

A WARRIOR UNDEFEATABLE/

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3480-Jared, Feenix, and Catina made their way towards the entrance of the Celestial Battlefield. The Celestial Battlefield was about to close in a few days, so Jared decided it was best to leave now and see what would happen later.

With Pablo relentlessly pursuing them, Jared knew that finding any treasure in the Celestial Battlefield would become even more difficult!

As they traveled a certain distance, they noticed a shimmering light not far away, accompanied by a rumbling sound!

Feenix immediately became interested upon hearing the commotion ahead.

“Master, it seems like there’s been a fight up ahead. Should we go take a look?” Catina chimed in as well. “It looks like a chaotic fight with many people involved.

We should go and see if we can take advantage of the situation. By now, I’m sure many people have already found some treasures in the Celestial Battlefield. As the saying goes, ‘the wolf has a winning game when the shepherds quarrel, and we’re the wolf right now.’ Originally, Jared wasn’t too interested, but Catina’s words piqued his curiosity.

If they could find some genuine treasures, even crystals imbued with celestial energy, it would be great as they could nourish the Celestial Devourer!

“Let’s go take a look!” Jared agreed.

When they arrived, they found more than a dozen people relentlessly attacking a formation in front of them using various methods!

A thick white fog pervaded within the magic arcane array, obscuring the situation inside!

The arcane array appeared to be quite robust, as it sustained no damage under the assault of these individuals!

After attacking for half a day, the cultivators were clearly exhausted, panting heavily, yet they were still powerless!

At that moment, an elderly man dressed in grey cloth spoke up. "Mr. Summers, we're not here to steal your treasures. Why are you so defensive against us? All we want are a few array charms from you! Don't tell me you aren't even willing to spare a few array charms in the Celestial Battlefield. Even though we couldn't break through your arcane array, if we continue to drag this out until the Celestial Battlefield closes, your arcane array will disappear." All the members of the Summers family were within the arcane array, their faces extremely solemn!

Mr Summers, you should leave with the young miss and young master first. I will stay behind with the others to hold these ruffians off," Freddie suggested to Tyler.

Tyler shook his head. "It's useless. These guys clearly don't want us to leave. If all else fails, we'll just give them some charms. As long as we have the Skywrath Sect's charms in our hands, won't we have the chance to seek revenge?" Tyler was willing to compromise as long as those people refrained from seizing the charm book!

Freddie fell silent, as no one knew if those rascals would leave with just a few array charms. If their foes had any other intentions, then they were in danger!

Upon hearing the old man's words, Jared's brow furrowed!

"Master, are the members of the Summers family still within the arcane array?"

Haven't they left the Celestial Battlefield yet?" Feenix asked.

"It seems like these people have targeted them, trapping them here without a chance to escape!" Catina exclaimed.

Jared glanced at the cultivators, most of whom were Fifth Level Tribulator cultivators. There were only two at the Sixth level, which wasn't considered very high!

"Let's rescue the Summers family members," Jared said, making his appearance!

Feenix and Catina followed suit!

When the trio appeared, the cultivators were taken aback, fixing their intense gaze on Jared and his companions!

The elderly man in grey took a glance at Jared, realizing that he was merely a First Level Tribulator cultivator. He snorted coldly and said, "Who are you people? Leave immediately. Can't you see we are in the middle of something important?" "Are you talking to me?" Jared asked with a faint smile.

"Don't be ridiculous. If I'm not talking to you, am I talking to the air?" The elderly man in grey spoke with icy coldness

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 0 Average: 0]

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3481-"How dare you speak to me like this! You're as good as dead." After Jared finished speaking, he took a step back.

Behind him, Catina suddenly emanated the aura of a Seventh Level Tribulator.

That overwhelming aura pressed the elderly man in grey directly onto the ground.

Sensing Catina's Seventh Level Tribulator aura, the other cultivators' faces turned pale, and they hastily retreated.

"How dare you speak to Jared like that. It seems you've grown tired of living!" Catina looked down at the elderly man in grey, speaking with disdain.

The elderly man in grey was filled with terror, hastily begging for mercy. "Spare me, spare me, I was wrong, I was wrong..." Seeing the old man admit his mistake, Catina lightly waved her hand, and in an instant, the elderly man in grey was sent flying several kilometers away.

Upon seeing the situation, the other cultivators turned and ran for their lives.

Those people were simply bullies who preyed on the weak and feared the strong.

Within the arcane array, Tyler was brimming with excitement. "It's Mr. Chance!

It's Mr. Chance and his team..." The rest of the Summers family was also extremely delighted. The arcane array was swiftly activated, the white mist dissipated, and all the members of the Summers family emerged from within the arcane array.

Tyler gratefully said, “Mr. Chance, we truly can’t thank you enough. You’ve saved us once again...” “Mr. Summers, there’s no need for formalities. It seems that these last few days, the Celestial Battlefield will undoubtedly become even more chaotic. I should accompany you and leave together,” Jared said.

“Mr. Chance, aren’t you going to stay a few more days?” Tyler asked puzzled.

