A Man Like None Other Chapter 3021-The Five Slayers were about to die under the immense pressure when a deep and piercing voice came through.

“Brother, you still enjoy bullying the juniors, don’t you?”

As the void began to tremble, a pitch-black vortex formed. The old demon slowly emerged from that vortex!

As soon as the old demon appeared, the enormous pressure from before instantly disappeared!

“Brother, it’s been a long time...”

The old demon smiled faintly at Jared.

The Five Slayers stared at the old demon in shock. Why is this old demon calling Jared “brother”?

They were even more puzzled by how Jared’s strength had suddenly become so powerful!

“It’s been over a thousand years, and you’re still stubbornly trying to restore your physical body and continue your evil deeds? As long as I’m here, you will never succeed...”

The voice of the elder of the Archaic Body cultivators came from Jared’s mouth!

Upon hearing Jared’s voice, the Five Slayers instantly understood what was going on.

“Haha! I can’t believe you have the nerve to boast at this point. This kid may have allowed you to merge with his body, but his body is ultimately garbage. Even if you merge with him, you’re no match for me. Today, I shall make you vanish completely. The Archaic Body cultivators will ultimately bow to me!”
The old demon laughed heartily.

Then, his entire body was swiftly shrouded in black mist, which instantly enveloped the entire hall in darkness!

Following that, the old demon leaped toward Jared.

Jared's eyes narrowed slightly as he soared into the sky. In an instant, the two of them clashed!

For a moment, various techniques collided, and residual shockwaves raged in all directions!

Even though both of them were reduced to their soul remnants, the destruction caused by their battle was beyond what ordinary cultivators could do!

As the entire hall began to collapse, the incredibly fierce aura from the battle left everyone breathless!

Everyone hastily retreated when they saw that because the aftermath was something that they couldn't deal with, given their current cultivation levels.

Even the residual shockwaves would be able to kill them!

Everyone watched from afar as the two skilled cultivators engaged in battle, for most of them would never have the chance to witness such a battle like this in their lifetime again!

"Brother, you did choose a good body, but unfortunately, your strength is too weak... If this is all you've got, then don't blame me for not entertaining you any longer..." The old demon smirked.

Jared furrowed his brows slightly. Over this extended period, the old demon had continually honed his skills. Coupled with his initial strength advantage, Jared was clearly at a disadvantage at this moment!

Since the elder of the Archaic Body cultivators had remained in this world undisturbed, he had never intended to restore his physical body. He had only been biding his time and waiting for his soul remnant to disappear along with this area!

As a result, he was weaker than his younger brother now that they were battling against each other.

Fortunately, Jared's physical body was formidable enough. If the elder of the Archaic Body cultivators were still just a soul remnant, he would have been defeated long ago!

However, Jared still hadn't used the Demon Flogger because he was saving his trump card for the end.

Once the Demon Flogger was brought out, it could instantly suppress the old demon!

However, it wasn't the right time to use the Demon Flogger just yet. After all, the old demon wasn't foolish. He had been cautious all along.

Jared could only catch the old demon off guard with his Demon Flogger when the latter let his guard down, thinking he could easily win.

So, Jared was waiting for the right opportunity to strike.

"Brother, this is getting boring. I won't entertain you anymore..."

After the old demon spoke, the black mist around his body started to churn.

Those waves of black mist instantly condensed into sharp, short blades. With a wave of his finger, thousands of these short blades flew toward Jared like raindrops!

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3022-Seeing this, Jared immediately emitted beams of golden light and formed a shield with it, which successfully blocked all the short blades.

Instead of fuming in rage, the old demon merely smiled calmly. "Let's see how much spiritual energy you have left..."

With that, the old demon waved his hand again. As the black mist surged once again, strangely shaped demon beasts emerged from within. Roaring, they charged directly at Jared!

When Jared saw this, his golden light instantly transformed into thousands of golden swords that stabbed toward the demon beasts.

The golden swords pierced through the demon beasts, turning them back into masses of black mist!

However, a few of the demon beasts managed to break through the defenses of the thousand golden swords and charged toward Jared.

When Jared opened his mouth abruptly, a ball of flames spewed forth!

The flames exploded instantly, forming a wall of fire that evaporated the approaching demon beasts.

