“Ah...”

Many black-armored cavalry had no time to dodge at all, and were instantly enveloped in flames and screamed. Almost in the blink of an eye, half of the black-armored cavalry turned into flames. Flying ashes, no bones left.

The rest of the black armored cavalry were all shocked and quickly retreated.

Mad!

Seeing this situation, Itel was furious. At this moment, the three-legged Golden Crow locked him tightly, and while the wings were flapping, another fire erupted.

Feeling the power of the fire, Itel didn't have time to think about it, and quickly used Jiuyou Gong to deploy a protective film around his body.

boom!

In the blink of an eye, the powerful flame slammed into the protective film, and he saw Itail's figure trembling, the protective film was instantly incinerated, and his whole body was directly shaken back by the air.

Although Yi Taier had Jiuyougong body protection and did not receive the flames burns, but when he landed on the stone platform, his face was pale, and his eyes flashed with deep fear.

What kind of beast is this strange bird? To have such terrifying power.

This...

Seeing the scene in front of them, the black armored cavalymen who retreated into the distance were all incomparably horrified at this time.

“The strength of this strange bird is really too strong.”

“Yeah, fighting like this is a waste of death...”

“General, if it doesn't work, let's withdraw first...” During the discussion, some people couldn't help it. He shouted at Itel: “The strength of this strange bird is too terrifying...”

In the blink of an eye, half of the people were lost. If you continue, I am afraid that the entire army will be destroyed.

“shut up!”

Hearing that someone advocated evacuation, Itel’s face was extremely gloomy, and he shouted angrily: “We Rakshasa people never run away in fear of fighting. Whoever told me to hear such words, let’s kill them.”

Om!

When the last word fell, Itel’s Nine Nether Art burst out completely, and he saw a flash of blue light, and then an illusory blue armor condensed on Itel’s body, which was tightly wrapped around him.

Huhuhu...

The fire that erupted from the three-legged Golden Crow was completely blocked by this blue armor.

Seeing this situation, the black-armored cavalry, who were still extremely fearful at first, were very excited at this time.

“As expected of the great general, Jiuyou Gong has been trained to the highest level, and he is not even afraid of these fires...”

Listening to the compliments from his subordinates, Yi Taier frowned and said angrily: “Let’s be less verbose, hurry up and cooperate with this general, and kill this strange bird.”

When he spoke, Itel couldn’t tell the irritability.

I thought I could easily get the giant bow, but I didn’t expect that the plan was disrupted by a strange bird.

“Yes, General!”

Upon receiving the order, the black armored cavalry present responded in unison, then rushed up, cooperated with Itair, and fought against the three-legged Golden Crow.

This....

Seeing this scene, Tie Bowen couldn’t hide his worries: “Damn, this Yi Taier pushed Jiuyou Gong with all his strength and actually blocked the fire...”

If the three-legged Golden Crow was killed, Itel had obtained the giant bow, and it was time to use himself against his father.

However, Nalan Wushuang, who was next to him, was surprisingly calm, and softly persuaded: "Don't panic, even if he kills this three-legged golden crow, he will not get the divine bow."

His tone was flat, but there was a bit of a hint of disapproval. Be sure.

"Why?"

Tie Bowen was stunned, and looked at Nalan Wushuang in surprise: "Nine girls, why are you so sure?"

Huh!

Nalan Wushuang breathed a sigh of relief, raised his chin and pointed to the giant bow on the table, and said slowly: "Have you seen nine bright spots flashing on the back of the bow?"

Hearing this, Tie Bowen quickly looked over. , Sure enough, as Nalan Wushuang said, the nine bright spots on the back of the bow are just disappearing and appearing, which is very strange.

Without waiting for him to ask, Nalan Wushuang continued: "If I guess correctly, this divine bow is the bow that Emperor Hou Yi shot at the sun. I guess that the nine bright spots on the back of the bow correspond to The nine suns shot down that year."

"And each sun has a three-legged golden crow guarding it, so if you count the one in front of you, there should be eight more under the lava."

What?

Hearing Nalan Wushuang finish speaking, Tie Bowen's heart was shocked, and he stared blankly at the three-legged Golden Crow in the air, and his heart was shocked.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5772

It's just a three-legged Golden Crow, so powerful.

And under the lava, there are actually eight.

If these nine three-legged Golden Crows gathered together, wouldn't the power that erupted could destroy the sky and destroy the earth?

Pfft...

Seeing his stunned look, Nalan Wushuang couldn't help laughing: "Look at how stupid you are, even if the following eight Golden Crows come out, the first one to deal with is this Yi Taier, you What are you afraid of?"

Hearing this, Tie Bowen sneered.

"Idiot." Nalan Wushuang couldn't help but glance at him, then said: "While they deal with the three-legged Golden Crow, let's hurry up and open the acupoints."

Hmm!

Tie Bowen nodded, and together with Nalan Wushuang, silently exercised the power and tried to open the acupoints.

Boom boom boom...

At this time, near the stone platform, Yi Taier, with the cooperation of many black armored cavalry, fought endlessly with the three-legged Golden Crow, constantly bursting with powerful aura vibrations.

"Wow..."

