Chapter 1511 On The Same Boat

“Mr. Chance, are you visiting us at the Dunn residence because you need something from us?” Lachlan knew Jared must have some instructions for the Dunn family when the latter visited them.

Jared nodded. “Old Mr. Dunn, I will be meeting Edgar at the martial arts arena tomorrow to get Renee back in exchange for returning Ryker to him. I’m worried that Edgar will break his promise. Hence, I need the Dunn family to spread this information. If many peers from the martial arts world are at the arena on the day of the exchange, I’m sure Ryker won’t have the courage to trick us in front of the crowd.”

“What? Renee was abducted by Edgar?” Howard was furious after hearing that.

“Leave this to me, Mr. Chance. I’ll be sure to handle it well.” Lachlan nodded.

“There’s one more thing that I need your help with. Tell the sects and prestigious families who once offended me to visit the Dunn residence and apologize to me. I’ll be awaiting their visit here at the Dunn residence today. Let them know that they only have one day to comply! If not, they shall bear the consequences of having their sects and families eliminated,” Jared declared with murderous intent.

A chill went down Lachlan’s spine when he sensed Jared’s murderous intent. However, he knew the latter was doing this as a show of support for the Dunn family.

Based on the current situation in Jadeborough’s martial arts world, the isolated Dunn family would eventually be wiped out by other sects and prestigious families.

Jared’s high-profile approach in handling the matter also served as a warning to those sects and prestigious families to stay away from the Dunn family.

Not long after, the news regarding Jared being alive and returning to Jadeborough spread like wildfire across the martial arts forum.

Moreover, Jared was also the black-robed man who eliminated thirteen sects and prestigious families previously.

Thus, this intimidated many sects and prestigious families who used to target Jared.

“Jared is too impressive. I can’t believe he massacred thirteen sects and prestigious families in one go.”

“There were people who thought the black-robed man was Gilbert. Who would’ve thought he was actually Jared?”

“Just wait and see. I’m sure there will be more sects and prestigious families in Jadeborough’s martial arts world that will be destroyed soon!”

Many sects and prestigious families prepared big gifts before visiting the Dunn residence to apologize to Jared.

After all, after seeing the tragedy that befell thirteen of their own previously, nobody dared to offend Jared anymore.

Meanwhile, at the Warriors Alliance, Edgar looked for Zion hurriedly.

“President Zeigler, Jared has moved the time for the exchange forward. Not only that, but he has also announced the venue to the public. Many people will definitely go to the martial arts arena tomorrow. What should we do?” Edgar asked frantically.

They initially planned to attack Jared at the martial arts arena. That way, even if someone found out about the situation and visited the arena, there wouldn’t be too large of a crowd.

However, since Jared had publicized the news, there might be a surge of people visiting the arena.

If they went ahead with their plan, the Warriors Alliance would be reprimanded by everyone in the martial arts world.

“Stick to our plan tomorrow. Now that things have developed to this point, killing Jared is the most crucial key to our success. As for the rumors and discussions, we can just suppress them with force in the future,” Zion responded.

Zion had already arranged for four Black Copper Robe experts, so there was no way he could change the plan at the last minute.

“What are the odds of assassinating Jared successfully?” asked Edgar.

Zion narrowed his eyes and said confidently, “I am a hundred percent sure we will succeed. There is no way he can escape with four Black Copper Robe experts attacking him. This time, I will watch him die with my own eyes.”

Edgar heaved a sigh of relief. Ever since he fought Jared and was beaten up by the latter, he was traumatized.

At that moment, Skylar walked in slowly and said, “Before we kill Jared, we must meet Mr. Sanders and have him instruct the authorities to punish Jared. This is to make sure the authorities will keep their mouths shut. After all, Jared did wipe out over ten of the sects and prestigious families. He shouldn’t have done it, regardless of the grudges he had with them.”

“Do you think Mr. Sanders will punish Jared when they’re good friends?” Zion questioned.

Chapter 1512 Pressure Arthur

“That’s right. If Mr. Sanders hasn’t been backing Jared, he would have died a long time ago,” uttered Edgar angrily as well.

“It’ll be even better if Mr. Sanders doesn’t get involved. If that’s the case, the Warriors Alliance can eradicate a public threat. When we finally execute Jared in front of everyone, the authorities won’t give us any problems,” said Skylar with a smile.

