

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2101

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2101-“I don’t care who Jared is. Since that fellow dares to ruin Crafting Clan, there’s no way I will sit by and do nothing. By the looks of the two of you, I bet you’ve lost all your internal energy. Stay here and get some rest first!”

With that, Yosef waved his palm, and a statue in the main hall glowed faintly. Then, waves of energy visible to the human eye entered Pascal and Sherman’s bodies endlessly.

The two felt their bodies extremely relaxed, and their power returned to its peak in a flash.

“Yosef, what’s this?” Pascal asked in bewilderment.

“This is faith energy in the purest form. Those worshippers you all saw traveled miles and went through all kinds of hardships to come here. Only with such faith can the purest form of faith energy be produced! It’s a hundred times more powerful than the resource you use. With my faith energy, I can easily create a twenty-odd-year-old Martial Arts Saint!” Yosef said smugly.

Pascal and Sherman were beyond astounded when they heard those words.

“So, Yosef, what cultivation level are you at now?” Pascal questioned.

“Top Level Martial Arts Saint... Well, it won’t take too long, though. After I absorb this faith energy, I’ll probably be able to break through Martial Arts Saint level... So what if Jared is a member of a reclusive family? When I break through the Martial Arts Saint level, there’ll be nothing he can do.”

Even though Yosef’s tone was flat, it could not entirely conceal the excitement and disdain he had deep in his heart.

“B-Break... through Martial Arts Saint? Then won’t you become Martial Arts God? A Martial Arts God is no different from a divine being. You will be known for centuries...” Sherman looked at Yosef in disbelief.

“Haha! Martial Arts God is nothing. People like me, who have nothing against the world and are wholeheartedly dedicated to doing cultivation, are all striving to become immortals.” Yosef chortled.

As much as he said so, he was still thrilled after hearing Sherman's words.

"Yosef, with you around, I'm sure we'll be able to seek revenge..." Pascal's face was plastered with excitement as he spoke.

"Don't worry... Hahaha!"

Yosef's laughter reverberated through the entire Kusch Monastery.

...

Meanwhile, Jared, along with Josephine and the others, finally found the spot where the flickering red dot was after tracing the route according to the map in Wordless Tome.

They were led to a waterfall. The point where the red dot was flickering was right behind the waterfall.

"Could it be that the exit is right behind this waterfall?" Renee lifted her head and stared at the towering waterfall before them.

"Perhaps it's not an exit but something else?" Josephine suggested.

"What can it be if it isn't an exit?" Renee was puzzled.

"What if it's a treasure?" Josephine chuckled.

"Treasure?" Renee widened her eyes in astonishment. But before long, she shook her head and continued, "How is it possible that there's treasure here? As you said, this is the secret realm of Evil Heart Sect. They must've already conducted a thorough check. There's no way they didn't notice it if there's a treasure here!"

"We'll find out after I go and check it out. You guys stay here and wait..."

Finishing his words, Jared leaped into the air and passed through that waterfall.

On the cliff behind that waterfall, there was an enormous cave entrance. It was, unfortunately, blocked by the waterfall and thus not visible from the outside.

With Wordless Tome in his grip, Jared slowly walked toward the cave entrance.

As he moved closer to the cave, he spotted two words engraved at the top of the entrance—Boundless Cave.

Near the cave entrance, there were evident excavation marks, as well as signs of human activities.

This is enough to prove that someone lived here before. And someone must've stayed in this secret realm! But why is it so lifeless now? There's not even a soul around. Could it be that Evil Heart Sect killed everyone here after conquering this secret realm?

As Jared continued moving deeper into the cave, the interior became increasingly dark. He could only hold his hands out, and as he did so, a ball of pale blue-colored spiritual fire was ignited, illuminating the whole cave.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2102

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2102-When Jared reached the end of the cave, he realized that the entire place was huge, almost like a main hall. Inside housed many sculptures that were notably ancient-looking and covered with dust.

Observing his surroundings, Jared did not notice anything peculiar. Other than those sculptures, there were seemingly carvings on the stone walls around the cave, except that they could not be seen clearly.

Dejected, Jared retreated backward. He initially thought that place, if not an exit, would most likely be an ancient ruin or something similar. After all, it was what Wordless Tome had indicated.

