

A WARRIOR UNDEFEATABLE/

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3641-"I understand. I understand..." Trystan repeatedly nodded. After all, Jared's identity was extremely mysterious at that time.

After Jared had infused him with the Power of Dragons, Trystan had already become aware of Jared's deliberate concealment of his aura.

Trystan even thought Jared had altered his appearance, but no matter what the reason was for Jared, Trystan had no intention of delving deeper. After all, it was Jared who had saved his life.

"Master, within Mr. Chadwick there resides a soul remnant, that of his friend. It has been dwelling within him, and he wishes to restore a physical body for his friend..." Upon hearing this, Trystan gave a slight smile and said, "What's so difficult about physical body restoration? Mr. Chadwick, please follow me..." Trystan rose, then proceeded to walk with Jared toward the depths of the sect.

It was not until they reached the place where the soul flowers bloomed that Trystan finally stopped.

"Mr. Chadwick, please release the soul remnant of your friend. Here, the soul flowers provide protection, ensuring your friend's soul remnant will not dissipate," Trystan said to Jared.

"All right..." Jared nodded, then turned to Faiyar and said, "Faiyar, I am offering to restore your physical body now. Are you willing?" After all, such a matter could only proceed with Faiyar's consent.

"Mr. Chance, I am willing. I am willing..." Faiyar uttered with great excitement.

Although it was quite pleasant to be in Jared's consciousness field, where he could gain a lot of insights, Faiyar longed to have his own body. This desire became even more urgent after he saw Serena.

Upon laying eyes on Serena, he was instantly smitten, his heart pounding with affection. Thus, upon regaining his physical body, he could pursue Serena.

Upon seeing Faiyar's agreement, Jared casually made a move.

Suddenly, from the center of Jared's brow, the remnant of Faiyar's soul flew out, landing within the soul flowers.

Faiyar's soul remnant was very weak. It wasn't a complete soul. At that time, Jared was controlling Faiyar's soul remnant, merely wanting to learn about the demon spirits from him. He had never considered letting him restore a physical body.

However, after spending some time together, Faiyar was very cooperative with Jared. Moreover, Faiyar's mindset was also changing, and he couldn't help but admire Jared.

Trystan gazed at Faiyar's soul, his brow furrowing involuntarily as he said, "Such a weak soul remnant. To restore a physical body, it's going to take quite some effort." Faiyar's soul remnant flickered in and out of existence. If it weren't for the protective aura of the soul flowers surrounding him, the energy of heaven and earth might have scattered Faiyar's soul remnant to the winds.

"Serena and Clifford, you two assist me. Prepare the Soul Stabilizing Towers immediately..." Trystan instructed Serena and Clifford.

"Yes!" With that, the two of them waved their hands, and a surge of aura rushed in from all directions of Soul Demon Sect.

Immediately following, four golden towers flew in from all directions, subsequently landing at the four positions surrounding Faiyar's soul remnant.

Accompanied by Trystan's surge of spiritual energy, a faint white mist slowly emerged from within the four Soul Stabilizing Towers.

This white smoke carried a peculiar fragrance, then it swirled around Faiyar.

Enveloped by this swirl of smoke, Faiyar felt an unparalleled sense of comfort.

At the same time, his soul remnant became increasingly substantial, becoming clearer to the eye, no longer translucent.

Faiyar's breathing became rapid. His inner excitement was beyond words.

Serena's heart began to race, a blush spreading across her face.

Upon hearing Faiyar's rapid breathing, Trystan thought he was nervous, and thus offered words of comfort.

He had no idea Faiyar was excited because he was looking at Serena.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3642-The white mist within the four Soul Stabilizing Towers continuously swirled around Faiyar, then returned to the towers once more. It emerged again from the top of the towers, creating a cycle that repeated over and over.

For this very reason, Faiyar's soul remnant became increasingly distinct, until it seemed as though a person was standing before the crowd.

At this point, Faiyar was no longer a soul remnant, but a complete spiritual entity. All that was needed next was to use materials to restore his physical body.

Trystan wiped the sweat from his forehead and said, "Was your physical body previously destroyed by someone? It seems like they intended to kill you, even damaging your divine soul, leaving only this tiny fragment. They were ruthless. If it weren't for Mr. Chadwick allowing you to reside within him, a soul remnant like yours wouldn't have been able to find a host and would have been scattered by the energy of heaven and earth." Faiyar's soul remnant was severely deficient, so in order to fully restore Faiyar's soul, Trystan had to expend a significant amount of his spiritual energy.

However, Trystan's words caused both Faiyar and Jared to experience a wave of embarrassment.

