A Man Like None Other Chapter 2678-“Is that so, Mr. Samoll? Is it dangerous to venture deep into the medicinal pool?” Viola asked anxiously in a hushed voice.

Ghaylen nodded solemnly. “According to records, the deeper one goes into the medicinal pool, the more concentrated and overpowering the spiritual energy becomes. It’s challenging for an ordinary person’s body to withstand. Even Helius, who had once soaked in the medicinal pool for three hours, didn’t dare to venture deep inside. If Mr. Chance really wishes to dive into it, I’m afraid the chances of success are slim.”

Viola’s face turned grim after she listened to his explanation. She had just developed feelings for Jared, but now he was about to put himself in such a perilous situation.

“Master, maybe I should go back and take a look.” Zebediah was ready to return to check on the situation.

“Stop right there!” Hosen exclaimed all of a sudden. “What do you take the medicinal pool for? Your family’s bathhouse that you can just enter whenever you want? Now that you two have already come out, we’ll close the medicinal pool.”

Hosen was ready to close the medicinal pool. “Hosen, how can you close the pool when my disciple is still in there?” Ghaylen immediately questioned Hosen.

“It has been two hours. There’s no way Jared could have lasted that long inside. He might have already been reduced to a pool of blood,” Hosen said indifferently.

“Hosen, Helius has once stayed inside the pool for three hours. Jared is only in there for about two hours, yet you want to close it?” Ghaylen continued questioning him.

“Are you trying to compare Jared with Helius?” Hosen let out a cold snort. “Fine! If you say so, I’ll give you another hour. If Jared still doesn’t come out, I’ll close the medicinal pool!”

Hosen found a large rock to sit on and waited in silence. Ghaylen could only pray for Jared to come out. soon, but he knew the odds were slim. At that moment, Jared was still floating calmly in the pale green area.

The Golem Body was still shining with a dazzling golden light. Jared gradually opened his eyes before going down into the pool once more. Soon, the surrounding light dimmed, and. everything turned pitch-black. Even the water in the medicinal pool had turned dark.

Jared could only rely on his spiritual sense to cautiously explore his surroundings. Suddenly, a crisp sound rang out in his consciousness field. It sounded like a chick hatching from its shell.

His body trembled, and brilliance shimmered in his eyes. Jared immediately retracted his spiritual sense and stopped moving. He knew he was about to experience a breakthrough.

Jared's meridians had been unblocked, enabling spiritual energy to flow freely through every part of his body without restraint.

Boom! Suddenly, the calm medicinal pool surged with immense waves, and a large water column shot up from the bottom of the pool and soared into the sky. I've reached the Top Level Manifestor!

Jared's face was brimming with excitement. He had never imagined achieving such a breakthrough within such a short time inside the medicinal pool. It had been difficult for him to reach that level.

He felt that the spiritual energy in his body had condensed to a new level, and both his spiritual sense and physical body had become much stronger.

Jared's heart swelled with excitement. Cultivating in this medicinal pool was far faster than outside by many times. It seems staying here a little longer can help me break through the Manifestor level, and reaching the Body Fusion Realm is just a matter of time.

He felt a sense of satisfaction with his decision to enter the medicinal pool. He had never imagined that the pool within Emerald Cauldron Sect could possess such immense power. At the entrance, the group of people waiting for Jared had heard the commotion inside.

"What's that noise?" The crowd turned their attention to the pool.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2679-“It sounds like someone is making a breakthrough,” someone deduced. “The aura is so intense. Is Jared experiencing a breakthrough inside right now?” another person wondered.

Hosen and Ebenezer wore serious expressions as they directed their gaze toward the medicinal pool. Jared’s potential breakthrough inside could indeed lead to complications. “Master, does that aura belong to Mr. Chance?” Zebediah asked Ghaylen right away.

Ghaylen remained silent because he could not answer Zebediah’s question. If it was Jared who had experienced a breakthrough, it meant he had reached the Body Fusion Realm.

However, achieving such a feat in such a short time seemed implausible. What Ghaylen did not know was whenever Jared experienced a breakthrough, the impact would be far more powerful than others..

If Jared were to reach the Body Fusion Realm, the entire Emerald Cauldron Sect might be engulfed by the lightning tribulation. “Hosen, I think we should close the medicinal pool!” Ebenezer said.

Hosen nodded, preparing to close the medicinal pool. Regardless of who caused the disturbance, closing it would mean that anyone trapped inside would meet their end.

“Hosen, didn’t you promise to wait for two hours? It’s not time yet!” Ghaylen questioned Hosen. “I have other matters to attend to. I don’t have time for this!” Hosen replied firmly. With his hands slowly clasped together, the entrance to the medicinal pool began to close.

“Master...” Zebediah started panicking as he watched the medicinal pool close. Jared will be dead for sure if he’s still alive in there!

Ghaylen wore a displeased expression, but with the closure of the medicinal pool, there was nothing more he could do. “Come on. Let’s go,” he said with a hint of resignation, taking Zebediah and Viola away.

Just when they were about to leave, Ebenezer suddenly stopped him from leaving. “Ghaylen, why does this new disciple of yours look somewhat familiar? Have I met her before?”

The longer Ebenezer gazed at Viola, the more her appearance seemed familiar to him, yet he could not quite recall where they might have met before.

“How could you have met her? She’s just a new disciple I recruited from elsewhere!” Ghayler replied with a forced smile, but inwardly, he was nervous to the extreme. It would be disastrous if Ebenezer were to discover Viola’s true identity.

“Well, maybe I’m mistaken. But this new disciple you’ve recruited seems quite formidable.” Ebenezer observed Viola for a moment before stepping aside to let them pass. Ghayler hurriedly led Zebediah and Viola away. Hosen turned to Ebenezer and asked, “What’s wrong?”

“Nothing. She just looks familiar.” Ebenezer brushed it off before leaving the pool with his people.

However, a suspicion had arisen in Ebenezer’s mind. He chose not to share it with Hosen and decided to conduct a private investigation into Viola’s background.

Ebenezer believed that if Viola turned out to be the person he suspected, he could use that knowledge to his advantage and implement his plan accordingly.

After everyone left, the medicinal pool regained its tranquility. Meanwhile, Jared continued his descent into the depths of the medicinal pool.

Despite the terrifying surge of spiritual energy engulfing him, he quickly neutralized it with the Focus Technique. His formidable physical body provided additional protection, keeping him safe for the time being.

As he ventured deeper, he lost track of time. Suddenly, he noticed a faint light illuminating a massive formation pattern at the bottom of the pool.

Jared followed the light, and to his astonishment, he discovered a colossal arcane array emitting a faint glow. It was evident that the formation was activating! The glow on the patterns appeared dim, possibly due to the passage of time.
