Chapter 6676:

Phew!

Yue Feng breathed a sigh of relief and smiled: “Your Majesty is polite, Ji Beiye is despicable and shameless, provoking a war and destroying the living, even if there is no invitation from His Majesty, I will try to deal with him.” “

Whoosh....

As he was speaking, he saw more than a dozen water army generals walking up one after another, one by one, sincerely afraid.

Last night, these generals all received instructions from the city lord, and when they were fighting with Ji Beiye, they pretended to be defeated and fled, so that after they carried out according to the plan, they thought that Qingyun City would be broken!

But as a result, Yue Feng defeated Ji Beiye’s hundreds of thousands of troops with fire, all of which was completely beyond the plan, so these water army generals did not know where to go, so they had to return to the city gate tower and meet the little emperor.

Swish!

Seeing these generals, whether it was the Little Emperor or the Shaoyang King, their faces sank, and they couldn’t hide their anger in their eyes.

This group of water army generals, who had just fought with Ji Beiye on the river, scattered in less than a round, lost face, and now they dare to come back.

“You guys...”

At this moment, Ying Kuang said coldly: “Are you guilty? “

Poof...

Feeling the anger of the little emperor, more than a dozen water army generals trembled in their hearts, and then knelt down in unison.

“The subordinate is guilty!”

“Please Your Majesty.....”

Hearing the pleading, Ying Kuang was even more angry: "Kain? In the battle on the river just now, you guys were about to collapse at the touch of a touch, completely disregarding the safety of Qingyun City, scattered and fled, and still want me to be kind?"

Saying that, Ying Kuang said to the soldiers on both sides: "Come, drag them all down and behead them for public display."

Although

Ying Kuang is young, he is decisive and has clear rewards and punishments, and he is not half soft on these water army generals in front of him at this time.

"Obey the order!"

Hearing the order, dozens of soldiers hurried over and surrounded the soldiers.

Swish!

Faced with this situation, more than a dozen generals instantly turned pale, knelt there, and kept kowtowing and begging for mercy: "Your Majesty spare your life!"

"Spare your life, Your Majesty!"

Hearing the plea for mercy, Ying Kuang did not have half a point of emotional fluctuations on his face.

Seeing this situation, Yue Feng walked over and whispered to Ying Kuang: "Your Majesty, now is the time to use people, it is better to give them a chance first and let them wear guilt and make meritorious deeds."

Yue Feng's voice was not loud, but more than a dozen generals heard it, and at this time, Qi Qi raised his head and looked at Ying Kuang tightly, his eyes full of expectation.

Well!

Ying Kuang thought for a moment and nodded, "Okay, just listen to Sir."

Then, Ying Kuang looked at the generals in front of him and said coldly: "For the sake of Mr. today's face, I will spare you once, and the next time there is such a situation, it will not be forgiven!"

"Thank you, Your Majesty."

"Thank Your Majesty for not killing, thank you sir."

The ghost gate closed and walked around, and more than a dozen generals secretly pinched a cold sweat, and then kowtowed in gratitude.

Yue Feng looked at these generals and said seriously: "Don't be busy thanking first, now I will give you an important task." Phew

In an instant, more than a dozen generals looked up at Yue Feng in unison, holding their breath, waiting for his instructions.

Yue Feng pointed in the direction of Jiangbei Daying: "Ji Beiye has fled to the north bank, his soldiers have suffered countless casualties, there is no longer a threat, now is a good time to pursue." You are now ordered to make meritorious deeds and pursue with all your might.

Hearing this order, more than a dozen generals responded in unison: "The subordinates must do their best to pursue the thief." When the last word fell, they all walked down the city gate tower and summoned the water army to cross the river in pursuit.

.....

On the other side, the north bank of the river.

Under the care of the surrounding generals, Ji Beiye gradually slowed down, looking at the mess on the river, angry and sad.

Hundreds of thousands of troops, it's gone.

"Great General!"

At this moment, a general next to him asked cautiously: "What do we do next?" Phew

Ji Kitano took a deep breath and calmed his mood and said, "Treat the wounded and count the number of people." "Now that the defeat is certain, we can only find a way to preserve the existing strength.

The general answered, walked quickly to the river, and reorganized the troops.

After a while, the general finished counting the numbers, and came back to Ji Kitano and said respectfully: "General Huiyu, we only have 53,000 troops left now..."

6677 When he prayed this, the general's face was also extremely gloomy.

Hundreds of thousands of troops, so much at once, can not be accepted by anyone.

