

A WARRIOR UNDEFEATABLE/

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3426-“You know such magecraft?” Jared turned to Catina in surprise.

“I know loads of things. You don’t understand me all that well yet.” Having said that, Catina went over to Izolda and Kiara, who had passed out.

She slowly opened her mouth, upon which a bright red orb floated out.

The orb spun above Izolda’s and Kiara’s heads while she placed her hands on them. A flash of red light enveloped the two girls. Catina’s body trembled slightly, and her forehead was dotted with sweat.

Noticing her state, Feenix remarked, “Master, it takes a lot of effort to use Soulslayer Technique, much less performing it on two people right now. Catina will likely need to find a place to recuperate when she’s done.” After hearing that, Jared inexorably turned his gaze to Catina. His impression of her also improved considerably. Initially, he was very much discomfited at being forced to do the horizontal exercise with her all day.

However, there was nothing he could do about it when he still needed her help at present. Right then, however, his opinion of her had changed.

He thought he could put in more feelings and be emotionally engaged when they were together. A moment later, two strands of black energy surged out of Izolda and Kiara and were absorbed into Catina’s body.

Catina swallowed the orb again before she slowly stood up.

“It’s done. Their memories of this time have been erased. But they must leave the Celestial Battlefield and never come back in their lifetimes. So long as they don’t see this place, they should not recover that memory, and their lives won’t be affected in the future,” Catina stated while wiping the sweat off her forehead.

Misho and Hamish hastily fell to their knees with gratitude etched across their features. “Thank you!” “Don’t mention it!” Slightly taken aback, Catina hurriedly helped them both up.

Misho and Hamish scooped Izolda and Kiara up before bidding Jared farewell.

They were going to leave the Celestial Battlefield. To them, any magical item paled in comparison to family. The few of the cultivators who came with them and had survived also planned to leave with them.

If they stayed, they would be courting death with their paltry capabilities in the Celestial Battlefield. Furthermore, they were wandering cultivators. As such, they were prey to the various sects.

Even if they were to get their hands on magical items, they likely would not be able to take them out of the Celestial Battlefield.

Indeed, reality in the Ethereal Realm was exceedingly harsh.

“Cloud, Rosetta, you two should also leave the Celestial Battlefield with Old Mr.

Giuvani and the others. This place is too dangerous, and I won't be able to protect you both in the face of danger. Ms. Lothian, please tell Mr. Lothian after you go out that I'll share part of the things I obtained in the Celestial Battlefield with Blood Spirit Valley.” At the moment, Jared still needed Catina's help to remain fearless against Pablo's threat. Therefore, he had no way of protecting others.

Cloud was injured, so there was no use for him to remain in the Celestial Battlefield. Instead, he needed to leave to recuperate.

Meanwhile, Rosetta had come to the Celestial Battlefield to train, but the cruelty unfolding in the Celestial Battlefield then had gone beyond Igor's imagination.

If the same fate that befell Izolda and Kiara were to repeat itself on her for real, he would be at a loss to explain things to Igor.

For that reason, he had both Cloud and Rosetta leave the Celestial Battlefield together.

As for why he did not ask the same of Feenix, it was because of her close relationship with Catina. With the latter there, she would never allow Feenix to be threatened in any way.

Cloud and Rosetta nodded. They knew that Jared had made that request out of consideration for them, so they left the Celestial Battlefield with Misho and the others.

“Ms. Flowers, your powers were greatly exhausted. We should find a secluded place and recuperate for a while first,” Jared said to Catina, who appeared slightly pale.

At his concern for her, Catina was startled for a moment. She eyed him before giving a dip of her head.

But just as they were planning to find a secluded place to rest, Monkey Archon jumped out.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3427—“What’s your relationship with this brat, Fox Queen? Why is he so concerned about you?” Monkey Archon asked Catina.

A frown marred Catina’s countenance. “What has my relationship with him got to do with you, Monkey Archon? Get away from me. Our relationship is whatever we want it to be.” Wearing a furious expression, Monkey Archon hissed through gritted teeth, “Why are you so indiscriminate, you w*unch? How could you be intimate with a mere First Level Tribulator cultivator?” After he said that, he shot Jared a glare and barked, “Get away right this instant, brat! You’re not allowed to pester Fox Queen anymore. She’s my woman.” “What the hell are you saying, you damn monkey? Who’s your woman? Do you have no shame?” Never had Catina expected him to make such a claim.

“You are my woman. I’ve decided on you, and no one is allowed to touch you.