He guessed that Arthur would not do anything about Jared, and he most certainly would not punish the latter. As such, it was a good excuse for them.

“So, who’s going to tell Mr. Sanders?” asked Zion.

There was no way Zion would dare to. Every time he saw Arthur, he would tremble all over. He doubted he would be able to get a word out!

“As the President, of course, it’s you. But, you can gather the rest of the prestigious families and go together so as to pressure Arthur,” Skylar suggested.

“Me?” Zion was stunned.

“Why? Are you afraid?” There was a hint of mockery in Skylar’s eyes.

After a moment of hesitation, Zion denied through gritted teeth, “Of course not! Why would I be afraid?”

Zion had brought with him the persons in charge from more than ten prestigious families to the Department of Justice. They wanted to get an explanation from Arthur.

Xavier reported to Arthur, “Mr. Sanders, Jared isn’t dead. He’s the one who annihilated people from more than ten sects or prestigious families. Now, Zion has brought the people in charge before you to demand punishment for Jared!”

“Let them in,” said Arthur calmly.

Xavier nodded. Very soon, Zion and the others were brought in.

When they saw Arthur, all of them shivered in fear.

“Take a seat,” said Arthur.

However, none of them dared to do so. The overwhelming pressure they felt when they met Arthur was too much for them to handle. They could barely breathe!

Seeing that none of them were sitting down, Arthur asked, “All of you are here to see me. What’s the matter?”

Several of them dared not look Arthur in his eyes. When he spoke, many of them even looked down.

Zion, on the other hand, was looking at his congregation. Since no one dared to utter a word, he had no choice but to speak up.

“Mr. Sanders, Jared has destroyed over ten of the prestigious families in Warriors Alliance. Now, he’s provoked us in public. We hope that the authorities will punish Jared and give us justice.”

Zion mustered all the confidence he had. In truth, his heart was lodged in his throat.

“I’m aware of that issue!” Arthur nodded. “What else?”

Zion was taken aback before shaking his head. “N-Nothing else. We just want Jared to be executed. That’s all.”

“So, you brought so many people here just to tell me this?” inquired Arthur collectedly.

“Yes. They all hope that you can uphold justice.”

At that moment, Zion’s face was flushed, and his heart was pumping like crazy.

“All of you want the same thing?” asked Arthur as he swept his glance across the crowd before him.

Instead of answering him, they lowered their heads and held their breaths.

“Zion, I don’t think they agree with you...” said Arthur when the rest of the group remained silent.

Zion panicked and immediately called out to them, “Say something! Mr. Sanders is asking all of you. Didn’t we all agree on this before we came here?”

He was roaring at them furiously. Still, no one said anything. They just continued to keep their heads down.

Regardless of what Zion said, none of them supported him. Instantaneously, a cold sweat broke out on his forehead.

“Zion!” shouted Arthur.

“M-Mr. Sanders...”

Zion began to tremble because he knew that Arthur was infuriated.

“You brought so many people to the Department of Justice to pressure me. This is very audacious of you!”

Arthur’s voice turned cold before he waved his hand lightly.

A massive wave of energy rushed at Zion. Before he could react, he was sent flying before crashing to the ground with a heavy thud.

Chapter 1513 It Was A Guess

The rest of them shuddered when they saw what happened. Zion quickly got back up on his feet and bowed his head. He dared not utter another word in front of Arthur.

“All of you shall give yourselves ten slaps as a punishment. If you dare to go against the authorities again, I will show no mercy.”

When those people from the prestigious families heard that, they were scared out of their wits.

Without further hesitation, everyone began to slap themselves as hard as they could.

As for Zion, his body was shaking like a leaf.

During that period of time, the authorities, including Arthur, did nothing no matter what the Warriors Alliance had done.

Hence, it gave Zion the illusion that Arthur was wary of the power of the Warriors Alliance.

It was only right now that Zion realized they were nobodies as far as Arthur was concerned.

Once they had finished slapping themselves, Arthur said coldly, “Get lost. As for Jared, all of you can deal with him on your own...”

Zion immediately nodded before leaving with everyone else.

After Zion and the others left, Xavier eyed Arthur in puzzlement. “Mr. Sanders, aren’t you putting Jared in danger by allowing them free reign? Those fellows from the Warriors Alliance will surely find a way to get rid of Jared.”

Arthur smiled. “Jared is more powerful than I imagined. It appears that he becomes stronger when he is faced with more pressure. That’s why I need to pressure him.”