That was something Jared had done, but they surely couldn't reveal it at that time.

Right then, Jared turned to Trystan and asked, "Mr. Pruitt, my friend is now ready for his physical body restoration, right?" "All right, his soul has fully recovered. Now, all that's left is to restore his physical body." Trystan gave a nod, then released a surge of aura that directly pierced through Faiyar's divine soul.

Faiyar was momentarily stunned, then his gaze became lost and confused. In the end, he unexpectedly closed his eyes and fell into unconsciousness.

Upon seeing the situation, Jared was immediately taken aback. Faiyar is now but a soul, devoid of a physical body. How could he possibly faint? Apart from being directly dispersed or incinerated by spiritual fire, it's impossible for the soul to be knocked unconscious!

Seeing the shocked expression on Jared's face, Trystan gave a faint smile and said, "Mr. Chadwick, don't panic. Your friend is fine. The process of physical body restoration is too painful, so I just let your friend faint temporarily. This way, he can avoid panic!" Jared nodded, his admiration for Soul Demon Sect growing. They truly are a sect dedicated to the study of souls! Each field really has its own professionals. I might even want to learn a few techniques from Mr. Pruitt specifically targeting the soul!

With a wave of his hand, Trystan caused the four Soul Stabilizing Towers to suddenly fly away, returning to their original positions within Soul Demon Sect. It seemed that these Soul Stabilizing Towers were indeed the treasured guardians of Soul Demon Sect.

Trystan unleashed a multitude of hand seals with both hands, subsequently causing a series of array runes to be imprinted all around Faiyar. Then, he stepped forward, standing right in front of Faiyar's soul.

Jared gazed at the array runes imprinted before his eyes, realizing that the array runes created by that arcane array was nothing extraordinary. In fact, virtually anyone could easily pass through it.

That arcane array was likely designed specifically for souls, so it had absolutely no effect on ordinary people.

Trystan brought his two fingers together, and a stream of purple aura, akin to a small snake, burrowed into Faiyar's soul.

Faiyar's soul began to tremble violently, appearing to be in extreme pain, Sweat beads gradually formed on Trystan's forehead.

The soul flowers around swiftly took flight, then rapidly descended upon Faiyar's soul.

As soon as the soul flowers fell on Faiyar's soul, they seemed to melt instantly, disappearing without a trace.

Meanwhile, Faiyar's transparent soul astonishingly began to grow layers of skin.

As the soul flowers continuously fell, Faiyar's body was rapidly growing.

Quickly, Faiyar's naked body appeared.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3643-With her face flushed, Serena said to Jared, "Mr. Chadwick, you still haven't found a piece of clothing for your friend..." After all, Faiyar was standing in front of her completely naked, which made Serena extremely shy.

Realizing what was happening, Jared hurriedly found a piece of clothing and draped it over Faiyar.

Trystan also channeled a surge of spiritual energy into this body, which finally roused Faiyar from his deep slumber.

However, at that moment, half of the soul flowers in the entire cluster had already vanished.

In order to restore Faiyar's physical body, Trystan had expended a great deal of effort. After all, as a friend of Jared, Trystan had to do this out of respect for Jared.

"Mr. Chadwick, I fear your friend's physical body has ascended several cultivation levels all at once. My master used half of his soul flowers to restore it.

You should know that when others restore their physical bodies, they only use ordinary resources," Clifford said to Jared.

At this point, Faiyar, who had already awakened, was feeling the strength in his body, looking at his newly restored physical body, and was overwhelmed with excitement. He immediately knelt before Trystan. "Mr. Pruitt, your kindness in giving me a second chance, I, Faiyar, will forever remember in my heart..." Faiyar directly bowed in respect to Trystan.

"My fellow cultivator, please rise quickly. I am doing this out of respect for Mr.

Chadwick. He has saved my life, so I am obliged to act this way. If you want to express gratitude, you should thank Mr. Chadwick..." Trystan said.

Faiyar turned around and bowed deeply to Jared, saying, “Mr. Chance, thank you. Following you during this period has allowed me to grow significantly. Now, you have given me a new lease on life. Thank you...” Faiyar spoke excitedly, completely forgetting that Jared had long since changed his identity.

“Mr. Chance?” Trystan, Serena, and Clifford all turned their gaze toward Jared at the same time.

Faiyar was taken aback, realizing that he had misspoken. His face flushed with embarrassment. He didn’t know how to explain himself.

Jared, however, gave a slight smile. “Actually, my last name isn’t Chadwick. It’s Chance. My name is Jared Chance.” After Jared finished speaking, his appearance rapidly changed, transforming back to his original form.

