, Itel laughed proudly.

“Despicable!”

Tie Bowen was so frightened that he couldn't help cursing, and at the same time felt a little regretful in his heart.

It's over, it's time to implicate my father.

Itel laughed a few times, and let the black armored cavalry next to him look at Tie Bowen, then looked around and looked at the environment in front of him.

Swish!

In the next second, Itel's eyes flashed and he locked the giant bow on the stone platform. At that time, he couldn't be excited: “It turns out that there is a peerless magic weapon hidden under this forbidden area. Haha, it is really God who helped me.”

Excited, Itel directed at the two black-armored cavalymen beside him, and ordered: “Quick, bring the giant bow.”

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5768

“Yes, General!”

After receiving the order, the two black armored cavalry responded and rushed to the stone platform.

Seeing this scene, Nalan Wushuang wanted to remind him of the danger, but he held back when he thought that Itel was not a good person.

Soon, the two black-armored cavalymen arrived on the stone platform and felt the mighty power from the giant bow.

Such a powerful force is indeed a peerless weapon.

Then, the two black armored cavalry reached out and grabbed it at the same time, ready to lift the giant bow down together.

hum!

However, as soon as the two touched the giant bow, they saw a flash of fire, and a flame spread over the two in an instant. At that time, the two could not react at all.

In a blink of an eye, the flames spread all over the body, and the flames burned.

“Ah...”

“General... Help... Help...” In the burning fire, the two black armored cavalry let out a miserable howl, asking IteI for help, and at the same time trying to rush down the stone platform, However, before taking two steps, he was completely burned into fly ash and dissipated in the air.

hiss!

Seeing this scene, whether it was IteI and the other cavalry around him, or Tie Bowen and Nalan Wushuang, they couldn't help but gasp.

What a powerful flame.

Especially Tie Bowen and Nalan Wushuang looked at each other at this time, and they were secretly grateful in each other's eyes.

Fortunately, I didn't forcefully take the giant bow just now, otherwise, I'm afraid it would have been burned to ashes.

Afterwards, the two of them reacted and turned their eyes to IteI, wanting to see what he would do next.

“It's interesting.”

At this time, IteI slowed down and stared at the giant bow on the stone platform, his eyes were full of heat: “As expected of a magic weapon, ordinary people are not worthy of touching it, in this case, then the general Just come in person.” The voice fell, and iteI's whole body exploded with strength, and in an instant, there was an icy aura around him.

At this time, it was his unique skill 'Nine Serenity Art' that Yi Taier displayed.

Jiuyou Gong is one of the unique skills of the Rakshasa clan. Because of the extreme yin and cold, very few people have practiced it over the years. However, Yi Taier has a special physique. Three years ago, he was given the Jiuyou Gong by the queen because of his military career. The mind method has now been practiced to the highest level.

Because this exercise is from yin to cold, it can just resist the fire power of the giant bow.

Whoosh!

In the blink of an eye, Itel was on the stone platform, his right hand stretched out and grasped the giant bow tightly.

The moment he grabbed the giant bow, a blazing fire instantly burned around Itail. At that time, Itail immediately urged Jiuyou Gong to resist. In an instant, two forces collided on the stone platform, causing violent vibrations.

At the same time, a violent aura also raged in this underground space.

Faced with this situation, the black armored knights who were guarding the steps quickly took two Tie Bowen and quickly retreated, for fear of being affected, they couldn't hide the horror and shock on their faces.

Tie Bowen looked at Itail closely, and couldn't help but sigh: "Ital is really the first warrior, and he can resist the power of this fire."

However, Nalan Wushuang next to him focused his attention on the giant bow.

She clearly saw that when Itair resisted the power of the fire, nine two-dots appeared on the bow arm of the giant bow, disappearing and appearing.

What are these spots of light?

For a time, Nalan Wushuang was inexplicably curious.

Rumbling...

As the collision of the two forces intensified, the entire underground space also shook violently. In the molten pool under the stone platform, the molten slurry rolled violently, as if it was about to erupt at any time...

Nalan at this time Wushuang and Tie Bowen didn't know yet. Ital tried to control the giant bow, which not only caused the underground space to vibrate, but also had a vision outside.

It was noon at this time outside, the scorching sun was in the sky, and suddenly the scorching sun turned blood red, and for a time, the whole world was shrouded in blood red sunlight.

