

A Warrior Undefeatable / A Man Like None Other

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4381 – Seeing this unfold, Skylar was enveloped in a ripple of black energy. With a low grunt, his form dissipated like a phantom, and he caught up to Jared in the blink of an eye.

A massive hand of swirling black energy shot down toward Jared, but he appeared to anticipate the move.

Just as Skylar's palm descended, Jared vanished into thin air.

Abel, however, was not as fortunate. He failed to dodge in time and was struck by Skylar's hand. With a muffled grunt, he spat out blood, crashing to the ground.

"D*mn it..." Skylar cursed under his breath.

As Abel hit the ground, it seemed to invigorate the Demon Annihilation Formation. Countless dazzling spiritual lights surged upward like stars, illuminating the area with a brilliance a thousand times greater than the light emitted by the consumed celestial gem.

Before everyone's eyes, Abel seemed to shrink rapidly, visibly aging as his aura vanished in an instant.

No one could have anticipated that the Demon Annihilation Formation could absorb the aura of Demon Cultivators, converting it into a resource.

Even Jared had not seen this coming.

The Demonic Cultivators were stunned. They had initially believed that once the grand formation was in place, their only challenge would be to break it. However, the current situation made them fear that getting anywhere near the formation would turn them into fuel for the Demon Annihilation Formation instead.

The scene that unfolded sent a shockwave through everyone present, Jared included.

Intermittent sounds of shattering echoed around them as the ferocious aura of the void radiated outward.

Almost immediately, a series of closely packed void fractures astonishingly appeared, spreading in all directions.

The pitch-black fractures resembled the gaping maw of a demon beast, its endless suction consuming everything in its path.

As Jared beheld the sudden emergence of these void cracks, he broke into a cold sweat.

This situation had spiraled out of control.

If anyone were to be pulled into the void fractures, there was a real chance they would never return.

The Demonic Cultivators, including Skylar, stared at the expanding void fractures, their faces paling with fear as chaos erupted around them.

It wasn't death itself that frightened them; it was the terrifying uncertainty of what lay beyond that sent shivers down their spines.

No one knew what lay behind those numerous void fractures.

As each demonic cultivator was pulled into the void fractures, their screams echoed through the air, some torn apart by the rifts and instantly reduced to mere puddles of flesh and blood.

Despite being Tribulators, some even at the Ultimate Realm, they felt utterly insignificant before the gaping void fractures.

A massive surge of seawater rushed back in, quickly submerging the previously exposed mountain peaks and swiftly concealing the arcane array beneath the encroaching waves..

"Jared, what the hell are you doing? Do you really think you can survive being sucked into the void fractures?" Skylar cursed at him, his rage boiling over.

He believed Jared was so determined to destroy him that he was willing to go down with him. What a psycho!

Jared glanced at the furious Skylar, equally speechless. He hadn't expected things to escalate like this.

"Stop cursing! Didn't you see I'm also trying to avoid the void fractures? How was I supposed to know it would turn out like this?" he shouted as he dodged the suction of the rifts.

Skylar was taken aback, surprised that Jared was actually placing blame on him.

While struggling against the pull of the vortex, he sidestepped and shot a glare at Jared. “You’re telling me you don’t know anything about the formation you set up? Once I get out of this mess, just wait and see how I’ll deal with you...”

“We’ll see who outsmarts whom. Just wait and see!” Jared shot back, both of them resorting to verbal sparring while evading the dangers around them.

Neither dared to make a move, their attention entirely focused on avoiding the menacing void fractures.

Fortunately, both Jared and Skylar managed to evade the rifts, narrowly escaping being sucked into the unknown.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4382 – However, those demonic cultivators weren’t so lucky. One by one, they screamed in horror as they were sucked into the void fractures. It was unclear whether they were immediately killed or transported to another realm. Either way, there was no chance of them returning!

Jared and Skylar desperately dodged the void fractures, and gradually, the void fractures began to diminish.

In the end, all of the void fractures completely vanished, bringing the entire Demon Annihilation Formation to a halt. All resources were utterly depleted.

At that moment, Skylar’s teeth were grinding loudly, his gaze fixed intently on Jared. Then, he strode purposefully toward Jared, his steps swift.

As he charged toward Jared, Skylar unleashed a cloud of black energy that seemed to blot out the sky.

Upon seeing that, Jared released bursts of internal flames, which then collided with Skylar’s black energy.

Jared didn’t dodge; he was planning to go head- to-head with Skylar!

Without the threat of other demonic cultivators, Jared was not at all afraid of Skylar.

Moreover, he had many more tricks up his sleeve that he hadn’t used yet.

The Divine Bow, the Demon Flogger, and even his own True Fire Spiritual Body – these were all Jared’s trump cards.

The Demon Flogger, in particular, was specifically designed to counter demonic cultivators like Skylar.

If Jared could bring out his fire unicorn and the Celestial Devourer, those two would be enough to give Skylar a run for his money as well!

