

A WARRIOR UNDEFEATABLE /

A Man Like None Other

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4631 – “At first, I didn’t believe it either, but I saw it with my own eyes, so it couldn’t possibly be false. If you’re still skeptical, you’re welcome to come with me and see for yourself. You can decide whether you want to collaborate with me after that,” Jared said to Billy.

Quickly nodding, Billy agreed, “Alright, I’ll accompany you to check it out. If there truly is a vein of celestial crystals, I’m certain we’ll collaborate!”

If there truly was a celestial crystal vein mine, they would have struck it rich.

With that, Billy followed Jared out of the city, heading straight for the mine.

When he jumped off the cliff and entered the cave, Billy was completely taken aback.

He could have never imagined that such a place would conceal a celestial crystal vein mine.

“Mr. Hickman?”

Upon seeing Billy, Mia was somewhat astonished. She hadn’t expected Jared to have brought Billy over.

Her brother was also acquainted with Billy, for he had previously sold celestial crystals to the latter.

In fact, they were considered old acquaintances. Nevertheless, the fewer people who knew about the mine the better.

Therefore, seeing Jared bring Billy over Mia puzzled.

“Given our limited manpower, it’s impossible for us to mine the celestial crystals here. That’s why I brought in Mr. Hickman for a collaboration,” Jared explained.

“What about my brother?”

Elena didn’t care about any mystical stone mines; all she cared about was her own brother.

“Don’t worry. Once we’ve sorted out everything here, I’ll bring your brother over,” Jared reassured Elena.

In response, Elena nodded, as she still trusted Jared.

After all, Jared appeared to be somewhat decent, unlike Ezio. the latter’s lecherous glances and overall sleaziness greatly repulsed Elena.

After happily examining the celestial crystal vein mine, Billy excitedly said to Jared, “I’m willing to collaborate. Leave the mining of this place to me!”

“Alright then, I’m leaving this place to you. I have other matters to attend to.”

“When you’re done mining, leave the celestial crystals to me. I’ll buy them at a price higher than the market rate, so you will make a lucrative profit,” Jared said to Billy.

“No worries, leave it to me,” Billy said with a nod.

“Jared, you just handed over this celestial crystal vein mine to someone else and washed your hands off it, aren’t you afraid?” whispered Ezio.

“Trust those you employ, and if you doubt them, don’t employ them. Besides, all of you are here to keep an eye on things, right? I’m going to get Gordon out, so when the time comes, he will be there too, and nothing will go wrong.”

It was clear that he had placed too much trust in Billy.

As soon as he left, Billy immediately got in touch with Teegan.

Upon discovering the celestial crystal vein mine, Billy realized that he was incapable of claiming the entire mine for himself.

To maximize his profit, the best course of action would be to inform Teegan.

Only by aligning himself with the Buckley family could he reap the greatest benefits.

As for Jared’s trust in him, Billy didn’t care at all.

He simply saw no value in it.

Meanwhile, in Giles Manor within Beast City, Jared managed to locate Jaime, with the intention of obtaining a special release order. His ultimate goal was to secure Gordon’s freedom.

When Jared arrived at Giles, he was greeted by a solemn atmosphere, where everyone's expressions were grave.

Feeling the solemn atmosphere within Giles Manor, Jared asked Claude, "Claude, what's wrong? Did something happen?"

"Mr. Chance, the Buckley family appears to be marshaling their forces. It seems they might be planning to make a move against us. Therefore, General Jaime is actively preparing for battle," Claude explained.

"Why is the Buckley family suddenly moving against you? Isn't there a beast general there? What's his stance on this?"

Jared was utterly puzzled, wondering why Buckley Manor was suddenly preparing to attack Giles Manor.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4632 – "I'm not entirely sure. General Jaime simply told us to be prepared. As for the reason, I'm just as clueless as you are," Claude answered with a shake of his head.

Jared was aware that Claude was merely an ordinary foreign official, who wouldn't be privy to much insider information. Furthermore, among the many foreign officials, Claude was not even the most distinguished one.

"Where is General Jaime? I need to speak with him about something," Jared asked.

"He's in the grand hall, discussing matters with the leaders. Perhaps you could go see him later," Claude replied.

Jared gave a nod, intending to wait outside. He didn't want to get overly involved in the internal conflicts between beast generals.

Though he was currently considered a foreign official of Giles Manor, it was a circumstance born out of necessity. Sooner or later, he was bound to leave.

"Mr. Chance, General Jaime would like to see you..."

At that moment, the grand hall doors swung open. A commander approached Jared and spoke,

"He wants to see me?"