Less than fifty thousand....

Hearing this, Ji Beiye's face turned blue, and his heart was angry, and he looked at the direction of Qingyun City at that time, gritting his teeth and saying: "Yue Feng, I remember you, this vengeance will not be avenged, I Ji Beiye will be in vain." "

Whoops...

At this moment, there was a splash of water on the river. In an instant, all the soldiers present looked at it. At this look, everyone was shocked.

I saw that dozens of warships of the Qingyun City Water Army were rapidly coming.

Every station ship is full of soldiers, and their expressions are also extremely firm and imposing.

Especially those generals standing on the bow of the ship, one by one, are even more scrappy, they are all wearing guilt, and they all desperately want to capture Ji Kitano alive at this time to clear their previous crimes.

Swish!

At this moment, seeing Ji Beiye on the north bank of the river, the eyes of more than a dozen generals instantly locked him and shouted one by one.

"The soldiers obeyed the order, defeated the remnants of the enemy army, and captured Ji Kitano alive."

"Ji Kitano is here, capture him alive."

When the words fell, the soldiers on the battleship also shouted one after another, and the momentum shook the sky.

"Defeat the enemy army and capture Ji Kitano alive."

Mader!

Hearing the slogans shouted by the other party, Ji Beiye's face was extremely ugly, he had been crisscrossing the battlefield for decades, and he was at no disadvantage, when did he lose so miserably?

And now, even these young generals of the water army in Qingyun City dare to clamor to capture me alive?

Under the resentment, Ji Kitano wanted to fight immediately, but looking at the more than 50,000 remnants around him, he finally held back and gritted his teeth and shouted: "Quick, evacuate to the valley behind, quick..."

When the words fell, the surrounding generals also shouted: "Everyone retreat quickly, retreat to the rear valley..."

Crash...

Hearing the order, tens of thousands of soldiers took action one after another and followed Ji Kitano to evacuate towards the valley not far away.

At this time, the Qingyun Water Army had landed, and when they saw Ji Beiye leading the army to escape, they immediately shook the sky.

"Kill, don't let them run!"

"Pursuit..."

More than 100,000 water troops let out a heaven-shaking howl and quickly chased towards Ji Beiye.

The remaining tens of thousands of Ji Beiye's remaining remnants were swimming desperately in the river just now, and they were exhausted at this time, and their speed was naturally not comparable to the imposing Qingyun Water Army, and they were caught up in a short time.

"Ah..."

In the face of the swarming Qingyun Water Army, no one reacted at that time, and in less than a few seconds, thousands of soldiers fell in a pool of blood.

Mader!

Hearing the screams of the soldiers behind, Ji Beiye cursed secretly, and looked back to see the water army that had caught up with Qingyun City, he was shocked and angry, he was exhausted, and the other party still refused to let me go.

While Ji Kitano was thinking, thousands of soldiers fell in a pool of blood.

“Ma De, Lao Tzu fought with you.”

For a while, Ji Kitano could no longer restrain his anger, pulled out his long sword, and was about to rush forward to fight to the death with the other party. Just before he rushed two steps, he was stopped by the general next to him.

“General, don’t be impulsive.”

“The enemy is outnumbered, and rushing forward now is to send death.”

“Yes, General, let’s find a way to intercept the pursuers now.”

Listening to the dissuasion of several generals, Ji Beiye took a deep breath and immediately calmed down, yes, going back to fight now is undoubtedly sending death.

But... The enemy is in hot pursuit, what should be done in this situation?

Thinking about it, Ji Kitano looked around and said to the surrounding generals: “What good plan do you have to cut off the pursuers.” This

....

In the face of the inquiry, the generals present looked at each other, and locked their brows one by one.

The enemy is chasing so tightly, it is difficult to shake off.

When the crisis was great, a general saw a pontoon bridge in front of him and immediately said excitedly: “General, there is salvation, quickly cross it, and then burn the pontoon bridge, the enemy army will have nothing to do.” Hearing this, Ji Kitano hurriedly looked over, and sure enough, he saw that on the cliff ahead, there was a pontoon bridge connected, and the abyss tens of meters high below the pontoon bridge was below.

As long as the pontoon bridge is burned, the army behind is afraid that it will take a long detour.

Call....

Seeing this situation, Ji Kitano couldn’t help but take a deep breath, the whole person was extremely excited, and shouted: “Quick, everyone crosses the pontoon bridge, be fast...”