Besides, Jared still had the unused Ten Thousand Sword Sect's secret scroll, which could be considered another weapon.

Jared's final lifeline was none other than Vermilion Demon Lord. If it came down to a matter of life and death, Jared wouldn't have the luxury to consider much. He could let Vermilion Demon Lord take control of his body!

By that time, Skylar would be nothing, just a piece of trash!

With so many strategies at his disposal, Jared was immensely confident!

As Jared unleashed a series of fiery attacks, he also charged toward Skylar.

Seeing that, Skylar gave a cold laugh. "So you want to engage in close combat with me? Let's see just how formidable your physical body really is!"

Skylar knew Jared had undergone physical enhancement, making him incredibly formidable. However, he wasn't afraid. After all, the gap between their cultivation levels was substantial. He wanted to go head-to-head with Jared and see what happened!

Boom!

In an instant, Skylar and Jared collided.

Even that fleeting collision managed to set off an earth-shattering crash.

Jared's fist was shimmering with a golden light. Without any hesitation, he turned and threw another punch toward Skylar.

"Sacred Light Fist!"

A dazzling golden light filled the sky, bursting forth!

Skylar didn't back down either. "Flame Fist!"

Skylar also threw a punch, causing a brilliant blaze to light up the sky and rise into the air.

Boom, boom, boom...

The heavens and earth seemed to change colors in an instant as endless golden and fiery hues melded together, painting the entire sky a brilliant red.

Skylar's expression subtly shifted. He could sense that Jared's punch was indeed powerful, causing a slight sting in his arm.

F*ck, this kid's punches are pretty tough...

Skylar threw his fists fervently, a flicker of fear stirring within him.

He truly hadn't anticipated that, despite such a vast difference in their cultivation levels, Jared's close-quarters combat skills would be so formidable, especially his Sacred Light Fist. Each punch was somewhat overwhelming!

In the blink of an eye, the two of them had exchanged hundreds of blows, with Skylar growing more and more alarmed as the fight progressed.

Meanwhile, Jared was growing more and more exhilarated with each passing moment, his fighting spirit soaring high.

Skylar began to falter, feeling his arms starting to tremble.

He couldn't understand how Jared could still be so strong despite relying solely on his physical strength.

Unbeknownst to Skylar, Jared's Sacred Light Fist was actually an immortal technique. The more the user relied on their innate strength, the more powerful the Sacred Light Fist became.

Bang!

Once again, their fists collided. Immediately, a crisp sound echoed from Skylar's fist. The bones in his entire hand shattered, causing a large amount of blood to spurt out violently.

Yet, Jared remained completely unscathed, showing no signs of injury at all.

"Your physical body is just too outrageous..."

With a sense of helplessness, Skylar retreated, staring at his own clenched fist with a face full of resentment.

Had I known it would turn out this way, I wouldn't have engaged Jared in a close-quarters fight!

After injuring my hand like this, my combat strength is sure to decrease!

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4383 – "Skylar, whether it's close combat or a long-range battle, in my eyes, you're nothing but a small fry."

Jared looked at the injured Skylar, a slight smile playing at the corner of his mouth.

“Really? Well, let’s give it a try then...”

With that, Skylar distanced himself from Jared.

With that cauldron in his possession, he could replenish his aura at will. He refused to believe that he couldn’t outlast Jared!

Skylar clenched his hand in a grabbing motion, and in an instant, the pervasive black energy solidified into a long spear. Then, without hesitation, he launched it straight at Jared.

As the spear sped toward Jared, it suddenly exploded in mid-air.

Subsequently, countless compact and robust arrows, akin to a meteor shower, headed toward Jared.

It turned out that the spear was just a ruse to deceive Jared from the start, leading him to believe that there was only one spear and no need to dodge at all.

Jared gazed at the sudden flurry of arrows raining down from the sky, swiftly grabbing the Ten Thousand Sword Sect’s secret scroll.

As Jared sent a stream of spiritual sense into the secret scroll, countless sword techniques flickered through his mind in a flash.

“Assembly of the Swords!”

Following a gleam of lightning in Jared’s eyes, overwhelming sword energy exploded from his Dragonslayer Sword.

Jared held up the sword, and from all around, an unending surge of spiritual energy rushed toward him, continuously converging on the blade.

The Dragonslayer Sword quivered slightly, countless sword lights bursting forth from it!

Their radiant arcs sliced through the air swiftly, traversing infinite space. Then, they collided with Skylar’s arrows.

“Assembly of the Swords? Isn’t that the Ten Thousand Sword Sect’s ultimate skill? How do you know their sword technique?”

Skylar stared at the scene before him, his face filled with disbelief.

He was puzzled as to how Jared could possibly know the Ten Thousand Sword Sect’s ultimate skill. After all, the latter certainly wasn’t a disciple of that sect!

