An Understated Dominance by Marina Vittori Chapter 2319

Chapter 2319

Kassidy said, "What? She will definitely die?!"

Zizi's words frightened Kassidy, as did the two men's expressions.

They didn't expect the problem to be so serious.

"D*mn be*st! How dare you k!!! Noemi? I'll call someone to catch that guy right away!"

Conor was so angry that he immediately took out his cell phone and started shaking people.

Dare to assassinate the daughter of the leader of the Celestial Alliance; he is simply asking for death!

"Miracle Doctor Wang! What should we do now? Is my sister still saved?" After reacting, Kassidy couldn't help but panic.

She had asked Dustin to diagnose and treat him purely out of a try mentality, because she had no better way.

Now that she heard what Zizi said, she couldn't help but feel a pang of regret.

One was an unknown person, and the other was a famous miracle doctor in the world.

Comparing the two, she naturally believed in Zizi more.

"If it were anyone else, your sister would be hopeless, but fortunately I am here today. As long as your sister is still breathing, I can bring her back to life." Zizi said confidently.

"Then please ask Divine Doctor Wang to come to the rescue as soon as possible. When the job is done, we will be very grateful." Kassidy looked happy.

"Doctor Wang, the rest is all up to you!" Conor clasped his hands in fists.

“Don’t worry, I have my own sense of discretion.”

Zizi stroked his beard, then stepped forward and pulled out the silver needles on Noemi’s body one by one.

As soon as the silver needle left the body, Noemi’s body suddenly began to convulse.

A trace of black blood slowly overflowed from his nostrils.

“Doctor Wang, what’s going on? There seems to be something wrong with my sister.”

The sudden change made Cassidy instantly nervous.

Everything was fine just now, but why do all kinds of abnormal situations occur as soon as the silver needle is pulled out?

Even nosebleeds came out.

Zizi said calmly, “Don’t be nervous; it’s just a minor problem. The patient’s meridians have just been blocked, causing toxin accumulation. The removal of the silver needle will inevitably trigger some abnormal reactions. Don’t worry too much. As long as the patient drinks, “she’ll be fine soon with the medicine.”

“Cassidy, Doctor Wang’s medical skills are known to the world. With him here, you can rest assured.” Conor spoke comfortingly.

“That’s good.”

As Cassidy heard this, she couldn’t help but feel a sense of relief.

Divine Doctor Wang has a good reputation, and now that he is so confident, they believe there should be no problem.

“San’er, bring me my fairy water.” Zizi shouted.

“Yes!” The apprentice on the left responded, then opened the medicine box and carefully picked up a beautifully shaped jade bottle.

The jade bottle was only the size of a fist, crystal clear, and had some mysterious patterns engraved on the surface, which looked extremely extraordinary.

“Here comes the bowl!” Zizi shouted again after taking the jade bottle.

The apprentice on the right immediately understood and quickly picked up an empty bowl and brought it to Zizi’s hand.

Zizi opened the jade bottle and slowly poured the milky white liquid inside into the bowl.

Only a third of the way through, Zizi stopped.

“You two, do you know what’s in this bowl?”

Zizi held the bowl and swept it in front of Cassidy and Conor like a show-off.

“This liquid is as pure white as snow and smells of a strange fragrance. It shouldn’t be a mortal thing, right?” Conor was very cooperative.

“Of course!” Zizi said rather arrogantly, “To be honest, this is the fairy water carefully developed by me. Drinking it can not only heal wounds and eliminate toxins, but also prolong life!

Even though it only has such a small bottle, it is actually worth a lot of money! In order to refine the fairy water, I spent three years collecting tens of thousands of precious medicinal materials and brewing it using ancient methods for 7,749 days.

During this time, I needed to complete the process. It can be said that there is no mistake in the heat. It can be said that I have worked hard to achieve today’s results. If it were an ordinary person, I would definitely not be willing to take out such a treasure. Only the top leaders of your world are worthy of my attention. “

“Thank you, Doctor Wang! Your kindness will be unforgettable in the world!” Conor immediately raised his fists and saluted, fully expressing his respect.

“Doctor Wang, as long as you can cure my sister, we will be able to respond to your requests!” Cassidy also expressed her attitude very wisely.

As Alloy Marshall’s daughter, she was naturally not stupid.

Zizi said so much, nothing more than telling her that the fairy water is very precious, and if the disease is cured, the world will pay more.

She doesn't care about money at all, as long as her sister is safe.

"Okay, okay, with your words, I feel relieved."

Seeing that the two of them had understood his hint, Zizi stroked his beard, smiled, said no more, and handed Cassidy a small bowl of fairy water. "Miss Marshall, give your sister the medicine to drink." As long as she drinks the medicine, she will be able to get out of danger in less than a cup of tea."

Cassidy nodded, carefully took the fairy water, and then used a spoon to drink it one mouthful at a time. Feed it into Noemi's mouth.

Not long after taking the fairy water, Noemi suddenly reacted to the hospital bed.

Her body trembled as if struck by lightning.

The next second, a mouthful of blood spurted out, directly covering Cassidy's face.