I’m going to kill this brat right now. We’ll see who else you’ll seek out at that time.” As Monkey Archon spoke, his aura burst forth, and he shot his hand out at Jared. Catina had fury written all over her face. Her aura likewise burst forth, but she was weak right then, so it was undoubtedly not as strong as his.

In the face of Monkey Archon’s Seventh Level Tribulator aura in his wrath, Jared frowned and activated Golem Body.

Immediately, pieces of golden scales blanketed his entire body. Monkey Archon was slightly taken aback. But still, he steeled himself and charged toward Jared.

“Can’t you damn well see me, stupid monkey?” Just as he was about to strike the latter, a sudden feminine cry rang out, and Feenix jettied a stream of flames out of her mouth.

When Monkey Archon heard that voice, his heart lurched. He swiftly retreated with terror on his face. The instant he made out Feenix, all the color drained from his face.

“F-Feenix?” he ventured, trembling.

“D*mn you! How dare you attack my master? I’m going to kill you.” Feenix stepped forward and smacked him upside the head.

Surprisingly, Monkey Archon did not dare retaliate after suffering that slap from her but dodged in fright.

At that sight, Jared was promptly dumbfounded. After all, Monkey Archon was a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator, whereas Feenix was merely at Body Fusion Realm. The gap was exceedingly vast. With just a finger, he could likely doom Feenix.

However, when Feenix struck him, he merely dodged and dared not retaliate at all. Witnessing that scene, Catina could not help laughing.

When she noticed Jared’s bewildered expression, she explained, “That stupid monkey was often picked on by Feenix in the past. Before he became Monkey Archon, she used to ride him all the time. Back then, she was someone the beast race looked up to. It was also because she always mounted him around and taught him many techniques that he slowly became Monkey Archon and had his own territory. Although she was banished to the mundane world and had lost much of her cultivation level, this stupid monkey still doesn’t dare retaliate.

His fear might have been etched into his bones.” Jared was promptly tickled pink, It turns out that there’s such a past between Feenix and this Monkey Archon. Well, it looks like I made the right decision in having her stay in the Celestial Battlefield.

“Please stop, Ms. Feenix. Don’t hit me anymore. I was wrong, and I apologize, okay?” Monkey Archon quickly begged for mercy while protecting his head with both hands.

“Next time, behave when you see my master. Do you think you’re all great and mighty because you’ve become Monkey Archon?” Feenix lectured.

“Yes, yes. I’ll behave for sure.” Monkey Archon nodded fervently.

“Are you blind, monkey? Can’t you see that this man is the son of a dragon, the head of the beast race? Yet, you dared to attack him? You must be sick of living,” Catina said coldly.

It was only then that Monkey Archon studied Jared closely. The instant he sensed the Draconians’ aura on the latter, coupled with the fact that Feenix had addressed the man as Master earlier, he knew he had offended the wrong person.

“Sorry. Just forget I ever came. I’m leaving right away!” Such terror struck him that he disappeared in a flash.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3428-Jared quickly brought Feenix and Catina away and found a cave in a secluded area. There was no peculiar aura in the area, so Jared immediately set up an arcane array. That way, it could prevent others from getting near them.

Once he was done, Jared whipped out the celestial ore from his Storage Ring.

“I have a celestial ore. You can use it to recover your strength,” Jared said to Catina.

“I can recover quickly by using the celestial ore, but I can recover even quicker with you,” Catina replied.

Right away, Jared knew what Catina wanted, so he said to Feenix, “Feenix, go stand guard outside. If you spot something strange, report back to me immediately.” “Yes, Master.” Feenix nodded and turned to Catina. “Fox Queen, take it easy later, okay? My master has other women he needs to satisfy.” Catina froze momentarily and uttered, “Are you one of them?” “Of course! I’ve been his for a long time!” Feenix answered smugly.

“All right, go on, now. Stand guard outside.” Jared wanted Feenix to leave as soon as possible. After Feenix left, Catina asked Jared, “How many women do you sleep with?” “What does that have anything to do with you? We’re merely making a deal.” With that, Jared took the initiative to approach Catina and took off her clothes.

Jared's movements were very gentle, which Catina greatly enjoyed.

Before that, Jared had never taken the initiative.

Soon, their bodies intertwined passionately. With the union of the two bloodlines and the absorption of the celestial ore, Catina recovered speedily.

At the same time, Jared also took the opportunity to absorb the energy in the celestial ore. Just like that, Jared and Catina were both immersed in it.

Meanwhile, Feenix was feeling bored outside the cave.

"How could Master do this to me? He had never spent so much time when he was with me. How biased!" Feenix wasn't pleased.