Nevertheless, there was no denying that Jared indeed knew that ultimate skill. Although the power he demonstrated was still somewhat lacking, his move still caught Skylar completely off guard!

After eliminating the countless arrows from Skylar, the remaining sword lights headed straight for him.

Skylar was taken aback, sensing that the power of this sword aura was incredibly eerie and overwhelmingly strong!

He dared not confront it head-on, so his only choice was to react instinctively. Black energy converged, forming a protective shield before him. At the same time, Skylar beat a hasty retreat.

Ding, ding, ding...

As the sword lights struck the shield, they produced a sound akin to a metallic collision!

In no time at all, the shield was shattered, and the streaks of sword light swept toward Skylar.

Although Skylar tried his best to dodge, he was still a bit too slow.

Several gashes had been carved into his body, causing a relentless flow of fresh blood.

Skylar's aura instantly waned. He quickly used his black energy to envelop his wounds, halting the flow of blood in the blink of an eye.

"Jared, you're pretty impressive, but don't think I'll let you off easily!"

All of a sudden, Skylar spat out a mouthful of fresh blood. As the blood fell into the black energy, it immediately stirred up a tumultuous energy. Astonishingly, a red aura began to spread within the black energy. The two energies then intertwined and transformed into a longsword!

The hilt of the sword was as dark as ink while the blade boasted a bloody red hue, emitting waves of intense heat!

The cauldron on Skylar's body began to emit streaks of flame aura, all of which were absorbed by the longsword.

"You want to cross swords with me?"

Jared's lips curved upward in a smirk. The Dragonslayer Sword he held was a divine weapon, far superior to Skylar's longsword, which was merely a transmogrification of demonic aura.

"Blazing Slash!"

With a roar, Skylar fiercely swung his longsword toward Jared.

In an instant, a surge of flame erupted from the longsword, the energy within brimming with endless flame aura, aimed directly at Jared.

Upon seeing the situation, Jared also raised his Dragonslayer Sword high.

“Heaven Splitter!”

This was yet another move from the Ten Thousand Sword Sect. With this strike, pitch-black fractures shockingly appeared in the surrounding void!

The sudden appearance of the numerous void fractures left Jared and Skylar in a state of utter disarray.

This time, Jared’s sword had astonishingly carved out another void fracture.

The void fracture didn’t immediately close. Instead, a vast amount of energy flowed out from it. No one knew where this energy truly originated from.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4384 – This energy, akin to a flowing river, was converging toward the Dragonslayer Sword!

Staring at the sword, Skylar was completely stupefied. His pupils contracted as his heart filled with unparalleled terror.

While the Assembly of the Swords Jared just executed was indeed powerful, it was clear that he wasn’t able to reach its maximum strength.

However, this single sword strike, Heaven Splitter, instilled in Skylar a terrifying sense of mortal peril!

By then, Skylar was somewhat dumbfounded and loudly questioned Jared, “Jared, just how many of the Ten Thousand Sword Sect’s sword techniques do you actually know? Could it be that you’re a direct disciple? These are all their ultimate skills, so there’s no way they would let an outsider like you learn them. When exactly did you learn this in secret?”

“Would you believe me if I told you that I only just learned these sword techniques?” Jared replied with a cold laugh.

Skylar paused for a moment, then seemed to understand. He asked, “Could it be that you already have the Ten Thousand Sword Sect’s secret scroll? That’s the reason you saved Judith, isn’t it?”

At this point, Skylar had figured it out. He was certain that Jared had in his possession the Ten Thousand Sword Sect’s secret scroll.

As long as one possessed extraordinary talent, all those sword techniques would manifest in their consciousness field with just a sweep of their spiritual sense across the secret scroll.

Even just by mimicking, one could pick up a few techniques, so it wasn't entirely impossible for someone like Jared to instantly master an ultimate skill like Assembly of the Swords.

However, he hadn't managed to unleash its full potential yet.

Skylar was confident that if he got his hands on the secret scroll of the Ten Thousand Sword Sect, he could master the sword techniques within it in an instant too!

"Bullsh*t! I'm not as despicable as you think. Judith personally gave me the secret scroll. Enough, I'm done wasting my time arguing with you!"

After Jared finished speaking, he smoothly swung the Dragonslayer Sword down.

Upon seeing the situation, Skylar didn't dare to hesitate and immediately brought out the cauldron. In an instant, the cauldron burst open, and an endless surge of flame aura danced across the sky!

Jared watched as the perfectly fine cauldron was unexpectedly blown open by Skylar. He was instantly filled with heartache – he had even wanted to snatch it for himself!

"Master, save me!" Skylar was shouting loudly amidst the burst of flames.

Just as Skylar finished speaking, a figure vaguely appeared in the flame aura.

The figure was so indistinct that Jared couldn't even distinguish their gender.

The moment the figure appeared, Jared felt an unprecedented pressure!

Then, a massive hand was swung toward Jared!

