A Man Like None Other Chapter 2261- Familiar

“Dad...” Garthor was stunned when he saw how insane-looking Hugh was. The moment Hugh spotted Garthor, he withdrew his aura and said, “Garthor, I want you to bring people with you to capture and kill anyone with close ties to Tucker.”

Upon detecting his father’s rage, Garthor nodded instead of asking any more questions. “Roger!”

Then, Hugh slowly levitated into the air as he watched Stormwind Sect descend into carnage.

Meanwhile, Jared and the others had returned to Jadeborough.

Everyone was overjoyed to see how Flaxseed and Godrick had recovered. The first thing Flaxseed did after returning was drag Jessica into a room. It wasn’t difficult for anyone to guess what they did next.

“Mr. Gunderson visited us a few times when you were away, Jared. It seems like he has something urgent to speak to you about,” informed Cecilia.

During the period Jared was gone, Cecilia took care of Deragon Sect pretty well.

“I know. Thanks for your hard work.” Jared peered at her, somewhat feeling bad. Cecilia came all the way here to look for me, yet I barely spend any time with her! I’m sincerely touched by her efforts. She helped me tend Deragon Sect, yet she never complained about it.

“It wasn’t hard at all when I think about the fact that I’m doing this for you.” Cecilia smiled.

A complicated expression settled on Jared’s countenance as he apologized, “You should know that I’ll be marrying Josephine in the future. So, if you continue to be with me, you may not have an official status as my spouse.” If only I could change the monogamous ideals that modern society upholds. Otherwise, I could’ve married them both.

“I don’t mind as long as you still love me.” Gently, Cecilia leaned on Jared’s shoulder.

In response, he silently held her waist and stared at the blue sky.

Jared only stayed in Deragon Sect briefly before heading to Divine Quest Sect to check out how Josephine and Renee were doing.

Upon entering the secret realm, Jared was shocked by the scene.

It was because he saw two more women in addition to Josephine and the other two.

One of the newcomers was the woman Jared saved from Evil Heart Sect. When the woman saw Jared, she was equally shocked. Without delay, Josephine bolted toward Jared joyously. "Jared!" "What's the deal with them, Josephine?" Jared pointed at the two newcomers. "Both of them were captured here as well. This one's called Calanthe. She's incredible and possesses a special physique. She can control—"

Jared interrupted, "I know. She has an earthly constituent, granting her the ability to control the earth."

His words stunned Josephine momentarily before she asked in disbelief, "You're amazing, Jared! How did you figure it out just by looking at her?"

"He's not that awesome. We've already met before, you see," clarified Calanthe.

"What? You two know each other?" Josephine was even more dumbfounded.

"I didn't expect the boyfriend you constantly bring up to be him, Josephine! He saved my life once!" After Calanthe ended her sentence, she recounted the story of being pursued by Black Gold Robe and how Jared saved her.

Back then, she was afraid and didn't know what Jared's name was.

Meanwhile, Jared didn't learn her name as well.

When Josephine heard that, realization dawned upon her. "What a coincidence!"

Then she introduced the other newcomer, who also had a unique physique.

Puzzled, Jared wondered why Evil Heart Sect captured so many people with extraordinary physiques. I know they're up to no good by doing this, but I don't know what exactly they're planning, so I've no idea how to stop them!

However, I need to attend the Secret Realm Conference before making my next move.

After he chatted with the women for a while, he left.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2262-Right after Jared left the secret realm, he visited the Gunderson residence. I bet Chester has already gotten all anxious while waiting for me.

Indeed, when Fernando saw him, the former immediately approached him.

"You're finally back, Mr. Chance! Great Elder was really worried!"

"Aren't there a few days left until the Secret Realm Conference, Mr.

Gunderson? Why are you so anxious?" inquired Jared, slightly astounded.

"Because only a limited number of people is allowed to attend the Secret Realm Conference! Within Gate of Fire, a few sects disagree with Great Elder's decision to take you there," explained Fernando.

“Oh, I see. In that case, let’s go!” Jared nodded.

Soon, they arrived at the entrance to the secret realm and entered Gate of Fire.

When they arrived at the Gunderson residence, Jared saw a few people sitting in the living room, including Chester and the leader of The Adamantine, Wayne.