Although Xavier did not understand what Arthur meant, he did not feel he had the right to question the latter.

Once Zion was out of the Department of Justice, he patted his chest and caught his breath.

“I nearly lost my life just now. In the future, I won’t come here again,” mumbled Zion as he wiped his sweat away.

As for the rest of the people from the prestigious families, they were questioning Zion in anger.

Initially, Zion had rallied them to support him. He also assured them that everything would be fine.

Yet, right now, all of them had swollen cheeks. When they went back, people would certainly ridicule them.

When they returned to Warriors Alliance, Skylar asked Zion, “President Zeigler, what did Mr. Sanders say?”

“Nothing. If you all need to pressure the authorities again, the rest of you can do it yourself. I nearly lost my life at the Department of Justice!” Zion bellowed angrily.

When Skylar saw Zion’s attitude, he actually burst out in laughter. By the looks of it, he had known that was going to be the outcome!

“Did Mr. Sanders tell you that the Warriors Alliance can deal with the matter on our own?” asked Skylar.

Zion was startled. “How did you know that?”

“It’s a guess!” Skylar smiled and continued, “If Mr. Sanders wanted to get involved, he wouldn’t have allowed the martial arts world in Jadeborough to become a complete mess. I think Mr. Sanders is waiting for the mess in the martial arts world in Jadeborough to reach its peak before he rebuilds a new order.”

“What the f*ck! If you knew that, why did you let me go and look for Mr. Sanders? Did you do it deliberately? His slap nearly killed me!” Zion roared petulantly at Skylar when he heard that.

In truth, he dared not do anything to Skylar because Skylar was more powerful than him in the Warriors Alliance.

When Skylar saw the anger in Zion, he smiled. “Get ready to kill Jared. If you fail this time around, Tanner won’t let you off.”

At the mention of Tanner, Zion quivered all over, and his expression became grim. He quickly left the Warriors Alliance building and went to the martial arts arena to make the necessary arrangements. Everything had to be flawless.

After Zion left, Skylar sneered, “What an idiot! How did someone like him become the president?”

With that, he returned to his cultivation.

Chapter 1514 Apology

The following day, tens of thousands of people crowded the martial arts arena. Many people had heard of Jared’s unusual actions and went to watch the show.

For the first time in forever in the martial arts world, someone was exchanging hostages in the martial arts arena.

What surprised them the most was that Ryker, the head of the Deragon family, had been captured and held hostage.

Zion’s expression turned gloomy when he saw the sea of people at the scene.

“President Zeigler, are we still taking action later?” one of the Black Copper Robe warriors asked.

He was afraid that the reputation of the Warriors Alliance would be affected if they launched an attack in front of the crowd.

“Yes. As long as we kill Jared, any other matter will be easier to deal with,” Zion uttered through gritted teeth.

Soon, Edgar brought Renee to the martial arts arena and sat beside Zion.

“Jared has made such a great commotion, President Zeigler. I bet he’s afraid that the Warriors Alliance will make a move against him. When he arrives later, we have to seize the opportunity!” Edgar was afraid that Zion would give up on attacking Jared upon considering the number of people at the scene.

“Don’t worry. Jared will die today.” Zion’s eyes darkened as he spoke.

“That’s good then.” Edgar nodded.

Meanwhile, not far from the martial arts arena, The Villainous Four arrived with Ryker. Lachlan, too, had brought all the experts of the Dunn family with him.

Knowing that the Warriors Alliance would definitely not let Jared off once he made his appearance, they thought they could lend a hand if the Warriors Alliance disregarded their reputation and launched an attack against him.

“Mr. Chance, maybe you should leave it to us. We’ll go and exchange Ryker for Ms. Renee.” Oakley told Jared.

“There’s no need for that. If I don’t show up, that would only imply that I’m afraid of the Warriors Alliance. Look. There’re so many people here today. No matter how shameless they are, they will not attack me in front of the crowd.” Jared didn’t believe that the Warriors Alliance would be so shameless as to dare to play dirty in front of such a crowd.

It seems that Jared is overestimating the shamelessness of the Warriors Alliance.

“Haha! Mr. Chance, I can tell you that you are thinking too highly of those people in the Warriors Alliance.”

Amused laughter rang out just as Jared finished speaking.

It was Fernando walking over to them with Astrid.