Upon witnessing the situation, Jared's brows furrowed deeply. Despite his concern, he still directed his sword toward the gigantic palm.

Boom!

As Jared's sword came slashing down, Skylar was genuinely afraid. Yet, the immense palm easily deflected Jared's sword strike.

All that was heard was a thunderous crash as the sword energy that Jared had unleashed was shattered into pieces.

With this one blow, Jared realized the power gap between himself and that figure.

It was clear that the other party had projected themselves there, so it was impossible for them to unleash their full power.

Even so, Jared didn't stand a chance!

Seeing Jared's deflated expression and realizing that fact, Skylar was filled with immense joy. He shouted, "Master, kill him! Kill him now..."

Jared held the Dragonslayer Sword, hastily retreating while his complexion turned alarmingly pale.

"Mr. Vermilion, I'm afraid I really need your help this time, or else I'm done for..."

Jared had no other choice but to plead for Vermilion Demon Lord to intervene.

Otherwise, with his limited abilities, he would be easily crushed by Skylar's master.

"Hahaha, you've finally seen the light! Don't worry, even though this old man is merely an illusory shadow, I'll make sure his real self will be dealt a severe blow too."

Chuckling heartily, Vermilion Demon Lord instantly took over Jared's body.

"Master, don't hesitate any longer, kill him..."

Skylar was still urging his master on.

But then, the illusory shadow's voice trembled as it said, "Shut up! That young man carries the aura of a supreme being. We need to run!"

With a sweeping gesture, the phantom hand enveloped Skylar, instantly vanishing amidst the flame aura.

"Damn it, why the hell did he run away? I haven't even warmed up yet!" Vermilion Demon Lord cursed angrily.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4385 – Jared watched as Skylar made his escape, and he finally let out a long sigh of relief.

If they had continued to fight, it was certain that they would both end up injured!

"All right, that's enough. It's good that he ran off. If we had continued to fight, there's no way my body could have endured it!"

Jared shot a glare at Vermilion Demon Lord.

All this guy knows to do is fight, without giving a second thought to whether I can handle it or not!

“Listen, you need to step up your physical strength soon. Otherwise, hurry up and find all of my bones so I can regain my physical body! I’m practically dying of boredom in the depths of your consciousness field! Having some company wouldn’t be so bad...” Vermilion Demon Lord grumbled.

Jared was left speechless for a moment. With Vermilion Demon Lord in his consciousness field, who would dare to venture there?

After regaining control of his body, Jared began his journey to Castenada Town.

Castenada Town was merely a small town with a population of ten thousand, and the town’s strength was not particularly strong.

The town mayor of Castenada Town, Owen Castenada, was only a Ninth Level Tribulator.

Nonetheless, he was already considered an expert in the eastern region.

The collective strength of the cultivators from the eastern region was somewhat lesser compared to the other four regions.

This was also due to the vastness of the eastern region and its sparse population.

In addition, the eastern region was flanked by the Night Sea and the Dead Sea, creating a barrier. This made it difficult for the cultivators of the eastern region to interact with those from the other regions. Apart from using Teleportation Arrays, their only option was to travel by spirit ships and airships.

These modes of transportation required substantial amounts of spirit coins or resources, resulting in the eastern region’s cultivators being relatively weak in strength. Moreover, the majority had never ventured to other places before.

At that moment, in the largest courtyard house at Castenada Town’s center, Owen was overjoyed to the point of tears as he looked at Judith in front of him.

He had believed his own daughter to be dead, yet unexpectedly, here she was before him!

“My dear daughter, after searching for you all these years, I’ve finally found you. You’ve finally come home. Do you have any idea how much I’ve been worried about you since the downfall of the Ten Thousand Sword Sect? Remember, no matter what difficulties you face in the future, always come back home. Regardless of the situation, I will always be your strong support!”

Owen wept bitterly, his eyes filled with profound heartache.

Over the years, his daughter had surely faced many hardships and endured much suffering while being away from home!

“Dad, I... I didn’t dare to come home because I didn’t want to bring trouble to Castenada Town. I realize my mistake now, and I vow never to let you down again...”

Judith also began to cry.

Upon seeing the situation, Scarlett’s eyes also welled up with tears.

The family had finally reunited...

“Mr. Castenada, Harvey from Quinlan Town has arrived. He has received the news of Ms. Scarlett’s return.”

At that moment, Lazlo approached and spoke.

Upon hearing that Harvey had arrived, Scarlett’s brows furrowed tightly, a clear look of distaste appearing on her face.

Owen was also deeply troubled, his brows furrowed in worry. If he hadn’t been driven into a corner, he would never have put his own daughter in such a difficult situation!

“Father, Harvey is completely unworthy of Lettie. Not only is he unspeakably ugly, but he’s also a brute. Even during my time at the Ten Thousand Sword Sect, I had heard rumors about him. He’s known for assaulting women and humiliating children. He’s worse than an animal! Even if it’s for some gain, we shouldn’t let Lettie make such a sacrifice...” Judith said to Owen.