Upon noticing Jared’s arrival, Chester and Wayne greeted him in unison. “Please sit, Mr. Chance.” Chester even personally pulled a chair for Jared. A middle-aged man sitting at the side was confounded by Chester’s attitude toward Jared.

He joked, “You’re the Great Elder of the Gunderson family, so why are you treating an insignificant figure from the mundane world so politely? I don’t think I’ve ever seen you treat me that nicely before.”

“You visit my home eight hundred times every year, Ekko. No matter how hard I try, I can never chase you away. You should be grateful that I don’t beat you. Yet, you still have the gall to ask me to treat you politely.” Chester glared at him.

“It’s because the food prepared here is too delicious!” Ekko Valentine laughed. As Jared studied Ekko, Chester explained, “Mr. Chance, this is a rogue cultivator called Ekko Valentine. He lives in the secret realm all alone and often mingles with various prestigious families.”

Meanwhile, Ekko turned to Jared. “I can tell the brat’s capable, considering he managed to reach the level of Spirit Replicator in the mundane world. It seems you’re the young Martial Arts God from the mundane world. I bet you would’ve been unbeatable in the mundane world if not for those in the hidden realm.”

His words shocked Jared. “You know about the hidden realm?”

“Of course! We may be from the secret realm, thus unable to stay for long in the mundane world, but it doesn’t mean we can’t leave this realm at all. For example, I frequented Crafting Clan and even bought several magical items from them,” explained Ekko.

Upon hearing that, Jared smiled without saying anything. Crafting Clan no longer exists in the mundane world!

It was then he felt a weak spiritual sense advancing toward him.

The spiritual sense was so faint that he couldn’t have detected it without paying close attention.

He snapped his sight toward the origin of the spiritual sense and saw an old man fixated his gaze on him without blinking. Additionally, he saw a young man standing behind the old man.

When the old man noticed Jared's line of sight, he turned away, and the faint spiritual sense vanished.

"Is this the person you're planning to take to the Secret Realm Conference, Chester?" the old man asked.

Based on his tone, it seemed he didn't respect Chester.

"Indeed he is." Chester nodded before introducing the old man to Jared. "Mr. Chance, this is Zahrin Sect's leader, Lamar Macall. Behind him is his son, Kayden."

Upon ending his sentence, he communicated with Jared through telepathy.

"Mr. Chance, Zahrin Sect has absorbed over a dozen sects in Gate of Fire. Currently, it's the largest sect here. He's the one obstructing you from attending the Secret Realm Conference."

Right as Chester finished his sentence, Lamar sneered, "You're not a young man anymore, Chester. You can speak your mind. There's no need for you to do so in a discreet manner."

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2263

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2263-Upon hearing that, Chester smiled awkwardly. "You've gotten more powerful, Lamar. Even my telepathy can't escape your notice anymore."

"I'm glad you know that! So, take my advice, Chester. Join me as soon as you can. When all of Gate of Fire is united, no other secret realms will dare to face us anymore." Lamar cackled.

"Keep dreaming, Lamar. There's no way we'll become your subordinates," scoffed Wayne.

In response, Lamar just grinned as everyone settled into their seats.

Evangeline served a cup of coffee to Jared. "Enjoy the coffee, Mr. Chance."

"Thank you, Ms. Gunderson. Are you feeling better now?" inquired Jared caringly.

"I am!" She nodded.

The moment Evangeline appeared, Kayden fixed his gaze on her with a noticeable glint in his eyes.

"There's one more thing you should mention, Dad. Did you forget about it?" he whispered into Lamar's ear.

"I didn't," replied Lamar before turning to Chester. "Now that your beautiful daughter has regained her sanity, perhaps we can discuss a union between her and my son. When that happens, all of Gate of Fire will be ours!"

"No. I don't like your son," spat Evangeline with disgust before Chester could utter a word.

“What did you say, Evangeline? What about me isn’t good enough for you?” Kayden questioned furiously.

“I just don’t like you!” Upon ending her sentence, Evangeline returned to her room.

A scowl was set on Kayden’s face as a vicious look swirled in his eyes.

“I don’t think we should get involved in our children’s matter, Lamar.

Nowadays, it’s all about the freedom to choose one’s life partner,” said Chester.

