

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6531

Hearing this, Yan Chengying's eyes became solemn.

Because Yue Feng is right, her meridians are indeed very different from ordinary people.

Speaking of which, her real name was not Yan Chengying, but Yan Luobing. She was neither from Dayan nor from Hu, but from the Moyou clan who lived in the bitter cold of the extreme north.

Because the growth environment is very bad, the meridians of the Moyou people are very different from ordinary people.

In order to resist the severe cold, the ancestors of the Moyou tribe created a 'Red Flame Technique'. This kind of red flame art is only suitable for the cultivation of the Moyou people. For foreigners to practice, if they are a little careless, they will go into trouble.

Yan Luobing is very talented. Although she is a girl, her cultivation speed is very fast. At the age of teens, she has reached the strength of a sixth-grade master. In addition, she is the only daughter of the patriarch, so she is sought after by the entire clan.

When Yan Luobing was sixteen years old, a foreign tribe destroyed the Moyou family's home. At that time, Yan Luobing and the tribe were desperately resisting, but the opponent was too strong. In the end, the tribe was killed one after another, only Yan Luobing escaped.

After escaping from the clan, Yan Luobing went all the way to the south, and finally found a safe place to start recuperating. Because of the serious injury and the different environment, when Yan Luobing practiced the Chi Yan Gong again, the meridians in his body changed.

Speaking of which, if Yan Luobing had stopped practising Chi Yan Gong at that time, there might have been nothing wrong, but she was a character who would not admit defeat.

More importantly, Chi Yan Gong is a practice that has been handed down by the Moyou clan for thousands of years. Now she is the only one left in the clan, and she cannot break the inheritance.

However, as a result of forced cultivation, Yan Luobing's meridians were reversed. Even though she was talented and intelligent and avoided the danger of going crazy, she still suffered from a hidden disease. For a period of time every year, my body will be hot and cold, and the meridians everywhere are as uncomfortable as being eaten by 10,000 ants.

And this has been going on for five years.

In the past five years, Yan Luobing has traveled all over the Tianxin Continent and visited famous doctors, but he has never found a complete cure. In the end, he used his strong willpower to endure the past.

Later, after the establishment of Wuyinmen, Yan Luobing also strictly kept the secret, and no one under his subordinates knew about it.

“Haha!”

Just as Yan Luobing was secretly recalling these things, a close confidant around him couldn't help but sneered and said to Yue Feng: “You are not too timid, you dare to play tricks in front of our leader, I think you are Courting death...” The voice fell, and another cronie couldn't help but said coldly: “I'm not ashamed...”

In their hearts, Yue Feng didn't know any medical skills at all. What he said just now was just nonsense, and the ultimate goal was just to survive. .

People who talk nonsense at every turn are the most hateful.

Ha ha!

Listening to the words of the two cronies, Yue Feng couldn't help but chuckle and ignored it at all, but quietly looked at Yan Luobing, waiting for her answer.

call!

At this moment, Yan Luobing also reacted, let out a sigh of relief, and said lightly to Yue Feng: “Do you think that if you say this, I will let you go?”

When saying this, Yan Luobing's eyes flashed with complexity.

Although this person is very capable and can see his own situation at a glance, he is the person Nuliha wants after all. Moreover, the assassination of the princess has failed one after another. Only by handing over Yue Feng, can Nuliha's anger be quelled and saved. The reputation of the fog hidden door.

“Leader!”

Hearing this, Yue Feng smiled bitterly and said, “Of course I don't expect the leader to let me go immediately, but I have a way to completely eradicate the symptoms of the leader.”

“Of course, this requires the leader's complete trust.”

Huh?

Hearing this, Yan Luobing was stunned, thinking that he had heard it wrong.

what did he say? Does he have a way to eradicate it completely?

After being stunned, Yan Luobing couldn't help sneering: "I think you are really outrageous." The hidden disease in his body, the famous doctors in the entire Tianxin Continent are helpless, and he actually said that it will be more completely eradicated.

At the same time, the two cronies couldn't stand it anymore, looking at Yue Feng's eyes with disgust, they all spoke at the same time.

"It's really getting more and more outrageous..."