“No point in waiting any longer. I suspect the Celestial Battlefield has already been thoroughly searched by others. Finding any treasures now would likely be quite difficult.” Jared shook his head.

“It’s wonderful that Mr. Chance will be leaving with us!” Tyler was overjoyed.

With Jared and his team by their side, Tyler was no longer afraid of anyone coveting them.

Just as Tyler’s words had barely fallen, a sudden terrifying aura swept in from afar, causing the entire sky to darken in an instant.

At that point, everyone became incredibly tense.

“Oh no, Pablo is coming.” Jared’s brow furrowed.

Feeling that terrifying aura, the faces of the Summers family members drastically changed.

The voice of Pablo gradually came through. “You have some nerve to deceive me. I’ll make your end a gruesome one...” No sooner had the words been spoken than Pablo appeared before everyone.

Looking at Pablo, Jared’s face turned incredibly unsightly.

He hadn’t expected Pablo to catch up so quickly, and it seemed as though his attack hadn’t affected Pablo at all.

Even the parasitic silkworm king had failed to claim Pablo’s life. Since the Summers family was around Jared, it had become difficult for him to even think about escaping.

If he were alone, he could have devised a way to escape. However, with so many people around him, not only could they not offer any help, but he would also have to worry about their safety.

“In a moment, I’ll start fighting with Pablo. No one should interfere. Immediately take the Summers family and leave, the faster, the better,” Jared advised Feenix and Catina earnestly.

“You surely couldn’t handle this guy on your own. Although I’m not exactly his match either, I can at least lend you a hand,” Catina offered.

Catina, being a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator, was indeed capable of exchanging a few moves with Pablo.

“Don’t worry about me. As long as you can escape, I can find my own way out too. Otherwise, none of us will be able to escape,” Jared said anxiously.

Upon seeing Jared in such a state, Catina could only nod in agreement.

Perhaps without any worries to hold him back, Jared could indeed escape.

“None of you can escape!” Pablo knew that Jared wanted to let everyone escape, so he took a step forward. Suddenly, a black longsword was thrust toward Jared.

“Go!” With a loud shout, Jared erupted into countless beams of golden light. His Golem Body instantly enveloped him tightly.

Moreover, beneath Jared’s feet, two flames surprisingly erupted, and at the same time, Jared’s body vanished directly. Pablo’s longsword pierced through the afterimage of Jared.

“Teleportation magecraft, eh? I didn’t expect you to dodge so swiftly,” Pablo exclaimed in slight surprise.

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 0 Average: 0]

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3482-Jared was astonished, looking at the spot where he had stood. He had moved a dozen meters away with just a step back, unintentionally using Blazing Stride.

Although he hadn't fully mastered it, he realized its usefulness and felt regret for not being able to use it earlier when facing Fire Spirit Lord.

With that in mind, Jared no longer feared Pablo. However, regret was pointless, as there was no way to change the past. He could only develop the skill slowly by himself in the future.

Meanwhile, Catina, Feenix, and the members of the Summers family were hastily fleeing, setting up arcane arrays to hinder Pablo's pursuit. However, Pablo paid no attention to them and focused on Jared.

Pablo's overwhelming demonic aura solidified into a ferocious tiger that charged toward Jared. Jared attempted to use Blazing Stride to evade, but failed and was hit by the fierce tiger, receiving a harsh blow.

Jared's body was flung backward, crashing into the trees and creating a deep pit in the ground. Feenix, witnessing this, became enraged but was urged by Catina to leave quickly.

Pablo wore a smirk as he looked at Jared, planning to kill him and then pursue the others. Jared, protected by his Golem Body and robust physique, climbed out of the pit. He chose not to dodge this time and threw a punch, using his Sacred Light Fist.

Pablo let out a cold snort and covered his body in Dark Demon Armor. The Sacred Light Fist struck him, exploding into golden rays. Jared swiftly retreated, while Feenix and her companions had already fled far away.

Pablo, surrounded by a dark mist, sent iron chains lunging toward Jared. Jared had no choice but to draw his Dragonslayer Sword and slash through the mist.

However, more chains began to coil around him.

Realizing that he couldn't withstand Pablo's onslaught without resorting to the Divine Bow, Jared drew it out. The Divine Bow radiated a terrifying aura, and countless radiant arrows materialized on it.

Jared released the arrows, and they instantly vanquished the dark iron chains, leaving no trace behind.

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 0 Average: 0]

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3483-As Jared shot countless light arrows, Pablo's expression suddenly changed. He activated his Dark Demon Armor to its maximum potential, as waves of dangerous aura closed in on him.

"Nethersky Eye!" Pablo roared loudly, and in an instant, an eye appeared on his forehead. The sky around him turned gloomy, and energy gathered on Pablo.

Under the dark void, the beams of light seemed to slow down, hindered by an unknown force. Dark clouds gathered above the vast sky, making it increasingly darker.

It felt as if the entire world was gradually coming to a halt, with only Jared's Divine Bow radiating a brilliant glow.

Countless dark energies gathered in front of Pablo. The light arrow pierced through the barrier and struck Pablo.