Jared was taken aback. He hadn't anticipated that Jaime was already aware of his return, so he followed the commander into the hall.

At that moment, within the great hall, there were only six commanders clad in armor and not a single foreign in sight.

It was evident that for confidential matters, foreign officials were not to be included. After all, they were just helpers or guests, not true members of Giles Manor.

“Jared, have a seat...”

Upon seeing Jared enter, Jaime slowly spoke.

Jared found a place to sit, then asked, “General Jaime, do you have any idea why the Buckley Manor is suddenly attacking?”

Jaime didn’t respond to Jared. Instead, he asked, “Did you leave the city?”

“I did...” Jared nodded.

Jaime continued to ask, “Did you kill Niel, Rex’s son?”

Jared was momentarily taken aback but quickly nodded in agreement, “That’s right, but he was tailing me, intending to kill me first. Could it be Buckley Manor is attacking because I killed their son?”

Jared found it somewhat improbable. Even though he was a foreign official at Giles Manor, he was just that—a mere foreign official.

He was the one who killed Niel, and it was entirely possible for Giles Manor to seek revenge against him. However, it didn’t make sense for them to create a huge fuss and attack Giles Manor as well.

After all, a foreign official was a guest, not someone who worked for Giles Manor.

“You killed Niel, but that was just the catalyst. Rex has already been plotting against us for some time. During this period, it’s best if you avoid wandering around Beast City, so that the men from Buckley Manor can’t have the opportunity to harm you. I’ve instructed my men to gather some resources for you. You can cultivate at the mansion instead.”

It seemed like Jaime had no intention of letting Jared leave the mansion.

Upon hearing this, Jared hurriedly said, “General Jaime, I want to obtain a special release order to rescue someone from prison.”

“No problem, but things are pretty chaotic in the prison right now. Captain Ricky has been killed, and General Cian is furious. The prison is under his jurisdiction and Captain Ricky was his subordinate. They are currently conducting an investigation. I’ll have Claude escort you there. Whoever you want to save, just get them out. I estimate that the prison will be in an upheaval soon,” Jaime said.

“Captain Ricky was killed by the eldest son of the Buckley family. I was there when it happened...”

Jared meticulously recounted the circumstances of the event.

Upon hearing this, Jaime couldn't help but furrow his brows. He then said, "Don't mention this to anyone else. Go and rescue your man from prison."

With a casual flick of his hand, Jaime handed Jared a special release order.

Although Jared was puzzled as to why Jaime didn't want him to disclose this matter because joining forces with General Cian against Buckley Manor would be a better idea, he didn't ask further. He simply took the special release order and left.

Jared followed Claude to the prison, using the special release order to free Gordon.

When Gordon stepped out of the prison, he couldn't hold back his tears despite being a fully grown man who was eight-foot tall.

Gordon turned to Jared and asked, "Mr. Chance, I can't thank you enough. I wonder if you happened to see my sister? Is she doing alright?"

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4633 – Jared turned to Gordon and replied, "Your sister is all right, but why didn't you tell the truth?"

Gordon widened his eyes in bewilderment. "What do you mean, Mr. Chance?"

"Your sister is clearly very beautiful. Why would you say she's just average?"

Elena was undeniably a beauty, yet Gordon had described his own sister as merely average.

"Really? But I honestly think my sister is just average," Gordon said with an innocent expression.

Observing Gordon's behavior, Jared was at a loss for words. I suppose people often overlook the beauty in their own family.

After all, living together all day, you tend to notice each other's flaws, and there might even be frequent fights!

"You should head to the celestial crystal vein mine. Your sister is there. I've already arranged for people to start mining. But don't worry, you'll also have a share in this."

Jared sent Gordon to the celestial crystal vein mine. After all, Gordon was the one who discovered it. There was no way Jared could dismiss him outright.

Moreover, Gordon possessed the strength of an Ultimate Realm cultivator, making him stronger than Ezio, Mia, and Elena. He could also keep a close watch on Billy.

After Gordon departed, Jared returned to Giles Manor. He intended to make the most of his few days of leisure by using the available resources to focus on his cultivation.

He needed to push himself to reach Ultimate Realm as soon as possible. Only then would he no longer fear the people of Beast City.

However, he was completely oblivious that at this very moment, Teegan had already arrived with his men at the celestial crystal vein mine.

Looking at the radiant celestial crystals before his eyes, Teegan couldn't contain his immense joy.

Ezio, Mia, and Elena were completely overpowered. As mere Tribulator cultivators, they had no chance against those at Ultimate Realm. They didn't even have the ability to fight back.