Instead of continuing that topic, Lamar stated his perspective on the original discussion. “You know the secret realm’s rule, Chester. Jared is someone from the mundane world. There’s no way he can join the Secret Realm Conference. Besides, each spot in the conference is very valuable to Gate of Fire. If someone as unimpressive as Jared attends the conference, not only will he embarrass Gate of Fire, but we’ll also fail to seize any resources! Gate of Fire doesn’t belong only to the Gunderson family. We need to consider the good of everyone in the secret realm!”

“Mr. Chance is part of the Gunderson family, so why can’t he join the Secret Realm Conference? Besides, he’s taking my family’s spot. You, as an outsider, don’t have the right to sway my decision,” remarked Chester, somewhat incensed.

“You may be correct, but Jared’s only a Third Level Spirit Replicator. Can he face an opponent in the arena? He may call himself the strongest in the mundane world, but in the secret realm, his power is insignificant!” Lamar spat coldly.

“I’m only bringing Mr. Chance there to let him see how things are like in the conference. I’m not planning to let him enter the arena, so there’s no point in making a fuss about his strength!”

“In that case, I object to his participation even further! You should know the arena in the Secret Realm Conference belongs to the youngsters. If Jared, a youngster himself, never joins the arena, he’ll embarrass us in front of the other secret realms!”

“You’re overstepping your boundary, Lamar. Zahrin Sect may be the most powerful entity in Gate of Fire right now, but you still aren’t its master. You don’t have the right to order others around,” Ekko commented disdainfully. He could not stand Lamar.

“You’re just a rogue cultivator, Ekko. You don’t have the right to speak on this matter. If you don’t stay in line, I’ll kick you out of Gate of Fire!” Enraged, Lamar glared at Ekko.

Ekko also exploded in anger and roared, “You’re too arrogant! So what if I don’t stay in line? What are you going to do, huh?”

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2264-Seeing that two men were about to start a fight, Wayne swiftly stood and offered a compromise. "All right, that's enough. Since none of you can agree on the matter, let's continue the discussion. Right now, Mr. Chance has the strength of a Third Level Spirit Replicator, so he has the right to enter the arena. However, we shouldn't expect too much from him. He just needs to win three rounds. After all, the ultimate victor depends on how many times a secret realm wins. If Mr. Chance can win three rounds, then it's very likely we can reach the top three." There's still only a limited number of spots in the conference, after all. If Jared attends it but doesn't fight in the arena, it'll be a loss to Gate of Fire.

Lamar nodded. "Okay. Then we'll do as Mr. Gingerich suggests. However, if Jared fails to win three rounds, the Gunderson family has to compensate us for our loss of resources!"

Chester didn't have the nerve to make a decision lightly, so he turned to Jared. The latter nodded.

In response, Chester agreed, "All right. It's decided then."

With that, Lamar left with his son.

Ekko did, too, leaving Wayne and Chester behind to keep Jared company.

"What are the rules for the Secret Realm Conference like, Mr. Gingerich? Also, what level of power should I expect from the other contestants participating in the arena?" asked Jared. While my strength has soared at a meteoric rate, I still don't have a clue about the secret realm, so I don't know how mighty my opponents may be. Since I've agreed to the condition, it'll be embarrassing if I lose, so I want to learn about the upcoming challenge as much as possible.

"I'll ask my disciple to answer your questions, Mr. Chance. While he isn't powerful, he still knows plenty about the various secret realms." Wayne touched the air, causing a golden light to flash by.

Upon witnessing that, Jared thought, What an interesting method of communication. I'm intrigued, though I'm pretty sure this is just something akin to magecraft.

Moments later, a skinny, one-hundred-and-fifty-centimeters-tall man entered the room and stood before Wayne. "What's the matter, Master?"

"Monkey, this is Mr. Chance. He's from the mundane world, so he doesn't know much about the secret realms. Please answer any questions that he has in detail. Also, remember to treat him politely and give him a tour around the place," ordered Wayne.

When Jared heard how ridiculous the name of Wayne's disciple was, he couldn't help but laugh out loud.

Nevertheless, Monkey didn't mind. He glanced at Jared with shock because he didn't understand why his master showed so much respect to a youngster from the mundane world.