Pablo's body kept retreating, his face filled with ferocity. The light arrow gradually disappeared, and Pablo steadied himself, exerting all his strength to maintain control. However, a surge of fresh blood welled up, and he suddenly spat it out.

Pablo was somewhat surprised. He, an Eighth Level Tribulator cultivator, was injured by Jared, a First Level Tribulator cultivator. It was outrageous. Pablo knew that Jared's Divine Bow had played a significant role.

However, even the finest divine weapon could not harm Pablo without sufficient strength, regardless of the realms one might cross.

Jared looked at Pablo, who was spitting blood, his face extremely pale. Pablo's Nethersky Eye was indeed formidable. As Jared drew the Divine Bow, it became increasingly difficult for him to condense light arrows.

The entire world seemed to be shrouded in a black mist by Pablo.

“Young man, I admit you are strong. Given more time, I fear you might become a significant threat to me. Today, I won’t give you the slightest chance of surviving,” Pablo said, wiping the traces of blood from the corner of his mouth.

Astonishingly, a glimmer of light began to flicker from the three eyes on his forehead.

Accompanied by the flickering of light, a terrifying aura solidified. Swiftly, a beam of light descended from the sky, hurtling toward Jared with thunderous momentum.

That beam of light appeared suddenly, as if it had materialized out of thin air above Jared’s head. Jared had no time to dodge. He could only roar, unleashing the maximum power of his Golem Body.

Even Jared’s skin began to emit a golden glow, as if it had been dusted with a layer of gold powder.

Boom!

The pillar of light thundered down.

The entire earth trembled, and the ground was smashed into a pit several tens of meters deep. Jared was struck, causing his Golem Body to shatter instantly.

Flakes of golden scales fell, dissolving into nothingness.

Meanwhile, Jared lay in a deep pit, his face pale.

The blow from Pablo was incredibly powerful. Even with the Divine Bow and Golem Body, Jared was still unable to withstand the attack.

It was the combined power of the Nethersky Eye and an Eighth Level Tribulator cultivator.

There was no helping it. The power gap was simply too vast.

Moreover, Pablo’s Eighth Level Tribulator cultivation was significantly more formidable than others.

He clearly had a fortuitous encounter. Perhaps he received the true teachings of a great demon lord, which would explain his formidable abilities. Jared lay in the deep pit, staring at the dark sky above, seemingly lost in a stupor.

At that moment, Jared felt powerless.

The disparity in their power levels was something he simply couldn't overcome.

"Mr. Chance, you must pull yourself together. You really must," Faiyar shouted loudly in Jared's consciousness.

He couldn't let Jared back down, for if he did, Jared's defeat was certain. If Jared died, Faiyar would undoubtedly disappear as well. At that moment, Jared's eyes were lifeless, his fighting spirit completely extinguished.

The Divine Bow had been brought out, yet it still couldn't overcome Pablo's armor. Jared had no other means left.

Pablo slowly walked to the edge of the bottomless pit, looking down at Jared, who was lying at the bottom. A hint of disdain appeared on his face.

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 0 Average: 0]

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3484-"You're too inexperienced to compete with me!" Pablo sneered at Jared, his eyes filled with greed as he glanced at the Divine Bow beside him. He reached out to snatch it from Jared!

If Jared died, all the treasures he possessed would become Pablo's!

Pablo's slap was casual, but given Jared's situation, even a random slap from him could send Jared straight to meet Hades!

Just as Pablo was about to strike, a sudden flash of light emanated from Jared's body!

Immediately after, a deafening roar echoed throughout the Celestial Battlefield!

That thunderous roar shattered Pablo's palm strike. Caught off guard, Pablo was sent flying by the immense shockwave!

Celestial Devourer stood over Jared and surprisingly leaned forward to lick his cheek! Celestial Devourer, no larger than the size of a palm, had just roared, unleashing such immense power!

Feeling the breath of the Celestial Devourer, a glimmer of color gradually appeared in Jared's eyes. Slowly, he began to climb up from the bottom of the pit!

Upon seeing Jared rise, the Celestial Devourer seemed quite pleased. After circling around Jared's shoulder twice, it suddenly leaped up, shooting into the air like a meteor.

Immediately after, the Celestial Devourer opened its massive mouth, astonishingly inhaling half of the endless black fog in a single breath!

Pablo gazed into the air at the palm-sized creature known as the Celestial Devourer, his eyes filled with incomprehension and doubt!

He didn't know what kind of monster it was. Despite its small size, it exuded such a terrifying aura and could even swallow the black mist emitted from his own Nethersky Eye!

Jared stared at the Celestial Devourer in utter astonishment. He had initially thought that the creature was too small to accomplish anything. Little did he expect that something so tiny could possess such immense power!

After the Celestial Devourer had swallowed half of the black mist, it descended from mid-air. Jared reached out to catch it, only to find that the belly of the Celestial Devourer was round and bulging!

The beast kept belching, seemingly quite full!

Watching the adorable appearance of the little Celestial Devourer, Jared found himself growing more and more fond of it!

Just as Jared was contemplating having the Celestial Devourer aid him in a duel against Pablo, the Celestial Devourer surprisingly vanished in a flash, only to be found in Jared's storage ring, soundly sleeping away!

