A Man Like None Other Chapter 2495-Having been ignored by Jared, Skylar fumed.

“How dare you ignore me, Jared? I’m going to make you suffer a fate worse than death today!”

With that said, Skylar unleashed the aura in him, filling the room with the aura of a Top Level Manifestor.

At the same time, a black star glittered in between Skylar’s eyes.

When Quindon and the others sensed the aura Skylar was emanating, they were livid. After all, they had gotten the power that Skylar now wielded with the lives of their disciples.

However, Tanner was right in front of them, so Quindon and the others did not dare to do anything. After all, they were afraid of Tanner’s power.

After unleashing the Top Level Manifestor’s aura, Skylar looked at Jared icily and uttered, “Do you see this? That’s real power.”

Jared did not speak, but he unleashed his aura as well. No matter what happened, he had to stop the restoration of the spiritual energy.

“A Sixth Level Manifestor?” Skylar mused out loud with a sneer when he sensed Jared’s aura. “Are you really trying to fight against me with this meager power?”

Skylar scoffed. He then grabbed the air. As the space before him seemed to quiver, a golden sword appeared in his hand. As Skylar injected his aura into the sword, the sword hummed.

“Die!”

Skylar leaped. This time, he was all the power he had. After all, Tanner was witnessing their fight. Defeat was not an option, and Skylar was going to kill Jared for good.

Tanner made no move to stop Skylar, even when Skylar exhibited signs of wanting to kill Jared. It seemed like Jared’s life no longer seemed that important.

At that, Jared swung his Dragonslayer Sword. In the next second, a flash of light rushed toward Skylar to engage in a battle with him.

Both men were exerting all their strength in the battle. The space seemed to have imploded as sword shadows crisscrossed all over the area.

Although Jared had a lower cultivation level, he was still holding his ground in his fight. In fact, he was simultaneously watching Tanner, waiting to see when

Tanner was going to activate the Spiritual Energy Restoration Formation. Jared and Skylar were fighting, but Tanner did not even bother glancing at them. Instead, he swung his arm and said, "Charge! Kill everyone in front of us."

That was an order directed to the purple-robed emissaries, as well as the hundreds of Evil Heart Sect disciples.

However, Quindon and the purple-robed emissaries did not carry out Tanner's orders immediately, for they were now working with Jared to destroy Evil Heart Sect.

Quindon gave a look to the other emissaries. They noticed that Tanner was not on his guard in front of them, so they gritted their teeth, put one foot forward, and shot out their palms toward him.

It was an attack that encompassed the power they had accumulated throughout their lifetime. They knew that their lives were in danger if they could not take down Tanner in one move.

Six gusts of destructive wind attacks were launched in ruthlessness at Tanner. As Quindon and the emissaries were close to Tanner, and as they had used everything they had in their attacks, the six gusts of wind attacks struck Tanner in the blink of an eye.

Right as Quindon and the emissaries were about to feel thrilled, they abruptly realized that the wind attacks had gone through Tanner and disappeared into the air instead.

At the same time, Tanner turned to look at Quindon and the rest. His gaze made fresh terror rear up within them, but they could do nothing but stare at him, wide-eyed with trembling legs.

Yet, to their surprise, Tanner did not do anything to them. Instead, he slowly ascended up into the air to look downward at the scene unfolding below him. In the meantime, the members of Evil Heart Sect had already begun fighting. The elder of Divine Smithing Sect was leading the men that had been rescued from the dungeon to fight against the disciples of Evil Heart Sect.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2496-As the members of Divine Smithing Sect had been locked up for over a decade, they were weak. Moreover, they were injured, so they had a hard time gaining an upper hand over the members of Evil Heart Sect.

At that, Quindon and the emissaries took off their masks to join the fight. The second Aislin saw her father, she darted over to him. However, when her gaze landed on his purple robe, disbelief entered her eyes.

Nevertheless, it was not the right time for Quindon to explain everything to her. He could only focus on his fight against the members of Evil Heart Sect. With Quindon and the emissaries joining in, the members of Evil Heart Sect started waning in the fight.

Meanwhile, Malphas was hiding in a corner as he watched the battle unfold, not knowing what to do.

Tanner, who was floating in the air, could see everyone from his position. Tanner showed no signs of anger despite noticing Malphas hiding in a corner. There was no sorrow in Tanner's eyes as he watched the members of Evil Heart Sect fall one after another, lifeless. It was as if those who died were nothing but strangers to him.

Jared and Skylar engaged in a fierce battle, swinging their swords with great vigor. Despite Skylar having a higher cultivation level than Jared, he soon realized that he was losing his advantage in the fight.

The realization darkened Skylar's expression, fueling his determination as he swung his sword with even greater ferocity.

As everyone was preoccupied with their respective battles, no one noticed that a black hole in Divine Quest Sect's secret realm was absorbing the aura the people were unleashing.

All aura, anger, murderous intent, and even the souls of the dead were getting sucked into the black hole.

Having no idea of its existence, the people continued fighting to their deaths. As the battle intensified, the casualties mounted, and the wicked grin spread across Tanner's face grew ever more pronounced.

"Jared, how can you keep up in the fight against me for such a long time despite having a lesser cultivation level than me? Why? Why is this so? Do you know how much suffering I had to go through to kill you?"

Skylar could not fathom why he was unable to defeat Jared despite upgrading himself by absorbing the power of others.

"Do you think that this fight has gone on for far too long? In that case, let's end this."

In a swift motion, Jared hurled his Dragonslayer Sword, and his body began to emit a radiant golden glow. As the glow intensified, shimmering golden scales emerged, enveloping his entire form.

Skylar froze. He never thought that Jared would toss his weapon.

Though he sensed that Jared had to have a reason for that, he could not pass up the chance of striking Jared down while Jared was unarmed before him.

"Die!"

Skylar unleashed an immensely powerful strike, unleashing a colossal beam of golden light that surged toward Jared with incredible force.

Boom!

The sound of a thunderous explosion was accompanied by a blinding burst of light. In the next moment, a frenzied aura began rushing in all directions. The slash had stupefied all the fighting people as they stared at the air in a trance.

Jared's body was struck by the sword, and he plummeted like a meteor before crashing heavily onto the ground. The impact created a deep crease that spanned over ten meters in diameter.

The turn of events left the members of Divine Smithing Sect in a state of shock. They had anticipated Jared's return to Ethereal Realm, only to witness his demise as soon as he made a move.

Quindon and the others were equally taken aback by the outcome. They had not anticipated that Jared would struggle against Skylar, so how was he supposed to defeat Tanner and Evil Heart Sect?

Meanwhile, Skylar glanced down at the smoke and saw no sign of Jared's body—he only saw the dust-filled ground. At that, he could not help but burst into laughter.

“Hahaha! Jared, at the end of the day, you're still no match for me. I've finally killed you!”

Skylar was elated and smug.

What he did not notice was the presence of the sword spirit, Zelda, who was brandishing a sharp sword and poised to strike him from above.

Tanner could see that Zelda was about to deal a fatal blow to Skylar, but he made no move to intervene.