This...

Whether it is the people of the Rakshasa clan, the people from all over the Kyushu, and the major sects, all came out one after another, looking at the vision of heaven and earth in front of them, and they were terrified.

The bloody day is in the air, is this... the end of the world?

At this moment, Donghai City.

After Yue Feng left Qin Tianjian, he immediately returned to the seaside villa.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5769

As soon as I arrived at the villa, I saw that far out of the sky, in the direction of the Rakshasa tribe, dark clouds were rolling, and there was lightning and thunder.

At that time, Yue Feng didn't care, thinking it was the weather, so he went into the study to rest.

"Look, Bloody Sun!"

"My God, what's the situation?"

Just before taking a break, he heard a commotion outside, Yue Feng rubbed his brows and sat up, just about to call someone in to ask.

It was at this time that Liu Ruxue walked in, her delicate face full of solemnity: "Yue Feng, come out and see, the sun in the sky has turned blood red..."

What?

Hearing this, Yue Feng was stunned for a moment and quickly walked out.

When he got outside, Yue Feng was stunned when he saw the scene in front of him.

I saw that a bloody sun was hanging in the sky, and it was almost summer at this time, because it was noon again, it should be very hot, but the blood-red sunlight was shining on the body, but there was no temperature at all.

Holy crap, what's the situation?

For a time, Yue Feng stared blankly. To be honest, it was the first time that he had encountered such a situation for so many years.

Many Tianmen disciples around, all raised their heads and watched, each with curiosity and inexplicable fear on their faces.

Soon, Su Qingyan and Wen Chou Chou also came out.

“This...”

Seeing the scene in front of her, Su Qingyan’s tender body trembled, as if thinking of something, she murmured, “How is this possible?” When she spoke, Jumei’s face was full of astonishment.

Seeing her appearance, she clearly knew something, and Yue Feng quickly asked, “Qingyan, have you seen this situation?” Speaking of which, Su Qingyan was the suzerain of Wenzong, a generation of talented women in all corners of the world. It is not surprising that he is well-informed and knows the situation in front of him.

call!

Hearing the question, Su Qingyan stared at the bloody sun in the air, and said slowly: “I haven’t seen it before, but I read about this scene in an ancient book before I became the Sect Master of Wenzong. description.”

Recorded in ancient books?

Yue Feng was stunned for a while, but did not interrupt, and quietly waited for Su Qingyan to continue.

At the same time, everyone around Wen Chou Chou also gathered around and listened carefully one by one.

Su Qingyan looked at the bloody sun, her eyes flickering with complexity, and continued: “Everyone should have heard of the things recorded in that ancient book. It was the matter of Emperor Houyi shooting the sun.”

“Millions of years ago, there were ten thousand years in the sky. The sun burns the earth, making the people difficult to live. At that time, the emperor Hou Yi used the divine bow to shoot nine in a row, and at the end one was left, illuminating all things.

” When it was the first sun, the last sun turned blood red, at that time the whole world, as it is now, was shrouded in blood red.”

After saying this, Su Qingyan looked at the blood sun, thoughtfully.

What ancient book, there is such a record.

Hearing this, Yue Feng couldn’t help muttering secretly.

At this time, Su Qingyan thought of something, and continued: "Could it be that... Emperor Houyi is planning to shoot down the last sun as well?"

"Impossible!"

As soon as the words fell, Yue Feng shook his head: "Emperor Hou Yi is long gone, how could he still shoot the sun?"

Su Qingyan's face was stunned, and her jade hand held her chin. While thinking, she said, "There must be a reason for something abnormal. Now that the bloody sun is in the sky, it must be inseparable from Emperor Houyi."

Yue Feng nodded subconsciously in agreement: "It seems that the bloody sun caused by the Rakshasa clan is different, so I will check it out. Everyone should not leave Donghai City for the time being, and also, let the following disciples appease the citizens so as not to cause panic."

Well!

Su Qingyan and Wen Chou Chou all nodded.

A few minutes later, Yue Feng left the villa and rushed towards the Rakshasa clan.

on the other side.

The power that erupted in the underground space is getting stronger and stronger. Whether it is Tie Bowen and Nalan Wushuang, or the black armored cavalry behind, they are all suppressed and uncomfortable, and they can hardly breathe.

Seeing that on the stone platform, Itel still resisted the power of fire that erupted from the giant bow.

