An Understated Dominance by Marina Vittori Chapter 2238

“Only when you have your own spiritual sword can the sword holder truly learn the art of sword control.” ”

In other words, ten years of hard training is only the basis for learning the art of sword control. There will be more in the future. It's a difficult road to walk.”

After Dustin finished speaking, he took another sip of tea.

“Ah? It takes ten years of practice before you can even get started? Isn't this too difficult?”

Liu Hongxue sighed, feeling her scalp numb.

The little interest I had just raised disappeared in an instant.

She was not a person who could endure hardship. She was asked to hone the sword body day after day, and it lasted for ten years. She simply couldn't hold on.

Not just her, ninety-nine percent of the warriors in the world can't do it.

“Although sword control is very powerful, if you don't have talent and perseverance, you can't learn it at all.” Dustin shrugged.

He Zengjin thought that sword control was very cool, and he tried it for a while, but later he was delayed due to some things, so he failed to master it.

Now, although he can achieve the effect of flying swords to kill people by relying on his cultivation and skills, it does not count as sword control.

Firstly, it is not that flexible, and secondly, its lethality is not that great.

“Forget it, forget it, I can't learn this kind of thing, I just need to be a salty fish.” Liu Hongxue stretched out and acted decisively.

“No wonder there are very few people in the world who know how to wield a sword. The threshold for learning is so high. At our current age, it is obviously impossible to start over from scratch.” Xu Yang shook his head and chose to give up.

As the saying goes, one minute on stage, ten years of hard work off stage.

Although sword control is very exciting, it is too difficult to practice. If you are not careful, years of hard work will be in vain.

“What a pity.”

Liu Rushuang sighed secretly.

She is very eager to become stronger now, so when she heard about sword control, she was especially looking forward to it.

It’s just that she didn’t expect that sword control is so difficult to master. Even those with extraordinary talents have to go through at least ten years of practice.

With so much time, she could master the sword sect’s secret skills to perfection, so why should she sacrifice the near for the distant?

“I do remember some basic techniques of sword control. If you are interested, I will write to you after I return to the restaurant tonight.” Dustin said.

“I’m not interested anymore. Just ask a few of them.”

Liu Hongxue picked up a lollipop, half-lying on a chair, put on her headphones, and listened to the song.

“Brother Lu’s kindness, I appreciate it, but I can’t practice this thing.” Xu Yang smiled and declined politely.

He weighed a few pounds and knew clearly that it was impossible to practice sword control.

Why should I owe Dustin a favor for a unique skill that I can’t practice?

“Don’t look at me. I don’t practice swordsmanship. Why do I need sword control skills?”
Yan Buqi shrugged.

“I don’t have any use for sword control, but the Sword Sect needs it. If Mr. Lu is willing to trade, I can help you make the connection.” Liu Rushuang nodded slightly.

“As for the transaction, it’s not necessary for the time being. Let’s talk about it when we have the opportunity in the future.”Dustin smiled.

He could use sword control as a gift to a friend, but he would not trade it for some benefit.

At least, he doesn’t lack anything now.
