

A WARRIOR UNDEFEATABLE/

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4101

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4101-It's just that because their bodies were destroyed or their strength was damaged, they couldn't return to the heavens, so they all stayed in the world of heaven and man, or were sealed in the secular world.

"Then, is the array demon that appeared now also a person from the heavens?"

"And the array demon is on par with Divinus, so is Divinus also a person from the heavens?"

This confirms what the Vermilion Demon Lord said: Divinus should be a person from the heavens.

"Mickey, is the master a person from the heavens? He is not a cultivator from the heavens at all," Jared asked Mickey.

Seeing that Jared had condensed the divine pattern and was considered a formal disciple, Mickey didn't intend to hide it and said directly, "Yes, the master is indeed a person from the heavens, and the array demon is also a person from the heavens. They are all trapped in the heavens because of the battle between gods and demons."

"Trapped in the heavens?" Jared was a little confused at the moment. He didn't understand what being trapped in the heavens meant.

Jared didn't know that many people from the heavens were trapped in the heavens, and the entire heaven was covered with a great array of heaven and earth.

"I can't tell you these things. If the master wants to tell you, he will tell you," Mickey shook his head and said.

"Mickey, can I leave now? I have been here for several days and there are still things to do."

Jared was still thinking about Carlo's affairs.

After dealing with Carlo's affairs, he had to find Catina and Feenix and help Feenix destroy the Ferguson family and take back Imperial Fox City.

"Leave?" Mickey was stunned, then smiled and said, "Jared, you think too much. I just said that after you condense your life divine pattern, you can leave the thatched cottage, but if you want to leave here, you need to learn all the divine patterns."

“You are not naive enough to think that the divine patterns are only those I gave you, right? Those are for you to condense the divine patterns and merge with them. There are many divine patterns on this mountain, all of which are engraved in different positions by the master. You need to learn all these magic patterns. Each divine pattern has its own mystery. The more you learn, the more beneficial it will be to you.”

“Damn...” Jared burst into a swear word when he heard it.

It seems that if he works so hard to carve the divine runes, he can only leave the thatched house?

He has to learn all the divine runes. How long will it take?

“Mickey, what if I don’t want to learn?” Jared asked.

“Then you can’t leave here,” Mickey said.

“I don’t believe that anyone can trap me and prevent me from leaving this place,” Jared said. After finishing, he jumped and flew away.

If they want to trap Jared, they must use formations or illusions. With Jared’s current strength, neither formations nor illusions can trap him.

Jared has the origin of illusion, and no illusion has any effect on him.

Mickey looked at Jared, smiled and shook his head, and did not chase him.

Jared used the Fire Control Step to jump in space.

Although this divine rune is very good and it would definitely be beneficial to learn more, Jared doesn’t have time. He can’t be trapped here and keep learning divine runes. And there is no such way to accept disciples. Isn’t this equivalent to forcing?

Jared still has a lot of things to do.

Whoosh!

Jared’s figure disappeared again and then appeared several miles away in an instant.

In this way, Jared flew for half an hour. According to his current speed, he should have reached Violet Flame Sect, which is thousands of miles away. But when he looked down, he found that there were still mountains, trees, and rivers, and no desert area.

“Did I fly in the wrong direction?” Jared frowned.

However, when Jared descended to the ground to see where he was, he suddenly found that Mickey was looking up at him with a playful smile on his face.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4102—“What’s going on? Why am I back again?” Jared’s face was full of disbelief. He had run for a long time and finally returned to the original place. Jared didn’t feel that he had changed direction, so how could he come back?

“Mickey, did you change places and wait for me here on purpose?”

Jared always felt that Mickey knew the direction he was going and deliberately came here to wait for him so that he would feel like he was back where he started.

“Do you think I’m faster than you? Even if I were faster than you, could I still carry that thatched hut over here?” Mickey pointed at the thatched hut and said.

Jared looked at the thatched hut and felt terrible. He really was back to where he started.

“Impossible, how could this be possible...” After Jared finished speaking, he paused and rushed out again like a bullet.