Billy turned to Teegan and said with excitement, "Mr. Teegan, now that we have the celestial crystal vein mine, we can really make a fortune."

"You've done well. Rest assured, the Buckley family will give you what you deserve. Who would have thought that you'd make such a significant contribution to the Buckley family so soon after joining us? How did you manage to locate this celestial crystal vein mine?" Teegan asked.

"Mr. Teegan, a cultivator named Jared Chance wanted to collaborate with me to mine this celestial crystal vein mine, so he brought me here. But he was unaware that I had already joined the Buckley family."

"Jared Chance?" Teegan frowned.

"He's the one who murdered your brother. He used a sword to seize your brother's beast core!" Ezio exclaimed abruptly.

He knew if they didn't choose to side with Teegan, they probably wouldn't make it.

And so, he betrayed Jared.

"Ezio, what are you talking about?" Upon seeing her own brother betray Jared, Mia was instantly livid. "Have you lost your humanity? Your release from prison was all thanks to Jared!"

"Forget about it. Staying alive is what matters now..."

Teegan glanced at Ezio and smirked. "Let him go..."

Having been released, Ezio immediately ran up to Teegan with a flattering smile on his face. "Mr. Teegan, I am also willing to serve the Buckley family. Please give me a chance!"

"Are you close with Jared?" Teegan asked.

"I think so. Jared was involved with my sister, so we're quite close. But my sister was coerced into it. Jared is very powerful. We had no choice but to endure and follow his lead," Ezio lied through his teeth.

He was the one who pressured Mia into sleeping with Jared, but he claimed that Jared had forced her.

He only said that to gain Teegan's sympathy.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4634 – "How confident are you in bringing Jared here if asked to do so?" Teegan asked.

His plan was to send Ezio to track down Jared, then lure him to the celestial crystal vein mine and capture him.

He had to avenge his brother.

Although he had been defeated before, he was now filled with confidence, especially since he had brought Riehl along this time.

Riehl was an array master, and with two people working together, they were more than capable of dealing with Jared.

"Mr. Teegan, there's no need to provoke Jared. The celestial crystal vein mine is now in our hands. He's definitely going to come. Our top priority is to start mining the celestial crystals. Then, we'll get ready. The moment Jared shows up, we'll just catch him straight away!" Billy piped up.

Upon hearing this, Teegan nodded and responded, "You're right. He will certainly return here to check on things. All we need to do is be prepared. Mr. Rundacel, I need your assistance to set up an arcane array around this mine. As soon as Jared returns, we must trap him."

"Rest assured, Mr. Teegan, no one can escape the trap I've set!" Riehl confidently exclaimed.

"Mr. Teegan, Jared is also an array master. He understands array craft too," Billy reminded.

Riehl huffed, "Even if he understands array craft, is he better than me?"

Billy was so frightened that he dared not speak any further. After all, he was clueless about Riehl's status and position within the Buckley family.

He had only recently joined the Buckley family, so it was best not to offend anyone.

"Mr. Rundacel is a senior array master. He's the best of the best. Just take your men and start mining the celestial crystals immediately. You don't need to worry about anything else!" Teegan said.

"Understood!" Billy nodded.

Riehl began setting up the arcane array, while Billy, accompanied by Ezio and a few cultivators from the Buckley family, commenced mining the celestial crystals.

Mia, Gordon, and Elena were both temporarily detained.

Jared, on the other hand, began to seclude himself for cultivation at Giles Manor.

He had an abundance of resources, which included the Demon Seal Alliance's hundred-year offering and the celestial crystals in Tavon's item pouch.

This enabled him to cultivate with ease and efficiency. His Focus Technique worked swiftly, constantly boosting his power.

With ample resources, Jared's progress in his cultivation was indeed swift.

A few days later, on a peaceful morning, Giles Manor was bathed in tranquility. The sunlight filtered through the clouds, casting dappled light across the courtyard.

Jared sat cross-legged in the meditation room, enveloped by a faint aura of spiritual energy. His breathing was deep and steady, seemingly in harmony with the spiritual energy of the universe.

As the spiritual energy surged within him, waves of immense power gathered inside his body, challenging the existing barriers of his cultivation.

Jared's face shifted between expressions of pain and unwavering determination. It was evident that he was at a critical juncture, striving to break through to Ultimate Realm.

Suddenly, the meditation room was flooded with an intense light. An unprecedented surge of spiritual energy erupted from Jared, illuminating the entire room.

