A Man Like None Other Chapter 4206

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4206-“Hahaha, chicken soup is really harmful.

Hard work is nothing compared to talent.” “The reason why some people ask you to work hard is simply because they want you to be a beast of burden.” “Especially in the world of heaven and man, hard work is meaningless.

These people are destined to become stepping stones for others.” “If the strength of these people is transferred to you alone, you will break through soon and become famous in the world of heaven and man.” “It is also possible to break through the world of heaven and man and ascend to the fairyland.

This is a world where strength is respected.

Without strength and talent, all efforts are to help others.” “As long as you worship me as your master, I can teach you to refine the Devouring Pill.

You can make all the cultivation of these people your own.” “Everyone has his own unique characteristics.

As long as you absorb the advantages and strengths of these people, your strength will increase instantly.” The God of Medicine said with his hands behind his back and a cold face! It was as if the pharmacists on Yaoding Mountain were ready to die at any time to improve their own strength! “Devouring the strength of others?” David frowned: “Isn’t this a technique that only evil cultivators would use?” David also knew how to devour the cultivation of others, but as his strength increased, it became increasingly difficult to devour the other party.

For example, the Star Absorbing Technique would not work at all if it devoured cultivation in the Heavenly Realm! “Evil cultivation?” The God of Medicine smiled slightly: “The technique of devouring the cultivation of others is indeed defined as an evil cultivation technique, but what I teach you is to refine and devour pills, not a technique, so it can’t be considered an evil cultivation.” “And I’m not an evil cultivator either.

I’m just telling you that if you practice hard, you may not become an immortal, and your realm may not improve.

But if you seize the opportunity, you will be able to improve!” Pinshu.com <https://www.vodtw.la> “This is what is called a pig standing on the wind and will be easily blown to the sky, but the premise is that the pig must know how to seize the opportunity.” “you worship me as your master now, that is your opportunity.

It won't take long, I can guarantee that you will break through to the Mahayana realm!" The God of Medicine tried his best to tempt David to worship him as his master! David looked at the Medicine God in front of him calmly, and suddenly laughed: "Let me devour these people's cultivation to improve myself.

What's the difference between this and the big devil? I can't hurt others for myself." The Medicine God explained: "I didn't ask you to hurt others.

You only devoured part of the other party's cultivation with the Devouring Pill, not to take the other party's life.

This is different from the Devouring Technique of the Demon Cultivator." "The people devoured by you will still be or, but their cultivation may be reduced, or they will never be able to improve.

So it's considered harming people."

"Okay, don't say anymore, I won't take you as my master." David interrupted the Medicine God directly! "Aren't you tempted at all? Didn't you come for my inheritance after the test?" seeing that David rejected him directly, the Me come God asked in confusion! "I did come for your inheritance, but I can't take you as my master, and I won't devour other people's cultivation." David said with a firm look in his eyes! The Medicine God showed a trace of anger on his face, and asked in confusion: "Am I, a fairy from heaven, not worthy of being your master?" "Do you think that I have fallen, with only this remnant soul left, and even if I become your master, I can't help you much?" "I tell you, I am not fallen, I just used the magic pill to return to heaven."

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4207

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4207-"If you take me as your master, you can come directly to my mansion when you ascend to heaven." "Senior, even if you didn't die, I don't want to take you as my master!" David still refused! "Why?" Medicine God was angry, his eyes wide open, "No one has ever dared to go against my will.

If you don't take me as your master, you won't be able to leave Yaoding Mountain today, and I won't let you take others as your master." David looked at Medicine God and sighed.

This guy is really paranoid!Are all people in heaven like this? Rough temper, paranoid...

Isn't there a gentle and elegant immortal? "Senior, I don't want your inheritance, and I don't take you as my master.

This is my respect for you." "If you don't need respect, then I can only tell you that you are not worthy of being my master.

Your strength is not in my eyes at all!" David was no longer polite! The Medicine God was stunned, and then he said angrily: "How dare you, a small cultivator in the Tribulation Realm, dare to be so presumptuous? With my strength, it is simply..." Before the Medicine God finished speaking, David's body flashed with golden light, and then a shadow slowly appeared from behind David! "Just what? Tell me, just what?" The residual soul of the Red Cloud Demon Lord appeared, looked at the Medicine God and asked! The Medicine God looked at the Red Cloud Demon Lord in front of him and was stunned for a moment.

After a long time, he widened his eyes, opened his mouth, and stammered: "Red...

Red Cloud Demon Lord?" "Hey, you little medicine fairy, I didn't expect you to know me.

Since you know me, it's easy.

Tell me yourself, are you qualified to accept my brother as a disciple?" The Red Cloud Demon Lord didn't expect that the Medicine God actually knew him! Pinshu.com <https://www.vodtw.la> "No... I'm not qualified.

