

An Understated Dominance Chapter 2361 - 2365

Chapter 2361

“What happened?”

“Did Dr. Rhys block that palm strike?”

“Oh my God! That was an attack from a martial arts master, but Dr. Rhys actually resisted it with his body, and he was unscathed. It’s incredible!”

“I didn’t expect that Dr. Rhys was so young, but he had such strong strength. He is really a hidden talent!”

Seeing that Dustin was still calm after being hit by a palm strike, all the disciples of the Celestial Alliance couldn’t help but sigh in amazement, and they were horrified.

After all, the old man in the black robe was a powerful figure that even their senior brother couldn’t deal with.

So at the beginning, when they saw Dustin stepping forward to fight, they were not optimistic and even thought that Dustin was seeking his own death.

However, no one expected that the ordinary Dr. Rhys in front of them would have such profound cultivation.

“Grace, could it be that Dr. Rhys has reached the level of a master?”

Noemi widened her beautiful eyes, looking a little surprised.

Although Grace had said it in advance, she still had some doubts in her heart.

After all, it was not easy to have a set of heaven-defying medical skills.

Many doctors couldn’t reach half of Dustin’s level in their entire lives.

But the key was that Dustin had not only amazing medical skills but also outstanding achievements in martial arts.

Noemi had never seen a genius who was both a doctor and a martial artist.

“Grandmaster?” Grace smiled slightly and did not deny, “I guess so.”

The person in front of her was more than a martial arts grandmaster.

He was a unique genius, a rarity in a thousand years, at the pinnacle of the legendary list, and his existence was unparalleled in the world.

His cultivation had long exceeded that of a grandmaster.

It was effortless to deal with such a small character.

“He is both a miracle, Dr., and a grandmaster. What is the origin of this Dr. Rhys?”

Kassidy was surprised and puzzled.

She had heard of almost all the young talents in the world, but she had never heard of Dustin.

Normally, a genius like this, who was both a doctor and a martial artist, should have been famous a long time ago.

However, the person in front of her seemed to have suddenly appeared in the world and remained unknown, which was really strange.

Either the other party was a reclusive master who was indifferent to fame and fortune, or he deliberately hid his identity.

Chapter 2362

“Boy! Who are you? Tell me your name!” The black-robed old man looked solemn at this moment, as if he were facing a great enemy.

He had looked down on Dustin before, but now, after seeing Dustin’s strength with his own eyes, he realized that this unremarkable young man in front of him was more powerful than Conor, the chief disciple of the Celestial Alliance.

“It doesn’t matter who I am. What’s important is who is instructing you?” Dustin asked indifferently.

“Humph! You want to trick me? It’s just a dream!” The black-robed old man shouted with a gloomy face, “Boy! I don’t care who you are or where you come from. If you know what’s good for you, get out of here immediately; otherwise, don’t blame me for being cruel.”

“Why, at this point, do you still want to continue pretending?” Dustin sneered.

“Boy! Don’t be too arrogant! I only used less than 10% of my power just now, so I let you take advantage of me. Once I use my full strength, you will definitely die.” The black-robed old man shouted fiercely.

As he spoke, his aura surged, and a strong wind whistled around him.

In an instant, a powerful pressure burst out, directly covering everyone’s hearts.

Everyone felt their bodies sink, as if an invisible force was pressing on their shoulders.

“Boy! Do you feel it? This is the pressure a martial arts master faces! As long as I’m serious, I’ll kill you like killing chickens and dogs!” The wind blew the robes of the black-robed old man, spreading out his hair and beard.

It looked particularly bluff.

“I didn’t expect that the old man still hid his strength. It seems that Dr. Rhys is in trouble now!” Seeing the black-robed old man’s aura change, Noemi couldn’t help but frown, looking a little worried.

Despite being a martial arts master, Dustin was too young and lacked foundation.

When confronted by powerful masters, he would appear helpless.

The black-robed old man in front of him has such a terrifying aura; obviously, he is not an ordinary master.

“I will immediately notify the masters of the Celestial Alliance to come to support us. We can’t let Dr. Rhys take risks for us.” Cassidy took out her mobile phone and prepared to call someone.

“No need.” Grace smiled faintly. “That old man looks powerful, but he doesn’t have any real skills. Once a fight starts, Dr. Rhys can easily solve it.”

“No way?” Cassidy frowned slightly and looked at the old man in the black robe.

“That man’s aura is unfathomable, comparable to that of our Celestial Alliance elders. How can he be called incompetent?”