Finally, the three-legged Golden Crow seemed to be unable to support it, and let out a cry, flapped its wings and landed on a raised platform on the cliff next to it, its eyes twitched, looking down at Itel and the others, thinking what.

From Itel's point of view, the giant bird in front of him was afraid, and he sneered: "Beast with flat hair, you finally know you are afraid? Those who are sensible, get out of the way." The voice fell, and the surrounding black armored cavalry were all excited. endlessly.

"The general is still very powerful, and finally he was afraid of this giant bird."

"Yeah..."

At this time, Yi Taier stopped talking nonsense, and was ready to rush to the stone platform to get the divine bow.

It's broken...

Seeing the situation in front of him, Tie Bowen and Nalan Wushuang became anxious.

I thought that this three-legged golden crow could drag everyone in Yitai, but when the other eight appeared, I didn't expect that the other eight golden crows had not come out, so this one would temporarily give up the battle...

If the magical power falls on Yitai On Er, it would be troublesome.

Buzz buzzing...

Just when the two were extremely anxious, there was a sudden wave of power fluctuations in the direction of the stone steps above, and then, hundreds of figures rushed down quickly.

The people who came were all cultivators, all in black robes, each with a long knife, and everyone's strength was not low, and they were all above the Martial Saint.

Headed by a man in his thirties, his eyes are sharp, like an eagle flying high in the sky in search of prey, and his body is filled with a powerful aura.

Swish!

Seeing the men in black who suddenly appeared, Itel's face instantly turned gloomy.

At the same time, the black-armored cavalymen present also held their long knives tightly and looked at these uninvited guests.

"Who are you?"

Finally, Yi Taier reacted and shouted angrily at these men in black: "You are not too timid, you dare to break into the forbidden area of my Rakshasa clan." His stomach was full of fire, and when he saw someone breaking in at this time, he was even more unable to calm down.

Hehe...

Feeling Yi Taier's anger, the middle-aged man in the lead immediately smiled: "General, don't be impatient, I am Tang Jian from the 'Heavenly Dao Society'. I saw the thunderclouds rolling in here just now, a natural vision. , I specially brought people over to have a look."

When he was talking, Tang Jian looked around at the environment in front of him, saw the giant bow on the stone platform, and the three-legged golden crow on the cliff in the distance, and his heart was shocked.

Giant bow? And the three-legged monster?

No wonder there will be a vision of heaven and earth, it turns out that there are treasures here.

Tiandao Society?

Hearing the other party's self-reporting of his home, IteI frowned even deeper.

As the general of the Rakshasa clan, he shoulders the responsibility of defending the safety of the entire clan. IteI has long heard of the Tiandaohui. The Tiandaohui is a business alliance and has always been active in the business district of the Rakshasa tribe. There are many trade shops in his hands. .

In Itaire's mind, this is a business organization, but at this time, he never thought that the other party would dare to break into the forbidden area and bring so many people with him.

At this time, IteI didn't know that the shops opened by the Tiandao Alliance were all to hide people's eyes and ears. In fact, the predecessor of the Tiandao Alliance was the Wutian organization that once caused a sensation in Kyushu.

Back then, Zhang Jiao secretly founded the Wutian Organization to intervene in the business world. At that time, his sphere of influence was almost all over the entire Kyushu. Later, Zhang Jiao realized his enlightenment and withdrew from the rivers and lakes, and the Wutian Organization went into decline.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5773

It's just that the hundred-footed worm is dead and not stiff.

Just when the Wutian Organization was about to be disbanded, Tang Jian, who was only the head of the branch at the time, stood up. With his strong strength and iron-blooded skills, he selected the elites of the Wutian Organization, re-established the Tiandao Alliance, and put the general manager. The altar is located at the border between the Rakshasa and Kyushu.

In the next few years, the Heavenly Dao Society developed rapidly, and it was implicitly called the first force in the borderlands of Kyushu.

And the strength of the leader Tang Jian is even more unfathomable. When he was still the head of the Wutian Organization, Tang Jian relied on the power in his hand and collected many martial arts secrets from various sects in Kyushu.

Because of his extraordinary talent, Tang Jian spent less than five years to integrate those martial arts, and his strength had reached the late stage of the Tribulation Realm.

However, Tang Jian has always been very low-key, and at the same time strictly restrained his subordinates, so until today, the true background of the Tiandao Society has not been known.

Just now, in the forbidden area of the Rakshasa pasture, there was a sudden burst of thunder, which also triggered the blood sun vision. When Tang Jian learned about the situation, he realized that there was a treasure in the world, and immediately rushed to check with hundreds of elite subordinates.

call!

At this time, Yi Taier took a deep breath, looked extremely arrogant, and said coldly to Tang Jian: "Since it is a member of the Tiandao Society, do your business well and leave quickly, otherwise, don't blame General Ben for being rude."

The giant bow on the stone platform is already readily available, and it must not be cheap to others.

Hehe...

Hearing this, Tang Jian laughed, not panic at all: "General's words are wrong."

As he spoke, Tang Jian looked closely at the giant bow on the stone platform. After reading a lot of books and having a lot of knowledge, after careful identification, he immediately confirmed the origin of the giant bow, and the ecstasy on his face could not be concealed at that time.