Yet now, there was nothing. It was no doubt why Jared would be overwhelmed by disappointment.

When Jared returned to the entrance, he found that Josephine and the rest had made their way in too.

“Didn't I ask the three of you to wait outside? Why are you in here? What if you run into danger?” Jared reprimanded the three of them.

“It’s exactly because we’re worried that you’ll be in danger that we came in...” Josephine explained.

Josephine’s response left Jared bereft of words.

“Jared, did you find anything valuable inside?” Renee inquired as she gazed at the pitch-black cave.

“Nothing. There’s nothing else other than some useless sculptures!” Jared shook his head in disappointment.

“Let’s go in and take a look...” Melanie’s curiosity was piqued.

“There’s nothing at all. What’s there worth looking at?” Jared was unwilling to head back inside again.

“I’d like to go in and take a look too! Jared, let’s go in again, shall we?” Renee grabbed Jared’s arm and asked coquettishly.

At that, Jared could only nod and reply in exasperation, “All right...”

In no time, the group of four advanced into the cave again.

“So, this place is called Boundless Cave? What a lame name...” remarked Renee while glancing at the engraving on the cave ceiling.

Melanie directed her gaze toward the cave ceiling as well, but as soon as she did, she immediately lowered her head and looked away, and following that, her face turned bright red.

Nevertheless, no one noticed the change in expression on Melanie’s face.

Jared was in front, using spiritual fire to lead the way.

Behind him was Josephine, who gradually felt herself getting warmer. Beads of sweat trickled down her forehead continuously.

And next to her was Renee. Contrastingly, her whole body was trembling slightly as if it was freezing inside the cave.

Following behind everyone else, Melanie was biting her lips tightly while her face had reddened drastically, almost as though she had seen something unsightly.

Jared, who was in the lead, seemingly did not notice that something was off with the three ladies behind him.

Making his way to the end of the cave, he waved his hand dismissively and uttered, "Look, there's nothing in here except these broken sculptures, right? I didn't lie, but you all are adamant about coming in to have a look. Now, go ahead and look around however you like!"

Upon saying so, he was about to look for a spot to sit down and get some rest when he suddenly realized that the three ladies were acting somewhat strange.

"What's wrong, Josephine?" Jared rushed forward at the sight of Josephine perspiring profusely.

"I'm fine. It's just that I feel very hot all of a sudden. Why is it so hot in here?"

Josephine kept wiping away the sweat on her forehead.

"Is it that hot?" Baffled, Jared reached his hand out and gently touched Josephine's forehead.

That touch, nonetheless, was so scalding that Jared shrank away instinctively.

It was worth noting that Jared's physical body was outstandingly strong. He could stand in molten lava and feel nothing at all.

Strangely enough, he could feel the burning sensation when he lightly touched Josephine's forehead a moment ago.

On the other hand, Renee was quivering violently, so much so that she curled herself up into a ball. "It's so cold... It's so cold in here..."

A thin layer of frost had formed on her hair and eyebrows.

"Renee..."

Witnessing that scene, Jared hastily removed his shirt and draped it over Renee.

"Jared, it's too cold in here..." Renee leaned forward and grabbed him.

As the two came into contact, Jared felt a ripple of bone-chilling iciness entering his body.

Intense shock inundated Jared, and he hurriedly shoved Renee aside.

It was clear he was rattled by the situation at that point. What's wrong with Josephine and Renee? Could it be that there's something off with this cave?

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2103

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2103-As he shifted his gaze to Melanie, he observed her face turning red and noticed that she was biting her lip so hard that it started to bleed!

Her tightly clenched fists dug deep into her flesh as her eyes flashed seductively.

“Melanie? Are you all right, Melanie?” Jared got up, grabbed her hand, and shook it.

Melanie's eyes locked onto Jared's as he approached, and she greeted him with a seductive gaze before pulling him into a tight embrace, her desire for intimacy with him palpable.

Jared was taken aback when Melanie threw herself at him, but then he noticed the stone wall behind her was adorned with murals depicting explicit male-female intimacy—all of which were strikingly graphic.

Even someone as calm and composed as Jared could not help but feel the heat rising in his lower abdomen as he gazed at the images.

The scent of Melanie's body, which kept wafting into Jared's nostrils, further fueled his desire.