Upon seeing the situation, Jared was momentarily speechless. He guessed that the little rascal must have been hungry and went out to eat!

The Celestial Devourer was not only capable of consuming celestial energy, but it could also devour demons' black mist. That surprised Jared. With that development, Jared no longer needed to seek out celestial energy for the Celestial Devourer!

At that moment, Pablo was staring at Jared in shock. He couldn't comprehend how Jared could possess such a powerful mythical beast, especially one of such a small size!

Since Pablo didn't know what kind of beast it was, he dared not attack rashly!

Without the aid of the Celestial Devourer, Jared dared not act rashly. Thus, a standoff between the two ensued!

As the two individuals stood in confrontation, Lion Archon, who was kilometers away, furrowed his brow, his expression filled with excitement. "The aura of the Divine Bow has appeared again!" Having said that, Lion Archon swiftly dashed toward the location of Jared and Pablo!

Monkey Archon, Thousand-Faced Demon Archon, and Leopard King all closely followed behind. For them, the Divine Bow was considered a top-tier divine weapon. Who wouldn't want to obtain it?

At the same time, after Feenix and Catina had taken away several members of the Summers family, they realized that Jared had not followed them for a long time. Moreover, they also felt the terrifying aura that Pablo had unleashed. For the sake of Jared's safety, the two decided to return!

For a moment, Lion Archon and the others headed toward the place where Jared and Pablo were fighting. Feenix and Catina were also desperately rushing there!

"Kid, it seems I've underestimated you. You possess more treasures than I had imagined." Finally, Pablo spoke up, and immediately after, he reached out and grabbed something!

The remaining black mist in the sky was all seized by Pablo, transforming into a magic sword!

Pablo, seizing the opportunity, struck a blow toward Jared, and a dazzling sword light emerged!

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 0 Average: 0]

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3485-“Die!” A cold glint flashed across Pablo’s eyes as he suddenly unleashed a powerful stroke of his sword!

The sword’s radiance extended over ten meters, and wherever the sword’s energy passed, space instantly collapsed. Jared stared at the sword energy, his face turning extremely grim!

At that moment, his Golem Body had already shattered, and he was injured. He was likely unable to withstand that sword strike!

If the Celestial Devourer could have come out to help, perhaps Jared might have been able to hold on!

However, the Celestial Devourer was sound asleep, seemingly indifferent to Jared’s life or death!

Jared had no choice but to draw the Divine Bow once again. With the black mist no longer obscuring his view, the moment he drew the bow, countless points of light surged toward him from all directions, subsequently coalescing into a multitude of light arrows!

Yet, before Jared could even release those light arrows, he sensed four terrifying presences rapidly approaching from behind him!

Immediately following, four streams of energy collided with Pablo’s sword energy in an instant!

Boom!

Following a thunderous roar, the sky and earth abruptly changed color, and all the trees within a hundred kilometers were reduced to ashes!

Pablo, however, furrowed his brows, retreating three steps. Four figures emerged from the distance, gradually drawing closer, and landed beside Jared.

They were none other than Lion Archon's group!

Upon seeing Lion Archon and his companions, Pablo scowled.

However, even after Lion Archon's group had jointly blocked a strike from Pablo, they did not make a move, nor did they even glance at Pablo. Instead, they were intently focused on the Divine Bow in Jared's hand!

At that moment, Jared had already drawn the Divine Bow in his hand, with the arrow of light ready to be unleashed!

The four of them stared in shock, their jaws nearly dropping in astonishment!

They never could have imagined that the Divine Bow was actually in Jared's possession. What was even more surprising was that Jared was capable of using the Divine Bow!

Jared, despite being a First Level Tribulator cultivator, could actually wield the Divine Bow, which was astounding to the group.

Feeling the gaze of the four individuals, Jared panicked a little. He slowly released the Divine Bow, and the light arrow gradually faded away!

The greed in the eyes of those four individuals made Jared realize that those fellows had not come to save him. Instead, they had set their sights on the Divine Bow in his possession!

"I finally understand why the Fox Empress was always protecting him. She must have known that he possessed the Divine Bow. That's why she acted that way," Lion Archon began to speak!

"The Fox Queen was out of line, not even bothering to inform us. It seems she wants to keep everything to herself, doesn't she?" Leopard King was also somewhat angry!

Pablo, upon seeing the four individuals coveting the Divine Bow in Jared's possession, felt a slight sense of relief. As long as these four weren't there to rescue Jared, that would be fine!

Although those four individuals only possessed the strength of Seventh Level Tribulator cultivators, even Pablo would find it hard to handle them when they joined forces.

Moreover, with Jared involved, if they really teamed up against him, he wouldn't be able to withstand it!

"Sirs, I bear a grudge against this young man, and all I seek is his life. As for the treasures he possesses, I won't take a single one. What do you four think?" Pablo politely addressed Lion Archon's group, posing a question.

None of the four people spoke. They were all intently staring at Jared!