Haha... The three-legged strange bird next to it must be the three-legged Golden Crow. And this giant bow should be the bow that Hou Yi the Great used to shoot the sun.

With this divine bow, who will compete with each other in the world?

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Seeing that Tang Jian did not intend to leave, Itel was angry and said coldly: "What do you mean? Are you going to oppose our Rakshasa?"

Tang Jian shook his head and said solemnly: "The general has something to do with it. I don't know, this bow is called the Sunset Bow. When I went to Beiyong Continent ten years ago, I was fortunate enough to read a classic book of the Beiyong Palace, which recorded the history of Houyi the Great's shooting of the sun, and, on the shooting of the sun. The divine bow is also described in detail."

Sunset bow? Emperor Hou Yi shot the sun?

Hearing this, Itel moved slightly, and his eyes flashed with a strange brilliance.

Although he did not know the allusions of Houyi the Great shooting the sun, he had heard a lot about Houyi the Great. He was a famous hero in Kyushu, and the bow he used must not be of ordinary quality.

call!

Seeing the situation in front of them, Tie Bowen and Nalan Wushuang, who were still unraveling the cave on the stone steps, glanced at each other and were secretly amazed.

In the next second, Nalan Wushuang couldn't help but whisper: "I didn't expect this Tang Jian to be so knowledgeable and know that this bow is called the Sunset Bow."

After speaking, he said lightly: "When two tigers fight, one will be injured. , this Tang inspector came at a good time, and the two of them will definitely fight in the future."

Hmm!

Tie Bowen nodded, it was the last moment, after a few seconds, he breathed a long sigh of relief, and the acupoints were completely opened.

After Chong Kai went to school, Tie Bowen quietly unlocked the acupoints for Nalan Wushuang.

After regaining their freedom, the two of them had a tacit understanding and did not leave, but quietly hid in the corner, watching the development of the situation in front of them.

At this time, knowing the origin of the divine bow, Itel was even more convinced that he wanted to take the divine bow as his own, so he nodded at Tang Jian and said, "That's it, thank you for telling me, you can go now. It's gone."

"General!"

Tang Jian instead of walking, took two steps forward, and said with a smile: "It seems that you still don't understand, since this sunset bow is the relic of Emperor Hou Yi, it belongs to Kyushu. As a native of Kyushu, I am naturally obliged to take it away."

After speaking, Tang Jian's eyes fell on the sunset bow, unable to hide the scorching heat.

Swish!

Hearing this, Itel's face sank and he was furious.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5774

At the same time, the surrounding black armored cavalry also shouted angrily.

“Presumptuous, dare to covet the treasures in our forbidden area?”

“I’m really impatient.” The angry shouts kept coming, Tang Jian didn’t panic at all, and stood there with a calm expression.

Finally, Yi Taier reacted and looked at Tang Jian and said coldly: “Tang Jian, right, have you ever thought about the consequences of saying these words?”

Tang Jian said with a half-smile: “General, it is undeniable that here It’s your Rakshasa’s place, but don’t forget, who gave your Rakshasa a place to recuperate? It’s our Kyushu.” After speaking

, Tang Jian pointed to the sunset bow: “Today, I have to take it Go back to this bow.”

“Okay, okay...”

At this moment, Yi Taier’s face changed, staring at Tang Jian, and sneered: “Since you insist on courting death, then the general will fulfill you.”

Om!

The last word fell, and a powerful aura erupted from Itail’s body. The figure was as fast as lightning, rushing like a cannonball, and slapped Tang Jian with a palm.

“General, can you do it if you can’t say it?”

Tang Jian smiled slightly when he felt the power of Itail’s eruption.

boom!

In the next second, a roar erupted, and a terrifying aura swept through the audience.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Ital and Tang Jian flickered, then took a few steps back at the same time.

Obviously, when the two of them collided with each other just now, neither of them stood a chance.

Mad!

After stabilizing his figure, IteI's face changed, and he was secretly surprised. He was the first warrior of the Rakshasa clan. The palm of his hand just now exploded with ten layers of skill, and he didn't defeat the opponent?

This Tang Jian, who seems to be gentle, like a weak scholar, is actually so strong?

Frightened, IteI roared loudly: "All officers and soldiers obey the order, and kill those who break into the forbidden area. No one will be spared." In the roar, IteI's eyes were full of killing intent, and his anger swelled up.

The forbidden land of the ranch is related to the dignity of the entire Rakshasa clan. No matter the cost, they must be wiped out.

"Kill!"

After receiving the order, the black armored cavalry present burst into a howl, waving the machete in their hands, and rushed into the Tiandao Society crowd.

"Brothers!" Looking at the black-armored cavalry rushing up, Tang Jian's eyes became gloomy: "Kill me, no matter what today, I will take back the Sunset Bow." The voice fell, and hundreds of Tiandao members quickly counterattacked. Fight with black armored cavalry.

For a time, the sound of weapons colliding and screaming continued to sound.

Huh...

Seeing this scene, Tie Bowen and Nalan Wushuang, who were hiding in the corner, were extremely excited and excited.

"Nine girls!" Tie Bowen couldn't help whispering: "You are so smart, you are right, they are really fighting. What should we do next?"

Nalan Wushuang's eyes flickered, looking at Shitai The sunset bow on the top, softly said: "Wait for a chance..."