“Aura can be changed.” Grace explained with a smile, “There is a secret method in the world. After practicing, you can not only hide your aura, but also change it at any time. “Although it doesn’t improve your own strength, it can achieve the effect of bluffing people.”

“You mean... that old man is scaring people?” Cassidy reacted quickly.

“That’s right.” Grace nodded. “If that old man is really a top master, why would he say so much nonsense? Just do it directly. You have to know that he is a killer. If he is sure to easily solve the target, why would he hesitate so much?”

“That makes sense!” Cassidy nodded in agreement.

Killers are immoral and don’t follow rules. In order to kill the target, they can do whatever it takes.

But the old man in the black robe was very abnormal.

He had been talking nonsense since he appeared and never really took action. Dustin repelled him for more than ten steps after his final palm strike.

It was indeed strange.

“Wait! If the old man is not strong, how can you explain his unpredictable body movements just now?” Noemi abruptly inquired.

“Dr. Rhys has just explained that although the old man’s cultivation is ordinary, he has practiced body movements for decades and specialized in a unique skill. His attainments in body movements have surpassed those of many martial arts masters. This is the root of his deception.”

Grace smiled and explained, “Of course, good body movements can greatly improve in combat, so when dealing with some innate masters, the old man can easily capture them. However, facing a master-level strongman, the old man’s strength can’t break the defense at all!”

Chapter 2363

“So that’s how it is.” Upon hearing this, Noemi and Cassidy suddenly came to an understanding.

After all this trouble, the old man was just a liar who was pretending to be powerful.

He looked powerful, but he was just an embroidered pillow.

Bullying the weak was acceptable, but when confronted by the strong, he could only intimidate them.

No wonder the old man in the black robe didn’t make a move when facing Conor earlier.

It turned out that he was not unfathomable, but he lacked the necessary strength and dared not act recklessly.

“Boy! I will give you one last chance.

Kneel on the ground immediately and surrender.

I can still let you live this way.

If you insist on being stubborn, I will crush you to ashes today.”

The old man in a black robe roared, his voice like thunder, rolling in with amazing momentum.

On the surface, he really looked like a master-level strongman.

“Don’t talk nonsense; fight if you want to; today, I want to personally learn your tricks.”

As he gazed at the clown, Dustin twisted the corners of his mouth.

This old guy was quite good at pretending.

He had seen through it, but he was still acting hard.

Without knowledge of the truth, you are susceptible to deception.

“Stubborn guy! I will kill you now!” The old man in a black robe yelled, and his figure dodged like a ghost several times before suddenly appearing behind Dustin and slapping his back with a palm.

Dustin’s strength was extraordinary.

He was not sure about a head-on confrontation, so he could only take the form of sneak attacks and strive to kill him with one blow.

After all, with his body skills, he could completely play the opponent around.

If he manages to defeat him, it would be ideal, as it would allow him to uphold his reputation as a martial arts expert.

In other words, even if he is unable to defeat him, he has the option to retreat without any harm.

Anyway, no matter what, he’s already invincible.

“Go to h-e-l-!”

Seeing that Dustin did not react, the black-robed old man's true energy gushed out instantly, gathered in his palm, and then hit Dustin's back heavily.

This palm was fast and fierce, and with the help of mysterious body skills, it was impossible to defend against.

Before the people watching the battle could react, the black-robed old man's iron palm had already covered Dustin.

"Bang!"

A muffled sound.

Despite the hit, Dustin remained motionless and refrained from activating his true body-protecting energy.

Because of his body's strength, he easily resisted the palm.

On the other hand, when the old man in the black robe hit Dustin's back, his palms were numb, as if he had hit a thousand-year-old black iron.

"How could this happen?" The old man in the black robe was stunned; his eyes widened, and he looked like he had seen a ghost.

Dustin had previously activated true body-protecting energy, so it was understandable that he could not hit the other party.

But now, he attacked very quickly, and Dustin had no time to activate the true body-protecting energy.

Chapter 2364

Normally, even a martial arts master could not use his body to resist his full-strength attack.

But Dustin did it, and he was still unscathed!

It was incredible!

Could it be that this kid in front of him was a martial arts master who practiced both internal and external cultivation?!

When he thought of this, the old man in the black robe trembled all over, and a chill suddenly rose in his heart.

If it were an ordinary martial arts master, he would not be too afraid.

But the master, who practiced both internal and external cultivation, was completely different.

This kind of person has no weaknesses at all.

Not only is his cultivation profound, but his body is also extremely strong.