For a moment, the entire sky over Beast City was enveloped in a dense layer of dark clouds, as streaks of lightning began to flicker ominously.

This sudden turn of events left the numerous cultivators of Beast City utterly bewildered. They even thought that it was the end of the world.

"D*mn, what's going on? Such a terrifying lightning tribulation. Did someone break through to Immortal Realm?"

"It's been a long time since I've witnessed such a terrifying lightning tribulation. The last time I saw one of this magnitude was when the city lord broke through to Immortal Realm."

"Are we witnessing the emergence of another Immortal Realm cultivator?"

All the cultivators looked up in unison, their eyes fixed on the sky where a bolt of lightning flickered amidst the dark clouds.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4635 – “What’s going on?” Jaime also emerged from the room.

Claude glanced at the room where Jared was cultivating and replied, “General Jaime, it seems Mr. Chance is about to break through to Ultimate Realm!”

After all, there were plenty of Ultimate Realm cultivators in Beast City, and it was common for cultivators to break through to Ultimate Realm.

However, no one had ever caused such a commotion when reaching that realm.

Jaime stopped talking and stared intently at the lightning tribulation cloud in the sky.

The sky appeared ink-stained, with dark clouds converging from all directions toward the mountain peak where he sat. Each cloud seemed to carry the weight of a thousand burdens, making the air feel heavy and oppressive.

Within the storm clouds, flashes of lightning roared, each silver streak darting like a dragon in flight, signaling an impending, unparalleled lightning tribulation.

Jared knew the crucial moment had arrived. He took a deep breath, closed his eyes, and felt the spiritual energy within him surge like a raging river, converging at his core, forming a formidable force.

He felt the spiritual energy fluctuations of the universe, resonating with the cosmos. It was as if he and the entire world had become one.

With the first flash of lightning tearing through the sky, the lightning tribulation officially began.

A massive bolt of silver lightning tore through the air, striking directly above Jared’s head with a deafening roar.

Jared gritted his teeth, enduring the lightning tribulation with nothing but his physical body.

However, this was merely the beginning of the lightning tribulation. What followed was an onslaught of additional lightning tribulations, attacking him like a violent storm. Each one carried a force capable of obliterating the universe.

Jared’s silhouette flickered amidst the lightning tribulation. Each strike of lightning brought him an unprecedented surge of intense pain as if millions of sharp blades were slicing through his flesh.

Yet, Jared did not back down. He gritted his teeth and persevered, using sheer willpower to sustain his body. He was locked in a fierce battle with the lightning tribulation.

Throughout this process, Jared's physical body was tested like never before.

The power of the lightning tribulation left charred marks on his skin, with some areas even reduced to a bloody pulp.

However, the spiritual energy within him was tirelessly mending these wounds. Each time it healed, his physical strength experienced a significant leap forward.

More significantly, Jared's mental energy had also been refined and elevated during the lightning tribulation.

He felt the divine force encapsulated within the lightning, a power so primal and pure as if it were the deepest call of nature itself.

He tried to comprehend this power, to sense its mystery, allowing his soul to resonate with the universe, thereby reaching a state of transcendence.

As time passed, the lightning tribulation gradually reached its climax.

Bolts of lightning, as thick as mighty dragons, descended from the sky. Each strike held enough power to obliterate a small hill.

Jared's entire being was brimming with spiritual energy as if he had become one with the thunder and lightning of the universe.

He was no longer merely defending passively; instead, he took the initiative to strike back, countering the lightning tribulation with lightning power. He demonstrated an astonishing level of control and combat strength.

At last, following a deafening roar, the final bolt of lightning dissipated into the horizon. The lightning tribulation clouds that had brought the thunderous calamity also dispersed, revealing the long-missed clear sky.

The room where Jared resided had long since been reduced to ashes. He stood at the original spot, his clothes ragged, his hair a disheveled mess. Yet, his gaze was brighter and deeper as if he had already deciphered the mysteries of the universe.

At that moment, his heart was brimming with reverence and insight toward power, life, and the universe. He knew this was merely a new beginning. The journey ahead was still long and vast.

With a roar that was deafening, Jared's aura suddenly expanded as if it were about to shatter the universe.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4636 – In an instant, the fluctuation of spiritual energy around him subsided, but his composure and depth became even more profound than before. It was a unique trait of an Ultimate Realm cultivator.

A dazzling light sparkled in Jared's eyes, a reflection of the joy and confidence he felt after his breakthrough.

He could feel the surge of power within him. A satisfied smile played at the corners of his mouth. He knew that he had finally reached Ultimate Realm, marking a substantial leap in his strength.