"It's ridiculous, the situation of our leader needs your treatment? I think you have bad intentions."

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6532

While mocking, one of the cronies couldn't help but said to Yan Luobing: "Boss, this person is very cunning. In my opinion, hurry down and torture him. Don't waste your words with him."

Nod in agreement.

call!

Yan Luobing took a deep breath, thinking about it and was about to speak.

Faced with this situation, Yue Feng was a little anxious and said, "Boss, you must have been troubled by this hidden disease for a long time, why don't you let me try it, if it succeeds, will it hurt you?"

"Anyway, I am with you . In your hands, if you fail, it's not too late for you to deal with me."

When he said this, Yue Feng's eyes were full of anticipation.

So....

Hearing this suggestion, Yan Luobing bit her lip lightly and pondered.

This person is right, anyway, his life is in my injury, why not give it a try? If you fail, you have nothing to lose, and if you succeed, you can do it once and for all.

However, the two cronies next to him were in a hurry.

“Leader, think twice!”

“This kid must have some conspiracy.”

The words of the cronies kept coming, Yan Luobing thought for a while, and said lightly: “You shut up, I have decided, let him try it.”

“Yes . , leader!”

Seeing that Yan Luobing had made up his mind, the two cronies couldn't say anything even though they were anxious, and they answered in unison, but they looked at Yue Feng's eyes, still full of hostility.

call!

Seeing this, Yue Feng secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

It's dangerous, but fortunately the leader agreed, otherwise, a meal of flesh and blood would be unavoidable.

“Yue Feng!”

At this time, Yan Luobing looked at Yue Feng quietly, and said coldly, “You better not play tricks, otherwise, I will tell you that life is worse than death.”

“How dare I play tricks?” Yue Feng smiled: “Nothing matters.”

Hmm!

Yan Luobing nodded, not too lazy to talk nonsense at this time, and motioned one of his cronies to loosen Yue Feng's bond.

The moment the rope was untied, Yue Feng moved his hands and feet, and his mood finally stretched a lot. Fortunately, the leader was willing to give it a try, otherwise the consequences could not be imagined.

“Okay!”

At this time, Yan Luobing said lightly: “How are you going to heal?” While speaking, Yan Luobing's eyes were calm, but her heart was full of curiosity.

You must know that the hidden disease in her body has lasted for several years, and many famous doctors are helpless.

Swish!

At this moment, the two cronies were also staring at Yue Feng, waiting for his answer.

Yue Feng showed a smile and said slowly: "In the case of the leader, there is only one way, and that is to use acupuncture to open up the blocked meridians. There is no other way."

Acupuncture?

Hearing this word, both Yan Luobing and the two cronies around him were stunned. You must know that although the medical skills in Tianxin Continent are also developing well, there is no acupuncture yet.

A few seconds later, Yan Luobing calmed down and asked, "What about acupuncture?"

It seemed that there was no acupuncture in Tianxin Continent.

Seeing their expressions, Yue Feng murmured secretly, and then responded: "It's just acupuncture with silver needles, um... This is a lost ancient medical technique. The leader doesn't need to be confused."

Since there is no acupuncture in Tianxin Continent, Yue Feng had to make up a reason temporarily.

What?

Acupuncture with a silver needle?

Hearing this, the expressions of the two cronies changed greatly, and their hearts were also full of anger. What a joke, the acupuncture points of the human body are the lifeblood.

Because there is no acupuncture in Tianxin Continent, Yue Feng's statement, in their opinion, is a very dangerous act.

Frightened, the two cronies couldn't help but scold.

"Sure enough, he has ulterior motives. I've never heard of a silver acupuncture point... I think it's a lie you're making up now."

"Yes, he wants to kill our leader... What a silver needle point, that's obvious. It's murder."

For a while, the two cronies became more and more agitated as they talked, and they started scolding Yue Feng, with anger flashing in their eyes, and they wished they could immediately rush up to teach Yue Feng a lesson.

Two idiots.

At this moment, Yue Feng scolded inwardly, obviously you are ignorant, but in turn said that I want to harm people...