I'm just a small scattered immortal.

How can I be qualified to accept the Demon Lord's brother as a disciple." "I overestimated my own abilities.

I hope the Demon Lord won't be angry!" The cold sweat on the Medicine God's forehead flowed out!

What a joke; there is actually a remnant soul of the Ninth Heaven Demon Lord in David's body, no wonder David looks down on him! seeing that the Medicine God was honest, the Red Cloud Demon Lord returned to David's sea of consciousness.

His remnant soul had no way to escape from David's sea of consciousness and stayed outside for a long time! seeing the Red Cloud Demon Lord return to David's body, the Medicine God swallowed his saliva.

He had a lot of questions in his heart, but he didn't dare to ask!

seeing this, David said, "Senior Red Cloud Demon Lord also fought with others in the Heaven Realm, causing his physical body to perish, leaving only a wisp of remnant soul, so I have been carrying it with me.

When I help him find all the bones, I can let him recover." "In fact, although I don't have the strength to ascend to immortality, I do know some friends in the heaven, like the Wuji Holy Sect.

I have a good relationship with the sect master.

He also gave me a Wuji Order.

As long as I ascend to the heaven, I can take the Wuji Order to find him.” David took out the Wuji Order and showed it to the Medicine God! “I was reckless just now.

I will give you the inheritance now!” Medicine God licked his lips, his face full of embarrassment.

He would never have thought that a little cultivator in the Tribulation Realm of the Heavenly Realm would know so many big men in the Heavenly Realm! If he knew, he would never threaten David even if he was beaten to death! “No need since I don’t want to be your disciple, I can’t take your inheritance!” David waved his hand! David does things with principles! “In this case, I will give you a copy of the Medical God Canon as a reward for passing the test!” Medicine God waved his hand, and a golden book appeared, then turned into a ray of golden light, and directly entered David’s sea of consciousness! Then the residual soul of Medicine God slowly disappeared, and finally there was no trace!

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4208

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4208-The Advance Strike

Jared only felt a sudden sway of his body, followed by a surge of light enveloping him. With his vision going blur, he vanished entirely. When Jared opened his eyes, he realized he was already at the foot of cauldron Peak.

Cauldron Peak was constantly spewing smoke, with rocks flying chaotically. It was clear that a collapse was imminent.

“D*mn, Viola and the others are still on the mountain...”

Jared was instantly shocked by the turn of events.

If Cauldron Peak were to collapse, it would be dangerous for Viola and the others.

Just as Jared was gearing up to rescue them, he saw someone hurrying toward him!

Once the figure drew closer, Jared realized it was Maxence.

Upon seeing Jared, Maxence gasped heavily and said, “Mr. Chance, where is everyone else? Hurry and get everyone off Medicine God Island. Sky Slasher Sect has launched their attack ahead of time. My father has already gone to hold them off with his men, but I’m afraid they won’t last long. He instructed me to quickly notify everyone to leave the island as soon as possible.”

“What? Sky Slasher Sect has already begun their attack?”

Jared was momentarily taken aback. Originally, it was supposed to be three days later, but only two days had passed then.

“Right, their attack was so sudden that we don’t have much time to leave the island. What’s the deal with Cauldron Peak? Why is it suddenly collapsing?”

Maxence couldn’t understand why Cauldron Peak, having stood for thousands of years, was suddenly collapsing.

“It’s a long story. You need to alert the others right away. I bet they’re probably fleeing from Cauldron Peak as we speak. I’ll go lend Mr. Laurent a hand to fend off Sky Slasher Sect!”

Jared had to help Sylvain stop Sky Slasher Sect. Otherwise, if they made it to Medicine God Island and conspired with Thaddeus, all the alchemists would be in big trouble.

After Jared finished speaking, his body was instantly enveloped in swirling runes. The wind roared around him, and in a flash, his body transformed into a flame and vanished.

Jared utilized Blazing Stride, swiftly heading toward the direction where Sylvain was located.

Maxence stared blankly at Jared, his face full of astonishment.

“That’s incredibly fast...” Maxence exclaimed in shock.

At that moment, everyone on the mountain was running for their lives.

The rocks continued to crumble and fly chaotically in all directions. Fortunately, everyone was able to use their spiritual energy to form shields, preventing themselves from getting hit by the flying debris. Having reached the foot of the mountain, Viola and Wyatt finally let out a long sigh of relief.

Subsequently, Waylon, along with the Zeever family, reached the foot of the mountain.

Following closely were Thaddeus and Ernesto, leading a group of people.

Gazing upon the collapsed Cauldron Peak before them, everyone wore a look of utter bewilderment, unable to comprehend how things had suddenly turned out that way. “Jared should still be up on the mountain. I need to go find him...”