Yes, Nalan Wushuang also wanted to get the sunset bow.

But she knew very well that although the two sides in front of her were fighting, it was not a good time to start. You must know that the other three-legged golden crows hidden in the molten lava below had not appeared.

The battle is getting fiercer.

Whoosh!

At this time, Tang Jian shook the two black armored cavalry in front of him with a palm, and then the figure erupted and rushed directly to the sunset bow on the stone platform.

“Want to get the divine bow?”

Just before he rushed to the stone platform, IteI yelled and stopped Tang Jian in mid-air, and then the two fought fiercely in mid-air.

While fighting against IteI, Tang Jian said confidently: “The general is really obsessed, I am determined to win this sunset bow, you can’t hurt me, why are you so persistent?”

“Stop talking nonsense.” IteI is cold. Said : “Today, none of you want to leave.”

Woah...

As he was talking, the three-legged Golden Crow, who had been on the platform not far away, suddenly uttered a cry, and rushed straight towards it like a sharp sword, its three sharp claws were ruthless. Swing hard.

At that time, Tang Jian and Itair didn’t have time to dodge when they heard a tearing sound. Both of them were caught with several wounds. The wounds were deep with bones, and blood spurted out.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5775

Mad!

Ital couldn’t help but gasped, and then cursed: “This flat-haired beast was just recovering his strength.”

Tang Jian also had a solemn expression on his face, staring at the three-legged Golden Crow hovering above his head, unable to bear it. He said to himself, “As expected of the guardian bird of the sun, this power is comparable to that of a divine beast.” As he spoke, Tang Jian quickly tapped the acupoints on his body to stop the bleeding.

Whoosh!

At this moment, the three-legged Golden Crow erupted again, flapping its wings, setting off a raging fire.

Faced with this situation, Tang Jian and Itair quickly dodged backwards, and then joined forces to deal with the three-legged Golden Crow in a tacit understanding. They knew very well in their hearts that if they continued to fight, they would eventually die under the sharp claws of the three-legged golden crow.

One of the two was the first warrior of the Rakshasa clan, and the other was the leader of the Heavenly Dao League. Their strength was at the top of the entire Kyushu. At this time, they joined forces and immediately suppressed the three-legged Golden Crow.

Buzzing....

Seeing the three-legged Golden Crow, Tang Jian and Itair were about to be subdued by the joint efforts. However, at this moment, a wave of terrifying power fluctuations suddenly came from the molten slurry below.

Feeling this fluctuation, everyone on both sides trembled in their hearts.

Nalan Wushuang also held her breath, she knew that the remaining eight Golden Crows were about to show up.

call! call! Huh....

At this moment, another powerful aura wave came out from the molten slurry, and then, one after another, huge golden figures emerged from the ashes.

One, two... A full eight three-legged golden crows appeared in front of everyone.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Eight Golden Crows appeared in unison, the temperature of the entire underground space suddenly increased, and the air distorted violently, as if they were about to burn.

OMG!

Seeing this scene, whether it was the black armored cavalry or the members of the Tiandao Society, all of them were dumbfounded and their minds went blank.

“This...why are there so many?”

“One was so difficult to deal with just now, and now there are eight more...it's over...”
During the discussion, everyone's tone was trembling, and even many people His legs were so weak that he could hardly stand still.

“Wow!”

Just when everyone was stunned, the three-legged Golden Crow chirped, and then gathered with the other eight. Immediately after, the nine Golden Crows opened their mouths together and spewed out blazing flames.

The nine golden crows burst into flames together, how terrifying! In an instant, the entire underground space was spread by a sea of fire.

“Ah...”

For a while, neither the black-armored cavalry nor the members of the Tiandao Society had time to react, and they were all overwhelmed by the fire, and a few screams were heard, and they were all burned to ashes.

Seeing the flames coming in, Tang Jian and Itaire were both shocked. They didn't have time to think about it, so they quickly deployed a protective film in front of them.

Boom...

In the blink of an eye, the flames hit the protective film, and I heard both of them groaning.

In the end, the two slammed into the stone wall, spewing a mouthful of blood one after another, and their faces turned pale.

The power of the nine Golden Crows is enough to destroy the sky and destroy the earth, and it is simply not something that the two of them can compete with.

Tie Bowen and Nalan Wushuang, because they were far away, were not affected, but the heat waves set off by the sea of fire also made them unbearable. At that time, they saw a crack in the stone wall behind them, which could accommodate two people. Nalan Wushuang did not hesitate at all, and hurriedly greeted Tie Bowen to get in.

At this time, the stone platform was in the sky.

The nine Golden Crows lined up, their eyes locked on Tang Jian and Itair.

Oops!

At this moment, Tang Jian broke out in cold sweat. He didn't have time to think about it, his figure flashed, and he quickly rushed towards the exit above.

The sunset bow is important, but now it's important to save your life.

Seeing Tang Jian resolutely fleeing, Itai didn't have time to think, but followed behind decisively, and rushed out one after another with Tang Jian. He had just played against one of the three-legged Golden Crows for a few rounds, and he knew very well how powerful this Sun God Bird was. Now that he faced nine of them, if he didn't run, he would die.

"Wow..."