Jared deliberately changed direction, but after flying for a while, he saw Mickey again! He had no choice but to open his Nethersky Eye. He wanted to see if this was an illusion.

Have I fallen into an illusion?

But after looking for a long time, he found nothing unusual, and he couldn’t even see the formation, but Jared himself couldn’t get out. He always returned to the original position.

“I just don’t believe it...”

Jared suddenly summoned the Dragon Slaying Sword, flames rising from the blade, and then he slashed forward with all his might.

Boom!

The huge sword energy, accompanied by raging flames, shot forward continuously.

The mountaintops were flattened by the sword energy, and Jared followed behind it.

If there really is an illusion array or other formation, then this sword will directly break it open and help him break out!

This time Jared was full of confidence. As long as he followed the sword energy, he would not be able to return.

But after flying for a while, Jared felt a chill on his back, followed by a dangerous aura.

“Who dares to attack me...”

Jared was shocked, turned around hurriedly, and slapped out with his palm.

Boom!

With this palm, Jared directly struck the sword energy, causing a huge explosion.

Jared was stunned by the scene in front of him. It turned out that this sword energy was the same sword energy that he had just released with the Dragon Slaying Sword!

He didn't know what happened, but it actually landed right behind him and almost hurt him!

“This... what on earth is going on?”

Jared was speechless, and then asked, “Senior, do you... do you know what's going on?”

“Don't ask me, I don't know. I don't understand any formation techniques. Only a fool would learn something this complicated,” the Vermilion Demon Lord shook his head.

Jared had no choice but to fall back to the ground. Seeing Mickey's playful smile, Jared felt even more embarrassed.

So much time was just wasted!

“Mickey, this is equivalent to forcing me to practice divine runes?” Jared said helplessly.

“You can say that,” Mickey nodded.

“Then how long do I have to practice before I can leave? Do I have to practice all the divine runes?” Jared continued to ask.

“That I don't know. Anyway, I haven't fully practiced them yet, and I've never left here,” Mickey said.

“What?” Jared was immediately shocked. “Could it be that you have never left this place?”

“I have never left, but I am very content. When I meet a master like ours, I just need to practice with him. Why should I run around everywhere? We want to cultivate to become immortals, without the worries of worldly matters, so we can cultivate better!” Mickey persuaded Jared.

Jared was speechless for a while. Mickey was alone, and no one would look for him if he didn't leave. It was okay!

But Jared couldn't do that. He had so many people around him, and so many women. No one could leave him!

So Jared must leave here!

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4103—“Mickey, besides this method, is there no other way to leave this place?” Jared frowned slightly.

“Of course there is!” Mickey said.

“What is the method? Tell me quickly!” Jared asked happily when he heard that there was another way.

He didn't want to be trapped here. He didn't know how many years it would take to finish learning these divine patterns.

“You can go to the master. As long as he agrees to let you leave, you can certainly leave,” Mickey said.

When Jared heard this, he was like a deflated ball and said, “Except for seeing him when I came here, where is his shadow these days? Where is he now? Mickey, take me to see him...”

“I don't know where the master is either. I guess he is playing chess with the array demon,” Mickey shook his head.

“Playing chess?” Jared's face was full of confusion. “Didn't you say that the master and the array demon are opponents? Why are they still playing chess together?”

“Who said you can't play chess with your opponent? They are just opponents, not enemies. There is no hatred of killing their fathers and taking their wives. It's just that the two array geniuses are jealous of each other,” Mickey said.

Jared was speechless after hearing this, but he could only accept his fate and said nothing more, instead silently practicing the divine runes.

These divine runes were placed in various locations on the mountain, but Jared had already condensed his own divine runes, so he didn't need to be told where to find them.

Jared casually grabbed a jade slip that recorded the divine runes and then began to carve according to the divine runes on it.

But soon, Jared was surprised to find that there was thunder power in this divine rune.

That is, the formation carved by this divine rune would burst out with thunder power and attack people who enter the formation!

At this moment, Jared became excited.

The divine runes he carved at the beginning did not have any other power. They should be the most basic divine runes, which were also used to condense the divine rune of natal life and merge with the divine rune.