Jared recognized Astrid but had never seen Fernando before. Hence, he was slightly taken aback the moment Fernando came into his sight as he could feel a majestic surge of spiritual energy in the latter.

A spiritual energy cultivator? Jared was slightly surprised as he had never expected the man would be one such cultivator.

Lachlan turned to Jared and made an introduction, “Mr. Chance, this is Fernando, the head of the Gunderson family.”

Jared frowned upon hearing that. This guy is obviously a spiritual energy cultivator, but his daughter, Astrid, is only a martial artist. How is this possible? What’s going on?

Although he was full of doubts, it wasn’t appropriate for him to ask such questions during this occasion, not to mention Fernando would not necessarily tell him.

“Lachlan, I’m sorry that my daughter sought trouble with the Dunns before. Please accept my apology. I’ve investigated and found that the person who did that kind of thing was indeed not Howard, so I’m still looking for the culprit,” Fernando apologized to Lachlan as he stepped forward.

“It’s just a misunderstanding, Mr. Gunderson. No apology necessary as long as things are cleared up,” Lachlan replied politely.

Astrid, on the other hand, looked at Howard apologetically.

Although the incident was a humiliation to her, it was fortunate that she had not lost her virginity.

Just then, Jared stepped forward and asked, “What did you mean by your earlier words, Mr. Gunderson?”

Chapter 1515 | Am Despicable

“Zion has set up an arcane array in the martial arts arena. He’s obviously doing this to deal with you. It seems that the Warriors Alliance is determined to take your life. They will make a move against you, even in front of so many people,” Fernando said.

Jared knitted his brows when he heard that. “Mr. Chance, you’d better not go. As long as we bring Ryker over, Edgar will not refuse to exchange hostages even if you don’t show up. We will bring Ms. Renee back safely,” suggested Oakley while looking at Jared.

Now that he knew the Warriors Alliance had set up an arcane array in the martial arts arena, there was no way he would let Jared make an appearance.

“I still have to go!” Jared’s eyes darkened. “Listen. If things really do go south later on, please bring Renee back to Medicine God Sect, and don’t worry about me. Even if I can’t defeat them, I’ll find a way to escape.”

Oakley wanted to convince Jared further, but the latter stopped him with a raised hand.

Left with no choice, the group walked toward the martial arts arena together with Jared.

Meanwhile, Edgar grew anxious upon seeing no sign of Jared in the martial arts arena.

Frowning, he said, “Jared is not afraid, is he? Or did he find out we want to deal with him and dare not come?”

“Impossible. Judging from Jared’s personality, I can tell he will show up even if he knows there’s an ambush waiting for him. Let’s wait patiently.” Zion was rather calm.

After everyone had waited for another ten minutes, Jared finally came into their sight.

“Look! It’s Jared,” someone shouted right after the man showed up.

The crowd turned to look in Jared’s direction. Behind him was Ryker, whom The Villainous Four were escorting.

It was evident that Ryker had been beaten. He appeared pretty disheveled at the moment and no longer exuded the vibe of the head of the Deragon family.

When Edgar saw Jared, a murderous intent instantly burst to life in his eyes.

Zion, on the other hand, narrowed his eyes. "You're finally here."

Jared entered the martial arts arena with Ryker and fixed a cold gaze on Edgar. "Edgar, I've brought your father here. Release Renee now, and I'll give you your father back."

"What a despicable person you are, Jared! How dare you make a move against my father? Listen well! The Deragon family will never spare you for this!" Edgar spat those ruthless words to keep their family's pride upon seeing Ryker had been beaten up badly.

Then, he waved a hand, gesturing for his subordinates to release Renee.

The woman rushed toward Jared. Her eyes were full of excitement as she spoke. "Thank goodness! I didn't expect you to be alive, Jared."

Tears began to stream down her face. She was delighted to know he was still alive.

"Now isn't the time to talk about this, Renee. Quick! Follow The Villainous Four and leave here immediately," Jared whispered.

Not knowing what was happening, Renee obediently scurried toward The Villainous Four. Under Jared's stern gaze, The Villainous Four could only leave the place with her.

"Jared, I already let the woman go. Why haven't you released my father yet?" Edgar questioned coldly.

"Don't worry. I'll definitely release your father, but not now. You see, I never expected the Deragon family and Warriors Alliance to be so despicable and shameless. You guys even laid an arcane array in this martial arts arena to capture me. Too bad for you, I won't give you that chance. Let your father escort me out of Jadeborough first, and I'll naturally release him after that." Jared flashed a cold smile as he held onto Ryker with one of his hands.

