An understated Dominance – Dahlia and Dustin Chapter 1443

After one hour.

Ian Bryant drove the Land Rover and finally stopped in front of a martial arts gym.

The martial arts gym is very large, like a school, with all kinds of facilities and projects.

There is a stone tablet erected in front of the gate, with several large characters engraved on it: The world's martial arts hall!

Balermo Hall is the property of Balermo Martial Alliance.

Looking at the entire world, the three strongest sects are Balermo Martial Alliance, mystical order, and Sword Sect.

The Balermo Martial Alliance has disciples and disciples all over the world, adding up to a hundred thousand people!

And most of them are elite!

Among the three sects, Balermo Martial Alliance has the most disciples and is the most powerful.

On the other hand, the witchcraft and mystical order is famous for its unpredictable ghosts and invisible means of killing people, which is the nightmare of all people in the world.

As for Sword Sect, the main character is strong!

The number of disciples of the Sword Sect is very small, but each one of them is ridiculously strong.

It can be called a monster!

The disciples of Sword Sect seldom show up, but every time they appear, it will cause a huge sensation.

Forty years ago, an earth-shattering event happened in the rivers and lakes.

A high-ranking member of the Balermo Martial Alliance bullied others and offended a disciple of the Sword Sect.

The disciple of the Sword Sect, with one sword and one man, forcefully reached the headquarters of the Balermo Martial Alliance.

And with his own strength, he fought against hundreds of top powerhouses in the world.

In the end, the disciple of Sword Sect died in battle, and all the hundreds of strong men in the Balermo Martial Alliance were killed or injured.

So far, Sword Sect has become famous in one battle!

From then on, no one dared to provoke the disciples of Sword Sect.

At that time, the Balermo Martial Alliance, which was hailed as the number one in the world, was defeated for the first time and was forced to write a history of humiliation.

“Is this the place to fight?”

Dustin got out of the car and carefully looked at the “World Martial Arts School”.

He is quite familiar with the Balermo Martial Alliance.

Although it is a gangster force, there is an official background behind it.

After all, it would be impossible to establish a foothold and develop in Stonia without the nod from the man in the Forbidden City.

No monarch would tolerate uncontrollable factors of unrest at his doorstep.

“What? Are you scared?”

Ian Bryant sneered: “If you are afraid, then admit defeat, kowtow to our Bryant family and beg for mercy, and express your surrender. In this way, you may be able to save your life.”

“Afraid?”

Dustin smiled faintly: “I’m afraid that you Bryant family disciples will lose so badly that you will be embarrassed in the end.”

“Hmph! Sharp teeth and sharp mouth!”

Ian Bryant curled his lips: “If you have the guts, come in with me!”

After the words fell, he walked into the martial arts hall with big strides.

Dustin followed leisurely with his hands behind his back.

At this moment, in the martial arts lounge.

Liam Bryant, was sitting in the middle, drinking tea leisurely.

On its left and right sides, there were a group of men and women sitting.

Among them were the children of the Bryant family, as well as some elite masters from martial arts schools all over the world.

When Dustin followed Ian Bryant through the door, everyone’s eyes swept over him.

All of them have bad faces and sharp eyes.

“Boy, I didn’t expect you to dare to come here to die. I have to admit, you are very courageous.” Liam Bryant smiled playfully.

In the past two days, he has sent people to investigate.

Dustin came from South City Province, not West Lucozia. Although he was a bit powerful, he was not worth mentioning to the Bryant family.

Therefore, there is no need to have any scruples in this battle today.

“Master Liam Bryant, it’s hard to say who will win and who will lose. I advise you not to be happy too early.” Dustin said calmly.