The reason Jared dared to reveal his identity was because he trusted Soul Demon Sect, and he believed in the character of Trystan.

“Jared? The very Jared that Demon Seal Alliance has been worshipping for a century, and now seeks to kill?” Clifford asked incredulously.

Jared nodded. “That’s right. I am the one Demon Seal Alliance is after. Kill me, and you can receive a hundred years of offerings from Demon Seal Alliance!” Clifford was taken aback, then quickly waved his hands in dismissal.

After Trystan finished speaking, he deliberately cast a glance at Clifford.

Clifford had made his stance clear. He was genuinely afraid that if anything happened to Jared, Trystan would hold him responsible.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3644-“To the Demon Devouring Cave?” Upon hearing Jared’s intentions, Trystan and the others were all taken aback.

After all, Demon Devouring Cave was considered a forbidden place in Démonia Mountain. No one wished to venture to that place.

If it weren’t for the purpose of saving Trystan, Serena and Clifford would not have led people to dig for Démonia Dragon Ginseng near the Demon Devouring Cave.

In the end, everyone was sucked into the Demon Devouring Hole, with only the two of them managing to escape unscathed.

And yet, they still ended up being deceived.

Trystan asked, "Mr. Chance, if I may ask. Why do you want to go to Demon Devouring Cave? That place is quite peculiar." "I simply want to explore the Demon Devouring Cave to see if there are any hidden secrets within it. That's because, after some of the people who emerged from the Demon Devouring Cave after entering it, their cultivation level greatly improved. I figure there must be secrets hidden within the Demon Devouring Cave," Jared said without holding back any arcane array.

Pablo, once a wandering cultivator who was bullied by everyone, became formidable now because he entered the Demon Devouring Cave.

However, Jared was still unaware that Pablo was being bullied again.

"Mr. Chance, nobody knows what's inside the Demon Devouring Cave. It's certainly dangerous to enter recklessly. If it's just for the sake of investigation, it's better not to take the risk." Clifford advised Jared.

"Mr. Chance, I agreed with Clifford. You really shouldn't go. Demon Devouring Cave is a very sinister place." Serena also tried to stop Jared.

"Thank you both for your kindness, but I have made up my mind. Now that Mr. Pruitt's life is no longer in danger, it's time for me to embark on my journey.

However, I'm not sure where Demon Devouring Cave is located. I hope you can enlighten me, Ms. Pruitt," Jared asked Serena.

Upon seeing the situation, Serena had no choice but to reveal the location of Demon Devouring Cave to Jared.

Upon seeing that Jared's decision to leave was final, Trystan did not try to dissuade him. Instead, he reached into his pocket and pulled out a bead about the size of a chicken egg.

"Mr. Chance, this is Soul Demon Sect's largest Soulbinding Bead. Take it with you. This bead not only strengthens your soul but also enables you to withstand the attacks of those Soul Capturing Techniques,” Trystan said, handing over the Soulbinding Bead to Jared.

Jared did not stand on ceremony. He accepted the Soulbinding Bead and then expressed his gratitude to Trystan.

Subsequently, Jared turned his gaze toward Faiyar, who had successfully restored himself. He knew how fond Faiyar was of Serena. If Faiyar wished to stay in Soul Demon Sect, Jared wouldn't object.

Upon noticing Jared's gaze, Faiyar immediately said, “Mr. Chance, I'll accompany you to Demon Devouring Cave. Even if I'm going to leave you, it'll only be after you've safely emerged from the cave.” Jared smiled without saying a word.

Faiyar had been by Jared's side for so long, and Jared had witnessed all the changes that Faiyar had undergone.

“Mr. Chance, let me take you to Demon Devouring Cave. It's a very secluded place. Even though I've told you the exact location, I'm still afraid you might not be able to find it.” Upon seeing that Faiyar wanted to follow Jared to Demon Devouring Cave, Serena surprisingly volunteered to go as well.

In fact, after Serena saw the naked Faiyar upon his restoration, she felt a stir in her palpitating heart.

That was her first time seeing a man's bare body.

“Understood.” Hearing his master saying that, Clifford nodded in agreement.

He had no choice but to tag along with the party.

After bidding farewell to Trystan, Jared and his group headed straight for Demon Devouring Cave.

To avoid unnecessary trouble, Jared once again altered his appearance.

Throughout the journey, Serena always sought opportunities to chat with Faiyar.

Faiyar was also very pleased to chat with Serena.