"You're despicable and shameless, Jared!" Edgar yelled, infuriated.

“Yeah. I’m despicable. Anyone who dares to offend me shall pay the price with their lives and their family’s.” Jared didn’t care about Edgar’s insults and prepared to make his way to the exit with Ryker.

Seeing that, Zion immediately ordered the four Black Copper Robe warriors, “Now!”

In an instant, the four Black Copper Robe warriors leaped up and surrounded Jared.

Chapter 1516 Teleportation Device

“Be careful. My father’s there!” Edgar warned. Jared stared at the four Black Copper Robe warriors before him and frowned. “Four middle-phased Martial Arts Marquis fighters. This really shows how serious the Warriors Alliance is about killing me...”

The four Black Copper Robe warriors surrounded him. He had no way out. “Jared Chance, surrender now or suffer the consequences!”

Their terrifying auras sent a chill down everyone’s spine. Jared’s face darkened as he wrapped one arm tightly around Ryker. He knew Ryker was the only reason the warriors were hesitant to strike. This is my chance to escape.

Jared slowly reached for his Necro Ring. He planned to use the Necro Ring’s teleportation magecraft to escape.

Even though he had a fighting chance against the four Martial Arts Marquis, he decided against it because he was worried that the Warriors Alliance might send them back up, seeing as they were at Jadeborough.

“I have Ryker with me here. Are you sure you want to fight me?” Jared stared at the Black Copper Robe warriors coldly and asked.

“Haha. So what if you kill him? Our mission is to kill you. We don’t care whether he’s dead or alive.”

One of the Black Copper Robe warriors broke out into laughter.

All these people cared about was completing the mission, and they weren't about to make an exception for Ryker.

Ryker's expression darkened at those words as he felt he was being disrespected.

Edgar, in turn, spun around to face Zion. "President Zeigler, what is the meaning of this?"

"Don't worry, Mr. Edgar. They don't mean it. I assure you, Mr. Ryker will be fine."

Zion comforted Edgar when, in reality, he held no power over those four Black Copper Robe warriors.

"All right. I'll kill him since he is of no use to me."

With that, Jared aimed a palm strike at Ryker.

One of the Black Copper Robe warriors immediately aimed a punch at Jared, while another dashed forward to snag Ryker in the nick of time.

Jared never intended to kill Ryker. He was merely using the latter as bait to distract the Black Copper Robe warriors.

Seizing the opportunity, he threw the Necro Ring into the air. A black hole immediately appeared in midair.

However, just as Jared was about to escape through the black hole, a golden beam flickered, and a glowing magical item floating in midair came into sight.

Not only did the bright, magical item illuminate the entire martial arts arena, but it also blocked Jared's escape route.

The black hole disappeared, and the Necro Ring fell to the ground.

"Hahaha, we saw this coming, so we prepared for it!" Zion uttered with a guffaw.

Meanwhile, Fernando, who was among the crowd, couldn't help but gasp in awe when he saw the magical item floating in midair. "Who would have thought that the Warriors Alliance has a teleportation device up their sleeve?"

“Dad, what is a teleportation device?” Astrid asked out of curiosity.

“You’ll understand in the future. It looks like Jared is in deep trouble now...”
Fernando said as he kept his eyes peeled on the martial arts arena.

Jared immediately pulled out his Dragonslayer Sword as soon as he realized his escape route had been cut off. At the same time, he started to glow as the Golem’s Body covered his entire body.

“Let’s see how strong your arcane array is.”

With that, Jared swung his Dragonslayer Sword in the air toward the magical item.

The sharp sword’s energy slashed through the air.

However, the sword’s energy vanished just before it came into contact with the magical item.

Jared frowned. He swung his sword at the magical item again, but the sword energy vanished once more without a trace. He couldn’t break away from the arcane array when his sword couldn’t even reach the magical item.

Zion’s lips curled into a smile at the scene.

“Stop wasting your energy. This is a teleportation device. Your sword energy didn’t vanish. It was merely teleported to another dimension.”

Just then, a voice whispered in Jared’s ear.

Chapter 1517 Assault On The Spiritual Sense

Jared was stunned as he could tell that the voice belonged to Fernando. He looked down and found Fernando standing a few hundred meters away, staring right up at him.