Upon hearing this, Owen couldn’t help but sigh, “Ah, but what can I do? Back when the Ten Thousand Sword Sect was in its prime, you were able to support our Castenada family by being a part of that sect. But now that the sect has been destroyed and someone is backing Quinlan Town, they don’t respect us at all. If I hadn’t agreed to marry your sister off, all tens of thousands of our population would have been destroyed, not a soul left!”

Owen wore an expression of helplessness. As the town mayor, he naturally had to consider everyone in the town!

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4386 – He couldn’t put the entire Castenada Town in danger, just for his own daughter!

After hearing her father’s words, Judith gritted her teeth and said, “Father, I will deal with Harvey. I’m back now, so we no longer need to fear the Quinlan family.”

Upon hearing that, Lazlo quickly tried to persuade Judith. “Ms. Judith, you mustn’t act recklessly. Harvey has just broken through to the Ultimate Realm, and with someone backing Quinlan Town, their strength has significantly increased. You’re already injured, so you really should be resting properly!”

“Judith, don’t concern yourself with my matters anymore. This is just my fate. But don’t worry; if the Quinlan family takes it too far in the end, I won’t compromise. In truth, during my time away from home, I met a prince from Allardland and we fell in love! If I were truly in danger, I believe he wouldn't just stand by," Scarlett confessed.

She was afraid that Judith might get hurt because of her matters, so she quickly spoke up!

"What? You know the prince of Allardland? And you two are in love?"

Owen looked at Scarlett in disbelief.

Meanwhile, Lazlo from the side chimed in, "Mr.

Castenada, although Ms. Scarlett has fallen in love with Prince Cedric from Allardland, King Bernard doesn't approve of her. When I found Ms. Scarlett, she was on the brink of being driven out of Allardland!"

Upon hearing this, Owen's previously excited expression instantly fell.

"Mr. Lazlo, didn't Mr. Chance tell you? King Bernard has finally agreed, and Cedric is also looking everywhere for me," Scarlett quickly said.

"Ms. Scarlett, those are just Mr. Chance's words. Who knows if they're true or not? Let's first trick Harvey into leaving, shall we? If he insists on sticking around our Castenada Town, that's going to be a real hassle. Who knows how many young and married women in our town will suffer!" Lazlo exclaimed.

"Right, we must first trick Harvey away..." Owen said.

"Judith, please don't go out there! Let me handle this situation myself!" Scarlett urged Judith, then followed Lazlo and Owen out.

When they arrived at the hall, there was Harvey, already seated. Behind him were two Eighth Level Tribulator cultivators.

Moreover, Harvey himself was subtly exuding a certain aura, the aura of an Ultimate Realm cultivator!

This was clearly a show-off, designed to put some pressure on the Castenada family!

The moment Harvey laid his eyes on Scarlett, they lit up. He promptly stood up, a lecherous grin spreading across his face. "Lettie, do you have any idea how much I've missed you all this time? If it weren't for my debilitating longing for you, my strength might have been greater by now. Unfortunately, I've only just managed to break through to the Ultimate Realm..."

Harvey intentionally put emphasis on the words "the Ultimate Realm."

Scarlette merely gave Harvey a cold glance before completely ignoring him!

Upon seeing the situation, Owen managed to squeeze out a slight smile. He walked up to Harvey and said, "Mr. Harvey, congratulations on advancing to the Ultimate Realm. Truly, you are a giant among men. There aren't many in our entire eastern region who have achieved the Ultimate Realm."

Owen was all praises for Harvey. His first priority was to keep the younger man in high spirits. Otherwise, if he were to lose his temper, Owen feared no one in Castenada Town would be able to stand up to him!

Indeed, after hearing Owen's words, a faint smile appeared on Harvey's lips. He said, "Mr. Castenada, thank you for your praise. Once I marry Lettie, we will become family. If anyone dares to bully the Castenada family, I, Harvey Quinlan, will be the first to object!"

"Mr. Harvey, seeing as Lettie just returned home, I think it would be best to let her settle her emotions for a few days before discussing your marriage."

Owen wanted to buy some time.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4387 – Upon hearing this, Harvey's face, which had just been smiling, instantly turned cold. His voice was icy as he said, "I didn't come to the Castenada residence this time to negotiate with you. Since Scarlette has returned, we must get married. If you don't want to let her marry me, that's fine too. Let me have my fun with her for a few days, and if I tire of her, I'll leave immediately!"

Harvey had the audacity to utter such words in public, and even in the Castenada residence. Clearly, his arrogance was absolutely off the charts!

"Harvey, you absolute b*stard!"

Upon hearing this, Scarlette's face instantly flushed with anger. She wished she could kill him on the spot!

"Mr. Harvey, you've gone a bit too far!"

Owen frowned, his eyes filled with unmistakable fury.