However, witnessing their closeness, Clifford was infuriated to no end.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3645-Although Clifford hadn't said much along the way, deep down, he had already developed a profound hatred for Faiyar.

Originally, he intended to win over Serena, but now, after Faiyar, a mere soul remnant, restored his physical body, the latter began acting lovey-dovey with Serena.

Clifford followed Jared and the others to the vicinity of Demon Devouring Cave in silence.

Serena pointed ahead and reminded Jared, "Mr. Chance, as you move forward, you'll reach the area of Demon Devouring Cave. Therefore, you must stay alert.

You never know when a strange suction force might suddenly appear and pull you into the cave." "Oka. I understand." Jared nodded, then slowly proceeded forward.

Faiyar trailed behind Jared but was abruptly held back by Serena. "You've just restored your physical body, and your cultivation level is too low. You better not go in. We'll follow Mr. Chance instead." Serena wore a face full of worry, concerned that Faiyar's cultivation level was too low and that he might be in danger.

Faiyar comforted Serena, "I'll be fine. With Mr. Chance here, you all can rest assured." Having spent some time with Jared, he came to understand that Jared was truly the Chosen One. Regardless of the dangers he encountered, Jared always managed to resolve the crisis.

Upon seeing that Faiyar was determined to tag along, Serena took off the gem hanging in front of her chest and placed it on Faiyar.

"Put this on. When the time comes, it will help you fend off attacks from the likes of divine souls," Serena said with concern.

Faiyar nodded, then gently took Serena's hand, slowly following behind Jared.

Behind him, Clifford was seething with rage and clenching his teeth with intense resentment churning within his chest.

Jared was unaware of the romantic display between Faiyar and Serena. His attention was solely focused on Demon Devouring Cave.

As they drew closer to Demon Devouring Cave, a strange force suddenly enveloped Jared and his companions.

Following that, the force transformed into a tremendous suction power.

Everyone only felt a lightness in their bodies before swiftly being sucked toward the Demon Devouring Hole.

That sudden turn of events prompted Serena and the others to channel their spiritual energy to resist the suction force hastily. Each of them clung tightly to a large tree, determined not to let the suction force pull them into Demon Devouring Cave.

Yet, Jared did not resist that pulling force. He allowed his aura to dissipate entirely, becoming just like an ordinary person.

At the very moment when Jared had completely dispersed the aura within his body, that immense suction force miraculously vanished.

When Jared looked again at Serena and the others, they were all desperately resisting, clinging tightly to the large tree.

Even so, their bodies were suspended in mid-air, seemingly on the verge of giving out.

“Give up resisting. Put away all your aura and regard yourself as an ordinary person, an ordinary person without any spiritual energy!” Jared loudly addressed the trio.

Upon hearing Jared’s shout, the trio quickly retracted their spiritual energy, then concealing their aura..

That peculiar suction force gradually faded away, and in the end, all three of them landed steadily on the ground.

Mr. Chance, what’s going on?” Faiyar asked Jared in utter disbelief. After we concealed our aura, we no longer feel the suction force. This is amazing.

No one would restrain their aura, turning themselves into ordinary people, and wander around Demon Devouring Cave.

For that very reason, Demon Devouring Hole had repeatedly succeeded in swallowing countless cultivators.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3646-Jared, along with three others, slowly ventured into Demon Devouring Cave.

Sure enough, as they delved about ten meters into the cave, they found intricate array runes etched onto the stone walls.

They figured that must be the location of the arcane array that generated the immense suction force.

All of them concealed their aura, cautiously passing through the arcane array. At that moment, the inside of the cave was pitch black.

Jared extended his hand, and a spiritual fire ignited, illuminating the inside of the cave.

After surveying the surroundings of the cave, apart from the array runes engraved at the entrance, the rest of the stone walls were completely covered in moss, exuding a damp smell.

At first glance, it was just an ordinary cave with nothing particularly special about it.

However, Jared did not take things lightly. Instead, he proceeded forward with utmost caution.

Serena and the others trailed behind him.

They were venturing into Demon Devouring Cave, and since no one knew what could emerge from within, everyone was extremely tense.

After traveling a certain distance, Jared saw array runes on the stone wall that were clearly etched by men.

He knew another arcane array had appeared.

In a hurry, Jared quickly extinguished the spiritual fire in his hand, prompting everyone to conceal their auras once again. Then, they walk passed the area with utmost focus and vigilance.

They journeyed on like that, passing through three arcane arrays before finally reaching the cave's depths.

At that moment, deep within the cave, the stone walls were covered with a dense array of peculiar markings.