At that point, Jared's eyes had also turned red, and his primitive instinct was slowly getting the better of him.

After succumbing to Melanie's seduction, he began undressing her with his two hands.

Just when he was about to take the next step, a radiant beam suddenly flashed through his mind, causing a sharp pain in his brain.

As soon as Jared came to his senses, he looked at Melanie and immediately helped her put her clothes back on.

It took him a short while to calm down after reciting the calming incantation.

However, after taking a glance at Josephine and the rest of the girls, he could not help but knit his brows.

“Let’s go, Josephine. We must get out of here as soon as possible,” Jared uttered loudly.

Yet, Josephine appeared to be in unbearable agony. It was as if she could not hear anything anymore.

Jared’s attention shifted to Renee, and he realized a layer of frost had immobilized her entire body, leaving only her eyes free to move.

Exploded in rage, Jared roared. A golden light emanated from his hands as he swung them toward the stone walls.

He knew all these were works of this strange cave!

Boom!

Boom!

A deafening noise reverberated through the cave. Despite Jared’s powerful punches, the walls remained unscathed.

Even the statues in the cave remained intact and showed no sign of damage at all!

Jared could not believe his eyes. With his ability, destroying a mountain to me was just a piece of cake, let alone a cave.

Yet, despite his immense strength, the cave remained impervious to his punches.

Jared pummeled the walls with countless blows until he was left panting heavily and had no choice but to stop.

Yet, the cave remained as solid as ever without any slightest change!

“How? How is it possible?” Jared looked bewildered.

He struggled to comprehend why his immense strength was unable to shatter the cave.

Jared felt powerless as he gazed upon Josephine and the others.

He sat on the ground, trying to calm himself down. There was nothing in the cave, except for a few dusty statues. Could the problem lie with the statues?

Jared began to examine the statues closely. Somehow, he felt something was amiss with the one in the middle.

The statue’s right hand extended forward in an open gesture, and its gaze was fixed upon it.

Jared circled the statue and continued scrutinizing it.

“The statue should be holding something in its hand,” he muttered while staring at it.

Just as Jared was looking at it, Wordless Tome he was carrying jolted all of a sudden!

The book began to glow. It then flew up and landed right on the right hand of the statue.

Wordless Tome which was originally devoid of a single word on its pages, was suddenly inundated with densely packed words when it got in contact with the statue’s hand.

Jared’s jaw dropped, and his eyes widened in disbelief.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2104

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2104-Jared was puzzled how Wordless Tome, which was empty not long ago, became filled with words the moment it landed in the statue’s hand. Does that mean the book belongs to this statue?

Looking at the glowing Wordless Tome, Jared was eager to find out what was written on the pages, so he took it down from the statue’s hand.

As soon as he took it down, the words on it disappeared all of a sudden!

In response, he quickly put the book in the statue's hand, the pages became filled with densely packed words just as before again.

Jared had no choice but to lean against the statue to study the contents in the book.

While Jared was checking out the words in the book, his body emitted a faint light. A vague specter gradually slipped into the statue without him realizing it.

Yet, he was so absorbed in the book that he failed to notice the changes in his surroundings.

As he finished reading a page and prepared to turn to the next, the previous page vanished in the blink of an eye!

Jared was taken aback for a moment, but before he could react, Wordless Tome began to turn transparent, as if it could disappear at any moment!

Panicked, he immediately focused his attention on the book, darting his eyes rapidly through the pages.

As he was busy memorizing the contents of the book, an image of Wordless Tome began to take shape in his mind.

While Jared was completely engrossed in reading the book, transparent specters gradually drifted out of the body of Josephine and the other girls. The statue promptly absorbed the specters once they departed their body.

After absorbing the specters, the statue shimmered with a faint glow that eventually dissipated in seconds.

As the specters left their body, Josephine and the others regained their consciousness. The strange sensations they experienced in their body also vanished without a trace.

"Josephine..." Renee let out a long breath before running toward Josephine.

"Are you all right, Renee?" Josephine asked.

"I'm fine." Renee shook her head.

The two girls turned towards Melanie and observed that she, too, had reverted back to her normal state.

“Melanie, why are your clothes so messy?” Renee was surprised to see how disheveled she looked. It was as if someone had stripped her down not long ago.

“I have no idea either...” Melanie replied while tidying her clothes.

