

A WARRIOR UNDEFEATABLE/

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3791-Early in the morning, Jared and his group set off with the individuals from the Five Great Sects!

Throughout the journey, everyone harbored their own secrets. No one spoke a word!

Not long after they had set off, the sky abruptly shifted, with numerous ominous clouds gathering, and a flurry of snowflakes began to fall!

The temperature plummeted drastically, forcing the numerous cultivators to unleash their spiritual energy around them in order to fend off the cold!

However, Bianca and her companions were completely unaffected. After all, they practiced frost cultivation techniques, and they had been living in such conditions for years on end!

At that moment, Bianca approached Jared and spoke. "Mr. Chance, we've found another polar stone up ahead." "Where?" Jared had always been on guard against Heinrich and his associates, so he hadn't noticed!

Pointing toward a nearby rock wall, Bianca said, "They're all on the rock wall.

Seems like there are hundreds of them." Jared looked over and found hundreds of polar stones embedded in one side of the cliff!

Previously, the polar stones were always found on the ground. Surprisingly, they were discovered on the rock walls at that time, embedded within the mountain itself!

That made Jared extremely puzzled, causing him to stop in his tracks involuntarily!

"Why did you stop walking?" Lauden asked!

"There are polar stones up ahead." Jared pointed out!

"So this is what the polar stone looks like. Why not just have someone take it down?" Lauden said!

Jared, however, remained still. As he gazed at those polar stones, a sense of danger inexplicably welled up within him! The appearance of the polar stone on that cliff is likely not a coincidence!

"Mr. Chance, I'll personally lead the team to retrieve the polar stones!" Bianca exclaimed!

Jared nodded, but cautioned, "You all must stay alert. I have a feeling there's danger lurking here." Bianca had chosen two holy maidens, and then, with a swift leap, she moved closer to the rock wall!

Due to the magnetic field in the area, Bianca and her companions couldn't leap too high. They had to use the rocky walls to propel themselves upward once again!

Just as Bianca and her companions were about to approach the polar stone, suddenly, from within the rock wall, a swarm of venomous parasites burst out, dark and menacing!

No one had figured out how those venomous parasites had managed to emerge from within the rock face!

"Be careful!" Upon seeing the situation, Jared leaped into action.

At the same time, a surge of intense heat rose from his palm because those venomous parasites were afraid of demonic fire.

Upon seeing that, the other holy maidens quickly drew their frost swords. One by one, they released flashes of sword light that swiftly darted toward the dark mass of venomous parasites!

Bianca and the two holy maidens plummeted rapidly!

The sight of those countless venomous parasites swarming in a dark mass was terrifying. If one were to be engulfed by them, not even a trace of their corpse would remain!

Jared unleashed a series of demonic fire, forming a wall of fire that served as a barrier against the venomous parasites to give Bianca and the two holy maiden time to escape!

Subsequently, hundreds of sword lights pierced through the swarm of parasites.

Although it slaughtered a good number of venomous parasites, in the face of the tens of thousands of them, it was merely a drop in the ocean!

"Help them out!" Upon seeing the situation, Lauden let out a shout and charged toward the swarm of parasites!

However, people like Heinrich remained completely still!

Lauden didn't pay any mind. He went straight to Jared's side!

"This could perhaps be an opportunity!" Lauden whispered something into Jared's ear!

In an instant, Jared understood, and his body rapidly descended!

A swarm of venomous parasites rushed toward Jared.

Suddenly, the rock wall crumbled, and what seemed like a sleeping ice bear astonishingly leaped out from within!

The ice bear was enormous, its presence robust. Surprisingly, it possessed Tribulation cultivation level.

Upon seeing that ice bear, everyone was taken aback!

Jared had lured the venomous parasites and the ice bear monster toward the Five Great Sects!

Only in the midst of chaos could they seize the opportunity to eliminate Heinrich and his gang quietly!

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3792-When Heinrich and his companions saw Jared leading the venomous parasite and ice bear their way, they all began to shout and scream in alarm!

“Don’t come closer! Don’t come closer!” They certainly didn’t want to get their hands dirty dealing with those venomous parasites.

However, the louder they shouted, the less likely Jared would do as they asked.

Heinrich and his group, along with their disciples, were desperately retreating.

However, they were nowhere near as fast as Jared!

The venomous parasite and that ice bear were lured over!

After exchanging glances, Heinrich and his companions found themselves without any other options. It was only then that they decided to take action against the venomous parasite and the ice bear!

Jared instructed Bianca to quickly take a few holy maidens to the cliff and promptly retrieve the polar stone!

Just as Bianca and her companions were about to retrieve the polar stone, a series of roars echoed again. Astonishingly, ice bears emerged from the rocky cliff!

That time, it gave Bianca and the others quite the fright!

Upon seeing the situation, Jared leaped into action, single-handedly taking on several ice bears to allow Bianca and the others to retrieve the polar stones!

Lauden also hurried forward to help!

At that moment, he knew he had to unite in effort and spirit with Jared!

