

A WARRIOR UNDEFEATABLE/

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3951-“Respected elder, my junior here has just joined us and is thus not fully aware of the rules. Could you please show leniency this time?” “I will get him to reveal his cultivation level and subject himself to our inspection!” After finishing his words, Judd quickly turned to Jared and said, “Jared, you need to fully unleash your potential, and there should be no more hiding. If you want to join Violet Flame Sect, you must be completely open.” “Judd, I wasn’t concealing my level at all. I’m currently at Fourth Level Tribulator.” Jared said in a bewildered manner!

He merely concealed his identity, but did not hide his cultivation technique at all.

As for the ‘strength he exhibited, Jared had no control over it. This was simply the power he possessed at Fourth Level Tribulator.

“Jared, stop being stubborn. Just admit your mistake quickly, and there might still be a chance for you.” Carla also turned to Jared, and offered his advice.

“Carla, I am really at Fourth Level Tribulator. If you don’t believe me, I’m open to being examined!” Jared said in a nonchalant tone!

Upon seeing Jared’s denial, the juridical elder snorted coldly, “Fine, we’ll conduct a full-body search on you. Don’t think you can hide anything under our scrutiny.” After that, several other juries simultaneously surrounded Jared. Each of them released their consciousness to envelope Jared!

Jared didn’t resist, and relaxed his mind to allow all traces of his cultivation level to radiate outward!

For a full fifteen minutes, beads of sweat had formed on the foreheads of those juries.

However, upon thorough investigation, it was indeed confirmed that Jared was only at the ‘cultivation level of Fourth Level Tribulator.

That meant Jared neither lied nor concealed anything!

“This is really strange. He was truly just at Fourth Level Tribulator and there was hidden cultivation level!” The juridical elder expressed his confusion with a puzzled look on his face!

Upon hearing, Judd and the others were all shocked and stared at Jared with faces full of disbelief!

Thiago shook his head, and asserted, "That's impossible. He's only at Fourth Level Tribulator, so how could he possibly defeat me, someone at Eighth Level Tribulator?" "This can't be. It's absolutely impossible," he insisted. "This guy must have some hidden cultivation technique to conceal his cultivation level, so no one could detect it!"

Thiago refused to believe that he had been defeated by a cultivator at Fourth Level Tribulator!

"Thiago, don't underestimate our capabilities even though you're currently the head disciple. We can still figure it out whether or not there are hidden cultivation level. Otherwise, there would be no point in us old folks being juries." The juridical elder's expression turned slightly irate as he addressed Thiago.

"Please calm down, honorable juridical elder. That's not what I meant..." Thiago hastily apologized!

However, Jared was indeed at Fourth Level Tribulator, which was a fact that surpassed everyone's expectations. They all thought Jared had been concealing his true cultivation level!

"You are just making up other excuses because you can't match up. Have you no shame?"

"I began to question how you managed to reach Eighth Level Tribulator. Did you use some kind of demonic technique to force your way up there?"

"People like you who don't diligently practice their skills but dream of achieving instant suédess are not as strong as you think. Even if you're currently at Eighth Level Tribulator, your power isn't all that impressive!"

Thiago was seething with rage. He was the prided disciple of the sect leader and a respected deacon. Yet, he was now humiliated by Jared, a man who wasn't even an outer court disciple of the sect. And to add insult to injury, this happened in front of so many people. It was an absolute humiliation!

Jared went ahead to mock Thiago!

"Bullsh*t!" Thiago's face turned beet red. "You're accusing me of practicing demonic technique!" "If I were spouting nonsense, then why did you, a cultivator at Eighth Level Tribulator, lose to me, a mere Fourth Level Tribulator?" "Can you explain to me if it is your incompetence, or what?" Jared spoke up once again!

"I didn't lose. Who said I have lost? You think I'd be so easily defeated by you?" Thiago let out a roar where his aura exploded once again

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3952-Since you won't give up until all avenues have been explored, I'll just have to show you!" Jared gave a faint smile!

Seeing the situation, the juridical elder waved his hand dismissively and commanded, "Everyone step back. The contest shall continue." As the formation slowly reactivated, Jared once again faced off against Thiago on the !

All it took was a gentle lift of Thiago's hands, and the sky changed color in an instant!

Two clouds appeared above Thiago's head unexpectedly-one red and one purple!

Following that, two streaks of fire source 'descended from the pair of clouds, landing directly into the palm of Thiago's hand!

One of the flames was indeed the fire source of Violet Flame Sect. However, Jared couldn't discern what kind of fire source the faint purple flame was!

Everyone was taken aback as they looked at Thiago with their faces filled with confusion!

"What kind of is Thiago using, and how come there were two types?" "This is really strange. How come he has another kind of fire source besides the one from Violet Flame Sect?" Many people started whispering among themselves!

