A Man Like None Other Chapter 2381-Isaac and Yona stared at Jared with a murderous glint in their eyes as if they were predators looking at a prey. “Go to hell...”

Isaac was the first to make a move. He leaped into the air, his claws tearing through the void as he pounced toward Jared! Yona didn't remain idle either. He thrust his spear forward and attacked Jared!

Boom! As the spears rained down on Jared like droplets, he desperately defended himself with Dragonslayer Sword, which produced continuous metallic clashes upon contact with the spears.

Isaac's claws instantly enveloped Jared, shrinking his space to an extremely narrow extent. As a result, Jared could only face the countless spears coming from Yona!

Boom! With a loud roar from Isaac, the spears burst forth with dazzling light. Jared leaped up in an attempt to break free from his passive situation, but just as he leaped up, he was struck by Isaac's claw. Several claw marks were instantly left on Jared's chest.

If it weren't for Jared's incredibly robust physique, the claw would have ripped out his internal organs! “What a strong physique...”

Isaac was astonished to find that his claws couldn't harm Jared. Yona frowned as he swung his spear. “Everyone, attack together! Let's kill him first...”

Yona knew they couldn't afford to delay any longer because it could lead to unforeseen changes. Matthew and the others could arrive at any moment! The disciples of the Alchemical Sect and the Scorching Heaven Sect took out their weapons and attacked Jared.

Upon seeing that, Jared's body was instantly covered in the Power of Dragons. As his Golem Body was activated, golden light radiated in all directions. “If we don't kill him now, we may not get another chance in the future.”

Sensing the increase in Jared's strength, Isaac leaped up once again. Feeling the threat emanating from Jared, Yona also thrust his spear, engaging himself in a fierce battle with Jared.

However, with the addition of the continuous attacks from the disciples of both sects, Jared soon found himself at a disadvantage. Jared frowned as he swung Dragonslayer Sword to defend himself.

The moment he blocked Yona's attack with the sword, Isaac's palm landed on his back. Although Jared had Golem Body, his internal organs were still injured by the palm strike. "Sh*t. I'm going to die here today..."

Jared couldn't help but curse. Even though Jared was showing signs of weakness, Yona and Isaac grew anxious because they still couldn't defeat Jared despite their numbers. "Die..." Yona yelled.

As Yona thrust his spear into the air, countless spears appeared, followed by martial energy shooting out from the spear tips. Then, the martial energy transformed into countless sharp blades and aimed at Jared.

With a yell, Isaac struck out his flaming palms which had turned crimson, sending two flames. in Jared's direction. Boom...

The two flames instantly engulfed Jared while the countless sharp blades struck him continuously. In the end, Jared fell heavily to the ground from mid-air. Upon seeing this, Yona and Isaac let out a long sigh of relief. "We have finally killed this guy. He was really difficult to deal with..."

Yona didn't expect that it would be so challenging to kill Jared despite their combined efforts. After Isaac waved his hand and extinguished the flames on Jared's body, he said, "We mustn't damage his sword. It's a treasure..."

After Isaac finished speaking, he landed beside Jared. Jared's entire body was now charred and devoid of his previously majestic and radiant appearance. Dragonslayer Sword lay on one side of Jared.

Despite being scorched by flames, it still retained its original glow.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2382-"It truly is a magic sword..."

Isaac bent down to pick up Dragonslayer Sword. Greed filled his eyes! However, he did not notice that Jared, who was already burnt and lying on the ground, was slowly opening his eyes. All of a sudden, Jared jumped up and gave Isaac a fright. Isaac instinctively took a step back and swung Dragonslayer Sword at Jared.

Just as Isaac was doing that, he realized that Dragonslayer Sword was not under his control. When he swung the sword, it flew out of his grip in an instant. The sword turned around and pointed at Isaac. In the blink of an eye, Isaac's arm was being chopped off by Dragonslayer Sword.

"Argh!" Isaac let out an agonizing cry and staggered backward! His face turned pale as blood gushed out of his wound. When Yona saw that, he threw his spear at Dragonslayer Sword and sent it flying backward.