At this moment, the nine golden crows chirped in unison, then flapped their wings, like nine golden lightning bolts, and quickly chased out.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5776

In an instant, the huge underground space became silent in an instant, only the sound of magma flowing under the stone platform.

Gradually, the hot breath in the air returned to normal.

call!

After hearing that there was no movement for a while, Tie Bowen and Nalan Wushuang, who were hiding in the crevice of the stone wall, looked at each other and walked out cautiously.

Are they all dead?

Seeing that there was no one in front of him, whether it was the black armored cavalry, or the members of the Tiandao Society were all gone, Nalan Wushuang's delicate body could not stop trembling, and there was also a fear in his heart. There were no bones and slag burned by the armored cavalry, but she saw it with her own eyes.

And it is not impossible for the nine Golden Crows to destroy everyone on both sides.

At this time, Nalan Wushuang thought that both Tang Jian and Itair had been burned to death, but he did not know that both Tang Jian and Itair had escaped.

"Everyone's gone." Tie Bowen also took a deep breath and looked around: "It seems that they were all burned to death by the three-legged Golden Crow."

After speaking, Tie Bowen looked up at the top of the stone wall, his face full of fear: "Strange, what about those Golden Crows?" The two of them hid in the crevices of the stone walls and didn't dare to show their faces, so they didn't know what just happened.

Nalan Wushuang said softly: "I don't know, maybe it's back in the lava."

Phew!

Yi Bowen took a deep breath and hurriedly said: "In that case, let's go quickly." When he spoke, he couldn't help but glanced at the divine bow on the stone platform.

Seriously, it's a lie that such a divine soldier is not moved, but just now so many people died tragically because of this divine bow, and they didn't even leave their bones behind, so don't be delusional.

Nalan Wushuang nodded and was about to leave with Tie Bowen.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Ok?

Just when she was about to leave, Nalan Wushuang couldn't help but glance at the bow, and she was stunned for a moment. She clearly saw that the nine two o'clock on the back of the bow were gone.

Nalan Wushuang is talented and intelligent. When he found this, he immediately realized something, and shouted at Tie Bowen with great joy: "Don't rush to leave, look, the light spot on the top is gone, does it indicate that the nine Only Jinwu left here?"

Hearing this, Tie Bowen looked back carefully, and he saw that the light spot was gone, he was not a fool, what did he understand at that time: "Nine girls, are you going to take this divine bow?"

"Of course."

Nalan Wushuang replied without even thinking about it: "Who wouldn't want to get such a magical weapon, I didn't expect that we were lucky, those nine golden crows killed everyone, and finally it was cheap for us.

"Lan Wushuang couldn't hide the joy, and her delicate body rose lightly, like a butterfly, and gently landed on the stone platform.

call!

Tie Bowen took a deep breath and followed closely behind him. At the same time, he couldn't help but glance back at the direction of the exit behind him, fearing that the nine Golden Crows would suddenly come back.

When he got to the stone platform, Tie Bowen was full of surprise: "Huh? There are still words on it." He saw that the nine two dots on the back of the bow disappeared, but at this time two vigorous ancient characters appeared.

Nalan Wushuang recognized it at a glance, and said softly: "This is the ancient compilation, and the word 'sunset' is written. I didn't expect that what Tang Jian said was true

”, Tie Bowen suddenly became excited and said with a smile: “So, this is really the divine bow that Emperor Hou Yi shot the sun.”

Nalan Wushuang nodded, stretched out his hand to hold the sunset bow, and felt the warmth of his hand, and the previous scorching heat disappeared. Obviously, the nine golden crows that protect the bow of the gods left temporarily, and the fire power that pervaded the bow itself was also sealed.

Nalan Wushuang rubbed a few times, tried to take it, and frowned: “It’s so heavy, you can take it.” This sunset bow, the back of the bow stretched more than one meter and five, stood almost the same as Nalan Wushuang. Taller.

With her delicate appearance, holding a sunset bow, she is somewhat funny and cute.

Seeing her appearance, Tie Bowen couldn’t help laughing, and immediately responded, grabbed the sunset bow: “I don’t know when the nine golden crows will come back, let’s go quickly.” After saying that, he pulled Nalan Wushuang. , quickly rushed towards the exit above.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5777

Call!

Half a minute later, Nalan Wushuang and Tie Bowen rushed out of the cave and saw that the bloody sun was still in the sky outside.

At this time, the pasture was surrounded by warriors of the Rakshasa tribe and cavalry in black armor.

Just a few minutes ago, itel and another man were seen fleeing from the forbidden area in a hurry, fleeing into the distance, and behind them, nine huge golden monsters were chasing after them.

Seeing this scene at that time, the warriors near the ranch were shocked, and then they gathered together to put the entire ranch on alert.

Swish!

At this time, seeing Tie Bowen and Nalan Wushuang appear, the eyes of these warriors immediately converged on the two of them.

“Isn’t this Tie Bowen? Why is he in the forbidden area?”

“The Kyushu woman is still with him...” While everyone was discussing, the black armored cavalry suddenly changed color, and then they pulled out their long knives and aimed at Tie Bowen drank.

“Stop!”

“I’ll capture it immediately.”