More than a dozen corpses lay on the ground, while on the other side of the cave, a large pile of bones was amassed. Not only human bones were present, but a significant number of animal bones could also be seen.

Jared unleashed a blaze of demonic fire, illuminating the entire cave.

"Georgie!" Upon seeing the bodies on the ground, Serena and Clifford immediately let out cries of shock.

It turned out those corpses were the disciples of the Soul Demon Sect who had been sucked in.

On the other hand, Jared was captivated by the imprints on the stone wall.

He looked carefully and discovered that those regular imprints were actually various techniques, not to mention techniques of Demonic Cultivators.

Jared also possessed the aura of the demon within him, so he was able to understand those techniques.

Just as Jared was astonished about who could have left so many demonic techniques deep within that cave, he suddenly heard Faiyar calling out to him loudly. Mr. Chance, come quickly. Come take a look!" Faiyar's loud shout directly drew Jared's attention.

"What's wrong?" Jared asked.

Faiyar pointed at a corpse and asked, "Mr. Chance, quickly look at this corpse.

Is he Cameron Nesser, the head of the Nesser family?" Upon glancing over, Jared noticed that it was Indeed Cameron's body.

Jared reached out and discovered Cameron had long since passed away. The aura within him had vanished, and even the deathly energy that gathered after his demise had been wiped out completely.

“Why is he here? Who killed him?” Jared stared at Cameron’s corpse and fell into deep thought.

Although Cameron didn’t have much of a relationship with Jared, there was a falling out between Jared and the Nesser family due to the matter of Impersonation Technique.

However, upon witnessing Cameron’s sudden tragic death in Demon Devouring Cave, Jared still felt somewhat unsettled.

He couldn’t fathom why did Cameron appear there either, and where Eamon, the Nesser family’s elder, was.

Various questions plagued Jared. He simply couldn’t understand why Cameron appeared there. Could it be that after leaving the Celestial Battlefield, Cameron did not return to the northern region but instead came to the depths of Demon, near Demon Devouring Cave? What was he doing here?

Jared couldn’t have imagined that Pablo would collaborate with the Nesser family.

“Mr. Chance, don’t you possess a time magical item? You could rewind time with it. If you use that time magical item, wouldn’t you be able to see what exactly happened here?”

Faiyar reminded Jared.

Upon hearing that, Jared nodded, then proceeded to take out the timepiece.

As he infused a surge of spiritual energy into the timepiece, the timepiece began to emit a radiant glow. Following that, the hands of the timepiece astonishingly started to move.

Jared’s consciousness seemed to have entered into the river of time, only to be swept away by a whirlpool.

Just as Jared felt his consciousness receding in the river of time, a sudden flash of golden light erupted.

Immediately after, Jared opened his eyes, only to find that he was still in the cave, with the timepiece in his hand remaining just as it was before.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3647-“Mr. Chance, what happened?” Faiyar asked upon taking in Jared’s demeanor.

Jared looked around the cave and said, “It seems there’s an arcane array within this cave, rendering my time magical item completely useless.” “There’s no sign of array runes here, so how could there be an arcane array?” Faiyar also glanced around.

Jared found it peculiar. He hadn’t noticed the presence of any arcane array, yet when he had just activated the time magical item, it was clear that the process of time reversal had begun, only to be obstructed by a beam of golden light.

It was clear that the golden light was emitted from something within the cave. At that moment, aside from Jared and his companions, there was not a single living thing in the cave. Apart from an arcane array, Jared couldn’t think of anything else it could be.

However, there were no inscriptions of array runes around, so how was the arcane array formed?

Jared was utterly baffled.

Faiyar observed the strange characters on the surrounding stone walls and exclaimed in shock, “Mr. Chance, the techniques inscribed on the stone walls of this cave are so advanced. They don’t seem to belong to the Ethereal Realm at all.” Jared said, “These techniques should have been inscribed by the demon immortal. Isn’t it rumored that a great demon lord is suppressed under Demonica Mountain? Perhaps, he was the one who inscribed them. You can seize this opportunity to note down these techniques. Then, by cultivating them, your strength is bound to advance by leaps and bounds.” In truth, Jared himself didn’t know where those techniques originated. That was merely his speculation.

“Mastering even one of these techniques would be an incredible achievement for me. I wouldn’t dare to hope to learn them all.” Faiyar spoke, then sat down cross-legged, focusing intently on a stone wall, examining it carefully.

Jared was surveying the techniques inscribed on the surrounding stone walls.

Soon, he discovered that among those techniques, some of the carved symbols were unexpectedly shimmering with a faint glow.

“Faiyar, do you see any symbols that can emit light among these techniques?” Jared hastily inquired.