In an instant, Dragonslayer Sword flew back into Jared's hand once again. Isaac took out some white powder and sprinkled it on his wound to stop the bleeding. His disciple picked up his broken limb.

"Are you all right?" asked Yona. The two of them were on the same side. If anything untoward happened to Isaac, it would be difficult for Yona to handle Jared on his own.

Isaac shook his head. "I'm fine. I didn't expect it to be a spiritual sword. It was my mistake." "How about your arm?" Yona asked as he looked at Isaac's severed arm. At that moment, blood was still trickling from the limb. "I can join it back, but I need time. Let's kill Jared first. Then I will fix my arm back."

Isaac appeared very calm. As the lord of Alchemical Sect, he would have ways to fix his broken arm. However, it would take time, and with Jared watching them, he had no time to do it. "Fine. We'll finish him off together..."

Yona nodded. At that moment, Jared was holding onto Dragonslayer Sword, and the charred bits on his body were falling off slowly. Once again, his golden Golem Body appeared!

Both Isaac and Yona frowned when they saw that. Their earlier attack did not cause any harm to Jared at all. They thought that only one more blow was needed to kill Jared.

Although Jared was not seriously injured, his spiritual energy had been depleted because of his fight with Isaac and Yona. Even the draconic essence within him had dimmed as the Power of Dragons spent lots of energy.

If the fight went on, Jared knew that his spiritual energy would be completely depleted even if he was not killed by the two men. When that happened, he would become their captive.

It was indeed very arduous for Jared to deal with the two Martial Arts Sovereigns and their many disciples all by himself. Jared shot a glance at Yona and Isaac before leaping toward the valley.

Since he did not want to fight, his only option was to run. When Yona and Isaac saw Jared making a run for it, they knew that he was at his limits. "You're not getting away so easily..."

Fury filled Isaac's eyes as he chased after Jared. As for Yona, he raised his spear and sent it flying. Rumble...

In that instant, countless martial energy turned into wind blades, and they flew toward Jared. Jared evaded the attack with all his might. He wanted to get out of the valley and this predicament.

There was no way Isaac and Yona would let him go. The two men continued to give chase. Just as Jared was about to charge out of the valley, Yona and Isaac blocked him off.

Thankfully, several phantoms crawled out of the altar and held on to the disciples of Alchemical Sect and Scorching Heaven Sect. Otherwise, Jared would be heavily surrounded.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2383-"Still trying to escape? You will die here today!" said Isaac coldly. "Two Martial Arts Sovereign bullying a Martial Arts God. Have you no shame?" uttered Jared. "Cut the cr*p. Let's finish this..."

Without further ado, Yona sent his spear flying. The tip of his weapon emitted bright and powerful energy. When Isaac saw that, he launched an attack as well. Even though he only had one arm left, there were still numerous shadow claws going at Jared.

Jared had no choice but to fight back. Dragonslayer Sword shone and deflected the attacks coming from the two men. Unfortunately, as Jared's spiritual energy was being depleted, Jared found that he was moving slower. Furthermore, the power of his sword was also getting weaker.

“Hahaha! Why don’t you just surrender? Your resistance is futile. Even if we don’t kill you, you’ll die of exhaustion.” Yona had noticed that Jared’s power was almost at its limit. “If you think you can do it, go on then...”

There was no way Jared would surrender. He gritted his teeth and continued fighting! There was still Ultimate Force in Jared’s body. It was his trump card, and he would not use it unless there was no choice.

Once his enemies let their guard down, he would use Ultimate Force to kill them! Bang! Suddenly, Jared was hit by Yona’s spear, and he fell onto the cliff.

At the same time, Jared’s Golem Body turned into powder and disappeared gradually. With his back crouched, Jared stood up with his Dragonslayer Sword.

It was obvious that Jared’s aura had been weakened. Right now, even the disciples of the two men could easily finish Jared off. When Yona and Isaac saw that, they began to laugh.

