

A WARRIOR UNDEFEATABLE/

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3686-Jared's body lunged forward as if piercing through a layer of ripples, and he found himself standing in front of the cultivation technique documentation device.

Following closely behind, Skylar's strike had also arrived.

However, the black mist that was only a few steps away from Jared suddenly dissipated.

Skylar was taken aback. Then, he once again unleashed several waves of black mist. However, the result remained the same. The black mist dissipated upon arriving before Jared.

Upon observing the situation, Jared scrutinized his surroundings meticulously.

He discovered that there was a restraining power around the cultivation technique documentation device. Although it was invisible and intangible, Jared could still sense it.

Earlier, Jared's spiritual energy also dissipated upon coming into contact with the restraining power.

Upon seeing that Skylar was unable to break through the restraining power, Jared relaxed considerably. Consequently, he reached out, intending to pick up the cultivation technique documentation device.

Just as he reached out, the cultivation technique documentation device erupted in a beam of golden light. Jared felt as if his body was instantly crushed under a mountain, and with a thud, he fell to the ground.

"What's going on?" Jared was taken aback, his face drained of color. The cultivation technique documentation device is right before me, so why can I still not retrieve it? Don't tell me Baal placed a restraint on this cultivation technique documentation device too?

As Jared was unsure of what was happening, the cultivation technique documentation device slowly began to emit waves of an aura that Jared was very familiar with.

That was the aura emitted by Baal during his resurrection.

As the aura surrounded Jared, it brought him a great sense of relaxation, prompting him to greedily absorb the aura.

“With your current strength, I’m afraid you won’t be able to break through the restraint on this cultivation technique documentation device of martial arts.

Perhaps you can shatter this restraint if you harness the power of lightning tribulation,” Vermilion Demon Lord said.

“The power of lightning tribulation? Are you saying that I need to achieve a breakthrough here to attract a lightning tribulation to remove the restraint on this cultivation technique documentation device?” Jared asked in surprise.

Vermillion Demon Lord nodded and said, “Indeed. Not to mention your strength, even if a Top Level Tribulator won’t be able to shatter this restraint. Therefore, none could obtain this cultivation technique documentation device even if one reaches here. That is unless one could achieve a breakthrough here and borrow the strength of lightning tribulation.” Upon hearing that, Jared was instantly rendered speechless. What is Baal up to? No wonder all the experts Demoniac Sect had employed previously failed.

Who would’ve expected such a restraint to be placed on this cultivation technique documentation device?

If it weren’t for Vermilion Demon Lord, Jared wouldn’t have known how to break through that restraining power.

However, achieving an immediate breakthrough was easier said than done.

Every minor advancement Jared made required an immense amount of resources.

However, as Jared absorbed the aura emanating from the cultivation technique documentation device, he thought of the Demoniac Dragon Ginseng stored within his Storage Ring. Perhaps consuming the Demoniac Dragon Ginseng can allow me to reach the critical point of breakthrough.

Jared took out the Demoniac Dragon Ginseng and began to absorb it.

With the protection from the surrounding restraining power, Jared was not afraid that Skylar would harm him.

Given Skylar's abilities, it was unlikely he was capable of shattering the restraint deliberately laid down by Baal.

Jared sat cross-legged, quietly beginning his cultivation.

Skylar immediately charged toward Jared.

Bam!

Accompanied by a thunderous noise, Skylar was sent flying by an immense force!

Following that, his mind went completely blank. After Skylar had a clear view, he realized he had unexpectedly arrived outside the cave.

At that moment, outside the mountain cave, Trystan, Norman, and the others were all waiting anxiously.