Still, he stifled his curiosity and greeted Jared. "Hello. My name is Zain Holland, but people like to call me Monkey."

"Nice to meet you. I'm Jared Chance." Jared smiled.

Zain's friendly attitude left a good impression on Jared.

"I'll give you a tour around Gate of Fire and a rundown of the place," uttered Zain politely.

Jared nodded. Upon bidding Chester and Wayne goodbye, he followed Zain out of the building.

Just as the two of them arrived at the entrance, Evangeline stopped them and said, "I'll join you two, Monkey!"

She seemed to be familiar with Zain.

"It's just a desert outside, Ms. Gunderson. It's not like you've never seen it before. I think it's better if you stay in the house," replied Zain.

"Well, it's because I want to see how knowledgeable you are, considering many say you know everything about the secret realms." Evangeline grinned.

In response, Zain had no choice but to bring her along.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2265

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2265-"Ask me whatever you want to know, Mr. Chance. There's nothing I don't know about the Eight Major Secret Realms!" stated Zain confidently upon stepping out of the Gunderson family estate.

"What are the rules within the Secret Realm Conference, Mr. Holland? Also, how powerful are the experts in the secret realm?" asked Jared.

"There's no need to be so formal with me, Mr. Chance. Just call me Monkey." Zain grinned. "It's been years since the last Secret Realm Conference was held. I believe the organization of the upcoming Secret Realm Conference has something to do with the restoration of spiritual energy in the mundane world.

"The rules of the Secret Realm Conference are simple. Each secret realm will send ten young disciples to join the battle. There'll be ten arenas, and everyone will take turns fighting each other. If someone loses, they can choose to fight in another arena. As for the victor, they'll occupy that specific arena. However, if someone is defeated three times in a row, they'll be disqualified.

“On the other hand, if someone can occupy an arena until the event concludes, their name will be recorded on the Supreme Honor Rankings. Only a prodigy is capable enough to earn a spot on the ranking. Currently, there are only five names on it. The result of the competition depends on the disciples of each secret realm. Whichever secret realm seizes the most number of victories will become the winner. By the end, the losing five families will have to hand some of their resources to the top three. However, I don't know how powerful the experts from the other secret realms are.

Still, I heard the person who holds first place in Supreme Honor Rankings is Sigwin Green. I think he's a Top Level Spirit Replicator.”

His explanation was very detailed because he was worried Jared wouldn't understand.

“Top Level Spirit Replicator?” Jared was slightly stunned. From a martial artist perspective, a Top Level Spirit Replicator is equivalent to a Top Level Martial Arts God. Even though I'm only a Third Level Spirit Replicator, I'm confident I can defeat a Top Level Martial Arts God. If the mightiest individual on the Supreme Honor Rankings is only that powerful, then I think the competition will be easier than I thought! It doesn't seem like the cultivation level of the people in the secret realm is that high.

Unbeknownst to Jared, he was only capable of battling against someone higher level than him if his opponent was a martial artist from the mundane world. If his adversary were a spiritual energy cultivator instead, then it would be impossible for him to bridge that gap.

At the moment, Jared was a Third Level Spirit Replicator and could easily defeat an average Fifth Level Spirit Replicator. However, if his opponent were an exceptionally talented spiritual energy cultivator, then he would struggle in that battle.

The only higher-level martial artists Jared had been fighting were from the mundane world. Because of that, he mistakenly thought he could still win should he face a spiritual energy cultivator.

“You don't need to worry too much, Mr. Chance. As mighty as Sigwin is, you may not necessarily encounter him. After all, there are so many participants, so everyone will be paired with their opponent through drawing lots,” comforted Zain, thinking Jared was afraid when he mentioned the Top Level Spirit Replicator.

However, he had no idea Jared was actually excited, not frightened.

As the trio spoke and ambled forward, Jared stared at the desert and remarked, “How do you all cultivate? I doubt Gate of Fire is rich with resources, considering how barren it is. Did you all just absorb the spiritual energy in the environment and cultivate slowly?”

“You may not know about this, but all secret realms don’t have plenty of resources. Otherwise, they wouldn’t have cultivated representative families in the mundane world. Aside from waiting for the spiritual energy restoration, these representative families will also collect resources and send them to their respective secret realms. Nonetheless, following the devastation of the spiritual energy restoration, the sealed demon beast secret realm has probably been reopened.” Zain sighed.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2266

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2266-“Demon beast secret realm?” Jared was astonished. Why do demon beasts also have a secret realm?