Claude rushed forward and exclaimed, "Mr. Chance, congratulations on breaking through to Ultimate Realm!"

Only he knew just how incredibly formidable Jared was.

Though Jared was currently only at Ultimate Realm Level One, he didn't even see those at Ultimate Realm Level Five as worthy opponents.

Jaime also rushed forward, unable to hide his excitement. "Mr. Chance, your breakthrough to Ultimate Realm has stirred up quite a commotion, even more so than those who break through to Immortal Realm. Without a doubt, rumors will soon be swirling around the entire Beast City that someone from the Giles family has broken through to Immortal Realm..."

At that moment, Jaime was incredibly thrilled.

If people were to misunderstand, thinking that someone from the Giles family had broken through to Immortal Realm, no one would dare to mess with them anymore.

"You're joking, General Jaime. I've only broken through to Ultimate Realm. I'm still far from reaching Immortal Realm," Jared responded with a casual smile.

Deep down, he was extremely thrilled.

"General Jaime, I'm going to take Mr. Chance to change his clothes and freshen up," Claude said.

At that moment, Jared was in a state of disarray, his clothes tattered and worn, looking as if he had been struck by lightning. There was no doubt that he needed a good clean-up.

Jaime waved his hand and said, "Go on now..."

Jared followed Claude to freshen up.

At that moment, the entire Beast City was in an uproar.

The commotion was especially intense in the other two beast general's mansions. It was clear that the lightning tribulation was heading toward Giles Manor, which indicated that someone from the Giles family had made a significant breakthrough.

They wondered what breakthrough could have possibly attracted such a terrifying lightning tribulation.

At Buckley Manor, a commander reported to Rex, "General, it looks like the lightning tribulation was indeed directed toward Giles Manor. It seems someone from the Giles family has achieved a significant breakthrough!"

Rex slightly furrowed his brows and said, "I know, but what kind of realm must one break through to withstand such a terrifying lightning tribulation? It couldn't possibly be Immortal Realm, could it? Jaime is merely at Ultimate Realm Level Eight. Advancing to Immortal Realm so quickly seems nearly impossible!"

"General, is it possible that Jaime secretly invited a distinguished guest? Giles Manor is famous for hosting many esteemed visitors. What if it was an Ultimate Realm Level Nine cultivator who made the breakthrough?"

"That's impossible. Why would an Ultimate Realm Level Nine cultivator be a guest for Jaime? Besides, those who have reached Ultimate Realm Level Nine in the entire Beast City are rare. Otherwise, the three of us wouldn't have been able to assume the position of beast generals. Keep a close watch on the Giles family for now, but don't provoke them. Once Teegan has gathered enough celestial crystals, we'll make our move."

Rex couldn't believe that someone from the Giles family had reached Immortal Realm.

"Understood!" the commander nodded.

Meanwhile, within the ancient tree dimension in the prison, the city lord was fully engrossed in his cultivation. However, he was abruptly awakened by the terrifying lightning tribulation.

"Has someone made a breakthrough? Could it be another cultivator reaching Immortal Realm, causing such a lightning tribulation and disturbing my peaceful cultivation?"

The city lord furrowed his brows, his eyes clearly filled with a myriad of questions.

Beast City had been concealed for thousands of years. He knew all too well the caliber of the cultivators within the entire city.

It was impossible for a cultivator to have advanced to Immortal Realm at such a swift pace.

But the recent lightning tribulation was clearly not an ordinary one. It had completely disrupted his cultivation.

If it had been the lightning tribulation of an ordinary Ultimate Realm cultivator, he wouldn't have been disturbed at all.

"I guess I need to send someone to check it out..."

The city lord let out a soft sigh, then slowly closed his eyes.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4637 – At Giles Manor, after changing into a new outfit, Jared took a look at his resources and sighed.

Even though he had broken through to Ultimate Realm, there was not much left of the Demon Seal Alliance's hundred-year offering.

Even a significant portion of Tavon's celestial crystals had been used up.

So much resources were spent on just one Ultimate Realm. What would I do moving forward?

I wonder if all the resources of Ethereal Realm will be enough for me when it's time to break through to Immortal Realm.

"It seems I'll have to hurry up and gather more resources..." Jared mumbled helplessly.

Unable to catch what was said, Claude asked, "Mr. Chance, what did you say?"

"Oh, it's nothing. Let General Jaime know that I'll be making a trip outside the city!"

Jared had plans to visit the celestial crystal vein mine. It had been several days. He reckoned there should now be a considerable amount of celestial crystals mined.