And the latter divine runes are similar to enhanced versions, containing other powers.

Jared changed locations again and unexpectedly found that there was wind power in the divine rune, and the power contained in each divine rune jade slip was different!

There are even some divine runes that contain the power of illusion, which should be the divine runes of the illusion array!

As for the fire divine runes and the water divine runes.

The variety of divine runes surprised Jared! He never thought that a formation divine rune would contain so many different powers!

If all the divine runes were learned, wouldn't it be possible to master many kinds of power?

Although these powers can only be used in the formation and cannot be called up separately, this is enough!

Moreover, Jared opened the origin space, and many heavy powers also realized the origin. With the addition of these powers in the divine runes, wouldn't the power be doubled?

Jared didn't dare to delay at all and began to quickly carve the divine runes.

If he knew this was the case, why did Jared run just now!

Seeing Jared concentrating on carving the divine runes, Mickey left with a faint smile.

Jared was completely devoted to carving the divine runes. It only took more than an hour for Jared to learn the thunder divine runes!

This was also related to Jared's mastery of the power of thunder, so when learning the divine runes, the speed was obviously much faster!

Then Jared began to selectively learn the fire divine runes, and he learned very quickly.

In the end, it took five hours for Jared to learn three divine runes!

And Jared has his own way of learning. If he sees that he already has the power in the divine runes, he will start to learn to carve. If not, he will carve the divine runes once, remember them in his mind, and then look for other divine runes. In this way, even if he leaves here, those divine runes that he has not learned are in his mind, and he can learn at any time.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4104-In a dark cave, there was only a tiny candlelight the size of a green bean flickering, illuminating a very small space.

Under this dim light, two old men were sitting cross-legged with a square chessboard placed between them.

One of the two old men was Divinus, while the old man opposite him was wearing a black robe, hiding himself in the darkness.

"Why don't you make a move? This game of chess has been going on for more than a hundred years. I've had enough of you," Divinus said with great dissatisfaction, looking at the old man opposite.

"You lock yourself up in this dark place all day, wearing a ragged black robe, trying to act like a big shot."

"Hahaha, Senior Brother, are you worried about the disciple you just tricked into joining, so you're in a hurry to go back and check on him?" the array demon laughed loudly.

"Stop it. I've told you so many times that you are not allowed to call me Senior Brother. We are no longer brothers. Master has expelled you."

"You chose the devil's way instead of the righteous way. We have different paths and cannot work together."

"Hurry up and make your move. I don't have time to stay with you in this dark and cold place," Divinus said impatiently.

"Hahaha, you said you wouldn't accompany me, but over the years, haven't you always come as promised? Although Master expelled me from the group, I have always recognized you as my senior. If you hadn't begged for mercy, Master would have killed me long ago."

"I will always remember this kindness!" the array demon laughed.

"Since you think I've done you a favor, then don't try to get my apprentice in the future. Although there are many talented people in this world, there are too few geniuses in formations. It's not easy for me to find an apprentice."

"Also, can you admit defeat and acknowledge that your formation skills are not as good as mine? After all, I am also your senior. It is not shameful for a junior to lose to a senior, right?" Divinus asked.

"That won't do. Let's put things in perspective. You've already said that there are too few geniuses in formations in the Heavenly Realm. Of course, I have to find a successor to my lifelong cultivation. It's not appropriate for me to run around in my current state, but it's okay for you. If the disciple you find can't resist my temptation and follows me, then it will be God's will.

"As for the art of formation, I am much better than you. Don't pretend in front of me. After so many years, your strength has declined to a great extent. Don't you have any idea in your mind? But if you honestly admit that your formation skills are not as good as mine, I can consider not trying to steal your apprentice anymore," the array demon said with a sneer.

"Bullsh!t, even if my strength is declining, my formation skills are not comparable to those of a demon like you. If you don't agree, let's have a fight. I'll beat you until you cry for your parents."

Divinus became angry. He stood up and pointed at the array demon.

"Let's compete. I'm not afraid of you," the array demon also stood up suddenly.

Then the two of them flew out of the cave and started fighting.