In the end, Lion Archon spoke. "Young man, hand over the Divine Bow to me. I can ensure your safety and prevent others from killing you..." Lion Archon disagreed with Pablo. Instead, he offered a deal to Jared using the Divine Bow!

However, before Jared could speak, Monkey Archon on the side voiced his dissatisfaction. "Lion Archon, what do you mean? Why should the Divine Bow be handed over to you? Moreover, are you capable of ensuring his safety yourself? You're merely a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator, while the one after his life is Eighth Level. Apart from us joining forces, who else can guarantee his survival?" The words of Monkey Archon caused a wave of embarrassment to wash over Lion Archon's face. If no one else were to lend a hand, he certainly wouldn't have been able to stop Pablo from killing Jared!

However, Lion Archon only wanted the Divine Bow. As for protecting Jared, that was merely a casual remark. He had no intention of doing it!

Click to rate this post!

[Total: 0 Average: 0]

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3486-"Enough arguing. Let this lad hand over the Divine Bow. Once I have it, there will be no more disputes," spoke the Thousand-Faced Demon Archon.

After the Thousand-Faced Demon Archon spoke, Lion Archon and the others exchanged glances, but remained silent.

Jared observed the four individuals, realizing that they were after his Divine Bow. Their intervention to save him earlier was also for the sake of the Divine Bow.

“Kid, hand over the Divine Bow to me. Considering your connection with Catina, we can ensure your safety,” Thousand-Faced Demon Archon said to Jared.

On the side, Pablo frowned slightly, but he didn’t dare to say much at that moment.

All he could do was silently pray, hoping that Jared would be reluctant to hand over the Divine Bow, which would then lead to a conflict between the two parties.

By then, he could watch safely while others fought, and he might even benefit from their conflict.

Jared gazed at the four menacing figures, then shifted his attention to Thousand-Faced Demon Archon, who was confident of his impending victory.

Clutching the Divine Bow tightly, Jared retorted, “This Divine Bow is mine. Why should I hand it over to you?” Thousand-Faced Demon Archon was taken aback. He had never imagined that Jared, a First Level Tribulator cultivator, would dare to speak to them in such a manner.

“Are you seeking death, brat? Hand over the Divine Bow and your life can be spared. Are you willing to risk your life for this Divine Bow?” Lion Archon asked Jared with great confusion.

Indeed, the Divine Bow was formidable, a powerful divine weapon. However, what use was such a weapon if one’s life was lost?

“Kid, utter one more word of nonsense, and believe me, I won’t hesitate to kill you. Once you’re dead, this Divine Bow will be ours,” Leopard King stared at Jared with wide eyes, intimidating him.

Only Monkey Archon remained silent, for he alone knew that Jared’s involvement with Feenix was no coincidence.

However, since both Feenix and Catina were no longer present, there was no need to be afraid.

Jared held the Divine Bow tightly and declared, "If you're capable, come and snatch it yourself. If you think I'll just hand over the Divine Bow to you, you're sorely mistaken. Even if I were to destroy the Divine Bow, I would never let it fall into your hands. Even if I gave it to you, can you even use it?" "You're asking for trouble, you little brat!" Lion Archon and Leopard King erupted in fury simultaneously.

The terrifying aura of their Seventh Level Tribulator cultivation enveloped Jared.

After battling Pablo for half a day, Jared was already extremely weak. Under the simultaneous pressure from Lion Archon and Leopard King, Jared's body simply couldn't withstand it.

Suddenly, Jared's body bent, and he knelt heavily on the ground, creating a deep pit in the earth.

Thousand-Faced Demon Archon wore an expression of icy coldness. He hadn't expected that Jared would actually risk falling out with them, all for the sake of the Divine Bow.

Upon witnessing that scene, Pablo secretly breathed a sigh of relief. Since Jared was courting his own death, there was no need for him to lift a finger.

Although the Divine Bow was unattainable, Pablo was elated by Jared's death.

Pablo was determined to obtain the Divine Bow. Once he left the Celestial Battlefield, he could continue his cultivation in the Demon Devouring Cave.

He believed it wouldn't take long before he could easily deal with the likes of Lion Archon. By then, the Divine Bow would practically fall into his hands.

At that time, Pablo was simply waiting for Jared to be killed. Only then could he leave with peace of mind.

At that moment, Jared was kneeling on one knee, clenching his teeth tightly.

Jared knew he was no match for those four individuals. He was aware that a mere touch from them could send him to his death. Yet, there wasn't a trace of fear in Jared's eyes.

Thousand-Faced Demon Archon looked at Jared. Seeing Jared's stubborn nature, he stretched out his hand and struck toward him.

"Not very skilled, yet quite temperamental. You'll be in trouble, you know. Is it really worth risking your life for the Divine Bow?" Thousand-Faced Demon Archon sought to doom Jared.

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 1 Average: 5]

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3487-Just as the Thousand-Faced Demon Archon was about to strike Jared, a sudden surge of energy swiftly approached, heading straight for him.

"Thousand-Faced Demon Archon, how dare you threaten my man. Are you disregarding me?" Catina arrived in a fit of rage, her aura exploding to its utmost limit!