Looking at the collapsed Cauldron Peak, Viola wanted to rush back, searching for Jared amidst the ruins.

Sigurd pulled Viola aside and said, “Ms. Viola, given Mr. Chance’s capabilities, he is surely safe. Who knows, maybe the collapse of Cauldron Peak was his doing!”

Not long after Jared disappeared, the mountain collapsed. He figured Jared could very well be the reason.

“With Mr. Chance’s abilities, he’ll be fine. Don’t worry!” Wyatt added.

Only then did Viola calm down, although her face still carried a shade of worry.

Dylan and the others approached, asking Wyatt, “President Chance, why did Cauldron Peak collapse so suddenly?”

After all, Wyatt and his companions were nearly at the summit, and they had the clearest understanding of the unusual occurrences there at that time.

“I’m not entirely sure myself, but a sky stairway leading to the mountain’s peak appeared. However, the stairway had an oppressive force that prevented me from ascending. Mr. Chance had gone up, and then he vanished without a trace. After a while, the earth began to shake, and Cauldron Peak subsequently collapsed!” Wyatt explained candidly.

“Could it be that Jared has obtained the legacy of Medicine God, and that’s why Cauldron Peak collapsed?” Hartwin said as he stepped forward.

The reason Cauldron Peak existed was to hold Medicine God’s legacy. Once it was taken by someone, the mountain would no longer exist. Thus, it made sense for it to collapse.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4209

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4209-The Provocation

“That’s possible...”

Dylan nodded in agreement. Now that the legacy had been obtained by someone, it was indeed possible that Cauldron Peak would collapse.

Wyatt glanced at Thaddeus and the others who had already descended the mountain, then whispered, “Everyone, there’s something I need to discuss with you. Please follow me to a more secluded spot.”

Wyatt intended to expose Thaddeus’ plan of allying with Sky Slasher Sect against all the alchemists.

Regardless of whether Dylan and the others believed him or not, he was going to spill the beans.

In response, the curious Dylan followed Wyatt toward a secluded area with the others.

At that moment, Thaddeus was staring at the collapsed Cauldron Peak, his brows furrowed in frustration. "D*mn it," he muttered, "I didn't manage to obtain the Medicine God's legacy or find any treasures, and now it's collapsed. Such rotten luck."

"President Surrey, I don't see anyone from the Dupont family. Could it be possible that none of them managed to escape?" Ernesto said.

Only then did Thaddeus realize that not a single person from the Dupont family, including Vincent, had shown up.

His expression turned grim, his demeanor frosty as he said, "If there's not a single person from the Dupont family to be found, it's not that they didn't manage to escape. Rather, they might have all been murdered before Cauldron Peak collapsed."

"Murdered? Who could have possibly wiped out the entire Dupont family?"

Ernesto was slightly taken aback.

"Was someone scheming against us while we were plotting to kill them?"

After Thaddeus finished speaking, he turned his gaze toward Wyatt and the others.

He was still unaware that Wyatt had already discovered their plan.

Maxence hurriedly approached the group of alchemists and exclaimed loudly, "Everyone, Cauldron Peak has already collapsed. I urge you all to leave Medicine God Island as quickly as possible. I have prepared the spirit ship for you. The Sky Slasher Sect has suddenly launched an attack on the island, and my father has already gone to fend them off. I urge you all to leave as soon as possible, or it may be too late."

"What? Sky Slasher Sect has attacked the island?"

Many were left confused, for they had absolutely no idea what was going on.

A faint smile played on Thaddeus' lips. "I didn't expect the Sky Slasher Sect to keep their word. They really did launch their attack ahead of time."

"President Surrey, should we also take action?" asked Ernesto.

"Let's just wait and see for now. We'll observe their reaction first. Now that Cauldron Peak has collapsed, Medicine God Island has lost its significance. What if we take action now and Sky Slasher Sect suddenly withdraws? By then, wouldn't we become public enemy number one? We would become outcasts in Ethereal Realm," Thaddeus elaborated.

Now that Cauldron Peak had collapsed, Medicine God Island had lost its value. If Sky Slasher Sect were to learn of it, they surely wouldn't have gone to such great lengths, especially for a worthless island.

If Sky Slasher Sect were to withdraw, Thaddeus and his men couldn't possibly take on all the alchemists of Ethereal Realm.

"President Surrey, your analysis is correct. For now, we'll just wait and see how things unfold."

Ernesto gave a nod.

"Observing the situation is only the first step. Next, we need to encourage these individuals to resist Sky Slasher Sect. Only then can Sky Slasher Sect attack them. But now, Medicine God Island is no longer suitable as a battlefield. As long as we incite these people to resist Sky Slasher Sect. It will just be a matter of time before we profit from their conflict," Thaddeus said with an air of smug satisfaction.