“I know about this!” Evangeline immediately disclosed, “A long time ago, the demon beast secret realm used to be where the Eight Major Secret Realms gather their resources. Anyone from the Eight Major Secret Realms can hunt any demon beast they want there. However, as the spiritual energy restoration approaches, members from all secret realms rarely visit the place anymore to preserve their strength. Thus, the entrance to the demon beast secret realm was sealed. I heard it was reopened recently, though I’m unsure what the situation inside looks like. I bet those demon beasts have grown a lot after so many years! Two days ago, I wanted to visit the place, but my dad forbade me...”

As Jared listened quietly, he was shocked to learn that there was a demon beast secret realm where the Eight Major Secret Realms could hunt.

It sounds like a specially-built hunting ground for a royal family. The more he thought about it, the more he was impressed with the person who created the Eight Major Secret Realms. The secret realms don’t sound like shelters. Still,

I'm very interested to see what this secret realm full of demon beasts looks like. It must be quite the sight.

Thus, Jared asked, "Where is this demon beast secret realm, Monkey? Can I take a look?"

"This..." Zain frowned.

Meanwhile, Evangeline seemed excited. "Sure! Let's go and check it out right now!"

"Mr. Chance, my master once mentioned it's dangerous for anyone to step foot into the demon beast secret realm after no one has visited it for years. Thus, I don't think we should go there," advised Zain.

"We're just going to take a look around. If there's any danger, we'll return immediately," Jared suggested. I don't plan to stay there for long since I'm not powerful enough to do that.

"You're such a coward! We'll only take a few glances there before coming straight back! How dangerous can it be?" Evangeline rolled her eyes at Monkey.

In response, Zain gritted his teeth. "Fine. We'll check it out and return right after that."

Upon ending his sentence, he guided Jared and Evangeline to a dune.

Soon, the trio stood on the dune. Zain rapidly executed a few hand seals. Then, a white light flashed before their eyes. After blacking out momentarily, Jared opened his eyes and realized he was already at another location.

"This is the Teleportation Array?" asked Jared in a surprised tone.

"That's right. Every secret realm has many Teleportation Arrays. However, all of them have been disguised. The dune we were standing on earlier was one. Perform the correct hand seals, and we'll arrive at the secret realm we want to visit," clarified Zain.

"Does this mean you could've sent us to Gate of Thunder at that location earlier?" Jared recalled his mother should still be at Violet Cloud Palace.

“Of course. I just need to change the hand seals slightly to teleport us to Gate of Thunder. But why do you want to go there? It’s dangerous to barge into other secret realms.”

It was then he realized there was a mountain range before them.

They were surrounded by thick forests. Occasionally, they could hear the roars of demon beasts coming from afar.

“This is Demon Beast Mountain, Mr. Chance. According to the rumors, there exists a king who commands all demon beasts here in the depths of this mountain range. I wonder if it’s true,” informed Zain.

“Can we climb the mountain?” As Jared gazed at the mountain range and felt the aura emanating from it, he felt excited. The demon beasts here are undoubtedly quality cultivation resources.

“We mustn’t venture any deeper, Mr. Chance. We can only stay at the foot of the mountain. After all, we don’t know how much the demon beasts have developed over the years. If we find ourselves in danger, we won’t even have a chance to call for help!” reminded Zain.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2267

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2267-“All right, I understand.” Jared began trekking at the foot of the mountain.

Without warning, a black figure leaped straight toward Jared from the bushes.

Just as he was going to strike, Zain shot a dagger toward the black figure, pinning it to a nearby tree.

It was then Jared realized that the black figure was a wolfdog-sized mole.

“I hate these moles the most, Mr. Chance. The entire Demon Beast Mountain is crawling with these creatures. Even though they aren’t strong, they love to ambush people. Additionally, the beast cores these moles have are practically worthless, so very few people will ever want them. I hope we don’t encounter a group of them because they're disgusting." Zain's disdain and repulsion for those moles were apparent.

Jared smiled. It seems like rat-like creatures are hated no matter where they are.