However, Nalan Wushuang clearly saw that the nine spots of light on the back of the bow, the flickering rays of light, were getting stronger and stronger.

“Wow...”

Just when Nalan Wushuang was looking at his fascination, suddenly under the stone platform, in the rolling lava, there was a cry, and then, a whole body filled the air. A giant bird with flames roared out.

I saw that this giant bird spread its wings, was more than ten meters long, had golden feathers, was burning with fire, and had three sharp claws underneath.

hiss!

Seeing this scene, the audience was shocked, all eyes turned to the three-legged golden giant bird, and they couldn't help gasping for air.

“What is this?”

“How come there are giant birds under the lava?”

“Could it be the spirit beast that guards the divine soldiers?” They were all terrified and their hearts beat faster.

“Oh my God!”

At this time, Tie Bowen also opened his mouth wide, shocked: "What kind of spirit beast is this? Such a powerful force."

Nalan Wushuang was also trembling, and his heart was completely shocked.

Then, she suddenly thought of something and couldn't help exclaiming: "This... this seems to be a three-legged golden crow, God, I actually saw a three-legged golden crow."

When she said this, Nalan Wushuang's voice trembled, no Know whether to be excited or nervous.

Three-legged Golden Crow?

Hearing this, Tie Bowen was stunned, his face full of doubts: "What is the Three-legged Golden Crow?"

Nalan Wushuang glanced at him, took a deep breath, An patiently shook, and slowly said: "The three-legged golden crow is the divine bird that guards the sun. When I was a child, I heard a legend that the Great Emperor Hou Yi shot down nine After the sun, the nine divine birds that were guarded also disappeared... It turns out that they are here."

"The giant bird in front of me, like the legendary three-legged golden crow, must not be wrong."

When he said this, Nalan Wushuang looked at the nine light spots on the back of the bow from a distance, and suddenly felt in his heart. It seems that these lights light up, which proves that the three-legged golden crow hidden in the molten lava is about to wake up.

The nine light spots correspond to the nine suns that were shot down that year, and it can be inferred that there are not only one, but nine, three-legged Golden Crows hidden under the lava.

Hearing this, Tie Bowen frowned.

He is a member of the Rakshasa tribe, and this is the first time he has heard of these Kyushu legends, but he is a little excited: "Nine girls, have you recovered your memory?"

Nalan Wushuang Xiumei frowned, then shook her head: "I still I can't remember who I am, but I don't know why, but seeing these three-legged Golden Crows sounds like a legend I've heard before."

Nalan Wushuang guessed right, the golden giant bird in front of him was the Three-legged Golden Crow.

After the emperor Hou Yi shot down the nine suns, he sealed the divine bow in the place where the sun was shot. Because the divine bow absorbed the essence of the sun, the nine three-legged golden crows stayed here and guarded the gods all the time. bow.

At this time, they felt that someone moved the divine bow, and these three-legged golden crows woke up.

hum!

As the two were talking, they saw that the three-legged Golden Crow had already rushed to the stone platform, and the three sharp claws waved and slapped Itel fiercely.

Feeling the strength of the Three-legged Golden Crow, Itel didn't dare to neglect at that time, but at that time, he pushed his energy and greeted him with a palm.

clang!

In the next second, the palm force and the sharp claws collided, and a huge shock erupted, and Yitai groaned and was directly shaken back to the edge of the stone platform. The giant bow also flew out and fell on the stone steps.

"Mad!" After stabilizing his figure, Itair looked at the three-legged golden crow closely, and couldn't help but scolded: "Where did the strange bird come from?" Like Tie Bowen, Itel has a lot to do with the legend of Kyushu. I know very little, and naturally I don't know the Three-legged Golden Crow.

While cursing, Itel couldn't hide the fear in his eyes.

I just collided with the three-legged Jinwuli claws, as if I had hit a volcano, and I almost couldn't hold it.

"Come here to help, kill this strange bird first." Itel shouted at the black armored cavalry on the stone steps.

Whoosh ...

Hearing the order, the black armored cavalry present looked at each other, panicked, but the military order could not be disobeyed, and they rushed forward one by one.

"Wow!"

Looking at the black-armored cavalry rushing up, the three-legged Golden Crow uttered a cry, and then, his wings vibrated, and a fire erupted towards the black-armored cavalry.
