

An Understated Dominance By Marina Vittori

Chapter 1935

"Guest...Guest...I don't know what you are talking about? Let go quickly, I can't breathe."

The middle-aged woman lifted her feet off the ground and her face turned red. Her body kept struggling, but to no avail.

In Dustin's hands, she was like a fragile chicken that could die at any time.

"Brother Dustin, what are you doing?"

Kevin Snow frowned, a little confused.

Taking action against an innocent civilian is not what a righteous person would do.

"Dustin! Are you crazy? She kindly gave us candles, but you actually hurting her. Do you have any humanity left?!"

Upon seeing this, Leo Alexander immediately reprimanded, looking filled with indignation.

On the other hand, Billy Ruso was drinking wine leisurely, like an outsider.

As for Margaret, she looked puzzled but did not speak.

She knew that Dustin must have his own reasons for doing this.

"There is something wrong with this person. She is trying to harm us."

Dustin stared at the middle-aged woman with no intention of letting go.

"Sir, I...I didn't do anything. You must have misunderstood."

The middle-aged woman looked frightened, her voice was hoarse, and she was weak and helpless.

"Brother Dustin, you said she wants to harm us? What evidence is there?" Kevin Snow asked.

"That's right! How could she, a country woman, have any bad intentions? I think you are just deliberately looking for trouble!" Leo Alexander shouted.

He had long disliked Dustin, so he took this opportunity to suppress him.

"The candle she lit is poisonous. If you inhale it for more than three minutes, you will feel dizzy. If you inhale it for more than five minutes, you will die. Do you think she has bad intentions?" Dustin looked back at Leo Alexander and asked.

Hearing this, the middle-aged woman's pupils shrank, and a look of fear flashed across her face.

"Nonsense!"

Leo Alexander didn't believe it at all and continued to shout: "It's just two candles, how could it be poisonous? People like you are suspicious by nature!" "

If you think it's not poisonous, you might as well get closer and smell it to see if you die in the end Immortal." Dustin responded coldly.

"You..." Leo Alexander gritted his teeth and wanted to retort, but he did not dare to risk his life.

The main reason is that Dustin's appearance is so determined that it is difficult for people to doubt him.

"This candle is indeed weird."

Kevin Snow was very upright. He actually walked to the candle and smelled it carefully.

Soon, he felt dizzy, and he was so frightened that he immediately blew out the candles, and at the same time used his true energy to protect himself to prevent the poisonous smoke from spreading.

"Even if the candle is poisonous, it doesn't mean it's the aunt's fault. She might have been taken advantage of." Leo Alexander argued bravely.

"It's not her fault, could it be you?" Dustin retorted.

"Hey! I'm warning you not to spit on anyone!" Leo Alexander's expression changed.

Although he did not poison, he did have the idea of poisoning, and now he is inevitably feeling guilty.

"If it has nothing to do with you, then you'd better shut up and don't hinder my questioning."

Dustin glanced coldly, then turned his attention to the middle-aged woman: "Tell me, who wants to harm us, as long as you speak, I can spare your life."

"Sir, I don't know anything, it's none of my business..."

The middle-aged woman kept shaking her head, pretending to be innocent.

"What, you think I'm so easy to fool?"

Dustin suddenly grabbed the middle-aged woman's wrist, turned her palm over, and said coldly: "Look at your own hands, there are thick layers on the fingers and the tiger's mouth. The calluses are the marks left by people who have been holding knives all year round. If you are just a waiter, how can you get such thick calluses?" As soon as these words came out, the woman's expression finally changed.

She really didn't expect that Dustin's powers of observation were so strong. Not only did he immediately notice that the candle was poisonous, but he also easily saw through her disguise.

The guy in front of me is obviously only in his twenties. Why is he more difficult to deal with than an old man around the whole country?

"Let me ask you for the last time, who ordered you to assassinate us?"

Dustin slowly pinched the middle-aged woman with his fingers until her face turned purple and she had difficulty breathing.

A fear of death suddenly spread throughout her body.

"I will talk...I will talk..."

After struggling for a few seconds, the middle-aged woman finally compromised: "The person who asked me to poison you is..."

Her voice Before it fell, a dense burst of wind suddenly sounded outside the window.

"Boom, boom, boom..."

A large number of hidden weapons were shot in from the window.

Like a violent storm, it was a completely indiscriminate attack.

"Be careful!"

Dustin's heart tightened, and he immediately let go of the middle-aged woman and turned around to block Margaret.

His body was shaken, and a shield of true energy appeared out of thin air, isolating all hidden weapons.

But soon, Dustin realized something was wrong.

Looking back, He found that the middle-aged woman had been shot with a concealed weapon and died on the spot.

It was obvious that the hidden weapon just now was not aimed at him, but to kill her and silence her.

This shows that the other party is well prepared.

"It seems that tonight's power outage was caused intentionally by someone."

Kevin Snow said in a solemn tone: "Fortunately, Brother Dustin found out in time, otherwise our lives would be in danger." "

We just entered the village and we didn't offend anyone. After all, Who is so cruel?" Leo Alexander's face looked a little ugly.

Those hidden weapons just now were poisonous. If he hadn't been able to dodge quickly, he would have died.

"There are two possibilities, either there is someone with evil intentions and intends to kill people and get goods; or, there is someone who deliberately takes revenge."

Kevin Snow glanced at Dustin and reminded: "Brother Dustin, you have offended the Andrew Young of Stone Dragon Sect, so you have to be careful in the future. What happened tonight might have something to do with him."

"I'll pay attention." Dustin nodded.

Whether it was the Andrew Young imposed by Stone Dragon Sect or Thomas Grey of Flying Sect, he didn't take it seriously.

But if these people insist on messing around and doing all kinds of mischief, he doesn't mind killing them directly.

"Captain Leo, I have a bottle of detoxification pill here. Just in case, you have all of us take one."

Margaret took out a bottle of medicine and handed it to Leo Alexander.

"No problem."

Leo Alexander responded and left quickly.

Sure enough, as Margaret expected, everyone who lit a candle in the room was poisoned.

Those who poisoned them, this is to kill them completely!