Other warriors were afraid of Tie Bowen’s background, but the black armored cavalry were not at all afraid. You must know that they were all directly under Itail’s subordinates. In the entire Rakshasa clan, except for the queen, Just obey Itel’s orders.

Moreover, the ranch was in full control of the black armored cavalry, but Tie Bowen broke in with a Kyushu woman, so naturally he could not easily bypass it.

Buzz...

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

In anger, many black armored cavalry rushed over.

Seeing this, Tie Bowen scolded secretly, grabbed Nalan Wushuang’s hand tightly, and directly accelerated his speed.

Finally escaped from below, must not be caught by these black armored cavalry.

What’s more, there is a sunset bow in his hand.

hum!

In the blink of an eye, Tie Bowen and Nalan Wushuang rushed to the pass of the ranch. At that time, Tie Bowen didn’t have time to think about it. With his strength, he slapped the black armored cavalry at the pass.

Hearing a roar, several black armored cavalrymen had no time to dodge, and one person turned on his back and was knocked to the ground.

When the nearby warriors saw it, they didn’t know what to do, and they all retreated.

Taking advantage of the opportunity, Tie Bowen pulled Nalan Wushuang out of the ranch quickly.

Wow...

Seeing this, the black-armored cavalry chasing behind were all shocked and furious.

“Tie Bowen, you trespassed into the forbidden area and were arrested, do you want to rebel?”

“Hurry up and capture it, and wait for the general to fall.”

Tie Bowen pulled Nalan Wushuang and rushed forward desperately. Hearing the shouts from behind, he suddenly in a fit of rage, he cursed: “You guys are farting, how could I, Tie Bowen, rebel against the Rakshasa clan? Don’t charge me.”

While cursing, Tie Bowen greeted Nalan Wushuang and rushed towards home. go.

As long as they get home, those black armored cavalry will not dare to be arrogant. After all, the queen uses her father very much, and his mansion, even if these black armored cavalry have two courage, they will not dare to break in.

However, there was a natural vision before, so on the way home at this time, there were many people standing, almost crowded, completely blocking the road.

wow...

At the same time, many black armored cavalymen came from other places.

Seeing this situation, Tie Bowen knew that his home would not be able to go back for the time being, so he made a decisive decision and pulled Nalan Wushuang around and rushed out of the clan.

Just after a few steps, he was blocked by a small group of black armored cavalry.

“Tie Bowen.” The leader of the cavalry captain, with a gloomy face, shouted at Tie Bowen: “You and this Kyushu woman stole the treasures in the forbidden area and tried to escape, is this not a rebellion?”

”, The captain looked at the sunset bow in Tie Bowen’s hand, his eyes burning hot.

When I saw the sunset bow, under the bloody sun, a fiery red light circulated throughout the body. It was indescribably beautiful and dazzling. Even a fool would know that it was a rare treasure.

Moreover, this bow is simple in shape and is not something of the Rakshasa clan at all. It is obviously just obtained from the forbidden area, and the forbidden area is under the jurisdiction of the black armored cavalry, so this treasure must not be taken away by Tie Bowen.

Mad...

Tie Bowen was furious: "Shut up, I'll say it again, I didn't rebel against the Rakshasa, so don't spit your blood."

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5778

The

voice fell, and Nalan Wushuang couldn't help but shouted: "You people are really disgusting, if you want to snatch the bow, just say it, you don't need to make up these unwarranted reasons."

Chi... The

last word fell, Nalan Wushuang let go of Tie Bowen's hand, clenched the long sword tightly, rose up, and stabbed the cavalry captain directly.

Nalan Wushuang has a stubborn personality, how can he tolerate others' repeated slander?

"Tsk tsk..."

Seeing Nalan Wushuang's long sword piercing, the cavalry captain chuckled lightly, with a playful tone: "I can't see that you are a weak woman, and your temper is not small, this captain will play with you. When the voice fell, the captain pulled out his machete, his figure burst out, and he fought fiercely with Nalan Wushuang.

Dang dang dang...

At first, the captain was still full of confidence, but after two rounds of fighting, he was shocked to find that the woman in front of him seemed to be delicate, but her strength was not weak at all, and her swordsmanship was even more outstanding. .

Chi la...

Soon Nalan Wushuang found an opportunity, the long sword stabbed a blood hole on the captain, and he heard a tear, the captain screamed, blood splashed from the wound, and the machete also fell. land.

After the pain, the captain's face instantly turned hideous, and he shouted at the surrounding companions: "Let's form a knife array, let's go together."

Whoosh ...

Hearing the order, the surrounding black armored cavalry turned their figures one after another, arranging the formation.

Seeing this situation, Tie Bowen's face changed greatly. You must know that the Rakshasa clan's sword array is very domineering and fierce. I'm afraid that the nine girls are not familiar with the sword array and will be easily injured.

Thinking of this, Tie Bowen became anxious and wanted to pull out his machete, but he felt empty, and then he remembered that the machete on his body was hanging on the forbidden ground.

In a hurry, Tie Bowen clenched the sunset bow and waved it out fiercely.

Dangdang...

I heard a few vibrations, and the scimitars in the hands of many black armored cavalry were shaken by the sunset bow.

At this time, more black armored cavalry rushed over from a distance.