Speed, strength, defense, including reaction, etc., are far superior to those of ordinary masters.

It is no exaggeration to claim that a master who practices both internal and external cultivation can defeat the majority with a small group of people at the same level.

One against two, one against three, is not a problem at all.

Of course, the master who practices both internal and external cultivation is powerful, but it is also extremely difficult to train.

The energy and effort he puts in are several times, or even dozens of times, that of ordinary masters.

The old man in black robe had been in the martial arts world for many years.

So far, he had heard of only five masters who practiced both internal and external cultivation.

And each of them was a top-notch master who dominated one side.

However, he never dreamed that he would meet a master who practiced both internal and external cultivation here today.

The most terrifying thing was that the other person was still a young man in his twenties.

Despite his young age, he possessed a terrifying strength akin to that of a monster!

It's over.

It's over, and this time it's an iron plate!

The more the black-robed old man thought about it, the more panicked and frightened he became, so much so that his body began to tremble uncontrollably.

Despite his exceptional physical abilities, he was utterly helpless against this dual cultivation master's unwavering strength and lack of weaknesses.

If he ran a little slower, his life would be in danger.

“Is this all your strength? Tsk tsk tsk... It’s so weak!” Dustin turned his head and looked at the black-robed old man with cold eyes.

Like a tiger looking down at a sheep.

The black-robed old man was so scared that his whole body shuddered, followed by a strange cry, and turned and ran without any hesitation.

His figure flashed wildly, split into several real and fake figures in a row, and then fled in all directions.

This was his unique skill, the phantom clone, which was specifically used to escape, and it worked every time.

He would only use this trick when he encountered an extremely powerful opponent or a fatal danger.

Use the phantom to deceive the opponent and buy time for him to escape.

He couldn’t beat him, so he had to run away now.

Otherwise, once he was caught up, no matter how skilled he was, he would just struggle to death.

“Ah?”

Seeing the black-robed old man suddenly fleeing, everyone was a little confused.

For a moment, they looked at each other, not knowing what was going on.

“What’s going on? Wasn’t he just shouting and showing off his power?”

“Why did he quickly flee, like a mouse spotting a cat?”

“What happened?”

The sudden change left everyone stunned.

None of them anticipated that the black-robed old man, who had been arrogant the previous second, would suddenly flee for his life.

The speed was so rapid that it was impossible to tell the real from the fake.

“Huh?”

Dustin was also slightly startled when he saw the black-robed old man fleeing in all directions.

He anticipated that the other party would rely on his physical prowess for a while, but he didn't anticipate that, after two palms, he would simply flee.

“It's really an old fox.” Dustin just felt a little funny.

He had to admit that the black-robed old man was too alert.

Seeing that the situation was not good, the black-robed old man retreated immediately without any dragging, and he didn't care about his face.

One could argue that he possessed the ability to bend and stretch.

Fortunately, the black-robed old man ran fast; otherwise, once he made a move, the other party would have no chance to run.

He was indeed quite capable of cheating and deceiving in the martial arts world while making a good living.

“Forget it; I'll let you go tonight.”

Dustin shook his head and did not chase after him.

With his strength, it was only a matter of time before he caught up with the old man in the black robe.

However, Dustin was too lazy to spend the energy.

The task of driving away the old man in a black robe and resolving the crisis of Noemi and others had already exceeded expectations.

If he meddles in other people's business, it will undoubtedly cause trouble for himself.

After all, this was the business of the Celestial Alliance, and it had nothing to do with him, an outsider.

“What's going on? Why did the old man suddenly run away?” Noemi looked at Grace, then at Cassidy, a little confused.

Everything just happened too fast.

The sneak attack of the black-robed old man led to his escape.

It took only one or two seconds, so she didn't react at all.

"They ran away because they couldn't win." Grace smiled and gave a reasonable explanation: "This kind of person can pretend to be powerful, but if they really fight, they will be useless. Seeing that they can't scare Dr. Rhys, they can only run away."

"Fortunately, that old guy ran quickly; otherwise, his legs would have broken!" Cassidy waved her pink fists, looking unsatisfied.

"Retreat!"

The killers nearby saw the old man in a black robe running away, and they immediately fled without hesitation.

The individual in charge of the entire operation was the old man in the black robe.

If they stayed here, wouldn't they be waiting to die now that even the person in charge has fled?

"Chase!"

Seeing this, the disciples of the Celestial Alliance drew their weapons and prepared to chase and kill the killers.