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6678

Chapter 6678 When the words fell, Ji Beiye and the generals around him accelerated their speed and took the lead in rushing towards the pontoon bridge.

Hearing the order, the soldiers behind, stimulated by their desire to survive, also burst into speed and quickly rushed towards the pontoon bridge. Even so, there were still hundreds of soldiers who did not have time to keep up and were killed by the Qingyun City water army behind.

“Quick, ignition!”

Finally, when all the soldiers crossed the pontoon bridge, Ji Kitano shouted.

Whoohoo!

Hearing the order, several soldiers who had prepared torches threw torches on the pontoon bridge one after another, and the fire instantly burned with the help of the wind.

Almost in the blink of an eye, the pontoon bridge was completely enveloped by flames, followed by complete burning.

Mad, finally escaped!

Looking at the burning pontoon bridge, Ji Kitano exhaled deeply, and his tense spirit relaxed.

Across the pontoon!

“Stop!”

“Damn, they burned the pontoon bridge.”

Seeing that the pontoon bridge was shrouded in fire, the Qingyun City water army chasing after them stopped one after another, their expressions were angry and unwilling.

“Quick! Take a detour and block! “Hurry up!”

In the next second, one of the generals shouted, and took the lead in rushing down the cliff, preparing to make a detour to intercept the remnants of Ji Kitano, and then other soldiers also followed.

.....

On the other side, Qingyun City.

In the altar of the Heavenly Dao, Shao Lingfeng sat in the main hall, his face full of gloom.

He originally thought that this time Ji Beiye's army made a chain ship of iron cables, and could easily attack Qingyun City, and when Yue Feng and the little emperor fled in a hurry, he would have the opportunity to take advantage of it and be able to secretly ambush.

But as a result, he never expected that Yue Feng actually used fire to defeat Ji Beiye's army, and it only took less than an hour to control the overall situation.

Mader!

At this moment, Shao Lingfeng secretly scolded, and the more he thought about it, the more annoyed he became.

Why.. Why is this so?

The more excellent Yue Feng was, the more unbalanced he felt in his heart.

"Senior Brother Shao!"

At this moment, a disciple standing next to him asked cautiously: "That Yue Feng has guarded Qingyun City, I am afraid it will be difficult to arrest him, what should we do next?" Phew

Hearing the inquiry, Shao Lingfeng became more and more upset, took a deep breath at that time, and said coldly: "That little emperor will definitely put on a celebration banquet at night, and at that time, the defense of the entire palace will also weaken."

"You guys pick some elite disciples, sneak into the palace quietly, and find an opportunity to capture Yue Feng alive, you have to be careful, you know?"

When he said this, Shao Lingfeng's eyes flashed with madness.

Yue Feng, no matter how you are tonight, you will be unable to fly.

"Yes, Senior Brother Shao!"

The disciple understood in his heart, answered the sound, and hurried out to prepare.

.....

At this moment, this side of the city gate tower.

Call!

Yue Feng stood there, looking at the woods on the north bank of the river, and could faintly hear the shouts of killing, but secretly prayed in his heart, hoping that this time, he would be able to capture Ji Kitano alive.

As long as you catch Ji Beiye, you can know Haotian's whereabouts.

Shaoyang Wang and Ying Kuang, who were standing on the side, were also indescribably excited and excited at this time.

If Ji Kitano can be captured alive this time, he will be able to completely turn the situation around and restore the prosperous world.

However, they knew that it was impossible to capture Ji Beiye alive, after all, this person was cunning for many stages, otherwise, he would not have attacked the imperial capital in the first place.

Soon, an hour passed, and the pursuing Qingyun City water army returned.

Call!

Seeing that there was no Ji Beiye in the team, and there were no captured enemy troops, Yue Feng exhaled, feeling a little lost.

It's a pity, but in the end, Ji Kitano ran away.

Soon, more than a dozen generals returned to the city gate tower.

"How's the battle going?"

At this moment, King Shaoyang couldn't help but ask, "What about Ji Beiye?"

More than a dozen generals glanced at each other, and then explained the situation in detail: "Back to Wang Ye, we were pursuing hard at that time, but Ji Kitano was very cunning, and he actually burned the pontoon bridge...."

"Later, we made a detour to pursue, but the valley was densely wooded, and their whereabouts could not be found anymore."

After saying this, more than a dozen generals subconsciously lowered their heads, not daring to look at King Shaoyang.

Alas!

Knowing this situation, King Shaoyang couldn't help but sigh: "It's a pity."