“Yona, let me fi SUCCESS avenge my severed arm!” Isaac stared coldly at Jared. He wanted to kill Jared personally in order to appease the anger within him.

“Why don’t you leave Jared to me? I can absorb his power and refine it. If you let me have Jared, I’ll impart the technique to you right away, and you’ll be able to absorb the energy from the phantoms!” said Yona to Isaac. Isaac looked at Jared and nodded. “All right then. I’ll leave this fellow to you.”

When Yona heard that, his spear turned into black mist and dissipated. Next, Yona walked slowly to Jared. At that moment, Jared looked like a lamb waiting to be slaughtered.

He gripped tightly onto Dragonslayer Sword, and Ultimate Force within him was glimmering. Jared was waiting for Yona to get closer and let his guard down. When Yona struck at Jared, Jared would give him a deadly strike. Once Yona was out of the way, Isaac would be no threat to Jared. After all, Isaac had already lost an arm.

“What a pity. Once I have absorbed your power, I’ll turn your formidable body into my puppet. When that happens, I’ll have another capable man by my side!”

Yona sneered as he walked toward Jared. At that moment, Yona was all relaxed and had his guard down. In fact, there was excitement written all over his face. Once I have absorbed Jared’s power, I’ll be able to increase my cultivation level!

If Jared became his puppet, Yona would have a stronger foothold among the sects in the hidden realm. “Jared, don’t blame me. Blame yourself for being too arrogant...”

Yona extended his hand to Jared. He did not suppress Jared’s aura. As far as he was concerned, Jared was as good as a cripple. There was no need to control him because he had no energy to fight back.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2384-Jared remained silent. A cold glint flitted across the depths of his eyes as he tightened his grip around Dragonslayer Sword.

“Stop!” As Yona was about to place his hand on Jared’s head, and Jared was preparing to retaliate, at bellow interrupted Yona. Yona hurriedly turned around and saw Wrey and the others had caught up.

At the sight of the newcomers, Yona was obviously a little shocked. Similarly astounded was Jared. Initially, Jared planned to kill Yona first before dealing with Isaac. Now that Wrey and his party were there, Jared wasn’t their match, even if he possessed Ultimate Force.

D*mn it! Am I fated to die here? Jared couldn’t help but curse inwardly. Noticing Wrey, Yona retracted his hand and asked, “Mr. Lindt, why are you here?”

“Yona, are you plotting something by leaving the group with Isaac and coming here? Or perhaps there are some secrets you don’t want to let us know?” Wrey asked with a sneer.

“What are you talking about, Mr. Lindt? What secret could there be? We came here to track down Jared. We want to kill this b*stard to avenge your son, Mr.

Lindt! If there are too many people, I'm afraid Jared will notice and be alarmed," Yona hurriedly explained. However, he was actually lying because he didn't want Wrey and the others to know his secret.

"Yes, Yona is right. We came here to pursue Jared. In fact, we've already caught him. I even lost an arm because of this. This brat tried to run, but we stopped him," Isaac quickly elaborated further.

"Isaac, don't think I don't know what you're trying to do by making up excuses to leave the group. Since we've agreed to form a team, no one should have a hidden agenda. You've been seeking and killing phantoms along the way. Do you think we wouldn't notice?

Besides, you're here because the phantoms are crawling out from this place, and you can kill more phantoms. It's just a coincidence that you ran into Jared hiding here and clashed with him, yet you tell me you want to avenge my son?" Wrey bluntly exposed Yona and Isaac's doings..

Isaac's and Yona's faces turned pale as they listened to Wrey's words. They knew if the situation was turned against them, they would face serious repercussions. Their sects might even end up like Luminous Sect, getting excommunicated and eventually eradicated.

"Yona, since you could enhance your abilities by killing phantoms, why didn't you share such a great technique with us? Why did you involve Isaac only? Are you trying to work alone?

It seems like you aren't that sincere in joining our hidden realm. We were even kind enough to let you replace Luminous Sect's position. It looks like Demonic Cultivation is evil after all. You ungrateful b*stard!" Hugh said to Yona..