"Mr. Chance, as you leave the city, please be very careful not to be discovered by the people from the Buckley family," Claude cautioned.

"All right!" Jared nodded, then left Giles Manor.

Jared, familiar with the terrain, arrived at the top of the mountain with ease. He gazed at the cliff before him, knowing that all he needed to do was leap down to uncover the entrance to the vein mine.

At that moment, a makeshift structure already stood atop the mountain.

Jared made his way toward the building, assuming that Billy had built it.

"Jared..."

Billy stepped out of the building and happened to see Jared. There was a hint of excitement in his eyes. However, when he noticed that Jared had unexpectedly advanced from Tribulator to Ultimate Realm, he was visibly stunned.

"You've actually broken through to Ultimate Realm. That's truly impressive!" Billy showered Jared with compliments.

"I just made it..." Jared responded with a modest smile. "Mr. Hickman, how's the mining of the celestial crystals coming along?"

"I've enlisted quite a few people these past few days and we've already unearthed a batch, all stored inside the cave. Would you like to take a look?"

"Sure!" Jared nodded, then glanced around. "Mr. Hickman, where are Mia and the others?"

Are they mining inside the vein mine too?"

"No, they probably went out to have some fun nearby. There's no need for them to be involved in the mining of the celestial crystals yet," Billy said with a laugh.

Jared didn't harbor any suspicions. He followed Billy, leaping down, and then entered into the vein mine.

As soon as he stepped into it, he immediately stopped. He glanced around, his brows furrowing slightly.

Billy's heart skipped a beat when he noticed Jared's expression.

"What's wrong?" Billy asked softly.

"Oh, it's nothing!" Jared dismissed with a shake of his head.

Hearing that, Billy secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

Jared had barely taken two steps when he halted once again, his gaze sweeping over his surroundings.

Billy was taken aback for a moment, then stood beside Jared. His eyes were constantly shifting as if he was contemplating something.

Jared turned to Billy and asked, "Mr. Hickman, while I was away, you didn't bring anyone else here, did you? And can you assure me that the cultivators you've hired to mine the celestial crystals are trustworthy?"

"Yes, the people I've found are completely trustworthy, and I haven't told anyone else about what's here. Don't you trust me?" Billy responded, his tone laced with mock anger.

At that moment, Ezio emerged from the cave. Upon seeing Jared, he exclaimed with excitement, "Jared, you're here! We've mined hundreds of celestial crystals these past few days. We're rich!"

The cautious expression on Jared's face noticeably softened when he saw Ezio.

"Gordon has been here, hasn't he?"

"He has, but he mentioned he had some matters to attend to. He left with Elena, but he should be back in a few days. When he left, I even gave them ten celestial crystals, which could be traded for quite a sum of money. After all, they were the ones who discovered this celestial crystal vein mine, so it's only right that they should have a share in it."

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4638 – Jared looked at Ezio, feeling somewhat distant. Since when has he become so sensible?

He even gifted them ten celestial crystals. It's likely because he has an interest in Elena and wants to gain favor with both Gordon and her.

"Take me inside for a look..."

Jared had Ezio guide him deep into the vein mine.

Inside, there were over a dozen cultivators mining celestial crystals. Each of these cultivators was at Ultimate Realm, possessing extraordinary strength.

Jared was quite astonishing at how Billy could gather so many Ultimate Realm cultivators, only to have them engage in such disgraceful acts. He truly had some skills.

Jared stared at the celestial crystal on the wall, then reached out and touched it.

A murderous intent instantly flashed in his eyes.

He turned to Billy and asked, "Mr. Hickman, nobody has been giving you trouble these past few days, right?"

"No, this place is so secluded. Nobody knows about it. How could anyone possibly cause trouble here!" Billy said with a laugh.

"Then who set up the arcane array within this vein mine?"

Suddenly, Jared's face grew cold. An aura of lethal intent radiated from him.

"Arcane array? What arcane array? I don't know anything about it..."

Billy still wanted to play dumb.

However, at that moment, Ezio's complexion paled, and his eyes darted around evasively, unable to meet Jared's gaze.

He was clearly feeling guilty.

"Stop pretending. It's pointless to continue since I've already seen through it!" Jared said in a cold voice.

Upon realizing that Jared had already caught on, Billy decided to drop the act. He turned to Jared and said, "Jared, I didn't want things to turn out this way either. But this vein mine is so important. There's just no way we could have kept it to ourselves. Even if you've managed to reach Ultimate Realm, what difference does it make? This vein mine will be discovered by others sooner or later. Rather than having it stolen when that time comes, wouldn't it be better to find a strong partner to collaborate with in advance?"