Seeing this, Tie Bowen gritted his teeth and grabbed Nalan Wushuang's hand: "Nine girls, go quickly." The voice fell, and he rushed out of the clan.

"Catch them."

"Don't let them run away..."

Nearly a thousand black-armored cavalrymen shouted, chasing after them.

Oops.

After rushing out of the clan, Tie Bowen quickly identified the direction, and was about to take Nalan Wushuang to the direction of Kyushu to escape, but after taking a look, he immediately dismissed his attention.

I saw that on the road leading to Kyushu, there were also black armored cavalry. The only one without black armored cavalry is the direction leading to the wild and strange realm

, where the environment is harsh, and there is the valley of death that everyone talks about...

"Nine girls."

: "I'm sorry, it seems that I can't protect you anymore, we have no way to go."

Nalan Wushuang frowned and said unhappily: "What nonsense are you talking about? Why is there no way? Isn't it right ahead?" As he said that, he glanced at the wild and strange realm in front of him.

Tie Bowen said with a wry smile: "It's a wild and strange area, and there are many dangers. You may not be able to get out if you enter."

"This girl doesn't believe in this evil."

Nalan Wushuang curled his lips: "We have a sunset bow in our hands, what's there to be afraid of?" After speaking, he accelerated his speed and headed for the wild and strange realm.

Tie Bowen was stunned for a moment, and then his pride was also inspired.

That is, the two of them even got the sunset bow, so what else is there to be afraid of?

Thinking to himself, Tie Bowen quickly chased after him. Soon, the two rushed into the lush jungle in the wild and strange realm.

Wow....

Seeing this scene, the black armored cavalymen who were chasing after them quickly stopped one by one, looking at the boundless woods in the wild and strange realm, their faces could not hide the fear.

"Damn, they have entered the wild and mysterious realm."

"They are courting death."

"Let's go, let's go back." During the discussion, these black armored cavalry turned around and returned. After that, don't even think about coming out alive.

You must know that there have been many warriors of the Rakshasa tribe trying to explore the wild and strange realm over the years, but all of them died inside.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5779

Although Tie Bowen is not weak, but with a Kyushu woman, it is impossible to survive from the wild and strange realm.

on the other side.

In the mid-air more than ten kilometers northwest of the Rakshasa tribe, Itair was sweating profusely, flying at a high speed.

While flying, he looked behind him in a panic, his face unable to hide the horror.

The nine golden crows carried the flames all over the sky and pursued them relentlessly. Wherever the figure passed, the sky burned with it, which was very terrifying.

Mad!

At this time, Yi Taier, in addition to being nervous, still has an indescribable suffocation.

After all, he is also the first warrior of the Rakshasa clan, a dignified general, but at this time, he is being chased by nine strange birds like a lost dog, which is too embarrassing.

And that Tang Jian, who was too cunning, just rushed out of the hole and immediately hid himself, causing him to become the target of these strange birds.

Seeing that the nine Golden Crows behind him were about to catch up, Itel almost cried.

Ok?

It was at this moment that Itel saw a deep pool in the valley in front of him, and his face was overjoyed, and he rushed down immediately. As long as you jump into the pool, you will not be afraid of the fire of these Golden Crows.

Whoops ...

The next second, Itel jumped directly into the deep pool and dived directly into the depths of the water.

As soon as they jumped into the deep pool, the nine golden crows swooped down and landed around the pool, and then flapped their wings to form a sea of fire, completely covering the pool.

The intense high temperature evaporated a piece of hot air from the water surface, and in an instant, the entire valley was surrounded by mist. The surface of the pool also boiled instantly.

It's just that this deep pool is more than 100 meters deep. At this time, Itaire dived to a position under tens of meters. In this case, the boiling water above can't hurt him at all.

The sea of fire continued above the deep pool for more than half an hour. Seeing that Itel had never come up, thinking that he was dead, the nine golden crows flew high and turned around to return to the forbidden area of the pasture.

Soon, the nine golden crows returned to the underground space.

"Wow..."

Seeing that the sky above the stone platform was empty, the sunset bow disappeared, and the nine golden crows instantly became furious and made bursts of chirping. Although these Golden Crows are powerful, their intelligence is not as good as that of the Four Great Divine Beasts. Back then, they guarded the sun. As a result, nine out of ten suns were shot down by the Great Emperor Hou Yi. Because the Sunset Bow absorbed the essence of the sun, it began to guard the Sunset Bow.

And now that the Sunset Bow is gone, how can I not be angry?

Huhu...

The next second, the nine furious Golden Crows rushed out of the cave again, and their gorgeous golden figures shone through the sky.

For a time, the entire Rakshasa clan came out to watch the lively crowd, their eyes converged on the nine golden crows, and they felt the powerful fluctuations in power, and they were all shocked.

"What is this?"

"What a big golden bird..."

"It seems to be something that was sealed in the forbidden area of the ranch. It came out once before and just returned... and now it comes out again..."

Everyone was shocked. Down, they couldn't help but talk, and their voices trembled.

"Wow..."

At this moment, the nine golden crows uttered a cry, vibrated their wings, and rushed directly towards the street where the crowd gathered, vibrating their wings, and a scorching flame erupted, sweeping down.

