

An understated Dominance – Dahlia and Dustin Chapter 1472

Chapter 1472

Seeing this scene, Owen Stratford smiled even more happily: “Dustin, do you see it? This is the surprise we prepared for you!”

“It turns out that you guys had a plan a long time ago, it’s really despicable!” Hazel Lancaster scolded.

“Haha... A soldier never tires of deceit. Why do you think you have no brains and you actually agreed to bet against us?” Owen Stratford said proudly.

“Our side is already overcrowded, but your side is packed with people. The outcome has been decided, so you might as well just admit defeat.” Isabela sneered.

Although the frame-up did not work, fortunately, the provocation method did.

It’s not in vain that they designed it carefully.

“Why are you anxious? We still have a chance before the sun goes down.” Dustin remained calm.

“What? Still not giving up?”

Owen Stratford smiled jokingly: “Okay, then I will make it more difficult so that you will be convinced of your defeat!”

As he said that, he took out his mobile phone and dialed a certain number.

Three minutes later.

A black Mercedes-Benz drove out from the corner and parked across the street.

The car door opened, and a well-dressed fat man walked out with his female secretary.

Immediately afterwards, shouts suddenly rang out: “Garcia Pharmacy Manager, order five million rejuvenation ointment!”

As soon as these words came out, there was an immediate commotion across the street.

Garcia Pharmacy is a well-known large pharmacy in Stonia, with hundreds of stores, and its reputation has always been very good.

As the boss of Garcia Pharmacy and a recognized billionaire, it is really surprising that he has now appeared in public and ordered five million rejuvenation ointments in one go.

“Ugh——!”

Not long after the Mercedes-Benz stopped, another Maybach arrived.

When the car door opened, an old man with gray hair stepped out on crutches.

“Chairman of Davis Group, order 10 million rejuvenation ointments!” the master of ceremonies’ voice sounded again.

At the same time, there was another commotion at the scene.

However, before the commotion subsided, a shocking scene happened.

One luxury car after another sprang up like mushrooms after a rain.

Bentley, Porsche, Rolls-Royce, you name it.

Whenever a luxury car stops, a famous big shot will step out.

The resounding voice of the master of ceremonies echoed one after another, resounding throughout the world.

“President Sterlingsheng Medicine has ordered 20 million rejuvenation ointments and congratulated our company on its successful opening!”

“Mr. William of Elliott Security Company ordered 50 million dollar of rejuvenating cream. Congratulations on our company’s financial success!”

“Chairman Damian of the Damian Group, ordered 100 million rejuvenation ointment, congratulations to our company for smooth sailing and wealth from all directions!”

“ ... ”

Seeing the rich people arriving one after another, the whole place exploded.

“Damn it! There are tens of millions and hundreds of millions of orders at every turn. Isn’t that too cruel?”

“Is the rejuvenation ointment so amazing? It actually attracted the richest people to rush to buy it?”

“The rich man is far-sighted and must have seen the potential of rejuvenation cream. We are definitely right to follow suit and buy it!”

Everyone was talking a lot and were surprised.

At first, they just watched the excitement, but they didn’t expect the situation to become so hot.

As a result, many people were tempted to place orders one after another, and the sales of rejuvenation ointment rose rapidly.

The situation is completely one-sided.

“Dustin, do you know the gap now? I’ll ask you if you accept it or not?!” Owen Stratford curled his lips, full of confidence.

“Clothes?”

Dustin smiled faintly: “Why don’t you look back and see who wins and who loses?”

Chapter 1473

“Turn back? What’s the matter? Can you still turn the world upside down?”

Owen Stratford sneered and looked back.

He saw that the entrance of my company was still very popular, and there were a lot of customers coming and going. Rich people, big and small, from South City University, all came to join us.

Other than that, nothing unusual.

“Dustin, how old are you, is it interesting to play such childish tricks?” Owen Stratford sneered.

“Hey, you can’t afford to lose, can you?”

Isabela said angrily: “We have physical evidence and a signed gambling agreement. No matter how you quibble, it’s useless. Just hand over the prescription honestly, so that you can save some face.”

“Who said we lost? Open your eyes wide and see, what’s over there?” Dustin raised his chin towards the far street entrance.

“Heh... come again, do you think I’ll be fooled again?” Owen Stratford snorted and didn’t look back at all.

It’s fine to lie to him once, but the second time, do you really think he is fool?

“Ugh——!”

Just as he was talking, a black Land Rover sped up suddenly and stopped at the gate of Lancaster’s branch.

The car door opened, and a burly man in a black suit stepped out.

“Abbott Group Riley Reid, congratulations on the establishment of Lancaster’s Medicine. To show my sincerity, I will order 10 million Jade Dew Ointment!” the man said loudly.

As soon as these words came out, the smiles on the faces of Owen Stratford and Isabela immediately froze.

They thought Dustin was just playing with them, but they didn’t expect someone to come to cheer him on.

“Thank you, Mr. Reid, for your support! Come here...inside please!”

Hazel Lancaster looked happy, and quickly invited him in.

Although the tens of millions of orders cannot be compared with the opposite side, it is at least a good sign.

“Brother Owen, is there a Abbott Group in South City? Why don’t I remember?” Isabela was a little surprised.

The Torby and Stratford families dominate South City, and all forces, large and small, are under control.

“Abbott Group is a force in Central city. If you guess correctly, it should be someone invited by Samuel Thompson.” Owen Stratford explained.