The Thousand-Faced Demon Archon furrowed his brows, swiftly retreating.

Even the Lion Archon and Leopard King retreated to both sides. The pressure on Jared vanished in an instant!

"Fox Queen, have you lost your mind? Is it worth it to go this far for a mere man? Did you set your sights on the Divine Bow in his possession, intending to claim it as your own?" "You never mentioned this to us at all. You must have wanted to monopolize the Divine Bow!" The Lion Archon and Leopard King were furiously yelling at Catina!

The Thousand-Faced Demon Archon also wore a gloomy expression as he said, "Fox Queen, you're going a bit too far. Do you intend to monopolize this Divine Bow without considering us at all?" At that moment, Catina was somewhat bewildered. She was with Jared only for his lineage, merely to elevate the nobility of her own bloodline!

She didn't do it for the Divine Bow, making their claims groundless accusations.

Before Catina could even speak, Feenix arrived late, her face full of anger!

After glancing at the pale-faced Jared, Feenix was filled with heartache. She stepped forward and helped Jared to his feet.

“Master, are you all right?” Feenix inquired.

“It’s nothing.” Jared shook his head.

Upon seeing that Jared was unharmed, Feenix glanced at the Lion Archon’s group, her demeanor exuding the authority of a superior!

Feeling Feenix’s gaze, the Lion Archon’s group surprisingly began to dodge, not daring to meet her eyes directly!

It was as if a mouse had seen a cat!

Even though Feenix was only at the Body Fusion Realm, there was a significant difference in their levels compared to them. However, those four guys didn’t dare to underestimate her at all!

“You wished to kill my master?” Feenix asked coldly.

None of the four people dared to speak, and the Monkey Archon was constantly hiding behind others!

“Monkey...” Feenix let out a cry!

The Monkey Archon, on the other hand, was so frightened that he trembled all over. “Ms. Feenix, I... I didn’t do anything, I didn’t lift a hand, I didn’t even speak...” The Monkey Archon had scrubbed himself clean of any blame, for he alone knew the relationship between Feenix and Jared!

Upon hearing the Monkey Archon’s words, the Lion Archon and his companions immediately glared at him in anger!

No wonder the Monkey Archon didn’t lift a finger or utter a word earlier. It turned out he had known about Jared’s relationship with Feenix all along!

“Don’t think that just because I’ve been demoted and my status has been lowered, you all can take advantage of me. Don’t forget who it was that awakened your abilities. If it wasn’t for me, do you really think you, a bunch of worthless small fries, could aspire to be among the Three Archons and Four Kings? Do you really think you could have a place in the Ethereal Realm?”

Just like an adult scolding a child, Feenix reprimanded the Lion Archon and his companions, yet not a single one of them dared to speak up!

Jared watched the scene unfold, unable to help but marvel. He had never imagined that Feenix had been so formidable in the Ethereal Realm.

If there was a chance to restore Feenix's power, then Jared could probably strut around the Ethereal Realm without worry!

Not far away, Pablo saw the approaching Feenix, and his heart immediately sank!

He hadn't expected that Feenix was actually acquainted with Jared, and even more surprisingly, Jared turned out to be Feenix's master!

With that being the case, it seemed that the Lion Archon and his men would likely not dare to lay a hand on Jared anymore!

"Feenix, I... We truly didn't know. I don't want the Divine Bow anymore. After all, I couldn't even draw it!" The Thousand-Faced Demon Archon was quick-witted.

He promptly apologized to Feenix!

Their achievements were all due to the enlightenment of Feenix. Even though they were merely of the beast clan, it didn't mean that the beast clan could be devoid of conscience!

"I don't want it either. It's no use to me!" The Leopard King quickly made his stance known as well!

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 0 Average: 0]

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3488-Lion Archon's eyes were filled with reluctance as he stared at the Divine Bow in Jared's hand. However, he didn't dare to touch it. The fear in his heart prevented him from even considering it.

Feenix furrowed her brow and turned to Lion Archon, asking, "Lion Head, are you still not convinced? Do you still want to challenge my master?" Lion Archon quickly shook his head and replied, "No, no, I don't want the Divine Bow either. If it weren't for you, I would have died at the hands of Old Lion Archon. I owe my achievements to you." Monkey Archon pointed at Pablo and said, "Ms. Feenix, we actually saved your master. It was this guy who wanted to kill him, and we intervened to protect him." "Exactly. He was the one who wanted to kill your master. We stepped in to help!" Leopard King added hastily.

In truth, even without their explanation, Feenix knew that Pablo had intended to kill Jared.

Now that Lion Archon and his group were present, Feenix was no longer afraid of Pablo. With a cold snort, she said, "If you're thinking of killing my master, then it seems you've grown tired of living, Kill-" Before Feenix could finish speaking, Pablo swiftly waved both hands, enveloping his entire body in a shroud of black mist.

When the mist dispersed, Pablo had already vanished. Pablo wasn't foolish. He knew he couldn't win against five Seventh Level Tribulator cultivators and Jared.

"Damn, he sure runs fast," Feenix cursed under her breath.