“What? Demonic fire?”

The old demon furrowed his brow slightly, his eyes filled with surprise.

He had just sensed the aura of the demon spirit from Jared’s demonic fire.

Even though he didn’t practice the demonic fire, he could still sense the demonic spirit aura from the flames!

“Hmph, you always act all high and mighty, but in the end, you found yourself the body of a Demonic Cultivator. Aren’t you the one who hated demon cultivators the most? Why did you merge with this Demonic Cultivator’s body?” The old demon scoffed coldly.

“You understand nothing. My body contains the auras of humans, demons, and beasts. You are so clueless...”

Jared laughed coldly.

Clearly, he was controlling the words that came out!

Although Jared couldn’t control his body with his spiritual sense, he could still control his speech.

“You little brat, I see you’ve managed to retain some part of your spiritual sense. Since that’s the case, your deaths will come even sooner...”

With that, the old demon quickly formed seals with his hands. Soon, the surrounding black mist condensed together.

In just a few seconds, an enormous and extremely ferocious beast appeared!

The old demon stood atop the head of this gigantic beast, looking coldly at Jared.

Then, the beast opened its massive, bloodthirsty maw and suddenly sucked with tremendous force.

A tremendous suction force headed straight for Jared!

Narrowing his eyes, Jared rapidly retreated backward!

The immense suction force even made numerous cultivators in the distance activate their techniques to resist it.

“Trying to escape?” the old demon sneered.

Then, countless black mists flew out from the old demon’s palm. After the mists transformed into a giant net, it descended from above and enveloped Jared!

Facing the giant net, Jared was momentarily stunned and unsure of what to do.

“Sir, charge toward that gigantic beast...” Jared reminded the elder of the Archaic Body Cultivators as loud as he could.

Perhaps because the elder of the Archaic Body cultivators had been suppressed and bullied for a long time, he lacked self-confidence. That explained why he was momentarily unsure when faced with this situation.

Since Jared couldn’t control his own body at the moment, he could only rely on a part of his spiritual sense to prompt the elder.

The elder quickly reacted and rushed toward the ferocious beast.

“Wow, I didn’t expect you to charge over so daringly. Are you that confident?”

The old demon clicked his tongue a few times before continuing, “Do you have no fear because you think this giant beast is a mere illusion? Too bad you’re wrong. This giant beast is going to devour you.”

Swish!

At that very moment, a tongue suddenly shot out from the mouth of the gigantic beast. It moved as fast as lightning, wrapping around Jared and then pulling him into its mouth.

When Jared landed inside the beast's mouth, it started chewing on him vigorously. It looked like it was going to tear him to shreds completely.

"Mr. Chance!"

"Jared!"

Standing from afar, Cloud and Sunny wore the same worried expressions on their faces.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3023-Typhon let out a slight smile, his eyes glistening mischievously.

Chomp! Chomp!

As the beast continued to chew, the sounds that rang out in the air were extremely gruesome.

"Kid, I'll give you control of the body, and my cultivation will be at your disposal. I'm really old now. The past thousand years have snuffed out any fighting spirit I have," the elder said.

Now that the two of them had combined together, the elder could give Jared full control with just a single thought.

The elder had insisted on maintaining control earlier because he felt that he was more battle-hardened and experienced than Jared.

However, if not for Jared's reminder, he would have lost the opportunity in his hesitation.

The elder now understood that only Jared was capable of wielding the full potential of Golden Dragon's True Form.

"Sir, I..."

It never crossed Jared's mind that the elder would hand him the reins of control.

Before Jared could respond, he realized that he was able to move his own body.

Right then, the beast, despite its repeated attempts at chewing, just couldn't tear Jared apart.

Jared's robust body was his biggest pride after all.

After going through countless trials and tribulations, it became so tough that few could land a scratch on it, even if he didn't enhance it with Golem Body.

It was due to this confidence that Jared allowed the elder to charge at the beast.

In contrast to Jared, the elder didn't have such faith despite combining with the former.

Right then, rays of golden light filtered through the beast's mouth. As Jared had activated Golem Body, golden scales began to cover him piece by piece.

Creak!

All of a sudden, a loud crack rang out as the beast's teeth were shattered into pieces one by one.

The beast's teeth were no match for the hardness of Golem Body.