For a moment, it was chaotic with all kinds of divine patterns flying around, like the end of the world.

In the cave, the lonely chessboard remained.

This is the reason why this game of chess could be played for more than a hundred years.

Before even a single chess piece had been placed, the two men had already started competing.

The sky was dark, the sun and the moon were dim.

They didn't know how long it took, but both of them were tired and gasping for breath.

But they just stared at each other and couldn't determine the winner.

"It's over. I don't know when I can replenish the energy consumed in this fight. The immortal energy in the heavenly world is scarce. It will take a long time to recover," the array demon said breathlessly.

"It's all your fault. You're so slow in making your move. Otherwise, how could we have started a fight?"

Divinus also regretted it.

"When can this be replenished? If we were in heaven, where there is fairy air everywhere, then it wouldn't matter!"

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4105-But this is the heavenly world, full of rich spiritual energy, which is used by cultivators for cultivation. People like them in the heavenly world must use immortal energy!

The two of them were always like this, fighting when they disagreed, regretting after the fight, and then unable to replenish their energy, causing their strength to continue to decline!

"Senior, don't you still have blood jade? Give me a few!" the array demon said.

"Get out, that's my lifeblood, how can I give it to you!" Divinus cursed.

"If you don't want to give it, then don't give it. Why are you still scolding me?" The array demon gave Divinus a blank look, then said, "Senior, aren't you concerned about your newly captured apprentice? Why don't you go and see if he succeeded? By the way, I sent the Night Demons to tamper with the thatched cottage. Even if that kid is talented, I'm afraid he won't be able to refine the God Pattern."

"Humph, I knew you sent the Night Demons to make trouble a long time ago, but with my eldest apprentice there, your Night Demons' tricks are in vain."

After Divinus finished speaking, he gently waved his palm, and a picture instantly appeared in the air!

The picture showed the area where Jared practiced. In fact, this area was just a small space that Divinus worked hard to open up after being trapped in the Heavenly Realm!

Because his strength was damaged at the time, the space he opened up was not very large. In this space, it was relatively safe, so Divinus placed all kinds of God Patterns in it! The reason why Jared couldn't leave was that he didn't know at all that the space he was in was not the Heavenly Realm at all, but just a new space!

Maybe Jared didn't expect that there were still people in the Heavenly Realm who could open up a space world. He always thought that he was still in the Heavenly Realm, so he couldn't escape no matter how hard he tried! However, in this space world, not everyone was unable to enter. The array demon could easily enter that space world!

There were also Night Demons raised by the array demon. These beings had been raised by the array demon for many years, but they could only move at night and couldn't move during the day! This is why Jared could only see the red eyes at night!

"Hey, has your apprentice already practiced the natal divine pattern?" the array demon asked in surprise when he saw Jared had left the thatched hut.

"Hahaha, you are really gifted. I said a long time ago that your little tricks are useless," Divinus laughed, but soon closed his mouth and looked at Jared in surprise.

"This... what is this guy doing?"

Divinus saw that Jared kept looking for the divine pattern, and then immediately began to practice!

If he could master the divine runes quickly, he would focus more on them. If he could not master the divine runes quickly, he would engrave them in his sea of consciousness so that he could practice them in the future!

But even so, Jared had already practiced four divine runes of different powers!

At this speed, it was rare in a thousand years!

"Damn, what are you doing? This guy just condensed his own divine runes, but he was able to refine so many different divine runes at once? Isn't this too outrageous?" the array demon was also surprised.

Even when they were learning from their master in the heaven, they had never seen such a gifted person!

"I know, he is memorizing my divine runes. He plans to practice slowly after leaving."

"This guy is so strong that it's ridiculous. Maybe this great formation of heaven and earth can really be broken by this guy."

The face of Divinus showed excitement!

When the array demon heard this, he was immediately excited: "Great, such a talented person can't be delayed by you. I will also pass this magic rune to him."

After the array demon finished speaking, his figure flashed and suddenly disappeared!

Divinus was shocked and quickly shouted, "If you dare to snatch my disciple, I will fight you to the death..."

Saying this, Divinus quickly chased after him!