The trio continued their journey. Suddenly, they heard the sounds of a battle nearby. Swiftly, they headed to the source of the noises.

Moments later, they discovered a few people were attacking a flaming wolf. The wolf was enveloped in scarlet flames and kept shooting fireballs.

The flaming wolf roughed up the attackers pretty badly, but they still managed to kill the creature and extract its beast core.

When Jared took a better look at the person extracting the beast's core, he was slightly taken aback because he recognized that guy. It was Kayden.

After Kayden put the beast core away, his expression shifted. "Who are you? Why are you hiding there? Come out!"

Clearly, he noticed the trio already.

Upon seeing that, the trio revealed themselves.

Kayden's expression relaxed when he realized the figures hiding in the shadow were Jared and the others.

After all, the scariest living beings in the demon beast secret realm weren't the beasts but people. It was because stealing was a common occurrence there.

No one liked having their hard-earned beast core stolen by someone from other secret realms.

"You're pretty lucky, Mr. Macall. It's rare to encounter a flaming wolf at the edges of the mountain range." Zain grinned.

"I'm assuming you're the one who brought the two of them here. Aren't you three afraid you'll become a demon beast's lunch?" questioned Kayden with contempt.

"Mr. Chance only wanted to take a gander at the demon beast secret realm. We'll be returning soon."

“Well, since you three are already here, there’s no need to rush back home. Besides, if you three follow me, you’ll be safer. Once I kill a few more demon beasts, I’ll share some of their cores with you all. It’s better than returning empty-handed, right?” Kayden was planning to bring the trio to a demon beast hunt.

Meanwhile, Jared understood why Kayden was doing that. He’s just trying to create an opportunity to spend time with Evangeline and show off how awesome he is by hunting demon beasts. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have kindly offered to protect and share the demon beast cores with us.

“This...” Zain turned to Jared. He didn’t have the guts to reject Kayden’s offer directly because the latter was Zahrin Sect’s heir.

“In that case, I guess we’ll accompany you, Mr. Macall,” answered Jared.

In reality, Jared wanted to spend a little more time in the demon beast secret realm to gauge how powerful the creatures were.

Initially, Evangeline didn’t want to agree to the proposal, but she nodded after Jared went along with it.

Upon seeing that, Kayden beamed. “Let’s head deeper. The monsters outside the mountain are just a bunch of trash. They aren’t even enough to warm me up!”

He proceeded to lead the trio into the mountain, making Zain nervous.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2268

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2268-As they ventured deeper into the mountain, Jared frowned because he sensed powerful auras from his surrounding.

After walking for a while, Kayden abruptly raised his hand, halting others from advancing.

Then, he shot a glance at a subordinate. The subordinate nodded, rapidly leaped into the air, and traveled across the trees.

Soon, that subordinate returned and reported, “There are more than a dozen people ahead of us, Mr. Macall. I think they’re from other secret realms. I didn't have the nerve to get too close to them, so I couldn't see their faces clearly."

"We'll take a detour and avoid them." Kayden preferred to avoid a conflict with people from other secret realms. It's not worth engaging in a fight with them since we haven't gotten many beast cores yet.

"I think it's too late for that," uttered Jared.

Kayden was stunned before over a dozen auras surrounded them.

The unexpected combatants surprised Jared because he knew who their leader was. It was Claus, the man Jared met on Encanta Island in the past.

Claus was similarly surprised to see Jared. This is a resource area that only people from the Eight Major Secret Realms can enter, so why is he here? Isn't he someone from the mundane world?

Kayden politely waved at Claus and greeted, "Well, well, I didn't expect to see Mr. Lassen from Waxing Crescent Castle here. To think you're already hunting demon beasts so soon after the entrance to the demon beast secret realm was opened."

"Aren't you doing the same, Mr. Macall?" sneered Claus.

"I've only just arrived, so I haven't met any demon beast yet. What about you?"

Claus shook his head. "It's the same for me. I haven't gotten any beast cores so far."

"In that case, how about we travel together? It's been years, so there's no telling how much stronger the demon beasts have grown. If we work together, we'll at least be capable of defeating high-level demon beasts," proposed Kayden.

No one knew what to expect after the demon beast secret realm was sealed for many years. However, he was still curious about the danger present in the mountain, which was why he suggested traveling together.