"Sacred Light Fist..." Jared roared as he punched a hole through the beast's upper jaw and flew right through it.

At that moment, the sight of Jared floating in mid-air, covered by golden armor, made him look like a mythical deity.

"You actually have a Divine Safeguard, kid?"

The old demon cocked his brow when he saw Jared's Golem Body.

"I still have plenty of tricks up my sleeve. You'll see them for yourself one by one!"

With that, Jared charged at the old demon, who sniggered in response.

The moment he raised his hand, the beast transformed back into a black mist while he, too, charged forward to meet Jared's attack.

“My brother, has age clouded your judgment to dare fight me in close-range combat? You might be able to defeat me in a contest of illusion spells, but hoping to do so in a head-on clash is just delusion on your part,” the old demon sneered.

“Sacred Light Fist,” Jared roared.

His fist released a blistering golden light that heralded the launch of countless fist shadows.

With the elder’s support, Jared’s attack split into tens of thousands of fist shadows, blocking off the sky.

As the fists glistened like a galaxy of stars, they illuminated the entire surroundings and caused the black mist to dissipate.

However, the old demon manipulated the black mist, turning it into countless shadow clones, where every single one of them would smash Jared’s fists into pieces.

Amidst the disappearing fist shadows of Sacred Light Fist, the sky was again encapsulated by the black mist.

Swoosh...

Jared’s shadow clones also disappeared in that moment.

As for the old demon, his eyes narrowed as he turned around abruptly upon sensing something behind him.

He then unleashed a palm strike that carried with it an overwhelming black mist.

“My brother, are you trying to cast an illusion spell? I’ll be honest with you. It’s useless against me.”

The old demon’s eyes were filled with contempt.

“You old fogey, stop calling me your brother. It disgusts me...”

Jared’s voice reverberated in the surroundings.

Slightly shaken by it, the old demon replied, “Kid, you had better watch that tongue of yours. I might have fallen into your illusion array once, but it’s not going to happen a second time.”

Up in the air, Jared’s body suddenly appeared, but just as his fist made contact with the old demon’s body, he was struck on the chest by the latter’s palm.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3024-Disbelief was written all over Jared’s face, for he didn’t expect the old demon to make such an accurate judgment.

Right then, the black mist exploded, unleashing a thunderous boom and shockwave.

Jared grunted in pain as he crashed into the palace like a falling meteorite.

The huge impact from the crash caused the ground to collapse instantly. An area with a radius of a hundred meters within the palace was utterly destroyed, with smoke rising into the air.

“Hmph, how dare someone as weak as you behave so arrogantly?” the old demon sneered.

He knew from his palm strike that Jared wasn’t using an illusion spell, for he could feel Jared’s real body upon impact.

If it were an illusion spell, my attack would have struck thin air.

When Cloud, Kaison, and the others saw Jared sink into the ground from the blow he was dealt, all of them gasped.

At the same time, Sunny, Cameron, and the others began to activate their techniques and prepare for battle despite the shock on their faces.

If Jared couldn’t defeat the old demon, they would have no choice but to take him on.

At the very least, they would die a quick death in battle, which was much better than being tortured endlessly in the event of their capture.

When the old demon saw the dust thrown up from the impact, a smirk emerged across his face.

Just as he was about to go down and take a closer look, Jared suddenly flew out of the cloud of dust, unleashing another punch at the former.

“Sacred Light Fist.”

Once again, a golden light illuminated the entire space around them.

The sight of Jared unscathed astonished everyone, triggering looks of elation on the faces of Cloud, Kaison, and the others.

“Amazing. I can’t believe how robust his body is,” Cameron remarked in awe.

The fact that Jared survived stunned the old demon, who subsequently shook his head and formed a seal with both hands. Thereafter, thick plumes of black smoke began to rise, but Jared leaped into the air and fired another punch.

This time, the old demon intercepted it with a palm strike that, once again, sent Jared crashing deep into the ground.

“Your attack is no different from an itch of mine,” the old demon mocked.

The reason he dared to face Jared’s punch head-on was that he didn’t see it as a threat at all.

Furthermore, the black mist floating around the old demon also acted as a defensive shield.

It dissipated most of the power of Jared’s fist when it landed, preventing Jared from dealing any damage to the old demon.