A surge of anger ignited within Jared. He had placed such trust in Billy, only to find himself betrayed in just a few days.

He shifted his gaze onto Ezio, who seemed to be in league with Billy.

Gordon and Elena must be in danger!

"It seems you've already found yourself a powerful partner. But I wonder, is this partner of yours truly as strong as you think?"

Jared's aura was surging. He was ready to strike at any moment.

Unfazed, Billy looked at Jared and said, "Of course. I won't deny that I've already informed Mr. Teegan from the Buckley family about this mine. Moreover, all the cultivators working here are men from the Buckley family. I intended to share some of the crystals with you. But who would have thought you'd go and kill Niel? Now that you've created a deep-seated grudge with the Buckley family, I can't be blamed for this. However, Mr. Teegan has made it clear that if you surrender willingly, he promises to spare your life!"

With the backing of the Buckley family, Billy was not in the least bit afraid of Jared. Besides, an arcane array specifically targeting Jared had already been set up by Riehl.

Once he activated the arcane array, Jared would immediately be bound, posing no threat at all.

Upon hearing that Billy had actually sided with the Buckley family, Jared grew livid.

While he had been searching for Billy, Billy had already aligned himself with the Buckley family. At that moment, Jared felt a surge of annoyance. He had placed too much trust in him.

However, since they were not within Beast City, Jared wasn't concerned, even with Billy's backing from the Buckley family. Additionally, having advanced to Ultimate Realm, Jared cared even less about Billy's threat.

His primary concern was Gordon and Elena's safety, and he couldn't help but wonder where Mia might be.

He ignored Billy and turned to Ezio instead. "Where are Gordon and Elena? And where's your sister?"

"They were unappreciative and unwilling to cooperate, so they've been locked up. Honestly, I didn't want it to come to this either. But you've crossed the Buckley family. Your death is inevitable. If we keep following you, we're just heading toward our own doom."

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4639 – “I don’t blame you. When it’s time to send you on your way, I’ll make it quick. I’ll spare you some of the pain,” Jared said slowly.

A shiver ran through Ezio. He had witnessed Jared’s capabilities firsthand. Killing him would be as effortless as crushing an ant.

However, now that they had the backing of the Buckley family, Ezio was betting that Jared couldn’t possibly stand a chance against them.

“Hmph, don’t get too cocky. We might not be your match, but this arcane array was specifically designed for you!”

After Billy finished speaking, a documentation device suddenly appeared in his hand. Without a moment’s hesitation, he fiercely crushed it into pieces.

Suddenly, within the entire vein mine, astonishing spiritual lights began to shine.

The piercing luminescence permeated throughout the entire vein mine, and where Jared stood, he was surrounded by pillars of light that had congealed from the radiance. It was as if he was encircled by a prison of light, completely trapped within.

Upon seeing Jared being surrounded, Billy and Ezio breathed a sigh of relief, then burst into laughter.

“Jared, this arcane array was crafted specifically for you by a senior array master brought in by the Buckley family. I know you have some understanding of array craft, but breaking this arcane array is beyond your capability,” Ezio said with a laugh.

He knew Jared very well, including all his secrets. Now, Jared was trapped within the arcane array and there was simply no way out.

“Indeed, this arcane array has a unique feature. It slowly compresses the space around you, gradually squeezing your body until, ultimately, you’ll be crushed into dust. In that case, you wouldn’t even have a whole corpse left. You might as well surrender gracefully. Mr. Teegan has taken an interest in your magic sword. If you were to offer it to him, there’s a chance he might spare you, if he’s in a good mood!” Billy declared.

Teegan had long expressed his desire for the Dragonslayer Sword in Jared’s possession. As a swordsman, Teegan would undoubtedly covet such a powerful and spiritual weapon.

Jared laughed. “Do you two truly believe this arcane array can trap me?”

Billy scrutinized Jared, his voice full of disbelief as he questioned, “What’s the matter? You think you can escape?”

“It seems you still know too little about me. In Ethereal Realm, there’s yet to be an arcane array that can trap me!”

After Jared finished speaking, a rich aura emanated from him.

Billy's face went pale. He quickly unleashed a surge of spiritual energy, activating the arcane array to begin compressing, with the intention of crushing Jared into dust.

The fact that Jared was able to kill Niel proved he was no ordinary man.

Jared's strength had increased now. Even though there was an arcane array in place, Billy didn't dare to let his guard down.

Billy was determined to trap Jared within this arcane array. He absolutely couldn't let him escape.