Hearing that, Yona grimaced and immediately explained to Hugh, "Mr. Fairchild, I was wrong. I'm willing to share my technique with everyone!" Hugh smiled and said to Wrey, "Wrey, since they knew they were wrong, we can just let this matter slide. The most important thing right now is to kill Jared and avenge our fallen sons."

Wrey nodded, then turned to the weakened Jared. "Do you think you can escape today? Is there anyone who can save you now? Any person who I, Wrey Lindt, wish to kill will never get away."

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2385

“I’m not running, and I don’t need anyone to save me. I’ll just stay here and listen to your shameless big talks. You should know better than anyone how many times I’ve evaded you,” Jared uttered nonchalantly while leaning on his Dragonslayer Sword.

Jared’s remark made Wrey seethe with anger. He hadn’t expected Jared, who was on the verge of his limits, to still dare to talk back to him in that insolent manner.

“Brat, you’re bloody stubborn. I swear I’ll torment you to my heart’s content today.” Enraged, Wrey unleashed his overwhelming aura to envelop Jared. At that moment, Ultimate Force within Jared’s body glimmered, but Jared continued to suppress it from bursting forth.

He gritted his teeth, struggling to resist the profound aura emanated from Wrey while saying disdainfully, “I heard someone peed in his pants from fright when encountering a Manifestor. Was that you? Wetting your pants when you ran into a Manifestor while acting haughtily toward those inferior to you. You’re no different from a spineless cur!”

Jared provoked Wrey continuously because when someone was beside themselves with fury, they wouldn’t be able to think straight and would also be less observant. Jared wanted to make Wrey lose his keen vigilance. Otherwise, the latter would soon discover the force within him.

“Brat, go to hell!” Wrey’s anger peaked right after he heard Jared saying the words “peed their pants.” He balled his fist and punched Jared’s abdomen with all his might.

Jared’s body was instantly blasted backward like a piece of leaf. Only after flying hundreds of meters did Jared land heavily, forming a deep crater on the ground. Jared, who had initially managed to escape to the entrance of the valley, was now thrown backward again.

Blech! Jared propped his body up with his hands and spat out a mouthful of blood. At that moment, his forehead was drenched in a cold sweat, and the pain from his internal organs was unbearable.

Although Jared’s physique was already robust, he still got hurt after enduring a punch from Wrey. If it weren’t because Jared had unleashed a trace of Ultimate Force when Wrey assaulted him earlier, that attack would've killed Jared.

Meanwhile, when Wrey and the others noticed Jared was still alive and even used Dragonslayer Sword to pull himself up, they were astounded and rendered speechless. "That guy's body is insanely tough!" "Who exactly is he? Is there no way to kill him?" "How strange. Very strange indeed..."

Everyone stared at Jared, who had risen again and began to speculate. A darkened expression spread across Wrey's countenance. Jared was already at his limits, yet his punch still couldn't kill Jared.

With so many people from the hidden realm watching, Wrey felt utterly humiliated. Wetting his pants was very embarrassing for him, yet he was being put to shame once again.

"Is that all you've got? Feels more like a tickle to me," Jared jeered at Wrey after wiping the blood, trickling down the corner of his mouth. Wrey blew a gasket, listening to Jared's mockery. The hair on his scalp bristled, and his clothes billowed even in the absence of wind.

"I'm going to kill you! I'll kill you! I'll tear you to pieces!" Wrey bellowed. His figure turned into a blur as he materialized before Jared the next instant.

Immediately afterward, bursts of golden light, which was dazzling like the sun, erupted from Wrey's fists, and he struck Jared ferociously. Jared hastily surveyed his surroundings.

When the potent punch collided with Jared's body, he flew backward once again. This time, he was sent even further, but while his body was still in midair, he let out all the Ultimate Force within him.

Jared's figure shone with blinding radiance, and a powerful aura cocooned him as he traveled through the air to the distance.

At that sight, Wrey let out a loud cry of dismay and quickly gave chase. "This is bad. I walked right into his trap. I can't believe that brat still had some strength left..."