As Cloud and the others watched from a distance, all they saw was Jared being buried into the ground again after being hit, a sight that caused them to grow anxious and their hearts to sink.

Are we destined to die even if we sacrificed everything?

A sense of pessimism began to weigh down on the group of cultivators.

By then, the entire palace had been reduced to rubble.

Nevertheless, Jared sprang up from beneath it, looking no different from before. It was as if the two palm strikes didn't manage to hurt him at all.

Once again, everyone was blown away by the scene.

Jared should have been killed by the two attacks. Even if he wasn't, he should, at the very least, be gravely injured. Yet he appears to be entirely unharmed.

As his Golem Body continued to emit a golden shimmer, a sharp and fearless glint flashed across Jared's eyes.

The sight of Jared before him triggered a furrow of the old demon's brows.

He found it outrageous that Jared had survived two of his palm strikes unscathed.

"Come at me again, you old fogey. It looks like you're not as strong as you make yourself out to be," Jared provoked the old demon, infuriating him.

Meanwhile, the Five Slayers, who were watching nearby, were filled with disbelief. Even though the elder of the Archaic Body cultivators had combined with Jared, the physical body was still Jared's.

There isn't a scratch on his body despite the devastating attacks. Isn't it ridiculous?

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3025-"I'm going to kill you!" the old demon thundered.

This time, it was the old demon's turn to attack. With a swift motion, he grabbed at thin air and managed to grip Jared's neck.

The sight of Jared in his captivity brought a smug smile to his face.

"It's time I put an end to your arrogance, kid."

With a vicious expression, he clenched his fist, and cracking sounds were soon heard coming from Jared's neck.

"My brother, I don't want to talk to the kid. Come out and face me. Both of us should say a final goodbye. All I need is to gently tighten my squeeze, and both of you will disappear from this world,” the old demon called out to the elder.

He couldn't understand why his own brother was willing to hand over control to a mere Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator.

Right then, Jared's eyes twitched as a different kind of aura gushed out of him. He then began to speak with the elder's voice. “You b*stard, I have nothing to say to you.”

“My brother, why don't you admit your mistake already? Even if both of us are reduced to nothing but soul remnants, you're still no match for me. I'm sure you understand by now that only demonic techniques can save the Archaic Body cultivators, don't you? If we don't give up the techniques of Archaic Body Cultivation, we will be left behind in Ethereal Realm sooner or later, and the Archaic Body cultivators will cease to exist. Even if you're angry right now, you still can't kill me. Instead, you'll die at my hands.”

While gloating, the old demon continued to squeeze Jared's neck until the latter's face was swollen red. It was undeniable that Jared was in pain and couldn't struggle free.

“My brother, you should beg for your life now, and perhaps I'll spare you. Even if I do, you're no more than a soul remnant that won't live more than a hundred years.”

The old demon seemed to relish in schadenfreude as he demanded that the elder beg for his life.

Unfortunately, the elder didn't respond.

“In your dreams, you old fogey. Do you really think you can kill me this way?” Jared flashed a mischievous look at the old demon.

“What did you say?” The old demon was stunned by the look on Jared's face.

“How can you still survive at this stage? Do you think those insects can save you?”

The old demon turned his head toward the group of watching cultivators, thinking that they were the source of his confidence.

“I don't need anyone to save me.”

Jared flashed a faint smile.

During the exchange between the old demon and Jared, Sunny and the others sprang to action.

When they saw that Jared was grabbed by the throat and couldn't escape, they planned to fight and rescue him.

By drawing the old demon's attention away, they hoped that they could give Jared a chance to escape.

“Attack!” Cameron roared before leading the charge with his sword. With the others following him from behind, none of them were hoping to kill the old demon. All they were trying to do was create a window for Jared to escape.

Soon, a few figures flew out of the black mist, firing piercing lights at the old demon from their swords.

“I see that you have a death wish.”

With an icy look in his eyes, the old demon grabbed at thin air, contorting the space around the lights and shattering them into pieces.

Spurt!

Nonetheless, the old demon didn't expect one of the transparent lights to fly past him. Despite his attempt to dodge it, it still cut his arm, causing a wound to open up and blood to ooze out from it.

“Spirit Divider? How dare you!”