However, Billy had no idea that Jared's array craft was not something any senior array master could compare to.

This so-called high-grade array was nothing but nonsense in Jared's eyes.

Jared had studied both divine and demonic markings extensively. This knowledge was directly imparted to him by Hellion and Divinus.

Even the simplest divine marking was beyond the reach of these so-called array masters of Ethereal Realm.

Billy glared at Jared. "If you continue to resist, I'll make sure you regret it..."

Jared smirked. "You are truly naive, thinking that such an arcane array could trap me."

"Jared, you should stop resisting. Given your relationship with my sister, I can put in a good word for you. It might just save your life!" Ezio said abruptly.

Jared glanced at him, his expression full of disdain. "You think you're worthy to speak to me?"

Having said that, he gently stomped his foot.

As his foot made contact with the ground, a surge of spiritual energy emanated from beneath his feet, quickly rippling outward in all directions.

Boom!

Accompanied by a thunderous noise, the entire vein mine began to shake. The pillars of light surrounding Jared disintegrated in an instant, and the arcane array was obliterated by the immense force.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 4640 – "This..."

Billy and Ezio stood dumbfounded, staring at the arcane array that had already disappeared without a trace. Billy, in particular, was utterly shaken, his mind reeling as if it had been struck by a thunderclap. He couldn't believe what he had just witnessed.

He'd been convinced that his arcane array was impenetrable, yet Jared had broken through it with ease! This was the same arcane array that had cost Riehl a tremendous amount of energy to create.

Billy had even tried to challenge it himself and, despite using every ounce of his strength, had failed to make even a dent in it.

But now, Jared had dismantled it effortlessly. It was beyond comprehension.

"I told you before, this arcane array couldn't hold me," Jared said, his voice steady as he advanced toward Billy, step by step.

Terror overtook Billy's expression as he stumbled backward. His body trembled uncontrollably, and Ezio was no better-frozen in place, unable to take a single step.

They both knew they were out of options. If even the arcane array couldn't trap Jared, how could they possibly stop him?

"Stop him... seize him!" Billy shouted desperately, signaling the cultivators of the Buckley family to take action.

Their only hope now was to buy time. If they could stall Jared long enough, Teegan and Riehl would arrive, and the situation could be turned in their favor.

In response to Billy's order, a dozen cultivators leapt into action, charging toward Jared. Meanwhile, Billy and Ezio didn't waste a second and fled the mine, heading for the mountaintop.

The cultivators, however, were no match for Jared. Most of them were only third or fourth-level Tribulators.

Jared didn't take them seriously, but to avoid damaging the celestial crystal vein mine, he quickly left the mine's entrance.

Seeing Jared retreat, the cultivators believed they had scared him off and eagerly pursued him.

When they emerged from the mine, they were stunned to find Jared calmly hovering in mid-air, waiting for them. The cultivators exchanged uneasy glances before launching their attack.

"Hmph, ignorant fools," Jared muttered coldly. His palm ignited with internal flames that roared like a living inferno. Without hesitation, he swung it forward.

Boom!

The flames erupted, enveloping the cultivators in a blazing sea of fire.

“Ah!”

Agonized screams echoed as one by one, the cultivators were consumed by the flames and plummeted off the cliff.

From a distance, Billy and Ezio turned in shock at the horrifying sound. When they saw Jared eliminate more than a dozen Ultimate Realm cultivators with a single strike, they were nearly paralyzed with fear.

Reaching the mountaintop, Ezio rushed to where Gordon, Elena, and Mia were being held captive. He freed all three, knowing his survival now depended on them. He planned to use their lives as leverage to bargain with Jared.

Billy shared the same idea and shoved Gordon, Elena, and Mia forward.

After dealing with the cultivators, Jared descended onto the mountaintop.

“Jared, you need to leave! It’s a trap—a trap meant for you!” Mia cried out as soon as she saw him. She hadn’t realized that Jared had already dismantled their entire plan.

“Jared, spare me for the sake of my sister. She’s still worried about you!” Ezio pleaded, his voice trembling.

“Stop right there, Jared, or I’ll kill all three of them!” Billy threatened.

Jared, unfazed, shrugged. “Kill them? What does that have to do with me? We’re not related. If anything, their deaths mean fewer people to share the celestial crystal vein mine with.”

He continued walking forward, his calm demeanor driving Billy into a panic. If even the lives of these three couldn’t deter Jared, he had no idea what else he could do.

“Finally, you’ve arrived. I have been waiting for you, brat,” came a deep voice.

It was Teegan.