“This cave is truly peculiar. The moment I walked in, I felt like stepping into a massive furnace and was surrounded by flames,” Josephine remarked with a slight frown.

“Yeah, me too. I felt as if I’d entered an ice cave filled with frost. The intense chill was utterly terrifying,” Renee added.

“How about you, Melanie? What did you experience when you entered the cave?” Josephine turned to Melanie and inquired.

“I...” Melanie opened her mouth, but words caught in her throat.

She could not bring herself to describe the lewd and embarrassing scenes she had seen.

Upon noticing her blushed face and hesitation to speak, Josephine seemed to have an inkling of what Melanie had experienced.

“It seems that the strangeness of the cave is connected to our individual physiques. Renee saw frost and felt cold because of her frosty constituent, and since I have a fiery constituent, I witnessed flames and felt hot,” Josephine deduced carefully.

“What about Melanie? Given her natural aptitude to bewitch, what did she see? Could it be...” Renee trailed off, looking at Melanie in shock.

Josephine also cast an inquisitive glance at Melanie, eager to confirm her hypothesis.

With Josephine and Renee’s gaze fixed upon her, Melanie could only blush and bob her head in response. “What I experienced after entering the cave was actually what you thought of...”

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2105

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2105-“Really? Wow... That must’ve felt amazing, huh? You sure are lucky, Melanie! Now I see why your clothes are all messy! I nearly froze to death, and Josephine nearly died of heatstroke. You, on the other hand, had the best time of your life...” Renee exclaimed in surprise and disbelief.

“What are you saying, Renee?” Melanie shot her a fierce glare with her face all red.

“Huh? Where’s Jared?” Renee asked when she noticed that Jared was nowhere in sight.

Josephine and Melanie glanced about when they heard that, but they didn’t notice him anywhere.

Meanwhile, Jared was standing in between two statues while staring at Wordless Tome.

Because he was standing perfectly still like the statues next to him, the ladies did not notice him standing there.

A few moments later, Wordless Tome disappeared completely and reappeared inside Jared’s mind.

Feeling a little dizzy, Jared shook his head and let out a huge sigh before slumping to the ground.

Such high-level feats of memory were as exhausting as fighting a tough battle.

Having spotted Jared, Josephine ran up to him and asked, “Are you all right, Jared?”

“Josephine? Renee? Melanie? Are you all okay?” Jared asked in surprise when he saw that the three of them had returned to normal.

“Yeah, we’re fine now. How about you? How are you feeling?” Josephine asked worriedly.

“I’m feeling just fine...” Jared replied with a smile as he got back on his feet.

“Now that we’re all okay, I say we get out of here as soon as possible. This place is giving me the creeps!”

Renee was starting to get scared of the phenomenon that happened to all three of them in the cave.

Jared nodded and led the three of them out of the cave.

If the cave was not the exit and didn’t contain any treasures, then there must be another exit in this secret realm!

With that in mind, Josephine suggested, “Hey, Jared! Why don’t you check Wordless Tome and see if there are any other hints?”

“Wordless Tome is gone...” Jared said and proceeded to explain what happened inside that cave.

“What was written inside Wordless Tome, Jared?” Renee asked excitedly when she heard that Jared had memorized every single word inside Wordless Tome.

Jared shook his head. “I don’t know.”

Josephine and the others were frozen in confusion. “Didn’t you say you memorized everything? How could you not know what was written inside if it’s already in your head?” Melanie asked.

“I did memorize everything, but I can’t recall what I memorized. Let me think...” Jared replied as he dug deep into his subconscious with spiritual sense and stared at Wordless Tome, which was floating inside his mind.

When he tried getting close to Wordless Tome to see what was written on it, a powerful force knocked him back.

“I really can’t recall what was written on it!” Jared exclaimed with a depressed look on his face.

He wasn’t even sure if he remembered anything that he was memorizing.

As though he was suffering from amnesia, Jared couldn’t bring himself to recall what was written on Wordless Tome.

“What do we do, then? Are we all going to be trapped here forever?” Renee exclaimed with a sigh.

Seeing as Jared had no idea what they should do, everyone decided to remain quiet so he could think in peace.

The silence was broken when Melanie’s stomach started growling all of a sudden.

She got hungry after everything they had been through.