Even the juridical elder couldn't help but furrow his brows!

"This Thiago was merely a deacon, yet he managed to master Violet Flame Sect's violaceous flame. It seems that Mr. Garrido truly favor him." The head judge clenched his teeth, and his eyes clearly reflecting a touch of displeasure!

That faint purple flame was the violaceous flame of Violet Flame Sect. It was essentially a classified secret of the sect!

All the disciples practiced with red fire source, and they simply couldn't come into contact with this kind of light purple fire source!

Even the mere knowledge of it was concealed, only those of the elder status had the privilege to access it!

The truth was not all the elders had the privilege of cultivating Violet Flame Sect's violaceous flame!

It really depended on the situation. For instance, those like them, the juridical elders, their power within Violet Flame Sect was inherently limited!

Although they knew the existence of Violet Flame Sect's violaceous flame, they simply couldn't access it, let alone cultivate it!

Yet now, Thiago, who was merely a deacon, had unexpectedly mastered violaceous flame-the sect's top-secret. How could this not infuriate these elders!

Moreover, the name "Violet Flame Sect" originated from this faint purple fire source!

However, it was shocking that Thiago had audaciously displayed Violet Flame Sect's top secret fire technique in front of numerous disciples. This was absolutely forbidden!

'In fact, Thiago also knew that he shouldn't have displayed this faint purple fire source in front of everyone!

But he had to put all his other concerns aside if he wanted to defeat Jared!

Jared watched Thiago and his heart brimmed with excitement as he beheld the faint purple fire source in his hand. This was another fire source, and if he could absorb it, he would then possess five different types of fire sources!

However, how was Jared supposed to absorb the fire source discreetly in front of so many people?

He couldn't just blatantly seize the fire source and absorb it!

As Jared was contemplating how to absorb the fire source in Thiago's hand, the latter suddenly clapped his hands together with great force!

The two intense fire source collided in an instant, and immediately erupted into an endless inferno that engulfed Thiago!

Thiago let out a piercing cry of agony, yet he didn't struggle at all. He simply allowed the two types of fire source to consume his body!

"Did Thiago lose his mind? Why did he set 'himself on fire?" "This is truly unbelievable. What on earth is going on!" Everyone was shocked upon seeing Thiago in such a state!

Even Jared was somewhat bewildered since he couldn't comprehend what on earth Thiago was trying to do!

Thiago recklessly allowed the two fire sources to collide in a situation m where they hacht merged. Isn't this tantamount to courting death?

At that moment, Thiago found himself engulfed in flames. One half of his body was wrapped in a blazing red flame, while the other half was enveloped by a soft, purple flame!

The two flames were clashing, and consuming Thiago's body relentlessly!

With the release of this mysterious aura, the two distinct fire sources, the two distinct fire sources which were originally incompatible, surprisingly began to slowly merge together within Thiago's chest!

He let out a wretched scream, as an eerie aura began to slowly emanate from his chest.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3953-“Could this guy actually have mastered the cultivation technique of merging with fire source?” Upon seeing the situation, Jared was immediately taken aback!

He had thought that only Gael had the ability to merge different fire sources, but unexpectedly, Thiago was also capable of this feat!

The truth was not everyone was capable of controlling fire source, and mastering fire fusion technique, which was even more challenging!

After the two fire sources merged, their power had clearly increased significantly!

The flames engulfing Thiago surprisingly turned a deep brown, and his entire demeanor twisted grotesquely, making him look like a demon!

On Thiago's chest, a series of peculiar patterns emerged, and a black lotus flower bloomed!

At that moment, Thiago looked incredibly weird!

“How did this guy suddenly get demonic aura?” Jared's eyes were filled with surprise!

At first, Thiago didn't seem to possess any trace of demonic aura, making it impossible to identify him as a Demonic Cultivator. But now, he had somehow acquired a hint of it. Although the demonic aura was faint with just a sliver, it didn't escape Jared's notice!

“What's going on here? Isn't Thiago cultivating our sect's technique?” The juridical elder furrowed his brows. He had seemingly noticed something off about Thiago!

There was a buzz of discussion among the others as well. They had never seen this kind of technique before. However, what many failed to notice was that Thiago had begun to emanate traces of demonic aura!

“Demonic black lotus. This guy is actually employing such a method to merge the fire sources!” At that moment, Vermilion Demon Lord spoke!

Upon hearing this, Jared let out a sigh of relief. If this guy had truly mastered the fire fusion technique, mastered the fire fusion technique, he'll be a real piece of work!

"Demonic black lotus?" Jared was taken aback!