The sunset bow disappeared, and the Golden Crow was furious, and wanted to burn everything that he saw in front of him.

“Ah...”

In an instant, the flames burst in the crowd, and a scream came. In the blink of an eye, many people were burned alive, and the entire street was completely submerged in flames.

However, the nine Golden Crows still felt that it was not enough, they spread out and released flames to other places.

“Help...”

“God, what’s going on?”

“Ah...I don’t want to die...”

This sudden change made everyone have no time to react, and they heard screams. With the constant sound, the entire Rakshasa clan almost became a sea of fire. Not only ordinary people, but even many Rakshasa clan warriors and black-armored cavalymen did not have time to dodge and died in the sea of fire.

At this time, it was far from the royal palace on the north side of the clan.

Queen Mengna stood at the gate of the palace hall, looking at the restricted area of the ranch, waiting for Itail to report the situation, but until now, she has not seen Itail.

At this time, when she saw the nine golden crows unleashing fire and massacres in the clan, Meng Na’s body trembled. She didn’t have time to think about it at the time, and she shouted: “All warriors obey the order and immediately kill these nine strange birds.”

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 5780

When the order was issued, Meng Na felt a pain in her heart.

She clearly saw that many warriors and black armored cavalry were buried in the sea of fire, and many other clansmen, as well as people from Kyushu who traded and did business here, were burned alive.

The Rakshasa tribe has been recuperating and recuperating here for so many years, and they have developed so much. How could they be destroyed by these strange birds?

“Follow the order.”

Hearing the order, the surrounding palace warriors responded in unison, and then burst out, rushing towards the nine golden crows.

These palace warriors, responsible for protecting the queen's safety, are all the elites of the Rakshasa clan.

"Wow..."

Seeing the warriors of the palace rushing up, the nine golden crows were completely infuriated, they made a few chirps, and then they opened their mouths and spewed out flames.

Huhuhu...

Hot flames filled the world. I saw that the dozens of palace warriors who rushed to the front were instantly burned to ashes. Not even a scream could be heard.

"Ah..."

Those who followed behind were also ignited one by one, turning into flames, falling from the air and being burned into black coal.

Hiss...

The flame power of these strange birds is so terrifying.

Seeing this scene, the palace warriors who stayed by Meng Na's side were all pale, and they couldn't help gasping for air.

Is this the existence sealed in the forbidden area?

This power is too terrifying.

At the same time, Meng Na's delicate body trembled, and her delicate face instantly lost its blood. I never thought that these nine strange birds were so terrifying, and in the blink of an eye, they wiped out half of the palace warriors.

"Wow..."

Just when everyone was shocked, two golden crows uttered bursts of chirping and came straight towards the palace.

"Protect the Queen."

"Protect Her Royal Highness..."

Seeing this situation, many palace warriors were frightened in their hearts, but they still gritted their teeth and shouted, and the actual figure rushed up. It is their duty to protect the Queen, and they will not die. Chongqing.

Huhuhu...

However, their ending, like their previous companions, didn't have a chance to get close to the Golden Crow, and they were burned to ashes.

Seeing the Golden Crow getting closer and closer, a leader standing behind Mona couldn't help shouting: "Queen, it's too dangerous here, leave the palace."

If something happened to the queen, the entire Rakshasa clan would be over. .

"No."

Meng Na bit her lip and shook her head: "I can't go." She is the queen, how can she leave her clan to escape? The voice fell, and Meng Na tore off the golden robe from her body.

In an instant, the personal soft armor inside was exposed, the curves were graceful and charming, and the heroic appearance was valiant.

Meng Na thought about it. As a queen, not only can she not go, she must lead her subordinates to fight against these nine strange birds.

"Queen."

Seeing this scene, the other leaders were also anxious, and came up to comfort them one after another: "You must be calm, if something happens to you, what will our Rakshasa tribe do in the future?"

"Yes, these nine The monster bird is too strong to fight against each other rashly."

"The queen thinks twice!"

The leaders comforted, surrounded Meng Na, quickly retreated into the main hall, and then left behind the main hall.

Huhuhu....

As soon as I left the main hall, I saw two golden crows burst out. The dozens of warriors guarding the main hall were instantly turned into flying ashes, and the entire hall was also enveloped in raging fire.

Seeing this scene, Meng Na was extremely heartbroken, and her heart was full of anger and despair.

Is this God's will? Is God going to exterminate the Rakshasa clan...

"The beasts are going to be mad!"

At this moment, a loud shout came from the sky in the distance, and then, a figure came from the sky, and the speed was fast Like thunder and lightning.

His face was cut like a knife, his facial features were sharp and angular, and he was indescribably cold and handsome.

It was Yue Feng.

At that time, seeing a vision of heaven and earth appearing on the side of the Rakshasa clan, Yue Feng rushed over decisively. As soon as he entered the range of the Rakshasa clan, he saw from a distance that nine giant golden birds were setting fires recklessly.

Most of the entire Rakshasa clan was submerged by the sea of fire, and not only that, the palace was not spared. In a hurry, Yue Feng couldn't help shouting loudly.

"Yue Feng!"

At this moment, seeing Yue Feng, Meng Na's tender body trembled, as if she had taken a reassurance pill, she smiled.