At this moment, Yan Luobing reacted and looked at Yue Feng complicatedly: "Is what you said true? When speaking, Yan Luobing's tone was indifferent, but in fact he was very puzzled, just because his identity was not easy to show.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6533

"Of course!"

Yue Feng nodded and looked at the two pro-paths subconsciously: "I learned this technique of acupuncture and moxibustion by accident, you must know that in this world, there is a sky outside the sky, and there are people outside the human body. What you have seen is not necessarily non-existent." The two cronies were not fools, they naturally heard Yue Feng's implication, and they were immediately angry.

"What did you say?"

"You are courting death, you dare to mock us for being ignorant..."

Facing the anger of the two, Yue Feng did not panic at all, and said lightly: "I didn't say that. "

You..."

Hearing this, one of the cronies couldn't hold it anymore, and was about to come up to teach Yue Feng, but was stopped by Yan Luobing.

"What are you arguing about? Step back first!" Yan Luobing said lightly.

It has to be said that Yan Luobing has a strong aura. Seeing her speak, the trusted confidant glared at Yue Feng, and then obediently stepped aside.

"Yue Feng!" In the next second, Yan Luobing looked at Yue Feng: “What’s the difference between the silver needles and ordinary needles?” After all, she had never heard of acupuncture, so naturally she didn’t know what it meant. What does the silver needle look like.

Yue Feng smiled: “Naturally it’s different...” Then, he described the style of the silver needle in detail.

call!

At this moment, Yan Luobing pondered and said, “This kind of silver needle is really special, but it is somewhat familiar with a hidden weapon we use.” After speaking, Yan Luobing took out a pack of silver needles from her body. This is the hidden weapon ‘Soul Chasing Needle’ that she often uses. It is about two inches long and as thin as a hair. It is hard to prevent when it is displayed.

Yue Feng looked at it, nodded and said: “Yes, although it is much thinner than the medical one, it can be used.” In fact, this kind of soul chasing needle is too thin, if other doctors in the Kyushu mainland see it, they will definitely shake their heads. However, Yue Feng was taught by Shennong, and his medical skills were superb. Even if there were some flaws in this soul-chasing needle, it could still achieve the effect.

Does this work too?

Hearing Yue Feng’s answer, Yan Luobing Xiumei frowned.

At the same time, the two cronies standing by the side couldn’t bear it anymore, and jumped out and screamed.

“Leader, this kid is nonsense at first glance. He just said the style of the silver needle, and the leader’s soul-chasing needle is so different from the silver needle he said, he even said that it can be used...”

” Yes, this is too obvious, he doesn’t know any medical skills at all, and all acupuncture and moxibustion are all made up.” They are really two idiots...

Seeing them screaming again, Yue Feng frowned and cursed inwardly. A word, I don’t care.

At this moment, Yan Luobing frowned and said, “Okay, don’t be arguing.” The two cronies hurriedly shut up.

Afterwards, Yan Luobing looked at Yue Feng: "You start. What do you want to do?" She is a straightforward woman. Since she chooses to trust Yue Feng, she must persevere to the end.

Anyway, this person's life is in his own hands, and he is not afraid of his tricks.

call!

Yue Feng took a deep breath and said slowly: "In the case of the leader, thirteen needles need to be pierced, and they are all acupuncture points on the back. Of course, in order to ensure accuracy, the leader needs to take off his clothes..."

What?

Hearing this, Yan Luobing froze for a moment, and his heart trembled faintly.

To... undress?

Over the years, I have been careful, the identity of the woman has never been exposed, and now I can't reveal it. More importantly, this Yue Feng is a man, how can he show the appearance of a woman in front of him... The two cronies are standing On the side, without saying a word, they followed Yan Luobing for several years, and they never knew that the leader was a woman.

Haha...

At this moment, seeing Yan Luobing's hesitant look, Yue Feng couldn't help but chuckle.

Looking at the situation, she didn't want to reveal her identity as a woman.

Thinking to himself, Yue Feng held back his smile and looked at Yan Luobing seriously: "Is there something unspeakable for the leader?" As he spoke, Yue Feng observed the changes in Yan Luobing's eyes.

"I..."