At the same time, Ying Kuang's face could not hide the loss, and he said slowly: "This reverse thief, luck is not bad..."

Chapter 6679

Speaking, Ying Kuang said to more than a dozen generals: "Okay, I can see that you all tried your best." "

Poof!

Hearing this, more than a dozen generals knelt down and shouted: "Thank you Your Majesty for your leniency!" When he spoke, he secretly breathed a sigh of relief in his heart.

They were originally all wearing sinful bodies, originally thinking that they could capture Ji Kitano alive to make up for the merits, but as a result, Ji Kitano ran away, so they were very worried on the way back, and at this time, seeing that the little emperor had no intention of blame, the worry in his heart suddenly dissipated.

Well!

Ying Kuang nodded, although he did not capture Ji Kitano alive, he was still very happy to destroy the enemy army today.

At this time, Ying Kuang looked around and said with a smile: "Defeating the rebels today, Mr. Yue Feng has made great contributions, and the celebration banquet is set up in the evening, and the whole city celebrates!"

"Yes, Your Majesty!"

The other side.

Ji Kitano led the remnants of the team, evaded the pursuit of the Qingyun Water Army, and rushed south.

At this time, it was already late at night, the night was dark and the wind was high, Ji Kitano and his generals were not familiar with the terrain, and they were tired and sleepy walking, and they were exhausted at this time.

“Great General!”

At this moment, a general discovered something and said excitedly: “Halfway up the slope ahead, there seems to be a temple.” Ji Beiye’s spirit was shocked, and he quickly looked over, and sure enough, he saw that on the hillside in front of him, there was a faint building complex, which was a temple, but the black lights were blind inside, obviously no one was there, it should have been abandoned.

But even if the temple is broken, for Ji Kitano in this matter, it is undoubtedly a blessing in the snow.

Call!

At this moment, Ji Beiye took a deep breath and couldn’t hide his excitement: “Enter the temple in front to rest and guard the surroundings.”

“Yes, General!” The soldiers responded loudly, and then poured into the ruined temple.

The temple is very large, divided into the front hall and the apse, and tens of thousands of soldiers of Ji Kitano can easily accommodate it.

Soon, a bonfire was lit, and the soldiers killed their horses to fill their hunger, and after eating and drinking enough, some soldiers patrolled around and guarded, while others rested.

Call!

At this moment, Ji Kitano sat on the straw mat of the main hall, finished eating the horse meat, and prepared to lie down and rest. He thought about it, first return to Qizhou City to reorganize the army, rest and recuperate, and then attack Qingyun City.

“What man?”

“Stop!”

As a result, at this time, there was a burst of angry shouts from soldiers outside, and there was a commotion.

Hearing the movement, Ji Beiye immediately sat up in shock: “Is it the pursuers coming?”

Several generals around him looked at each other and were about to go out to check the situation, but a soldier walked in quickly, and said to Ji Beiye with a complicated expression: “Great general, it is the city lord of Qingyun City.” And his family...”

Swish!

Hearing this, Ji Beiye's face changed, and his heart rose with anger, Ma De, this bastard thing still dares to come? If it weren't for the strategy he gave, my hundreds of thousands of troops could be so miserable?

Thinking of this, Ji Beiye was even more angry, and said coldly: "Bring him in."

"Yes, General!"

The soldier answered, walked out quickly, and soon walked in with the city lord, followed by several guards.

At this moment, Ji Kitano gestured to the soldiers beside him, and several people immediately realized, walked over quickly, and pulled out his long sword and put it on the necks of several guards.

Swish!

Several guards did not react, and suddenly their bodies trembled with fright, and their faces were earth-colored.

The city lord's face also changed, and he smiled bitterly at Ji Beiye: "Great General, I rushed to join you overnight, why did you treat me like this?" When he spoke, the city lord was very aggrieved.

During the day, Ji Beiye's army was defeated, and the city owner knew that Qingyun City could not stay, and the conspiracy would be exposed sooner or later, so he hurriedly took his family and relatives to cross the river at night.

He knew that Ji Beiye would definitely return to Qizhou City, so he chased after him and finally caught up with this broken temple.

It's just that what the city owner didn't expect was that as soon as Ji Kitano saw him, he turned his face and moved.

"Shut up!"

Just as soon as the city lord spoke, Ji Beiye burst out: "You shameless villain, dare to unite with Yue Feng and calculate General Ben together?" How can I spare you?