Lauden and Jared locked eyes, seemingly on the same wavelength. They began to fight off the ice bear, all the while strategically retreating!

Surprisingly, those ice bears were drawn right next to Heinrich and his companions!

A swarm of venomous parasites, along with a few ice bears, were present!

Heinrich and his followers were somewhat worn out from managing things!

Jared, following Lauden, had seized the opportunity to escape the battlefield. He didn't bother to help at all!

Blood trickled from the corner of Heinrich's mouth. His expression was incredibly grave!

Initially, they had planned to seize an opportunity to make a move against Jared and Lauden. Instead, they found themselves entangled with those venomous parasites and ice bears!

"Let's make this quick, and no more dilly-dallying around!" Gritting his teeth, Heinrich unsheathed a long sword!

Upon the blade's edge, spiritual energy swirled, and countless sharp blade glimmers flickered in and out of sight!

Immediately following, a blade was swung toward an ice bear!

Originally, Heinrich intended to conserve his strength. He planned to wait until Jared and Lauden were worn out from fighting these ice bears, then they could step in and reap the benefits!

However, at that moment, the venomous parasites and ice bears behaved as if they had identified their masters, relentlessly pursuing them without any sign of letting go!

The ice bear let out a roar, a sound so powerful that it seemed to warp the very air around it!

Following that, a bear paw swung with all its might. Astonishingly, under that single swipe, the countless blade lights were all blocked!

The ice bear was tough-skinned and thick-fleshed. Moreover, its body was enveloped in a layer of frost that resembled armor, making it extremely hard to break through!

Another ice bear opened its mouth wide, releasing a blast of cold air. Upon seeing that, Heinrich quickly retreated, but he was still a step too late!

Struck directly by that wave of cold, his body began to frost over in an instant!

Heinrich was deeply terrified. He channeled his inner spiritual energy, striving desperately to slow the pace of the frost's formation!

Edward and Stuart were fraught with anxiety. Seeing Heinrich in such a state, they gritted their teeth in frustration!

However, they were left trembling by the icy bear, unable to escape!

All the disciples were completely occupied with dealing with the venomous parasites, not a single one was idle!

If there had been popcorn, the two of them would have been eating it while enjoying the show!

Though they had lured the ice bear and the poison parasites over, they had no control over who those things would attack!

With a mischievous grin, Jared spoke! "I secretly used a few tricks on them." Lauden was taken aback for a moment, then he too started to laugh!

That type of medicinal powder could drive the demon beasts into a frenzy, causing them to attack as if they were mad!

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3793-"Ah!" With a roar, Heinrich released an aura of terror that shattered the encasing frost instantly.

"Mr. Delacroix, while we are fighting tooth and nail here, are you just standing by watching us as if it's some kind of a joke?" Fuming with anger, Heinrich glared at Lauden, who was not far off, and questioned vehemently.

The Five Great Sects were all engaged in a fierce battle. Keelan, the sect leader from Celestial Dawn Sect, hadn't made a move, but Heinrich knew why.

Keelan had been poisoned. He was currently unable to utilize his spiritual energy, for if he did, the poison would rapidly spread, and he would soon meet his death.

In this place, without an alchemist to be found, death was undoubtedly inevitable.

However, Lauden was observing the battle alongside Jared, showing no intention of intervening. Even the holy maiden that Jared brought along was keeping her distance.

It was clear they were being set up. So why wouldn't Heinrich be anxious?

"Mr. Darkmore, that ice bears are just too formidable. I can't really step in.

Besides, if I did, I was afraid you might stab me in the back," Lauden said in a nonchalant manner.

Heinrich was taken aback. He understood the meaning behind Lauden's words!

"Mr. Delacroix, our Five Great Sects are essentially part of the same lineage.

Are you really going to just stand by and watch us fight to our death? As one of the leaders of the Five Great Sects, you shouldn't be so narrow-minded. How could we possibly lay a hand on you? At most, we just have some designs on Jared! After all, this guy is worth a century's worth of offerings of Demon-Sealing Alliance!" Surprisingly, Heinrich started playing the emotional card with Master Luo.

He knew that if Lauden weren't going to step in, they, facing such a multitude of venomous parasites and ice bears, would have inevitably met defeat sooner or later!

These demon beasts were as if they'd been drugged, each one incredibly excited, attacking with all their might.

"Hmph, don't even think your plan is flawless." He scoffed. "Mr. Cervantes had already informed me. You all plan to kill me in this polar region. Let me tell you this. I chose to collaborate with Jared precisely to guard against the three of you. We share the same lineage, yet you harbored intentions to kill me. How could I possibly help you!" Simply put, Lauden decided to lay it all out in the open.

Heinrich and his group were entangled by the ice bears. They couldn't escape in a short span of time.

Even if they had managed to escape by sheer luck, they would be completely exhausted. They were at a point where they could be effortlessly killed.

Upon hearing this, Heinrich was instantly seething with rage, grinding his teeth in fury. He glared at Keelan with a menacing intensity.