Seeing that, the others also followed suit. It finally dawned on them that Jared had deliberately provoked Wrey, then used the impact force of the latter's punch to escape. That had been his plan all along!

While Jared was up ahead, fleeing for his life, Wrey and his group were hot on his heels. Although Jared had unleashed Ultimate Force, his head still spun, and he felt as though he was about to faint.

"I can't pass out. I absolutely can't let that happen..." He bit his tongue hard in a desperate attempt to remain conscious. However, he soon came to the farthest end of the valley. A dark abyss lay at the end of the path where the altar had been destroyed.

Countless phantoms were still crawling out from the abyss, and after noticing Jared, they brandished their knives and started charging toward him. However, Jared had no wish to fight with the phantoms. Hence, he stepped aside and dodged them.

At that moment, Wrey and the rest finally caught up to Jared. Upon seeing that Jared had nowhere to run, Wrey finally breathed a sigh of relief. Everyone would've laughed at me if I had allowed him to get away!

When the phantoms saw that more people had arrived, they started attacking. As Hugh led the others to slaughter the phantoms, Wrey fixed his gaze on Jared and sneered. "I nearly fell for your trick, you brat. Let's see where else you can run now."

"I've told you that you can't kill me, so there's no way I'll die at your hands. I won't let that happen..." The corners of Jared's lips curved upward slightly. Then, with one sudden leap, he jumped straight into the abyss the phantoms were coming out from!

"What..." Wrey was instantly dumbfounded. It had never occurred to him that Jared would jump in there. He dashed forward, only to discover that the abyss emitted a lethal intent many times stronger than that in the valley. Not only that, shrill screams filled the chasm, and phantoms continuously swarmed out of it. The scene sent a chill down his spine.

He did not know if he should jump down too and kill Jared with his own hands. Whatever was in the abyss was a mystery to him, not to mention the lethal intent was too strong. As such, he could not help feeling at little fearful! Just then, Hugh came over. "What's the matter?"

Did Jared jump in?" "Yes," Wrey replied, nodding. Hugh glanced into the dark pit before saying, "There's such a strong lethal intent in there, and many phantoms too. Jumping down there will probably mean the end for him anyway. We should leave this place first, then stand guard at the valley's entrance. If he does make it out alive, that's the only place he can go. We can't kill these phantoms anymore. After we've mastered Yona's techniques, these phantoms will be our best resource."

Hugh's reminder stemmed from his worry that Wrey's desire for revenge would cloud his rationality. Wrey snapped to his senses at those words, and when he saw that many phantoms had been killed, he was deeply distressed.

"Retreat! Let's hurry up and get out of here!" Hearing his command, everyone hastily fell back. When they arrived at the entrance to the valley, Wrey had his men close the gates, which stood dozens of meters tall, that led to the valley. The reason was to prevent the phantoms from getting out.

We need to learn the techniques first. Only then will we open the gates and kill those phantoms! Turning to Yona, Wrey said, "Here's your chance for redemption. Teach us your techniques."

"Very well." Yona nodded and did not dare to say anything else. After that, she began imparting her knowledge to the group. Thus, Wrey and the people from the hidden realm began learning the techniques of Demonic Cultivation from Yona.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2387

Inside the valley's abyss, Jared's body was slowly falling downward. He could sense the thick and intense lethal intent around him, and his brain began to get fuzzy.

He vaguely felt something keep brushing past him. It seemed to be the phantoms, but at the same time, it did not seem like them. If it's them, why don't they attack me?

Before he knew it, he lost consciousness. Although his body continued falling downward, it seemed like he was being supported as his speed of descent became much slower.

Finally, his body landed on a circular platform. The moment he stopped falling, numerous phantoms swarmed around him. However, after taking one look at him, they did not attack and merely crawled out of the abyss.

He lay there quietly. Even as scores of phantoms passed by him, not a single one tried to harm him. After what seemed like forever, Jared slowly opened his eyes. Apart from the pitch-black darkness surrounding him, he was also greeted by the sight of teeming crowds of phantoms.