He didn’t understand why Fernando was telling him all this, nor did he have the time to figure out why he did it.

“Brat, aren’t you a bad*ss? Why can’t you break away from the arcane array?” one of the Black Copper Robe warriors mocked.

Jared narrowed his eyes and tightened his grip on the Dragonslayer Sword. He knew that it was going to be a fierce battle.

“Release!” In the next moment, a thunderous boom rang in Jared’s ears. The martial arts arena started to quake, and the space became distorted.

Jared looked around and noticed that the people around him had started to disappear. Eventually, only he and his enemies were left in the martial arts arena.

He knew that the crowd had not disappeared. Instead, he and his enemies were merely teleported to another dimension.

On the other hand, the audience was watching the battle between Jared and the four Black Copper Robe warriors from a different dimension. It was as though a screen projector was projecting their images in mid-air.

“Go to hell!” the four Black Copper Robe warriors shouted in unison.

Deafening sounds from every direction surrounded Jared. The next thing he knew, he almost lost consciousness.

“Attack on the spiritual sense...”

Jared’s face paled as his mind was flooded with a ray of white light. He never expected them to make that move. They quickly followed up with an attack on Jared’s mental energy while he was panicking.

That was because the mental energy would be at its weakest during a state of panic and could easily be crushed.

The four Black Copper Robe warriors launched their attacks while Jared was still in a daze, hitting him with four light rays.

The powerful force instantly sent Jared flying. However, after a few hundred meters, Jared’s body collided with an invisible force that knocked him back to earth.

He pulled himself up and took in his surroundings but saw nothing in front of him. However, an invisible shield suddenly appeared out of nowhere when Jared reached out into the vast nothingness.

“You won’t be able to break away from this space unless one of us dies, so don’t even think of running away. Come at us with everything you’ve got!”

With that, one of the Black Copper Robe warriors waved his arms in the air, and his black sleeves rushed toward Jared as if they were spirit snakes.

His other three comrades immediately followed suit. The next moment, Jared was restrained by their sleeves.

His body was dragged back into the air as the four Black Copper Robe warriors applied force.

Jared’s face clouded over as his body shimmered with golden light. In an instant, the Power of Dragons within him intensified as he tried to break free.

However, their sleeves were made of extremely tough material. No matter how hard Jared struggled to escape their grasp, all he was doing was tiring himself out.

“Mr. Chance...”

Lachlan frowned when he saw that Jared was being restrained. He was about to rush out to rescue him.

Howard and the Dunn family’s elites also stood up, ready to jump in at any moment.

They wanted to rescue Jared.

After all, the Dunn family wouldn’t have made it if it wasn’t for Jared. They owed it to him. Hence, Lachlan couldn’t stay still anymore as he couldn’t bear to watch Jared die in front of his eyes.

It was important for the Dunn family to return the favor. Otherwise, they would never be able to hold their heads high again in the martial arts world of Jadeborough.

Fernando stopped Lachlan from making a rash move. “Lachlan, calm down. You won’t be able to rescue Jared by rushing over blindly. The barrier will crush you and your family before you can even lay eyes on him. It's not over yet. Jared won't be defeated so easily."

Chapter 1518 A Mind Of Its Own

At that, Lachlan sat back down while keeping his eyes glued to the martial arts arena.

On the other hand, Zion's lips curled into a smile when he saw that Jared was being restrained. "The Black Copper Robe warriors are indeed strong. They managed to take Jared down in such a short time. Jared, it looks like you're dead meat now!"

"Jared won't be defeated so easily. This is just the beginning."

However, Edgar wasn't as optimistic about it as Zion since he knew how strong Jared was after having crossed swords with him.

"Hmph. Let's wait and see then." Zion gave Edgar a look and smiled.

Back on the battlefield, Jared tried to cut himself free from their sleeves using his Dragonslayer Sword, but to no avail. He couldn't move as both his hands were held in a vice-like grip.

"Hmph. How did you even stir up so much trouble in the martial arts world with such paltry skills?" one of the Black Copper Robe warriors sneered as he watched Jared in disdain.

"Stop wasting time with him. Let's just kill him and complete our mission."

With that, a Black Copper Robe warrior pulled out his blade and stabbed at Jared with all his might.

Jared could only unleash the full power of his Golem Body as he had no way to escape.

His body shone as brightly as the sun as he was enveloped in golden light.