“So that’s the case.” Isabela nodded, but didn’t take it seriously.

It’s only 10 million, not even enough to plug the gap between her teeth, so she naturally didn’t pay attention to it.

“Dustin, you don’t think that the small Abbott Group can compete with us, do you? Then you are too naive!” Owen Stratford sneered.

How can a second-rate small force compare with a wealthy family?

“What’s the rush? The fun has just begun.” Dustin’s expression remained unchanged.

“Start? Hum...I want to see today what big waves you can make!” Owen Stratford looked disdainful.

As soon as he finished speaking, a long motorcade suddenly appeared at the corner of the street.

The fleet is all composed of luxury cars, each starting at a million dollars.

Sports cars, sedans, off-road vehicles, all types of models are available.

The motorcade was vast and neatly arranged, attracting the attention of countless people as soon as it appeared.

Finally, under the spotlight, the luxury motorcade stopped at the entrance of Lancaster’s branch.

When the car doors opened one by one, rich and powerful people in rich and well-dressed clothes came forward to congratulate him.

“Fred Hawkins of Cargill Group came here to order 20 million Jade Dew Ointment to congratulate Lancaster’s Medicine on its successful opening!”

“Cardinal Medical, I came here to order 30 million Jade Dew Ointment and wish Lancaster’s Medicine good luck in wealth!”

“Stella Williamson of Baxter Group came here to order 80 million dollar of Jade Dew Ointment to congratulate Lancaster’s Medicine business on its prosperity and wealth!”

“ ... ”

More and more rich and powerful people came to congratulate him and placed a large number of orders.

Its popularity and large number of orders are not weaker than those of its opponents.

Seeing this scene, Owen Stratford and Isabela couldn’t laugh anymore.

Chapter 1474

They really didn’t expect that so many wealthy people would come to support them in just half an hour.

For a moment, she felt a little nervous.

Because according to this situation, they really don’t have full confidence in winning.

“Thank you all for coming to support us. Please come inside, please come inside...”

Hazel Lancaster and Waylon Lancaster were so happy that they couldn’t help but greet the distinguished guests to come in and take their seats.

The market in South City has been occupied by the Torby and Stratford families. With the strength of the Lancaster Family, they can’t attract anyone at all.

Fortunately, the Thompson family is now helping, attracting all the wealthy businessmen in Central city. Otherwise, Lancaster’s Medicine would end in a disastrous defeat today.

“Mr. Thompson, I didn’t expect you to be prepared. Now we can finally have a showdown with the Torby and Stratford families.” Hazel Lancaster smiled happily.

“These are Xiao Rhys’s arrangements, I just follow the plan.” Samuel Thompson shook the folding fan lightly.

“oh?”

Hazel Lancaster raised her eyebrows and looked at Dustin in surprise: “Little handsome boy, how did you know that the Torby and Stratford families were going to do this?”

“They are all outdated means, not clever.”

Dustin smiled lightly: “Besides, even if they don’t play tricks, if we invite so many people to support us, it can be regarded as promoting Jade Dew Ointment, and it will not be a loss.”

“That’s true.”

Hazel Lancaster nodded, followed her eyes to Isabela and the two, and said with a meaningful smile: “Miss Isabela, Mr. Stratford, it seems that who will win and who will lose today is still unknown.”

Although the Torby and Stratford families were fully prepared, fortunately, they blocked every move they made.

“Hmph! Don’t be too happy too soon, we still have the advantage now!” Isabela said coldly.

“That’s right! We have many soldiers and generals, and the final victory must belong to us!” Owen Stratford held his head high.

Although the Thompson family invited many wealthy people to help out, they were ultimately unable to support themselves.

Because they are two giants joining forces, both in terms of connections and influence, they are higher than the Thompson family.

Even if they compete for financial resources, their probability of winning is at least 80%!

“It’s just a bunch of soldiers and generals. They can’t get on the stage at all. Next, is the real highlight.” Dustin smiled lightly.

“Hmph! Pretending to be a ghost! Even if you have the ability to reach the sky, you will definitely lose today!” Isabela shouted.

As soon as he finished speaking, a Rolls-Royce Phantom suddenly stopped by the side of the road.

Soon, a burly middle-aged man with a beard came out comfortably.

The man has a Traditional character face, thick eyebrows and big eyes, his face is not angry and prestige, and there is an invisible sense of oppression in every gesture.

“Um?”

Seeing the middle-aged man, Kevin frowned, and his face instantly became solemn.

On the other hand, Waylon Lancaster’s expression brightened, as if seeing the God of Wealth.

“Ethan Langford from the Langfords Family, congratulations to Lancaster pharmaceutical may business will be booming soon!” the middle-aged man said loudly.

As soon as these words came out, the whole place was in an uproar.

“What? Ethan Langford? Isn’t that the patriarch of the Langfords Family?”

“The Langfords Family is the head of the eight wealthy families, and Ethan Langford is a first-class official in the dynasty. Even such a big shot comes to support us. Lancaster’s Medicine is going to soar to the sky!”

“My god! What happened today? Are the gods fighting?”

“...”

After learning Ethan Langford’s identity, the whole scene exploded.

Among the eight giants, the Langfords Family is recognized as the strongest.

Not only is that family rich and powerful, but is also powerful, ranking first among the eight giants, unmatched by anyone.

No one expected that Ethan Langford, who usually lives in seclusion and never sees his end, would openly support Lancaster's medicine.

Such behavior undoubtedly dropped a blockbuster on the calm lake!