The phantoms emitted a faint white glow in the abyss, and they would float upward one after another. Alarmed to see the sheer number of phantoms, he gripped his Dragonslayer Sword tightly and looked around warily.

A moment later, however, he realized that those phantoms seemed to not see him. None of them wanted to attack him! He heaved a sigh of relief. Then, he began to survey his surroundings..

Although he could not see much clearly due to the darkness, he could clearly see the round platform beneath his feet. He circled it once and found that its diameter spanned a hundred meters. It was massive. However, there seemed to be more space under the platform, and the whole platform appeared suspended in midair.

“What is this place?” he muttered. I remember jumping into the abyss under the altar, but I wasn’t expecting it to be so big! He wanted to use his spiritual sense to investigate the space, but no sooner had he tried doing that than he realized he had already depleted the spiritual energy in his elixir field.

Exasperated, he had no choice but to sit cross- legged and start restoring his strength. Fortunately, there was an abundance of lethal intent around him. It was no different to him than spiritual energy, so he could quickly replenish his energy.

However, he had just activated his Focus Technique when he frowned. “Huh? Why does it seem as though this place contains Skylar’s aura?” He was surprised, wondering why Skylar’s aura would appear in such a place.

Jared could not remember how long it had been since he last saw Skylar. In fact, he had no idea whether the latter was still alive or not. However, the unexpected appearance of Skylar’s aura made him suddenly think about the latter.

Nonetheless, his surprise only lasted for a while, and he swiftly entered a cultivation state. I don't believe that Skylar was here. After all, this is a place that I inadvertently stumbled upon. It's impossible that he would've been here. While he was quickly recovering through cultivation, Matthew, Yashur, and the others were on pins and needles inside the secret realm.

They had also regained their strength but were panicking because Jared was nowhere to be seen, They were worried that things would not turn out well for Jared if he happened to run into Wrey and his gang. Jared alone would not be able to fight against so many opponents. Hence, such an encounter would only mean certain death for him!

"Well? Did you find Mr. Chance?" Yashur asked anxiously, his brows tightly furrowed. Matthew shook his head. "Nope. I covered two hundred miles this time, but I still didn't come across any sign of him."

"Neither did I. I sent all my disciples out to search but haven't received any news," Great Diviner piped up with a shake of his head. A sinking feeling crept over Yashur when he heard that, thinking there was no way Jared would not have returned after so many days if he was indeed fine. He should know we'll worry about him. Since he isn't back yet, he must be in danger!

"Let's split up to look for him. Whether we find him or not, we'll meet back here three days later." With that, Yashur disappeared from their sight in a flash.

Matthew and Great Diviner also split up and headed in separate directions to continue their search.

There was a huge amount of lethal intent in the cave, so Jared recovered very quickly. After he had recuperated, he gradually opened his eyes and realized he was still on the round platform.

At that moment, Jared didn't dare to head up because he didn't know if Wrey and the others had left. Hence, he approached the edge of the round platform and looked down. There was nothing but pitch-black darkness, so he couldn't tell how deep the cave was.

“Could it be hell down there?” Jared’s curiosity. was piqued as he stared into what seemed to be a bottomless cave. At the same time, the phantoms were still constantly emerging, and as it turned out, they were coming out from within the cave.

“There are so many phantoms. What’s underneath?” Jared paced back and forth curiously. In the end, he gritted his teeth and jumped off the round platform and into the bottomless cave.

The moment he jumped off the round platform, Jared felt an intense wave of oppressive pressure preventing him from falling at high speed. Something’s holding on to me and preventing me from going under.

Jared had no choice but to use his elixir field to increase the weight of his body. Only then did his speed recover. However, as Jared fell into the cave, the oppressive pressure intensified to the point. where it was enough to crush his body.

If it weren’t for his robust physique and Golem Body, Jared would’ve been reduced to a bloody pulp by now. After some time, Jared suddenly felt weightless, and in the next second, he plummeted like a meteor. In response, Jared quickly tried to balance his body. As his speed of descent increased, his surroundings became brighter.