“No, I didn’t notice anything.” Faiyar shook his head.

Jared furrowed his brow, then once again began to study the technique. Indeed, within the array of characters in the arcane array, there were symbols that shimmered with light.

Jared gently closed his eyes, activating his spiritual sense. Subsequently, the entire scene of the cave instantly materialized within his consciousness field.

At that moment, those shimmering symbols could be seen in their entirety.

Array runes. These symbols shimmering with light are actually array runes!

Jared was taken aback.

He hadn’t expected that the other party had actually concealed the arcane array within those various techniques.

Jared carefully observed those array runes. Subsequently, accompanied by a flash of golden light, Jared felt as though he had suddenly appeared in a land of nothingness.

The cave was no longer in sight, and neither were Faiyar and the others.

“Faiyar! Faiyar!” Jared shouted, but he couldn’t hear Faiyar’s voice at all.

Jared knew he had undoubtedly been trapped by that arcane array. However, Jared didn’t panic. Instead, he began to search for the arcane array’s core.

All he needed to do was find the arcane array’s core, and then he could directly shatter that arcane array.

However, after Jared had searched all around, he astonishingly couldn’t locate the core of the arcane array.

The entire array seemed like a chaotic mess, with no discernible beginning or end, and the core of the arcane array was nowhere to be found.

Jared slightly furrowed his brows. Then, with a flip of his hand, Dragonslayer Sword appeared in his grasp.

Immediately after, Jared unleashed a piercing sword light that slashed toward the surrounding chaos. Since the location of the arcane array's core couldn't be found, I'll break the arcane array by force!

Boom!

The sword energy was instantly engulfed in chaos. Then, countless radiance emerged from that chaos.

At the same time, within the chaos, a streak of crimson spiritual light suddenly burst forth, subsequently transforming into a monster entirely engulfed in flames.

The monster had no physical form, appearing translucent. Only when the flames flickered could one discern the true shape of the monster.

The monster had a massive mouth, and its two eyes appeared incredibly eerie.

"How could there be a spirit monster within the arcane array?" Jared furrowed his brow.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3648-It was my fault for not having a physical form, clearly I was a spirit. But how could this spirit monster have hidden within the arcane array? Jared asked the spirit monster, "What are you? How did you manage to hide within the arcane array?" "A mere novice dares to question me? Since you've intruded into the arcane array, you might as well leave your life behind." The spirit monster spoke human language, showing absolutely no fear of Jared!

With a cold snort, Jared swung his sword backward!

Facing the spirit monster, Jared didn't waste any words. He knew that only by killing that spirit monster could the arcane array be broken!

Upon seeing the situation, the spirit monster opened its mouth wide, and a stream of fire surged directly toward Jared!

With a wave of his hand, Jared extinguished the flame!

Meanwhile, Jared's sword had already struck toward the spirit monster!

The spirit monster didn't dodge or flinch. It seemed to have withstood Jared's sword strike. Being an ethereal entity, this sword strike didn't cause it any harm!

Upon seeing the situation, Jared gently swung Dragonslayer Sword in his hand, and in an instant, it ignited into roaring flames!

"Since you are a spirit, physical harm won't affect you. Let's see how you handle the taste of this demonic fire!" The fire raven on Jared's Dragonslayer Sword transformed into a fiery dragon, charging directly toward the spirit monster!

Upon seeing the situation, the fire spirit monster suddenly clapped its hands.

Straight from the surrounding chaos, several streaks of crimson flames burst forth, colliding directly with Jared's fire dragon!

Boom!

A surge of intense energy fluctuated, causing the surrounding chaos to distort, astonishingly absorbing all of the fluctuating energy suddenly!

Jared was taken aback. He hadn't expected that the arcane array could also absorb aura. It was too extraordinary!

The spirit monster, however, seemed unfazed by the oddity. With another wave of its hands, it sent five streams of crimson flames hurtling toward Jared!

The air quivered, the void echoed with a mournful cry!

Five crimson flames blazed with unparalleled intensity, yet Jared merely responded with a faint smile, remaining utterly motionless!

Upon seeing that Jared did not dodge or flinch, the spirit monster sneered. "You are too reckless!" Jared still wore a faint smile. Even as the crimson flames struck him, not a single movement could be detected from him!

In the nascence space, the fire nascence star began to flicker incessantly, creating a massive suction force within Jared's body.

Five crimson flames struck Jared, which were quickly absorbed and refined into nascence power by the fire nascence star.

Not only did it fail to cause any harm to Jared, but it was rapidly absorbed by him instead!

