

An Understated Dominance by Marina Vittori Chapter 2029

“Give Master Ron a face, leave half of the things, and let’s go.”

Margaret gave the order, and everyone took action.

Those who pretended to be treasures pretended to be treasures, and those who pretended to be pregnant with spiritual liquid.

They said they kept half of it, but in fact everyone secretly hid some.

Although Yan Kang saw through it, he could only turn a blind eye.

Dustin’s force value has shocked everyone. They don’t dare to take risks, and they don’t dare to completely break up with him.

Maybe it will be a fight in the end and nothing will be gained.

After all, there are many forces hidden around this palace.

If the fight ends in a lose-lose situation, others may take advantage of you.

In this way, Margaret and his party walked out of the underwater palace calmly, carrying large and small bags.

Although the masters of Stone Dragon Sect and Flying Sect watched with eager eyes, they did not dare to act rashly.

Unless Yan Kang is willing to fight to the death, none of them will be Dustin’s opponent.

“I didn’t expect that we would come out so quickly, and we would bring so many treasures with us.

We are so lucky among misfortunes!”

After walking out of the palace, Kevin Snow Still a little scared.

After all, what they had just faced were the elite masters of Stone Dragon Sect and Flying Sect, among whom Yan Kang, the best master in the southwest, was in charge.

Such a powerful force is enough to sweep across one side.

Even if the Golden Sword Sect comes out in force, they can only temporarily avoid the sharp edge.

So at the beginning, he didn't raise any hope at all, thinking that it would be good to save his life.

However, the result was beyond everyone's expectations.

Not only were they fine, but they also retained most of their spiritual liquid and treasures, which was an unexpected surprise.

"The fact that we were able to get out of trouble so smoothly is all due to Senior Brother Dustin.

If Senior Brother Dustin hadn't turned the tide and defeated the masters of Stone Dragon Sect and Flying Sect, we don't know what serious consequences there would have been!"

While flattering Dustin, Lily Zhang expressed her love with her eyes.

"You're right! It's all thanks to Brother Dustin to calm down the situation that we can get so many treasures.

Thank you so much, Brother Dustin!" Kevin Snow immediately raised his hands and saluted.

At this moment, he not only admired Dustin, but also felt awe.

At such a young age, he can defeat the leader of the Flying Snow Sect, and his future prospects are limitless.

To him, he is a big shot that he can only look up to.

“We are all in the same boat and should take care of each other.

There is no need to be so polite.

If you really want to thank me, you should thank Miss Margret. I am just following orders.”

Dustin smiled lightly.

“Thank you, Miss Margret!” Everyone saluted.

“Everyone, I won’t say any more polite words. It’s not suitable to stay here for a long time. Let’s leave here first.”

Margaret didn’t talk nonsense. After saying hello, He led the people away from the dry lake and quickly hid in the dense forest.

She gave up half of her benefits because she didn’t want to cause any complications.

There are eye spies everywhere now. If we don’t retreat in time, there will be a steady stream of troubles in the future.

She can only let Stone Dragon Sect and Flying Sect bear these troubles.

The crowd did not rest. Under the leadership of Margaret, they chose to drive all night and retreat in the direction they came from.

They have already made a lot of money, and the treasure they have obtained is enough for a lifetime of prosperity and wealth, so there is no need to continue taking risks.

And Margaret was also satisfied after getting the spirit beads and Longdollar Qi.

This temporarily formed alliance team has returned with a full load.

The night passed smoothly without any surprises.

By daybreak, everyone returned to the edge of the oasis.

It is worth mentioning that Margaret's servant Wang Bo just arrived with a large amount of supplies.