“You ladies wait here. I’ll go look for some food,” Jared said as he got up and went scavenging for food.

Although there were no animals in the area, there were quite a lot of plants around them, and Jared knew where to look for wild fruits.

It wasn’t long before Jared found some trees with lots of wild fruits. The fruits were only the size of a fist, but they looked really juicy.

Jared had never seen that tree before, so he wasn’t sure if the fruits were safe to eat.

He then plucked one of the fruits, wiped it on his shirt, and took a huge bite.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2106

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2106-Thanks to his body being immune to poison, Jared knew he would be fine even if the fruit turned out to be poisonous. However, things could get disastrous if someone like Melanie were to eat a poisonous fruit,

Seconds after Jared had taken a bite of the wild fruit, a word appeared inside his head.

Green Frost Fruit.

What followed was an introduction to Green Frost Fruit.

Jared stared at the fruit with a mix of shock and confusion in his eyes.

I'd never seen this fruit before, so I couldn't possibly know its name! Based on the introduction, this is from a fruit tree that existed thousands of years ago. It lives off spiritual energy that it absorbs from the environment. The fruits that the tree bears are sweet and even have beautifying properties.

"What's going on here?" Jared mumbled to himself with a frown as he brought some of the fruits back.

Melanie, who was really hungry at the time, quickly helped herself to the fruits when she saw them.

The sweetness of the fruit gave her quite a pleasant surprise.

"Josephine! Renee! Come try these fruits out! They're really sweet!" Melanie called out to them.

Josephine and Renee weren't feeling hungry, but they did as told and ate the fruits out of curiosity.

Sure enough, they too were shocked by how sweet the fruits tasted.

"What is this fruit, Jared? It tastes so good!" Josephine asked.

"It's called 'Green Frost Fruit.' It only grows here in secret realms and lives off spiritual energy. This fruit even has beautifying properties!" Jared replied.

The ladies happily munched away when they heard about the fruit having beautifying properties.

"How do you know this stuff, Jared? You haven't been to secret realms often, have you?" Renee asked curiously.

"I'm not sure myself. For some reason, I just knew about this fruit," Jared said with an awkward smile on his face.

"Who cares how he knew? We have tasty fruits that can make us look even more beautiful, so we have nothing to worry about even if we're trapped here!" Melanie exclaimed excitedly.

Jared felt relieved when he saw the three ladies eating the fruits with smiles on their faces.

We're still trapped in this secret realm, but at least we're safe for the time being. It's way better than Gate of Fire, which is just a really hot desert. If I had a secret realm of my own, I'd let the people close to me come live in it. I'm pretty sure it'd be nice to live peacefully away from the hustle and bustle of the city!

With that in mind, Jared sat down on the grass and watched the ladies joke around while eating.

He then lay down and attempted to get some rest when he felt something sharp poke him in the arm.

Jared quickly sat bolt upright and glanced at his hand, only to see blood pouring out of his palm.

My body is tougher than steel, so what could have possibly punctured my skin so easily?

He then searched the grass beneath him for whatever it was that pierced him earlier.

It wasn't long before Jared found a blade of grass that was shaped like a steel needle. The bloodstains on its surface helped confirm his suspicions.

Jared then plucked the needle-shaped grass out of the ground and examined it under the sun. To his surprise, it was actually transparent like glass.

Golden Thorn Grass.

Jared was halfway through observing that grass when the words popped into his mind, which was also followed by an introduction to Golden Thorn Grass.

Apparently, that grass was a popular choice as a weapon because of its ridiculously tough structure and rarity. After all, not many people knew about the existence of such a plant.

There were even rumors that Golden Thorn Grass were originally the quills of a sacred hedgehog that fell off when it shook its body but turned into Golden Thorn Grass after landing in the human world.

As Jared thought about the information that had been appearing inside his head, he suddenly understood something.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2107

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2107-Jared then grabbed a handful of grass and sniffed at them.

Heartbreak Grass.

As the refreshing scent filled his nose, the information on the grass that he was sniffing appeared in his mind.

Jared glanced at the Heartbreak Grass in his hand before throwing it as far away as possible.

Who would've thought such harmless-looking grass would turn out to be poisonous? I can't imagine what would happen if someone were to eat them!

With an excited look on his face, Jared began checking out the plants in the secret realm. Sure enough, information on the plant would pop up in his head whenever he touched them.