After a brief moment of hesitation, Claus glanced at Jared and nodded. "Sure, but we'll split the beast cores we get equally."

“No problem. By working together, perhaps we’ll even slay a few high-ranking demon beasts.” Kayden beamed.

With that, Jared’s group swelled in size. Meanwhile, Claus casually approached Jared.

In response, Jared studied Claus briefly. He has grown more powerful compared to the last time we met on Encanta Island. His life force energy feels different. It seems like the laws of nature are still heavily suppressed in the mundane world.

“Mr. Lassen!” greeted Zain when he saw Claus.

Claus nodded before turning to Jared. “I didn’t expect to see you here. I’m surprised.”

“I feel the same.” Jared grinned.

Upon witnessing that exchange, Zain was bewildered. “You know Mr. Lassen, Mr. Chance?”

“I met him once before.”

“I’m curious. You’re a rogue cultivator in the mundane world. How did you earn the right to enter the demon beast secret realm?” inquired Claus.

Claus glanced at her with a faint, silent smile but said nothing.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2269

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2269-The group of people went deeper into the depths of Demon Beast Mountain. They were met with low-level demon beasts on their way, but they dealt with the beasts in a flash.

Those rich men were not interested in the beast cores of those low-level demon beasts.

Just as everyone was carefully treading into the center of Demon Beast Mountain, Jared's expression suddenly turned grim, and he shouted a warning, causing everyone to stop in their tracks.

"Brat, what are you doing? Why are we stopping?" Kayden turned around and asked Jared angrily.

Jared ignored him. He closed his eyes and unleashed his spiritual sense, letting it spread across their surroundings.

Although he wasn't necessarily as capable as Kayden, his spiritual sense was much stronger than anyone else in the group.

Kayden was fuming with anger when he saw that Jared had ignored him. He approached the latter and was about to teach him a lesson, but Claus stopped him.

Claus observed Jared's behavior and began to worry.

He had seen Jared's power first-hand when they were on Encanta Island. He knew that Jared was powerful despite only being a rogue cultivator in the mundane world.

"We can't go any further. There's danger up front," Jared advised as he slowly opened his eyes.

"What kind of danger? Why didn't I sense it? A Third Level Spirit Replicator like you can't have a stronger spiritual sense than me. I don't even sense anything, yet you said it's dangerous up front." Kayden did not believe Jared. He was sure he would have already sensed it if there were high-level demon beasts and other dangers laying ahead.

"I'm just trying to warn everyone. It's up to you whether you believe it or not!"

Jared flashed a faint smile when he saw the disbelief on Kayden's face.

"Hmph! Who would believe you?" Kayden scoffed and was about to trek ahead with the others in tow, but Jared along with Zain and Evangeline stayed rooted to their spots and refused to advance further ahead.

Seeing that, Claus chose to stay put as well, which surprised Kayden.

“Mr. Lassen, please don’t tell me you believe this brat’s words. Are you able to sense any danger? Did you sense any existence of high-level demon beasts? I think he’s just spouting nonsense! There isn’t any danger at all!” Kayden exclaimed at Claus.

“I think it’s best to be on our guard. Let’s send two people to check it out first,” Claus replied cautiously.

“Fine!” Kayden nodded and instructed two of his subordinates to survey the area up front.

Although those two subordinates were scared, they did not dare to go against Kayden’s orders as they carefully made their way forward.

Nothing strange happened even though ten minutes had passed since the two subordinates entered the forest. Kayden smirked and said, “See? There isn’t any danger at all! I don’t know what you all are afraid of!”

Claus was relieved when he saw that there was indeed no danger. He gripped his weapon, ready to lead his subordinates further into the mountains.

Just then, two horrifying, blood-curdling screams rang out.

Kayden and Claus, who had just taken a step forward, suddenly stopped in their tracks.

Roar!

Following the screams, a thunderous roar echoed through the mountains, causing the ground to shake.

Everyone turned pale when they heard the roar and felt the trembling of the ground.

A terrifying aura was approaching them at high speed, and it appeared before everyone within a blink of an eye.

Before any of them could identify the demon beast, they felt waves of scorching heat enveloping them, followed by gusts of strong gales.