Boom! A loud crash rang out, and Jared crashed. heavily onto the ground, causing a crater to form. Jared gathered himself and slowly climbed out of that crater. As soon as he climbed out of the deep crater, he was utterly stunned.

With a gloomy sky over his head, he noticed mountains surrounding him, and the ground was filled with countless skeletons and weapons.

There were also a few crows hovering over the land that seemed barren and lifeless. Apart from the crows in the sky, there wasn’t a single sign of life in the area.

“W-What is this place? Is this an ancient battlefield?” Jared’s face was filled with disbelief. I don’t get it. I was in that dark cave moments ago. How did I suddenly end up here? Could the cave be a Teleportation Array? Did I get teleported here? I don’t understand what’s happening! Where am I?

Even after Jared had unleashed his spiritual sense to the maximum, he still couldn’t detect any source of aura. Well, since I’m already here, I might as well check out the area. Who knows? I might end up finding something mysterious here!

There, Jared noticed that the skeletons were shining brightly. Afterward, phantoms would emerge sky. from the skeletons and float into the Jared then lifted his gaze to see where the phantoms were heading to. Upon lifting his gaze, he saw a black hole swirling in the air and devouring the phantoms.

“What? Did I fall through there?” Jared stared at the black hole in the sky and understood something. I must’ve fallen through that black hole. Meanwhile, these phantoms are making their way to the mountains through the black hole! That must be it! Otherwise, why would these phantoms float into the sky and get devoured by the black hole?

Seeing that, Jared swung Dragonslayer Sword in the air. There are plenty of phantoms in the sky, so I can kill a dozen with one swing! That way, my Ultimate Force will increase!

To Jared’s surprise, something bizarre happened. After he took a swing at the phantoms, the light emitted from his Dragonslayer Sword merely passed through the phantoms without causing them any damage..

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2389

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2389-The phantoms were also ignoring Jared’s presence as if he wasn’t there. Jared was dumbfounded. Why can’t I attack those phantoms here? After a few more tries, Jared eventually gave up.

With Dragonslayer Sword in his grip, Jared walked mindlessly around the area surrounded by mountains. As he was walking, the skeletons on the ground exuded wave after wave of icy aura. What exactly happened here? How did so many people die here? Shortly after, Jared stumbled upon a giant skeleton, and he couldn’t help but gasp in astonishment.

The skeleton was over ten meters high, and it was still completely intact. However, it was a strange sight because not only was the skeleton in a kneeling position, but its bones. were also shiny and crystal clear. Besides, it was exuding an intense wave of aura.

Again, Jared was baffled. Judging by the size of this person’s skeleton, he seemed to have been a lot bigger than Hadad. Other than that, they look the same! Even the bones are crystal clear! Still, I’ve never seen this giant before.

Although the skeleton is in a kneeling position, I still have to lift my head to look at it!

As Jared was scanning the skeleton, he noticed that there was a crystal clear arrow in the skull. If I hadn't taken a close look at it, I would've missed it!

Jared then slowly floated into the air to get closer to the skull. Right then, he noticed that the arrow was only a few inches long. The arrow is in between the brows! Hence, the owner of this skeleton was most probably killed by this arrow!

Curious, Jared reached out his hand toward the arrow. He wanted to pull it out to see if it was a magical item. Right before he could touch the arrow, Jared suddenly felt a sense of danger. In the next moment, the arrow shone brightly and unleashed a wave of intense aura to send him flying backward.

Jared was flung a few dozen meters away before crashing onto the ground violently. Upon impact, Jared felt his internal organs churning and spat out a mouthful of blood.

Obviously, Jared's body was incredibly strong at that time, and he had Golem Body activated. By right, not even a Martial Arts Sovereign could cause an injury of that severity to him. Yet, the arrow almost killed Jared with its aura.

After getting injured, Jared took a deep breath and stared at the arrow. If it's capable of unleashing such an intense wave of aura, it's definitely something extraordinary. It might be a magical arrow!