"Whoa! This is amazing! I bet this has something to do with Wordless Tome!" Jared mumbled to himself as he used his spiritual sense to look at Wordless Tome inside his mind once again.

This time, he was able to open Wordless Tome with ease, and the information on all the plants he had seen was recorded on it.

"Aha! I knew it!" Jared exclaimed excitedly as he pulled out lots of items from his Storage Ring.

All he had to do was infuse some spiritual energy into the items he touched, and the information on the said items would show up inside his head.

"Wordless Tome is an encyclopedia! With this, there's nothing I won't know about!"

Jared's face was getting a little red from excitement. He then turned toward Josephine and the others as a thought formed inside his head.

If Wordless Tome is able to identify any object I come into contact with, then I wonder if it can do the same with people.

With that in mind, Jared ran up to Josephine and hugged her tightly in his arms, much to her surprise.

After all, Jared had never initiated hugs like this before, especially in front of other people.

“What are you doing, Jared?” Josephine shouted with her face all red.

She tried to push Jared off, but he clung to her tightly and refused to let go.

Renee flashed him a smile and asked, “Hey, Jared! What are you trying to do to Josephine in front of me and Melanie, huh?”

Melanie had a conflicted feeling in her heart when she turned around and saw what was going on.

Jared then infused some spiritual energy into Josephine’s body, but no information about her popped up inside his head.

Huh? Could it be that we know each other far too well?

Jared frowned at the thought of that.

Thinking that it didn’t work because he already knew about Josephine’s past, Jared let go of her and shifted his gaze toward Melanie instead.

Yeah, I definitely don’t know much about Melanie!

Jared then lunged at Melanie and hugged her tightly.

Melanie burned bright red instantly and shouted, “W-What are you doing, Jared?”

Josephine and Renee were both shocked and confused by his actions.

Jared tried infusing some spiritual energy into Melanie’s body as well, but no information appeared inside his head.

Huh... Could it be that it doesn’t work on people?

With a disappointed frown on his face, Jared let go of Melanie and walked away.

“What has gotten into him, Josephine? Has he lost his mind or something?” Renee asked softly.

“I don’t know!” Josephine was just as confused as she was.

The three of them glanced at Jared and saw him leaning against a tree while staring blankly at the sky.

None of them dared disturb him, though. They just sat there and watched him in silence.

After what seemed like forever, Jared’s eyes lit up all of a sudden.

The next thing they knew, his body was exuding a terrifying aura that spread throughout the surrounding area.

Josephine and the others were all frightened when they felt Jared’s aura.

The three of them kept their gaze fixated on Jared, who seemed to be unleashing his full power.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2108

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2108-They got a little scared when they saw the vicious look on Jared’s face.

“W-What has gotten into him, Josephine? Is something bad going to happen?”

Renee was so scared that her voice cracked.

Josephine’s eyes were filled with anxiousness as she stared at Jared. She wanted to know what was going on, but his intense aura prevented them from getting close to him.

After about ten minutes, the aura around Jared’s body vanished, and he collapsed weakly to the ground.

“Jared!”

Josephine, Renee, and Melanie ran up to him as quickly as their legs could carry them.

Despite lying on the ground with his forehead drenched in sweat, Jared had a huge smile on his face.

“Haha... Hahahaha!”

Josephine and the others were utterly confused when they saw him laughing.

“A-Are you all right, Jared? What has gotten into you?” Renee asked nervously when she saw him laughing.

“Are you okay, Jared?” Josephine asked with a worried look on her face.

Jared then sat up straight and exclaimed excitedly, “I’ve got it! We can finally get out of here!”

“What did you get, Jared?” Melanie asked.

Josephine and Renee were equally confused as they had no idea what Jared was going on about.

After taking a moment to calm himself down, Jared said, “I know how to access the exit to this secret realm!”

Jared had been using all of his energy to detect the secret realm’s exit.

He wanted to test if Wordless Tome would have information on the exit.

To his surprise, it actually did provide him with the said information.

According to the information in Wordless Tome, this secret realm belonged to Divine Quest Sect. The fact that Divine Quest Sect used to own such a huge secret realm showed just how powerful it used to be.

However, all members of Divine Quest Sect mysteriously disappeared hundreds of years ago, and Evil Heart Sect took over this secret realm.