"The black lotus on this guy's chest is the demonic black lotus. This kind of black lotus needs to be nurtured within the body. Once it appears, it can merge with anything."
"Just now, this guy used the fire source to fuse with the demonic black lotus. It's not that he possesses the technique to fuse with the two fire sources." "However, after the demonic black lotus is unleashed, the cultivator will suffer severe damage. They would need to heal and rejuvenate themselves. If they are not careful, they might even get consumed by the black lotus." "Who would have thought that this guy harbored the demonic black lotus within him, and chose to unleash it at this moment! He's clearly trying to end your life!" Vermilion Demon Lord expressed his surprise!

After all, it was just a martial arts contest, not some deep-seated vendetta.

Thiago seemed ready to fight to the death by unleashing the demonic black lotus!

It looks like this Thiago really is a ruthless character!

"So, it seems that Thiago isn't a Demonic Cultivator? He also hasn't mastered the fire fusion technique?" Jared asked!

"Indeed, his ability to do so was entirely due to the demonic black lotus.

However, it's unclear where this young man obtained the demonic black lotus."
Vermilion Demon Lord answered!

Jared was no longer afraid of the merging of the two fire sources using demonic black lotus!

Once the demonic black lotus was destroyed, the two types of fire sources would naturally separate!

That meant Jared could seize the opportunity to refine and absorb that faint purple fire source!

At that moment, Judd and the others were all extremely worried for Jared after witnessing Thiago's sudden transformation!

However, Jared seemed completely at ease. Thiago was still nothing more than a canard in front of him no matter how much effort he put in!

"Just die..." A terrifying aura surged around Thiago as he looked at the demonic black lotus on his chest. He had regained his confidence!

He was confident that he would definitely be able to defeat Jared with the power of the demonic black lotus!

He couldn't afford to be defeated by a Fourth Level Tribulator. Otherwise, he would lose his place in Violet Flame sect. That would be no different from being drowned in other's scorn and ridicule!

Thiago swung his arms, and a series of flames burst forth from the dark lotus on his chest!

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3954-The deep brown flame morphed into a few flaming dragons, and surrounded Jared!

However, Jared didn't dodge or flinch. He allowed himself to be enveloped by these fiery dragons!

Jared was determined to attempt to absorb and refine the faint purple fire source from within this brown flame!

Since Thiago's fire source was not genuinely fused, Jared had the opportunity to absorb and refine it!

If Jared were to defeat Thiago now and directly absorb and refine the faint purple fire from within him, his act would undoubtedly be discovered and suspected!

Now, Jared had no choice but to take a risk to attempt to separate that faint purple fire source from the merged flames!

Fortunately, Jared had already mastered the fire source of Violet Flame Sect, so he was able to distinguish it from the other flames. What remained was the faint purple fire source!

However, Jared was unaware that this faint purple flame was also from Violet Flame Sect. In fact, it was a top-secret flame of Violet Flame Sect. It was so secretive that even the deacons of the sect were not privy to it. How could Jared possibly know about it?

Jared's Golem Body was activated, and shrouded by the surrounding flames. If his invincible aura had been noticed, his identity could have been exposed!

After all, Jared was the only one who could manifest Golem Body with his form covered in golden scales in the entire Ethereal Realm!

“Jared!” “Jared...” Upon seeing Jared not dodging or flinching, completely enveloped by the intense flames, both Judd and Carla were pale from shock and crying out in alarm!

They couldn't comprehend why Jared didn't dodge. Could it be that he is unable to evade?

In truth, even Thiago was somewhat taken aback. He hadn't expected that he had managed to subdue Jared, ensnaring him in a shroud of flames with just one move!

Thiago also wondered why Jared didn't dodge, or if he simply couldn't dodge at all!

However, there was no doubt Jared wouldn't survive now that he was enveloped by that fire source!

Thiago's face was filled with a cold sneer as flames continued to burst out from the demonic black lotus!

On the contrary, Jared's demeanor remained incredibly relaxed under the cloak of flames!

He didn't feel the slightest bit of heat with an invincible aura shielding him, coupled with the circulation of extremus frost flame!

Jared saw the pulsating purple flame of Violet Flame Sect while watching the flames rise around him. Then, using the principle of attraction between fires of the same kind, he began to slowly separate Violet Flame Sect's purple fire source from the flames.

Quickly, a cluster of faint purple fire source began to dance before Jared's eyes.

The purple flame of Violet Flame Sect had already been drawn out!

Without a moment of hesitation, Jared opened his mouth to inhale, drawing the faint purple flame into his body!

However, there was simply not enough of this fire source. Hence, it was impossible to refine it, so Jared proceeded to separate the two types of fire sources and absorb it again!

As Jared separated himself from the incessant absorption of the fire source, the flames surrounding him surprisingly began to weaken!

Upon seeing the situation, Jared hurriedly withdrew his Golem Body, then feigned agony as he struggled amidst the flames!