"Ms. Feenix, we still need to search other places for treasures. We must go now..." Monkey Archon said to Feenix before turning and running off immediately.

Seeing the situation, the others also scattered in fear, worried that Feenix might retaliate.

After Lion Archon and his companions left, Jared and his group didn't dare to linger any longer and quickly departed as well.

They were afraid that Pablo would come back to reclaim what was his.

However, just after Jared and his companions left, two figures emerged.

Cameron turned to Skylar and asked, "What should we do?" Many members of the Norton family had come, but now only the two of them remained, and they hadn't found any treasures yet.

It was a devastating defeat. They had achieved nothing.

After much consideration, they had finally obtained a piece of divine martial art, only for it to be taken back by Jared.

“Let’s go. We’re going after Pablo. I have a good feeling about him,” Skylar determinedly said.

“But he’s a Demonic Cultivator. We-” Cameron tried to say something, but he stopped when he felt Skylar’s icy gaze.

Skylar took Cameron to find Pablo.

By then, Jared had lost his trust in the Norton family. Moreover, he seemed to doubt Skylar’s identity, making it difficult for Skylar to get close to him. All Skylar could do was find ways to connect with others.

Pablo was the best partner Skylar had found. After all, Pablo was a wandering cultivator who desired his own influence, no matter how powerful he was.

In the past, Pablo had a lowly status and was often bullied. However, he stumbled upon an opportunity that greatly increased his strength. Despite his newfound power, he was not particularly intelligent and was easily deceived.

Most importantly, Pablo held a grudge against Jared and always wanted to kill him. That was the aspect Skylar valued the most. Skylar’s greatest wish at that time was to kill Jared.

However, Skylar’s strength was not enough to defeat Jared. Even if the entire Norton family joined forces, they still couldn’t match him. The Norton family’s power was too insignificant.

Moreover, Jared had several allies by his side, especially Feenix. Although her level wasn’t high, she had extensive connections in the celestial realm.

Feenix could command the kings and archons, which made Skylar realize the need to rely on the power of others even more.

The Norton family had no reputation in the southern region, making it nearly impossible for them to leverage the influence of prominent clans or sects.

Therefore, they had no choice but to seek out wandering cultivators like Pablo.

Click to rate this post!

[Total: 0 Average: 0]

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3489-“Jared, once I catch you, I will tear you to pieces! Pablo, who was fleeing, roared with a face full of anger!

Ever since his fortunate encounter, Pablo had never felt so frustrated and helpless!

He couldn't even defeat two minor cultivators who were First Level Tribulator cultivators and was scared into fleeing twice!

It was a disgrace to him.

Pablo no longer wished to stay in the Celestial Battlefield. He wanted to return to the Demon Devouring Cave as soon as possible to enhance his cultivation!

At that moment, Jared was surrounded by numerous Seventh Level Tribulator cultivators. Pablo himself was simply no match for them!

Just as Pablo roared in anger, two figures rapidly closed in on him!

“Who is it?” Pablo furrowed his brows.

He had thought that Jared was coming after him with a group!

“Mr. Quimar!” At that moment, Skylar, accompanied by Cameron, hurriedly stepped forward!

Pablo looked at Skylar and Cameron, realizing that he didn't recognize either of them. Consequently, he asked cautiously, “Who are you two?” “Mr. Quimar, I am the elder of the Norton family from the northern region, and this is the head of the Norton family.” Skylar hastily introduced himself!

“The Norton family from the northern region.” Pablo frowned and said, “I don't know this family nor have I heard of it.” The Nesser family was originally not very well-known, especially in the northern region. It was quite normal that Pablo had not heard of them!

“You're an exceptional person, Mr. Quimar. It's quite normal that you have never heard of our small family before.” Skylar praised Pablo!

Upon hearing that, Pablo was quite pleased and thus let down his guard, asking, "What do you two want from me?" "Mr. Quimar, we know you intend to kill Jared. To be honest, we also have some scores to settle with Jared, so we would like to join forces with you," Skylar said.

Pablo gave Skylar and Cameron a cold glance, snorted disdainfully, and said, "No need. I can kill Jared all by myself. I don't need to cooperate with you." "Of course, I know you can kill Jared, Mr. Quimar. Jared is merely a First Level Tribulator cultivator, while you're an Eighth Level. You can crush Jared with just a flick of your finger.

However, Jared has quite a few helpers by his side, including several Seventh Level Tribulator cultivators. Therefore, it's not easy for you to kill Jared, Mr.

Quimar. Also, what about after you kill Jared? Don't you want to establish your own influence in the entire southern region? Do you still want to remain a wandering cultivator, not desiring to have your own faction?" Skylar was extremely perceptive, and in an instant, he spoke straight to Pablo's heart!

Previously, Pablo was an independent cultivator who had endured endless humiliation. He was even forced into the Demon Devouring Cave by Dalton!

Had it not been for entering the Demon Devouring Cave, Pablo would never have had such a fortunate encounter!

"Are you suggesting that by collaborating with you, I could establish my own faction? You are merely two individuals, and your Nesser family is based in the northern region. Why would you venture to develop in the southern region?" Pablo asked in confusion.