Hearing Yue Feng's question, behind the bronze mask, Yan Luobing bit her lip tightly, and said uncomfortably, "No..." At this moment, Yan Luobing's heart was extremely complicated.

To be honest, she really didn't want to reveal her identity as a woman, but the situation on her body has tortured her for several years, and now she finally has a chance to heal, and she doesn't want to miss it at all.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6534

Haha...

Seeing her answer is so uncertain, Yue Feng sneered again, and then said seriously: "Since there is no problem, then... let's start."

At this time, Yan Luobing was in a mess. , nodded subconsciously.

Seeing her nodding, Yue Feng said to the two pros: "You two, one will get me some clean cotton cloth, and the other will bring me a jar of spirits." The voice was not loud, but there was no doubt.

These two people have been against themselves again and again, how can they be worthy of them if they don't command them?

Mad!

Hearing Yue Feng's words, the expressions of the two cronies changed and they were furious. This man was just a prisoner, and if he dared to point fingers at himself, he was really courting death.

"Go!"

Seeing them standing still, Yue Feng couldn't help urging: "What are you doing? Cotton cloth and spirits are used to sterilize silver needles. If you don't want your leader to have an accident, just go obediently. Prepare."

Hearing this, the two cronies were very suffocated, but they still obeyed.

Soon, cotton cloth and spirits were brought over. Yue Feng immediately disinfected the 'soul chasing needles', and then said to Yan Luobing, "Boss, it's alright!"

Mmm!

Yan Luobing nodded, seemingly calm on the surface, but panicked in her heart. After thinking about it at the time, she said to the two pros: "You two go out first."

Although the identity exposure was inevitable, it was impossible for his subordinates to know.

As for Yue Feng, he is just a prisoner. When he is really cured, he will first cut off his tongue and send it to Nuliha, so that he will not be afraid of talking nonsense.

What the hell!

At this moment, feeling the killing intent in Yan Luobing's eyes, Yue Feng's heart was shocked.

This woman will not be exposed because of her identity as a woman, so she will kill me later.

At the same time, the two cronies were also full of doubts.

"Leader, let's just stand by."

"Yeah, if this person has bad intentions, we can respond in time."

When they said this, the faces of the two cronies were full of flattery, this is a good opportunity to show, how can I miss it? However, they didn't know that this time the flattery was on the horse's leg.

"Shut up!"

Yan Luobing was already in a irritable mood. Seeing them say something to me, he was even more annoyed, and immediately reprimanded: "If you want to go out, go out, why so much nonsense? After going out, spread the word to others, no According to my order, no one is allowed to come in, otherwise the punishment will be severe."

"Yes, yes!"

Seeing Yan Luobing's anger, the two cronies didn't dare to neglect, they hurriedly responded, and walked out sullenly. But they were both suspicious.

What happened to the leader today? Always inexplicably angry, completely unpredictable.

However, there were doubts in their hearts, and the two cronies did not dare to ask more questions, and quickly walked out of the hall.

Haha...

Seeing this scene, Yue Feng couldn't help laughing secretly. This leader is really interesting. In order to hide his identity, he didn't even trust his own subordinates and muttered in his heart. Luo Bing said: "Please take off your clothes, the leader, we're going to start."

Phew!

Yan Luobing took a deep breath, and after a struggle in her heart, she said, "Turn your head."

Yue Feng smiled secretly, nodded immediately, and turned around.

I heard a rustling sound, and half a minute later, I heard Yan Luobing's indifferent voice: "Okay, you can apply the needle."

"Okay!"

Yue Feng responded and turned his head. Come, although I have already prepared in my heart, but after looking at it, I am still stunned.

Seeing that Yan Luobing's back was facing Yue Feng at this time, the black robe still on her body, but her smooth back was exposed. Even if she was very careful, her graceful curves were still faintly revealed.

Yan Luobing didn't take off the mask on his face, but from Yue Feng's point of view, he could see some general outlines of the side face...

sigh!

For a time, Yue Feng was a little fascinated, and couldn't help but take a deep breath.

I can't see that this leader is not only a woman, but also has an extraordinary demeanor, a country and a city.

It's just a pity that I can't see her full face...

"Don't look around!"