At that thought, Jared used his spiritual energy to unleash waves of aura to resist the overwhelming pressure the arrow was exuding. Again, he tried to approach the arrow. I need to take it out to have a good look at it!

The moment Jared got closer to it, he was sent flying away once again by an enormous wave of aura. Jared tried a few more times after that, and it was clear that he couldn't get close to the arrow.

Even when Jared was unleashing the Power of Dragons, he still failed to get close to it. Evidently, the aura the arrow was exuding was a lot more intense than Jared's spiritual energy and the Power of Dragons.

After several attempts, Jared's face was as pale as a sheet, and blood was streaming down the corners of his lips. "F*ck! How am I not strong enough to retrieve the arrow? I refuse to accept this!" Jared was seeing red.

When Jared tried again, he suddenly noticed that Ultimate Force in his body was shining brightly. Seeing that, Jared quickly unleashed his Ultimate Force. As soon as he did that, the arrow in the skull shone brightly as well. In fact, it even started to vibrate.

"Can Ultimate Force control the arrow?" Jared unleashed his Ultimate Force continuously and made his way toward the arrow.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2390

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2390-True enough, the arrow was no longer exuding the strong wave of aura. However, right when Jared was about to grab the arrow, it started to vibrate even more violently all of a sudden. A second after that, it flew out of the skull and flew away.

The skeleton crumbled to the ground right after the arrow dislodged itself. "You're not getting away!" Jared ignored the crumbling skeleton and went after the arrow.

Like a ray of light, the arrow flew toward one of the highest peaks in the area, and Jared just kept chasing after it. When the arrow arrived at the peak, it suddenly lost its speed. Therefore, Jared quickly grabbed it.

The arrow was so cold that Jared almost let go of it as soon as he caught it. It's crystal clear and cold. It's as if the arrow is made of ice! "It seems like there's nothing special about this arrow." Apart from the icy touch, Jared didn't find anything special about it.

Jared then tried to infuse it with his Ultimate Force, but the arrow remained the same. Just as Jared was feeling puzzled, the ground suddenly shook, and he heard a series of beastly roars echo through the air.

Jared instantly looked down from the mountain and saw an army of phantoms. One of the phantoms was a dozen meters tall. Right away, he knew the giant skeleton from moments earlier belonged to the tall phantom.

In the face of the ferocious and roaring. phantoms, Jared couldn't help but shudder. Just now, the atmosphere in the area was peaceful. Why did they all become startled?

Confused, Jared looked up into the sky. He was stupefied when he saw that the black hole in the sky had disappeared. The phantoms have nowhere to go! No wonder they all became violent! Wait... What should I do now? Where should I go? If the black hole is gone, how am I supposed to go back?

Needless to say, Jared found himself in a tight spot. Will I be trapped here forever? This is a deserted place I don't even know where this is! As Jared stood there, unsure of what to do, the phantoms started climbing up the mountain.

Seeing that the phantoms were about to attack him, Jared kept the arrow and pulled out. Dragonslayer Sword. I'll fight these phantoms to my death!

Right before the phantoms arrived at the peak, a glaring ray of light shot out. In the blink of an eye, the phantoms on the mountain vanished into thin air. The other phantoms on the ground saw that and halted in their tracks.

Jared looked at the source of luminosity and saw a bow embedded in a stone wall, with only a small part of the bow exposed. That bow emitted that glaring ray of light!

With that in mind, Jared rushed toward it and freed the bow with Dragonslayer Sword. Shortly after, the entire bow was exposed. An exquisite bow emitting bursts of golden light appeared before Jared's eyes, and he reached out to grab it. A buzzing sound rang out from the bow after Jared grabbed it. At the same time, his Ultimate Force started churning from within.

Although Jared didn't know what grade of weapon the bow was, he knew it was an impressive weapon. An ordinary weapon isn't. capable of emitting golden rays of light and unleashing an aura as strong as this!

Jared scrutinized the bow and quickly saw two words on the grip. The words read: Divine Bow. "Huh? Is this weapon called Divine Bow?" Jared fell in love with Divine Bow instantly.