Suddenly, she frowned and turned to look somewhere far away. "Someone's coming!" Feenix sensed someone coming, but Jared and Catina were still having the time of their lives. Feenix leaped into the air and headed toward a mountain in the opposite direction.

She wanted to lead the incomer away so that Jared and Catina wouldn't get spotted. If those two were to get interrupted, not only would Catina not be able to recover, but she would also get injured severely.

Feenix deliberately held herself aloft in mid-air, releasing a resonant cry. In response to her call, a multitude of Phoenix Feathers unfurled from her majestic phoenix form.

"Oh! It's a phoenix! Who would've thought I would find this type of celestial beast in the Celestial Battlefield?" A teasing voice rang out in the void, and with a twist in the void, a figure gradually appeared. Feenix looked at the figure before her eyes and furrowed her brows. "Who are you?" "I'm Pablo Quimar. Miss, may I know if you've heard of me?" Pablo flashed a smile.

Feenix shook her head. She didn't know who Pablo was, but she could sense the terrifying aura he was exuding. With my current capabilities, I would be punching above my weight if I were to fight him!

Feenix feigned innocence and said, "You have a weird name. I've never heard of you." "Haha! It's okay. Now you have, right?" Pablo laughed. "You're a celestial beast, but why are you so weak? Could it be that you've been stuck in the Celestial Battlefield?" "No. I've only entered the Celestial Battlefield not long ago. You have a beast sewn onto your black robe. Are you also from the beast race?" Feenix asked curiously.

Pablo shook his head. "I'm not from the beast race. I'm a demon. However, I don't see the beast race as my enemy. You're only at Body Fusion Realm, so it's very dangerous for you to be in the Celestial Battlefield on your own. If you're willing to serve me as my pet, I can guarantee your safety in the Celestial Battlefield!" As it turned out, Pablo wanted to keep Feenix as his pet.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3429—Feenix was filled with contempt when she glanced at Pablo. Although Pablo is strong, he's not worthy of becoming my master! He's so shameless!

Before Feenix was sent to the mundane world, she was stronger than Pablo.

She used to serve a governor governing one of the five regions in the Ethereal Realm. That was why she could do whatever she liked in the Ethereal Realm.

However, she made a mistake and was sent to the mundane world. That was when her capabilities dropped tremendously.

Fortunately for her, she found Jared and finally had a chance to return to the Ethereal Realm. Feenix felt contemptuous when Pablo, an Eighth Level Tribulator cultivator, wanted to be her master.

Nevertheless, Feenix was still too weak at that moment, so she had to swallow her pride and hold back.

"Can you really protect me?" Feenix asked softly.

"Of course! Everyone has to show me respect and fear me in the Celestial Battlefield!" Pablo uttered with a face full of pride.

In response, Feenix uttered with great joy, "Are you really that strong? In that case, I'm willing to acknowledge you as my master." Pablo was pleased when he saw how innocent Feenix was. This is a celestial beast! If I can train her properly, she'll come in handy in the future! Moreover, she's innocent and beautiful. She will surely satisfy me in bed!

"Great! Since you've acknowledged me as your master, let me gift you something!" Pablo whipped out a pill and tossed it to Feenix. "This is an immortal pill I found in the Celestial Battlefield. It's now yours." "Thank you, Master!" Feenix kept the immortal pill away happily.

"Eat it. The immortal pill is for you to ingest." Pablo wanted Feenix to eat the immortal pill. Feenix hesitated at first but ate the immortal pill in the end.

After all, she had to obey Pablo's orders unconditionally to gain his trust. A smirk appeared on Pablo's face when he saw that Feenix had eaten the immortal pill.

"Master, I was bullied just now. Could you avenge me?" Feenix asked Pablo.

"Of course! Bring me there!" Pablo nodded.

Feenix led Pablo in the opposite direction of the cave where Jared and Catina were cultivating.

Feenix was flying swiftly through the sky in her phoenix form, and that made Pablo, who was flying beside her, feel incredibly happy.

Indeed, having a phoenix as a pet was exhilarating.

However, Feenix was feeling extremely anxious. I need to find a strong enemy for Pablo to fight against and let them suffer injuries. Only then can I escape!

When Feenix and Pablo were flying next to each other, she suddenly spotted a dozen cultivators attacking a female cultivator.

Upon closer inspection, Feenix noticed that those cultivators were from Bulrush Sect. As it turned out, after Anders, the leader of Bulrush Sect, died, a few of the members of Bulrush Sect slipped away.

"Master, they're down there." Feenix quickly pointed at the cultivators on the ground. Hearing that, Pablo instantly descended.