He even activated the Power of Dragons to shield himself as he had to face the attack head-on.

After all, he was up against a middle-phase Martial Arts Marquis. He shouldn't take them lightly as they were on the same level as Edgar or even better.

Clang!

The blade left a white mark on Jared's body, but he wasn't harmed in any way.

On the contrary, the Black Copper Robe warrior's arm went numb from the impact, and his blade broke into pieces.

"Damn it! This brat's body is too strong!"

The Black Copper Robe warrior, whose arm had gone numb from the impact, cursed.

"Let's attack together. Don't give him any chances," another Black Copper Robe warrior said coldly.

The rest of them didn't say anything further as they launched their attacks in unison.

Jared frowned. He wouldn't be able to withstand their attacks even with the Golem Body if they were to attack all at once.

Nevertheless, he couldn't break free from their vice-like grip no matter how hard he struggled.

At that moment, the Dragonslayer Sword in his hand started to shake.

Jared let go and allowed the Dragonslayer Sword to fly out of his hands.

However, he noticed that the Dragonslayer Sword wasn't under his control. It was as if it had a mind of its own.

Could it be that the sword spirit has formed?

Jared was overjoyed at the thought.

The Dragonslayer Sword flew up into the sky. Moments later, a bright light glowed, and a terrifying sword energy descended from the sky.

The aura that emanated from the sword energy came from the Dragonslayer Sword itself.

The four Black Copper Robe warriors were taken aback as they stared at the Dragonslayer Sword in disbelief.

In the blink of an eye, the terrifying sword energy freed Jared from their restraints. At the same time, the Dragonslayer Sword began plummeting to the ground, spent.

Jared waved his arm as soon as he was freed and caught the Dragonslayer Sword. He then infused the Power of Dragons into the weapon.

The sword started to glow brightly after being infused with the Power of Dragons. The sound of the weapon humming reverberated through the entire martial arts arena.

“The first technique of Nine Shadows!”

Jared swung his hand and made the first Nine Shadows move.

A horrifying light shone from the blade, and the space around them became distorted.

“Hmph. How dare you retaliate!”

His opponents sneered as they activated their magecraft. A ray of light shot out from the teleportation device hanging in midair.

Immediately, Jared’s horrifying light disappeared as it was swallowed by the light coming from the teleportation device.

Chapter 1519 Space Revert

Jared frowned. He knew that the light from his sword hadn’t disappeared. It was merely teleported to a different dimension.

“Space Revert!” one of the Black Copper Robe warriors bellowed.

The four of them then reached out to grab the teleportation device.

The teleportation device began to spin and suddenly changed directions. It was as if a magnetic force was driving it.

The space around them started moving, and the audience appeared moments later.

However, Jared and the four Black Copper Robe warriors were nowhere to be found in the martial arts arena.

It was as if they had switched spaces.

The teleportation device started to quake before it unleashed wave after wave of powerful aura.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

The razor-edged lights were aimed at Jared.

“Sh*t!”

Jared couldn't help but curse as his face paled upon realizing he was under attack. He quickly waved his arm to form a shield and unleashed his Golem Body in full force.

The familiar aura of light soon reached Jared.

It was the light that shone from his Dragonslayer Sword earlier. Who would have thought that his attacks would come back to haunt him?

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Jared's shield instantly shattered as the blade-like lights landed on it. He had to take cover as the lights came pelting down on him.

The scales on Jared's body started falling off as the terrifying force destroyed his Golem Body.

Jared was blasted away by the impact and landed heavily on the ground.

Even though he wasn't hurt, he had lost the upper hand since his Golem Body had been destroyed.

“That magical item is downright terrifying...”

Jared's face clouded over as he stared at the magical item hanging in midair.

"Hahaha. How does it feel to be defeated by your own tricks?"

One of the Black Copper Robe warriors burst into laughter.

Jared furrowed his brows and kept quiet as he tried to devise a way to break through.

He was worried he might dig his own grave if this carried on.

Meanwhile, Lachlan panicked as his view of Jared was obscured.

"Dad, do you think Jared will be fine?" Astrid turned to Fernando and asked.

Fernando's face darkened as he stared at the empty martial arts arena.

"I don't know. The odds are against him. The teleportation device is too strong. We'll have to leave it to fate now," he replied.

"Please think of a way to help him! The Warriors Alliance are bad people," Astrid begged.