Just when Yue Feng was fascinated by it, Yan Luo's cold voice sounded: "I'm looking around and dig out your eyeballs, hurry up. Acupuncture!"

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6535

Although she has her back to Yue Feng, with her keen intuition, she can also guess what Yue Feng looks like at this time.

Uh... the real murderer.

Hearing the scolding, Yue Feng immediately calmed down and smiled at the time: "The leader is majestic, how dare I look around?" After saying that, he picked up a needle and quickly stabbed the acupuncture point on Yan Luobing's back. superior.

With this needle, Yue Feng was quick and accurate.

"Yeah!"

Yan Luobing didn't react at all at that time, only felt a piercing pain, and couldn't help but let out a low groan. At the same time, his heart was also filled with anger.

This acupuncture method is so painful. Could it be true as the two cronies said, this person is not helping me treat the hidden disease at all, but wants to assassinate?

Thinking about it, Yan Luobing was about to pull out the long knife beside him to cut Yue Feng, but at this moment, the pain in his back disappeared quickly, replaced by an indescribable smoothness.

This feeling seems good...

For a while, Yan Luobing sighed inwardly, and at the same time resisted the urge to shoot.

Hearing Yan Luobing's low murmur, Yue Feng felt that his bones were numb, and his voice was so pleasant.

Muttering in his heart, Yue Feng continued to apply needles.

Every time the needle is given, Yan Luobing will feel an unbearable pain, but this pain is fleeting, and as the number of needles increases, Yan Luobing feels that the meridians in his body are also changing. Getting smoother and more comfortable.

After the thirteenth needle was given, Yan Luobing felt extremely relaxed, as if he had changed to another person.

"All right!"

At this time, Yue Feng wiped the sweat off his forehead and said with a smile: "The thirteen needles have been applied, and the leader's hidden disease has been eradicated. However, these needles will take a while to be pulled out, so please wait for the leader."

At this time, Yan Luobing was dripping with perspiration, and her expression was indescribably seductive. After listening to Yue Feng's words, she nodded silently.

But in my heart, I was shocked beyond words.

This person is really amazing. His meridians are reversed, which is rare in the world. I don't know how many famous doctors are helpless, but this Yue Feng was cured with only a few needles.

It's like a miracle doctor reincarnated...

At the same time, Yan Luobing was a little shy.

As the leader of the Wuyinmen, I am pure and clean. No one has known my female identity for several years, but just now, he looked at my back.

Although it was just the back, it was unacceptable to Yan Luobing, who was extremely conservative.

“Leader!”

Just when Yan Luobing was tangled in his heart, Yue Feng said with a smile: “We said just now that if I can eradicate your hidden disease, let’s exchange a condition, the leader keeps his word, it shouldn’t Go back and regret it.”

Hearing this, Yan Luobing’s eyes flickered, and she said lightly: “Okay, you say the conditions.”

“The leader is really happy, my conditions are very simple, that is, let me go.” Yue Feng thought too. said unwillingly.

Yue Feng knew that the other party would definitely not let him go, so he just wanted to see Yan Luobing’s reaction.

“No way!”

At this moment, Yan Luobing refused without thinking: “We Wuyinmen have nothing to say. We have promised Nuliha before that we want to hand you over to him, how can we let you go?”

Saying that, Yan Luobing turned and said, “However, I can guarantee your safety. If Nuliha really wants to kill you, I will send someone to save you secretly.”

Speaking of which, with Yan Luobing’s personality, I don’t want to talk nonsense with Yue Feng.

But no matter what, just now, Yue Feng helped him cure his hidden disease. More importantly, the thirteen silver needles on his back have not been pulled out. In this case, Yan Luobing had to deal with Yue Feng. .

Hehe...

Hearing this, Yue Feng smiled secretly, this woman is not stupid, she didn’t pull out the silver needle on her body, and she didn’t dare to rush me.

Thinking to himself, Yue Feng decided to tease her, pretending to be very unhappy and saying: “Boss, you are wrong, we have no grievances and no enmity, you arrested me, I saved your life just now, but you want to I’m afraid it’s not appropriate to give me to Nuliha and put me in danger...”