Upon witnessing that scene, the spirit monster was greatly puzzled. However, it quickly spoke. "I didn't expect that you, a young cultivator, would actually grasp fire nascence. However, I am curious to see how much of demonic fire you can absorb!" After the spirit monster finished speaking, it began to gesticulate wildly with its hands, as if performing some sort of ritual.

Immediately following, the chaos around began to churn, much like a tempestuous storm, and then a massive surge of flames burst forth from the midst of the chaos!

In an instant, flames engulfed Jared, the raging inferno rising like a tidal wave breaching its banks!

Amidst the entire chaos, everything was filled with flames. The spirit monster too, within the flames, let out a series of piercing laughter!

"Let's see how much you can absorb!" The spirit monster was laughing in mockery!

The intense blaze, radiating such heat, could meld everything together!

The spirit monster was entirely engulfed in flames, suspended in mid-air!

"This boundless flame, even if you've grasped the fire nascence, don't dream of absorbing it all." The spirit monster curled its lips into a cold, mocking smile.

Beneath such flames, all things perished, let alone a mere monk like Jared!

The flame gradually diminished, and Jared's figure also vanished into thin air!

Within the chaotic space of the arcane array, only the spirit monster was laughing in self-satisfaction!

However, quite swiftly, a voice caused the spirit's smile to freeze on its face!

"Isn't it a bit early for you to be laughing?" Jared slowly spoke from behind the spirit monster!

The spirit monster turned around, suddenly startled. To its surprise, Jared was standing perfectly intact behind it, without a single trace of having been scorched by fire!

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3649-“You... You...” The spirit monster, engulfed in flickering red flames, wore an expression of disbelief. “How could you possibly still be alive...” “How could it be impossible? Your little flame isn’t even enough to fill the gaps in my teeth. Bring forth more fire if you can!” Jared said with great satisfaction!

His nascence space was nothing less than a cosmos. Even his fire nascence was a star!

Jared was amused that the spirit monster thought that bit of flame could make his nascence space burst.

The spirit monster’s face turned incredibly unsightly, its body continuously retreating backward!

When Jared saw the spirit monster attempting to escape, he swiftly unsheathed Dragonslayer Sword. A vast, all-encompassing wave of fire then came rolling in!

“I’ll also let you taste the flavor of the raging flames...” Jared roared, and the flames directly engulfed the spirit monster’s body!

The spirit monster let out a piercing roar, followed by a violent tremor that shook the chaotic void around it!

Accompanied by a tremendous suction force, Jared’s body was instantly drawn into the darkness!

When the light returned, Jared found himself back in the cave once again!

However, the cave was already devoid of Faiyar and his companions, and the techniques that were once etched on the stone walls of the cave were no longer there!

Jared was quite puzzled, continuously surveying his surroundings! “A mere Tribulator cultivator, yet possessing a cosmos for a nascence space. How rare, truly rare..." A faint voice seemed to drift over from the edge of the heavens!

"Who are you?" Jared was suddenly taken aback, loudly demanding an explanation!

"Who am I?" The voice carried a tone of confusion as if it was questioning itself!

"Who am I? Where did I come from? Why am I here?" The sound echoed throughout the cave!

With that, Jared was left utterly bewildered!

He didn't even know who the voice belonged to, so how could he possibly know who the other person was?

"Dare you to show yourself and meet me? Perhaps upon seeing you, I might know who you are, Jared exclaimed.

"Oh? You know me?" The voice carried a hint of surprise!

"If you show yourself, there's a chance I might recognize you..." Jared was luring the other party into revealing themselves.

If the other party refused to show themselves, playing such mysterious games, it was difficult for Jared to deal with!

No sooner had Jared's words fallen than a figure suddenly appeared before his eyes!

That figure appeared incredibly aged and weary and was also burdened with heavy shackles!

Just like the severe criminals of ancient times, it inevitably evoked a sense of pity!

After that figure appeared, it addressed Jared with a question! "Do you know me?" Jared, however, shook his head. He didn't know the other party, but something puzzled Jared. The old man was clearly reduced to a mere wisp of a soul remnant, so how was he still bound by heavy chains?

Moreover, that shackle was likely no ordinary object. After all, anything capable of imprisoning a soul must surely be of a high-level magical artifact or the like!

“Who exactly are you? Why are you here? Moreover, you’re already a soul remnant, yet you’re still bound by someone. What on earth happened?” Jared curiously asked!

“How was I to know who I was? I didn’t even understand why I was trapped here. I yearned to leave this place, yet for thousands of years, I remained unable to escape.” The elder gazed at the stone walls surrounding him, his eyes brimming with a longing for freedom!