At that moment, that female cultivator was being pinned to the ground by the dozen members from Bulrush Sect, and they had almost stripped her naked.

Pablo cast a glance at the scene expressionlessly and asked Feenix, "Did these people bully you?" "Yes. They did that to me as well." Feenix nodded.

When one of the members of Bulrush Sect saw Feenix and Pablo, he thundered, "Who are you? Leave! We're from Bulrush Sect, and we're trying to cultivate. Stay out of our way!” Pablo kept mum and unleashed a cloud of black mist from his body.

Like a venomous snake, the cloud of black mist charged at the disciples of Bulrush Sect.

In a flash, those disciples of Bulrush Sect were killed.

A wave of fear washed over Feenix when she saw that. If Pablo were to find Master, Fox Queen, and the celestial ore mine in the cave, would he fight them for it?

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3430—Feenix still had no idea that Pablo was looking for Jared to kill him.

“All right, I’ve avenged you. Now, we shall leave to find someone,” Pablo said.

“Master, who are we looking for?” Feenix asked.

“We’re going to look for a guy named Jared Chance.” Feenix froze for a moment. She could barely believe her ears. “Jared Chance?” Seeing her reaction, Pablo scrunched up his brows and asked, “What’s wrong?”

Do you know him?” “No, no, I don’t know him. I’m just curious. Why do you want to find him?” Feenix probed.

“I want to kill him...” Pablo’s body shook uncontrollably when he mentioned he wanted to kill Jared. It seemed that Pablo couldn’t stop himself from getting excited whenever he thought about taking Jared’s life.

Seeing this, Feenix felt a bit uneasy deep down. Fortunately, she had managed to divert Pablo’s attention by leading him away, or else Jared would have been in danger.

“Master, I still need to settle some scores. Could you help me once more?” Feenix tried to stall Pablo. She couldn’t let him find Jared so soon.

Pablo glanced at Feenix. “Let’s go.” Feenix flew ahead with Pablo behind her, but this time, she was uncertain who to look for. Soon, Feenix brought Pablo to the location of the celestial ore mine.

Lion Archon, Leopard King, Thousand-Faced Demon Archon, and Monkey Archon were still there, rummaging through the storage bags of the dead.

Seeing these individuals, Feenix suddenly had a plan.

“Master, the ones who bullied me are down there. They seized a celestial ore mine,” Feenix said, pointing at them.

“A celestial ore mine?” Pablo’s eyes lit up, and he went down with Feenix. Lion Archon and the others noticed Pablo following Feenix but didn’t recognize Feenix due to her significantly weakened aura.

She looked drastically different from the Feenix that they knew.

Nevertheless, Pablo’s aura that belonged to an Eighth Level Tribulator cultivator made them put their guards up.

Pablo cast a quick glance over the lifeless bodies strewn on the ground and then shifted his focus to the storage bags being rifled through by Lion Archon and the others. With a disdainful snort, he said, “Well, everything in this place is mine. It’s time for you to scram.” Pablo’s words left Lion Archon and the others completely stunned.

As influential figures of the beast race, holding the titles of kings and archons, they found it unbelievable that Pablo, of all people, was admonishing them.

“Who the hell are you? How dare you speak to us like that? Do you know who we are?” Lion Archon roared in anger.

“Do you have a death wish?” A cold glint appeared in Leopard King’s eyes.

Monkey Archon lifted his gaze, spotting Feenix accompanying Pablo. He was on the verge of saying something when Feenix halted him with a subtle glance.

“My friend, the items within the Celestial Battlefield are ownerless. How can you assert ownership over them? Moreover, isn’t it a matter of first-come, first-served?” Thousand-Faced Demon Archon asked politely.

As he spoke, his aura steadily elevated, transitioning from that of a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator to the brink of an Eighth Level Tribulator cultivator.

Lion Archon, Leopard King, and Monkey Archon also released their aura to envelop Pablo. Naturally, Pablo was taken aback as he didn’t realize they were this formidable.

Although he was an Eighth Level Tribulator cultivator, the outcome of facing all four of them simultaneously remained uncertain.

“I was the one who found this place first, but since you stumbled upon it, I’ll yield it to you.” Pablo chose to avoid a confrontation with Lion Archon and the others as he wanted to save his strength to kill Jared.

“Thank you!” Thousand-Faced Demon Archon replied politely and retracted his aura. Pablo spun on his heels to leave. Seeing that, Feenix was flustered.

“Master, aren’t you going to avenge me?” she asked, sounding puzzled.