Everyone activated their elixir fields to stabilize their footings as the towering trees around them were uprooted by the strong gale and blown away, disappearing into the distance.

Soon, all the trees surrounding Jared and the others were blown away. The forest was soon reduced to barren land, and the demon beast showed itself before them.

Roar!

The demon beast let out another ferocious roar.

Jared noticed that the demon beast was a huge tiger with flames covering its entire body. It looked similar to the flaming wolf they had met previously.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2270-However, the tiger seemed to be much bigger than the flaming wolf. The aura it emanated was much more terrifying too.

“B-Blazing Tiger... I-It’s the Blazing Tiger!”

Zain was trembling from head to toe when he saw the demon beast. He was so horrified that he even began to stutter.

Jared was confused when he saw Zain’s terrified demeanor. Although this Blazing Tiger has a scary aura and is surely powerful, there are so many of us and only one beast. It doesn’t make sense for him to be so scared.

“Monkey, why are you so afraid of it? Is this tiger a powerful demon beast?” Jared asked in confusion.

“Don’t you know, Mr. Chance? This Blazing Tiger is the king of the demon beasts. I assume this part of Demon Beast Mountain is the territory of this Blazing Tiger. One Blazing Tiger might not be that terrifying. We can defeat it as long as we work together. However, the Blazing Tiger can summon hundreds or even thousands of demon beasts. If waves of demon beasts come charging at us, I’m afraid we won’t be able to survive,” Zain explained to Jared.

Jared finally understood the reason behind Zain’s fear. Zain wasn’t afraid of the Blazing Tiger, but of the demon beasts it might summon.

Kayden and Claus also bore similar expressions of panic and fear when they saw the Blazing Tiger.

The two exchanged gazes before yelling, "Everyone, attack! We need to kill off this Blazing Tiger as fast as we can! We absolutely can't allow it to summon other demon beasts!"

With that, Kayden and Claus took action simultaneously to attack the Blazing Tiger.

The groups of people they each led also charged toward the Blazing Tiger. If they could not kill the Blazing Tiger in time, they would have zero chance of surviving if it ended up summoning other demon beasts.

The Blazing Tiger roared when faced with the incoming attacks and opened its bloody maw to breathe fire. Coupled with a surge of terrifying aura, the flames immediately devoured two disciples of Waxing Crescent Castle and burnt them to ashes.

Claus had no time to look out for his subordinates as he stabbed the Blazing Tiger's neck with his long sword.

Kayden reacted almost at the same time and sent several glowing daggers soaring toward the Blazing Tiger.

The Blazing Tiger seemed to have sensed impending danger as it suddenly waved its long, thick tail and struck Claus, sending the latter flying into the distance.

Kayden's daggers burned and produced ear-piercing hissing sounds upon making contact with the Blazing Tiger's body, but immediately after that, they bounced off its body instead of penetrating it.

Although the daggers did not cause much damage to the Blazing Tiger, they still inflicted pain on it. In response, the beast roared and flung its tail about like a whip, striking everyone nearby.

Its humongous claws were invincible, capable of smashing a person's head effortlessly.

In the blink of an eye, several people from Zahrin Sect met their deaths under the Blazing Tiger's claws.

“Jared, are you just going to stand there and enjoy the show?” Kayden yelled angrily when he noticed that Jared, Zain, and Evangeline were not doing anything to attack the Blazing Tiger.

Claus was also fuming when he saw the trio standing still. “If we all die, you won’t be able to escape from the Blazing Tiger either!”

Only then did Jared hold out his hand, and the Dragonslayer Sword appeared in a flash.

Shortly after, the draconic essence flickered, and the Power of Dragons began gathering, causing the Dragonslayer Sword to emit a brilliant light.

Soon, a golden dragon gradually manifested behind Jared.

The ferocious Blazing Tiger that was raging about was momentarily stunned when it saw the dragon behind Jared, its eyes filled with fear.

Roar!

It let out one last thunderous roar before turning around and running away.

“Don’t let it get away!” Kayden yelled and was about to chase after it, but Claus stopped him.

“Don’t bother. We can’t catch up to such a strong demon beast. It’s better to leave this place as soon as possible. Otherwise, none of us will be able to get out of here alive!” Claus exclaimed.