"Mr. Quimar, as long as we collaborate, I have ways to help you establish your own faction. Moreover, I can also make Jared everyone's target, hunted by several major families!" Skylar spoke with unwavering conviction!

"What do you have in mind?" Pablo curiously asked!

Skylar leaned in close to Pablo's ear, whispering a few words that immediately made Pablo burst into laughter!

"Hahaha, this is truly a brilliant idea. It's a perfect example of 'third party profits when two parties fight!'" Pablo burst out laughing!

Seeing Pablo's hearty laughter, Skylar grinned.

Cameron, on the other hand, stood off to the side, not even daring to breathe heavily. Since Skylar was collaborating with a Demonic Cultivator, he, as the head of the family, was powerless to stop it!

At that moment, Cameron only hoped that after killing Jared, he wouldn't have to collaborate with Pablo anymore!

Under no circumstances should the other families in the northern region find out about that arrangement. Otherwise, the Nesser family's status would diminish even further.

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 1 Average: 5]

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3490-Jared, Feenix, and Catina had found the exit to the Celestial Battlefield and subsequently left!

Jared no longer cared about when the Celestial Battlefield would close. He was already very pleased to have obtained the Celestial Devourer!

Furthermore, with Blazing Stride and Impersonation Technique, he was confident that he would make increasingly refined progress as long as he dedicated himself to diligent study. That was indeed a genuine immortal magecraft!

After Jared and his two companions left the Celestial Battlefield, they discovered a crowd of people gathered at the entrance, waiting for their own comrades to emerge from the battlefield.

"Mr. Chance!" Cloud quickly shouted upon seeing Jared emerge.

Cloud had been waiting at the entrance ever since he left early with Rosetta. He was excited to see Jared safe and sound. "Mr. Chance, knowing that you are safe puts my mind at ease!" Tyler and the others, who had been constantly worrying about Jared, also emerged from the battlefield. They let out a sigh of relief upon seeing that Jared had managed to shake off Pablo.

If anything unfortunate had happened to Jared, Tyler would likely have been overwhelmed with guilt.

“Mr. Chance!” Igor, Rosetta, Dalton, and others also approached Jared one after another, greeting him.

“Mr. Chance, thank you for taking care of my daughter in the Celestial Battlefield. After she came out, she told me everything. If it weren’t for you, Mr.

Chance, I fear she might have died in there! From now on, if Mr. Chance needs something, we, Blood Spirit Valley, will immediately do as you ask.” Igor declared his stance in front of Jared.

“Mr. Lothian, you’re too kind. Since you’ve entrusted your daughter’s safety to me, it’s only natural that I take responsibility. However, the Celestial Battlefield was too perilous for Ms. Lothian to gain experience from. But this time, I did reap some rewards from the Celestial Battlefield. When the time comes, I will share some of these spoils with Blood Spirit Valley,” said Jared.

“No, no, you have saved my daughter twice already, Mr. Chance. How could I possibly accept anything from you?” Igor repeatedly waved his hands.

Upon seeing Igor’s sincerity and genuine disinterest in material possessions, Jared chose not to insist.

Since Jared had acquired the Celestial Devourer, the consumption of resources was anticipated to be even more substantial in the future.

Jared himself already required a lot of resources, so with the addition of a Celestial Devourer, the demand had increased even more.

“Mr. Lothian, why is Montane Daemon nowhere to be seen?” Jared was somewhat curious, wondering why Montane Daemon was not present.

“Montane Daemon is currently at a critical moment of breakthrough, which is why he couldn’t wait here. He has already instructed me to tell you that if you emerge from the Celestial Battlefield, you must not leave Demonia Mountain.

He still wants to have more exchanges with you!” informed Igor.

Upon hearing that, Jared nodded. He had no intention of leaving Demonica Mountain, and moreover, there were still some unfinished matters for him to attend to on the mountain.

Pablo had pursued and attempted to kill Jared several times, leaving Jared in a state of disarray, Jared would not let him off easily.

Moreover, Jared was also eager to experience the Demon Devouring Cave.

Since Hamish, Misho, and the others had already left, Jared no longer needed to worry about anything. He could spend more time on Demonica Mountain.

“Mr. Chance, we must also take our leave now. Here is my family’s token. If you have the time, we hope you can visit our home. It would be an honor to host you properly,” said Tyler with utmost sincerity.

“Mr. Summers, you’re too kind. I’ll certainly visit when I have the time!” Jared said with a light smile.

“Mr. Chance, don’t forget, you must come visit us.” With a smile gracing her face, Jennifer winked at Mr. Chance.

It was evident that Jennifer admired Jared, much like a young girl who had just seen her idol.

Jared nodded with a smile.

The entire Summers family left, with Jennifer frequently looking back every three steps she took.

With a playful laugh, Feenix said to Jared, “Master, I see that this young maiden has taken a liking to you. It won’t be long before you have another woman to warm your bed.” “Shut up!” Jared exclaimed, his face flushed with embarrassment. After all, hearing such things in front of people like Igor was utterly embarrassing.

Click to rate this post!
[Total: 2 Average: 4.5]