"Exactly, let Sky Slasher Sect clash with these people. We'll clean up the mess later. Your strategy is truly brilliant," Ernesto replied in a flattering manner.

At that moment, Wyatt had already informed both the Zorn and Zeever families about Thaddeus' conspiracy. When they learned that Thaddeus was colluding with Sky Slasher Sect, many were filled with righteous indignation. However, no one chose to address it at that time, pretending to be oblivious instead.

"Mr. Maxence, we came to Medicinal God Island to hold the Alchemist Fair. Now that Sky Slasher Sect has attacked us, how could we possibly flee? When it comes to Demonic Cultivators like those in Sky Slasher Sect, everyone must take it upon themselves to punish them. We, too, have an undeniable responsibility. We simply cannot allow the inhabitants of Medicine God Island to bear this burden alone. We should all band together and resist Sky Slasher Sect..." Thaddeus stepped forward, speaking in an inspiring tone.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4210

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4210-Just Hold On A Little Longer "Yes, we can't just turn a blind eye while running for our lives!" Ernesto shouted passionately.

Many alchemists, who had been kept in the dark, also began to respond enthusiastically.

Only Wyatt, Dylan, and a few others remained silent, watching Thaddeus closely.

Seeing that Thaddeus wanted to rally people to stand alongside Medicine God Island in their defense, Maxence was deeply moved.

“President Surrey, thank you for thinking of us here at Medicine God Island. However, my father has made it clear that it’s crucial for you all to leave safely. The Sky Slasher Sect’s magecraft is too powerful for us to handle,” Maxence said.

“Mr. Maxence, even if it means death, we will not allow Medicine God Island to bear this burden alone,” Thaddeus declared with righteous resolve.

“Waylon, Dylan, why aren’t you saying anything? Are you planning to run away? Aren’t you supposed to be from reputable medical families? I think that’s a load of nonsense…” Ernesto mocked when he saw that the Zorn and Zeever families were not speaking up.

“Hey!” Dylan and Waylon were immediately enraged and were about to speak when Wyatt stopped them.

Wyatt had figured it out—Thaddeus and the others were clearly trying to drag everyone into a fight with the Sky Slasher Sect!

“Everyone, we appreciate your good intentions, and Medicine God Island acknowledges them. However, none of you need to go. It’s better that you leave quickly. Mr. Chance has already gone to help, so I must go stop him as soon as possible, which means I can’t take you with me,” Maxence said, turning to leave.

“Mr. Maxence, did you say that Jared went to confront the Sky Slasher Sect?” Viola quickly asked.

“Yes, when I arrived, I ran into Mr. Chance. After he heard what was happening, he rushed off to help my father. So I must stop him before he risks his life!” Maxence said before leaping up.

Viola glanced at Sylvain, and the two immediately chased after Maxence.

Now that they knew Jared was involved, there was no way they could escape alone.

Seeing this, Wyatt turned to Waylon and Dylan, saying, “Since Jared has gone, we can’t stand by and do nothing. Let’s go.”

They had been saved by Jared before, so now that Jared was in danger, they couldn’t just ignore it.

Soon, everyone hurried to the port of Medicine God Island, boarded the spirit ships, heading straight toward the battle.

At this moment, Jared was using his Blazing Stride to quickly approach the battlefield on the sea.

Boom!

With a thunderous explosion, Jared found himself surrounded by thick smoke.

Hundreds of people, clad in black robes with their faces covered, were casting magecraft continuously, while Sylvain and the disciples of Medicine God Island were desperately resisting. Several spirit ships beneath Sylvain and his men had already been destroyed, billowing thick smoke into the air.

Countless magecraft rained down from the sky, relentlessly attacking the people of Medicine God Island.

Sylvain was using golden beetles to counter the surrounding magecraft. These golden beetles had incredible biting power, and thousands of them were tearing through the spells with sheer force! However, large swaths of golden beetles were also falling one after another, and the sea surface was littered with their bodies.

Without these golden beetles, Sylvain and his people would have been defeated long ago.

Even so, Medicine God Island's disciples were still being killed by the onslaught of magecraft!

"Mr. Laurent, we can't hold on much longer. If we don't leave now, we're all going to die here," an elder shouted to Sylvain.

"We can't leave! Hold on a little longer. I'm not sure if the alchemists on the island have evacuated yet." Sylvain gritted his teeth. Even if it meant death, he needed to buy more time.

If all the alchemists were trapped on Medicine God Island, the Alchemist Guild might disappear from Ethereal Realm.

"Sylvain, what's the point of your desperate struggle? All you're doing is delaying the inevitable. The result will be the same," a masked man taunted Sylvain.