Speaking, Ji Beiye pulled out his long sword and looked at the city lord and said coldly: "Lao Tzu's efforts for more than ten years have been ruined by you, and you still dare to take the initiative to see me?" "

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6680

Chapter 6680 –

What? I colluded with Yue Feng?

Hearing this, the city lord's heart was shocked, and he quickly shouted loudly: "Great General, we have formed an alliance, how can I harm you?" As he spoke, the city lord couldn't stop talking because he was afraid.

Hehe!

Ji Kitano sneered, not believing at all: "Won't hurt me?" Then I ask you, at that time in the big tent, you told me that this method came up with by yourself? Is it true or false? When he said this, Ji Kitano's eyes burst into flames.

This....

In the face of questioning, the city lord hesitated, and his face was a little embarrassed.

At that time, in his opinion, Yue Feng's method was extremely exquisite, so in front of Ji Beiye, he said that he had come up with it himself, and wanted to improve his status in Ji Beiye's heart.

But who would have thought that there was another fire attack behind Yue Feng....

Seeing him swallowing, Ji Beiye's face turned hideous: "Ma De, don't dare to answer me, you don't need to say that I can guess, this strategy was proposed by Yue Feng."

"You were just pretending to ally with me, and your ultimate goal was to destroy my hundreds of thousands of troops. You shameless villain, go and die. Whoosh

When the last word fell, Ji Kitano stopped talking nonsense, and the long sword cut a cold light, piercing straight to the heart of the city lord.

"Great General...."

Seeing Ji Beiye's long sword stabbing at him, the city lord's heart trembled, and his legs softened, and he couldn't help but shout: "I really didn't betray you, spare your life..."

While begging for mercy, the city lord wanted to dodge, but the two generals next to him pressed his shoulders tightly and couldn't move at all.

Poof...

In the next second, the long sword stabbed quickly, directly penetrating the heart pulse of the city lord, and the blood donation was sprayed out instantly.

The city lord's eyes widened, looking at Ji Beiye deadly, in addition to endless trepidation, there was also unwillingness..... He originally thought that he could return to Qizhou City with Ji Beiye, but he didn't expect anything, but he rushed over to send the head.

Poof!

Finally, the city lord swallowed his last breath and his body fell down with a bang.

Looking at his corpse, Ji Beiye's face was gloomy and terrifying.

Hiss!

And several guards who followed the city lord, seeing the city lord being killed, at this time, cold sweat broke out on their spine, and they couldn't help but gasp.

He's dead... The city lord is dead

Before they could react, Ji Beiye's eyes flashed with ferocity, and the long sword stabbed out again.

Poof, poof....

Several guards did not have time to react, and they collapsed in a pool of blood.

Ji Beiye dropped his long sword and said coldly: "Ma De, it's really cheap for you to kill you like this."

"Great General!"

As soon as the words fell, a general spoke: "There are still his family members outside, are they all killed?" "Like Ji Beiye, these generals also believe that the city lord secretly united with Yue Feng to lead to today's rout.

Call!

Ji Beiye took a deep breath and said slowly: "No, all put on iron chains and act as coolies in the army." "There are too many wounded soldiers, and if you want to return to Qizhou City quickly, it will definitely affect the itinerary, but with these coolies, the situation will be much better."

“Yes, General!”

At this time, inside Qingyun City.

It was already late at night, but the palace was still brightly lit.

Ying Kuang ordered a celebration banquet, and the defenders of the entire Qingyun City, as well as the generals of the water army, celebrated together in the main hall, which was very lively.

At the celebration banquet, Yue Feng naturally became the focus, after all, during the daytime battle, Yue Feng defeated Ji Beiye’s serial warship with fire, which was wonderful and had become the hero of the entire Qingyun City.

From the little emperor to the captain of the city guard, they all toasted Yue Feng.

Yue Feng was in a good mood, and the wine was dry, until the celebration banquet was almost over, there were already more than a dozen empty wine jars piled up in front of him, and the whole person was also a little fluttering.

However, Yue Feng is an invincible physique, and although he drank a lot, he also woke up quickly!

“Wang Ye!”

When the banquet was about to end, Yue Feng walked up to King Shaoyang and asked in a low voice, “Do you know if there is a fire lingzhi in the treasury of this palace?”
When asking, Yue Feng’s eyes showed expectation.

After defeating Ji Beiye’s army, Qingyun City was no longer a threat for the time being, and Yue Feng was ready to start dealing with Haotian next, but his strength was not completely recovered for a while.

Especially the power of the Faye Red Lotus is even more difficult to recover.