Fernando glared at Astrid fiercely. "Have you forgotten what I've told you? We, the Gundersons, are not allowed to participate in any conflicts or get involved in any organizations. We mind our own business..."

Astrid didn't say anything more, fearing that she might make her father angrier.

On the other hand, Jared stared warily at the four Black Copper Robe warriors. He had to think twice before launching another attack since he was always on the receiving end of his own attacks.

"What happened? Aren't you going to attack? If you're not attacking, then we are..."

With that, the four Black Copper Robe warriors rushed toward Jared.

Jared quickly raised his sword and swung it at his opponents.

However, it was as if they weren't trying to attack Jared as they dodged aside the moment he swung his sword at them.

Then, the teleportation device emitted a light that swallowed Jared's attack.

"Space Revert!"

The four of them used the same trick on Jared. The space around them started to move, and moments later, a terrifying light flew toward Jared.

Jared's Golem Body shattered into pieces and disappeared into thin air as he tried to block the attack.

He was so shaken up by the impact that he started spewing blood.

Chapter 1520 Pure Strength

The four Black Copper Robe warriors burst into laughter at Jared's graceless movements.

Jared glared at them helplessly. Unfortunately, he had no clue how to deal with the teleportation device.

He couldn't destroy it, as it'd devour every kind of magecraft used to counter it.

There was no way he'd defeat the four Black Copper Robe warriors as long as the teleportation device existed.

He was at a dead end when a familiar whisper reached his ears again. "This teleportation device may be able to devour all kinds of magecraft, but it can't do the same to a physical body and pure strength, understand?"

Jared froze as his eyes gleamed in understanding.

Since the teleportation device only targeted magecraft executed with spiritual energy, it could not devour physical bodies nor transport people to other spaces in time. As long as one relied on their physical strength, they would be immune to the effects of the teleportation device.

Jared threw Fernando a grateful glance and proceeded to sheath the Dragonslayer Sword, thereby withdrawing the Power of Dragons back into himself.

He would rely on his body's strength to destroy the teleportation device. That was the only way he and the four Black Copper Robe warriors could fight on equal ground.

Jared's physique had improved by leaps and bounds after reaching the Third Level Nascent Soul.

Even without the reinforcement of the Golem Body, his physical strength was still formidable.

The four Black Copper Robe warriors were stunned at the sight of Jared sheathing his Dragonslayer Sword. Even his aura had diminished.

"Has the brat figured out the secret behind defeating the teleportation device?" one Black Copper Robe fighter muttered under his breath.

"Never mind that! Let's focus on getting rid of him. Don't let him get near the magical item!"

With that, one of the Black Copper Robe warriors threw his fist at Jared confidently.

Without the protection of his Golem Body and aura, Jared was as vulnerable as any ordinary person.

Dashing in front of Jared, the Black Copper Robe warrior slammed a devastating blow on him.

Jared was blasted away by the impact and landed heavily on the ground.

He unsteadily dragged himself to his feet and stared at his body as his expression hardened.

The Black Copper Robe gawked at Jared. He hadn't expected Jared's physical body to have survived this blow intact.

However, Jared's attention was trained on the teleportation device suspended in mid-air instead of the four men.

They realized what Jared was up to and howled, "You won't get the chance, brat!"

The four Black Copper Robe warriors simultaneously began using magecraft, which caused beams of light to shoot toward Jared.

A spirit was known to inhabit the body of a Black Copper Robe warrior. This meant that they were well-versed in many techniques of magecraft.

An overwhelming wave of magecraft attacks swarmed toward Jared.

Each strike of magecraft was like a blow of lightning hitting Jared.

Jared's physical body was left to endure the assault in the absence of the Golem Body.

Jared dodged the strikes while advancing closer to the teleportation device.

His progress was deterred by the relentless strikes of magecraft that rained down on him. Even taking a single step forward was an ordeal in itself.

Jared felt as if his body was being burnt in a furnace.

Wounds that oozed blood started opening up all over his body.

Each and every audience member in the martial arts arena was astounded at the scene before them.

They could not comprehend Jared's immense willpower that compelled him to persevere.

Even a man made of steel would bend in the face of such a terrible onslaught!

They couldn't help but be in awe of Jared's superb physique.

"D*mn it! This fellow's physique is far too tough! He'll surely cause trouble in the future if we don't eliminate him once and for all today..."

Zion took in Jared's inhuman strength and felt his blood run cold.