Harvey had gone too far. What sort of woman did he think Scarlette was?

"Mr. Harvey, this is Castenada Town, not Quinlan Town. Even though you've advanced to the Ultimate Realm and brought along two Eighth Level Tribulator cultivators, if things really go south, the people of Castenada Town aren't to be trifled with either."

Lazlo spoke with a chillingly cold expression on his face.

Even though Lazlo didn't want to have fall out with the Quinlan family, he couldn't let Harvey be so arrogant. It was necessary to put the latter in his place!

“You’re nothing but a servant, yet you dare to threaten me?”

Harvey glanced at Lazlo, then with a swift wave of his hand, a powerful aura burst forth, engulfing the surroundings in a wave of intense heat!

Lazlo was utterly shocked. Unable to react in time, he was instantly sent flying by this overpowering aura.

“Mr. Lazlo…”

Upon seeing the situation, Scarlett and Owen immediately rushed over.

However, by this point, Lazlo had already lost all signs of life. His body looked as though it had been steamed, clearly indicating just how powerful Harvey’s blow had been!

“Harvey, you’ve gone too far, daring to kill one of our own in public! Even if I have to utilize every ounce of my strength, I swear I won’t let you leave Castenada Town today!”

Owen was thoroughly enraged!

With the surge of energy within him, his overwhelming fury practically blew the roof off the hall!

Castenada Town reverberated with the echoing tolls of a bell. All the townsfolk ceased their tasks before swarming in Owen’s direction.

They knew that when Castenada Town’s bell rang out, it was a sign of impending crisis.

In no time at all, thousands of people from Castenada Town had surrounded Owen’s courtyard, making it completely inaccessible.

Numerous individuals from the middle ranks of the Castenada family stormed into the hall. Even though they were in the Tribulator Realm, they were merely at the fifth or sixth level of the realm.

In the face of Harvey’s Ultimate Realm, it really wasn’t much to look at!

However, as these people gazed upon Lazlo’s lifeless body, they were all filled with intense anger. Even though they were clearly aware of their disadvantage, not a single one of them backed down.

Harvey found himself surrounded, yet there wasn’t a trace of fear in his eyes. Instead, a cold smirk curled his lips.

“You’re nothing but a bunch of nobodies, yet you think you can take me on?”

With a single sweep of his hand, Harvey sent all those people from Castenada Town flying backward.

Meanwhile, Harvey, along with his two subordinates, had leaped into mid-air, looking down on the entire Castenada Town from above.

Owen's fury reached its peak as he watched those middle-ranking members of Castenada Town killed by Harvey's single blow.

With gritted teeth, Scarlette shot into the air, heading straight toward Harvey.

However, Owen grabbed hold of her. He wouldn't just stand by and watch Scarlette throw her life away!

"Lettie, I brought this upon you. Take any chance you can to escape. I shouldn't have let Lazlo bring you back."

At this point, Owen was filled with regret. Since Scarlette had run away, he shouldn't have bothered to bring her back.

"Father, I don't blame you, I don't blame you..."

Scarlette burst into tears.

Owen gently stroked Scarlette's silky hair, his eyes filled with resolve. Without hesitation, he threw a powerful punch toward Harvey.

The strength of a Top Level Tribulator cultivator exploded in its entirety at this moment!

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4388– Confronted with Owen's furious punch, Harvey's lips curled up slightly, his eyes filled with disdain. Ever since he had broken through the Tribulator Realm and reached the Ultimate Realm, he had no respect for these Tribulator Realm cultivators anymore!

Right after Owen was within arm's reach, Harvey threw a punch. Surprisingly, this punch was laced with a hint of internal flame!

It seemed that Harvey had received some guidance from Skylar, and it was precisely because of this that he was able to break through to the Ultimate Realm.

Boom!

Their fists clashed, instantly causing an explosive sound that shook the earth..

The entire Castenada Town was rocked by a tremor. Subsequently, everyone saw a figure rapidly plummeting from mid-air!

It was Owen. Owen had severe burns on his chest, and he was spitting out a large amount of blood from his mouth.

After Owen fell to the ground, his impact created a deep crater that was over ten meters in depth!

“Father!”

“Mr. Castenada!”

Scarlette lunged forward, and the townsfolk also surged toward the giant crater.

When Scarlette brought Owen out of the crater, he was barely hanging onto a thread of life, his face deathly pale.

Everyone in Castenada Town glared at Harvey, their eyes filled with anger.

With a detached expression, Harvey looked down upon the crowd and said, “If any of you are not satisfied, you’re welcome to challenge me.”

“Kill him!” someone yelled in anger before charging toward Harvey.

Subsequently, more people began to take action against Harvey.

Upon seeing the situation, the two subordinates trailing behind Harvey immediately stepped in front of him.

However, Harvey waved his hand. “You two step back. They’re just a bunch of nobodies. I can handle them with a mere flick of my wrist...”