“Were the arcane arrays and techniques within this cave inscribed by you?” Jared continued to ask!

The old man nodded. “Indeed, it was I who drew them in. I merely wanted to attract some cultivators, then leave this place by attaching myself to them. Little did I know, these fellows were too weak, and one by one, they perished. I couldn’t understand why the cultivators of this place were as weak as trash. Left with no choice, I could only inscribe techniques for him to practice. Once his strength was sufficient, I could then rely on him to leave this place!”

Upon hearing that, Jared instantly thought of Pablo. After that guy entered the Demon Devouring Cave, his strength skyrocketed. It turned out it was all due to that old man. It seemed Pablo was indeed lucky!

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3650-“What is your current cultivation level?” Jared curiously asked!

“I don’t know!” the old man shook his head.

“You should at least know what your name is, right?” Jared continued to ask.

“I don’t know...” the old man continued to shake his head.

“So, what else do you know about yourself?” “I couldn’t remember anything. All I knew was that I had to get out of here!” the elder said.

“Since you know nothing, I’m afraid I can’t help you. Why have you trapped me within this arcane array?” Jared couldn’t understand why the old man had trapped him within the arcane array!

Only Jared could see the hidden arcane array in the technique. It was clear that the old man had done that intentionally!

“Of course, it’s because of your body,” he said. “I find your physique intriguing.

Perhaps if I attach myself to you, I could finally escape this place!” After the old man finished speaking, he looked at Jared with avarice!

“You say you want to possess me, but I won’t agree to that. What benefit will I get if I help you leave this place?” Jared knew, although the identity of this old man was unclear, he was undoubtedly a great demon lord who had been sealed there from the celestial realm.

Perhaps there could be some benefits to gain from that guy.

“Benefits?” The elder paused, speaking with a hint of irritation, “Are you trying to bargain with me? Don’t mistake this for pleading. Even though I’m reduced to a mere soul, bound by chains, taking control of your body would still be as easy as flipping my hand...” “Really?” Jared snorted coldly, not believing it at all!

Whoosh!

No sooner had Jared’s words fallen than the old man astonishingly transformed into a cloud of black mist in an instant, and then swiftly entered into Jared’s consciousness field!

Jared’s spiritual sense had not been released, yet that elder managed to infiltrate Jared’s consciousness field effortlessly, clearly demonstrating his formidable strength!

“Hahaha, you naïve child, being able to lend your body to me is indeed your supreme honor...” After the old man entered Jared’s consciousness field, he surprisingly burst into hearty laughter!

“You really do have some skills. I agree to take you out, but once you’re out, you must immediately leave my body!” Jared spoke to the old man!

“Stop dreaming. I’ve waited thousands of years for a body as strong as yours, capable of bearing my soul remnant. How could I bear to leave? I intend to use your body to cultivate anew, to recover the memories I’ve lost!” At that moment, the elder revealed a ferocious expression!

Upon hearing the old man’s words, Jared was not surprised in the least. After all, the old man was merely a soul remnant, shackled and bound. Even if he were to leave the cave, his survival in Ethereal Realm would be incredibly difficult!

“Do you really think, with your mere soul remnant, you could seize control of my body? Aren’t you dreaming a bit too beautifully?” After Jared finished speaking, a burst of golden light erupted within his consciousness field.

Upon seeing the situation, the elder couldn’t help but let out a cold chuckle. His body emitted a series of faint blue auras, which enveloped him, effectively blocking the golden rays from reaching him!

In an instant, Jared’s consciousness field transformed into a battlefield where two forces were constantly clashing. That caused Jared to furrow his brows, experiencing a pain so intense that he wished he were dead!

Fortunately, Faiyar had managed to reconstruct his physical form and had left Jared’s consciousness field. Otherwise, that terrifying collision of auras would have undoubtedly torn Faiyar’s soul remnant to shreds!

“Young man, the stronger your spiritual sense, the more I admire you. It seems that my thousands of years of waiting have truly not been in vain!” Facing Jared’s overwhelming golden light attack, the old man surprisingly burst into laughter!

Jared exerted all his strength, the consciousness field within him roiling ceaselessly. However, he couldn’t inflict the slightest damage on the old man!

It should be known that the elder was merely a soul remnant still bound by shackles, yet he possessed such immense spiritual sense power. Jared’s attacks on his consciousness field were utterly ineffective!

The elder burst into hearty laughter, as a faint blue aura began to emanate from his body, steadily expanding. Gradually, it engulfed the golden light within Jared’s consciousness field!