Evil Heart Sect had never truly used this secret realm before, though. Thus, very few of its members had actually been in here.

Wordless Tome was Divine Quest Sect’s prized possession, so Jared had no idea how it ended up in Arthur’s hands.

Having learned the secret realm's past, Jared was able to figure out the way to leave the place.

"How do you know so much about this secret realm, Jared? Also, what's with that Boundless Cave? Do you know about that as well?" Renee asked curiously.

They wanted to know why the three of them experienced those strange sensations after entering it.

"Hmm..." Jared used his spiritual sense to glance at Wordless Tome in his mind, but there was no mention of Boundless Cave anywhere. "That's strange... Could it be that Boundless Cave was something Evil Heart Sect created later on? That wouldn't make sense either. Wordless Tome clearly indicated the location of Boundless Cave earlier on."

Jared went into deep thought as he tried to figure out why Wordless Tome had no information on Boundless Cave.

"Forget about it, Jared. Since you know the way out, let's just get out of here!" Josephine urged him impatiently.

She had been spending a lot of time in the secret realm, so she really missed her family.

"Sure thing!" Jared nodded and made his way to a specific spot using the information from Wordless Tome.

He then waved his fingers in the air and chanted an incantation.

The next thing they knew, a bright light flashed in front of them, and a door of light slowly appeared before their very eyes.

Jared and the others got excited when they saw the door.

"We can finally get out of here!" Josephine could barely contain the raging excitement inside her heart.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2109

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2109-Fearing that something bad would happen if they took too long, Jared urged them, "Come on! Let's go!"

The four of them quickly made their way through the door of light and found themselves in the backyard of Warriors Alliance.

The disciples of Deragon Sect, who were patrolling in the backyard, froze in shock when they saw Jared and the others emerge from a door of light that had appeared out of nowhere.

After taking a second to snap out of their dazed state and regain their composure, they fell to their knees and exclaimed, "Mr. Chance! You're finally back!"

"Hurry up and inform Mr. Flaxseed that Mr. Chance has returned!"

It wasn't long before Flaxseed and Godrick heard about Jared and the others leaving the secret realm.

They immediately rushed over to Warriors Alliance and gasped in shock when they saw Jared and the three ladies.

"Jared! How did you guys manage to access the exit?"

Flaxseed and Jessica had tried their best to find the exit but to no avail.

"It's a long story. For now, let's all just head on back!" Jared replied and led them all back to Deragon Sect.

Josephine was a little shocked when she saw Deragon Sect and saw everyone treat Jared as the head of the sect.

"A lot of stuff happened while you were away, Josephine. I'll explain everything to you once we get back," Jared said with a smile when he saw the confused look on Josephine's face.

"Josephine!" Lizbeth called out to her as she came running over.

Feeling relieved to see that Josephine was all right, Lizbeth threw herself at her and hugged her tightly.

"Oh, Lizbeth!" Josephine got emotional too when she saw Lizbeth.

Cecilia, too, came running over with a bunch of ladies. "Renee, where have you two been? We've been looking all over for you!"

“We were taken away by bad guys, Cecilia!” Renee replied and proceeded to explain everything that happened in great detail.

The ladies were all shocked when they heard that Renee and Melanie were trapped in the secret realm.

After having a brief exchange with Lizbeth, Josephine scanned the ladies around them.

Being a woman, her gut instinct told her that these ladies were all related to Jared in some way or another.

“Hi, my name is Cecilia!” Cecilia introduced herself proudly.

Josephine was a little taken aback by Cecilia’s confidence and beauty.

Whoa... She’s so beautiful! I didn’t know it was possible for a lady to look so stunning!

After taking a moment to regain her composure, Josephine shook her hand and replied, “Hi, I’m Josephine...”

Jared couldn’t help but feel awkward as he watched from the side. He knew it would be extremely difficult to explain this to Josephine later on.

Realizing the awkward look on Jared’s face, Godrick quickly stepped forward and changed the topic by saying, “You must be hungry after being trapped in there for so long, right? I had them prepare a banquet. This is a special day, so we must celebrate it to our hearts’ content!”

Soon, the atmosphere in Deragon Sect was incredibly lively as they decorated the place with colorful lights and filled the hall with tons of tables.