"Keelan, it seems you've forgotten the poison you carry within you. How dare you betray us? Don't blame me for being ruthless, then. Without my antidote, the poison in you will claim your life in three days." Even at this point in time, Heinrich had the audacity to glare defiantly, threatening Keelan.

"You don't need to threaten him. I can cure his poison!" Jared stepped forward and spoke up.

Upon seeing that, Heinrich became even more infuriated.

However, his current anger was futile. The three of them were at their wit's end, dealing with several ice bears, not to mention the constant harassment from venomous parasites.

"Brat, don't get cocky thinking that a few demon beasts can trap us. Once we've slain these creatures, you can bet your life is next!" Heinrich roared in anger, venting the fury within his heart.

"Hmph! You won't have the chance!" After Jared finished speaking, he moved like a shooting star, instantly heading toward Heinrich.

Jared moved with such speed. It was as if he had vanished in an instant.

Upon witnessing this scene, Heinrich was taken aback.

With his Blazing Stride, Jared launched a punch toward Heinrich.

"How dare you..." Heinrich gritted his teeth in anger.

Boom!

No sooner had his words been spoken than the punch landed right before Heinrich.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3794-With all his strength, Heinrich unleashed a spiritual shield, hoping to block Jared's punch!

However, after his prolonged battle with the ice bear, his spiritual power was significantly depleted. Even when he exerted all his strength to form a spiritual energy shield, he feared it might not be able to withstand a single blow from Jared!

As the golden light erupted, Jared's punch effortlessly pierced through the spiritual shield, landing a fierce blow on Heinrich's body!

Heinrich's body flew toward the distance, much like a kite that had slipped its string!

In mid-air, Heinrich spewed fresh blood, tracing an arc!

With a mighty impact, Heinrich crashed into the rock wall, causing the entire small mountain to rumble loudly!

Upon witnessing that scene, Edward and Stuart exchanged a glance before turning to flee!

The truth had been exposed, and staying meant certain death for them!

“Hmph, thought you could escape, did you? It’s not that easy!” Lauden gave a cold huff, leaping up in a swift motion, blocking the path of the two individuals!

The ice bears around were glaring fiercely!

“Mr. Delacroix, we were wrong. This whole affair was orchestrated by Heinrich.”
“Considering we share the same lineage and teachings, spare us this time, please!”
Edward and Stuart were pleading with Lauden!

They didn’t know what happened to Heinrich after Jared landed a punch on the latter, so they didn’t have the guts to even consider harming Lauden!

Lauden looked at the two, his eyes brimming with anger as he said, “If you had admitted your mistakes earlier, I wouldn’t have taken action against you. After all, we’ve worked together for many years. However, you all, for the sake of your own gains, dared to poison Mr. Cervantes. This is unforgivable. If our ancestors were alive, they, too, would never forgive you!” Upon witnessing the situation, Edward and Stuart realized that Lauden was determined to back them into a corner that day. Gritting their teeth, they declared, “Fine, if you’re going to be so ruthless, then we’ll fight to the end!” Having said that, the two immediately took action against Lauden!

Lauden had only recently become a Ninth Level Tribulator cultivator, so they were fully capable of dealing with him if they joined forces!

Just as the two of them were about to take action, a phantom figure arrived in an instant. Jared had already reached the side of Lauden, his eyes sparkling with a sharp brilliance, filled with lethal intent!

Dragonslayer Sword in his hand hummed impatiently, as if it couldn’t wait to be unleashed!

“You two seem to have forgotten about me.” Jared let out a cold laugh!

Upon seeing Jared, Edward and Stuart felt a wave of tension gripped them both.

However, given the circumstances, they had no choice but to give it their all!

“Die!” The two of them were yelling, heading straight toward Jared and Lauden!

Jared’s eyes were filled with disdain. He was no longer someone who could be dealt with by an Eighth Level Tribulator!

A while back, he was driven to a state of utter desperation!

In just a few short days, Jared was able to completely disregard those people!

Dragonslayer Sword in his hand erupted with a wave of heat, as a fierce, all consuming flame surged upward!

With a swift strike, a roaring flame dragon was unleashed!

Facing the fire dragon, Stuart stomped his feet onto the ground, and suddenly, walls of earth erupted from beneath!

The hard ground beneath the feet of Stuart was instantly lifted up!

However, to Jared, that mud wall was as flimsy as paper in the face of his fire dragon heart, serving absolutely no purpose at all!

Boom!

The fire dragon pierced through the body of Stuart, igniting instantly!

“Ah!” Stuart let out a chilling scream!

Lauden cast a somewhat reluctant glance, then leaped into action, striking down at Edward with a swift palm strike!

Edward also gave it his all, his palms facing each other!

Bang!

With a dull thud, the body of Edward suddenly sunk into the ground, leaving only his upper half exposed!

Jared, on the other hand, pulled out a handful of red powder and scattered it into the air!

The venomous parasites and ice bears charged forward, letting out ferocious roars.