Facing the townsfolk of Castenada Town, an unexpected flame flickered in the palm of Harvey’s hand. Immediately after, a surge of energy pulsed within him!

The flame grew larger and larger. Then, with a single strike of his palm, streaks of fire shot out, slithering like venomous snakes toward the townsfolk of Castenada Town.

“Ah!”

“I’m burning!”

“Save me!”

The moment they came into contact with the flames, they all let out desperate screams!

In merely the blink of an eye, dozens of Castenada Town’s residents met a tragic end!

At that moment, a wave of fear washed over the remaining members of Castenada Town. No one dared to initiate an attack anymore.

The difference in strength between them and Harvey was simply too vast!

It was like an insurmountable chasm!

At this moment, Owen could only watch helplessly as the people of his town perished, utterly powerless to do anything!

Harvey looked at Scarlett and spoke. "Scarlette, if you undress now and sleep with me, I might just spare your pathetic town. If you refuse, then I'll have no choice but to take action and wipe your town off the map!"

Scarlette glared at Harvey in resentment, yet she couldn't utter a single word.

"Ms. Scarlett, don't agree to his proposal, we..."

The townsfolk of Castenada Town fearlessly tried to intervene. However, before they could finish speaking, they were abruptly cut off by Harvey flicking his finger, sending a spiritual light that instantly slayed them.

"Scarlette, think it over carefully. I'll give you some time to ponder, but during this time, I won't stop eliminating the people of your town, not until you give your consent!"

After Harvey finished speaking, he struck down with a palm from above.

Boom!

Dozens of people from Castenada Town were instantly obliterated with that one blow.

Even though they had reached the Tribulator Realm, they still didn't have the slightest ability to resist.

"No!"

Upon witnessing the tragic deaths, Scarlett let out a loud roar.

But immediately after that, Harvey struck out with his palm again, causing dozens to perish once more!

"I agree! I'll do it! As long as you let the people of our town go, I'll let you do as you please..."

Scarlette had given in!

Just as Harvey was basking in his triumph, ready to seize Scarlett, a voice echoed from the distance.

“How does a mere Ultimate Realm Level One fellow dare to be so audacious?”

Upon hearing this voice, Scarlett’s eyes instantly lit up.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4389 – “Mr. Chance, Mr. Chance!”

Scarlette was shouting loudly, and there before her eyes, the figure of Jared was drawing nearer from the distance!

The people of Castenada Town were beyond thrilled when they saw help had arrived.

Harvey frowned, watching Jared approach from a distance. He hadn’t expected someone to interfere.

However, when Jared came closer, Harvey instantly burst into laughter.

He’s but a mere Seventh Level Tribulator, yet he’s acting like he’s some big shot!

Upon seeing Jared’s cultivation level, the excitement of the people of Castenada Town faded instantly.

With this level of capability, there was no way he could save them.

Only Scarlett was still slightly trembling, excitedly watching Jared.

Although Jared was only a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator, the strength he exhibited was far from ordinary!

This was something Scarlett was well aware of!

“Kid, you’re just a Seventh Level Tribulator, yet you dare to join the fray. Are you seeking death?”

Harvey looked at Jared, his face filled with disdain as he spoke.

Jared didn’t pay him any attention. Instead, he glanced at Scarlett and asked, “Are you all right?”

Scarlette was, after all, Cedric’s girlfriend. Given that Allardland had treated Jared well, it was only right for him to ensure Scarlett’s safety.

“Mr. Chance, I’m fine...”

Scarlette nodded.

Once he confirmed that Scarlett was unharmed, Jared finally shifted his gaze to Harvey.

Upon seeing Jared, a minor cultivator, blatantly disregarding him, Harvey was instantly filled with rage.

“Didn’t you f*cking hear me? If you value your life, get the f*ck out of here. You think you can meddle in my affairs? Don’t you realize your own limitations?” Harvey scoffed.

“Trash.”

With that one utterance from Jared and before

Harvey could even respond, a streak of golden light flashed before their eyes.

Harvey’s head flew up high, then swiftly fell to the ground, finally rolling to a stop at Scarlett’s feet!

Subsequently, Harvey’s decapitated body plummeted, crashing onto the ground and stirring up clouds of dust.

Upon witnessing this scene, everyone in Castenada Town was utterly stunned!

Their faces were filled with disbelief as their mouths dropped open.

They never imagined that things would turn out this way!

Just moments ago, Harvey was an unstoppable force, decimating the residents of Castenada Town with no resistance. He literally held the lives of everyone there.

However, in the blink of an eye, this formidable warrior was beheaded.

That one stroke of the sword was so effortless and casual!

How could this be possible?

A Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator had somehow managed to slay an Ultimate Realm Level One cultivator with a single casual stroke of his sword. This was simply too outrageous!

Equally bewildered were the two Eighth Level Tribulator cultivators Harvey had brought..