If Thiago saw that Jared was unscathed, he probably wouldn't continue using the fused fire source!

Soon, the flames gradually died out!

Jared was somewhat disheveled, he was half- kneeling on the ground, seemingly unable to hold himself up!

His body was still trembling. "This is such a powerful fire source. I have never expected you to master the fire fusion technique." "If this continues to burn, I'll be reduced to ashes!"

Originally, Thiago was stunned to see that Jared was still alive. However, upon hearing Jared's words, he chuckled and said, "Brat, now you realize how formidable I am. Well, it's too late..."

As he spoke, Thiago was about to unleash the fire source once again!

"Stop! We surrender. We admit defeat..."

"Juridical elder, we surrender," they pleaded. "This is merely a test of skill, not a fight to the death. We can't let Thiago kill Jared!"

Upon seeing the situation, Judd and Carla immediately let out a loud cry!

They had admitted defeat, and refused to let Jared continue their fight, if the fight had carried on, he would have been utterly destroyed!

"Hmph, it's not like you guys were the ones fighting. What's the point of you admitting defeat!" Thiago let out a cold snort

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3955-Arnold then turned to Jared and asked, "Are you admitting defeat? If you are, you won't be allowed to participate in the challenge for the next three years!" "I won't forfeit, not even in death. Burn me to ashes if you dare!" Jared stood up, his face brimming with arrogance as he taunted.

He was intent on provoking Thiago so that the latter could unleash the fire source without restraint, even if the flame engulfed him. He wasn't afraid of Thiago's fire source anyway.

"Axel, stop talking and forfeit quickly! Otherwise, you'll die from the fire," Carla shouted.

"Axel, stop being so stubborn!"

Judd wore a troubled expression. He couldn't understand why Jared was so stubborn. Just admit defeat already! It's not like he'll die from it!

Jared tilted his head back and said conceitedly, "I don't have many talents but stubbornness is my strong suit. I refuse to admit defeat, even if it kills me!" "Fine, I'll burn your mouth and make you eat your words. We'll see how long you can last." Thiago's features contorted with anger. After a powerful leap, he crossed his arms before his chest.

Shortly after, a vast network of interlacing flames emerged.

The demonic black lotus quivered slightly, and after merging with the fire source, it erupted with a blistering heat.

Everyone else would've sustained burns if the array hadn't been in place.

"Mr. Nielsen, as a judge, would you really just stand by and watch the inner court disciples harm each other? This matter wouldn't end with only Axel's death. You'd face harsh criticism too." All Judd could do was coerce Arnold into intervening. Otherwise, Jared would truly meet his end in the arena.

Arnold's brow furrowed slightly, his expression was decidedly displeased. He was an elder, after all, yet Judd dared to threaten him.

Moreover, Arnold knew his place. With his ability, he feared being unable to stop them if he decided to intervene.

After all, Thiago was an Eighth Level Tribulator and had even refined the violaceous flame of the Violet Flame Sect. Those fire sources were unlike anything ordinary elders like him had ever seen before.

After much consideration, Arnold finally pressed the switch, deactivating the array.

"Stop!" Following that, Arnold, in tandem with several other judges, acted together to intercept Thiago's attack.

"Thiago, the outcome has already been decided, so there's no need to finish him off," Arnold advised.

Resignation filled Jared at the interception. He really wanted to curse at the juridical elder for being a busybody if he could.

Thiago frowned. He was determined to kill Jared, even if it meant using the violaceous flame and unleashing the demonic black lotus.

After that battle, Thiago might've needed to recuperate for a good while, perhaps even a year or more. Having paid such a high price, he simply couldn't accept Jared losing without repercussions. Moreover, Jared hadn't yet admitted defeat.

“Mr. Nielsen, the opponent hasn’t forfeited yet. Are you planning to intervene by force?” Thiago questioned with fury brimming in his eyes.

“Even though he didn’t admit defeat, the outcome was clear, Both of you are from the same sect, there’s no need to go all out, right?” Arnold advised slowly.

“What if I don’t stop?” Thiago’s eyes narrowed slightly.

“If you don’t cease now, then us old-timers will have no choice but to engage with you. Moreover, this matter will also be brought to Mr.

Garrido’s attention. Even though you’re Mr. Garrido’s prided disciple, you’ve broken the rules of our sect.

Let’s see if Mr. Garrido will spare you for that!” Arnold threatened.

Thiago felt somewhat deflated at the warning. Things might escalate if I attack.

Just as Thiago was about to let Jared off the hook, Jared became frantic. “Who asked you to meddle?”

I’m still here, waiting to take him down. Quit being a busybody! Even if I were to die in the arena, I would still not admit defeat.”

Jared unleashed a barrage of sharp remarks at Arnold, causing the latter to be absolutely livid.