Jared then introduced everyone to Josephine.

“You have no idea how many times Jared nearly died while trying to rescue you, Ms. Sullivan!” Flaxseed told Josephine.

Josephine glanced at Jared and broke into a sweet smile. She knew he must have been really anxious when she was trapped inside that secret realm.

The banquet at Deragon Sect carried on until it was late at night. This was the happiest day for both the sect’s members and Jared.

Countless fireworks went off in the sky above to further enhance the celebratory mood.

Arthur had an emotionless look on his face as he watched the fireworks from the Department of Justice.

“Jared managed to rescue his girlfriend, so everyone in Deragon Sect is celebrating right now, Mr. Sanders,” Xavier said as he walked up to Arthur.

Arthur let out a sigh. “He’s celebrating a little too soon...”

He then pulled out an envelope and handed it to Xavier as he continued, “If Jared comes to see me tomorrow, tell him I’m not in and hand him this envelope.”

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2110

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2110-Xavier had confusion written all over his face when he took the envelope over, but he nodded obediently anyway. “Understood...”

Arthur then motioned for him to leave before looking up at the starry sky above. “The true battle is about to begin.”

Meanwhile, Tanner too was staring at the starry sky from Evil Heart Sect’s secret realm.

There were eight miniature statues next to him, four of which were glowing faintly.

Had Jared been there to see that, he would’ve known that they looked exactly like the statues in Boundless Cave.

“No one can stop my plan! No one!” Tanner mumbled to himself as he shifted his gaze back toward the statues.

Suddenly, Malphas came running over in a state of panic.

“Bad news, Lord Tanner! Jared has fled the secret realm with the three women and is currently throwing a banquet to celebrate their freedom!” he reported anxiously.

However, Tanner showed no change in emotion whatsoever even after hearing that.

“They won’t get away. They may have gotten out of the secret realm, but they will come back sooner or later. Your job is to find people with special physical attributes. Remember, you only have three months to get it done. Should you fail to find anyone after three months, you can forget about coming back!” he said coldly.

Malphas nodded. “I understand, Lord Tanner!”

Meanwhile, at Deragon Sect, everyone left feeling satisfied after the banquet came to an end.

It was as though they had agreed beforehand to give Jared and Josephine some personal space.

Josephine leaned against Jared’s shoulder as the two of them sat on the roof.

They were both stargazing with sweet smiles on their faces.

“Those ladies sure were nice to you today. You really have a way with women, Jared!” Josephine said all of a sudden.

Jared gave her shoulder a gentle squeeze as he reassured her, “They’re just friends to me. You are the only one who holds a special place in my heart.”

Josephine looked him in the eyes as she asked, “I see you’ve become quite the smooth talker too. It must be tough keeping your hands to yourself when you’ve got so many beautiful women by your side all the time, especially someone as pretty as Cecilia. Have you two really not done anything together?”

Jared calmly shook his head and replied, “I have not done anything with any of them.”

Josephine flashed him a smile as she could see that he was telling the truth.

“Honestly, I’m happy as long as you have me in your heart. I wouldn’t mind even if you did help yourself to those other ladies,” she said while leaning against his shoulder.

“I told you, I won’t get married until I rescue my mother, and I will never have sex with anyone until I get married,” Jared replied in the most matter-of-fact tone possible.

“Did you manage to find anything on your mother?”

“Yes, but I’ve been more focused on rescuing you lately. Now that you’re safe, I can go back to rescue my mother.”

Jared’s eyes were filled with determination as he believed he would be able to rescue his mother.

“It’s all my fault for slowing you down...”

Josephine felt really bad for slowing Jared down so much. He probably would’ve rescued his mother a lot sooner if he didn’t have to come for me!

“It’s not your fault, silly!”

Jared gave her a gentle pat on the head and proceeded to tell her what he had experienced so far.

Josephine’s eyes slowly closed as she listened on and dozed off shortly after.

Noticing that she had fallen asleep, Jared tightened his grip on her as he didn’t want her to catch a cold.

The next thing he knew, the golden rays of the morning sun slowly illuminated the area around them.

Jared’s lips curled into a faint smile as he watched the sun rise up in the distance.

However, his smile faded the moment he turned around and looked at Josephine.

Her lips had turned pale, and her face was as white as a sheet.