They hadn’t even had a chance to comprehend what was happening when their young master was beheaded!

With a grand wave of his hand, Jared addressed the two cultivators, “Both of you, go back immediately and tell them that it was me, Jared Chance, who killed him. If the Quinlan family wishes to seek revenge, feel free to come find me!”

At that moment, the two cultivators finally registered what was happening. Upon hearing the name Jared Chance, they both shuddered and turned to run in a panic.

They were well aware that Jared was the very individual that the Demon Seal Alliance was rewarding a hundred-year offering for hunting down!

Jared slowly descended, and Scarlett immediately knelt before him in gratitude.

Seeing that, the entire Castenada Town followed suit and fell to their knees as well.

Though many were unaware of Jared's identity, anyone who could slay Harvey with a single stroke of the sword was certainly no ordinary individual!

Perhaps there was a powerful force backing him up. If that was the case, this could be their town's salvation. They wouldn't have to live in fear of the people from Quinlan Town anymore.

"I am Owen Castenada, the town mayor of Castenada Town. Thank you so much for saving us..."

Owen, despite his severe injuries, collapsed to his knees in front of Jared.

With a gentle lift of his hands, Jared exuded a force that everyone could feel, as if he was lifting them to their feet.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4390 – "Don't mention it. It was nothing," Jared said nonchalantly.

It was as though eliminating Harvey was as easy as crushing an ant to him.

"Mr. Chance, my father is severely injured. Could you possibly help to treat him?" Scarlett asked.

She knew that Jared was also an alchemist, well-versed in medical skills.

Jared merely cast a glance at Owen before nodding. "Though his injury is severe, it's not fatal. Sure, I'll help to treat him."

Upon hearing that, Scarlett was instantly overjoyed. She then ordered some men to clean up the scene.

Thereafter, she led Jared and Owen to the backyard.

Judith was still in the backyard, waiting anxiously without any idea about the situation out there.

When she saw Jared walking in while supporting her father alongside Scarlett, the worry within her instantly vanished.

She had been through life and death with him, so she was well aware of his capabilities

With him there, Quinlan Town no longer posed a threat to them.

“Ms. Scarlett, while I’m treating your father, I hope to be undisrupted. Additionally, there are certain resources I need Castenada Town to gather,” Jared said to Scarlett.

Although he had a considerable amount of resources, they were nearly depleted after his fierce battle with Skylar, especially with that Demon Annihilation Formation being a massive drain.

Moreover, he had expended a considerable amount of energy, and that necessitated gradual replenishment.

But without resources, he couldn’t possibly do SO.

Since he had helped Castenada Town out this time, it was only fair that the town requited the favor with some resources.

He was no saint, so he didn’t just help out for nothing.

“Rest assured, I will gather all of Castenada Town’s resources for your use, Mr. Chance!”

After Scarlett had said that, she immediately set off to gather resources.

Meanwhile, Jared turned to Judith and took out

Ten Thousand Sword Sect’s secret scroll documentation device, handing it back to her.

“Thank you for this secret scroll documentation device, Ms. Judith.”

He knew that he would never have been able to master the incredibly powerful sword technique of Assembly of the Swords without it.

Judith took it from him and asked, “What happened to those Demonic Cultivators, Mr. Chance?”

“Most of them met their end by my hand. Only one managed to escape, but he won’t be much of a threat.”

Jared then added, “Your body has also taken quite a hit during the battle this time, and you need to recuperate for a while. So, don’t roam around too much.”

“Okay!” Judith nodded. However, there was a hint of hesitation in her eyes.

“What’s wrong? Is there something you want to say?” Jared asked upon noticing that.

“Mr. Chance, I’d like to know if can you heal my face,” Judith asked softly.

Jared nodded. “Yes, but your face has been disfigured for too long, so a lot of mystical herbs will be needed to restore it to its original state. Among them, Myocyte Grass is the most unique and comparatively hard to find.”

In reality, treating the burns on Judith’s face wasn’t the challenging part. The real difficulty lay in gathering enough mystical herbs.

It was implausible for Jared to have a variety of mystical herbs on hand to treat every ailment.

“As long as my face can be healed, Mr. Chance, that’s all that matters! As for finding Myocyte Grass, I’ll figure out a way!” Judith exclaimed in sheer excitement.

All that matters is that my face can be healed. Then, I wouldn’t have to live behind a mask anymore!

As Jared began treating Owen, Judith left the room, not wanting to disrupt her father’s treatment.

Furthermore, she was keen to find out exactly where in the eastern region was there the mystical herb known as Myocyte Grass.

A smile finally graced her face. After all, every girl wished to be beautiful.

Likewise, Judith yearned for the time when she could revert to the days of her stunningly beautiful countenance.

By then, Scarlett had sent men to gather the resources of the whole of Castenada Town. When the townspeople heard that it was for Owen’s treatment, they were all extremely enthusiastic and offered up everything they had.
